Problem: During the time of the Messiah, prophecy will return to the Jewish people and the presence of G-d will dwell amongst us. (Joel 3,1) "And after that I will pour my spirit on all of mankind and your sons and daughters will prophesy." These predictions, too, are yet to be fulfilled.

Problem: One of the Messiah's major tasks is to bring peace to the entire world. In the time of the Messiah, there are to be no more wars, and the manufacture of arms will cease. The Prophet Isaiah (2:4) says, "And they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." Yet, Christian nations are continually at war and wars have been going on almost non-stop since the time of Yeshua up to and including today.

Problem: The New Testament itself claims that the prophecies concerning the Messiah were to be realized in Yeshua's own generation. Mark (13:30) clearly says, "truthfully I say unto you that this generation shall not pass until all these things be done." In Matthew 4, Yeshua is quoted saying that "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." Almost 2,000 years have passed and still nothing has been accomplished.

Problem: Nowhere does the Jewish Bible teach the Messiah would come once, be killed, and be return once, be killed, and return again in a "second coming." The idea of a second coming is a pure rationalization of Yeshua's failure to function in any way as a Messiah, or to fulfill any of the prophecies of the Torah or the Prophets. The idea is purely a Christian invention, with no foundation in the Bible, and created only to explain away why Yeshua did not return in the generation of his followers as the New Testament attests.

Problem: The Bible says that the Messiah would be descended in a direct line from King David. However, if G-d was Yeshua's "father," is it not somewhat ridiculous to claim that he is descended from King David on his father's side?

Problem: Why do some missionaries insist on distorting the meaning of the words of the prophets in order to substantiate their claims? (An example: The Hebrew term in Isaiah "almah" which means a "young woman" is mistranslated as "virgin." Honest Christian scholars now acknowledge that this is a pious fraud and now (see the new Protestant "Revised Standard Version" of the Bible) translate the word correctly. This is but one of many mistranslations or forced translations)

Problem: While on the cross Yeshua is quoted as saying, "Forgive them, Father, for they (the Jews) know not what they do." Why do some Christians insist on persecuting the Jews if Yeshua himself gave instructions to forgive them?

Problem: If his rising from the dead was so crucial to demonstrate who he was, why did this take place in secret and not in the presence of his "thousands" of devotees?

Problem: Yeshua claimed that he did not intend to change the Laws of Moses—"Think not that I have come to abolish the Law (Torah) and the Prophets, I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Whoever then breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches men so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven" (Matthew 5). Later on, the New Testament attests that he himself abrogated some of the laws, while his followers eventually abolished or changed nearly all of them. Personally I believe the New Testament to be less than credible in describing events where Yeshua supposedly broke the Law or changed the Law.

Problem: However, the Torah itself clearly states in many places that its laws are eternal, never to be abolished. And even the Christians acknowledge that the Jewish Bible is the word of G-d. If the Torah is eternal and Yeshua himself claims to have no intention of abolishing or changing it, why do the Christians celebrate the Sabbath on Sunday when G-d clearly calls the Saturday-Sabbath an Eternal Covenant? Why do Christians eat pig when the Torah forbids it? What reason can Christians give for not celebrating Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur which are clearly spelled out in the Torah? This same argument applies to hundreds of other Torah laws that are ignored by Christians.

On the other hand, Christmas and Easter are not mentioned in either the Jewish Bible or the Christian "New Testament"—these festivals are pagan in origin, adapted for Christian use. But Pesach, Sukkos and Shavuot are clearly spoken of in the Bible. On top of which, Yeshua nowhere requests that the Biblical festivals no longer be observed.

Problem: Christians teach the philosophy of "turning the other cheek" and "loving your enemy." Do you know of any Christian nations that live by this impractical ethic, or even take it seriously?

Problem: The many Christian statements about G-d being "Love" have been borrowed from the Jewish Bible and the Jewish religion. Among many such quotations from our Torah are: "Love thy neighbor as thyself"; "Love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt"; "And you shall love the L-rd thy G-d with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might."

If G-d is "Love," how can Christians explain the silence and indifference of the Church and most Christian nations while six million Jews were being gassed and burned by the Germans? Why the stone-like silence during the Six Day War? Where was Christian love during the Spanish Inquisition and the hundreds of pogroms inspired by priests and monks?

Problem: Judaism believes that G-d is eternal, above and beyond time. G-d cannot be born, He cannot die, He cannot suffer, He can not "become flesh," nor can He be divided into sections ("Father, Son, and Holy Ghost"). These are pagan notions. Certainly no "G-d" or "Son of G-d" could have called out on the cross, as Yeshua is supposed to have said, "My G-d, my G-d, why have you abandoned me?" If he was G-d's son, he would at least have said, "My father. . ."

Problem: If Yeshua was really the Messiah, why does the New Testament admit that all the rabbis of the time, without one exception, rejected his claim? Why was there not one man of learning, nor one prominent leader who accepted him?

Problem: If Yeshua was the Messiah, why did the overwhelming majority of his own people, the Jews living at that time, reject him? Why did his followers consist of a handful of people, almost all of whom were poorly educated? Why did his own family turn against him?

Problem: Who was in a position to judge if he was or was not the Messiah—his own people, who anxiously awaited the arrival of the Messiah, or pagan peoples who had no understanding of what the concept really meant?

Problem: Yeshua commanded his disciples to preach to the Jews only and not to the gentiles (Matthew 10), yet his disciples disobeyed him and did just the opposite. He clearly thought of himself as the Messiah of the Jews and of no one else. Yet, he was accepted by foreign nations and not by the Jews. Why?

Problem: If G-d has "rejected" the Jews for not "accepting Yeshua" as Christians claim, why have the Jewish People managed to survive 2,000 years of Christian persecution? How do Christians explain the miracle of Jewish survival? Why has G-d restored the city of Jerusalem and the Land of Israel to His "rejected" people?

How do they explain the fact that the Jewish people has re-established its national life in its ancient homeland, and is in possession of the City of Jerusalem? These are living historic facts without parallel.

Must not the Christians now acknowledge that the re-emergence of a Jewish State is indeed an unfolding and realization of Bible prophecy in our day? Does this not demonstrate that the many Biblical prophecies that speak of the return of the Jew to his land refer to the Jews and not to anyone else? (The Christians often refer to themselves as the "real Jews"—the "New Israel," i.e. G-d chose them because the Jews rejected Yeshua.)

Isn't this theological "slap in the face" the reason for the Pope's refusal to recognize Israel, and for Christian silence during the Six Day War?

Problem: The Prophets contain many prophecies concerning the end of days and the time of the Messiah that have not yet taken place. These will all take place when the Messiah comes.

Why do we need a Messiah in the first place? In order to teach the Torah to the world and to establish "The Kingdom of G-d on Earth." If the Christians have done away with the laws of the Torah, if they no longer regard the Torah as valid, what is left to teach mankind? Nowhere does the Torah suggest that it is to be abolished by the Messiah. On the contrary, the Torah is eternal, and the purpose of the Messiah is to bring us to the day when all of the Jewish people will observe the Torah and all of mankind will acknowledge its truths.

Problem: Nowhere does the Torah state that someone else's death can bring forgiveness to a person's sins. On the contrary, each man will be punished for his sins, and each man must repent for his sins alone. "The soul that sinneth, it shall die"; "Sons will not be punished for the sins of their fathers." The idea that someone else's death 1,900 years ago can somehow bring forgiveness from G-d for my sins is absurd and unfounded. Each person must return to G-d, each sinner must change his own ways and seek G-d's forgiveness.

Jews firmly believe that the Messiah will come. I, like the Jewish people, believe that man will not self-destruct, that we will not disappear in a gigantic atomic blast. Man is basically good, and G-d's Kingdom will be established. However, it is not enough to believe in G-d. Faith alone is not adequate—G-d demands deeds and action. G-d's revelation on Mount Sinai demands obedience to the 613 commandments spelled out in the written and unwritten Torah. G-d wants discipline, loyalty, and practice; not pious statements and magical formulas. Jews wait for the day when "G-d will be King over all the earth and on that day He will be One and His name One" (Zechariah 14:9).

Maimonides put Jewish belief into words—and I firmly stand by these words, "I firmly believe, in complete faith, in the coming of the Messiah, and although he may tarry, I daily wait for his coming." Such is my stance as well. Indeed, the Messiah is coming ... we can almost hear his footsteps. Will it be Yeshua?

Shalom.

LET US NOT BE DECEIVED BY "FALSE" MESSIAHS

"I believe with perfect faith in the coming of the Messiah, and though he tarry, nevertheless do I believe." -- Maimonides.

The concept of Messiah, the "Anointed One" of G-d who would one day come to redeem his people from oppression at the beginning of an era of World Peace has been the sustaining hope of the Jewish people for more generations than most other nations have even existed. The details about what this Messiah would do and when he would arise, however, have always been somewhat vague. Among the expectations of Messiah which seem universal are the following:

- Restoration of the Kingdom of David \(see, for example, Jer. 23:5, Jer 30:9, Ezek. 34:23\)
- Restoration of the Temple \(Isaiah 2:2, Micah 4:1, Zech. 6:13\)
- Regathering of the exiles, as described in Isaiah 11:12.

Beyond these "basics", conceptions of Messiah vary. Maimonides said Messiah would live long, but eventually die. He would be tested as a Warrior King, whom the world would follow into the ideal political state. He would be wiser than all men, and greater than all the prophets since Moses. There would be no change in the laws of nature, but society would be perfected.

Others saw Messiah as a miracle worker, who would reestablish Israel by supernatural power, and that his kingdom would be indestructible.

The ultimate source of all doctrines of Messiah is the Tanakh, especially the prophets and the book of Daniel, which in the Hebrew canon is classified as Ketubim or "writings." However, virtually every Biblical book is called upon by one sage or another to provide some insight about the Messiah. The Psalms and even Genesis, Numbers and Job are seen by some commentators as containing Messianic material. Distilling a clear, consistent picture out all of this material is a difficult task. On the one hand, Daniel 7:13 portrays Messiah as coming in great triumph "in the clouds," on the other hand, Zechariah 9:9 says he comes riding a donkey. In Daniel 7:14, he comes with power, in Isaiah 42:3 he does not even break a bruised reed. Sometimes it seems that Messiah is destined to rule the nations (Daniel 7:14), at other times it seems that G-d himself will rule (as in Isaiah 24:23). In one place he is presented as a man of peace, in another as a man of war.

Perhaps in attempt to make sense of such apparently contradictory Messianic images, the sages developed a "dual Messiah" concept. In this view there would be two Messiahs:

- Messiah ben Joseph and
- Messiah ben David.

The prophets spoke of a time of great trouble before the final Redemption. This time of trouble became known as "birth pangs of the Messiah," or heylei Meshi'ach. Before the triumphant Messiah ben David could come, the Messiah "ben Joseph" or "Son of Joseph," would lead the Jews in war and be killed in battle. Only after this would the Messiah ben David arise and take his place as ruler of Israel and the world.

Answer for yourself: Why have you not been told as a Christian that the Jewish concept of the "suffering Messiah" contains a belief that this "Messiah ben Joseph" would be killed in a military battle and not some other way; like a cross?

Answer for yourself: Should not our Christian doctrines and beliefs be true to the Jewish teachings about the Messiah?

Answer for yourself: What does this small omission and "oversight" affect one's beliefs in Yeshua being the "suffering Messiah of Joseph?"

MESSIANIC CONTENDERS AND PRETENDERS

At about the time of Herod the Great, Messianic expectations were running high. Not only was the nation oppressed by a foreign power, but according to Abba Hillel Silver, there was a widely held belief that the days of Messiah were at hand. Silver reports that, according to the popular chronology of that time, the world had attained the age of 5,000 years. As it was also widely believed the world would last only 6,000 years (1,000 years for each day of creation), and that the Messiah would reign for 1,000 years before the end of the world, it was evident that he was due at any minute. It was into this Messiah-hungry environment that Yeshua came with his version of Redemption, but before and after him were many others with their own ideas about deliverance. Some seem to have been well-meaning nationalists who were hailed as Messiahs by ardent admirers. Others may have been charlatans, fools, or mentally ill.

Judah the Galilean, about 10 BCE, is known to us from Josephus, who identifies him as Pharisaical in overall orientation, but with a strong emphasis on allegiance to G-d alone. He claimed it was shameful to pay tribute to Romans, and founded the movement known as the Zealots to oppose Roman domination. Josephus notes with admiration their determination and bravery, which indeed is legendary, yet it is evident from history that they did not usher in the Messianic age. [Jos., Ant. 18:23].

Theudas led a group of people to the Jordan River, claiming that he would miraculously part the waters before them. The group was intercepted by Roman authorities, and Theudas was beheaded. [Jos. Ant. 20-97ff]. A religious impostor of this name is also mentioned in the New Testament as an example of cult leaders who come and go. [Acts 5:35-39].

Josephus also mentions a Jew from Egypt who led 30,000 men to the Mount of Olives, with the intent of forcibly taking Jerusalem from the Romans. He was intercepted by the forces of the Roman procurator, and Josephus reports that the Egyptian fled, leaving many of his unfortunate followers to be killed in battle. [Jos. Wars, 2:261ff]. [See also Acts 5:35-39].

Around 133 CE, Simon Bar-Kosiba arose as a champion of Jewish nationalism, and was heralded by Rabbi Akiva as the Messiah, who renamed him Simon Bar-Kochba, "Simon Son of the Star." Bar-Kochba led the Jews in a revolt against Rome after Hadrian forbade circumcision, Torah study and observance of the Sabbath and Jewish holidays. The 3½ year rebellion cost many lives, and the Romans eventually won only by cutting off supplies to one stronghold after another until the Jews could no longer hold out. Bar-Kochba himself was finally taken with the last stronghold and Roman suspicion of the Jews and their religion was intensified, so the end result was a worsening of the Jewish condition.

Moses of Crete is a later figure who claimed he would lead the Jews of his island to the Holy Land without need of ships. A large number followed him to a cliff on the coast of Crete, where he commanded them to dive into the water, which was supposed to miraculously part before them. The sea was apparently not impressed by Moses, and refused to part. As a consequence a great many trusting souls met their death.

In the early middle ages, with the rise of Islam, (about 700 CE) one Abu 'Isa proclaimed himself Messiah and began to preach his own brand of Judaism, with a relaxation of the dietary laws, and the recognition of both Mohammed and Yeshua as prophets. He led his followers into a fateful battle in which he was killed, although some of his followers claimed he had merely disappeared into a hole in the side of the mountain. In any case he was never heard from again, and the lot of the Jews was not in any appreciable way improved.

In the later middle ages a new threat arose in the form of the Crusades. Ironically, the Crusades themselves were brought on at least in part by Messianic fervor within the church, which believed that with the coming of the new millennium on their calendar, the coming of Antichrist and the return of Christ must be imminent, and that it was therefore contingent upon Christ to seize control of the Holy Land, which had by that time been taken by the Muslims. In their zeal against the "infidels," the Crusaders also increased their persecution of the Jews, thereby intensifying Jewish yearning for a Messiah to deliver them from oppression.

Among the Messiah-mongers to come forth to "encourage" the people at this time was Moses Al-Dar'i. So certain was he that Messiah would come at Passover of the year 1127, that he encouraged the Jews of Morocco to heap up debts to their Muslim neighbors by agreeing to buy things at many times their actual value. When Messiah did not appear, Al-Dar'i's followers were left destitute.

During the Second Crusade, in the early 12th century, a magician/adventurer named David Alroy began an extensive propaganda campaign to rally a revolt against the King of Persia. He proclaimed himself Messiah to Babylonian Jewry, awing them with miraculous "signs." Legend has it that two Jews forged a letter from Alroy and sent it to the community of Baghdad, telling them to wait on the rooftops to be flown to Eretz Israel on the wings of angels. What ultimately became of Alroy is hard to say with certainty, owing to the lack of reliable documentation, but one report claims he was eventually assassinated by his father-in-law. In any event, Alroy, too, failed to usher in the "Messianic Age."

Maimonides reports that in 1172 a "Messiah" arose in Yemen. He told his followers to give all their wealth to the poor. When captured by the Arabs, who demanded he prove his claim, he told them that if they cut off his head, he would immediately come to life. The captors obliged, but the would-be Messiah failed to live up (so to speak) to his claims.

In the late 13th century, a Sicilian Kabbalist named Abulafia, or Abraham ben Samuel, began circulating apocalyptic literature. He prophesied Messiah would come in 1295, and considered himself either the Messiah or his messenger. He went as far as to call himself the Son of G-d (!), and in 1280 approached the Pope to ask his cooperation in restoring the Jews to their land. The Pope sentenced him to death instead. As the Pope died before the execution took place, Abulafia went free, but did Messiah come?

The fall of Constantinople in 1453 was taken by many to be an eschatological portent, and many rumors of Messiah began to circulate.

Around 1500, Asher LŠmmlin became the first Ashkenazic Messianic claimant. He supposedly showed "many signs and proofs" and won a large following, even among the learned. Men are reported to have smashed their matzo ovens in the firm conviction that they would be "next year in Jerusalem." When Messiah failed to appear by the end of 1502, many were so disillusioned they abandoned Judaism altogether.

David Reubeni was a man of charisma who believed he had a mission to restore the Jews to Eretz Israel. He denied that he was "the Messiah," but was nevertheless hailed as such by many admirers. Among his admirers was a proselyte who took the name Solomon Molko. These two joined forces, but were eventually arrested by the Inquisition. Molko was executed and Reubeni imprisoned.

The year 1666 was considered a Messianic Year by many at the time, and so the time was ripe for the most successful (in terms of followers) pseudo-Messiah to date. Shabbetai Tsevi was born in Smyrna in 1626. It so happened he was born on the 9th of Av, the anniversary of the destruction of the temple, which one tradition held should be the birth date of the Messiah. Shabbetai is reported to have been a brilliant student, but subject to extreme mood swings. Gershom Scholem believes he suffered from manic-depression. Shabbetai finished his studies at Yeshiva at the age of 15. From there he went on to study Kabballah. At one point, (apparently during one of his "manic" episodes), he claimed to have heard a voice declaring him Messiah. Shabbetai shocked many of his correligionists by uttering the Holy Name of G-d, as tradition said the Messiah would speak it again. Nevertheless, Tsevi gained a following, including Nathan of Gaza, who became his "Elijah." With Nathan's help, his following increased more and more, and many who at first had opposed him were eventually won over. In the climatic year 1666, the would-be-Messiah marched boldly into Constantinople, expecting the Turkish Sultan to be so overwhelmed by his presence that he would surrender the throne to him on sight. Instead, Shabbetai was arrested and detained in a fortress. Undaunted, he made his prison his castle, even holding court there for his still-loyal Jewish subjects. When audience was finally granted, the Sultan gave him an ultimatum: either prove his extravagant claim or die. Shabbetai not only backed down, but even consented to convert to Islam! The Jewish world was shocked. Many relinquished Shabbetianism at this point, but others accepted the explanation offered by Shabbetai's "court:" that the time was not right for redemption, and that in order for Shabbetai to save his people he must descend into the realm of Kelippah by accepting Islam! Shabbetai died on Yom Kippur, 1676, but there were still believers who had "kept the faith." Shabbateans who had followed their leader even into Islam were the forebears of the D  nmeh sect, which survives in Turkey to modern times.

Jacob Frank was one of several who claimed to be the reincarnation of Shabbetai Tsevi. He preached that the Redemption had not come in 1666 because the Jews were not fully repentant. Frank reasoned (if you can call it reason), that the people had not been repentant because their sinful appetites were not yet satisfied! Frank's "solution" was to indulge every impulse until it was no longer attractive; only then would men be ready to repent! This bizarre theology attracted many followers, but did not convince the Rabbis, who excommunicated Frank in 1765.

In modern times, the Lubavitcher Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneersohn has been proclaimed Messiah by certain members of the Chabad movement. Schneersohn was born in 1902, and later married the daughter of the Lubavitcher Rabbi at the time. He emigrated from Berlin to New York in 1941, narrowly escaping the Holocaust, in which most of the rest of his family was killed. When his father-in-law died in 1951, Schneersohn became the new Lubavitcher Rabbi. Under his direction, Chabad rabbis have gone out trying to reach non-Orthodox Jews to bring them back into Jewish tradition. This active outreach mentality seems to be a key in ascribing Messiahship to Schneersohn, yet it is only a minority within Chabad that actively proclaim him. According to Allen S. Maller, most orthodox Jews would not commit to him unless he succeeds in rebuilding the Temple in Jerusalem. (Zech 6:13)

We have seen that Messianic hopes can sustain a people through times of trouble, but false hopes can lead to disillusionment, and misdirected faith can lead to disaster. Attempts to calculate the time of Messiah are apt to lead to disillusionment. Rabbi Jonathan saw the danger of raising false hopes as early as the second century, when he warned "Perish all those who calculate the end, for men will say, since the predicted end is here and the Messiah has not come, he will never come." [Sanhedrin 97b]. Maimonides similarly warned, "Nor should a man calculate the end. He should wait and believe in the essential fact (of his coming, alone)."

Let us be careful not be deceived by Messiahs who are not Messiahs. Let us pray that G-d will send him when the time is right, and that if that time is our own may we recognize him, and until then may we work to give the world a taste of that Day, until it comes in fullness.

Answer for yourself: Are there any other past contenders for the role of Messiah worthy of a second look?

According to the Brit haHadasha, there arose in the days of the Second Temple a certain teacher called Yeshua -- of the Line of David but raised in the Galilee. This man accepted the title of Messiah, but did not emphasize the term in presenting himself to the public. Perhaps this was because he realized the disparity between his own idea of what Messiah must do and popular expectations associated with "the Messiah." Yeshua apparently understood the "dying Messiah" passages alluded to earlier as referring not to an abortive Messiah who would be killed in battle, but to one who would die with divine purpose. He believed his death would in itself be somehow essential in effecting the spiritual salvation of Man as a prerequisite to the political and material redemption of Israel and the world. Although the number of Jews who believed in him was significant, the larger part of Jewry, noting that the Nazarene had not initiated the "Messianic Age" as painted by the prophets, wrote him off as an impostor. He was betrayed by one of his own circle and given up for execution by the Roman government on trumped-up charges of insurrection.

Answer for yourself: Was this man "the" Messiah? What about the unfulfillment of the Jewish prophecies? Can we said with certainty that he "was" or "was not" the Messiah in light of the failure of such prophecies to be fulfilled?

Really we cannot use this criteria alone to justify if one was or was not the Messiah in waiting who was forbidden by G-d to assume such a role due to the spiritual failure of Israel to merit the Kingdom of Heaven and her King in the first century. Simply said Israel failed her calling to be a Royal Priesthood and a Holy Nation and therefore abdicated her ability to be a light to all other nations. This disqualified here from bringing the Kingdom to bear upon the world and withheld her King as well. Thus nothing certain can be said as to the identity of Yeshua, or anyone else for that matter, regarding the identity of the Messiah.

When the "True" Moshiach comes there will be no doubt. It is said, "His arrival will be as evident as the hand on your arm." Asking then if the Moshiach has come in those days will be the same as asking is "Is this my hand?" His arrival will be accompanied by the following:

- Universal peace and freedom.
- Resurrection of the of G-d's people.
- Regathering of the clans of Israel.
- The Torah will go forth from Jerusalem.
- Rebuilding of the Temple
- Resumption of animal sacrifices in the Temple, and
- All nations will come to the land of Israel to observe Succoth.

With the historical Yeshua came:

1. Instead of universal peace came the wars...of 66 c.e. and 135 c.e.
2. Instead of a resurrection, over a million Jews were killed and thousands sold in to slavery.
3. Instead of a regathering, there was diaspora.
4. Instead of the Torah going forth from Jerusalem, the Torah was declared dead.
5. Instead of a Temple being rebuild, one was destroyed.
6. Instead of the continuation of animal sacrifices, they ceased.
7. Instead of all nations observing Succoth in Jerusalem, the Holy day was prevented from being observed in Jerusalem.

All of these signs are found in Ezekiel 37, plus, more. Biblically, then Yeshua could not possibly be the Moshiach of Israel...at least not yet. Furthermore, no where in the Tanach is there found a prophecy that the Moshiach will come on two occasions. None...zero. But again we cannot rule that out in light of what is taught in the Daniel 9 prophecy. More on that later.

I am positive that Yeshua existed. I do not doubt he was of King David's lineage, but not of the bogus linages found in Matthew and Luke. Those linages come from the hands of Gentiles, as does practically all of the "New Testament." If a Christian can pull away from all the pagan concepts of Christianity for but a moment, they will realize that first and foremost, the Messiah is to be a man, a king like David, not a "G-d" as was Buddah, Mithra or Krishna. His purpose is to unify all Israel, not just Judah and to remove all the foreign influence found within it's borders. The Moshiach will return Israel to the holiness and the glory found in the days of David and Solomon.

I am sure that Yeshua believed himself to be the Moshiach and he, Yeshua, attempted to honor the messianic goals to remove the Romans, the Herodians and the corrupt priesthood. Unfortunately for him, the Romans, the Herodians and the Sadducean priesthood objected. They captured Yeshua and at least two of his lieutenants and summarily executed them for treason by crucifixion as was the custom of the Romans.

Paul, a gentile convert to Judaism probably from Mithraism of the city of Tarsus, had a gnostic experience on the way to Damascus. Mithraism entered the Roman Empire through the port of Tarsus from Persia in 60-70 B.C.E. He, Paul, then used Judaism as a basis of legitimacy and his pagan experiences as a basis of a new religion which eventually became known as Christianity. Conceptually, Christianity is much closer to Mithraism or Krishnaism than it is to Judaism. If you find this hard to believe, the you need to read "The World's Sixteen Crucified Saviors" or find Mithraism on the Internet. Chrishna alone has some 385 similarities with Yeshua of Nazareth. The evidence is staggering.

With most "Messiahs" that would have been the end of the story, but the great teacher's students claimed that he had risen from the dead, and that they had seen him alive and well on numerous occasions, that he had spoken with them and even eaten with them. They were sufficiently emboldened by this experience that they endured great persecution in order to proclaim the good news that G-d was indeed working a miracle of redemption not only for Israel but for all the world.

Answer for yourself: So...the final question: Can we today be certain that Yeshua is the Messiah?

Well....personally I believe, having seen all the evidence "for" as well as all the evidence "against", along with the hundreds of misquoted, mistranslated, and Jewish Old Testament Scriptures taken out of context as used by the New Testament writers...that for me time will tell. But I cannot discount 2000 years of history and how the world has literally been centered on this man from Galilee. So if I had to make a choice I would say that he was to be the intended Messiah of Israel but at that time Israel did not warrent the Kingdom and thus her King. But I don't know for sure and no one does. But we need to know these events that shaped and withheld the Kingdom of G-d being materialized on this planet. Time will tell for sure, but an honest evaluation of the facts dictate that dogmatism is not warranted in such a consideration. The jury is still out but we are all entitled to our faith. For me, I personally pray for the coming of Messiah and will not be surprised at all that when he arrives it will be Yeshua of Nazareth. But then again if it be another he will be welcomed by me as well. The Spirit and the Bride say "come". Shalom.

HOW TO HASTEN THE COMING OF MESSIAH

Most Jews agree that to just wait around for the Messiah to come is fruitless. We have to wait actively, and here are a few suggestions which we have picked up from various sources as to how to wait actively:

1) Beat your swords into plowshares. This idea is taken from Isaiah 2:4. where all the nations shall follow suit. By starting the process, you make the job easier to do. This act leads onto the next idea:

2) Plant a tree. "If you are planting a tree and somebody tells you the Messiah has come, plant the tree and then go and welcome the Messiah". To plant a tree is a good deed in itself, but to plant a tree, hoping for the Messiah to come while you do so is more positive. It also makes the place look nicer!

3) Practice Mitzvot and Gemilut Chasidim. Charity and acts of loving kindness are essential to the life of a child of G-d. However, no person can practice every single mitzvah or always do good, so therefore we try to change just one thing at a time. Perform a mitzvah so often that it becomes habit, and then start on a new one.

4) Study. How can the Jews be used as spiritual guides when the Messiah comes if they don't know anything (Zech 8:23). Fair enough, they shall be endowed with knowledge of G-d, but to get a head start can only be beneficial. Therefore, study of the Bible, particularly sections pertaining to the Messiah, must surely bring him closer; not only for the Jew but the non-Jewish believers as well.

There are other ways, I'm sure, to bring about the Messiah, most of which are positive not just towards ourselves, but to others as well. This is the key to the Messianic ideal - by working towards a better world we create a better world.

A TRUTHFUL ANALYSIS OF MESSIANIC PROPHECIES IN THE JEWISH BIBLE...DID JESUS FULFILL THEM?

If you have been a faithful reader and student of Bet Emet Ministries for any length of time you have come to see for yourself the facts concerning the falsification and purposeful alteration and mistranslation of the Hebrew Scriptures by the apostate and Hellenized Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, in the Second Century B.C.E. Such forgery and falsification of the Hebrew Scriptures was done in order that the Essenes' concept of their Astro-Theological "Angel-Messiah" be written in among the various Hebrew Texts when these Essenes translated the Hebrew Scriptures into Greek. To make matters worse it would be these Essenes which would instruct and train the majority of the Greek Church Fathers in Alexandria, Egypt, and these purposeful mistranslations and misquotations and multiple verses taken out of context on purpose became the foundation for the later English texts which would become the Christian's Old and New Testaments. That being said the result of such forgery to promote one's own religious agenda means that much of what we read in our Christian Old Testaments and New Testaments are outright lies and misrepresentations done on purpose in order to replace the human Messiah of the Jewish people with a Solar G-dman that finds its origin in the personification of forces found in the Heavens and Nature. This is but different manifestations of Sun worship and we find this since the beginning of time. What we should not find however are such concepts cleverly intermingled within the Hebrew Scriptures and then later applied to Jesus as we find in our New Testaments which quote these forged texts. This however is not known by 95% of Christianity today because their leaders simply have never studied these texts for themselves and accept without question the religious texts handed down to us by Rome which carry such forgeries.

More to the point in this replacement of the human Messiah of Judaism with the Astro/Solar-Messiah of the Essenes it was necessary to alter the prophecies concerning the Jewish Messiah in order to present this Essene Messiah to the Gentile world. If one were to know the true Messianic prophecies as written in the Hebrew Scriptures and in the wake of Jesus' death know that they remained unfulfilled as all the Jews and Israel did then it would be very hard to convince anyone that Jesus was the Messiah; unless of course they did not have access to the Hebrew Scriptures and could not read Hebrew. Well this is exactly the conditions that prevailed in the Gentile speaking world to which the Gentile Church would spread its own unique understanding of the Jewish Messiah as taken from these forged texts. To accomplish this the Messianic prophecies found in the Torah, the Prophets, and the Writings were purposefully altered, distorted, twisted, misquoted, mistranslated, and lifted and taken out of context in order to create supposedly "fulfilled" prophecies which in reality were anything but that at all. The writers of the New Testament often resorted to phrases like "thus being fulfilled" and other catch phrases that set the reader up to falsely believe what he was reading was an actual fulfillment of something written by holy men of old in the Old Testament when in fact close examination of the Hebrew texts revealed otherwise. This is something the Jews and their scholars have known over 2000 years and it is we Christians and followers of Jesus who are not privileged to this information.

I can remember my shock the first time I found in reading a Hebrew book one day that the author pointed out that the many prophecies in the Gospels and Epistles of the New Testament are really not "fulfilled" prophecies after all in spite of what the New Testament writers said. At first I could not believe it; surely he was mistaken for at that time in my life I vaguely remembered that I had thought I had read something about them in the Old Testament before. After all I was in Seminary and how could I be wrong? After being challenged in this way the first thing I did was to look at my center reference in my study Bible and began to look for an Old Testament Scriptural reference which would surely prove this challenging author wrong and my Christian religious belief system correct. My Old Testament references compared quite well to the New Testament quotes. Then I quickly realized that I had to have a copy of the Hebrew Scriptures if I was to make a line by line and precept by precept comparison in order to substantiate that such a charge made by the author had any validity so I bought a JPS Tanakh and a Stone Edition Tanakh so I could make such comparisons for myself. If all we do is compare forged Christian Old Testament texts to the again copies of such forgeries in the New Testament we learn nothing. We have to use the Bible Jesus used and that means you have to purchase a Hebrew/English Old Testament which I quickly did and I was shaken to the core by what I found. This "challenging" author was right and my Christian Old Testament read differently in hundreds of places. I always thought I had a faithful translation of the Hebrew texts; now I realized I as a Christian did not. It was time for more serious study.

After months of scrupulous comparisons of key "Messianic passages" I came to the stark realization that my Christian Bible is a fraudulent translation of the Jewish Hebrew Scriptures...the Jewish Masoretic Text does not read the way my Christian Bible translates them. Something is tragically wrong with my Christian Bible for a translation is one thing but a fictional creationism another! That means that the true Messianic prophecies in the Hebrew Bible were twisted and misquoted, and mistranslated on purpose when we as Christians get them in our Christian Bibles. If you read these passages in the Hebrew/English Jewish Bibles, either the JPS or the Stone Edition, and then compare them in the Greek translation of them and the English Old Testament versions taken from these Greek passages then you are horrified at what you see. There is a theological agenda at work here and many years of in-depth study has shown me that the culprit is the Hellenized Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, who wrote their Solar/G-dman into the texts when they gave the world the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures. What is equally tragic is the fact that the New Testament quotes come from our Christian Old Testaments and the Greek translations which are purposefully mistranslated and misquoted as well. Understand as well that Rome would later pick up where these Essenes left off and only add to the corruption of the Hebrew texts. This means that what we are reading in the New and Old Testaments is NOT A FAITHFUL REPRESENTATION OR TRANSLATION OF THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES JESUS USED.

Such corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures were accomplished in many different way:

- 1. Jewish texts and phrases are lifted out of their places in the Hebrew Scriptures and given meanings which, at best, are forced and little if anything in common with the Hebrew writer or the thought he was trying to convey.
- 2. Preceding many of the falsified prophetic verses in the New Testament which are supposedly quoted is the assertion, "What was said through the prophet was thus fulfilled." in this way the writers of the Christian Scriptures endeavored to show that the Tanakh anticipated and predicted the events recorded in the New Testament.
- 3. Those happenings, then, are presented as the fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures and are considered proof texts.
- 4. The techniques employed to establish proof include purposeful citation of verses out of context, mistranslation, and misquotation.
- 5. Sometimes a figurative or poetic phrase is mistaken for a straightforward statement and vice versa and taken literally when the intention of the Hebrew writer was allegory only.
- 6. Sometimes sayings of different writers, living in different places, and in different centuries are run together and presented to the uniformed reader as if one cohesive prophecy which it is not.
- 7. Often two or more of these methods are used in a single quotation.
- 8. There was never such a prophecy and the reference to one is often "made up" bit recorded in such a way that it seems "Biblical."

- 9. Even if it was a prophecy, it has nothing to do with the Messiah.

Of course such a charge is almost unbelievable if not ludicrous to the typical Christian who has been told his whole life like myself that our Christian Bibles are infallible, inerrant, and inspired. I can remember my shock, my devastation, and my anger over the months when I saw passage after passage altered. The horror of the tragic fact hit me between the eyes: I did not have the Bible Jesus used and believed in all his life...I had a counterfeit! Understand few men let alone Pastors undertake such exhaustive study as I and many others have and therefore they don't know the Bibles they preach from is altered in hundreds of places. Therefore they believe and spread lies about Jesus which simply are not true. Many such religious beliefs render us idolators and blasphemers. I have today been able to master from the Hebrew and Jewish Masoretic Texts the problem passages which confront us in the Christian Bible. Most of these problem passages are Messianic in perspective but many are simply not yet made to look as if they are Messianic when in fact they are not.

Let me say up front that even though I can and will share with you how the Torah, Prophets, and Writings have been literally butchered over the centuries by various Bible translations, and even thought many of these when viewed from the Jewish text, turn out to be non-Messianic prophecies, I still hold a faith and belief that when Messiah comes it will most likely be Yeshua but time will tell in this matter. But I refuse to "take away or add to the Word of G-d" in order to have "beliefs" about Yeshua. I want the truth and only the truth about this man. Falsification of Christian Bibles in order to create "fulfillments" about Yeshua does neither G-d nor me any good and surely tarnished the legacy and memory of Jesus. Jesus is not honored that we believe and spread lies in his name.

And if you read all of the Christian scriptures that are either Messianic or supposedly "fulfilled prophecies" and compare them with the Hebrew Scriptures and their contexts, then you will see for yourself that we have been deceived by those who gave us a counterfeit Bible. Now this will be hard for you to believe until you study it out like I did but nearly every "prophecy" quoted in the book of Matthew is non-Messianic! Some of them are even made up. Many are "quotes" of non-existing Jewish Scriptures. And the one or two prophecies that are Messianic have been butchered up or taken out of context by the authors of the Christian bible. This was necessary so that Jesus could "fulfill" them so he could be passed off as the Messiah to the Gentile world in order to bring unity to the Roman state and religion. Karl Marx said "Religion is the opiate of the masses" and since Judaism was a world religion in that day and a threat to Rome we find that Rome cleverly remade the Jewish Messiah into a Sun-godman like their other sungods and sungodmen in order to bring a unity to their empire to fight their many boarder wars thereby assuring that all peoples of the Roman state could come together and find unity in both politics and religion. The unsuspecting Gentiles would never know the difference since they could not read Hebrew or had access to the Hebrew Scriptures; it is a different story with the Jews who were familiar with the Jewish Palestinian Text for they knew of the terrible corruption of their Sacred Texts in the Greek Septuagint and refused to use it.

The unprepared and uninformed Christian, not knowing any different, is led astray every time when he reads his corrupted and fraudulent Christian Bibles and only rehearses and memorized lies and error. And the other side of this coin is that when you provide the refuting evidence for one "prophecy", most will discount it as "impossible" and fewer still will take the challenge and procure a Jewish Tanakh (Jewish Masoretic Text) and compare the wordings between the Jewish Texts and their Christian Bible to see who's correct and who's in error. I as a Pastor was challenged to my very core in my studies and had to do this exact thing and study these things out to make sure I was not deceived. I sadly found out that I had been deceived and had been teaching error about Jesus most of my life. The results of my study brought me to my knees and eventually led to my resignation from a very successful pastorate as I realized that I was misrepresenting G-d and Jesus and my calling to serve G-d was to be in Spirit and in Truth and the truth was not in my Christian Bible in many places. Understand that there is much good in the Christian Bible but like eating fish there is "bones" and "meat" and it takes much study to be able to separate the meat from the bone...truth from error.

One last thing. My purpose it to honor the name and memory of Yeshua by teaching the truth about him and not misrepresenting him to others for gain. The truth hurts only because we have previously been taught lies to which we attach our emotions. Understand that if what we consider "truth" can be shown to be a "lie" then G-d never gave it to you in the first place and He surely does not wish that you remain in darkness and deception any longer. It is time to repent of the idolatry and blasphemy which comes with such false teachings and false prophecies which we have accepted "by faith" without critical examination on our parts to see if these things "be so." It is with a spirit of humility and repentance that we recover the truth concerning Jesus/Yeshua as we look critically into the prophecies concerning the Messiah that are supposedly fulfilled by Yeshua/Jesus in the New Testament. This without a doubt is hard stuff and I recommend that such study be taken with much prayer as you see the things that await your study in this area. Shalom and blessings from Craig Lyons M.Div.

If one undertakes the study of Bet Emet Ministries' Websites, and understand it is a life's work, then one is prepared to understand what has truly happened to Christianity down through the centuries and how Divine Spiritual Truths, once expressed through allegory, metaphor, Spiritual myth and simile by the Ancients who first received the Revelations of God, has been suppressed, altered, and tragically lost for the most part today through the "literalization" of such Spiritual revelations given to us by the Ancients. This is a tragic story to say the least and renders us today as "believers" and "followers of the New Testament Jesus" as basically "idolators" as defined by this same Bible and we never know it because our Bibles inherited from Rome are "forged" in key "theological places" and this assures we inherit "untruth" never aware that we are doing so. That is until you study to see these issues! If you are diligent to study and learn from what is shared on these multiple sites then over time you will come to see and understand how it is possible to follow the "New Testament Jesus" and his teachings and examples in one way which ends with idolatry and blasphemy and in another way which ends in holiness and righteousness. The decision is yours; but such a decision must be based upon knowledge and not "emotion". This is the mystery that is tied up in understanding and interpreting the "Christ Story", or should I say the "Jesus Story" the way it was originally intended to be understood and not the way it was later "radically reinterpreted" by Rome during the 2nd through the 5th centuries. The key to all of this rest in the true identity of "the Christ," "the Logos", and "Christ Jesus". We are all familiar with these terms but we will soon come to see that there is a big difference between what we have been taught about these terms today and what they meant to the original "Chrestians" and "Christians" before Rome's rise to supremacy. Rome's has played a key role in the loss of these Divine truths and in their place the substitution of falsehoods and this will become all the more plain to see very soon. "Surely that is not possible I hear you say" but I only wish it weren't so. For your study and thought these websites were developed and revised over the years as Bet Emet Ministries' have progressed and deepened in its studies and more parts of the "theological puzzle" of Christianity became apparent to myself and others associated with Bet Emet.

These websites by Bet Emet Ministries are intended to be "a step by step" process in your pilgrimage of learning the truth regarding "the Christ". It has been rightly said: "It is all about the texts" and rightly so. We therefore begin by looking at the surface of the texts and their examination as to accuracy of translation which involves any possible purposeful mistranslation, misquotation, and lifting of such verses out of context in order to change the intended meaning desired by the original writers. We trace such changes when found from their inception all the way from their corruption when they were mistranslated moving from the Hebrew to the Greek and follow then through the Latin and later English Old Testament quotes as well as New Testament quotes. Only in this way can we be assured that what we have inherited in our Bibles is "God's Truth" and "God's Word". Then moving deeper as the websites progress we look often at the hidden and esoteric meanings that lie beneath these same texts and their later alterations as well. In other words we begin our websites with a "literal-historical" interpretation of "the Christ" and "Jesus Christ" and after having covered these many comparisons of Judaism vs Christianity do we then move deeper to look at the "Mystical Christ" and finally to the "Mythical Jesus Christ". If you followed all of this then you see that we will look at "the Christ" from three vantage points; beginning with the inherited "literal historical Jesus" we will take and examine all texts and explain them "literally" as we have been taught to "believe" since growing up since childhood in the Christian faith that we inherited. In so doing it is my intent to show separate for you the "Jewish Messiah and Judaism's Spiritual Truths" from a "non-Jewish Messiah and untruths" given us by Rome. There are two different "Messiahs" exemplified for us in the Rome's New Testament; a "Jewish Messiah" and a later "Roman Messiah" and only one can be true. Here is where the authenticity and reliability of the Scriptural Texts is of utmost importance because the reliability of the texts must determine for us which "Christ/Messiah" is the real one in the New Testament. This is why Bet Emet spends so much time in comparing the Hebrew to the later "purposeful alterations" for such alteration of the Hebrew Scriptures has a direct and disastrous implication for the truthfulness of the depiction of the New Testament Jesus as he has been represented to us in our New Testament. As you see these Hebrew passages, "line upon line and precept upon precept" being corrupted one after another as apply to a "Jesus Christ" of Rome's making this should stir your mind as to what then really stands behind this "supposed historical and literal person" who has been passed off to mankind as the "fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures" in spite of the Jewish people's denials now for 2,000 years. As your studies progress it is my hope that you will come to see the depiction of this "Jesus" in the New Testament in a deeper light; not as some "supposed historical-literal person" due to the forgery of the Hebrew Scriptures as well as pure Scriptural invention but the "personification of Divine truth" that was entrusted to the Jewish nation for the person who was ever to be born in the Gentile world. As these websites progress I am confident that you will come to see just whom this "Divine Christ within" really is and how this concept of the "Indwelling Christ in all humanity" has tragically be changed and altered by Rome and given a "literal-historical life" of its own which was limited to but one person who only exists through the forgery of the Hebrew Scriptures and pure inventionism. It is a real shame that the only Jew to ever come to you and me was this New Testament Rabbi and model for humanity came dressed up like Constantine and bearing literalized sunworship concepts which simply are not true in their "literal sense" since they bring the stain idolatry with them. This is another "big key"; literalized Sunworship is wrong. But when the Sun is seen allegorically for the "visible representation" of the "invisible God" and "Soul" then the reader will come to see that the Creator put this Orb in the Sky to teach us of the progressive growth of "Spirit/Soul" in the bosom of man. When understanding this "key" then the Sun is the example given man for the growth and Spiritual progression of his Soul as the Sun moves through the Sky and the Zodiac. This knowledge well come in time as your studies advance but know that Matthew, chapter 1 through Matthew chapter 28, follows this "Path of the Sun" through the Sky perfectly. We should expect our "Jesus Story" to do the same and it does! Of course it would because Paul states in Rom 1:20: "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:".

Over time as your studies advance you will come to see the Higher Divine Truths and how the ancients expressed then in Spiritual Allegories, myths, legends, metaphors and did not express them as we mistakenly think today as "literal" or "historical" stories. They understood what we have forgotten: God is not a man and God exists in a Metaphysical realm and they had to turn to and utilize pictures and symbols to capture such High Spiritual Truths which we have lost the "keys" to understand today thereby taking them all "literally" not knowing how grievously we err. Their Divine Truths were expressed as Spiritual allegories and they were intended for all and easily remembered over some deep theological treatise. Simply said there exists an "unbroken chord" between this ancient Spiritual Wisdom from the beginning of mankind that remains unbroken down through time until the 2nd century with the rise Romanism and the beginning creation of the Roman Bible. During the next 3 centuries Rome will expend all effort and money possible to "radically reinterpret" the ancient Spiritual Wisdom of mankind and in so doing alter almost all, if not all, the Spiritual concepts cherished by mankind since the beginning of time. The study of the Roman forgery of the earlier Sacred Wisdom and the Hebrew Scriptures, themselves the legacy of the Great ancient Egyptian Religion, is the beginning of our awakening to this great loss of Spiritual veracity to humankind.

In closing it is my intent as a yet ordained Pastor who desired to serve the Creator and help His children do the same that once this information came to light over the years of my studies I realized that someone has to share and tell others of this deception in order that our worship of the Creator be in "Spirit and in Truth. We can say we worship in "Spirit and in Truth" all day long but that does not mean we are doing it. Bet Emet, Hebrew for "House Of Truth", has done as best it can to present these truths to other "truth seekers" in hopes that your love for and worship of God be likewise.

Now lets discuss the study. The order of our study is very important. If you start from the beginning and work your way through these websites as if you are reading the "best of many books" (which you are) then you will end your study with few unanswered questions and you will have arrived as the truth you sought and have a very clear picture of whom God is and what He requires of you as the non-Jewish believer in Christianity today. But above all your journey ends with the awakening of yourself to your True Identity and the Divinity that resides in you. You will discover beyond any doubt that the "Jesus Story" is YOUR STORY. That you are the "indwelling Christ/Sophia" in "matter" by which God is progressively evolving Himself and you are His Temple for his own progressive Self-awareness of Himself. You and God are truly "co-laborers". This is the very goal and purpose of your incarnation.

Sure the trip is hard, long, and time consuming and filled with both tears and joy as you deal with what has happened at the hands of men who served themselves rather than God. But the goal must be kept squarely before you in order for you to come to the Truth once known about God by these Ancients who framed many of the very same religious doctrines that sadly have come down to us altered and redefined today which sadly cover the pages of our Bibles of which we are not aware. You will come to see that there is a very big difference from the Jewish Bible and the corrupted Gentile Christian Bible we inherited from Rome and this corruption has blinded you to your true Self and Infinite Being. This is Rome's doing! All of this is dealt with on our websites and you will get to it in time if you are diligent in your study.

Let us end with one passage from the Hebrew Scriptures:

14 Then the LORD said unto me: 'The prophets prophesy lies in My name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I unto them; they prophesy unto you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their own heart.'

It is time that we do diligent study in order to overcome these "lies" which we have inherited from Rome during the 2nd through the 5th century and beyond and it is equally time that repent of such errors of "belief" that as well are in our life. It is time we search out and return to the faith of our Fathers who carry the Ancients traditions and truths with them. Today we find that best expressed in my opinion in Judaism because not only are they the "children" and legacy of Ancient Egypt but carry the hope for the whole of the Western hemisphere that they might yet, as Paul said in Eph 5:14: "Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light" as well in Col 1:27: "To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:".

Few know of these truths because of lack of study but the beginning study has been done for you. It is time you accept the mantle of study which in first century Israel taught was "the highest form of worship".

Lev 20:77 Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy; for I am the LORD your God (the Jewish Tanakh)

Now let us look more deeply into the websites that follow and read their descriptions.

RETURNING TO GOD'S TRUE SALVATION MESSAGE FOR THE SOUL AS SEEN IN THE EQUINOXES AND SOLSTICES: THE BIBLICAL FESTIVALS

It is not my attention in this article to get involved in the comic and astronomical meanings of the Equinoxes and Solstices and their relationship to the Sun as the visible representation of God and this Living Energy within the cosmos whom we also call "God" because to do so would involve more than my focus in this one article. For those interested we have done this extensively on our "Jesus-Astrotheology" website. For our purposes we will look at the Spiritual message behind these Equinoxes and Solstices as understood by the Jewish nation and in particular to how these Equinoxes and Solstices, otherwise known in the Bible as the "Festivals", impact in a metaphysical manner the Soul of mankind as it relates to both Judaism and the personified Jesus of the New Testament which represents the "logia" or the teachings of "the Christ". But one thing needs to be said up front. The Sun, being the cosmic catalyst of energy for Mother Nature which was the very life-source for mankind, was always understood by the ancients to be a sign or symbol for the Invisible Living Intelligent Energy of the cosmos whom we call God. The ancients recognized that the path of the Sun through the Heavens and Sky was cyclical and in so doing imaged a "pattern" that was associated with a corresponding cycles or a "pattern" of events that impacted Earth and Nature. The seasons, more correctly termed the Equinoxes and Solstices, all of which were "triggered" by the Sun and its energy, produced and sustained all life on the planet. This "cycle" of seasons which followed the "cosmic eternal pattern" of "birth, life, death, and rebirth" was not only recognized to occur in Heaven above but in Earth below. This the core of all ancient religions: So Above, So Below. Of concern for us is how this solar pattern of cyclic energy that oscillated between "birth, life, death, and rebirth" affects Nature and the growing seasons and their impact upon mankind and the Jewish nation and how this was understood to have a Spiritual impart at its very core. The Jewish nation saw the correspondence between Heaven and Earth and as God provided for their physical salvation as a species through Nature they recognized that the Sun and this cycle of "life" also provided the "keys" necessary to instruct them about their Spiritual life since they were made in the image of this God and that this same "Divine Spark" of an internal Sun resided in them. That is why the agriculture and vegetation cycles of Nature were so important to the ancient man; they were pictures and parallels of a similar cycle of "salvation" on a deeper level; ancient mankind understanding that Nature was but picture of a Spiritual salvation for the Soul of mankind as well. This "Divine Truth" was understood and related in religious rites that taught this Divine Message concerning the Soul of mankind in various ways by various ancient nations. Our focus will be upon Israel and the Festivals of Israel where we can learn this "path" of Salvation for mankind and his Soul. Unknown to most Christians is that this cycle of "salvation" in Nature was recognized by other nations that long preceded Israel and they likewise saw a deeper Spiritual meaning attached to this same cycle of "birth, life, and death, and rebirth" that they witnessed in Nature. Now let us continue.

It has always been God's intention to break down the middle wall of partition separating Jew and Gentile, thus uniting both Jew and Gentile as one with Him. It is God who is to be the Savior of the Gentiles (Isaiah 11:10, 42:6; Acts 2:39; Ephesians 2:11-18).

Isa. 11:10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek; and his rest shall be glorious. {glorious: Heb. glory}

Isa. 42:6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;

Acts 2: 39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, [even] as many as the Lord our God shall call.

Eph 2:11 (KJV) Wherefore remember, that ye [being] in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; 12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: 13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. 14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition [between us]; 15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, [even] the law of commandments [contained] in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, [so] making peace; 16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: {thereby: or, in himself} 17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. 18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

In the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) God provides a written record of the both "Jews" and "non-Jews" as they not only relate to each other but to God as well; and often that relationship involves worshipping God according to the same "Pattern". This "Pattern" of Worship of God can be demonstrated to have existed as far back as Ancient Egypt and carried on down through history in the Jewish people and Judaism today. This "Pattern of Worship" not only concerns the worship of God but there is a "hidden" message from God in how we worship Him that involves the path given mankind for his salvation. The New Testament has a very important statement that needs our attention:

John 4:22 22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. (KJV)

This is of major importance for in this statement is all we ever need to know concerning God, His proper worship according to this "Pattern" and the path given by God to all mankind that "they might be saved". The Apostle Paul teaches us that Gentiles, who turn from idols to serve the living God, are grafted into Israel by faith; thereby becoming "fellow-citizens" with the saints.

Speaking to "non-Jews" in Ephesus Paul says something else that needs our attention and of great importance, and mind you this is "said" long after the New Testament's depiction of Jesus' death. This is of major importance to us, the "non-Jew", Christian, and follower of "the Christ" today.

Eph 4:4-6 4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; 5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: What is this "one faith"? Let me cut to the chase. Scrutiny of the New Testament Biblical texts, when consulting the Greek, show without a doubt that the "non-Jews" in the first century in Jerusalem and in Asia, Minor, came to the understanding of God under the "wings" of Biblical Judaism. James gives us a dramatic picture of Gods' will in this matter:

Acts 15:15-21 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: 17 That the residue of men (non-Jews, Gentiles) might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. 18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. (KJV)

Of course most likely by now you know from previous studies that James alludes in this passage to the Covenant of Noah and the Laws of Noah in these 4 "summary statements" in Acts 15:20. Unknown to you is that these "non-Jews", "who doeth all these things", by revelation also kept the "Appointed Times" of God long before the Jews were ever a people. These "special times" with God were recognized by the Ancient to be connected with the Equinoxes and Solstices since the beginning of recorded time and we find in almost every nation the worship of the God of the Cosmos at these times; these times by the way which coincide with the Jewish Biblical Festivals and Feasts. What I discovered in my studies over the years is that beneath the "external rites" of these celebrations and observations of mankind at this special "Appointed Times with God" is a deeper message given by God that affects and shows the path for the salvation of the Soul of mankind. In nation after nation these "non-Jew", long before there were every a Jewish nation, saw in the stories, myths, and legends of their "personified sungods" this descent of the Soul, its birth, life, evolution, and maturation, death and its final resurrection" which goes hidden in the flesh of mankind. Events in the lives of these "personified sungods" that occurred at these different times of these Equinoxes and Solstices were markers for this development of the Soul within mankind. All of these "Divine Truths" were handed down through time by these Ancient Spiritual masters in the "Hidden Mysteries" of various world religions and when we look at Egypt we can understand how Moses, being reared in Pharaoh's house, would be privy to such knowledge.

Acts 7:22 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. (KJV)

This Moses possessed this "Message of God" and this "Pattern for the worship of God" and we find it duplicated in the Laws of Moses and the examples given us in the Old Testament where we find this "mixed multitude" of both "Jews" and "non-Jews" worshipping together in the Sinai according to this same "Pattern" and "one faith". This "one faith" is the "same" faith shared in the New Testament by both "Jew" and "non-Jew"; the same faith with the same religious doctrines concerning not only this "Pattern for the worship of God", but the same doctrines concerning Faith, Baptism, Repentance, Good Works, Covenants, Atonement, Salvation, Eternal Life, Eternal Judgment, Resurrection, etc. Our focus in this article is how the "Jew" and the "non-Jew" understood this "Salvation Message" of God hidden in the worship of God; in particular the observation of the Biblical Festivals and Feasts.

THE GREAT SEPARATION BETWEEN JEW AND NON-JEW

Following the destruction of the Temple in 70 C.E., the assembly of Gentile Messianic Believers (Church) became more "Gentilized" under the influence of Rome and lost much if not all of the "Jewish Roots". Thus Jews and Christians began to go their separate ways. It wasn't long before the fruit of the Jerusalem Church in Asia, Minor, was flooded with Gentile unbelievers who embraced the "Messianic-Christian faith" as best they could but never had a background in the Jewish faith. It is these Gentile "converts" who lacked the foundations of Torah and who would, under the influence and teachings of others who separated from the mandates of the Jerusalem Church, would not accept the Jewish customs and began to drift from this "Pattern of Worship". These Gentile "converts" would forget one important thing: Jewish often meant BIBLICAL! Because of this lack of understanding of the Jewish faith, and distrusting things that are often different from their prior religious customs, these Gentile "converts" brought their hatred and bigotry against the Jews with them into this new Jewish faith. About the same time, some of the genuine Gentile Christian leaders developed a faulty theology that created an anti-Semitic mentality in the Gentile Church that further divided the Christian world from the Jews. These early anti-Jewish declarations laid the foundation for the tragic future of Jewish Christian relations that would see the Gentile Church lose sight of its Jewish roots and persecute the Jews down through the centuries.

GOD IS DOING A NEW THING IN OUR DAY....SHALL WE NOT SEE IT?

But in these last days, God is doing a marvelous thing. He is breaking down the walls of hate and misunderstanding that have divided the Jews and Gentile believers. He is sovereignty pouring out His Spirit on thousands of Jews and at the same time, God is stirring in the hearts of Christians a holy love for the Jewish people and awakening them to the Jewish roots of their Christian faith and all the "truths" that go with that which reveal Western antisemitic Constantinian Christianity for what it really is.

Many Christians are realizing that the origin of our faith is Jerusalem, not Athens, Rome, Geneva, Wittenberg, Aldersgate, Azusa Street, Springfield, Nashville, Tulsa, etc.

As a result, Christian Churches around the world are reaching out to the Jewish people in their communities, singing songs from the Old Testament, rediscovering their Jewish roots and celebrating the Jewish Feasts and Festivals and Sabbaths. It is clearly God's appointed time to reconcile Jew and Gentile, binding us together by His Spirit.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE BIBLICAL FESTIVALS BY THE NON-JEWISH BELIEVER

Because of the prophetic season in which we are living, many Christian Churches are realizing that it is proper, good and pleasing to the Lord to celebrate the Jewish Feasts of Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles (Romans 14:5-6).

Rom 14:5-6 5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. (KJV)

Not only that but when we study the original languages of the Bible, both Greek and Hebrew, we find that these Festivals are not merely suggested for the Gentiles to observe, but expected and commanded!

THERE A NUMEROUS BENEFITS THAT ARE BEING EXPERIENCE BY CHURCHES WHO KEEP THE FESTIVALS

Some of these are:

- 1. Better understanding of the Bible
- 2. Rediscovery of the Jewish roots of Christianity

- 3. Fuller comprehension of God's plan of redemption
- 4. Deeper revelation of the work of "the Christ" within us all
- 5. Greater insights into God's prophetic seasons
- 6. Clearer and more powerful teachings through visual aids
- 7. Discovery of the Biblical Church calendar.

Answer for yourself: What Church that desires more of God would not want these benefits!

You can realize them in your own congregation by celebrating the Feasts.

GETTING STARTED WITH THE PASSOVER

Historically, Passover marks the national liberation of the Hebrews from Egyptian slavery. Pesach, the Hebrew name of the feast literally means "the lamb". God instructed each family to take an unblemished year-old male lamb to their home on the tenth day of the first month, Nisan. This corresponds to the months of March and April. They were to examine the lamb for four days to see that it was perfect. On the fourth day at twilight (the beginning of the fifth day), they were to kill the lamb and take some of the lamb's blood and place it on the two doorposts and the lintel of their house. On the first Passover, the avenging angel of God killed every first born male throughout the land, from Pharaoh, to slave, to camel. The angel would "Passover" those homes that protected themselves by placing the blood of a lamb on their doorposts and lintels.

Today the Feast of Passover is celebrated by Jewish people and many Christian churches around the world with a Passover Seder which commemorates the liberation from Egyptian slavery which is a picture of God's salvation. The Feast of Passover, properly understood, is a picture of the salvation provided by God to those who believe His Word and respond to it in proper faith and proper works. The Passover Seder is a meal with special foods, practices and Scripture readings. The Passover Seder commemorates the liberation from Egyptian slavery, in accordance with God's instructions (Lev. 23:1,4, Exodus 12:14,24-27).

Lev. 23:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, ....

Lev. 23:4 These [are] the feasts of the LORD, [even] holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

Exod. 12:14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

Exod. 12:24 (KJV) And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. 25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service. 26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service? 27 That ye shall say, It [is] the sacrifice of the LORD'S Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

UNLEAVENED BREAD

Hag ha-Matsot, the Festival of Unleavened Bread is described in Ex. 12: 15.

Exod 12:15 15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. (KJV)

This stems from the commandment to eat unleavened bread (Matsah) and the prohibition against eating "hamets" or leavened food, in commemoration of the Israelites' hasty exodus from Egypt when they had time to prepare only unleavened bread. While the prohibition against hametz applies to the entire festival, the commandment to eat matsah applies, strictly speaking, to the first night only.

Answer for yourself: What is the connection between the "Passover" and "Unleavened Bread"?

One needs to understand that after one receives the gift of salvation from HaShem which is by birthed by God's love of mankind and sent to us by His grace, then as God's redeemed children we are obligated to "cast out the leaven" from our lives. Repentance from sin is the heart of the issue "after we are saved" as we slowly sanctify our lives by "casting out the leaven" as our Souls mature within us. Leaven is used as a metaphor for "sin" in the Bible and it is understandable that after one comes to God then God expects us to clean up our lives in response to God's gracious gift of salvation. Thus the observation of "unleavened bread" by a Child of God is an immense lesson and necessary as the next step in our sanctification and Salvation since God's Salvation is a "process" that is accomplished over time by our due diligence to continually "seek out" and "cast out the leaven" in our lives.

Rom 12:2 2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. (KJV)

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST

The Feast of Pentecost is celebrated on the sixth day of the Hebrew month of Sivan. This corresponds to the months of May and June on the Gentile calendar.

Historically, the main activity on the Feast of Pentecost was the presentation of a wave offering to the Lord, two loaves of baked bread with leaven (Lev. 23:15-21). The wave offering expressed the Hebrews' dependence on God for the harvest and their daily bread. This was a thanksgiving offering. Not only that but it is a picture of the people of God; two loaves representing the two "peoples of God"; the Jew and the non-Jew as the peoples of God (the two olive branches in Joseph's hand).

Later when the Jews were dispersed among the nations, the Feast of Pentecost lost its primary significance as a harvest festival and the Feast of Shavuot, Pentecost, was celebrated as a memorial to the time when God gave the law at Sinai. It is this "Law" which is given to both the Jew and the non-Jew through the various Covenant's of God. This is because the Jews have traditionally believed that God gave the law to Moses on the Day of Pentecost (Ex. 19:1,11).

Exod. 19:1 In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they [into] the wilderness of Sinai.

Exod 19:11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

Answer for yourself: Why is this giving of the Laws of God contained in the Torah so important for our salvation? Simply said it is by the knowledge of and the obedience to these Laws and Commandments of God that our Souls grow as we elevate them Spiritually and in so doing suppress our carnal and animal natures in our bodies. This is the very same Salvation Message of the Jewish Jesus in the New Testament which we have seen and studied before. This is the path of progressive sanctification that leads to Eternal Life.

Salvation is achievable to all mankind by their faithfulness to the Torah of God. The fruit of the Torah lived out in one's life is a total reorientation of one's life: a repentance in terms of turning to God. Such is love of God. A potent form of anti-Judaism still remains in Christian theology today as seen in its exclusivist concepts of salvation. Exclusivist forms of salvation affect the Christian approach to mission; i.e. if the Christian Jesus Christ is the only way for salvation, then Christians have an obligation to preach the Gospel and convert all people - including Jews. Within this traditional thinking, if salvation is only available through Jesus Christ, then the Jewish tradition is incapable of securing salvation for the Jewish people let alone "non-Jews". This ultimately leads to denigration and anti-Judaism because Judaism is deemed to be inferior, it has insufficient power for salvation, it is ineffective, and perhaps demonic in some Christian teaching seen with Augustine and Luther. This has happened continuously throughout the ages in Christian preaching and the teachings of the Church Fathers. The most potent forms of anti-Judaism and the persecution of Jews can be traced back to mission and behind that an underlying assumption that salvation is only available through Christ.

Christianity maintains that all men are doomed to sin, and everyone will go to everlasting hell unless they accept this New Testament Jesus as their savior. Judaism has always held, and has for thousands of years, that we do not need that sort of salvation, for we are not doomed or damned at birth. We are not doomed or fated to sin. Quite the contrary. The Torah says: "If you do good, won't there be special privilege? And if you do not do good, sin waits at the door. It lusts after you, but you can dominate it." (Genesis 4:7) In other words, you can do good, and if you do, things will be better for you. If you do not do good, sin wants to be partners with you. But you can control sin, you can control your evil desires, and you can be good. So we have free will, and that is what Judaism has always believed, because that is what the Torah teaches. The Torah does not teach -- or even mention -- that we are "born in sin," or that we are fated to sin. Just the opposite. We have the ability to choose. Which means that we can be good, or we can be evil. It's up to us. And if can be good, that means we can be righteous. I cannot understand how or why Christians like to say that no one can be righteous in the eyes of God. The Torah says otherwise.

"All your nation is righteous, they will inherit the earth eternally; the shoot that I have planted, the work of My hands, something to be proud of" (Isaiah 60:21).

So we are righteous, and HaShem is proud of us. And it says, "Open the gates, so that the righteous nation that keeps the faith may enter" (Isaiah 26:2). We Children of the Israel, both Jew and "non-Jew" are righteous "if" we keep God's Laws and Commandments like Jesus says in his Salvation Message in the New Testament. For the Torah of the Jews says so and always has since the beginning. Before that Egypt said the same things. God laid all this out believe in or not in the Sky and Heavens above in His Laws that operate in the Cosmos and in Nature and the Ancient sages and Spiritual Masters saw and knew this and taught these Divine Concepts to mankind since the beginning of time. For us today, walking in tis same revelation and knowledge, we see that we must uphold the Torah, or otherwise we might cease to be righteous. But as long as we keep the Torah, we are righteous.

The Prophets of the Torah warned us about this many times. They often called man wicked.

Answer for yourself: When is man called "wicked"? When he did not obey the Commandments of the Torah.

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that not once, not once, did anyone in the Old Testament warn the Jews or any man for that example to not fail to "believe in Jesus" or the Salvation Message that will one day connected by Rome to this man called Jesus?

The problem is that Christians do not understand the meaning of the concept "righteousness." They think it means that one has never sinned. Never sinning is almost impossible. The Torah says that "There is no person on earth so righteous that he does only good and never sins" (Eccl. 7:20) Rather, the definition of a righteous person is as taught in Proverbs 24:16: "The righteous fall even seven times and still get up, but the wicked stumble in evil." Being righteous does not mean that one never sins. It means that after you sin you get back up again, repent, and try again. You keep on trying. That is being righteous. This is again progressive sanctification and the path to Eternal Life and the true Salvation Message of God.

Not only that, but even if you keep on trying, and you don't succeed very well, and you have many sins, you can still be forgiven and go to Heaven. In the Book of Job (33:23) it says that if someone has even only one merit and 1000 sins, he is rescued from hell. So we are not doomed to hell. That's what Judaism teaches concerning Eternal Life and Salvation, as we see from the Torah.

The Christian bible, on the other hand, teaches that there is no repentance after sinning. Here is what it says in the Christian bible: For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. -- 2 Peter 2:20-21 In other words, if anyone accepted Jesus as savior, and then sins, they are in worse trouble than they were before they accepted Jesus.

Answer for yourself: So what then is the advantage of accepting Jesus? It seems better to stay with HaShem! HaShem accepts repentance, and loves all those who turn away from sin, no matter how many times they have sinned and repented. "For the righteous stumble even seven times, but they get up again!" And they are still called righteous!

And the wicked who repent are no longer called wicked. Even when I have told the wicked that he will die, but then he repents, and he does justice and righteousness; he returns the collateral when he is supposed to, he repays what he stole, he begins to live by the Laws of Life, and does not do evil, he will live, and he will not die. All the sins that he committed will not be held against him, for he has begun to do judgment and righteousness; he shall surely live. -- Ezekiel 33:14-16

We see, therefore another fallacy of the Christians, who argue that "sin has separated us from a perfectly holy God." We are not separated from HaShem at all. All we need to do is repent.

But no, say the Christians. Repentance won't work, for some reason that we cannot understand. They claim that "no one can be close to God without Jesus." This is completely wrong. The righteous live by their own faith. (Habbakuk 2:4) We do not gain life or atonement by the faith or righteousness of someone else like this Jesus. We are masters of our own fate, because the choice to do good or bad is our own. In Judaism, it is entirely up to you. If you do good, you will get good. If you "choose life" you "get life".

I suggest that if Christians wish to combat anti-Judaism, Christians must now re-examine their concepts of salvation and Biblical Atonement and recognize Judaism as God's legitimate path of salvation for Jews and "non-Jews" without any belief in the Christian doctrines connect to the "Roman Christ". Understand that some of these "doctrines" are correct and so tragically wrong. If Judaism has salvific power (to use Christian language), then there is no necessity for a mission to Jews or anyone for that matter whereby we teach a false atonement and the wrong Salvation Message from God as Christianity teaches today due to its indoctrination and forged texts.

Answer for yourself: But what are we to do with the New Testament examples of Moses being taught to the "non-Jews" in "every city" as seen in Acts 15:21 21?

For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: What are we to do with the many, many examples in the New Testament where we find that both Jews and "non-Jews" observed together the Sabbath, Passover, Unleavened Bread, First Fruits, Shavuot (Pentecost), Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, Tabernacles, as well as Paul's example of him teaching the "non-Jews" in Asia to keep the Sabbath Havdalah service, etc.?

Answer for yourself: What of the examples were we find in the New Testament "non-Jews" keeping the Torah along with the Jews after this death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament? Did these early "non-Jewish" believers know something that today as Christians we don't; namely, that it was in keeping this Jewish Torah that they had discovered the "Salvation Message of God" and that is why they kept it? Do you think that they viewed this as a "curse" or "death" of the highest expression of Love of God for them, to show them the way to Him when they die?

Without a doubt in this Torah we find not only the true Salvation Message of God for all mankind but as well this "Pattern of Worship of God" given all mankind in the beginning of time. Accompanying this "Pattern of Worship" in this Torah and Old Testament we also find a distinct and unique message from God as well concerning our Souls and how they are to grow and inherit Eternal Life in this plane of existence. This "Plan of Worship" and "Plan of Salvation" is laid out in the Biblical Feasts and Festivals of the Jews and their Sabbaths. These Jewish people and their Rabbis, of all peoples today, have preserved this Ancient Message of God concerning His Salvation for mankind in its purest form which can be seen when comparing this "Message" with the same earlier "Message of Ancient Egypt" and the later altered "Message" of Rome.

So it was at Shavuot, the Day of Pentecost, when God gave the roadmap of "How to be Saved" at Sinai when He gave Moses the Laws and Commandments which comprise the respective Covenants of the Jew and "non-Jew". The Day of Pentecost did not originate with Christianity as many Christians maintain and would like you to believe, but it is the day when the Jews and all Gentile converts traveled to be in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast and the giving of God's Law and Salvation Message to all mankind along with this Pattern for His Worship. These Laws given in the Torah were understood by both the Jew and the "non-Jew" as their Covenant responsibilities to God.

From Luke's account in Acts 2 we see the marvelous timing of God. Thousands of Jews had journeyed to Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. It was then that the followers of "the Christ" were waiting in the upper room and were filled with the Holy Spirit. There was such a loud noise accompanying this experience, that it attracted the attention of the Jewish visitors who went to see what the commotion was all about. Peter then stood up and preached a bold sermon to this Jewish crowd. This outpouring of the Holy Spirit was taking place on the very day when the Jews were offering the two wave loaves to God (symbolizing the two peoples of God, the Jew and the "non-Jew") and celebrating the Law symbolizing their dependence on God. One wave loaf symbolized the Jews and the other the Gentiles who would also receive the Holy Spirit in like manner as recorded in Acts 10.

The Middle Wall of partition between these two peoples were crumbling and would do so until Constantine in the 3rd century when it would be rebuilt and sadly it remains upright today.

It is this Spirit of the Lord which is given to empower the child of God, now saved as his "personal Passover" through faith, and "cleaned up from his sin through repentance from sin through his observance of his "personal unleavened bread" and resultant obedience to the Law and Commands of God" given him at "his personal Sinai", is now equipped to live throughout his life a victorious life over sin.

Answer for yourself: What are we to learn from this?

We see from this that we all are to experience in our lives our very own personal Passover, our very own personal Unleavened Bread, and our very own personal Pentecost/Shavuot for this is God's "Salvation Message" for our Souls and in it is the very "Pattern for Worship" of the Creator in both our bodies and Souls. We as Christians were not commanded in the Laws of Noah to keep these Appointed Times with God that occur at these Equinoxes and Solstices but according to Isaiah 56 "we get to" if we "choose those things that please God". I choose to. By examples in the Old Testament we are shown other "non-Jews", long before the Jewish nation, observe and keep these Holy Days, these Appointed Times with God, learning the lessons concerning their Souls and Eternal Life buried deep in these Equinoxes and Solstices. Ancient mankind read God's blackboard of the Sky and Spiritually discerned by observing the motion of the orbs of Heaven, His Sun, Moon, and Constellations, that in Gods' Heaven lies a Salvation Message of God for all mankind that was brought to earth by the Spiritual Masters of antiquity: "So Above, So Beneath". This "Message of Salvation" and "Pattern for Worship" of God, first recognized in the Heavens "above" and in Nature "below" the Spiritual Masters of antiquity shared God's Divine Message with mankind and it lies there for your receiving yet today.

It is God's Spirit in us, this "anointing", which empowers the child of God to live the mitzvah and the commands of God in his life. Even Jesus said his yoke was easy. God made it so easy for us if we will lean upon Him and His power in us that enables us to live a Torah obedience and love filled life.

ROSH HA-SHANNAH, YOM KIPPUR, AND THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES (SUKKOT)

On Rosh HaShanah, God gives us a picture of the "future judgment" of mankind. Judaism teaches, just like Egypt before them, that everyone is judged by God based on his or her actions during the previous year. The resulting judgment is inscribed by God and a person's future is determined for the following year. Don't lose sight of the over all picture of man being judged by his "deeds" and "actions" and not by his "creeds" as the Romanized Paul teaches us in the New Testament. Though that judgment is inscribed, it is not yet sealed and can still be changed at least for another ten days. For the "non-Jew" the next passage is very important.

Acts 11:18 18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life. (KJV)

God waits until Yom Kippur to seal the book for the year.

Answer for yourself: How can a person change their judgment for the better?

"Repentance, Prayer, and Charity can remove the bad decree." Notice if you will we are speaking of "deeds" again and not "creeds". This is very important. God looks especially at three areas during the time between Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, the Ten Days of Repentance. By doing teshuvah with true regret for the past and commitment for the future, a person can erase his misdeeds and hence improve his judgment before it is sealed on Yom Kippur. Similarly, by praying with greater concentration before God, and by giving charity with the proper spirit, one can also upgrade one's status. This is how we atone for our sins, through righteous deeds that are the fruits of our obedience of the Commandments and Laws of God as taught by the "Gospel of Jesus" in the New Testament. This is how we prepare our lives to be judged by God at our deaths. We next come to Yom Kippur when our atonement accomplished during our lives is weighted in the balance and judged by God.

As I noted in Days of Awe, by S. Y. Agnon, Yom Kippur atones only for sins between man and God, not for sins against another person (the Second Tablet of the Law). Now you see the importance of repentance and the Second Tablet of the Law and its various Commandments between mankind.

Answer for yourself: Now, do you understand Jesus' answer on Eternal Life asked him by the lawyer where he mentioned only the Second Tablet of the Law?

To atone for sins against another person, you must first seek reconciliation with that person, righting the wrongs you committed against them if possible. That must all be done before Yom Kippur. By Yom Kippur the 40 days of repentance, that begin with the first of Elul, have passed. On Rosh HaShanah God has judged most of mankind and has recorded his judgement in the Book of Life. But he has given a 10 day reprieve. On Yom Kippur the Book of Life is closed and sealed. Those that have repented for their sins are granted a good and happy New Year. Since Yom Kippur is the day to ask forgiveness for promises broken to God, the day before is reserved for asking forgiveness for broken promises between people, as God cannot forgive broken promises between people. Since Yom Kippur is the day to ask forgiveness for promises broken to God, the day before is reserved for asking forgiveness for broken promises between people, as God cannot forgive broken promises between people. Yom Kippur is a day of "NOT" doing. There is no blowing of the Shofar and Jews may not eat or drink, as fasting is the rule. It is believed that to fast on Yom Kippur is to emulate the angels in heaven, who do not eat, drink, or wash. An important part of the Yom Kippur service is the "Vidui" (Viduy) or confession. The confessions serve to help reflect on one's misdeeds and to confess them verbally is part of the formal repentance in asking God's forgiveness. Because community and unity are an important part of Jewish Life, the confessions are said in the plural (We are guilty). As Yom Kippur ends, at the last hour a service called "Ne'ila" (Neilah) offers a final opportunity for repentance. It is the only service of the year during which the doors to the Ark (where the Torah scrolls are stored) remain open from the beginning to end of the service, signifying that the gates of Heaven are open at this time.

Answer for yourself: What should we learn from this? That repentance from sin, confession, and obedience to the Laws and Commandments of God, just like "the Christ" taught in his Gospel in the New Testament, is the way to Eternal Life and Salvation. All that we do on Yom Kippur is but a picture of the reality that awaits us all at the end of our physical existence.

The last major feast on the Jewish calendar is Tabernacles. It is celebrated in the Fall in the Jewish month of Tishri, which corresponds to the month of September/October on the Gentile calendar.

The Feast of Tabernacles came at the final ingathering of the harvest season. The fruit of the land had been reaped so the people could rest from their labors. It was a time of great rejoicing and was celebrated from the fifteenth to the twenty-first. Then on the twenty-second (the eighth day), there was a special Sabbath which was a day of rest characterized by further rejoicing (Lev. 23:33-41).

Levi 23:33 (KJV) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month [shall be] the feast of tabernacles [for] seven days unto the LORD. 35 On the first day [shall be] an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work [therein]. 36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it [is] a solemn assembly; [and] ye shall do no servile work [therein]. {solemn....: Heb. day of restraint} 37 These [are] the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim [to be] holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day: 38 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD. 39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day [shall be] a Sabbath, and on the eighth day [shall be] a Sabbath. 40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. {boughs of goodly trees: Heb. fruit of, etc} 41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. [It shall be] a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

The primary activity during this feast is the building of booths or shelters (Sukkah). God commanded the Hebrews to build shelters to live in during the Feast as a reminder of how He cared for them during their wilderness wanderings and the fact that they were pilgrims passing through this life (Lev. 23:42-44).

Levi 23:42 (KJV) Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths: 43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I [am] the LORD your God. 44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

The shelters were loosely constructed and decorated and the roof covered with branches. This allowed the Hebrews to see through the roof into heaven and be reminded of an even greater rest and rejoicing when God's hoped for Messiah would rule on the earth. Thus, the Feast of Tabernacles symbolizes the Messianic age.

The Feast of Tabernacles has such universal significance in God's redemptive program, that He requires all nations to go to Jerusalem to celebrate this feast in the world to come (Zech. 14:16).

Zech. 14:16 And it shall come to pass, [that] every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

I, as well as the untold multitudes in the various Messianic Ministries of the world, rejoice to see the many thousands of Gentile believers which are returning to the Biblical Roots of their faith in this day and time as a sign of the prophetic season in which we are living.

WHAT SHOULD THE BIBLICAL FESTIVALS MEAN TO THE CHRISTIAN?

I am aware that many teach that the Festivals were fulfilled in the life and ministry of the Jesus of the New Testament. Much of that understanding is taken from the Gospel of John and other passages in the New Testament. It is not my intent here to discuss such a matter, but when one undergoes a serious and intensive study of the New Testament and its "forged texts" as compared with the Hebrew Old Testament for accuracy one is saddened by the purposeful gross misapplication of Old Testament passages, purposeful mistranslation of Old Testament passages, and the hundreds of Old Testament passages purposefully taken out of context in the New Testament which are purposefully manipulated to provide "false proofs" that make it appear as if this New Testament Jesus fulfilled the Old Testament prophetic passages and the Biblical Feasts. I used to believe that as well from reading "only" the New Testament, but after years of serious study, where I compared line upon line of Hebrew Old Testament and true Masoretic text from the Jewish Scriptures and not the "altered" Christian Old Testaments with New Testament text, I came to see the error of my previous religious belief system. I had put my faith in the wrong document. Along with that I had the "Wrong Salvation Message" and the "Wrong Pattern of Worship". In light of such a study and the convincing results from it then the bottom line is that we cannot be certain that this Jesus of Rome's New Testament was the Messiah or even historically existed in the first place.

If you find it hard to believe what I just said, then I suggest you purchase only one book and be awakened to the serious flaws in the Christian Bible and the New Testament which has so severely been "added to and taken from" by the Roman Church over the centuries: Antisemitism In The New Testament by Lillian Freudmann. What a book! What a book! What a book! Read it and you will never be the same again and not sorry that you did and then you will not be able to question what I say or write for when you take her challenge and compare the Hebrew texts, line upon line, and precept upon precept with the later Greek and English Christian Old Testaments and New Testament you will see how doctrine after doctrine was altered and changed from the Hebrew; in so doing you will see "another Gospel" created, "another Pattern of Worship" was instituted by Rome, and "another Salvation Message" replaced the only one mankind had known since the beginning of time!!!

IN SUMMARY...GOD'S TRUE PLAN OF SALVATION

Having said that, then let me explain God's true plan of salvation as seen in the Biblical Festivals as taught in the Bible that a Jew like this Jesus used and believed in the first century...the Holy Tanakh:

- God makes His salvation available through faith as pictured in the physical salvation of Israel from Egypt at the Passover where God passed over those who responded to Him in faith and obedience. Works accompany such belief for if the Israelites had not responded accurately to their faith and failed to apply the blood to their door then they would likewise had died.

- Once we are saved at Passover one comes to Unleavened Bread as it is time to get the "leaven" (picture of sin in the Bible) or sin out of our lives. This is a sanctification whereby we make ourselves through repentance and obedience to the Word of God acceptable vessels for God's Spirit to inhabit. God's Spirit comes to such a one in the fulfillment of Pentecost.
- We then leave the first harvest season during the year and encounter the dry period as symbolized by the whole of life of mankind. Once we are saved, cleansed, and filled with God's Spirit, we are equipped to live out our lives where we must deal with the good and the bad as we encounter them in life. Sometimes life is hard as seen in the dry season following Pentecost; yet we have the Spirit of HaShem to comfort and sustain us.
- The next Festival is Rosh HaShanah which symbolizes our death at the end of our life. It is appointed for man to once die and then the judgment which is also a second part of Rosh HaShanah.
- After the resurrection at Rosh HaShanah and the judgment and reward for believers as well as non-believers, then one awaits final atonement at Yom Kippur.
- The only thing lacking is the eternal dwelling of the Spirit of God with mankind at the Festival of Tabernacles. This is the eternal Sabbath where God and man are one.

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that not only did the above plan of YHVH'S salvation make sense, but Yeshua's name was not mentioned once?

This is only a summary to say the least of what the Biblical Festivals reveal...the Plan of Salvation of God. And if you noticed, this plan is very understandable to the Jew and non-Jew without trying to "force" Jesus to fulfill passages that yet remain unfulfilled. Sadly the Christian Church has not heard this message and yet it is the very core of the whole of the Bible a Jew like Jesus would have! So sad! I thank God above that He put into my heart the love for Him and the desire to study as I have to find these truths and be able to share them with other Christian brothers and sisters who are in Churches that teach them wrong and in so doing likewise teach incorrectly the Salvation Message of God let alone the wrong Pattern of Worship of God.

BET EMET MINISTRIES

"Hebrew for 'House of Truth'"

Craig Lyons M.Div.

The following is the recommended reading list for students of Bet Emet Ministries. Each of these following books is very important in your study of the origins of the Christian Faith for one or more reasons. If I had it to do all over again instead of the several hundred or so books collected and read over 20 yrs these would be the only books I needed to read to get the total picture of the corruption of "the faith once given the saints". From my viewpoint looking backward I consider each of these books mandatory for ones understanding of the difficult problems which confront us once we begin to study the origin and corruption of early Christianity. I make few promises but I will make an exception at this time: If one undertakes to read as many of these books in the following categories then there will be little that will escape him in his quest for truth concerning the Christian faith, the "Jesus Story", as well as Messianisms within Judaism which originated with Egypt in the beginning of time. This is all the more important when one gets down to the difficult task of trying to reconcile the Jewish Messiah as taught by Judaism and the blurred image of him as found in our depiction of the "Jesus Christ" in the Second New Testament which Rome gave us in refutation of the earliest Gnostic First New Testament which has been so tragically altered today and which so few tragically are aware. Blessings to all in your search for God's truth. These books will reveal to you the different "karast/Christ", or should I say "Jesus" which is found down throughout recorded history: the Mystical, the Mythical, and the Historical. Only two are "true" and one is an absolute falsity due to the tragic loss of the "gnosis" and knowledge of the previous two. Can you guess which one is false?

A Christian's religious belief system, when tested and exposed to contradictory facts from Biblical languages, Biblical history, Biblical culture, the study of Gnosticism as well as Comparative Religions, Astronomy and Astrology, and Archeology, must in the Spirit of Truth and Repentance, be flexible enough to change.

Blessings.....Craig Lyons M.Div. 2004

Answer for yourself: What will these books teach me?

These books will help the reader confront the many challenges regarding the orthodox approach to the inherited "Jesus Story" and the history of Christianity and its true origins. These books point their critical finger at many of the rigid dogmas of Christianity as well as the LITERAL interpretation of the "Jesus Story" which has sadly created not only mental servitude with attendant idolatry but at the same time stifled the real understanding of the original Christian message that goes all the way back to the beginning of time in Egypt. If you read these books you will come to see beyond any doubt that the true meaning of Christianity is to be found in the Mystical and Mythological Teachings. These books will help you see through the false traditions inherited in our day and will show you the need for a revival of the effort to discover the esoteric significance of the Christian heritage, to understand the ALLEGORICAL method of Biblical interpretation, and to find behind the myths, legends, dramas, symbols, and allegories, the spiritual vision which they embody as understood by the Ancients. Only in this way will there ever be a new birth for Christianity and an new enlightenment which is no desperately needed in the Christian world comprising over 3 billion people in the world today.

I CONSIDER ALL OF THESE BOOKS A MUST....YOUR LIBRARY NEEDS EACH OF THEM OR AT LEAST REPRESENTATIVE FROM EACH CATEGORY.....IF YOU READ THESE BOOKS OR AS LEAST THE "GREAT ONES" THEN YOU WILL KNOW ALL THAT NEEDS TO BE KNOWN...(ALMOST)..BUT YOU GET THE POINT....MOST PROBLEMS WITH CHRISTIANITY ARE DEALT WITH IN THESE BOOKS AND FEW THINGS ESCAPE EXPOSURE IN THESE BOOKS...THEY COVER IT ALL..... needless to say I have many more books that I could recommend...but this is the best of crop.. you might can get some of them inexpensively at <http://www.bibliofind.com> under the "used" book searches.

SO YOU THOUGHT YOU WERE A FOLLOWER OF YESHUA.....YOU MIGHT NEED TO RECONSIDER

Disclaimer: It is important for the reader to understand that in this website, in comparing first century Judaism and their Messiah with later Christianity and their presentation of the Jewish Messiah along with the unveiling of the historical truths concerning the non-Jewish "believer" in the first century, I will use a "literal-historical" approach to the "Jesus Story". If you have studied our other websites then you know that "the Christ" can be interpreted from 3 different perspectives down through recorded history: "mystical", "mythological", and "literal-historical". Only after one has spent a considerable time in dedicated and scholarly studies in such areas as Biblical Judaism, the Jewish Messiah and true Messianic prophecy as taken from the Hebrew Scriptures and not the later forged texts of Rome, manuscript evidences, the history and origin of the Roman New Testament, the Gnostic Paul vs the Roman Paul, the Essenes and their "literal godman", Gnosticism, Egyptian religion and the ancient "Jesus Story", Comparative religion, and Astrotheology can he understand and be certain which two of the above three methods of interpretation of "the Christ" are accurate and factual. Again for purposes of comparing Judaism vs Christianity and the implications that this holds for the non-Jew and "Godfearer" we adopt in this website and for all studies in this website a supposed "literal-historical" interpretation of "the Christ" as well as the Jesus of the New Testament. Only in so doing can we adequately contrast the truths of Judaism vs Christianity theology and by so doing follow the train of these Divine Truths back down the corridors of history to the earlier Divine revelations given to mankind by the Creator which were intended for both "Gentiles" and "Jews" as well. I will let you be the judge of the results of such studies and leave to the reader to draw the necessary conclusions as we attempt to compare Jewish and Christian theological perspectives all the while dealing with the New Testament Jesus in a "literal-historical" manner in order for such an accurate comparison to be done effectively. I will leave the conclusion you draw concerning the Jesus of the New Testament up to you and your personal study of the materials available to us today. Craig Lyons M.Div.

Let me begin with a quote from the New Testament...from an epistle written to non-Jews like most of our readers.

2 Cor. 13:5

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your ownelves.....

I think that this is a very good idea to prove to ourselves that what we believe is true; in fact I have practiced self-examination of such religious beliefs in light of the facts regarding the "real historical Jesus" for over a decade. Because of such self-examination in light of my discoveries as I combed through 2000 years of Biblical history, culture, as well as in-depth analysis of Biblical language, I have been forced to change much of my religious belief system along the way. It is my desire that this article challenge you to scrutinize your religious beliefs as I have been challenged over the years. May God witness truth to your soul.

Answer for yourself: Was Jesus a Christian and would he ascribe today to the vast majority of doctrines taught in his name in churches which go by his name as well?

Well let us investigate. But first we need to set the stage for what is coming next. Try and be as honest with yourself as possible in answering these next questions.

TO WHICH RELIGION WOULD A PERSON BE A MEMBER IF HE DID THE FOLLOWING?

- Was circumcised on the eighth day.
- Kept Sabbath from Friday sundown to Saturday sundown.
- Attended a synagogue regularly.
- Kept the Biblical Festivals such as Passover, Hag Ha Matzah (Unleavened Bread), Shavuot (Pentecost), Rosh HaShannah, Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement), Sukkoth (Tabernacles) and Hanukkah.
- Was a citizen and friend of Israel and believed Israel is the example for all non-Jewish people in the world
- His Bible contained the Torah, the Prophets and the Writings ONLY!
- Quoted passages as authoritative from the Mishnah (the Oral Law).
- Taught that Deuteronomy 6:4 was the most important commandment.
- Wore a tallith and phylacteries in religious services
- Did not eat unclean foods
- Taught the eternalness of God's Covenants and His Laws
- Taught that faith without works is no faith at all
- Taught that salvation is more concerned with events in the here and now than what occurs beyond the grave

I suppose that most of you came up with the same answer.....you don't have to be a scholar to recognize that one that practiced such a faith does not practice Christianity.....he holds to the teachings of Judaism.

NOW, LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT ANOTHER PERSON. SEE IF YOU

CAN IDENTIFY THE RELIGION OF THIS PERSON

- Keeps the Sabbath on Sunday which is the legacy of Sun worship today.
- Attends a church which most likely rejects most things Jewish.
- Keeps Easter and Christmas which were pagan festivals made to look religious to those who don't know the difference.
- Carries a Bible containing an Old Testament and a New Testament which ironically contradicts the Old.
- Stresses a person's beliefs over his actions.
- Teaches that people had to be "saved" by acknowledging a creed or an established set of beliefs in order to go to heaven.
- Teaches that they are not under the law and that the Law has passed away and they are under grace.
- Teaches that the church had replaced Israel as God's people and sees itself as the fulfillment of prophecies given to Israel.
- Teaches that you can eat anything...even Biblically unclean foods
- Attaches no special significance to circumcision

I bet you got the right answer again – a Christian.

GOING DEEPER THAN YOU POSSIBLY HAVE EVEN GONE BEFORE

Now let's take this discussion one more step by answering this question.

Answer for yourself: If a Jew wanted to become a member of a Christian religion could he continue practicing Judaism in the church?

The answer is so simple. You would only have to ask your Pastor that one question to get the answer. Probably in the 99.9% of the cases the answer would be - NO!

TURN ABOUT IS FAIR PLAY

Answer for yourself: If a Christian wanted to become a convert to Judaism could he continue practicing Christianity and the items listed above? Again the answer is rather obvious.

Now, the percentage moves upwards, probably in 100% of the cases the answer would be - NO!

It is very apparent that not only are Judaism and Christianity different religions, they are exclusive in many ways. This reveals an amazing fact which can be seen by asking one very simple question –

WHICH RELIGION DID JESUS BELONG TO...CHRISTIANITY OR JUDAISM?

- Was circumcised on the eighth day.
- Kept Sabbath from Friday sundown to Saturday sundown.
- Attended a synagogue regularly.
- Kept the Biblical Festivals such as Passover, Hag Ha Matzah (Unleavened Bread), Shavuot (Pentecost), Rosh HaShannah, Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement), Sukkoth (Tabernacles) and ### Hanukkah.

- Was a citizen and friend of Israel and believed Israel is the example for all non-Jewish people in the world
- His Bible contained the Torah, the Prophets and the Writings ONLY!
- Quoted passages as authoritative from the Mishnah (the Oral Law).
- Taught that Deuteronomy 6:4 was the most important commandment.
- Wore a tallith and phylacteries in religious services
- Did not eat unclean foods
- Taught the eternalness of God's Covenants and His Laws
- Taught that faith without works is no faith at all
- Taught that salvation is more concerned with events in the here and now than what occurs beyond the grave

Now for the easy part. The answer to the above question is a matter of historical record which is easily attested to by the New Testament itself-- Jesus was a Jew, not a Christian and he was certainly not both. It is clear that Jesus was a practicing Jew who lived a very observant Jewish life-style.

In fact we cannot find any instance whatsoever where Jesus ever: Kept the Sabbath on Sunday, attended or affiliated with any group which rejected things Jewish, kept the pagan festival of Ishtar/Easter or the sun god's birthday (Saturnalia...December 25th....Christmas) which were pagan festivals made to look religious to us today, ever taught anything that contradicted the Old Testament as does much in the New Testament, ever stressed a person's beliefs over his actions, ever taught that people had to be "saved" by acknowledging a creed or an established set of beliefs in order to go to heaven, ever taught that people are not under the law or that the Law had passed away and they were under grace alone, ever taught that the church had replaced Israel as God's people, and ever taught that you can eat anything...even Biblically unclean foods.

JESUS NEVER RENOUNCED JUDAISM OR QUIT BEING A JEW

An amazing discovery for any Christian is the fact that there is simply no evidence that Jesus ever renounced Judaism and quit being a Jew. Also, his teachings do not indicate that he ever wanted any Jew to renounce their Judaism and join a new religion. If this revelation every breaks into your conscious mind then you will have to confront Gentile Christianity for what it has actually become despite Jesus's wishes or example set for us.

Answer for yourself: How then, did Jesus get credited with the distinct label that he was the person responsible for creating a new religion?

Answer for yourself: How did Jesus get credit for creating another religion which opposed the religion and way of life he continued to live...even up to his death?

Let us try to answer questions raised by such an assumption:

LOOKING THROUGH THE EYES OF A JEWISH RABBI NAMED JESUS

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi prohibit circumcision or downplay its significance?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi change the Sabbath to another day...let alone to the day set aside for sun worship by the pagans?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi create a replacement for the synagogue?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi substitute a pagan feast which was clearly idolatrous, Ishtar (Easter), for

Passover?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi want his followers to celebrate the birth of a Roman god (Saturnalia -- December 25)?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi teach his students to not keep the biblical commandments or that they no longer applied when God already said they were forever?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi teach Gentiles to hate Jews?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi add books to the Torah in spite of the warning in Deuteronomy forbidding the changing or adding to the Word of God?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi replace Deuteronomy 6:4 as the most important commandment?

Answer for yourself: Would a rabbi teach Gentiles that it is permissible to eat unclean food when Noah, himself a non-Jew separated animals based on the principle of clean/unclean long before there were any Jews?

The answer to all the above questions is that a rabbi wouldn't, and that includes a rabbi named Jesus!

TOUGH - THOUGHT PROVOKING QUESTIONS YOU NEED TO ANSWER FOR YOURSELF

Answer for yourself: If Jesus didn't create a new anti-Jewish religion, who did?

Answer for yourself: Who is responsible and what were their motives in replacing the faith of Jesus with a faith about Jesus?

Answer for yourself: Was it the men who acquired leadership after Jesus' departure and the death of the Apostles who did such a thing ?

Answer for yourself: Were those responsible for changing the faith of Jesus actually Jews or Non-Jews and were their motives in changing Jewish doctrines consistent with anti-Semitism?

Answer for yourself: Did they continue teaching Jesus's message and his gospel or did they change Jesus's message in places, and are you, at the present not yet aware of it at your present level of knowledge?

THE BOOK OF ACTS PAINTS US A PICTURE WE WOULD DO WELL TO EXAMINE CLOSELY

The book of Acts provides us with some very valuable information too long overlooked by most Christians. Acts 21:17-25 records Paul's return to Jerusalem and his meeting with the leaders of the "church." Keep in mind that these were the men who had been personally taught by and lived with Jesus. Their words provide us with some very enlightening information. The translation given below is based on a cultural and historical methodology. Your translation most probably reflects the doctrines of the Roman church and therefore may differ.

"You see, brother (referring to the Apostle Paul), how many thousands of Jews have become faithful (observant). All of them are zealous for the Torah (Law). They have been informed that you have taught the Jews of the Diaspora to not keep the Torah, that they should not circumcise their children or live according to the Jewish religion.... Take these men and do the following... so that everybody will know that there is no truth in these reports about your teachings, but that you yourself are living an observant life-style and keeping the Torah."

REMEMBERING THAT THIS IS A PICTURE OF JESUS' CHURCH

A quick summary provides us with some very significant information. Understanding that this passage reflects events which occurred long after Jesus's death then I ask you to be truthful to the text as well as yourself in asking yourself this: Is your church producing the same results?

- Jews who believe in Jesus are becoming more faithful (observant to the Law) because of the message taught by Jesus's followers.
- The message of Jesus's church caused adherents to become zealous for the Torah (Law).
- The members of Jesus's church kept the Laws of Moses (the Torah).
- The members of Jesus's church circumcised their children.
- The members of Jesus's church lived according to the traditions of the elders of Judaism (the Jewish religion).

Notice that Paul did as he was requested - Paul example, at least while he was in Jerusalem under the watchful eyes of the Apostles, wasn't teaching the Jews to abandon their religion. On the contrary, Paul's behavior and example was one as "under the law" and as one who lived an observant Jewish life-style.

Answer for yourself: How then could he have been the author of a doctrine that advocated rejecting the law as is ascribed to him by most Christians today?

Answer for yourself: Not meaning to over-stress this point, but are you really getting the importance of this message as taught by Jesus's church in Palestine?

IS YOUR CHURCH PREACHING THE SAME GOSPEL AND MESSAGE AS YESHUA'S CHURCH?

Again looking at Acts 21 for our information.....let us examine what we are taught by this New Testament picture:

- The message of the apostles caused Jews to repent and become observant Jews who practiced Judaism faithfully.
- The apostles were causing Jews to become eager for the Torah and to pursue it with fervor. It is clear that they were not teaching them that "they were under grace and no longer under the law" or that "the law has passed away after Jesus's death" as we have been told today. This one point is in complete opposition to most fundamental teaching of every modern Christian doctrine.
- The Jewish members of the early church continued to circumcise their children. In other words, they continued to see themselves as participant's in the Abrahamic Covenant, just as every practicing Jew does today. Their children were Jews, not members of some new mystical religion that replaced Judaism.
- The Jewish members of the early church continued to practice Judaism. They did not switch to a new religion.

HOW ARE WE TO INTERPRET PAUL'S ACTIONS?

When we look at Paul's actions, after being ordered by James to take several men with him to the Temple, thereby paying for their animal sacrifices in order to prove that he was an observant Jew by bringing blood sacrifices and sin offerings necessary in finishing his Nazarite vow, we are faced with two possibilities: (A) Paul intentionally deceived the apostles and the Jews in Jerusalem; or, (B) Paul's image and/or the teachings attributed Paul may have been altered by the Roman Church a hundred or more years later.

Answer for yourself: Did Paul intentionally deceive the apostles by faking his true beliefs when bringing sacrifices in the Temple after Jesus's death?

Answer for yourself: If Paul did deceive them, could you put much confidence in his teachings at other places in the New Testament? Remember he already has said that he can become anything to anyone to prove his argument and accomplish his goals.

Answer for yourself: On the other hand, if Paul's words were changed by the Roman Church could we base our foundational beliefs on forged documents?

Christianity, almost universally, requires a Jew to convert to Christianity before he can become a member of the church or be saved. This conversion process forces the Jew to renounce his or her Judaism and terminate or redefine many Biblical and Jewish practices.

Having read this article so far, please think deeply while answering these next questions:

Answer for yourself: Would your church require a Jew to renounce or stop practicing Judaism if he or she wanted to become a member?

Answer for yourself: How many circumcisions have you attended for the children of Jewish members of your church?

Answer for yourself: How many of your church's members are Jewish and are zealous for the Torah and are pursuing it with fervor?

Answer for yourself: Does your church conduct at least one Torah study per week?

Answer for yourself: How many of your church's Jewish members are observant Jews?

Answer for yourself: When was the last time you attended a Passover Seder, or a Rosh HaShannah or Yom Kippur service at your church?

Answer for yourself: Do you have a rabbi or a minister well educated in the Hebraic Roots of Christianity leading your church?

Your answers to the above questions are probably -- Yes, None, None, No, None, Never and Minister.

I want you take some time to think about the next question before you answer it.

Answer for yourself: What would your church require a rabbi to do if he applied for membership?

Answer for yourself: Would they allow him to continue to be a rabbi, practice Judaism, teach the Torah, wear his prayer shawl, observe all the Jewish festivals and teach the members that they were under the Law?

Answer for yourself: What if that rabbi was Jesus?

Are you beginning to see the truth?

Without a great deal of effort it becomes glaringly apparent that neither Rabbi Jesus, the apostles nor the Paul of Acts 21, would be allowed to join a Christian Church the likes of which we see today. On the other hand, it is also clear that Rabbi Jesus would not participate in any religion that not only opposes, but is actively dedicated to destroying his Father's religion!

Gentile Christianity has for centuries felt it was given a mandate from God to "save the world." This is the goal and stated mission of Christianity.

THE SILENT SLAUGHTER OF TRUTH

Answer for yourself: How is this mission to "save the world" to be accomplished?

Just ask the Southern Baptist Convention who just last year vowed to win every Jew to Jesus by the year 2000. To put it very simply, the goal is to convert every Jew (non-Christian) to Christianity. The Jewish convert must renounce his Judaism (or any non-Christian religion he may hold), agree to accept the doctrines of Gentile Christianity and oppose any religion that opposes Gentile Christianity.

Instead of a physical holy war (Jihad), Gentile Christianity has engaged in a doctrinal holy war. As I stated above, Christianity is an exclusive religion. Christians are not allowed to simultaneously practice Islam, Buddhism, Judaism or any other religion. Therefore, if Christianity was to attain its goal of "getting every person on the face of the earth to believe in Jesus," including all the Jews, Judaism would be totally destroyed and cease to exist. If this were ever to happen, and I pray it does not, then Christianity would have the dubious honor which Hitler in vain tried to achieve; namely the eradication of not only the Jewish people from the face of this planet, but the total destruction of the true faith of Jesus...Biblical Judaism.

This would accomplish something that the crusaders, the inquisition, Hitler and a number of others have failed to accomplish.

Answer for yourself: How do you think a Jewish Jesus would react to the idea that such a mission was being carried out in his name?

This really gets weird when you think about it! Christians base their proof for their ultimate salvation on a Jewish rabbi named Jesus (Jesus), who was an observant Jew who faithfully practiced Judaism. On the one hand, his religion would most probably not allow him to practice modern Christianity. On the other hand, modern Christianity would not allow him to practice its religion without first renouncing his religion -- Judaism!

This should present a very important challenge to every Christian:

If a Jewish Jesus could not, and would not, practice a religion dedicated to destroying his religion, how can anyone who bases their salvation on Rabbi Jesus participate in and perpetuate it?

Answer for yourself: Would Rabbi Jesus agree with the church's salvation message which is based on such a system? Are you getting the drift of this discussion?

Answer for yourself: How did the religion that Rabbi Jesus and his followers practice evolve into what it is today? To begin to unravel this problem lets ask how a religion whose foundational position focused on teaching its members "to keep the Law" became a religion whose main message was that "members are no longer under the Law."

Early Christian writers taught that the Law had been fulfilled with the coming of Jesus. Fulfilled, as they defined it, meant that it had been canceled and therefore was of no importance to Christians. However, to Rabbi Jesus, "fulfilled" meant (1) to keep the Law; and (2) to correctly interpret the teachings of the Bible. There is absolutely nothing said by Rabbi Jesus that would support modern Christianity's doctrine of grace.

Next, the Roman Christian leaders focused on the story of God's unconditional and unending support. However, they claimed that this was something new and was created when God made a new covenant of grace. Again, this was unknown to Rabbi Jesus and his apostles. Early Gentile Christian leaders and theologians continued to develop their new doctrines from the mid-second century on through the seventh century. As they refined their arguments they became much more antagonistic toward Judaism.

This Gentile anti-Judaic movement spanned almost all of Christianity -- from the Roman African communities represented by Tertullian (160-220 C.E.), to the Iranian monk Aphrahat (300-350 C.E.) of the eastern Syriac Christian tradition, and to Bishop John Chrysostom (349-400 C.E.) in Antioch.

Studies have clearly shown the extent to which leaders of the early church attacked Judaism for its position on the law, calling Jews "slavish adherents to the letter of the law." They claimed that Judaism was allowed to continue to exist primarily as an example of degradation.

Answer for yourself: What do you think that rabbi Jesus would have thought about that position?

Origin, the third-century leader of the Christian community in Caesarea, summed up the difference between Judaism's and Roman Christianity's approaches to Scripture:

"It seems necessary also to explain how certain people by failing to read or understand Scripture correctly have given themselves up to a great many errors, since the way one ought to approach the understanding of divine letters is unknown to a great many people. And so, the Jews, through the hardness of their heart and because they wish to seem wise in themselves, have not believed in our Lord and Savior....

Now the reason that those we have just mentioned [Jews and heretical Christians] have a false understanding of these matters is quite simply that they understand Scripture not according to the spiritual meaning but according to the sound of the letter....

[But] a person ought to describe threefold in his soul the meaning of divine letters, that is, so that the simple may be edified by, so to speak, the body of the Scriptures; for that is what we call the ordinary and narrative meaning. But if any have begun to make some progress and can contemplate something more fully, they should be edified by the soul of Scripture. And those who are perfect... should be edified by that spiritual Law (Rom. 7:14) which has a shadow of the good things to come (Heb. 10:1), edified by the spirit of Scripture. Thus, just as a human being is said to be made up of body, soul, and spirit, so also is sacred Scripture, which has been granted by God's gracious dispensation for man's salvation."

This new scheme for reading Scripture, and the charge that Jews miss all but the literal meaning, made for powerful arguments. Origin's dichotomy between "letter" and "spirit," or in other words, between reading biblical materials either at their face value for norms of behavior and as a more generalized stance toward the world, set the stage throughout history for Christians to increase the fervor of the charge of legalism. Legalism became synonymous with Jewish, and therefore was viewed in a negative light. However, the word "legalism" simply means someone that "lives in accordance with or adheres to a legal system."

Answer for yourself: What would you call someone who "did not adhere to or live in accordance with a legal system"-- a Christian? The products of this anti-Jewish tradition still shapes the thoughts of over 1.6 billion Christians regarding Judaic law.

I am challenging every Christian to make a decision to return to the religion, teachings and life-style expounded by Rabbi Jesus. Don't misunderstand what I am saying; I am not advocating adopting and accepting the current "theology or faith" about Jesus; rather, return to the real faith of Jesus and the place within it for the Gentile Godfearer. As I stated above, according to the book of Acts, your conversion experience to the faith of the Apostolic church of Jesus as seen in Acts 21 should have made you zealous for the Torah and brought you back to an observant Biblical life-style as defined by the commandments of God.

Answer for yourself: Has it?

Becoming a member of Rabbi Jesus's movement should have caused you to become a serious student of the Torah. You should be teaching the Torah to others, especially the flood of Gentiles who are coming to you to be taught.

Answer for yourself: Has it?

Answer for yourself: Is there any other way for you to be a "light to the Gentiles?"

If you are a Gentile, you will also need to take a very close look at Acts 15. Gentiles who were coming to the movement originated by Rabbi Jesus were given very special instructions. First they were to place themselves under specific laws. For all practical purposes those laws were the Ten Commandments. Of special importance was their keeping the Jewish Sabbath and studying the Torah at the synagogue with the Jews.

Keeping the Jewish Sabbath is something that you can do immediately, however; many of you may find it difficult to locate a synagogue where you will be allowed to study the Torah. For very good reasons, after thousands of years of persecutions, the Jewish community is very cautious. I believe that as Christian Jews return to the synagogue, because of the teachings of Rabbi Jesus, the doors will be opened wider to Gentiles desiring to know the God of Rabbi Jesus.

Two things must be kept in mind as both Jews and Gentile Christians choose to return to the teachings of Rabbi Jesus. First, almost two thousand years of conflict between Judaism and Christianity has left many scars. Both religions have developed reactionary doctrines and theologies. A reactionary doctrine created as a reaction to the another religion's actions or doctrines.

An example would be the Jewish position concerning kneeling for prayer. Because Christians knelt for prayer, the Jews took the position that they should no longer kneel but stand for prayers. Judaism altered its form of worship because of this practice of Christianity. There have been many reactionary doctrines created both between and within both religions. This is an area of research that deserves much attention. I would challenge my readers to consider such a research project.

It must be kept in mind that the Judaism of Jesus is not exactly the same as the Judaism of today. Also, the movement attributed to Jesus is not the same as modern Christianity. Obviously, many things have taken place since the time of Jesus which resulted in the separation and numerous differences between the two religions.

It is of the utmost importance for both Christians and Jews to understand these changes. You must know when the changes were made, identify the people who were responsible for making the changes, and discover why they made them. You must come to an understanding which changes were motivated by inspiration, which were produced by the hunger for power and wealth and which were the results of human frailties such as anger, rejection, fear and hatred.

As you embark on this journey you will quickly come to realize that you have stumbled upon the greatest cover-ups in history.

As you become more acquainted with the truth upon your study you will realize two very important things:

- Leaders, especially scholars, have always been aware of this information and have deliberately chosen to ignore it.
- This information has been virtually within the grasp of every American. In many cases it is as close as an encyclopedia or attainable today through the Internet.

Today, there are over 2.5 billion Christians on the face of the earth – the vast majority who believe in their heart they are true followers of Jesus, but as I have shown you, are practicing a different religion from which Jesus practiced. If they all returned to the teachings and life-style taught in Acts, we would see a moral and ethical revolution that would literally rock the foundations of the world and no longer would America, touted to be the most Christian nation in the world, be recognized as the world's most violent and law-breaking nation of the world. That should make you wonder what it would be like if Christians really followed the faith of Jesus and if your church would really allow you to be like Jesus.

ISAIAH 56...GOING BEYOND THE LAWS OF NOAH & CHOOSING THOSE THINGS THAT PLEASE GOD...BUT ARE WE?

Often I am asked why as a Christian I keep the Biblical Festivals and the weekly Sabbath. The reason is so simple once you read and correctly understand the whole Bible.

First as Christians we must become aware of the Laws of Noah and the Covenant of Noah as referred to in Acts 15.

This Covenant of Noah is referred to in Acts 15 by James as "necessary" for Gentiles who are becoming grafted into Israel/Church WITHOUT formal conversion to Judaism which had, up to that time, been required for ANY fellowship between Gentiles and Jews religiously, etc. Due to bigotry and hatred by Jews toward Gentiles in the first century, the Jews had enforced and put upon Gentiles what God never did.....the requirement to keep the laws of God which had never been given to them as a people....such as circumcision. Such approach to the non-Jews by bigoted Jewry of the first century was intended to keep the Gentiles separate from the Jews. Circumcision often, for an adult male, meant death due to infection and disease in the first century and this was an effective way to keep these “dogs” as arms length. It worked. God wanted to change this and did so through the effective ministry of the followers of Jesus as seen in the Acts 15 account and the epistle of Galatians. Sadly Christians today when reading Paul (Galatians for example) fail to understand when he says “you are not under the Law” he only is referring to the major issue of circumcision. Such is the ignorance that goes with the lack of sufficient study of the our faith as followers of Jesus.

THE GODFEARERS....NON-JEWISH BELIEVERS IN GOD

There is a term often overlooked in the New Testament which is of major importance for correct interpretation of the requirements of Gentile believers before God....namely the term "Godfearers." These were Gentiles without circumcision who according to Acts 10:35 are accepted with God...but unfortunately were not accepted among Jews. So you have the background for what comes next.

As James tells us in Acts 15 these 4 of the 7 listed Laws of Noah (containing 66 subsets) were necessary for Gentiles...to be part of Jesus' church (notice that he said this after the cross)!

Acts 15:28-29 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things [referring to the Covenant and Laws of Noah]; 29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Since Acts 15 followed the death of Jesus then I have to ask you: "What has changed since the cross" when James made his decision as being "necessary" and "which seemed good to the Holy Spirit?"

NOTHING!

Answer for yourself: If adherence to the Laws of Noah were necessary and seemed good to the Holy Spirit for Gentile believers coming to God through Christ and his ministry through his followers then.....what about now?

Let me remind you that nothing has changed since the crucifixion and this event in Acts occurred over 20 years after the death and resurrection of Yeshua. Then James says in this recorded event (remember over 20 years after the cross)... "as Moses is taught in the Synagogue every Sabbath" thus implying that Gentiles who are turning from idols to serve the living God begin their repentance since coming to God with adherence to the Laws of Noah as the "minimum required" and then were instructed in fulfilling Isaiah 56 where is it recorded for us that Gentiles are to learn to "choose those things that please God from His Torah which go beyond the minimum [as Moses is taught in the Synagogue every Sabbath]."

Understand that not all the Law (613 commandments) are applicable for Gentiles and they never were commanded by God to fulfill or obey all 613. Basically they were given 66 within the Covenant of Noah. The joy comes when you understand that you don't have to do [observe] more, but you get to. Such is the demonstration of your love for God who saves you].

ISA. 56..AND GOING BEYOND THE MINIMUM

Isa 56:1-6

- 1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.
- 2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree (understand here that we are NOT to be separated from the Israel of God as non-Jewish believers).
- 4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs [Eunuch are non-Jews] that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant (notice that non-Jews kept God's Sabbaths [plural...including festivals and weekly sabbaths and took hold of God covenant with Israel and acquired more mitzvoth and commandments):
- 5 Even unto them [speaking of the non-Jew] will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.
- 6 Also the sons of the stranger (again referring to non-Jews), that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

This passage is extremely important for the Christian today for although the Sabbath and Festival commandments were not required for Gentiles in the Laws of Noah (yet it can be shown for example that Abraham knew and observed the Passover for instance), it is implied in Isa 56 and Acts 15 that Gentiles would meet on the Sabbath for instruction in God's Commandments where they could learn and then apply other Sabbaths (festivals) and Commandments to their lives, thus pleasing God, for how can we say we love Yeshua or the Father unless we obey them?

If one undertakes a serious study of their faith (Christianity) it can be shown, that although not commanded of non-Jews, Abraham and others can be found keeping them. This love for God is demonstrated in their willingness to do what pleases God. It is our hope the same spirit be upon you. But if you are a typical denominational or non-denominational Christian today your experience is anything but the above. You have for your authority a book called the New Testament which in places calls such obedience to these Laws and Commandments a curse and if that was not enough you Church calendar is filled with pagan solar and astral days which have been made to look as if Jesus has something to do with such idolatry.

Hosea 4:6 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Is God serious in the above passage and could this ever happen to you once you die and then find out that your "experience" was wrong and that just a little study on your part would have shown the folly of many things in your "Christian experience"?

WHY HAS NOT YOUR PASTOR TAUGHT YOU THESE THINGS?

Lets look at just one example of "choosing those things that please God" which the New Testament can be shown to teach; but the key is recognizing them and this is almost impossible without a background in Judaism and Jewish Roots of Christianity.

Also in Acts 20:8 is recorded that "there were many lights in the upper chamber." Most of us have read this passage over and over our whole lives and just pass right over it moving on to the next passage. For your information this passage is recording for us the Havdalah worship service which is a religious service that ends the Sabbath on Saturday evenings at sunset; thereby .separating the Sabbath Holy Day from secular days. The Fourth Commandment is:

Exod 20:8-11 8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. 9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: 10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: 11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. (KJV)

PLEASE PAY CLOSE ATTENTION

Notice that in Troas, a Greek city, the Apostle Paul is teaching Gentiles to observe Havdalah on the Sabbath evening. In other words followers of Jesus, in fulfillment of the Great Commission were observing the Sabbath on Friday evening to Saturday evening long after Jesus' death and resurrection. Gentile believers were keeping the Sabbath and not Sunday. Rome will change this with Constantine and since then followers of Jesus have disobeyed the Sabbath and kept days set aside for sun-worship instead. Neglect of the sabbath and sanctification of pagan holy days is considered Idolatry and this is where the vast majority of good Christian people find themselves today; most never find out until they die. Needless to say the experience of the non-Jewish believers in Troas is NOT the experience of most Christians. Why not?

Repeatedly in Paul's trips he entered the synagogue as was his custom, and it was in these Greek cities that Gentiles were attending "church" on the Sabbath. With just a little study you would find out that the early church knew what we do not: namely that Yeshua was crucified on Wednesday afternoon and raised at the end of Friday evening (at the beginning of the Sabbath which is a picture of the world to come where believers in God realize Eternal Life where there is not more death...figures does it not): So much for Catholic tradition and Good Friday when it was Good Wednesday (ha ha)!

It would be many years after Yeshua's death before Gentiles would later take control of Christianity and change the day of worship from the Sabbath to Sunday.

Let us look at another example.

In 1st Cor 11:2 Paul thanks the Gentiles in Corinth for “remembering him in all ways and KEEPING the ordinances.” The root word for “ordinances” when traced to the Greek and Hebrew will refer to "divine appointed times"...festivals and Sabbaths.

Answer for yourself: Have you forgotten that Isa. 56 spoke of this very thing regarding non-Jews who come to God were allowed to keep such Festivals and Sabbaths so that would not be separated from God people (the Jews)? I hope not because what follows next is another example of the New Testament rightly "divided" where we see such things again taught to non-Jews in the fulfillment of the Great Commission.

Again in Corinthians Paul admonishes Gentiles to "keep the feast" [Passover} because Yeshua was killed on that day.

It is not my intention at this point to embark on who and why the meaning of Jesus' death was changed later by some who deviated from normative Judaism but let me say that Jesus'/Yeshua's death was the catalyst that generated from a Gentile hating Judaism a movement into all the world whereby God's Covenant and Commandments were taken in the Great Commission in the form of the Laws of Noah whereby non-Jews would learn and turn from idolatry to the living God. Had Jesus not died then this momentous event mostly likely would never have happened and the world as we know it would have been vastly different and the Judeo-Christian ethic would be absent from this planet today. Contrary to what most Gentile Christian believers understand today regarding this "Passover" passage of Paul in contemporary Christianity, one should understand that it was through Jesus' death that the salvation of the non-Jew was accomplished because it would be from this ministry that would begin after his death that would come a movement which would go into all the world and take to the non-Jews the Covenants of God and the path for non-Jews to come to the saving knowledge of God. This is the historical understanding of the passages that relate to how the death of Jesus saved the non-Jew. His “blood” was simply a metaphor for his death and his death accomplished what Israel was failing to do at the time, namely, not being a priest to the nations and not bringing their non-Jewish brothers to God. Jesus’ death did this through the missionizing of the world by his followers. So, again, metaphorically, you can understand how non-Jews were saved by Jesus’ blood (or should I say death). Many will dispute this and claim literally that the “blood” saves but this only betrays they lack of adequate understanding on how the sacrificial system worked. If only one looks to Lev. 17 where it says:

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

Look at the subject of the sentence. I defy anyone to tell me that the subject accomplishing the action (atonement) is not the word "life" and not "blood." The word "blood" is the object of the preposition in the sentence. This realization many years ago awoke me to serious study into the dynamics of the sacrificial system where I surprisingly learned that I had been taught it 100% incorrectly by the Christian Church as well as my pseudo-professional teachers. It is time we learn the truth about Jewish things from Jews who KNOW and literally know Jesus better than Christians (such irony).

Returning to Paul:

1st Corinthians chapter 16:2 states:

1 Cor 16:2

2 (Speaking to non-Jews in Corinth...a Gentile city)...Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

One should note that "day" in most Bibles is in italics and this means it was "added" to the text by the Bible society which printed the Bible. In reality it is saying, by interpretation, "on the first of the week" or "as the week was dawning." This refers to the time period when the first of the week was beginning to dawn (in Hebrew time the day begins at evening and end in the morning the first day).

So again reference is again made to a Havdalah service on Saturday evening for non-Jewish believers in Corinth...thus concluding the Sabbath just before the beginning of our Sunday which, according to Jewish time, begins at 6:01 P.M. in the evening.

Also another example:

In I Corinthians 10:16 it is recorded: is this not the "cup of blessing" which refers to the ONLY cup of the Passover Seder...other than Elijah's cup at the end of the Seder, which again shows us a picture of Gentiles keeping Passover and the Sabbath.

I could go on and on but by now you get the point I hope...we don't have to keep Sabbath....but if it is recorded that Gentiles doing so pleases God in Isa 56..."who keep my Sabbaths...[referring to Feasts and Weekly Sabbaths]" ..then what kind of follower of Jesus are we when we choose not to do things knowingly when they please God?

To top this off understand that non-Jewish believers were taught these things by Israel until early in the 4th century when Constantine and Rome would create an official state religion which would destroy the existing "faith once given to the saints...both Jew and non-Jew; and out jumped the golden calf of Gentile Roman Christianity which would lead the way to the official recognition and production of the New Testament some 70 plus years later."

We at Bet Emet Ministries are dedicated to instructing Gentile believers [Christians] in returning to the hidden truths of the Bible. Today in English we miss so much since few have the skills to rightly interpret this Bible correctly (historically, linguistically, culturally, politically, etc). By God's calling and grace we have been shown these truths which have caused us to repent from the errors in our religious belief system...such errors caused us to have a life-style that was less than pleasing to God in many areas...and this was do the fact that we lacked only knowledge (the Bible says 'my people perish because of a lack of knowledge).

Please understand that these few examples which I have shared is just the tip of the iceberg for Christians. Our texts are full of errors in key places where the crafters of our New Testament took great pains to make sure the Gentile readers would not see nor understand the Jewish Roots of their faith; such was Rome's ploy in creating this New Testament in the first place. I have only touched on just a few examples in this article but please understand that such errors of omission involve other important areas of our faith as well: atonement, Christology, Messianism, Covenants, etc. If you are a serious student or desire to be then our websites can be of great value to you in your desire to learn the truth and ultimately be able to discern the shaft from the wheat in Gentile Christianity.

I hope this has opened your heart and eyes...and given you a desire to learn how you can live a life more pleasing to God. If we can be of further assistance to you in sharing our many teachings and newsletters...please let me know and I will include you on our mailings. Watch for our Web Sites. May God bless you and may He cause you to walk in His statutes...shalom!

THE EARLY GENTILE CHURCH KEEPS THE PASSOVER FOR OVER TWO CENTURIES UNTIL THE RISE OF CONSTANTINE

Answer for yourself: Is there any New Testament passages or historical evidence that will prove that the New Testament Church observed the Passover long after the time of the death of Jesus as recorded in the New Testament?

Answer for yourself: Can we prove that the New Testament church kept the Passover ten years after the death of Jesus as recorded in the New Testament? Well let us look carefully at the Book of Acts to see if we can find any clues.

Act 12:4 And when he had apprehended him, he put [him] in prison, and delivered [him] to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

Answer for yourself: Were you aware that the New Testament translators, out of all the times they used they translated the Greek word "pascha" as "Passover", decided to use instead of its tradition meaning "Passover" the word "Easter" ONLY in this passage in Acts 12:4?

Answer for yourself: Why were they not consistent in translating the word "Pascha" as "Passover" as they have in ALL OTHER INSTANCES OF THE WORD when found in the New Testament?

Answer for yourself: Are they trying to cover up the fact that the early church observed Passover instead of Easter which was a pagan fertility festival?

The word "Easter" is a purposeful mistranslation and deception and it not accurate to the text and the intended meaning let alone history. The original Greek word used in the Greek texts of the New Testament is "pascha" which is indeed "Passover" as shown below:

Thayer's Greek Lexicon:

- the paschal sacrifice (which was accustomed to be offered for the people's deliverance of old from Egypt)
- the paschal lamb, that is, the lamb the Israelites were accustomed to kill and eat on the 14th day of the month of Nisan (the first month of their year) in memory of the day on which their fathers, preparing to depart from Egypt, were bidden by God to slay and eat a lamb, and to sprinkle their door posts with its blood, that the destroying angel, seeing the blood, might pass over their dwellings;
- the paschal supper
- the paschal feast, the feast of the Passover, extending from the 14th to the 20th day of the month Nisan

GENTILES OBSERVING PASSOVER

Now we shall see what Paul taught the Gentiles regarding the Passover feast with it's new symbols of the unleavened bread and the wine.

1 Cor 11:23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the [same] night in which he was betrayed took bread: 24 And when he had given thanks, he brake [it], and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. 25 After the same manner also [he took] the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink [it], in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

Without question the reference his to the night before the crucifixion refers to the "last supper" which in Judaism was the "last supper" where one could eat leavened bread. Thus the reference to the "sop" dipped we find in the other Gospels. This is the dinner before the Passover Lamb would be offered in the Temple the following day. Paul taught the Gentile Christians in Corinth to keep Passover. Paul spent much of his time in and around the Gentile city of Ephesus in Asia Minor (modern Turkey). Evidently the churches in Asia Minor continued to keep Passover while most of the other "Christian" churches adopted the pagan festival of Easter.

Polycarp was appointed by the Apostles to oversee the Christian church in Smyrna near Ephesus. The early Catholic historian Eusebius wrote about Polycarp...

"While Anicetus was at the head of the church of Rome [AD 154], Irenaeus relates that Polycarp ... had a conference with Anicetus on a question concerning the day of the pascal feast [Passover] .... But Polycarp also was not only instructed by apostles, and acquainted with many that had seen Christ, but was also appointed by apostles in Asia & was the bishop of the church of Smyrna [Revelations 2:8] .... He also was in Rome in the time of Anicetus and caused many to turn away from the ... heretics to the Church of God, proclaiming that he had received from the apostles this one and only system of truth" Ecclesiastical History, book IV, chapter 14, in the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, vol.1

What is of major importance for us is that during his time in Rome, Polycarp discussed the celebration of a pagan festival which was the forerunner of present day Easter celebrations - in the place of the Passover feast.

Here's what Eusebius wrote about this meeting....

"Neither could Anicetus persuade Polycarp not to observe what he had always observed [the Passover] with John the disciple of our Lord, and the other apostles with whom he had associated" book V, chapter 24

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that Polycarp, a non-Jew and Bishop of the Church of Smyrna around 150 A.D. (today known as Izmir), a city on the west coast of Turkey, would not stop observing the Passover and would not observe the pagan festival we call Easter today?

Within 35 years the Passover controversy reared it's ugly head again. Victor, the bishop of Rome, attempted to excommunicate every church that still kept the Passover feast. Eusebius continues on, now regarding this event....

"But the bishops of Asia, led by Polycrates [a later bishop who succeeded Polycarp], decided to hold to the old custom handed down to them. He himself, in a letter which he addressed to Victor and the church of Rome, set forth in the following words the tradition which had come down to him: 'We observe the exact day; neither adding, not taking away. For in Asia also great lights have fallen asleep, which shall rise again on the day of the Lord's coming, when he shall come with glory from heaven, and shall seek out all the saints. Among these are Philip, one of the twelve apostles ... moreover, John, who was both a witness and a teacher, who reclined upon the bosom of the Lord ... and Polycarp in Smyrna, who was a bishop and martyr.... All these observed the fourteenth day ... the passover according to the Gospel, deviating in no respect, but following the rule of faith. And I also, Polycrates ... do according to the tradition of my relatives.... My relatives always observed the day when the people put away the leaven [in preparation for the Feast of Unleavened Bread]''' book V, chapter 24

Answer for yourself: When did Polycrates, the Bishop of Ephesus, Asia, Minor, write this letter? It is estimated about 196 A.D. which should take our breath away when we realize that now we have two testimonies of the efforts being made by Gentile Church leaders to maintain to "the faith once given the saints" in refusing to change the traditions handed down by the Apostles to the world that required non-Jews as well as Jewish believers to keep and observe the Passover and not switch to the pagan fertility customs called "Astarte" or "Easter"!

Thus we have historical evidence that for 200 years Gentiles in the true church of God kept the Passover feast even after the pagan feasts has been introduced to Christendom.

PERSECUTION OF THE SMYRNA CHURCH

It was prophesied that the Smyrna church would be persecuted....

Rev 2:8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; 9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and [I know] the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but [are] the synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast [some] of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

This "synagogue of Satan" composed of people who claimed to be Christians (spiritual Jews) but in fact belonged to the apostate church which began even before Constantine!

PASSOVER IN THE MILLENNIAL KINGDOM

Let's study some Bible proof that the Passover will be observed during the millennial Kingdom.

Mat 26:29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

Luke 22:15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

Luke 22:16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

Meanwhile the New Testament church is commanded to keep the Passover now in this age....

*1 Cor 5:8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. (KJV)

1 Cor 11:25 After the same manner also [he took] the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink [it], in remembrance of me.

1 Cor 11:26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

Here we see examples for us that should teach us that not only did the disciples but the Gentile followers "Jesus" and "the Christ" in Corinth in Asia, Minor, over twenty years after the death of Jesus, were observing the Passover at the admonition of Paul to "keep the feast" with unleavened bread which identifies for us that he was referring to "the Pesach" or "the Passover". Thus the Christian church was expected to keep the Passover feast as part of their worship of God as both history and the texts of the New Testament reveal. The apostles kept the Passover, and certain Christians today are keeping this feast as well and NOT the pagan festival of Easter. Such is pure worship which is not tainted with idolatry and paganism. Shalom.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #1

If you are a Christian this article contains the most important piece of information you will ever read. I behoove you to read the whole article if you want to understand the death of Jesus as God intended.

The facts presented speak for themselves. I pray you will quietly and prayerfully speak to the Father as you read this most enlightening articles. My prayers and blessings are with you.

For the purpose of coming to a correct understanding of Judaism and the "Sacrificial System" and the dynamics on how it operated the articles in this series will be approached from the viewpoint that the Jesus of the New Testament was a "historical person".

That might seem strange that I said that we have to assume that the Jesus of the New Testament is a historical person. Let me say for now that is our premise until proven otherwise but in this early study it is necessary to view the New Testament depiction of Jesus/Jesus as a historical person. As our studies advance we will examine this premise in detail but for now we approach all early studies with this as our premise.

As a Christian you have been told your whole life that two great objectives were accomplished by Jesus in his mission to this world.

- The removal of the curse under which mankind labored as a result of the disobedience and fall
- The restoration of men to the image and fellowship of God.

Both of these things accomplished by the historical Jesus we are taught are essential to mankind's salvation as taught by Gentile Christianity. Christianity teaches that the work of Jesus Christ in reconciling God and mankind is called "the" Atonement; and this doctrine lies at the very heart of the Christian system. Sadly few understand correctly this very important doctrine, the origin of Christianity's claims, nor can the Biblical teaching on Atonement be understood correctly without a proper understanding of the Hebraic roots from which it came. We are altogether dependent on Old Testament Scripture and Jewish writings for our knowledge concerning the doctrine of the Atonement and can know only what God has seen fit to reveal concerning it by examining thoroughly the Sacrificial System through the eyes of Biblical Judaism.

Now what I say next is very important to remember as our studies in Biblical Atonement begin because it is the very foundation of what lies behind the death of Jesus when depicted as a historical person; when "allegory" of the "descent, death, and resurrection of God", as taken from the ancient Mystery Religions, is altered at the hands of Rome to become a "literal-historical" event by later Roman redactors of the New Testament. What most don't know as our study of atonement begins is that when one encounters the teachings of Atonement in the New Testament, which were collected and altered repeatedly by the Gentile Church over the earliest centuries by the way, one is reading the "Gentile accounts of the "fallen gods/goddesses" and their "deaths" when this "Life/Spirit/Living Energy descended into matter" and the "Soul" as well as "the Christ or Divine

Mind" became internalized within humanity". We will come to see later in more advanced studies that the whole idea of the life of this Jesus as an atonement is the replay and repetition of the prior ancient Spiritual Wisdom taken since the foundation of the world which addresses the "descent of gods/goddesses and their allegorical and metaphorical death when Spirit "crossed" over and into "Matter". Notice I said "crossed" as in a "cross" or "intersection" of the Divine Living Energy of the cosmos with "matter". This is where we get the idea of a "cross" in the beginning of time. Behind this idea, replayed over and over since ancient Egypt and all later world nations and religions up and until the rise of Roman Christianity in the 2nd through the 5th century we find this "dying and rising god concept" in every world major religion. This idea of "Spirit" dying in its incarnation into fleshy "matter", needing a resurrection from the dead while humanity yet lives, is the core idea for all later "Atonements" as taken from mystery religions" and is not to be confused with "fulfillments" of Old Testament Scriptures! Now let us look at the New Testament Jesus and his death as an atonement for sin as taught in the Roman New Testament.

Our present purpose in this series of articles is to give a systematized account of what the Jewish Scriptures, the Bible Jews like this first century Jesus used. By "Jewish Bible" I refer to the Palestinian Masoretic Text, the Tanakh. It is here we must look for our original teachings concerning Atonement, and show how the dynamics of atonement interrelated with the Sacrificial System and in so doing apply what we learn to the death of Jesus. In so doing we can see, with this unaltered and first hand knowledge of the Sacrificial System and its dynamic workings, just what place and role, if any, that it has in relationship to the death of Jesus as depicted in our New Testaments.

A CHRISTIAN'S UNDERSTANDING OF THE NEW TESTAMENT IS IMPOSSIBLE WITHOUT A THOUGH UNDERSTANDING OF THE TRUE JEWISH SCRIPTURES

First of all you have to have the correct text. I used to think I had it as a Christian with my favorite KJV; that is until my studies in Judaism advanced and I began to compare the Hebrew Texts with the later translations of them in both the Greek and later English version. I was broken to my very core as my studies advanced and I say with my own eyes that my Christian Old Testament as well as my New Testament did not read anything like the ancient Hebrew Texts in "key" theological places that separates Christianity from Biblical Judaism. I would find, and we will look at a little later, many of these "purposefully altered, purposefully mistranslated, purposefully misinterpreted, and purposefully taken out of context texts along with pure inventions of Scriptures" that exist in our Christian Bibles; texts altered to further Rome's creative theology and "radical reinterpretation" of the ancient Divine Wisdom. This was necessary on their parts if they were to manufacture a new "Replacement Religion"; a religion which they controlled and to which only they held the "keys" to the salvation of the whole of humanity. It was during Seminary when reading "outside the box" concerning the "Jewish Jesus" that I ran into many books by Jewish authors that challenged me to my very core to investigate for myself these "altered texts" which they were sharing with me on the pages of these books. I could not believe that this could have happened to my Christian Bible in the beginning, so taking the challenge I invested almost a whole year in just comparing texts from the Hebrew Bible, the Greek Septuagint, the KJV Old and New Testaments and tracing the texts down through the centuries of Bible translations. There was not enough Kleenex for my tears streaming from my broken heart when I finally surrendered my apologetic defense of my Christian Faith. I had to face the facts of such eye-opening studies. God knew I had seen this for myself and denying it now would have made me a hypocrite, not a good character trait for a young Baptist boy wanting to be a Pastor. I had to bow my knees to the fact that my Christian's Old Testament and New Testament quotes of them is different and tragically dissimilar from the true Jewish Masoretic text in over thousands of places; many of which are located at "key" theological positions that were altered in order to deny and misrepresent Judaism and their original Hebrew Scriptures to the unsuspecting reader. This piece of knowledge should concern you immensely! "Key" earlier Hebrew texts were altered in my Bible dealing with such areas of "theology" like the nature of God, the nature of man, the salvation message from God, forgiveness of sin, atonement, the role of Satan, the frequency of assembly by believers, the role of the Law, the mission of believers to the world, the Biblical Holy days as well as the Sabbath, Messianic prophecies, etc. The list seemed endless. I realized that I did not have a "translation" but rather a "free creationism" of Scriptures at the hands of later Roman editors and redactors whose intent was to devise and sell to the world a "replacement religion" other than that taught through Israel, the "light unto the Gentiles". If you want the facts check out: <http://historyofformationofnewtestament.netfirms.com> and in your spare time examine these "key" texts for yourself. You as a child of God deserve and should demand an accurate translation of these ancient Hebrew Texts and not a falsified free creationism which was long ago adulterated, debased, and "doctored" by non-Jews, who over the centuries, transformed the Hebrew Scriptures and the Jewish faith to suit their plans for world domination through the agency of fear and ignorance. Enough of this preparation and introduction. If you have been reading our materials we have made this most plain over the years. Now to the purpose at hand.

In one of Paul's most condensed and fundamental statements of Christian teaching we read: "For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ (Messiah) died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures," I Cor. 15:3.

Answer for yourself: Even in the corrupt Old Testaments in the Christian Bibles, can you find where the Old Testament prophecies say that Jesus was to die for sin and that he was to be buried and raised on the 3rd day? Go ahead and find it, I will wait and wait and wait and wait for you to find it.

What? You cannot? No wonder; it is not there anywhere! And please don't read into Isa. 53 the concept of an "individual" when the author from chapter 40 on through chapter 66 deals with a "corporate, collective, and national" Suffering Servant, the nation of Israel, and never one individual.

We will save the Isaiah study for later. But know that if you try to read into the passages the idea of a single person, like Jesus, you must try to explain to yourself why the Isaiah writer uses interchangeably over and over again from chapter 40 through chapter 66 both "singular" and "plural" pronouns for his sole subject. Even in light of this literary style used for 26 chapters in a row in the Book of Isaiah, a style that consistently shows us upon close examination that the author is not referring to a single individual, then in light of this fact if you still try to make it refer to a single person then understand that you invalidate completely what Isaiah intended we learn from the passage. Doing such a thing as making both "singular" and "plural" pronouns refer to but one person, in this case Jesus, is called "eisegesis" and is reading into the text your pre-formed theology based upon prior conditioning. Let us not do that; the fruit of such is always error. We are supposed to believe what we can draw out of the unaltered Scriptural texts. The unaltered Scriptural texts must determine our religious beliefs; not our inherited traditions that oppose such unaltered Scriptural texts. Such is exegesis. I recommend exegesis as you can see and because of my Christian background I must fight daily to limit my eisegesis and preconditioning since childhood as much as possible because so much error is burned into my subconscious. We must struggle and fight for the truth. Such makes one Israel, a word that means "one who struggles with God".

IF WE HAD A GOOD KNOWLEDGE OF THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES THEN WE COULD NOT BE MISLED BY BY THE NEW TESTAMENT

First of all understand that the word "Christ" means Messiah in Hebrew. So according to Paul, in the New Testament passage in I Cor. 15:3 he states in his "gospel" is saying that the Messiah died for our sins. Now Paul either wrote or did not write this. We really don't know since so many of these New Testament texts have been edited for centuries. We do know, and will address it later in a complete website, that the authentic Paul is a Gnostic, not a pro-Roman believer. Paul, being a Gnostic, only believed like other Gnostic "believers" in the indwelling of the Spiritual Krst/Karest/Christ/Messiah. These Gnostic Chrestian believers never accepted during the following 5 centuries a "literal or historical" Christ who supposedly died on a cross for the sins of mankind. That was the unanimous belief of all Gnostics until their extinction by the hands of Rome in the 5th century. But, as stated before, for practical reasons and to contrast Judaism and their views of atonement with those of later Roman theology, we will assume that Paul is the writer of this above passage for now.

Answer for yourself: Does the unaltered Hebrew Scriptures teach Israel to prepare for and accept a Messiah who comes to die for their sins? No it does not in fact; it teaches just the opposite and this is where the problem lies. But we as Christians are not aware of this sad fact because our Old Testaments in our Christian Bibles read completely different in "key" doctrinal places from the earlier Hebrew Scriptures. Few Christians are ever enlightened to this fact and die never knowing that their Bibles are simply a fraud and unreliable for "faith or practice".

You might not be able to answer the above question by using only your Old Testament Scripture for now but you will be able soon enough if you continue to study our articles. The Gospel of John in the New Testament states that the "Word became flesh," meaning by most Christian interpretation that Jesus, the Messiah, came from Heaven in the form of flesh. Few ever stop to think that this "Word" that "became flesh" refers to the whole of humanity:

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (KJV)

Christianity answers the above dilemma two ways: one, there was a time the flesh was "not the Word" and a time when the "Word became flesh" in the Virgin Birth. Without going into detail, the idea which was understood and believed by the first Jewish followers concerning Jesus; that of him "becoming" Messiah at his immersion is just another proof that the Virgin Birth teaching is incorrect. If you would like to have the detailed teachings exposing the errors in the Virgin Birth teaching request them from Bet Emet Ministries and we will be glad to see you get them. So, important for your understanding now as we study atonement is that according to the texts this Jesus becomes "the" Messiah (Messiah means anointed and we have record of this anointing of Jesus "without measure" at his immersion when he was 30 years old at the Jordan). Thus this Jesus "becomes the Messiah" at 30 years of age. Incidentally, this is exactly what some of the later Jewish followers of "the Christ" both hoped and believed following the destruction of the Temple after 70 A.D.; namely they, accepting the oral tradition of a "crucified Savior" that failed to fulfill the true Messianic promises in his first coming since Israel did not merit her Messiah, would return and become the Messiah of Israel at his second coming. These were called the Ebionites. This branch of Judaism developed long after 70 A.D. and set their hopes upon a yet coming deliverer and many connected such hopes to a slain Messiah how had been among them but not recognized by Israel. Their writings are available today as well as the records of the early Church historians which reveal to us what the earliest beliefs were concerning Jesus before being changed by the Roman Church in the fourth century and following. They, for the most part, never saw this Messiah as a Divine person, only mortal like themselves. It is not my intention to explain in this article why the prophecies of the Jewish Scriptures were not fulfilled nor deal with the fictional creations of "false-fulfilled" passages in the New Testament in this article. We have that information available to those who would desire it at: <http://www.faithofyeshua.faithweb.com>.

NOW LETS THINK ...

Now let me ask you a question that goes to the very foundation of the core of our beliefs about salvation.

Answer for yourself: Accepting for now that the real Paul wrote I Cor. 15:3 and according to this passage that this Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, then should we not rather try to understand this passage to say that "Christ died because of our sins" instead of "for our sins?"

Critical for our understanding is if Christ's death:

- Was the result of our sins or if his death atoned for sins?
- If Christ's death atoned:
  - For ALL our sins or
  - If his death atoned only for PART of our sins (Yom Kippur/The Day of Atonement teaches us the truth in this regard), or
  - Did his death NOT atone for ANY of our sins?
- Should the emphasis be upon Christ's death or rather his life as an atonement for sin?

We need to look for a second at a very important Scripture, Leviticus 17:11:

Lev 17:11 11 For the life (Soul) of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood (that contains the Soul) that maketh an atonement for the soul. (KJV)

Notice if you will that the "life or Soul" is in the blood. The word "blood" in this text is the object of the preposition "in" and is not the subject of the clause nor the sentence. Every complete sentence contains two parts: a subject and a predicate. The subject is what (or whom) the sentence is about, while the predicate tells something about the subject. The subject of the sentence in Leviticus 17:11 is the word "life" which in Hebrew is "nephesh" or the "Soul". It is the Soul which is the active part of the clause and the subject; it just happens to reside in the blood. The clause specifically states that it is the Soul, not the blood, which atones for sin. Take a deep breath! Hebrew contains a lot of "parallelisms" and in these two clauses we find "synonymous parallelism" where the same thing is said twice. We see upon close scrutiny that God gave "it", a modifier of the previous subject "the Soul" as the active agent in atonement and forgiveness of sin, not the object of the preposition which is "blood". We should reflect right now what implication does this new knowledge have upon one new understanding of atonement.

Answer for yourself: Do you see that the "blood" is only passive in this sentence and that the Soul is the active agent that obtains atonement? What is the role of blood in this process and why was it thrown upon the altar? We will get to this soon but for right now understand that the Soul and its thoughts and actions is the ONLY atoning agent that Biblical Judaism ever taught; it is one's life and mind and actions which atones for his own sin; not the sin of another. Wow, what a shot heard round the world!

Before we get to the very heart of this issue we must come to a better understanding of the Sacrificial System in order to correctly consider if Jesus' death can be understood as a proper sacrifice within the Law and the dynamics within the Sacrificial System and if it truly affected the forgiveness of mankind's sin.

LAWS OF THE SACRIFICE

The terminology used with regard to the patriarchal age is that of the Torah as a whole; it is unlikely that the same words in Genesis mean something different in the other Books of Moses. Thus, Cain and Abel each brought a "gift" (minhah; Gen. 4:4f.), which was usually of a cereal nature as brought by Cain (Lev. 2). Notice this is not a sin offering! Noah offered up a burnt offering ("olah"; Gen. 8:20ff.) and the pleasing odor of the sacrifice is stressed. Job is also depicted as making burnt offerings periodically (Job 1:5) and for specific purposes (Job 42:7-9). The burnt offerings, signifying complete surrender to God, were by far the most frequent sacrifices at the Israelite sanctuary. Again these offerings by Noah and Job were not "sin" offerings and only showed the complete devotion and surrender of the "offerer's" heart to God as he demonstrated and testified to his relationship with God through such "gifts".

I need to repeat the last statement as it will have major significance as you continue to read.

These burnt offerings [olahs] as seen in Cain, Able, Noah, and Job only showed the complete devotion and surrender of the "offerer's" heart to God as he demonstrated and testified to his relationship with God through such "gifts".

The Patriarchs normally are said to have "called on the name of the Lord," e.g., Abraham (Gen. 12:8, 13–4; 21:33) and Isaac (Gen. 26:25). The association of this phrase with the building of an altar shows that it refers to the approach to God through sacrifice. With Jacob the naming of the specific altar is stressed (Gen. 33:20; 35:7). Once Abraham is said to have offered an "olah" (Gen. 22:13) but Jacob (Gen. 31:54; 46:1) offered "zevachim". Again these were NOT "sin" offerings NOR were they intended for Atonement.

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that we find no "sin offerings" up through Abraham and his sons? Why not? How did man approach God and obtain forgiveness for his sins if he did not bring "sin offerings"? Hold on, we will get there but let the fact stagger your mind that for thousands of years, even as far as 1,500 B.C.E. man NEVER brought "sin offerings" to God!

Now let us look at "offerings" and "sacrifices" from Moses to Samuel. The covenant sacrifice inaugurating the relationship between the Lord and His people (Ex. 24:3–8) is not paralleled by specific rituals in the Mosaic liturgy. Burnt and peace offerings were first offered and then the blood from them (not from a sin offering) was thrown half against the altar and half upon the people. These were not "sin offerings". In the land of Canaan the Israelites made sacrifices at various places, e.g., at Bochim (Judg. 2:1–5) and Ophrah (Judg. 6:24–26). The human sacrifice of Jephthah's daughter (Judg. 11:30–40) was hardly normative; instead it is pointed out as evidence of Israel's sad spiritual state at that time. The main center for sacrificial ritual was at Shiloh (I Sam 1:3ff.), where faithful Israelites came for an annual festive offering. That the ritual there was highly developed and detailed is proven by the explicit description of malpractice on the part of Eli's sons (I Sam 2:13–17) in taking their portion of the meat before the entrails were burned. However, Shiloh was not the only legitimate place of sacrifice; others included Beth-Shemesh (I Sam 6:14–15), Mizpah (I Sam 7:9), Ramah (I Sam. 7:17; 9:11–24), and Gilgal (I Sam. 10:8; 11:15; 13:9). Family and clan sacrifices were commonplace (I Sam. 16:2–5).

Answer for yourself: What should we learn from the above?

Common to all these instances was "sacrifices" for other reasons than "sin offerings"! This is so very important to grasp! What you need to know is that in the Old Testament the first mention of animal sacrifices for "sin offerings" was AFTER the Golden Calf and the sin of idolatry by a people already possessing relational knowledge of the True God

Answer for yourself: Then how did mankind obtain forgiveness of sin up until the Golden Calf and the idolatry associated with it? Can you fathom that mankind on this planet never brought "sin offering" to God up until the time of Moses and the 18th Dynasty of ancient Egypt which is dated to be around 1,350 B.C.E.? Surely mankind sinned from their beginning and must have been given a way of obtaining atonement prior to the Exodus. What was it? Is it still in affect today? Does Judaism teach this? Does Christianity teach this? Well stay tuned!

THE SACRIFICES OF THE OLD TESTAMENT AS UNDERSTOOD AND INTERPRETED BY THE JEWISH NATION

Throughout the last 1,800 years few if any attempts have been made by Christianity to interpret the dynamics and working of the Sacrificial System correctly. Christianity has seen fit to interpret the Sacrificial System completely different than how the Jewish people and their Rabbis understood it and with good reason. Had they done so and restored the true understanding to the Jewish Sacrificial System and the proper function of "blood" within it then doing so would have totally exposed the incorrect theology adopted by Rome as applied to the death of Jesus as depicted in the Roman New Testament. Without a correct and proper understanding of the Old Testament Sacrificial System the typical Christian will be continually misled in his understanding of Biblical Atonement and literally "thwarted in coming to the truth concerning Biblical atonement as taught by Moses and the prophets. The proposed explanations and interpretations of Sacrifice and of the Sacrificial System can be divided into three categories: symbolic, judicial, and rational.

SYMBOLIC MEANING OF SACRIFICES

Philo devoted a treatise to the subject of the symbolic interpretation of sacrifices (De Victimis; see Spec. 1:112–256). He pointed out that only domesticated animals and the most gentle birds were suitable for sacrifice and that they had to be free of blemish. But the bird was not the real subject that needed to be free of "blemishes"; it was the person who brother the bird who had to free of sin and blemish. Not the bird, but rather the person bringing the sacrifice must be wholesome in body and soul and this Spiritual condition was "represented" in the being of the bird. The bird without blemish represented the Soul of the person bringing the sacrifice of the bird. The bird contributed nothing to the sacrifice, it was the condition of the Soul that presented itself before God in the offering of the bird solely as the symbolic representation of the Soul. Interesting to note the Soul was always represented in the ancient Egyptian religion as a bird since like the bird the Soul was to "fly to Heaven". This meant for the Jewish people that they had to approach the altar with their soul purged of its passions and viciousness if the sacrifice was to be acceptable by God otherwise it was not acceptable. The condition of the person before he brought the sacrifice was determined by his contrition over his sin, this confession of sin, his repentance of sin, and his restitution to those he has wronged by his sin that determined the actual Spiritual condition of his Soul when he brought his offering; an offering that was but a reflection of his hidden Soul which only God could see (Spec. 1:166/167, 257).

Take notice of the spiritual condition necessary BEFORE the sacrifice was to be presented at the altar. A person's soul had to be purged of sin "IF" the sacrifice was to be acceptable to God.

The reader needs to understand NOW that there were prior Spiritual conditions that needed to be met by the Soul of those who brought sacrifices before the sacrifice was to be brought to the altar. Now lets pick up with Philo.

The wicked would be rejected, even if they offered hundreds of sacrifices (Spec. 1:271). The actual condition of their Soul in spite of the visible perfect and blemishes offering was the determining factor with God if the sacrifice would be accepted. Only God and the person brining the sacrifice knew the truth. The Rabbis stated that the sacrificial statutes indicated that God is with the persecuted. The ox is pursued by the lion, the goat by the leopard, and the lamb by the wolf. Therefore God commanded, "Do not offer those that persecute, but rather those that are persecuted" (Lev. R. 27:5). The requirement that fowl be offered with their feathers symbolized that a poor man was not to be despised. Therefore his offering was placed on the altar in its full adornment, despite the nauseating odor normally arising from the burning of feathers (Lev. R. 3:5). Salt, an indispensable ingredient of sacrifice, was symbolic of the moral effect of suffering, which purifies man and causes sins to be forgiven (Ber. 5a). Judah Halevi declared that the fire on the altar was kindled by the will of God as a sign that the people found favor in His sight and that He was accepting their hospitality and offerings (Kuzari 2:26). Samson Raphael Hirsch explained that the Pentateuch required the person to lay his hands upon the head of the sacrifice to indicate that the "hands" that have become morally weakened "support" themselves on the resolution of the future betterment that is expressed by the offering (his commentary to Lev. 1:4). David Hoffmann declared that sacrifices are symbols of man's gratitude to God and his dependence on Him, of the absolute devotion man owes to God, as well as of man's confidence in Him (Introd. to commentary on Lev. (Heb. ed.), 64–67).

JUDICIAL MEANING OF SACRIFICES

The juridical approach to understanding sacrifices is put forward by Ibn Ezra (commentary to Lev. 1:1) and to some extent by Nahmanides (commentary to Lev. 1:9). According to them, the sinner's life is forfeit to God, but by a gracious provision he is permitted to substitute a faultless victim. His guilt (not his sin) is transferred from himself to the offering by the symbolic act of placing his hands on the victim; this only transferred one's guilt and not his literal sin.

The reader should understand RIGHT NOW that this is something new he has never heard in his Christian Church. It was the guilt and not the sin that was transferred to the innocent animal. This means that no sacrifice ever would or could carry the sins of another.

But when we get to the New Testament we hear a completely different understanding of the Sacrificial System which the Jewish people and their Rabbis have refuted now for over almost 2,000 years. It is stated in 1 Peter 2:24, "and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross,...". This simply is a complete misunderstanding of the Jewish Sacrificial System and the role and function of the representative animal. Never did the animal become the carrier of the sin of the sacrificer because the person brining the sin offering was, according to the Torah, to have previously repented of his sin before ever bringing a sacrifice to the Temple. Has the person obeyed the Word of God he would have previously confessed his sin, been remorseful over his sin, turned and repented from his sin, and done acts of righteousness and charity before ever bringing his sacrifice to the Temple. In so doing he would have stood before God at the altar in the Temple and been in a condition of "sinlessness"; there would have been no sin present in that person's life that any animal sacrifice could have ever carried or bore. This shows us that such a statement in 1 Peter 2:24 is an utter falsehood and a complete purposeful misrepresentation of the Sacrificial System as well as how atonement was ever accomplished in the life of a person.

Answer for yourself: What does this say about Jesus being another's sin offering and sacrifice? What does this knowledge of Biblical Judaism and how the Sacrificial System actually operated as well as the role and function of the sacrifice say about Jesus carrying the sins of another as some type of representative sacrifice?

According to the Laws of the Sacrificial System we see clearly that Jesus, a type and shadow of the sacrificial offerings of the Sacrificial System, could not according to the Laws of the Sacrificial System ever carry the sins of another, let alone the world, as some type of atonement offering. Somebody has purposefully misstated the truth about the role of the sacrifice in the Sacrificial System and related it incorrectly to the death of Jesus. In so doing this errant writer, who surely is not the apostle Peter who, being Jewish, perfectly knew how the Sacrificial System operated, has purposefully clouded the issue of Biblical sacrifice in these New Testament texts. In so doing he has erroneously connected the death of Jesus as sort of an offering and sacrifice which is supposed to bear the sins of the world in his body but that again was never the role or intent of the sacrificial animal; the sacrificial animal was only a symbolic representative of the Soul of the sacrificer at the time he makes the sacrifice. Here we have uncovered outright purposeful deception on the pages of the New Testament in order to make Jesus' death appear to be an atonement for sin. Now back to Ibn Ezra.

Christian writers, when later considering the accounts of the Sacrificial System, observed and took note of the pouring out of the blood and the burning of the sacrifice. Failing to understand Lev. 17:11, where we previously saw according to Biblical Judaism and the teaching of the Rabbis that the "blood" was only a "symbol for the Soul", these Christian writers mistakenly believed that the "blood" was the active agent in the Sacrificial process and not the Soul of the sacrificer prior to brining the sacrificial animal. Lost completely to their awareness, either purposeful or unintentionally, is the symbolic representation of the sacrifice with the Soul of the person brining the sacrifice. Missing this most important dynamic of the Sacrificial System, we find many then erroneously interpreting the whole of the Sacrificial System and in so doing writing that "the person should acknowledge that were it not for divine grace he should be the victim, expiating his sin with his own blood and limbs". Many Christian exegetes adopted this explanations and on it built the whole theological foundation of their Church.

RATIONAL MEANING OF SACRIFICES

Quite different is the rational view of sacrifice advocated by Maimonides. Maimonides held that the sacrificial service was not really of Jewish origin. Maimonides maintained: "It was the universal custom among all peoples at the time of Moses to worship by means of sacrifices. Since the Israelites had been brought up in this atmosphere, God realized that they could not immediately completely abandon sacrifice. He therefore limited its application by confining it to one place in the world, with the ultimate intention of weaning them from the debased religious rituals of their idolatrous neighbors".

Answer for yourself: Dear one, did you hear that? God was in time to wean His people from the pagan idolatrous forms of worship; some of which that contained animal sacrifices. It is these pagan sacrifices that had incorrectly influenced the people of Israel and God was intending over time to wean Israel away from blood sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: What should this say to us?

This means that over time Israel will come to see that "atonement" was to be obtained ways other than with "blood". That is why we find in the Hebrew Scriptures many different ways other than "blood sacrifices" whereby man can make atonement for his sin.

Answer for yourself: Can you now, having seen the symbolic interpretation of the Sacrificial System and the role of "blood" and the role of the "sacrificial animal", the judicial view of the Sacrificial System, and the rational view of the Sacrificial System, see also clearly that "blood" was never necessary to accomplish true atonement? Can you now see that "blood" was never required as a "active agent" in obtaining atonement but rather atonement was obtained by a living Soul that repents of its sin, confesses its sin, turns and repents from its sin, and active practices acts of righteousness and charity because of its sin? Can you see that such a repentant Soul then has the right to stand at the altar with God and by proxy lay itself on the altar with God in the form of the "blood" of the sacrificial animal (the blood of the animal is its Soul and it is this animal's Soul (its blood) which represents the Soul of the sacrificer placed on the altar with God)?

We should see clearly now that there will come a time in the life of Israel where they will no longer need to bring blood sacrifices but depend on other ways given by God to obtain atonement for their sin. This has happened even before the destruction of the Temple and has occurred now for the Jewish people who no longer have their Temple for almost 2,000 years. Biblical Judaism has known for over 3,000 years that it is not necessary to perform "blood sacrifices" to obtain atonement for sin since they have as well understood correctly that the "blood" served only a symbolic purpose in representing the Soul of the sacrificer at the time that he brought his sacrifice to the altar. It is we Christians who don't know this because most of us know not the slightest things about Judaism. This needs to change if you ever hope of making sense out of the New Testament and discerning the "truth within it" from the "fiction and falsehoods within it" as well.

The new service of "confined sacrifice" in one place in the world stressed the existence and unity of God, "without deterring or confusing the minds of the people by the abolition of the service to which they were accustomed and which alone was familiar to them." Maimonides cited the experience of Israel, led not by the shorter way, but by the circuitous route through the land of the Philistines (Ex. 13:17). Likewise, through a circuitous road, Israel was to be led gradually and slowly to a deeper perception of religion and divine worship (Guide, 3:32). He gives the added remarkable parallel that it would be equally incomprehensible for anyone in his generation to suggest that prayer could be offered in thought alone, without the recitation of words.

Abrabanel strengthened the arguments for Maimonides' viewpoint. He explained that only within this framework can it be understood why the Torah limited the Sacrificial Service to one locality while prayers may be recited in all places (Introd. to his commentary on Lev., 2d). Abrabanel cites a Midrash which stated that the Hebrews had become accustomed to sacrifices while in Egypt. To wean them from these Egyptian sacrifices and practices, God commanded, while accepting the sacrifices that had been practiced by His people as influenced by the Egyptian, they were to be offered in one central sanctuary and not in many as were done in ancient Egypt.

The reader should understand that God was going to do a new thing. God was to allow the continuation of these "prior sacrifices" but He will instill a new meaning to them that was to be unique to this new people of God who was separating from the ancient Egyptian peoples. This will be seen in the development of a unique personal relationship between the sacrificer and God Himself through the Sacrificial System. You will see how this works when we look deeper into the concept in Leviticus that "the life is in the blood". God is not concerned about blood, but the life...the soul contained within the blood!

With the destruction of the Temple and the automatic cessation of the Sacrificial System, it was laid down that prayer took the place of the sacrifices because such ideas are also taught in the Old Testament. The Shaharit service was regarded as taking the place of the morning tamid and the Minhah service, the afternoon tamid. On all occasions when an additional offering was brought, the Musaf prayer was introduced (Ber. 4:1, 7; 26b). One of the rabbis later declared that prayer was even more efficacious than offerings (Ber. 32b). In the wake of the destruction of the Temple these added prayer services functioned as a form of atonement. The typical Christian response is that the Jewish people are without an atonement because they have lost their Temple and can no longer perform "blood sacrifices". Such statements are outright illiterate and betray the uneducated minds of those who speak such error. Such statement only betrays the lack of knowledge of the Hebrew Scriptures which teach several different ways commanded by God for mankind to obtain forgiveness of sin and personal atonement. Let us not forget what we saw earlier: namely, that God was progressively weaning the Jewish people from animal sacrifices (the physical) with the intent of Spiritual sacrifices such as prayer, repentance, almsgiving, charity, etc.. This is the message of the Prophets!

THE SPIRITUAL DYNAMICS OF SACRIFICE THAT WE JUST DISCUSSED ...SEEN IN DETAIL

When the glory of the Lord had entered the tabernacle in a cloud, God revealed Himself to Moses from this place where He would put His Name, according to His promise in Ex. 25:22, in order to make known His will through Moses to the people. The first of these revelations related to the sacrifices, in which the Israelites were to draw near (korban) to God, that they might become partakers of His grace.

The patriarchs, when sojourning in Canaan, had already worshipped the God who revealed Himself to them, with both burnt offerings and slain offerings (we saw this above in the form of "burnt offerings"). We already have seen that the Jewish people are told by their own Rabbis that they were allowed to continue the sacrifices of ancient Egypt do performed these sacrifices thousands of years before the Jewish people ever existed. Whether their descendants, the children of Israel, had offered sacrifices to the God of their Fathers during their stay in Egypt, we cannot tell as there is no Biblical allusion whatever to the subject in the short account of these 430 years. Yet we know from archeology that such was the case: Israel performed sacrifices along with the Egyptians during their stay in Egypt. What is certain is that they had not forgotten to regard the sacrifices as a leading part of the worship of God (since sacrifice when properly understood is all about the Soul), and were ready to follow Moses into the desert, to serve the God of their Fathers there by a solemn act of sacrificial worship (Ex. 5:1-3; 4:31; 8:4). Even after the Exodus from Egypt not only did Jethro offer burnt offerings and slain offerings to God in the camp of the Israelites, and prepare a sacrificial meal in which the elders of Israel took part along with Moses and Aaron (Ex. 18:12), but young men offered burnt offerings and slain offerings by the command of Moses at the conclusion of the covenant (Ex. 24:5). Consequently sacrificial laws of these chapters presuppose the presentation of burnt offerings, meat-offerings, and slain offerings as a custom well known to the people over a long period of time and a necessity demanded by their religious feelings. Understand that sacrifices were not introduced among the Israelites for the first time by Moses by what he learned at Sinai, because animal sacrifices date from the earliest period of mankind. The ancients understood that "life (Soul) was in the blood" and that sacrifice was all about the Soul and its Spiritual condition before God.

Answer for yourself: Are you curious why we have not found one "sin offering" yet and we are up to Moses in our time-line? Why not "sin offering" yet? Has man been out of relationship with God since he had no "sin offering"? No, we see repeatedly "burnt offerings", "peace offerings", and "thanksgiving offerings" being offered since the beginning of the Bible whereby man maintains his relationship with God. All of this mind you without a "blood sacrifice" or "sin offering". That should make you think and only reiterates what I have taught you here. We seen repeatedly that "blood" accomplishes nothing in the Sacrificial System; rather it is only symbolic of a person's Soul and its true relationship with God.

The subject of sacrificial laws in the book of Leviticus was not to enforce sacrificial worship upon the Israelites, nor to apply some sort of a theory concerning the Hebrew sacrifices, but simply to organize and expand the already existing sacrificial worship of the Israelites they learned in Egypt into an institution in harmony with the covenant between the Lord and His Hebrew people, and in so doing adapt and promote the end for which it was established...communion and fellowship with God. You need to fully understand what was just said. Read it again please.

But although sacrifice in general reaches up to the earliest times of man's history, and is met with in every nation, it was NOT enjoined upon the human race by any positive commandment of God, but sprang out of a religious necessity for fellowship with God. These sacrifices assumed very different forms in different tribes and nations, in consequence of their estrangement from God, and their growing loss of all true knowledge of Him. Their ideas of the Divine Being were regulated by the nature, object, and significance of the sacrifices they offered, and they were quite as subservient to the worship of idols as to that of the one true God.

Interesting by its absence is any mention of SIN OFFERINGS, PRIESTHOOD, EXPIATION or FORGIVENESS in the PRE-Mosaic sacrifices of the Old Testament....in other words we cannot and do NOT find any mention of "sin offerings" or "priesthood" or "forgiveness offerings" or "expiation offerings" before the Golden Calf incident....more on that soon.

This is very important and you need to let this fact sink deeply into your Christian theology!

Mankind knew what we as Christians don't today. God has always told man how he can become "acceptable to God" without blood sacrifices. Biblical Judaism has taught for more than 2,000 years that salvation or repentance from sin cannot be achieved through sacrifice on another's behalf because according to Deuteronomy 24:16: "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers; every man shall be put to death for his own sin."

Instead of substitutionary atonement as taught in Roman Christianity the Hebrew Scriptures and their Egyptian counterparts have taught for several thousands of years that mankind should be focused during his life upon the requirements of personal repentance. According to Ezekiel 33:11 we see:

Say unto them: As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Again, according to Ezekiel 33:19 we see:

And when the wicked turneth (repenteth) from his wickedness, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

We find the same testimony in the writings of the prophet Jeremiah in chapter 36:3:

It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return (repent) every man from his evil way, and I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

In addition, Judaism focuses on understanding how one may live a sacred life according to God's will in this world, rather than the hope of or methods for finding spiritual salvation in a future one. The Hebrew Scriptures teach that Israel, or the Jewish people, should view their divine obligation to be living as a "holy people" in full accordance with Divine will, as a "role model to the nations," and Judaism does not purport to offer the exclusive path to salvation or the "the one path to God." Accordingly, the implications of the Christian conception of Jesus and its imposed theological meaning to his death not only contradicts the very Hebrew texts themselves upon which Christianity is based but distorts terribly the dynamics of the Sacrificial System and its application to obtaining atonement of one's sin before God.

Man makes himself acceptable to God through faith, repentance, prayer, and acts of righteousness and charity. This being the truth of the whole of the Law, Prophets, and Writings of the Hebrew Scriptures, the same Scriptures that the Gospel of Matthew records that Jesus states that he came not to destroy, then we should begin to see why there are important reasons for the omission of "sin offerings" until 1,350 B.C.E. These "sin offerings" were not needed for "forgiveness of sin" nor for "atonement of one's sin" before God; their role according to Biblical Judaism, when correctly understood, were purely symbolic of the person's Soul and its right standing before God.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #3

We continue in this third article with our studies into Biblical atonement as well as any relationship it might have with the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament.

FORGIVENESS WAS NOT THE THEME OF SACRIFICES BEFORE MOSES AND THE GOLDEN CALF - RATHER SACRIFICES REPRESENTED THE SOUL'S FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD

According to the Genesis account, before the Biblically depicted "fall of man" we find that mankind lived in blessed unity with God. This unity was destroyed by sin, and the fellowship between God and man was disturbed, thought not entirely abolished. In the punishment which God inflicted upon the sinners, He did not withdraw His mercy from men; and before driving them out of paradise, He gave them clothes to cover the nakedness of their shame, by which they had first of all become conscious of their sin. Even after the expulsion He still manifested Himself to them, so that they were able once more to draw near to Him and enter into fellowship with Him. This fellowship (NOT forgiveness) they sought through the medium of sacrifices, in which they gave a visible expression not only to their gratitude towards God for His blessing and His grace, but also to their supplication for the further continuance of His divine favor. It was in this sense that both Cain and Abel offered sacrifices [these were burnt offerings and NOT sin offerings...remember?], thought each not with the same motives or in the same state of heart and Soul toward God. It is important to remember that in reality the offering that is brought to God is symbolic of the Soul so in reality it is the Soul that brings itself as "the sacrifice". In this sense of fellowship and not forgiveness Noah also offered sacrifices [burnt offerings and NOT sin offerings...remember?].

After Noah's deliverance from the flood; something changed in the offering of sacrifices. Whereas the sons of Adam offered their sacrifices to God from the fruit of their labor, in the tilling of the ground and the keeping of sheep, Noah presented his burnt offering from animals like the clean cattle and birds that had been shut up with him in the ark (those animals would from that time forward would also be assigned to man as food...Gen. 9:3). Noah was probably led to make this selection by the command of God to take with him into the ark not one or more pairs, but 7 of every kind of clean beasts. Noah may have discerned in this an indication of the divine will, that the 7th animal of every description of clean beast and bird should be offered in sacrifice to the Lord, for His gracious protection from destruction by the flood. Also notice the distinction of "clean and unclean" foods long before the Sinai experience. Moses, in Leviticus revelation, also received a still further intimation as to the meaning of the animal sacrifices. We see this in a prohibition which God appended to the permission to make use of animals as well as green herbs for food: "flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat" (Gen. 9:4-5). This prohibition to not eat blood is because the flesh still contained the blood as the animal's Soul (remember we saw that the Soul and the "Divine Life of the Soul" actually lives in the blood of the animal according to Leviticus 17:11?). In this there was already an intimation, that in the bleeding sacrifice the Soul/life of the animal was given up to God with its blood. Therefore, the animal's blood served as the vehicle of the Soul. Thus animal sacrifice and the offering of blood became the most fitting means of representing the surrender of the human Soul to God. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT TO GRASP! You will quickly come to see over and over again that although we see the word "blood" used over and over again through our Bibles in reality the "blood" was only symbolic of the Soul and the "blood" actually accomplished nothing; rather it was a picture or image of the Soul of the person who brought the animal sacrifice to offer to God.

THE SOUL OF THE ANIMAL AS FOUND IN IT'S BLOOD REPRESENTED, WHEN PRESENTED ON THE ALTAR, THE SURRENDER OF THE HUMAN SOUL TO GOD

It is not the "blood" on which we should focus but rather the "Soul" which is in the "blood". But when all we have ever heard our whole lives from the pulpits of our churches is about the "blood" or "blood of Jesus" we are ill equipped to understand that that this "blood" is but a symbol of the Soul and this "blood" is but the passive part of the Sacrificial System which only testified to the Soul's standing before God. The Sacrificial System was an outward expression of an "internal condition" of the Soul of the person bringing the sacrifice. The Sacrificial System only demonstrated the Soul's surrender to God. When the "blood" was placed upon the altar in reality it is the "life in the blood" which was placed on the altar. Thus, this "life" or this "Soul of the offerer of the sacrifice" was placed on the altar in lieu of the animal's Soul since he had laid hands upon the sacrificial animal and this sacrificial animal had become his proxy. The "blood" of the animal containing its sinless Soul was to be a perfect representation of the current condition of the Soul of the sacrificer since it was given that the sacrificer had previously obeyed the Torah by turning from his sin, confessed his sin, prayed to God about his sin, and repented of his sin and done charitable and righteous deeds before bringing his "sin offering" to the place of sacrifice. The sacrificer, having done these necessary Spiritual requirements commanded in the Torah, then the Soul of the animal was a perfect representation of the Soul of the person bringing his sacrifice to the altar. The animal was literally the extension of the person bringing the sacrifice. Often the sacrificial animal had been taken from the family's stock and the sacrificer had invested his very life and energy into this animal over its life. Thus, the animal had invested in its very being the very "life" and energy of the sacrificer. The bond between this animal and the scarifier was there. So we see that when the blood of the animal was placed on the altar even more so it was if the very "life" and "Soul" of the sacrificier who had cared for, fed, and groomed this animal was placed on the altar instead.

God would not have a human being sacrifice his life and blood and place it upon the altar as a demonstration of "communion" and "fellowship" with God. Instead with Noah the animal became the symbol that God choose to express "fellowship" between God and mankind. Beginning with Noah, the animal, instead of the fruits of the ground, was to become the extension of a person's life and his Soul. The person bringing the animal had fed, groomed, and cared for the animal usually. It was part of his life and his life and his energy had been invested into the care of the animal. So when the "blood" of the animal was taken and offered upon the altar in reality it was the Soul of the animal that was offered, which again according to the Jewish understanding of the working of the Sacrificial System, "represented" the Soul of the person who had invested his life and energy upon the animal. Thus, we see ultimately it was the Soul of the person who brought the animal to the altar which was "symbolically" placed upon the altar in the blood of the animal. Understand the animal was innocent having never sinned. This "innocence" representative of the Soul of the animal was likewise to be pictured in the Spiritual condition of the Soul of the person bringing the sacrifice. The person bringing the sacrifice was ALREADY to have repented of his sin, confessed his sin, prayed to God about his sin, and made restitution to his fellowman in righteous and charitable deeds if needed BEFORE he ever brought the animal to the altar. Then when the would be sacrificer had done these Spiritual necessities PRIOR to bringing the animal to the altar, then the person's Soul was AT-THAT-

MOMENT (atonement) in right standing with God and he was accepted in renewed communion with God. He was "one" with God. He had obtained atonement right then, long before the animal was ever brought to the altar. He had obtained right standing with God and acceptance long before the animal was ever taken from the flock. He was forgiven of his sin right then and his repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution had accomplished for him atonement PRIOR to the animal and its Soul in its blood was to be offered as his "representative". "At that moment" his Soul was again in right standing and relationship with God. In order to make such a declaration of forgiveness and right standing once again with God to his fellowman and to all, as well to God, then he would have to take an animal and it would be slain and its blood placed on the altar. In so doing, the animal was in its death a CORRECT PICTURE of the previous sinner; now being "dead to sin" and alive unto God this "blood/Soul" of the animal was a perfect image at that moment of the Spiritual state of the person {if he had previously before bringing the animal repented, confessed, prayed, made restitution if possible, given alms, etc.}. The animal's Soul (in the animal's blood) was on the altar which was but a symbol and image of the Soul/blood of the sacrificer who, in doing so, was making a testimony of his communion with God.

Besides this, if anyone wanted to eat meat, the animal's Soul had to be given back to God before the flesh could be consumed. So you see in the Sacrificial system there were two dynamics at work: atonement and the conditions necessary to eat meat which also contained the Divine image which had to be given by to God.

Now you know how the Sacrificial System worked in relationship to forgiveness of sin and obtaining atonement.

Answer for yourself: How are we to relate this to Jesus' death? Is it even possible according to the theology in the New Testament once knowing now the facts and truth of the Sacrificial System?

HOW IS JESUS'S DEATH TO BE RELATED TO ALL THIS?

What I just described in the previous study of the Sacrificial System is an aspect of it that we must deal with in relationship with the New Testament theology and teaching concerning the death of Jesus. It appears that, according to the workings of the Sacrificial System, the whole idea of "substitutionary atonement", has hidden meanings and undertones, that impact severely any belief in the death of a substitutionary person for another. We must not get confused at what we learned so far in the above two articles; namely that the "scapegoat" carried only the "guilt" away from the sinner and not his "actual sins". Add to that the role of the "blood" being "passive" and it appears so far that any idea that another person paying the sin debt of another is totally foreign to the Biblical Sacrificial System. This means so far that there is no way the death of a person, let alone even the New Testament Jesus, has anything to do with one's personal sin and his need for personal atonement with God. Just the contrary is what we found, God holds each sinner personally responsible for his "own sin" and has instructed him not only in the Torah but through learned teachers and Prophets of His Word as to how he is to obtain his own personal atonement and acceptance with God. Added to that is the fact that there is no trace of a single "sin offering" throughout the whole of the Hebrew Scriptures until the incident of the Golden Calf which is only 1,350 years prior to the time of the New Testament age.

Up to now you never these few knew concerning the Sacrificial System in relationship to obtaining forgiveness and atonement. But our study is just beginning. There is much more to learn about the Sacrificial System and its possible application to the death of Jesus as we will see shortly. Once knowing these facts and Biblical Truth we will come to see over and over again that the meaning of Jesus' death as taught in the New Testament as being a final atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world seems very tenuous at best or outright incorrect.

Now our study continues. This symbolic representation of the Soul of the animal for the Soul of the sacrificer may possibly have been only dimly supposed by Noah and his sons; but it must have been clearly revealed to the patriarch Abraham when God demanded the sacrifice of his only son, with whom his whole heart was bound up. Notice in the Abraham account that as a proof of his obedience of faith, and after he had attested his faith in his readiness to offer this sacrifice, God supplied him with a ram to offer as a burnt-offering [burnt offerings and NOT sin offerings...remember?]. Again, we must not be confused here as many might become. The "blood" of the animal was in all respects "symbolic" of the "blood or Soul" of the sacrificer. This we know without any doubt. So with Abraham and Isaac we are concerned only with a "burnt offering". A burnt offering is one that is consumed by fire, and regarded as ascending to God while being consumed. Part of every offering was burnt in the sacred fire, but this was wholly burnt, a "whole burnt offering." The burnt offering was the most frequent form of sacrifice, and apparently the only one mentioned in the book of Genesis. Such were the sacrifices offered by Abel (Gen. 4:3, 4, here called minhah; i.e., "a gift"), Noah (Gen. 8:20), Abraham (Gen. 22:2, 7, 8, 13), and by the Hebrews in Egypt (Ex. 10:25).

Answer for yourself: What was the purpose or intention accomplished in a "burnt offering"? These offerings signified the complete dedication of the offerers unto God.

Now this is critical. We have seen that at times the Jewish people were deprived of their Temple and no sacrifices could be brought. But we also saw when looking at the dynamics of the Sacrificial System that all of these Sacrifices were "symbolic" of the condition of the Soul, they were but "physical representations" of "Spiritual realities and conditions within the heart and Soul" of the one bringing the sacrifice. So in the absence of the Temple when no burnt offering could be brought a person could let his life become a "burnt offering" before God. Paul states this principle for us in Rom. 12:1:

Rom 12:1-2 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye (you personally) present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. (KJV)

Here we see that the "transformation of your mind" accompanied by corresponding Spiritual actions and deeds in one's life commanded in the Torah can so transform a person that he and his life actually becomes a "living burnt offering" and a "living Sacrifice" before God. You may not know this but receiving these Spiritual Truths in these articles is a major step for you in this regard. When we are finished with this series in Biblical atonement you, the reader, will have seen for yourself that Rome so "radically reinterpreted" the Biblical Sacrificial System and applied such untruths to the death of Jesus that in spite of what they say in their "one book" there is no way that his death, or the death of any other, has any bearing whatsoever upon the your sins or the sins of other people. Biblical Judaism, to whom was given this Sacrificial System and not Rome, knows better than any how the Sacrificial System actually operated and has maintained there is no way the death of any, let alone Jesus, could atone for the sins of others. This truth has been maintained by Biblical Judaism now for over 2,000 years at the point of Roman swords and in droves they eagerly went to their deaths by the millions rather than accept such a lie about the Soul. This knowledge and Spiritual Truth will go along way in your life in helping you reevaluate the Divine Message of Biblical Judaism vs Roman theology and recovering the truth concerning the operation of the Sacrificial System will help restore to you the real way given by God for the path of the Soul in its efforts to obtain forgiveness and atonement for its sin through faith, repentance, prayer, charity and good deeds as the Torah has always maintained.

So we have so far learned that regardless of what we hear preached in our Church sermons relating the sacrifice of Isaac and how it foreshadowed the sacrifice of Jesus that in reality it was a "burnt offering" and not a "sin offering". Again, because of error instead of truth being taught from our pulpits I could no longer continue my Pastorate as my studies over the early years of my Pastorate began to open my eyes to the deception to which I had fallen since basically I only read for most of my life "one book", the Bible given me by Rome, a book that I was unqualified to interpret correctly since not being a Jew and not knowing the truth about Biblical Judaism. That will all change the first 5 years following Seminary. Using the skill I was given there I applied them daily to come to terms the many problems I saw concerning the "Jesus Story" while there.

Answer for yourself: So what does a "burnt offering" have in common with a "sin offering"? Other than they involved "fire" they are completely different and the Isaac story cannot truthfully be used to prefigure the death of Jesus. So now we move on.

We must not make the mistake of comparing apples with oranges here but we seem to always do it since we as Christians are terrible uneducated about the Hebrew Scriptures and the Divine Truths within them. Had we been Old Testament Christians first before we became New Testament Christians then we would never make such tragic theological blunders that we do when reading the New Testament. But not having this Old Testament knowledge we err greatly never knowing we are so far from Divine Truths that God intended that we learn that He must be crying over us now.

We often hear that Jesus is a type and shadow of the of prior Sacrificial System; a system that was replaced by the death of Jesus according to Rome and the writer of the Book of Hebrews. We hear that the Old Testament sin offering and sacrifices point forward to and are a type of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ (Heb. 9:10). We hear that that the scapegoat and purification rites of the Day of Atonement signify Christ's salvation wrought by suffering and death (Heb. 9:7-14). But all of this is not true to a person possessing the truth and knowledge necessary to understand the intricate dynamics of the operation of the Sacrificial System. If one only hears without understanding "blood this" and "blood that" in relationship to the New Testament texts, like the one below, he can easily be misled to a completely different understanding of the role of "blood" as operational in the Sacrificial System. And even worse he can be led to live a life where repentance and remorse of his sin is not important since he receives a "get out of jail free pass" or a "get out of hell free pass" with Rome's new "radical reinterpretation" of the Jewish Sacrificial System as well as Rome's reinterpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures and their tragic misrepresentation in our New Testaments.

Heb 9:12 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. (KJV)

On the surface this sounds so wonderful; that is until you find out for yourself that blood sacrifices never operated in this fashion nor obtained redemption. It again, as we saw earlier, the Spiritual condition of the Soul long before the sacrifice that determined such redemption. This above statement and passage from Hebrews 9:12, made in a disputed book later incorporated into the New Testament 500 years after the time allotted for the death of Jesus, stands directly contradicted by the facts concerning how the Sacrificial System actually operated and functioned as we have been instructed above. This passage from Hebrews and many others like it in our official Roman "edited and altered collection of reinterpreted and invented Hebrew Scriptures" (like the one above) are absolutely worthless once the reader is equipped with the the truth and facts necessary to correctly understand the Hebrew Scriptures and the operation of the Sacrificial System. Being so equipped then he is in a position to read the New Testament intelligently and spot the "Roman fiction about the Jesus Story" from the "Divine truths that yet remain within it". Such a passage and many others like them that postulate forgiveness and atonement was attached to the death of Jesus as a historical sacrifice and sin offering is not possible in the Biblical Sacrificial System of Israel as well as never taught in the "unaltered" and "unforged" Hebrew Scriptures in the Jewish Tannah. We have to look at our corrupted Old Testament translation to find such "theology" cleverly woven among the Propheets. But all one has to do is buy two more "Bibles", a Hebrew/English one as well as a Greek/English one and compare "line upon line" and "precept upon precept" for himself by comparing the Scriptures in the Hebrew Bible with the corresponding ones in the later Greek translation and the even later English Old Testaemnt translations found in our Roman Christian Bibles. If you do and use Bet Emet's articles as a "pathway" to Divine Truth then you will spot easily such glaring errors. That means dear one what we are reading in our current Christian Bibles, both Old Testament and New Testament is "often" simply not true when compare to the Jewish Bible, the Bible that Jesus would have used and recommended to all. The Hebrew Bible never says that the underpinnings of blood sacrifice, which happen to be remorse of one' sin, confession of one's sin, repentance from sin, prayers to God about one's sin, and one's subsequent acts of righteous deeds and acts of selfless charity and love toward others would ever be changed by the simple application of blood on the altar. Contained in the word "blood" which we read so often on the pages of our Bibles is our mistaken understanding about the Sacrificial System. To come to the truth needed about the Sacrificial System we have to understand even more about how it operated; this being necessary if we are to ever come to the truth about what lies behind the death of Jesus. Know this, that Rome spent 500 years eradicating this Jewish Biblical Truth and understanding of atonement from the minds of mankind and this void of truth concerning the dynamics of the Sacrificial System in Christianity continues today. We need to be "transformed by the renewing of our minds" from the erroneous Roman antisemitic theology of 1,800 years ago.

God revealed to Abraham with the proposed sacrifice of Isaac, his only son, that God did not require or accept human sacrifice from His worshipers, but rather the surrender of heart/Soul and the denial of the natural life, even though it should amount to a submission to death itself.

Answer for yourself: The Hebrew Bible condemns human sacrifice. Many passages in the Hebrew Bible state that human sacrifice was a great abomination; these practices were associated with the worship of foreign gods, and were forbidden. Have you ever wondered or thought about why God would not allow or accept human sacrifice in the form of Isaac but was so readily predisposed to sacrifice supposedly His only begotten Son in Jesus? How can God chastise so severely the many pagan nations that offered human sacrifices to false gods in the Hebrew Scriptures when yet He does not follow his own Words in this regard with Jesus? What does God not practice what He preaches? What happened to the God who changes not? Is this again fictional creation of Scripture at the hands of Roman theological creationists in order to create a Replacement Religion to supersede and replace Judaism as a world religion that had invaded even Caesar's household? Is God schizophrenic?

The truth of the matter is that God never asked for nor required nor accepted human sacrifice. Rather, the act of surrender of the sacrificer's Soul to God was the intent of the whole of the Sacrificial System and this surrender of one's Soul was to be perfectly imaged in the animal's sacrifice; and only when presented with the Spiritual motivations of contrition, remorse, repentance, prayer, and righteous conduct and charity would the Sacrifice be a true representation of the current condition of the Soul of the sacrificer. Without this contrition, remorse, repentance, prayer, and righteous conduct and charity that was to occur prior to the sacrifice could the killing of the animal and the presentation of its blood and Soul on the altar be acceptable to God as a true representation of the Soul of the sacrificer. Now you know why God is upset in Isaiah, chapter one over the Sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: Can you guess why? Many were only concerned with the externalities of the sacrifice and paid little or any attention to contrition, remorse, repentance, prayer, and righteous conduct and charity. Thus the killing of the animals was meaningless and a gross misrepresentation of the Spiritual condition of the Soul of the sacrificer. These deaths of these innocent animals was a tragic waste of life and God rebukes them for it; not the Sacrificial System per se but the one who misused it and lied to God and their fellowman about the condition of their Soul.

PURPOSE OF OFFERINGS

The word "korban" is commonly translated either "sacrifice" or "offering", but the truth is that the English language does not possess a word that accurately expresses the concept contained in the word. The word "sacrifice" implies that the person bringing it is required to deprive himself of something in order to satisfy someone else's need, but God finds no satisfaction in inflicting pain or deprivation upon His children. The word "offering" is closer to the mark but it too fails to convey the true meaning of a "korban". "Offering" implies that the Recipient of the gift must be appeased, that He requires a tribute that will somehow appease His wrath or make Him receptive to the entreaties of a supplicant, or that He has a need that can only be satisfied by someone other than Himself. As if God required our gifts! "If you have acted righteously, what will you have given Him! (Job 35:7); God does not become enriched by man's accomplishments.

The Hebrew word itself provides the answer. The root of the meaning is "to come near." Again the idea carries the concept of fellowship. The person bringing an offering does so in order to come closer to God, to elevate his level of Spirituality thereby approaching God in the Spirit.

Now remember the person brought the animal as a picture of himself in that through his repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution he was "coming near" to God and the sacrifice of the animal and the placing of the animal's Soul on the altar was a demonstration that he, the person bringing the sacrifice, had ALREADY "drawn near to God" and the Soul of the animals was a true picture of himself NOW since repenting previously before coming to the altar. The offering was a picture of that Spiritual fact and reality to all the world as well as for God to see Himself!

When Adam was deposited in the Garden of Eden, his first responsibility was to work it and guard it (Gen. 2:15). That means that Adam was commanded to plant, work, cultivate; everything that was necessary to keep the Garden as a Paradise. Before Adam's sin, man had no need to be a peasant; everything grew for him at God's command, with no need for him to exert himself in any way. It was only after his sin that he was expelled from Eden and required to earn his bread through the sweat of his brow.

Answer for yourself: How then was he to work and guard Eden?

The Rabbis teach us that Adam "worked" through the study of Torah and the performance of positive and negative commandments in the Word of God. His livelihood would come in return for his obedience to God's will. God will always respond to man's righteousness by blessing his material effort.

Adam's mission was to make himself an offering to God in his lifetime, by dedicating himself unreservedly to God. On God's Throne of Glory, there is an image of a man (Ez. 1:10). Every human being has his own image above, his ideal Spiritual self, which represents his goal and his potential. Man's Soul is placed in an earthly body so that he can surmount the challenges of material life and raise himself up to his personal, heavenly self; to unite his earthly self with his higher self. Just as everyone has a body and a Soul, and his mission is to triumph in the eternal struggle of body versus Soul, so, too, many must struggle to live up to the summons of his higher self.

Man is religious yet he sins and defies the Creator and His Word which he says he believe in. He is kind and generous, yet he is sometimes mean and stingy. He is moral, but has lapses in conduct. Whatever man is, he is often inconsistent, and if he is honest with himself, he knows that he is far from living up to his inner image. He wants his body to come closer to his Soul; on a yet higher level, he should also want his Soul to live up to its counterpart on high.

Similarly, there is a Temple in Heaven that corresponds to the Temple on earth. Egypt taught as the cornerstone of their faith and religion that "So Above, So Below". The masters of Kabbalah teach that the good deeds of the people of God accumulate to build a Spiritual replica of that heavenly Temple, and when there are enough such good deeds, the heavenly Temple will come down to the Temple Mount, signaling the end of the exile and the beginning of the perfect world foretold by the prophets. This is similar to the striving of the individual Soul. There is a higher ideal we must see to capture in our mundane lives. Possibly it is best expressed by the Psalmist: "the heavens are the Lord's, but the earth He has given to mankind" (Psm. 115:16). The Heavens are already Heavenly; God does not need man to improve upon them. But He has given us the Earth that we might make it Heavenly, as well. God gave mankind the Torah as instruction to bring Heaven to Earth through obedience of God's will as expressed in His living Word, the Torah. This is best expressed through acts of Loving Kindness (Gemilut Hasadim) and Repairing of the World (Tikkun Olam). Adam, himself, was the offering, and for him to devote anything less than his maximum to God would have been to steal his Divinely conferred potential and misappropriate it for himself. The sin of eating from the Tree of Knowledge was such a misappropriation because he would be flouting the will of God. The truest offering is when the owner brings "himself" to God, making himself and his desires subservient to the teachings and guidelines of the Torah. The symbolism of the offerings is based on this concept; the animal is only secondary.

REASONS FOR THE OFFERINGS

The function and purpose of the offerings are not concepts that man can grasp rationally. Especially in modern times when anything not measurable, observable, or replicable is questioned and denied, the idea of offerings is not an easy one to understand. It is necessary, therefore, to understand that offerings and sacrifices and their efficacy are manifestations of God's plan and wisdom. They are reality, even though we have never seen them and have no personal experience through which to know their potency.

We cannot understand why the slaughter of a sanctified animal, the placing of its blood and the burning of its flesh on the Altar; why these acts should bring God's Presence down to earth (accomplish fellowship). Had the Jewish people been asked about the possibility of this happening before they had seen it, perhaps even they would have been skeptical. But they saw it happen! They saw the cloud of God's glory descend upon the Tent of Meeting. They saw a heavenly fire descend to their Altar and remain there for hundreds of years. They saw a Divine glow on Moses' face. To them, these were demonstrable, visible, tangible facts.

This is incomprehensible to our rational, scientific minds. But so was the splitting of the atom to rational minds a hundred years ago.

Various reasons for the offerings are given by classic commentators. The reason for the offerings is so profound that it is beyond human comprehension and the best efforts of the greatest of Jewish thinkers can yield only a drop in the ocean of God's intent. We must listen to this great wisdom if we are to come to terms with the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament.

OFFERINGS AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR MAN...BUT WE ALREADY SAID THAT

The offerings were seen to elevate three parts of every human deed: thought, speech, and action. When a person sins and then brings an offering, all three of those elements are used to take the sinful use to which he had previously put them, and transform it into the instrument of doing God's will. The person bringing the offering performs the commandment of leaning, by placing his hands on its head and leaning on it, thereby dedicating his strength and activity to God. He purifies his thought and intentions, by confessing his sin, pronouncing the Spiritual goal that he hopes to attain, or uttering praises to God. As a further way of purging his sinful thoughts, the innards of the animal; representing the human organs that are the seat of desire and through, are burned on God's Altar. In the case of an elevation-offering, which is completely burned, the animal's feet symbolize the hands and feet with which man ran and acted to defy his Creator. The animal's blood (containing its Soul), representing man's Soul, was placed on the Altar (notice it is the Soul that is placed upon the Altar; just not the blood).

Let's look at Leviticus 17:11 in context in order to make sure we understand the "central" idea of the passage.

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life [this is the subject of the sentence] of the flesh is in the blood [this is the object of the preposition of the sentence], and I have given it [THE LIFE/SOUL] to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood [AGAIN THE "LIFE/SOUL" IS IN THE BLOOD REMEMBER?] that makes an atonement for the Soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'"

Answer for yourself: Did you know that "blood" was not the subject of the sentence? Did you notice what was? Did you understand before now that it was the "life" or "Soul" that was placed on the altar that accomplished atonement and not the blood?

In other words it is not the blood that atones, but the “Soul” [LIFE] that atones..a life that repents, is remorseful, prays, confesses sin, makes restitution, gives alms, etc....!!!

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that as a Christian your whole understanding of the Sacrificial System in the Bible is wrong because you have focused on “blood” for atonement instead of the “life” and the “Soul” in the blood which is the real atoning agent? Are you aware that as a Christian your whole understanding of the supposed atoning death of Jesus on the cross is incorrect and is contradicted by the whole of the Hebrew Scriptures, Biblical Judaism, the dynamic workings of the Sacrificial System, and the testimony of the Jewish people and their Rabbis over the last 2,000 years? But, who listens to them, right? We should! Only in restoring the Hebrew Roots of the early Christian Faith can we uncover and recognize the antisemitic lies of Rome in our Bibles today.

BUT WHAT ABOUT ISAIAH 53....ISN'T IT ABOUT JESUS BEING OUR SACRIFICE?

Well here I got news for you. Isaiah chapter 53 in the Hebrew Scriptures is not about Jesus. I know that is hard for you to listen to let alone swallow for now but we will examine this in detail later. For now know that Isaiah chapter 53 is not about what you think nor does it actually say what you think it does in the “unaltered Hebrew”. Again we can make any text say what we want if we want to change it and change it Rome did. The Hebrew Book of Isaiah, when compared with later Greek and English translations, is estimated to have at least 6,000 alterations. Again, what we are reading in our Christian Bibles is a very tragic purposeful mistranslation and misquotation and outright evil translation of the original Hebraic Book of Isaiah. The cover up by Rome is extensive and this was reiterated to me over and over again during the first 7 years after Seminary where I became a detective intent upon recovering the truth about my Christian Faith. This is why I spend so much time on the text. The Hebrew Bible of the first century which the Jewish people used and read did not read anything like our Christian Old Testament in hundreds of places. Isaiah is but one of many examples which have been later altered by Rome for “theological agendas”. Let me preface what comes next. The writer of Isaiah, chapters 40-66, uses both “singular” and “plural” pronouns interchangeably all the way through these 26 chapters in describing the corporate nation of Israel. Never does he refer to be a single person. Given this understanding now let us read what is below which is taken from the true Hebrew Massoretic text, called the Tanakh. Here is verse 10 of Isaiah 53:

Isa. 53:10 states “HaShem desired to oppress him and He afflicted him; if his Soul would acknowledge guilt...”

WOW!

That sure is different from what your Christian KJV Bible says:

Here is the KJV “translation” or should I say “free creationism” of Isaiah 53:10 as taken from the Jewish Bible and the Hebrew Scriptures:

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his Soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. (KJV)

Again, pronouns like "his" and "him" refer to the corporate nation of Israel. Understanding this then we see that it is the Souls of the people who become an "offering" for their own sin. We will see this in great detail when we get to Isaiah 53.

Simply said, this Christian translation has been "Jesusized" by having the word and concept of "guilt removed" from the verse, for in Christian "theology" Jesus can have no guilt if he is to be one's atonement and many try to make Jesus the subject of the passage and the singular pronoun used when the real uncorrupted Hebrew Scripture define the suffering servant as the corporate nation of Israel and not one individual

This is Earth-shattering to the very foundation of Christianity and its atonement dogmas. We have been fed a pack of lies by Rome over 1,800 years ago and few know it today because they never read or compare the Bible that Jesus would have used with the one they do! This has tragic implication not only for your Soul but the whole of the Christian Faith as it now stands; a Replacement Religion without a true Covenant before God. Back to the subject at hand.

In one of the greatest passages in the Bible, we are told by Isaiah the prophet that if the "Soul" of the "suffering servant" would acknowledge guilt...confess sin, pray, repent...

Answer for yourself: If the passage is about Jesus, our supposed sacrifice, what kind of guilt does he have? What is his sin? Who atones for him?

Answer for yourself: What do you do when you acknowledge guilt?

You confess your sin, you pray, you repent and then your life becomes a living Sacrifice of obedience to the Torah which teaches the Soul of man how to live a life of good deeds and perform acts of righteous charity. Such is love, such is God. This is the subject of the verse. You literally turn around your "life". Your life changes direction; your mind is transformed as is your life from sin to righteousness. You no longer continue your sinister ways. Now you can see how such a life, after repentance and confession of sin, was understood, even as the Christian Bibles say: "Soul/life an offering for sin"! One's life, when turned to God and away from sin, was the atonement that Leviticus 17 speaks about. Jesus has nothing to do with this now would he; he says he came NOT to do away with the Law and this refers to the Law of the Sacrifice which make up 2/3 of the whole of the Old Testament! Think!

Answer for yourself: Could we have missed this Divine Truth and understanding when looking at the death of Jesus being previously conditioned since childhood to think that "blood atones" when we now have learned that it actually does not and is only a "passive" agent in the Sacrificial System?

While this procedure (placing the animal's Soul on the alter in substitute for your Soul by placing the animal's blood on the altar instead of your blood) is being accomplished with one's offering, the sacrificer meditates upon his sin, for the offering service teaches him graphically that he has sinned against God with body and Soul. He contemplates that justice would have dictated that his human body would have been required by God to be burned on the altar as a penalty for his sin but instead God allowed the animal's body to suffice since the sacrificer was expected by God to have repented of his sin previously before bringing his animal to the altar. Instead, by proxy, and since the sacrificer had expressed remorse for his sin, repented, prayed and accomplished good deeds and acts of charity then his body was not required by God as a penalty for his sin. Now God desired his Soul and through the animals sacrifice then the animal's blood and his Soul could be placed on the altar in communion with God and in so doing represent to God the Soul of the person bringing his offering in repentance to God. Now the person's Soul (his life in his blood according to Lev. 17:11) would now be required and accepted by God through the symbolic representation of the animal's blood being placed upon the altar. It is only God's graciousness that permits the animal to become the substitute for the repentant sinner. But since having previously repented, previously confessed his sin, previously been broken over his sin, and previously having prayed and done acts of righteous deeds and loving kindness his death and the destruction of his body on the altar before God is no longer required; now his Soul is welcomed on the altar with God and is placed there in proxy through the "blood/Soul" of the animal. This is how the Sacrificial System worked; this is the knowledge that all Christians need to know in light of the later theology that developed around the death of Jesus as the atonement of the sins of the world. This knowledge and proper understanding of the Sacrificial System topples the Roman atonement dogma they created around Jesus.

Then, parts of the offering are given to the Kohanim (priests/teachers), so that those who dedicate their lives to study and teaching of the Torah are sustained through sacrifice and so that the people will pray for those who bring them the truths of God's Word. It is an act of supreme graciousness that God is prepared to accept an offering from us instead of punishing us directly for our misdeeds. This is why the offerings are described throughout Leviticus as a "satisfying aroma to God", because God is pleased when His children, His Souls, repent and seek to change their lives for the better and imitate God their Father! A son should be like his Father.

When one brings an offering with such noble thoughts he has truly made himself an offering and a "Living Sacrifice". But sin offerings do not have to be always bloody. The Sages of Israel have said of one who brings a humble "meal-offering", it is as if he had offered his own life upon the altar. This is the same thing that occurs with the blood sin offering. We will get to these deeper truths soon as our study advances. The person bringing his meal-offering likewise raised his mundane desires and makes his Soul likewise worthy of being placed on the heavenly altar.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #4

WHAT PICTURES CAN WE NOW SEE MORE CLEARLY AS CONTAINED IN THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM OF ISRAEL?

Let us not forget what we just have learned. It was the Soul of the animal as found in it's blood, which when presented and placed on the altar in the Sacrificial System as a sacrifice to God which was at the same time a true picture of the Spiritual condition of the sacrificier's Soul which had previously repented, shown remorse over his sin, confessed his sin, prayed to God about his sin, and performed deeds of almsgiving and other righteous deeds which was only then accepted by God as an atonement for sin according to the Hebrew Scriptures and as attested to over for over 3,000 years of Jewish history. Such a procedure of repentance, remorse over sin, prayer, and subsequent righteous deeds as commanded in the Torah was the only way for atonement for sin. Such actions by the sinner was understood by God as the surrender of that person's Soul toward Him. When accomplished by the sinner then his Soul was accepted by God as an atonement for his own sin and then and only then could he rightfully make a declaration through the Sacrificial System that his Soul was in "right standing" with God and this was done by bringing the "blood/Soul" of the animal and placing it upon the altar as a substitutionary representation of the condition of the Soul of the sinner having obeyed the conditions in the Torah concerning obtaining atonement for the sin of his Soul. This is key to the Sacrificial System and the role of "blood" within it which escapes a traditional Christian when reading the Bible. Seeing the numerous times that "blood" is mentioned in both the Old and New Testament often leads us astray from the true function and role of "blood" in the Sacrificial System without the above understanding. Coupled with this is the life-time of hearing sermons in our Churches which totally misrepresents the role of "blood" in the Jewish Sacrificial System and one can see for himself how we come away from such instruction with a completely erroneous understanding and interpretation of the role of "blood"; especially as it relates to the death of Jesus which we are consistently told is the "only" atonement for our sin and our faith and trust in his death is our only way to Heaven. Funny, that the Jewish people and the Rabbis, to whom this Sacrificial System was given in the first place and operated by them for thousands of years, refuse to accept and believe such a teaching about their own Sacrificial System. It should appear to you that if anyone is qualified to both understand and teach about the Sacrificial System correctly then it is the Jewish People and their Rabbis and scholars and not Roman Catholic Monks which created this "Jesus theology" in the first place.

As we have seen it is not the "blood" but the "Soul" in the blood which demonstrates its surrender to God. Later when the blood of the animal is placed on the altar following the hands of the sacrificer being laid upon the animal brought to be sacrificed that actually it is the "blood" or the "Soul of the offerer of sacrifice" which is representatively placed on the altar in lieu of the animal which served only as a substitute for the person who brought the animal to the altar. The animal was literally the extension of the person life who was bringing the sacrifice. God would not have a human sacrifice his life and blood and place it upon the altar as a demonstration of "communion" and "fellowship" with God; God does not desire the death of His children. Instead the animal was the extension of the person's life and in such a way the person's actual "life" and Soul was placed on the altar through the animal's blood. The person bringing the animal had fed, groomed, and cared for the animal usually most of the animal's life. Literally, the animal was part of his life and his life's energy had been invested into the care of the animal. So when the "Soul" of the animal was taken and offered upon the altar in the release and placing of the animal's blood on the altar, then the person by proxy was represented on the altar in communion with God, not the animal. Understand the animal was innocent having never sinned and it served as perfect picture of the present condition of the Soul of the sacrificer who had repented of his sin prior to coming to the Tabernacle or the Temple. This Sacrificial procedure was supposed to be a picture of the Spiritual position of the person bringing the sacrifice. The person bringing the sacrifice was ALREADY to have repented of his sin, confessed his sin, prayed, and made restitution to his fellowman if needed BEFORE he ever brought the animal to the altar. Then when he had done these spiritual necessities as commanded and taught in the Torah PRIOR to bringing the animal to the altar, then the person's Soul was AT-THAT-MOMENT (atonement) right with God. He stood before God, priesthood, and mankind forgiven and his prior repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution had accomplished for him atonement PRIOR to the animal being offered. "At that moment" his Soul was again in right standing and relationship with God and this mind you was long before he cut the animal from his flock and brought it to the altar for sacrifice. In order to make such a declaration to the the right standing and relationship of his life and Soul to the world and his fellowman, as well as to God, then he was required by the Law of Moses to take an animal and have it slain and its blood placed on the altar which as we have seen was to be true and honest expression of his Soul before God. In so doing, the animal blood and Soul was at that time an ACCURATE PICTURE of the Spiritual state of the person making the sacrifice. The animal's Soul (in his blood) was placed on the altar in communion with God and was AT-THAT-MOMENT a true picture of the sacrificer's Soul and its communion with God. Besides this, if anyone wanted to eat meat, the animal's Soul had to be given back to God before the flesh could be consumed. So you see in the Sacrificial system there were two dynamics at work: atonement and the conditions necessary to eat meat which also contained the Divine image which had to be given by to God.

When, when making sacrifice properly, the sacrificer knew that he had attained something special with God. Christian teaching today is completely devoid of this knowledge and I thank God over the years in my studies that He allowed me to find and recover this most needed part of instruction. This knowledge, when properly understood, will go a long way in helping the Christian separate error from truth as he hears taught in his churches.

UNION WITH GOD AND FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD WAS THE RESULT OF THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that whenever the Torah commands that offerings be brought that these commandments use only God's Four-letter Name (yod-hey-vah-hey); the "Tetragrammaton" (I AM)?

YHWH is the distinctive personal name of the God of Israel. Of all the names of God, the name of God, YHWH, is the one which occurs most frequently in the Hebrew Bible. This Tetragrammaton appears 6,823 times in the Hebrew Scriptures according to the Jewish Encyclopedia. If other names were used, some might err, thinking that there are many Gods or forces, one demanding this offering and another demanding some other offering. Such is not the case, only YHWH demanded sacrifices. Since the Name Elohim (the plural name for God meaning "gods") represents God as the One Who controls nature, that Name might be taken to imply that there is an angel or a power who has dominion over a particular land or aspect of existence, and that that power requires the offering. Such is not the case, the Godhead is not referred to as requiring these sacrifices but only YHWH. This is His Name as the God of Mercy. No one should think that God requires offerings to feed or appease Himself. The Eternal One has no needs that man can satisfy for everything is His and nothing is beyond His power!

Answer for yourself: What then is the purpose of the offerings?

There are in fact 5 different types of animal sacrifice that regularly took place in Israelite religion

- Olah (Burnt Offering) - General offering to entreat favor from Yahweh / cleansing.
- Minkhah (Grain Offering) - Sacrifice of thanksgiving. The "poor man's" sacrifice.
- Shelammim (Peace or Fellowship Offering) - Thanksgiving / to complete a vow.
- Khattat (Purification or Sin Offering)- Offered to Yahweh to cleanse the temple sanctuary of the people's accumulated sin.
- Asham (Reparation or Guilt Offering) - Restitution for stolen goods, restitution for tithes not paid.

Answer for yourself: What should this teach us?

Simply that it was not only animal sacrifice which was offered, but other crops and fowl were acceptable as sacrifices. Only needs to see Micah 6 for an example of how God does not glory in sacrifices but in the heart (Soul) of the believer. You should be seeing by now that these offerings provided man an opportunity to unite himself to God to whatever extent it is possible for mortal man to do so through repentance, confession, and restitution. This union with God was accomplished by these offerings which only pictured the condition of the Soul of the person bringing them. Only one of these "relationship" offerings was a sin offering. This should teach us that besides the sin offering that mankind was given other ways to approach and become acceptable to God.

Similarly, there is a humanly created fire below on the altar and there is the Heavenly fire from above, which God has placed upon Israel's altar. Both of these flames are fed by the offerings of the Jewish people, symbolizing the union of man's Spiritual aspirations with God's goals for him. Thus the offerings provide Israel a means for Spiritual elevation ["korban" or mankind drawing closer to God].

THE SACRIFICER HAD AN ACCURATE UNDERSTANDING OF HIMSELF BEFORE GOD....ACKNOWLEDGING "ONE'S OWN" NOTHINGNESS

All creatures emanate from God and have no independent existence on their own. Man has freedom of choice and his intellect puts great achievements within his reach, but all of this is possible only because God gives him the power to do so. Man could not function or even exist without God. The goal of creation is for man to acknowledge this basic fact; to recognize and proclaim that everything exists because of God and nothing can survive without Him. There are many ways for God's glory to be revealed and recognized. The highest recognition of all is for man to know The Oneness of God, meaning that there is nothing aside from Him. He achieves his ultimate greatness when he recognizes that "there is none beside Him" (Deut. 4:35). An offering is a demonstration of this concept. It says that its owner is surrendering his possessions to their Source (God). Theoretically, one might expect him to be ready to give even his very life in acknowledgment of God's sovereignty, but that is not God's will that man dies but that he lives. God wants man to live, to grow, to thrive, to serve; and God ordains the offerings as man's way to recognize His Oneness throughout man's life. Thus, by offering his possessions [as seen in the personal animal presented to God in sacrifice, which was usually owned by the person bringing the sacrifice], one symbolizes that he has no existence but for God's will.

UNITING BODY AND SOUL...BEING ONE WITH GOD

The efficacy of offerings in obtaining God's favor is comparable to the way food makes it possible for the Soul to maintain its attachment to the body. Material food cannot provide nourishment to the Soul, which is not a physical entity. It is physical nourishment of the body that enables the animal body to remain healthy enough to play host to the Soul. Likewise, the "food of the Altar's fire" somehow effects the process that enables the Shechinah to remain among the people of God and Israel in the Hebrew Scriptures which was a necessity for them being the "light unto the world".

The food of the Soul is not measured in calories, vitamins, and minerals. Only intellectual and Spiritual pursuits can nourish the Soul. Torah study, prayer, even meals in celebration of such events as Sabbath and the Biblical Feasts and Festivals all have a sacred content that is capable of nourishing the Soul. Only in this sense do the Sacrificial offerings constitute food for God. Man's dedication to God and His commandments provides the nourishment that enables the Shechinah to attach itself to human beings and their handiwork. We think of food in terms of nutritive value, but that is not what sustains life. Man does not live merely because of the bread (material component). He lives through the bread's Spiritual component; what emanates from the mouth of God. This is what holds together body and Soul and what holds together Godliness and Israel through the agency of the offerings, again but a picture of their Souls. This is why the animal had to be presented and offered to God in a Spiritual way when it was killed and not slaughtered behind a person's house. This is why the animal had to be presented first to God and later given to the Priesthood before the sacrificer could take parts of the meat home to his family. Something Spiritual occurred here which we lack understanding as Christians. This personation of the animal to God first before man could eat the meat was God's way of imparting Spiritual nutrition to our Souls; a process which we miss totally today when buying our meats at the deli or the supermarket as it exists today. We have lost a lot.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Having now come to the understanding that it was a life lived above sin that was so pleasing to God that He accepted such a life as an offering and atonement for one's sin, it should behoove you to begin to rethink what you believe about atonement as a Christian. If you were to do some comparative religious study you will see the preponderance of evidence of how foreign Roman concepts of salvation are woven into Pauline theology throughout your New Testament. Without the truth of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Sacrificial System and accompanying personal knowledge of the Hebrew Scriptures as compared to their later changes in the Greek and later English versions of your Bible you will never notice these by yourself. Serious study is required to open your Soul and Mind to these alterations of the Scriptures in our Bibles and their reflective altered religious dogmas. I have only now begun to show you the truth behind the Biblical teachings of atonement and have not mentioned once the Romanized Paul's theology which we often find in the New Testament. The reason I have not is that nowhere in the Jewish Masoretic Palestinian text are such Pauline concepts of atonement found. Only when you read the fraudulent and mistranslated Greek Scriptures, which the Rabbis did not translate beyond the first 5 books of the Old Testament, do you begin to find such falsified ideas of atonement surfacing in the text <http://historyofformationofnewtestament.netfirms.com>.

But hear now that such concepts concerning atonement as well as many other altered religious dogmas as they exist in our Christian Bibles today cannot be found anywhere in the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures before they were later "mistranslated on purpose" in the production of Greek, Latin, and later English translations. Somebody "fixed" the Greek translation to read differently and others after them did the same to the Latin and Greek versions. And sadly for you, these altered and paganized Greek, Latin, and English mistranslations became the foundation for your Christian Old Testament. To make matters worse, your New Testament quotes from the fraudulent Old Testament in hundreds of "key" theological places (<http://www.faithofyeshua.faithweb.com>). Unknowingly for you, over and over as you read your Christian Bible you only reinforce and rehearse error and Spiritual untruths! You need to know this in order to begin to verify what I say to yourself for only through your personal study will you see these things for yourself as I and so many others have.

Answer for yourself: What happened to the Divine Truths handed down since the beginning of time, as far back as ancient Egypt and which were later entrusted to the Israel and the Jewish people by Moses and others between the 2nd through the 5th century when they fell into the hands of Rome? What happened to these Sacred Scriptures and texts at the hands of Rome? Who changed these Eternal Divine Truths about the Soul and gave the world a replacement religion completely devoid of its Egyptian, Hebrew and Jewish roots? Who knows this history and sad tale? Who knows of this tragic purposeful misrepresentation of the Hebrew Faith and Scriptures as they now stand so badly corrupted in our Greek and English Bibles? Who is to blame and what can we do about it? Well, for starters we can learn the "truth" before it was changed by Rome. That is a great place to start and then it is simple from there to make your own "A" and "B" comparisons of what the Scriptures once said and how they were altered later by Rome. Then you can see this for yourself and how the dogmas that come from them were altered almost beyond recognition as we received them in our Bibles today.

The Jews have always known what I am sharing with you in this article; it is Rome who did want to receive a religion that focuses upon the Soul, military might and world domination was they plan. Through their invincible army, fear, and ignorance they accomplished their goal and left 18 million bodies in their wake. It is time someone told you the truth! The righteous Jews know of this alteration in Biblical atonement as it stands in the Greek and later Christian Bibles and have known this since 200 B.C. when the Greek translation was understood by them to be a tragic corruption of the Hebrew Scriptures and its message. History records 3 attempts of the Jews to correct such a forged Greek translation but sadly their efforts were not enough to overtake and thwart the popularity of the already translated LXX (Septuagint) as it had spread into the non-Jewish speaking world. It was all downhill from there.

Back to our point, regardless of what the later Greek and English mistranslations of them say as well as their tragic quotations in the New Testament as surrounding the death and supposed atonement of this Jesus, understand right now that as taught the animal's Soul represented the Soul of one making the sacrifice, and we, as non-Jews, today are beneficiaries of this Divine Truth only if we know of it. But in this lesson we must no longer overlook the importance of a life lived above sin which procures one's redemption and not the inert and passive blood of the animal or even the "passive" blood of a supposed Jesus who shed his blood. The "blood" in Sacrifices "never atoned" for anything! Lives lived honoring God through faith, repentance and obedience atoned for sin and always will. Your Covenant requires it! Such is the message of Bet Emet Ministries as we are called to live like Jesus, the example for all, and not just "believe in Jesus" or "believe the created theology around his person" which was later created by Rome. It has been my experience as a Pastor over the years to encounter multitudes of Christians who trust in Christ's blood instead of understanding the importance of the example of this life shared with us in the New Testament. In our "Jesus Story", we find the life of Jesus, a true symbol of the perfected Soul, exemplified for us as how our Soul is to live in obedience to God. Our "Jesus Story" is the "pattern" for all Souls. If we choose to be a "follower" of this "way" then we are told certainly by both the Hebrew Scriptures let alone the New Testament that all will be well with our Soul, that our Soul will be our atonement for any sin. Our Soul will be our OWN atonement. We must walk out our salvation with fear and trembling, but we are as well are co-laborers with God in our own salvation through faith, repentance, and obedience. Such a mistaken understanding of our redemption as depicted in the typical Roman "Jesus Story" has robbed us of the truth about true Biblical atonement. We fall into this deception since we were never taught the truth about the Sacrificial System and atonement from a Hebraic perspective. This has caused multitudes of Christians to focus upon the "blood of Jesus" as a way to escape the penalty of our sin instead of focusing of the miraculousness of a life lived above sin!

Answer for yourself: Which of the two above scenarios reflects your love for God, getting out of "hell" free or "living a life reflective of your true Being, a child of God that images his Father"? If God so loves us does it not stand to reason that he desires we love him in return and obey him or just "escape Him"?

Such a false sense of security in "blood" instead of "lives lived holy before God and mankind" unconsciously robs us of the Divine Truth of the Hebrew Scriptures and causes the believer to not regard sin with revulsion, loathing, and repulsion as he should. We tend to view sin as less harmful than it is, and compromise with sin lies at the door.

The bottom line for all Christians to understand is that we have heard way too much preached about Jesus and Roman "replacement theology" attached to this example and far too little time has been devoted to serious study from the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures which tell us exactly and accurately who "the Christ/Messiah" of Judaism really is and as well his true message and mission to the world. If we had studied the original sources available to us, we would not be so mixed up Roman theology in Christianity today which boasts over 2000 different denominations all maintaining they have the truth about Jesus while at the same time producing the fruth that has made America the most violent and crime ridden nation in the world.

SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH THE MESSAGE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH...LOOK AT THE FRUIT OF THIS MESSAGE IN OUR COUNTRY WITH A CHURCH ON EVERY CORNER AND TELEVISIONS FILLED WITH THE CHRISTIAN MESSAGE OF GRACE WITHOUT ACCOUNTABILITY FOR ONE'S OWN SIN! JUST LOOK OUT YOUR DOOR AND ASK IF THAT IS THE BEST THE HOLY SPIRIT CAN DO????????

I don't plan to get into why the Christian message at this time is wrong in so many areas but suffice to say that the Christian message is corrupted today to Rome's efforts to replace a Hebrew centric Faith with one of its own making. We see this repeatedly over and over again in comparison of the texts in "key" theological places in our Old and New Testaments. We will example these in detail when we get there in our studies so please be patient. There is only so much we can tackle competently at a time. Let it suffice to say as shown beyond question on many of our other sites that we are in this sad state today because instead of being a true follower of Jesus, his example and message that emanated from within the Jewish faith we are camped at the feet of pagan Rome and the Romanized Paul's antinomianism (anti-Law bias). May God forgive our laziness of letting others tell us what to believe instead of us studying to show ourselves approved unto God. I just showed you part of the problem and this is your beginning of deliverance from a Replacement Religion. Implicitly we are led to not revere the Laws and Commandments of God because of the solar teaching that "Jesus died for me" and my "get out of hell free card" saves me. This comes straight out of Rome's literalized Sun worship as you have seen on this site and others. As a Pastor for 8 years I saw such falsehoods and false securities because of "Jesus blood" lived out in the lives of the congregation year after year; the shocking details I cannot share. But when you teach such a pernicious dogma to 2.5 billion people, the there is no personal accountability for sin or that the incarnational purpose is not to evolve into the "fullness and stature of Christ" then mankind loses sight of his Spiritual purpose on this planet and his conduct deteriorates into all different types of debauchery, even in the church where there is no sin too shameful to be names among the parishoners.

When and where there is no Law, no Commandments, no requirements, no accountability, no personal responsibility for one's sin, and no repentance, and only a "false teaching on trusting the blood of Jesus", "blood" again which we have learned has nothing to do with atonement in the first place and was only served a "passive role" in the Sacrificial System, then there is no righteous fruit and we have our newspapers and televisions filled with horror story after horror story and criminal actions done by our predominantly Christian nation. In America, the crime clock continues to click: one murder every 22 minutes, one rape every 5 minutes, one robbery every 49 seconds, and one burglary every 10 seconds. And the cost of crime continues to mount: $78 billion for the criminal justice system, $64 billion for private protection, $202 billion in loss of life and work, $120 billion in crimes against business, $60 billion in stolen goods and fraud, $40 billion from drug abuse, and $110 billion from drunk driving. When you add up all the costs, crime costs Americans a stunning $675 billion each year. And sadly too few can count on their lives being a sufficient atonement for their sin because they have been taught a pagan "literalized and historized" Sun-godman story which Judaism and every nation that has graced this planet before denies, and in doing so we have laid for us the foundation for a religion that allows its followers to get away with anything. Emotionalism is a sorry substitute for Divine Truth and true knowledge.

Answer for yourself: For after all, if I am saved by the blood of Jesus, what need do I have to live like Jesus in the first place and obey the commandments of God? How much of this "get out of hell free" theology has caused us to not strive for our Soul's perfection?

Answer for yourself: If saved by the blood of another, what does a little sin mean...what can it hurt? How large should I draw the "gray area" of my life?

Answer for yourself: Are you beginning to see the effects from the tragic erroneous theology concerning atonement as taught by Christianity and related thinking involved in focusing upon the blood of Jesus instead of the life of Jesus lived above sin as my example? Now look out your window to the world and see what the fruit of 1700 years of erroneous teaching has grown! America has 12% of the world's population and over 25% of the world's incarcerated behind bars. Think on that as ask your Pastor is this "get out of hell free" theology and if he thinks it works. Ask him if this was God's best idea or maybe if the Jewish people were right all along. You can lay this blame on the mess we have in America and large part of the world at the feet of Christianity and their adulterated Bible in which Rome changed the salvation message of God for His Souls incarnated on Earth. We have much to yet learn so hang on.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #5

LOOKING AT PAUL'S THEOLOGY....WHAT IS TRUTH?

We must not forget what we just learned in prior articles concerning the Sacrificial System. As the reader and "truth-seeker" you must understand that what you learned in these earlier articles is the "theology of sacrifice" that accurately represents the dynamics of the Jewish Sacrificial System and any "sacrifice" must fit this mode of understanding, whether it be of an animal or a supposed sacrifice of the New Testament Jesus. This means when viewing the death of Jesus one must be equipped with this accurate understanding of how the Sacrificial System worked before trying to evaluate any meanings that might be attached to the death of Jesus. But this is often not enough information to make a difference in the religious belief system of a Christian owing to the fact of a life-long indoctrination that the New Testament Jesus is the only sacrifice for sin that God accepts and rejecting it means sure damnation according to the New Testament given us by Rome. Enlightening is the fact that this current New Testament which we have today is not truly the First New Testament, because history and facts reveal that Rome will take the First New Testament of Marcion in 150 A.D. and "edit, alter, and mutate" it almost beyond belief and come out with their "Second Edition" in 180 A.D. with Irenaeus.

Answer for yourself: Many changes were incorporated when this was done needless to say. Are you aware of one of the biggest changes that we find in this Roman Second Edition of the First Gnostic New Testament?

We now find in this Roman Second Edition of the prior Gnostic New Testament the "sacrificial death of a literal and historical Jesus" for the sins of the world when in fact it was TOTALLY absent from the First Gnostic New Testament which provided them the outlive for their creative and inventive theology. Even more alarming is the fact that the whole of the First Gnostic New Testament NEVER taught, as NEITHER did the ancients as far back as ancient Egypt, that the Krst/Karest/Christ was a "historical or literal" person. Inherent in all of these ancient Sacred Wisdoms of these aged nations prior to Rome in the 2nd century was the FACT that "the Krst/Karest/Christ" was always understood as a Divine Living Spirit-Entity which "fell along with the Soul" into material and animal existence. This "incarnation of the Krst/Karest/Christ" into mankind was likened to "death" by the ancient. In fact we have tons of examples where this "incarnation of Christ within humanity" is described as the "death of Krst/Karest/Christ" or as the "death of this Heavenly Divine Mind" which "fell" into material existence in order to "seek and save the Soul" which also "fell" into "matter" and "material existence". This Spiritual Concept of the "death of Krst" for thousands and thousands of years were NEVER never literal UNLESS it was understood to have happened to every human being ever born. This "death of Krst/Karest/Christ" was NEVER limited to but one but one person to the exclusion of others. This alteration by Rome of the Divine Sacred Wisdom is the most deceptive alteration of the Divine Truth imaginable to the minds of mankind. In so doing Rome "radically misrepresented" the Jewish Sacrificial System and applied such tragic alterations of Divine Truth to their invented literal "Jesus Story". I challenge any reader to do your own studies and verify what I have told you; if you take this challenge your pilgrimage and restoration of the the Divine Sacred Wisdom destroyed by Rome will begin and you can be recipient today of such Divine Truths that lay under the ashes of the ancient libraries which Rome burned to cover up their deception and subterfuge of humanity 1,800 years ago.

When one's study advances to the point of seeing personally for himself that the study of comparative religions reveals a host of identical "Jesus stories" from ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Assyria, Persia, China, India, South America, as well as many nations I did not mention. You will see most of these "ancient Jesus Stories" have their god and goddess experience identical deaths on "crosses" and likewise die for 3 days and then resurrect. Seeing this for yourself then one begins to seriously question the efficacy of Jesus' death as defined and interpreted for them in the Roman New Testament, especially in light of the fact that the only function of the indwelling Christ was to enlighten the Soul of mankind whereby his Soul would rise above the instincts of his host animal body and nature and in so doing live a life honoring God and thus becoming an atonement for his prior sins before he "awakened from the dead" or was "resurrected from the dead"; this "death" being the darkened Spiritual condition imposed upon the Soul since being engulfed by the animal body and nature in its incarnation.

Notice if you will Paul is speaking and writing to people who are currently alive. He, being a Gnostic, understood this Metaphysical Spiritual Concept that Rome will later change by moving the "resurrection from the dead" from an experience during one's life to after the biological death of the body. Originally it mean a Spiritual Awakening as to your true identity as a Soul as a Divine Entity yourself. That being the case Paul says:

Eph 5:14-15 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. 15 See then that ye walk (live your incarnational lives) circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (KJV)

As you can see the true Paul and not the one of Rome's creation believed that when born we were "born dead" to Spiritual realities needed a "second birth"; a birth that awakened us from the slumber imposed upon the Sol by the flesh. The incarnation of the Krst/Karest/Christ, who also "fell" into "matter", was also termed a "death" and the awakening of the Christ-Consciousness of the Soul was the true "resurrection from the dead"; a Divine Concept which can be traced unchanged from the foundation of history and will remain unchanged until the rise of Roman Orthodoxy during the 2nd through the 5th century. When one discovers books like Bible Myths And Their Parallels In Other Religions by T.W. Doane and The Christ Conspiracy: The Greatest Story Ever Sold by Acharya S, and many others, then he begins to see previously unknown facts of history, Gnosticism, comparative religions, archeology, and textual alterations that throws a whole new light upon the "Jesus Story" along with its Roman imposed interpretation which he has been taught his whole life. This knowledge concerning the term "dying and rising" gods that are the precursor of our later "Jesus Story" produces undeniable facts and evidence for the "thinking believer" whereby he can begin to see the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament as being not "new" at all but only a repetition of an ancient story told since the beginning of time. He sees that the "only difference" between the his "Jesus Story" and the multiple stories of "dying and rising gods" is that unlike before since 10,000 years B.C.E. when all of these similar stories, from beginning end were only "allegorical and symbolic" of the death of the Soul and Divine Mind of God as they "fell" into incarnational existence the later Roman interpretation of the "death of the Krst", called by them the "death of Jesus", was make "historical and literal" by Rome and in so doing they altered the Divine Wisdom of the ancients and made Rome in the process the sole distribution center for mankind's salvation for the entire hole world. Any who did not accept and fully believe the Roman theology concerning the "Jesus Story" and accept his "atoning death on a wooden cross for their sins" was damned. Their further alteration of the ancient Sacred Scriptures of the Jewish people sealed their deception to all but those who has the most discerning eyes and prior knowledge of the accurate working of the Sacrificial System. This explains why of all nations in the world who came under Roman military domination that only the Jewish people and their Rabbis and scholars refused to accept the easy "believeism" of the Roman Road of salvation and eagerly went to their deaths instead of believing lies about their Souls before a listening God.

If one comes to the knowledge of these events described above only then can he be guaranteed that he will be able to discern the true meaning of the depiction of the death of Jesus as described in the New Testament or at least see if concepts from the ancient "mystery religions" have been attached and radically reinterpreted as applied to the death of this Jesus. Now this is important to grasp. If the "Jesus Story" has been faithfully represented as had been all prior "Jesus Stories" down through recorded history then we would not have a problem with the New Testament; but it was not. Rome cleverly altered this ancient Divine Story of the "fall of the Soul and the Krst" in such a way as to destroy its true Metaphysical meaning and in its place gave the world a false "historical and literal" account of a supposed human sacrifice to which they attached the whole salvation of the world to their imposed inaccurate meaning of it. This is especially important when reading the Romanized Paul's writings which are mixed in with the true Gnostic Paul's writings in this same New Testament.

With what we have just learned as a background let us return to Paul's statement that "Christ died for our sins" which is the fundamental fact of the early Gentile Roman Christian message, the corner-stone of early Gentile Christianity (but not Jewish Christianity or Messianism). But as soon as this simple fact is stated, that "Christ died for our sins", a number of vital questions are bound to arise. In order that we may have an intelligent and correct understanding of this important doctrine and corner-stone of the Christian message it is necessary that we know precisely what occurred and did not occur when Jesus died on the cross. We cannot rest content with teaching that leaves the central doctrine of the Christian faith shrouded in mystery and uncertainty. This does not mean that all mystery can be removed. But the Scriptures do supply the interpretation of the death of Christ that the inquiring mind legitimately asks for, and the noticeable factors concerning it should be known by all Christian people. Believing that the Hebrew Scriptures (the true Palestinian Masoretic Text and not the corrupted LXX and Greek interpretation of them sadly from which all of our Christian Old Testaments originate) is God's word to man. This fact is stated undeniably by me and other, as well as the Jewish people because they know the hundred of purposeful mistranslations made to them in the Greek translation. The link below will educate the reader concerning these "key" theological changes. This is important for it is here we find the first traces of the Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt and their incorporation of their "godman", their "literalized Osiris theology", into the Greek translation of the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures. This lays the foundation for Rome to come later and build upon this Essene foundation and further desecrate the allegorical truth of the "Christ within" as taught by the ancient Divine Wisdom. This altered Greek translation, or should I say purposeful mistranslation, becomes the fertile ground for all later statements of the Roman New Testament Scriptures regarding the atoning death of Jesus (see these purposefully mistranslated texts at http://historyofformationofnewtestament.netfirms.com). Armed with this information about the deceptively mistranslated texts in the Greek and English Old Testaments which corrupted the Divine Truths in the Hebrew Scriptures, texts which were slanted to provide an atoning Messiah to the Essenes we see the origin of this idea blossom later with subsequent Roman theological invention in the New Testament. A great source of this information about the Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, incorporating a "literalized Osiris Theology" to the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures can be found in the great books of Martin Larson on the Essenes such as The Essene-Christian Faith, The Story of Christian Origins, The Religion of the Occident, The Essene Heritage, etc. It is within these book that I first uncovered the corruption of the Greek translation of the the Hebrew Scriptures other than the first 5 books of the Torah which were translated by personally by the Rabbis of Jerusalem when they traveled to Egypt. The rest of the Hebrew Scriptures fell into the hands of the Essenes of Egypt who tragically altered the Hebrew concept of the Messiah in the Prophets and Writings and created an "angel-Messiah" or "literal God-man" whom Rome later elaborated fully upon in their New Testament and "Jesus Theology". If you think I am not telling the truth of the matter I challenge you to obtain and read these books for yourself and begin a serious investigation of the alterations of the Hebrew Scriptures; compare them line upon line with the later Greek mistranslation and the later New Testament corruptions as well. You will come to see that there is false theology attached to this Jesus built around a utterly unbelievable misrepresentation of the Jewish Sacrificial System. In do so you will know for certain why the Jewish people and the Rabbis of Israel refused to accept or use the Septuagint and the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures let alone later the "Jesus Story" and his atonement for their sins; it would be the Jews outside of Israel who would fall prey like us to this adulterated Greek Old Testament just like we have which becomes in time the foundation for the later "literal-historical Jesus Story" of Rome's creation.

If we truly desire the truth concerning the death of Jesus, then we must deal with some rather difficult information at times. It is not my wish to destroy anyone's faith, only to expose the changes made to the Hebrew Scriptures and texts as well as the lies that have been passed down about the death of Jesus which the original followers of the "Jewish Christ/Messiah" never "believed". We hold it to be our task and privilege under the promised guidance of the Holy Spirit to "search the Scriptures", the Jewish Scriptures that the Jewish people accepted, until we reach that understanding which satisfies the mind and heart and conscience, and leads to certainty and finality of Divine Truth.

According to the New Testament, especially the writings of the Romanized Paul, we are told, for instance, in broad terms that we are members of a fallen race, that God has given His only-begotten Son for our atonement, and that salvation is through Him (Messiah) and not through any faith, repentance, obedience, and righteous deeds and works which we ourselves are able to accomplish as atonement for our Sins as the Jews have maintained now for 2,000 years.

Answer for yourself: How correct is this Pauline theology when compared with the teachings of the Hebrew Scriptures concerning atonement and forgiveness?

Let us not forget what we just learned in the prior articles.

Certainly anyone who accepts these facts of the Sacrificial System and acts upon them will be "saved" because the fruit of such a Divine Message leads to Godliness. Yet, accepting these facts and acting upon them would appear to represent only a minimum of faith, and God has made it possible for us greatly to enrich and expand our knowledge of the way of salvation if we will but give careful attention to His word. But the problem is great; you first have to know that these original Divine Truths have been altered and that your Old and New Testaments are corrupted in special "theological" places. For example, the Isaiah translations in the Old Testament of your Christian Bible read completely different in many "messianic" passages as opposed to the Hebrew and Jewish Tanakh. You should ask yourself "why" your Christian Old Testament reads so much different from the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures from which it was supposedly taken! You should demand an answer to this tragic loss of Divine Truth once you see it. Following a religious lie most of our lives surely does not set well with you or God. Most likely you never knew this. It is time to awaken to such sad facts as the Gnostic Paul declares, for it is these alterations of Divine Truth that we have been led to follow false beliefs concerning Jesus, his life, and the death of "the Krst/Karest/Christ".

ANOTHER LOOK AT LEVITICUS 17:11 ...POSSIBLY THE MOST IMPORTANT THING YOU CAN EVER LEARN

Christians generally insist that the absolute need for a vicarious blood sacrifice is rooted in the Torah (first five books of the Old Testament), and cite as proof Leviticus 17:11 "For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul." The sad fact of the matter is that most Christians and Pastors don't understand the verse at all. The Jewish people and their Rabbis teach us the truth of the matter from their own Scriptures and we never listen.

As a Christian, you have probably heard many sermons on the topic of atonement, and have undoubtedly read many studies which support the contention that there is "no atonement without blood." But the truth of the matter is that neither the Book of Hebrews [it says "almost all things"..not "all things"] or the Old Testament maintains that there is "no atonement without blood" as the Book of Hebrews maintains. It would help if we would read our texts correctly in the first place let alone teach from pulpits of our Churches fallacies. Note the verse carefully:

Heb 9:22 22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood (the blood again being a symbol for the repentant Soul); and without shedding of blood is no remission. (KJV)

In fact act the Hebrew Scriptures teach just the opposite! Notice the first clause of the passage in Hebrews chapter 9 is correct but the second clause is an outright untruth and misrepresentation of the Hebrew Scriptures as we shall see. In other words it is a lie according to the reading of the Hebrew Scriptures. Of course you are most likely aware that this teaching of Jesus' death as atonement for sin is not shared by traditional Jews and their Rabbis for the last 2,000 years. They have a great reason for not accepting such a teaching in the New Testament. The reason for the rejection of Jesus' atonement by the Jewish people and their Rabbis for 2,000 years is not because Irenaeus will write Romans chapter 11 and in so mischaracterized the Jewish nation as being "blinded" to Divine Truth. Here is what all of a sudden appears after 180 A.D. by the pens of Roman Orthodoxy:

Rom 11:7 7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded (KJV)

Rom 11:25 25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. (KJV)

Irenaeus gives the world the "Second New Testament" after 180 A.D. that is filled with "replacement theology" and which labels the Jews "blinded" to the reality of human sacrifice for their atonement in the death of this Jesus. This is absurd once you see how the New Testament was penned in pieces over hundreds and hundreds of years. To believe the Gnostic Paul was the writer of this verse which is not in the earliest Romans in New Testament of Marcion in 150 A.D., a strong advocate of Paul and who would have included everything that Paul had written, tells the true story of the matter. These "verses" did not exist and were never penned by the true Paul. The absence of these verses in the First New Testament, let alone the whole of Romans 9-11, is startling to our senses when it hits home. We are fed a lie. The absence of but these two verses speaks volume to our Soul and should "awaken" us to the reality to which we have fallen. But Irenaeus, by labeling the Jewish people and their esteemed Rabbis as "blinded" to Spiritual Truths has made people look to Rome instead of Jerusalem for their Divine Truths. Sad it is that Rome has few if any! It is the Jewish people and their Rabbis mind you that know intently what the Eternal Word of God and the Hebrew Scriptures teach. This fact has escaped the Gentile Christian church because of the many early mistranslations, alterations, and corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures. In their place we have a Roman creation of replacement theology full of religious dogmas that are contradicted not only by Biblical Judaism and the Hebrew Scriptures but by the existing Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the ancients which taught the same theological dogmas as Judaism and the Kabbalah. It is one thing to not have these texts in our Bibles any longer but there is no excuse for taking this above verses that says "almost all things" and teach it as saying "all things" from the pulpits of our Churches as it is so often done. Who notices?

Answer for yourself: Have you ever wondered how the Jewish people could reject what to you seems so clear to you and me? Why would anyone reject a "free" salvation?

It does not make sense to the rational mind but yet they do and have met their death at the point Roman Christian swords as well as being boarded up in their synagogues and burned to death by the millions during the Dark Ages; men, women and children alike for not accepting this "get out of hell free pass" in Jesus' name.

You might remember that in junior high school, we were often given an assignment to write the title for a story; this title usually reflected what is the central idea of a passage. Let us likewise look at Leviticus 17:11 in context in order to make sure we understand the "central" idea of the passage.

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'"

What should immediately be apparent is that the topic of this passage is NOT how to secure atonement from sins, but the prohibition against consuming blood. Although atonement is not the central theme expressed in this particular verse it yet provides the necessary knowledge we need to understand how the Sacrificial System actually worked. We are told parenthetically that the reason for this prohibition is that the blood contains the vitality (Soul) of the animal (Genesis 9:4, Deuteronomy 12:23) and consequently, when we bring an animal sacrifice, its Soul (life) which is in its blood serves as the atoning agent, and not another part of its body [like the blood]. The writer of Leviticus informs us that it is the Soul, one's life, which is in the blood [blood is the object of the preposition "in"] which was offered to God daily and even in death which was pleasing to God and which God accepted as an "atonement" and as an "offering for one's sin". Notice that it is not the "blood" which was accepted for an offering for sin, but rather the "life/Soul" which was "in" the blood. "Blood" is not the subject of the sentence; the Soul is the subject. This might be a shock to you but "life" or the Hebrew word "nephesh" which is the "Soul" is the subject of the sentence. Or better said, it is the "Soul/life" which is the subject of the sentence. That means it is not the "death" or "the blood" which accomplished anything, but rather the life or Soul of the person which provided atonement. Such a life is one lived in repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution as shown earlier in these articles and as attested by the Hebrew Tanakh and Jewish Bible. Even your Christian Old Testament will teach you the same things if you read it closely. But few do and most sermons in our Churches today are always from New Testament texts and not the Hebrew Scriptures. It just so happens that the "life-Soul of the one bringing the sacrifice" is "pictured" and "symbolized" by the "life-Soul" of the animal as the animal's blood is placed on the altar. In reality you are placed on the altar with God where He promised to always meet mankind in Leviticus chapter 6.

Repentance in Judaism known as Teshuva (literally Returning). Repentance is the way of atoning for sin in Judaism and brings the Kingdom of Heaven near. According to Jewish law, if someone commits a sin, he can be forgiven for that sin if he performs Teshuva. This means that he ceases his forbidden actions, regrets what he has done, confesses before God, and firmly resolves never to repeat those actions. When the Temple in Jerusalem was active, a Jew was required to bring various sacrifices for certain types of sins. Unknown to most Christians is that not all sin offerings required blood but all did require the Soul's repentance. Although sacrifices were required, the most essential part of atonement was performing Teshuva or repentance. Presently, with the Temple destroyed, atonement may nevertheless be granted even for such sins if the Soul repents. This brings us to examination of Leviticus chapter 17.

The Hebrew word for "life" which is in the blood is the word for "Soul". Such a life, if it was to be accepted as an atonement, was one which was lived completely obediently to God's Commandments [which if obeyed perfectly led him throughout life never sinning]. But reality teaches that sin is part of life and is that sin is a "teaching tool" to teach us "life" from "death" as necessary to our Spiritual development as Souls. Such a life that turned and repented from sin was so pleasing to God that He accepted such a repentant life as an offering for one's own sin. Such a life was lived in a constant intent to live the commandments of God and when one fell short through sin one was preoccupied to repent and then recapture one's right standing with God. After repentance, "at that moment", one was restored into right standing and relationship with God and the placing of the blood of the animal was representative of the sacrificer's Soul before God since he had ALREADY repented. The animal was a picture of him at that time. The Soul of the animal was a picture of the sacrificer's Soul, but only if he had repented PRIOR to bringing the sacrifice. Now you can understand why God at times tells us that He is wearied by the sacrifices of the people.

They were just killing the animals and there was no repentance in their hearts!

Isa 1:10-17

- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.
- 11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats.
- 12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?
- 13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.
- 14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my Soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.
- 15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Notice that God is tired of ritual without repentance.

Notice what God says next and the remedy to this sad state of Spiritual affairs He finds in His people. Notice what God tells them what they must do!

- 16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;
- 17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

There you have it. Through repentance, confession, and a return to obedience of the Laws and Commandments of one's Covenant the people could again be received by God. Nowhere does it say in the Hebrew Scriptures that God did not want the people to continue to bring sacrifices that were symbolic of the Spiritual condition of their Souls. Only then, as you now have learned, was their Souls to be represented by the innocent animal's blood and Soul being placed on the altar. Anything sacrificed without repentance was a lie to God and was a waste of life; not only theirs but the animals' as well.

LET US LOOK A LITTLE MORE CLOSELY

The Hebrew word for "Soul" is as follows as seen in Strong's Concordance:

5315 nephesh (neh'-fesh);

from 5314; properly, a breathing creature, i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality; used very widely in a literal, accommodated or figurative sense (bodily or mental):

The Hebrew word for "Soul" is as follows as seen in Brown-Drivers-Briggs Hebrew Lexicon:

5315 nephesh-

- soul-self,, life, a creature, a person, an appetite, a mind, a living being, a desire, an emotion, a passion
- what breathes, the breathing substance or being, a Soul, the inner being of man
- a living being
- a living being (with life in the blood)

- the man himself, a-self, a person or an individual
- the seat of the appetites
- the seat of emotions and passions
- the activity of mind
- the activity of the will
- the activity of the character

My whole life I was told that I was “saved” by the blood of Jesus, yet Leviticus tells me that atonement which brings salvation is accomplished by my own life before God!

Looking at the definition above, one quickly sees that the activity of one’s will, mind, and character [one’s Soul] was said to be accepted in Leviticus 17 as an atonement for one’s sin [life and not blood remember?]. Mind you this is not the actions of another for me, but rather my own actions which brings my own atonement.

Jesus, like all Jewish people who came before him who were devoted to God and His Torah, as well as those who lived after him, comprise the “suffering servant Israel”. Let us remember that Isa. 53 speaks of the nation and corporate Israel as the Suffering Servant and not an individual even if singular pronouns are often used interchangeable plural pronouns. Both singular and plural pronouns from Isa. 40-66 refer to the corporate nation of Jewish Souls which affect their own atonement. It is this “Suffering Servant” who is “the” light for the non-Jewish nations and should today be this same Spiritual light for the Christian Church. With this perspective, we now can come to understand that the blood of Jesus, our example, carried the life force of Jesus (his Soul). Jesus was totally committed and surrendered to the will of God and His Torah as depicted in the New Testament, again our Spiritual example. That instead of Jesus’ death, in reality it was his life, a life lived pleasing to God as part of the Israel of God which represents to us the active Spiritual agent that God accepts as atonement for sin. In particular Israel is the priest for the Gentile world, and they bring sacrifices for the sins of the Gentile world at Yom Kippur. THINK! Israel’s “Soul”, not only Jesus’s, but all of righteous Israel, past and future, “atones” for sin. These righteous lives are accepted by Hashem on the altar, according to Leviticus 17, as atonement for sin. Such in reality “atones and saves”. When I as a non-Jew come to the knowledge of God and His commandments, and when my life models through my conduct these Laws lived before God I identify with Israel and join Israel in making atonement for the sins of my life.

Remembering what we have already learned; namely, that singular pronouns in the Servant Songs of Isaiah refer to the nation of Israel and not to only one person like Jesus, then we are equipped to look differently at Jesus and any implications for him being the subject of Isaiah 53. In so doing we can find the following verses even the more astonishing.

Isaiah 53:6

6 We (the Kings of the Gentile nations speaking here) all went astray like sheep, we have turned, each one on his own way, and the Lord accepted his ["his" referring to the corporate nation of Israel] prayers for the iniquity of all of us.

Now let us never again underestimate the importance of the prayer service in the Jewish synagogues on the Holy Days for the world for by it atonement comes to the Gentiles who are unaware of such Divine Truths.

Now it become a little more clear. When one looks at Jesus, or other righteous Jews as the Suffering Servant of the LORD, then we see their lives and understand them as “lights to the nations”. This is then easy to understand. Lives lived as examples which were in complete submission to the Commandments of God and as demonstrated by one’s complete submission of the mind, will, and emotions to God and His desires for his people bring atonement for one's past sins. Such examples as the perfect life of Jesus regarding the Laws of God, when followed by me, literally "saves"! Such lives atoned for not only their sins but for the sins of the Gentile world at Yom Kippur and serve as an example to me and you. This example, if followed, provides atonement for our sins. Literally the "corporate" example of Israel is to be individualized in each believer's life when one comes into personal relationship with God. This is explained when one reads Isaiah 53 from the Jewish Scriptures and not the corrupted Christian Old Testament which alters the Isaiah Hebrew texts.

One's God-honoring life (Soul) was later accepted as an offering for his sin in behalf because following repentance his Soul was purified and his life could then be accepted upon the altar of God in lieu of his actual life being demanded by the Law due to his sin. God accepted his prayers and repentance for his own iniquity.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do... (KJV)

So it was not Jesus' death so much as his God-honoring life-style which was lived in complete submission to the Father and His Commandments which not only brought Jesus to tabernacle within God "without measure", but shows us the way to both live and die in a way which honors both man and God and procures for us our own atonement when we live our lives by his example. The death of Jesus was not so much a sacrifice for us but an example for us.

BUT IN A WAY THE "BLOOD" OF JESUS DID SAVE US....IF WE CAN SEE THE TRUTH OF WHAT HE TAUGHT?

Had Jesus's death not circulated by oral tradition among the later Jewish nation as well as the Gentiles then there most likely would not have been a movement catalyzed from within a Messianic Essene Judaism which would reach out to the nations with the Torah and the Laws of Noah. The death, where the blood of Jesus was supposedly shed for sin, was the catalyst that caused a mission into all the world where the Covenant of Noah was extended to the Gentile World. We call this the Great Commission today. Now understand which is said next. For in the wake of the teaching of Jesus death, first at the hands of the Essenes and later with Rome, there would not likely have come a movement into all the world which aimed at taking the Torah and the Laws of God to the nations whereby non-Jews could learn how to live lives pleasing to God as had Israel through faith and acceptance of the commands of God respective of their Covenant. Messianic Israel took to the non-Jews and the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel God's Covenant made with the non-Jews since before Noah. Faith and obedience to the Covenant stipulations brought salvation to the non-Jewish world since within them are the Divine concepts of faith, repentance, prayer and restitution of one's sin. This understanding is what Isaiah understood about the sacrifice of the Suffering Servant, Jesus being but another example of the sacrifice of Israel by the hands of the Gentiles given in efforts to reach them with the truth about the God of the cosmos. Along with the teaching of the death of Jesus, as well as his resurrection, the teachings by which non-Jews could enter Covenant with God and live by the Commandments of God was to be taken into all the world. Better stated and I hope you understand this, the "descent and death of Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter" and material incarnation in humanity along with the resurrection of the "Soul from the dead while yet alive" as human beings was later altered to a "literalized story of a historical person as the Christ who died and was likewise resurrected". I don't intend to deal with this Ancient Spiritual Wisdom and the understanding of "the Christ", or as Judaism called it, the Messiah, at this time, but understand down through history the receiving of the Oral Traditions often lost their original meanings. This is the case here without a doubt. The later oral tradition of a Jewish Christ who was incarnated, lived, died, and was resurrected as a "literal person" was the later adaptation of the earlier Sacred Wisdom. Along with this was the attachment of an atonement for the whole of mankind through his death and resurrection; an atonement which we have now seen never occurred.

Although the "keys" to this Divine Spiritual Allegory was lost, along with these teachings would come the understanding that repentance from sin and a return to God which provides a life pleasing to God which He then accepts as atonement for sin. Many received this truth, many did not. Through the ages of the Christian Gentile Church and at the hands of Rome this teaching was modified and finally lost! Your example of being a Christian today which does not understand the Sacrificial System of the Bible is proof of what I say.

Now you are ready to read our articles on Isaiah to fully understand Isa. 53 correctly

The vast majority of Christians in the world today have not been told this and wander in fables because they lack the correct understanding which only can come from in-depth Bible study as well as associated studies in Gnosticism and comparative religions. And that goes without saying that you have to have the correct texts and unaltered Hebrew Scriptures before you start. Sadly Christians for the most part cannot find the truth because they are working from a corrupted text. They only reinforce error. Buy yourself a Stone Edition Tanakh. Then you will have the Bible a Jew like Jesus would have used and then armed with my websites mentioned above you can begin to do your comparison Scriptural comparisons and see these things for yourself.

So it was the Suffering Servant, Israel, composed of many Israelites, whose lived lives daily in complete repentance and obedience to the Laws of their God which was so pleasing to God that they could be accepted by God as an offering for their sin and not their red corpuscles (blood) which Christianity sadly mistakenly focuses.

*"And the Lord accepted his [the corporate nation of Israel] prayers for the iniquity of all of us" says the Kings of the nations who are speaking in Isaiah 53 according to Isaiah 52:15, 15 So shall he startle many nations, kings (Gentile kings of these nations) shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they perceive.

What makes this even more remarkable is that in this very passage from Isa. 53 it is the GENTILE KINGS OF THE WORLD SPEAKING & NOT THE JEWISH PEOPLE OR THE JEWISH PROPHETS! The Gentiles will one day understand the role played by the righteous Jewish people in expiation of their sin! This is prophetic but you can fulfill it today if you open your heart and head to the facts presented in this article.

Such is the teaching of Isaiah and Leviticus.

Because of the proliferation of bloody rites in Gentile paganism, the Gentile converts to Jewish Christianity would in the first centuries, inherently revert back to pagan backgrounds. Thus the emphasis today on blood instead of a God-honoring life as the offering for sin has been inherited by the Gentile Church. Such falsehoods as taught by the Romanized Paul was a "bridge" to the non-Jewish nations as Rome attempted to "be all things to all that he might win some". This Romanized Paul gave the non-Jew nothing more than what they already had; for in the pagan mystery religions, of which Troas was the capital of Mithraism, Paul's home town, the ancient allegorical Divine concepts of the Soul were modified and embodied in a "literal Christ Jesus" by this Romanized Paul for Gentile acceptance. They did not have to accept Judaism per se, he would simply remold Jesus into a neo-pagan to which they could relate. Basically the allegorical Spiritual concepts of the Soul and "the Krst/Karest/Christ" were both literalized and historicized by Rome and out comes this "golden calf".

Such is the reckless acts of Roman Christianity desperately trying to be received and accepted because of their "gospel" and its rejection by the Jerusalem Church. Rome tries to pass off this "replacement religion" as Pauline when in fact the true Paul was a Gnostic and never believed in a "literal" or "historical Jesus Christ". When Jerusalem would be notified of what Rome was teaching, they rejected it outright and continue to reject the Roman New Testament today. Jerusalem never accepted "Paul's" gospel, or should I say "Rome's Gospel". Neither should you! Rome's gospel could not "preach" in Israel, only 1500 miles away when few knew little of a Jewish historical Jesus or the Torah. Such a clever tactic by Rome only made Jesus the head of the non-Jewish pantheon which were already filled gods which gave their body and blood for their followers for salvation. But such teachings in the Divine Spiritual Wisdom were always allegorical for Divine Life; never literal "blood".

The Living Energy of God, poured out for mankind, was symbolized by the Sun's energy which appeared red at dawn and dusk. Many cultures believed the Sun consists of life-enhancing forces that promotes vitality in all living things. This life-enhancing force that appeared red to them was likened by them to be symbolic for the "blood" of God which was poured out for their lives. This life-enhancing and saving power of God was thus called the "blood of God" by the ancients but it was purely Metaphysical to its core; never understood to be literal. Thus again, we see what was symbolic and Metaphysical in meaning was later incorporated and interpreted as if "literal" by Rome and today the whole of Christianity is misled and deceived by Rome's reinterpretation of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom.

I just gave you the Biblical teaching on atonement.

Answer for yourself: Have you noticed we have not discussed "sin offerings" yet but have covered the gamut of atonement? Sin offerings only began after the terrible sin of idolatry and blasphemy of the Name of the LORD when Israel rejected YHWH at Sinai. Now God would add a new Law that had not existed prior to that time. This the "Law that was added". Request our article on "The Law That Was Added" to further your understanding in this area.

NOW...WHAT ABOUT SIN OFFERINGS?

Really I don't have much to say except they were instituted after the golden calf incident. Then a whole priesthood and tabernacle was required. But even looking at sin offerings, the same Spiritual dynamics applying to the Soul which we have seen before are again applied; namely, the Soul or life of the sacrificer is placed on the altar as a picture of his renewed relationship with God and the authenticity of such a demonstration was determined if he had repented, confessed, and made restitution PRIOR to bringing the sacrifice.

CONCLUSION

Having now come to the understanding that it was a life lived above sin that was so pleasing to God that God accepted such a life as an offering and atonement for one's sin, it should behoove you to rethink what you believe about atonement as a Christian as related to the death of Jesus. Surely you understand that if we was sinless as Christian theology maintains then there is no need for his shedding of blood since the "life in the blood" only atoned for the individual. If you were to do some comparative religious study you will see the preponderance of evidence of how ancient allegorical and metaphorical Spiritual concepts of salvation are woven into a "literalized" Pauline theology cleverly crafted by Rome. I have shown you the Biblical teachings of atonement and have not mentioned or advocated Paul's theology once; rather only shown you the unsoundness of it as revealed by a true understanding of the Hebrew Scriptures. The reason I have not is that nowhere in the Jewish Masoretic Palestinian text are such Pauline concepts of atonement found.

Only when you read the fraudulent and mistranslated Greek Scriptures, which the Rabbis did not translate, do you begin to find such ideas of a "literal atonement" surfacing in in germ form in the texts as the Essenes related them to their Teacher of Righteousness who was slain by Rome. This meaningless death of their Teacher was interpreted by them to be an atonement and this idea was worked into the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures when translated by them. But never fail to understand that such concepts cannot be found in the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures from which the Greek translation emanated. Somebody, namely first the Essenes "fixed" the Greek translation to read differently and Rome followed in symphony with their deceptive Second New Testament. And sadly for you, these altered and paganized Greek mistranslation became the foundation for your Christian Old Testament. To make matters worse, your New Testament quotes from this fraudulent Old Testament and millions of Christians, unknowing of this event, read this later corrupted New Testament texts as Divine Truth. Over and over as you read your Christian Bible you only reinforce and rehearse error! You need to know that.

Answer for yourself: But that happened over 2000 years ago and who knows of this tragic departure from the ancient Divine Wisdom? Well I do, and others do who have studied enough to see it! The Jews have always known this and this is why they would not accept the LXX and the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures long ago and yet refuse to accept them repeated and enlarged upon in the New Testament today. It was the Jews of the Diaspora who had lost the ability to read Hebrew who were set up for this deception and they readily accepted the Greek translation as well as the secularized Jews of today who accept the New Testament Jesus; never knowing the truth of their Hebrew Scriptures. It is time someone told you! The righteous Jews know this and have known this since 200 BC when the Greek translation was understood by them to be a corruption of the Jewish Scriptures. History records 3 attempts of the Jews to correct such a forged Greek translation but sadly their efforts were enough to overtake the popularity of the already translated LXX (Septuagint).

Understand an animal's Soul represented the Soul of one making the sacrifice, and we, as non-Jews, today are beneficiaries of having the Jew's prayers given to God for our sin on Yom Kippur. Jesus is the archetype for all of Israel. But in this lesson we must no longer overlook the importance of a life lived above sin which procures one's redemption and not the inert blood of the animal or of Jesus's blood. Lives lived honoring God through faith and obedience atones. Your Covenant requires it! Such is the message of Bet Emet as we are called to live like Jesus and not just "believe in Jesus." It has been my experience as a Pastor over the years to encounter multitudes of Christians who trust in Christ's blood instead of understanding the importance of his life, symbolized by his Soul in his blood, as lived in obedience to God as a form of atonement and as a "Living Sacrifice". It is time to reconsider your own life lived in such a way lived pleasing to God as your own atonement. We must walk out our salvation with fear and trembling. We are co-laborers with God in our own salvation through faith and repentance. Such a mistaken understanding of our redemption as seen from this Romanized Paul, since not being taught the truth from a Hebraic perspective, has caused multitudes of Christians to trust in the acclaimed miraculous powers of the blood of Jesus instead of focusing of the miraculousness of a life lived above sin. Such a false sense of security in "blood" instead of "lives lived holy before God and man" unconsciously causes the believer to not regard sin with revulsion as he should. We tend to view sin as less harmful than it is, and compromise with sin which lies at the door.

The bottom line for all Christians to understand is that we have heard way too much preached about Jesus and far too little studied from the texts of the Hebrew and Jewish Bible and comparative religious studies along with the ancient Divine Wisdom which tell us exactly and accurately who this "Krst/Karest/Christ" is as well as his Heavenly and Earthly mission. If we had studied the original sources available to us, we would not be so mixed up theologically in a Christianity today which boasts over 2,000 different denominations all maintaining they have the truth about Jesus while at the same time being the most violent and crime ridden nation in the world.

SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH THE MESSAGE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH...LOOK AT THE FRUIT OF THIS MESSAGE IN OUR COUNTRY WITH A CHURCH ON EVERY CORNER AND TELEVISIONS FILLED WITH THE CHRISTIAN MESSAGE. JUST LOOK OUT YOUR DOOR AND ASK IF A COUNTRY WITH 12% OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION WITH 25% OF THE WORLD'S INCARCERATED PEOPLE IS THE BEST THE HOLY SPIRIT CAN DO????????

May God forgive our laziness to let others tell us what to believe instead of us studying to show ourselves approved unto God. I just showed you part of the problem. Implicitly we are led to not revere the Laws and Commandments of God because "Jesus died for me" and my "get out of hell free card", signed by Jesus, saves me. As a Pastor I saw such falsehoods lived out in the lives of the congregation year after year. When there is no Law, no Commandments, no requirements, no accountability, then there is no righteous fruit and we have our newspapers filled with horror story after horror story and many of these atrocities are being committed by clergy. Lost in all of this is one's personal accountability to God and the Spiritual progression of one's Soul into the "fullness and stature of Christ".

Answer for yourself: When was the last time you saw a Rabbi skip off with the funds of the synagogue or be caught with a prostitute in some motel or exposed on television on "20-20" as being a closet homosexual? When was the last time a Rabbi was found molesting a child? Are they any different than non-Jews; or is it because they have a fear of God that is lacking in the Christian Church because we have "implicitly" been sold a bill of goods that we are "already" forgiven and can get away with it because "Jesus paid it all?"

Sadly few can count on their lives being a sufficient atonement for their sin when your whole life in the Church has taught you to live without Law and the necessary obedience to the Laws and Commandments of God. This the legacy of the Romanized Paul and his "literalized" Christ superimposed upon a Rabbi names Jesus/Jesus is the cause of our Spiritual dilemna in America today. You were taught these "laws and commandments" were a curse when in fact they are the pathway to life everlasting.

Answer for yourself: For after all if saved by the blood of Jesus, what need do I have to live like Jesus and not disobey the commandments of God? Isn't Jesus my "grace card" that allows me to live anyway I want to and not fear the end-result of such non-accountable behavior?

Answer for yourself: If saved by the blood of another, what does a little sin mean, what can it hurt; for after all, did not Jesus die for me as the Roman document, the New Testament states? Well, as you can see now this is a great matter of debate once knowing the facts.

Answer for yourself: Can you begin to see the tragic thinking involved in focusing upon the blood of Jesus instead of the life of Jesus lived above sin and the horrible fruit it produces? This dogma absolute thwarts the incarnational purpose of our Soul.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #6

IS ONLY BLOOD REQUIRED TO ATONE FOR SIN?

"...without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness." (Hebrews 9:22)

Answer for yourself: Is this statement from the epistle to the Hebrews really true or is it a contradiction of the Eternal Word of God and the Hebrew Scriptures and the testimony of Biblical Judaism for the last 2,000 years?

The central theme of Christianity and the New Testament is centered of the belief that the sacrificial offering of the blood of Jesus Christ is the only atonement for the sins of the entire world. Christianity goes on to maintain that "the blood of Jesus was shed in our stead and is the only means of atonement for our sin." Moreover, evangelical Christians assert that for the past nineteen centuries since the destruction of the second temple in 70 C.E., Jews have lacked the essential and indispensable animal-sacrificial system for atonement. Consequently, they insist, God must have provided a blood atonement in place of the animal sacrifices of the past. This sacrifice, they maintain, is the death of Jesus on the cross.

To support this claim that atonement can only be achieved through the shedding of blood, Missionaries cite Leviticus 17:11 which reads:

"This is because the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul."

With this verse in hand, Christians conclude that only by being covered in the blood of the Cross can man have any hope of being forgiven by God for his sins.

Answer for yourself: Is this Christian claim concerning Jesus' sacrifice as the only atonement for mankind truly consistent with the Hebrew Scriptures and Biblical history? If this theological belief as held central by Christianity is true then how is it that in Acts 21, some 30 or so years following the death of Jesus and his supposedly atoning sacrifice, we find that James, the head of Jesus' church, commanding Paul with the sanction of the whole of the Jerusalem Church, to keep the Nazarite Vow; a vow that required that Paul bring both sin and blood atonements for his sin? Was James mistaken in commanding Paul to bring atonement sacrifices or had the Holy Spirit failed to reveal to these followers of Jesus what his death actually meant? What did James, Paul, and the whole of the Jerusalem church know that we don't today that had them continue to observe the Sacrificial System and continue to bring blood sacrifices long after the death of Jesus?

Answer for yourself: Before you try to come up with an answer to these difficult questions you need to be honest with yourself and answer to God the following question: "Just how well do I really know the Old Testament Scriptures and their Hebrew meanings since I am a New Testament Christian?"

Christians claim that the absolute need for blood is rooted in the Law of Moses (the Torah). Traditionally they will often cite the book of Leviticus as proof:

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the Soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'" (Leviticus 17:11)

What should immediately be apparent is that this passage is concerned first and foremost with the prohibition against consuming blood. The subject of atonement here is secondary. Contrary to the Christian claim that Leviticus 17:11 proves that man can only atone for his iniquity through the shedding of blood, this verse only explains the prohibition of eating blood. Christians have conveniently severed this verse from its original context, effectively concealing and distorting its message. In the immediate context of Leviticus 17:11 we find that the Torah is speaking of the prohibition of eating blood, not the subject of sin and atonement. The Torah discusses blood atonement in this verse only as a by-product of its central theme. This crucial message is lost when Christians quote Leviticus 17:11 alone, without the surrounding texts as its proper background. Leviticus 17:11 begins with the conjunctive Hebrew word "ki" (pronounced kee), meaning "This is because...." Whenever a verse begins with this word, it is explaining what has just been related in the previous verse. The previous verse, Leviticus 17:10, reads,

"And any man from the house of Israel, or from the aliens who sojourn among them, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people."

Leviticus 17:11 then continues this message and explains,

"This is because the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul."

Thus, Leviticus 17:11 explains Leviticus 17:10 by revealing that consuming blood is forbidden because it may only be used in the act of sprinkling of the animal's blood on the altar for an atonement. It is a grievous sin to use it for anything else. The Torah therefore commands us in Leviticus 17:13, only three verses later, that when slaughtering an animal, the blood must be poured on to the floor and covered with earth, rendering it useless.

Answer for yourself: Was this done with the death of Jesus as a supposed atonement? Deuteronomy 12:16 states: "Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water."

Leviticus 17:10-11 is therefore declaring two principles about blood:

- you may not eat it
- amongst all the various rituals associated with the sin sacrifice, such as the laying of the hands on the animal, slaughtering, collecting, carrying, sprinkling, placing of the animal on the altar, it is only the sprinkling of the Soul in the blood on the altar that completes the true atonement process and picture of the right standing of the sacrificier's Soul.

You therefore may not eat the blood. This verse does not state or imply that one cannot have atonement for sin without a blood sacrifice. Such a message would contradict all of the Jewish scriptures which clearly outline two other methods of atonement more pleasing to God than a sacrifice - heartfelt repentance and charity.

Although the statement "without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins" is found nowhere in the Hebrew and Jewish scriptures, it does appear in the Christian scriptures. In Hebrews 9:22 the author misquotes Leviticus 17:11 when he states "Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins."* Although this quote in Hebrews 9:22 is always cross referenced in a Christian study Bible to Leviticus 17:11, it is actually a stunning purposeful misquote of the original text.

Finally, if Christians want to use Leviticus 17:11 to bolster their position that blood sacrifices are indispensable for procuring an atonement, they must use all of the verse, not just a part of it. Leviticus 17:11 specifically says that the blood of the sacrifice must be placed "upon the altar to make atonement for your souls." That is to say, Leviticus 17:11 explicitly declares that the Soul in the blood can only effect atonement if it is placed on the altar. Jesus' blood, however, was never placed on the altar in the Temple. If the church is going to take the "blood" part of the verse "literally" as the subject and active agent that supposedly is the atoning agent, they must also take the "altar" part literally as well. Jesus' blood was never sprinkled on the altar, and therefore his death could not provide atonement for anyone. But of course we have already see this in many other examples where the Sacrificial System has been terribly distorted before the uneducated reader in hopes of selling him an easy "false atonement" which will bind him to the Catholic Church for life. We are told that the reason for this prohibition is that the blood contains the life, Soul, and very vitality of the animal. So as you most clearly see now another reason that drinking blood is prohibited is that consuming blood was a very important part of the idolatrous religious practices of the people and nations surrounding Israel (Gen. 9:4 and Deut. 12:23). The blood is sacred for it is the home for the Soul, the active atoning agent in the Sacrificial System.

Israel was clearly instructed by The Holy One of Israel through Moses not to imitate this abhorrent pagan practice in any manner (and this has serious implications for Christian communion, both Catholic and Protestant) which believe the wafer and wine are turned into the actual "literal blood and body of Jesus Christ". Although the actual blood was later to be substituted with wine in many of the sacred banquets of pagan religions, there is ample evidence to support the claim that literal blood was consumed as part of the ritual worship of pagan deities, and this was done as a form of atonement.

Please listen to this! Since this passage from Lev. 17 is predominately concerned with the prohibition against consuming blood, we must look elsewhere in the Bible for instructions concerning atonement for sins. This passage in Lev. 17 is very helpful, yes, in determining that it is the very Soul that is in the "blood" that accomplishes the atonement for sin but we must continue to expand our study to see more about how this Sacrificial System operated. This passage in Leviticus will become clearer later on only as we look at other Hebrew Scriptures. The passage does say that since blood symbolizes the life of the animal, it can be used as a means of atoning for our sins. This passage in Leviticus does not say, however, that blood is the only means of atoning for sins. Indeed, The Holy Hebrew Scriptures tell us of several other things that can be used instead of the blood of a sacrificial ram or bullock in obtaining atonement and forgiveness of sins.

OTHER MEANS OF ATONEMENT.....IS THIS NEWS TO YOU?

"And Moses said unto Aaron, 'Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from [YHWH]; the plague is begun.' And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people." (Numbers 16:46-47)

Answer for yourself: What is the atoning agent in this above Scriptures? It is incense.

Here, incense can be used to atone for sins in the same manner as the blood sacrifices of animals.

Notice what else could be used in place of blood:

"The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel (offering of money), when they give an offering unto [YHWH], to make an atonement for your souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before [YHWH], to make an atonement for your souls." (Exodus 30:15-16)

Answer for yourself: What is the atoning agent in this above Scriptures? Money as an offering to God is a form of atonement for one's sins.

Here, one's offering to the LORD can be used to atone for sins in the same manner as the blood sacrifices of animals.

The phrase "to make atonement for your souls" in these verses is the same expression as in Leviticus 17:11:

"We have therefore brought an oblation [again items of worth and money] (Deut. 12:23-25, 30) for [YHWH], what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before [YHWH]." Numbers 31:50)

Answer for yourself: What is the atoning agent in this above Scriptures? They brought their gold and jewelry as an atonement for this sin.

In these passages, money, gold, or jewelry could be used to make atonement for the children of Israel. The principle here is not that atonement can be bought (this was the practice of the great Catholic church whose priests routinely sold forgiveness in indulgences). Rather, this is about doing charitable things with money as a form of restitution, good deeds, and charity which are part of atonement process according to the Torah. In this case, the money was to be used for the physical maintenance of the temple building, at other times it was the care of the poor, the widow, the orphan, lame, blind, poor, crippled, etc.

DOES BLOOD COVER ALL SIN?

Now get ready for an eye-opening teaching that has drastic implication again for Jesus and his death being an atonement for all sin.

According to the Hebrew Scriptures, blood sacrifices held only limited atonement capabilities and did not apply to various types of sin. Let me explain this in detail so that there is no confusion. Foremost among the limitations of blood sacrifices is the fact that blood sacrifices were only brought for the sinner for his unintentional sins. If a person committed some sin out of ignorance, such as doing work on the Sabbath when perhaps they mistakenly thought it was Sunday, then atonement could be made and blood sacrifices could be brought to the temple as part of his sin offering. Again, let us not forget that his repentance, confession, prayer, and righteous deed did the actual atoning of his sin of ignorance and the blood sacrifice was later brought to declare before God and mankind that his Soul was in right standing with God. The blood that was placed on the altar was only a "picture" and "symbol" of the Soul of the sacrificer who had previously repented. The blood was the "passive agent" in the whole Sacrificial System process; it was his repentance, prayer, confession and subsequent righteous acts and charity that actually accomplishes his atonement and forgiveness long before he brought a blood sacrifice to the Temple for his sin of ignorance. This is the law of unintentional sin according to Biblical Judaism. Now we look at a whole other matter; the intentional sin.

First of all get prepared. Sacrifices never were brought to help atone for sins ## that were done intentionally.

Answer for yourself: Does this mean that all of the sin offerings in the Bible we see brought were considered as unintentional sins? Yes. Were sacrifices ever brought for premeditated sins like adultery and theft? No.

Notice the instructions to the priests concerning this:

"And [YHWH] spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of [YHWH] concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto [YHWH] for a sin offering. And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before [YHWH]; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before [YHWH]. And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation: And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before [YHWH], before the veil of the sanctuary. And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before [YHWH], which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation" Leviticus 4:1-7)

The claim so often heard uttered from the lips of Christians; namely, "that only blood could atone for sins" raises many questions when one studies the Torah and the Sacrificial System thoroughly whereby he discovers that blood sacrifices could not and were never brought for intentional sins.

Answer for yourself: Right up front, what drastic implication does this have for Jesus' death being an atonement for mankind's sin? Well, for starters it appears that if Christian theology is correct, which it is not, then even if it were then the death of Jesus could only have atoned for mankind's unintentional sin since blood was never brought for intentional sins. This deserves a long consideration by every Christian; especially by those who have been taught that Jesus is the fulfillment of the Sacrificial System as well as those who have been taught that Jesus is the type and shadow of the sacrificial lamb of the Old Testament Yom Kippur sacrifice. It appears now that nothing could be further from the truth for any such death of Jesus which had any connection to atonement would have only applied to unintentional sins.

Answer for yourself: What happens if someone could not afford to purchase a ram or bullock for his unintentional sin offering? Is it possible that a loving CREATOR would institute a system of atonement that could only be used by the wealthy?

Contrary to the missionary claim that blood-sacrifice is the only method of atonement in the Bible, there are three methods of atonement clearly defined in the Jewish scriptures:

- The sin sacrifice for unintentional sin; implied here the reader must understand is the sinner's repentance, remorse, contrition, prayer, and almsgiving along with correct instruction that will lead the sinner to never repeat this same sin of ignorance again, if he does then it becomes a sin of intention where no blood sacrifice can be brought (Leviticus 4:1-35)
- repentance (Deuteronomy 4:26-31; I Kings 8:46-50; Isaiah 55:6-9; Jeremiah 7:3-23; Ezekiel 18:1-23; Hosea 6:6; 14:2-3; Micah 6:6; Psalm 40:7-9 (6-8); 51:16-19);
- charity (Proverbs 10:2; 11:4; 16:6; Daniel 4:24; II Chronicles 6:36-39)

Moreover, the sin sacrifice and man's repentance accompanied with a subsequent blood sacrifice, known in the Hebrew Scriptures as Korban Chatat, did not atone for all types of sin, but rather, only for man's most insignificant iniquity: unintentional sins. The sin sacrifice along with one's repentance was inadequate to atone for a transgression committed intentionally. This is something of the most serious nature which is only handled between man and God at the High Holy Days on Yom Kippur. The brazen sinner was barred from the Sanctuary, and had to bear his own iniquity because of his rebellious intent to sin against God.

"And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto [YHWH]; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering." Leviticus 5:7) Here, if a person could not afford the sacrificial ram or bullock for a sin offering, certain types of small birds could be used instead.

Answer for yourself: However, what if someone was so destitute, that he couldn't afford even these small birds?

"But if his means are insufficient for two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then for his offering for that which he has sinned, he shall bring the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it or place incense on it, for it is a sin offering." (Leviticus 5:11)

Answer for yourself: What does this teach us? Namely, that the Torah allowed for non-blood sacrifices to be given in place of blood sacrifices. Thus we learn that blood was not always required for atonement and surely was not the "only way to accomplish atonement" as the writer of the Book of Hebrews maintains.

This is very startling to note in lieu of the traditional Christian teaching that "...without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness." (Hebrews 9:22)

Answer for yourself: It certainly appears to me that the writer of the Book of Hebrews has no idea whatsoever how the Sacrificial System truly operated. Don't you find this situation rather strange for a Jew called by the Holy Spirit to convey Divine Truths yet he gets it completely backwards and wrong? Christianity's blood atonement teachings connected to the death and supposed sacrifice of Jesus and that only Jesus' blood could serve as mankind's atonement is completely destroyed by this contradictory fact taken from Leviticus 5:11.

If birds could not be afforded, some simple flour could be used instead and would be just as effective in the eyes of Israel's Creator. The Hebrew Scriptures are quite clear on this. Since flour could be used for a sin offering, it is evident that blood was not the sole means of atonement; never was and never will be! The Christian position that only the shed blood of Jesus could atone for sins is falling by the wayside in light of the serious study and examination of the Hebrew Scriptures. Actually, considering the beating and torture which Jesus is said to have suffered at the hands of the Romans, you have to wonder if atonement was the goal to be accomplished by his death then why God did not have Jesus request that a sack of flour be brought by the Romans and let them whip, beat, mock and crucify it instead of himself!!!

WHAT IF THERE WAS NO TEMPLE OR AARONIC PRIEST ...HOW WAS ATONEMENT ACHIEVED?

While the Temple stood, sacrifices without question served as part of the atonement process. If you read the first articles in this series then you understand the meaning of the "blood" on the altar within the Temple.

Answer for yourself: What, though, was to be the fate of the people who did not have access to the Temple?

Answer for yourself: What were the Israelite people supposed to do after 586 B.C.E. when the first Temple was destroyed and they were exiled to Babylon? How were they to atone for sin without a Temple? If the blood was the "passive agent" in the Sacrificial System then was their repentance, confession, remorse, and acts of charity and righteous deed satisfactory to atone for their sin? Yes, it was and it always has been as we have seen previously.

Answer for yourself: What did the Jewish people do in the times of the Maccabees when the Syrian-Greeks were in control of the Temple and did not allow sacrifices?

After King Solomon completed the spectacular Temple building in Jerusalem, he dedicated it with a very moving speech. This lengthy and very beautiful speech can be read in the books of 1 Kings 8 and II Chronicles 6. Notice, however, that strangely King Solomon, in reality Amenhotep III, Pharaoh of the 18th Dynasty of Egypt, doesn't speak about sacrifices at all! If sacrifices were the focal point of the temple, this omission would be very curious. Rather, the focus of the Temple was shown to be the Ark, containing the Laws which our Creator wants us to live by. The Temple was first and foremost a symbol of the Shechinah, or presence of The Holy One of Israel.

"I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever. (I Kings 8:13)

"And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them" (Exodus 25:8).

Toward the end of the speech, Solomon addresses the subject of the Israelite people being denied access to the temple:

"If they return to You with all their heart and with all their Soul in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and pray to You toward their land which You have given to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name; then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You..." (I Kings 8:46-50)

Here we see that Solomon addresses that part of Israel who was yet and would be again captives in another nation in his dedication of the Temple. Here Solomon understand that although the Jewish people were without a Temple they were never without an atonement. This passage helps us understand Leviticus 17:11 properly. The Bible clearly teaches that blood sacrifices were not necessary in order to atone for sins; they were the final "picture representing the atoned Soul" and functioned as the "passive part" of the whole Sacrificial process. Prayer and repentance are shown to be the effective means of atonement. Certainly, when the Temple stood, and if one could afford an animal, a sacrifice was brought as part of the atonement process for unintentional sins. What Leviticus 17:11 teaches us is that when we bring such an animal as a sacrifice, we are not allowed to consume its blood, because as the life force and Soul, it is the vital part of the animal, mankind being a Soul in an animal body, that affects his atonement.

The prophets declared that repentance and charity are more favorable than a blood sacrifice. Throughout the Hebrew Scriptures, the prophets declared that repentance and charity are more pleasing to God for atonement than a blood sacrifice. They repeatedly forewarned the Jewish people from becoming obsessed with blood offerings. Other methods of atonement were more efficacious and would even replace animal sacrifices. For example, King David, in reality Tuthmose III, another Pharaoh of the 18th Dynasty of ancient Egypt, declares in Psalm 40:76 in the Hebrew Scriptures that:

"Sacrifice and meal offering You have not desired; but my ears You have opened (to hear and understand your Word); burnt offering and sin offering You have not required."

These words of the Hebrew Scriptures stand in sharp disagreement with the later Roman Christian doctrine that sin can "only" be expiated through the shedding of blood. Because the Psalmist's words were deeply offensive to the early church as found in the Hebrew Scriptures and has the potential to destroy their radical reinterpretation of the Jewish Sacrificial System which was being corrupted to provide a blanket-atonement for any believer in Rome's theology attached to the New Testament Jesus, the later pro-Roman writer of the Book of Hebrews 10:5-6 was forced to corrupt and tragically alter Psalm 40:7 as it read in the Hebrew. The altered text we find in our Christian Bible and in our Book of Hebrews is found as follows:

"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, But a body You have prepared for Me. In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You had no pleasure." Hebrews 10:5-6

Notice how King David's original words, "but my ears You have opened" (to the Torah) have disappeared entirely in the Hebrews quote when translated into the New Testament. Instead, this New Testament author replaced this expunged clause with the words "But a body you have prepared for Me." This is a startling alteration of the Jewish scriptures but also of the Divine Sacred Wisdom of the ancient which always taught obedience to the Laws and Order of God as seen in the Heavens "above" and in Nature "below". But besides that the ancient Divine Wisdom for over 10,000 years taught concurrently from nation to nation of the "fall of Soul as well as the Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter" and "material existence" in the form of humanity. What was allegory of the "fall" and "death of the Christ in His fall and incarnation into the whole of mankind" was "literalized" and tragically "limited to but one person in the form of the Roman Jesus" and in so doing they altered Psalm 40:7 to make it appear that a "literal incarnation" of Christ into the body of Jesus was a prophecy fulfilled. The "coming of the Christ" to mankind was never limited to but one person; it is the gift of God to all incarnated Souls.

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory (your glory and your atonement): (KJV)

Nothing could be further from the truth than this Roman theology as found in Hebrew 10:5-6 which we have inherited along with other purposeful deceptions of Messianic promises which applies to all but one of the Messianic Prophecies in the whole of the New Testament. Except for just one of them, the whole of the Messianic Prophecies in our New Testament are all forged, altered, corrupted, or invented out of thin air in one way or the other when compared with the Hebrew originals which they were supposed to faithfully represent to the New Testament reader. This never happened but you will never know until you compare them with both the Old Testament and New Testament forgeries "line upon line" and "precept upon precept" as the Prophet Isaiah instructs us! I have so I can say what I have; having done these studies my results proved to me that if you do the same studies as I have then you, like myself, cannot be proven wrong in this regard.

Hosea foretold that the Jewish people would be without a sacrificial system, and instructed us to replace animal offerings with prayer. In Hosea 3:4-5, the prophet foretold with Divine exactness that the Nation of Israel would not have a sacrificial system during the last segment of Jewish history until the messianic age. Hosea 3:4-5 reads,

"For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim. Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days."

In the words of the Bible, this period of time would last for many days. Yet, despite the repeated proclamations of the church that the crucifixion of Jesus serves as a sin sacrifice today, the words of Hosea were meticulously fulfilled.

Given the spiritual magnitude of this remarkable prophecy, Hosea was compelled to reveal how the ecclesiastical temple functions were to be replaced.

- Answer for yourself: In essence, if the prophet is testifying that the nation of Israel will indeed be without a Sacrificial System during their long exile until the messianic age, what are they to use instead?
- Answer for yourself: How are the Jewish people to worship without blood sacrifices during their bitter exile?
- Answer for yourself: What about all the animal sacrifices prescribed in the Book of Leviticus?

- Answer for yourself: Can the Jewish people get along without animal offerings?

By now the reader has the answer to these questions and there is no doubt in his mind to the role of "blood" and its function in the Sacrificial process. Christians, unknowing of how the Sacrificial System actually operated, claim the Jewish are without an atonement since they reject the atonement of Jesus in the New Testament. By now you are clearly seeing that such an atonement does not exist nor has it ever! The Hebrew Bible not only disagrees with this Christian theology but it contradicts it at every Roman turn; providing you know the Hebrew Scriptures from the later Greek, Latin, and English corruptions and their equally corrupt quotations in the New Testament. For this reason, the statement in Hosea 14:2-3 is crucial. In these two verses, Hosea reveals to his beloved nation how they are to replace the Sacrificial System during their protracted exile. The prophet declares that the Almighty wants us to "render for bulls the offering of our lips." Prayer is to replace the sacrificial system. "Take words with you, And return to the LORD. Say to Him, 'Take away all iniquity; receive us graciously, For we will render for bulls the offering of our lips.'" (Hosea 14:2-3)

The prophets never instruct the Jews to worship any crucified messiah or demigod (Exodus 20:2-3; Deuteronomy 4:35; 6:14; 32:39; Hosea 13:4). Nor does scripture ever tell us that an innocent man can die as an atonement for the sins of the wicked as seen in Ezekiel 18:1-23. Take time to read this long passage please. Such a message that Roman Christianity teaches about the death of Jesus as an atonement is utterly antithetical to the teachings of the Hebrew Scriptures. Rather, it is the lips of the sinner that is transformed into bulls of the sin offerings.

In the reference to Ezekiel 18: 1-23, we find that the Prophet Ezekiel condemns the doctrine of vicarious atonement which has become the backbone of Christian theology. Throughout the 18th chapter, Ezekiel warned his people that this erroneous teaching that a righteous man could die for another man's sins was contrary to the will of God. The way for the sinful man to come right by God is to turn away from his rebellious ways, repent, and thereby the penitent is assured complete forgiveness. Throughout Ezekiel's uplifting sermon on the forgiveness of sin, notice if you will that blood sacrifices are never mentioned. Ezekiel 18:1-4, 19-23 reads:

"The word of the Lord came to me, saying: 'What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel, saying: 'The fathers eat sour grapes, and the sons' teeth are set on edge?' As I live, declares the Sovereign Lord, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. For every living soul belongs to Me, the father as well as the son -- they are Mine. Which ever soul sins, it shall die.... Yet you ask: Why did the son not bear the sin of the father? But the son, justice and righteousness did he do, all My decrees did he safeguard and perform them. He shall surely live. The soul that sins, it shall die! The son shall not bear for the sin of the father, nor the father bear for the sin of the son. The righteousness of the righteous person shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked person shall be upon him. As for the wicked man, if he should turn away from all his sins which he did, and safeguard all My decrees, and do justice and righteousness; he shall surely live. He will not die. All his transgressions which he committed will not be remembered against him. For the righteousness which he did, he shall live. Do I desire at all the death of the wicked man -- the words of my Lord, God -- is it not rather his return from his ways, that he might live.'"

Here again we find the same message in the later Prophets that sin is atoned for by repentance, faith, obedience, and righteous actions as we have since the beginning of the Hebrew Scriptures, during which Israel lived in the land in possession of its Temple as well as when dispersed. The message of all the Prophets of God is the same, repentance saves from death and provides its own atonement for the sinner.

IN SPITE OF ALL THIS EVIDENCE TO THE CONTRARY, COULD JESUS BE AN ACCEPTABLE SACRIFICE?

Another focal point of the New Testament is the Christian claim that the crucifixion of Jesus served as the final atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world. However, if the sacrificial instructions set forth by the Law of Moses are examined closely, and you see the guidelines set forth for how sacrifices are to be brought, it will be clear that Jesus could never serve as an atoning sacrifice. Clearly, not just any blood shed in any manner would satisfy the Biblical requirements for atonement. Notice the instructions set forth in the Torah concerning sacrifices:

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls..." (Lev. 17:11)

Notice that the blood of the acceptable sacrifice was to be shed upon the holy altar of the temple, and not on the pagan phallic symbol of the cross. Besides Jesus died on a single stake without a crossbar as was customary of the Romans and their crucifixions. Clearly, not just any spilled blood is acceptable as a sacrifice. YHWH set forth very meticulous rules and laws governing acceptable sacrifices brought to Him. Jesus' crucifixion may qualify as an atonement according to the faith and incomplete knowledge of many but but since his blood was not offered on the altar, it is not in compliance with what the Holy Scriptures of Israel requires.

There are many other factors that would render the crucifixion of Jesus an unacceptable sacrifice according to Scriptural guidelines. According to the Biblical rules in Leviticus, all sacrifices had to be offered by a Levite Priest, a descendant of Aaron. According to the "gospel" accounts, Jesus was killed by pagan Gentile Roman soldiers.

Biblical law also prohibited any sacrifice that was blemished or maimed:

"Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats. But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto [YHWH] to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beefs or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen [cyst], or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto [YHWH], nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto [YHWH]. (Leviticus 22:19-21).

Now we have a problem. The "gospels" of the New Testament clearly teach that Jesus was beaten and whipped, which would have made him blemished and maimed and therefore an unfit sacrifice. Frequently, Christians react to this line of reasoning by protesting that it is improper to be so literal, and that Jesus' death was more of a symbolic or Spiritual sacrifice. This is rather strange when they damn others for not believing the "Jesus Story" as a literal-historical event. Christians will insist, indeed the New Testament itself makes the claim, that Jesus was literally our Passover sacrifice. Let us all remember in the book of John that the Roman soldiers pierced Jesus's side. In so doing he was a blemished sacrifice and disqualified as an acceptable sacrifice according to the Laws of sacrifice. Here we are told that they did not break his legs because this would violate the rules of the proper Passover sacrifice (Matthew 27:26, Mark 15:19, and John 19:3). The legs of the crucified were sometimes broken to hasten death. It was necessary that crucifixion victims must prop themselves up using their legs in order to facilitate breathing. This could prolong death for days at times. The legs were broken so that proper breathing could be prevented, and the lungs crushed the diaphragm and breathing was extremely difficult.

"But coming to Jesus' when they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs...in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled: Not a bone of him shall be broken." (John 19:33-36)

The gospel of John portrays Jesus as the Passover lamb which was not supposed to have any of its bones broken (cf. Exodus 12:46, Numbers 9:12). If Christians insist that Jesus was the literal Passover sacrifice, and his blood atoned for our sins, then Jesus, as that sacrifice, was subject to the literal guidelines set by the Law of Moses given by the God of Israel governing an acceptable sacrifice. Christians always seem to want to have it both ways. The New Testament itself proposes that Jesus was a literal acceptable sacrifice. When confronted with the clear Biblical instructions on how acceptable sacrifices were to be offered, however, they will complain that this is just legalistic nit picking.

Answer for yourself: If Jesus was the final sacrifice, why did the James, Paul, and the Jerusalem Church command that Paul undertake the Nazarite Vow that required sin and blood atonement offerings? Even more so why is the sacrificial system returning according to the Prophets in the Hebrew Scriptures?

The New Testament is clear that the animal sacrificial system never could atone for sin in any permanent way, and indeed the entire purpose of the animal sacrificial system was, in the language of the Book of Hebrews, foreshadowing Jesus' death on the cross. Hebrews 10:4 insists that the animal sacrificial system had no lasting value. "For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins."

Answer for yourself: Why was the above statement necessary for the writer of the Book of Hebrews?

Simply because if the animal sacrifices really worked, why was Jesus' death necessary? It should have been sufficient to keep bringing animal offerings. The New Testament therefore repeatedly declares that Jesus was the final sacrifice for all time (Romans 6:10; Hebrews 9:12; 10:10; 10:18), and there would no longer be any future need for the return of the animal sacrificial system. This doctrine, however, completely contradicts the words of the prophets who clearly foretold that the animal sacrificial system would return in the messianic age. Jeremiah 33:17-18; Zechariah 14:21; Ezekiel 43-44 all teach us that the Sacrifices will return to the rebuilt Temple in the Messianic age. Missionaries often try to explain this problem away by claiming that the reason animal sacrifices will return is to point back to Jesus. This response, however, is a rationalization that is not even used in the New Testament, and thoroughly contradicts the statements in Romans and Hebrews. that Jesus' sacrifice was the "final sacrifice" for sin. It does not appear to be that at all having seen these articles and the facts that they reveal to the reader.

You may wonder why I present this this type of material to you, our readers. Simply, because I discovered upon my personal study these serious Spiritual deceptions over the early years of my Pastorate. In looking for a "Jewish Jesus" I turned to Judaism for answers since not finding one in Christianity. There, when studying Judaism intently I discovered not only these textual forgeries in our Christian Bibles when compared to the older Hebrew Scriptures but the unbelievable reinterpretation of almost all Spiritual Doctrines that existed in Biblical Judaism. Later as my studies would advance after my resignation as a Pastor I would discover the venerable links between the Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the ancient religions with Biblical Judaism. These "unaltered Spiritual dogmas" concerning the Souls of mankind basically remained unchanged up until the rise of Roman Orthodoxy in the 2nd through the 5th century when allegorical Spiritual and Divine Truths that had remained unchanged for thousands of years were "literalized and historicize" and altered almost beyond belief and recognition. This is what we inherited from Rome as you are seeing in these articles. I was so moved by what I uncovered over those years that God led me to create Bet Emet in order to warn and share this knowledge with other brothers and sisters desiring the truth about our "Jesus Story". I do so in hopes that they might learn as well the truth behind the New Testament and repent thereby accepting the true "unity of the faith" given to all mankind which Rome so altered to be almost unrecognizable today without great effort exerted on your part to find such Divine Truths. Such Divine Truths when incorporated in our religious beliefs and lives honors God and guarantees our acceptance when we die. More to follow. Shalom.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #7

WHY WAS JESUS PATTERNED AFTER THE PASSOVER SACRIFICE...SHOULD IT NOT HAVE BEEN AFTER YOM KIPPUR?

It really does not make sense to type Jesus as the Passover sacrifice in the New Testament. Atonement was never connected with the Passover. Doing so shows that the writers of these texts knew little about Biblical Judaism let alone the Biblical Feasts or again how the Sacrificial System actually functioned.

We know from Exodus 12 that the Passover sacrifice did not serve as atonement for sins, it merely commemorates the exodus from Egypt. Even when the lamb was slaughtered in Egypt and its' blood smeared on the door-posts, the blood did not serve to atone for the sins of anyone. The blood smeared on the doorposts of their homes was but a symbol of their faith and was the sign for the angel of death to pass over Israelite homes during the death of the first born. The only people in danger were first-born males, not first born girls let alone older brothers in the same family. This blood, even it has been an atonement of some sorts did not apply for everyone. This blood wasn't a help to other people in the family, and didn't serve as an atonement for the first born or save the mothers or sisters of any family. To try to equate the death of Jesus and his death and sacrifice for the sins of the world evidently let a lot of people "unsaved" if we make Jesus be an accurate "type and shadow" as Christianity teaches. But few study this deep, they are emotionally swayed by pronouncements from the pulpit. It sounds so good and this false assurance that condones any behavior in the name of Jesus satisfies their fears of a lasting hell. Better for them if they had studied at home for truth is often elusive in the Christian Church today which follows "tradition" more than they study their own Scriptures let alone the Hebrew Scriptures. Preaching has always been a poor substitute for "study"; study being the highest form of worship in Biblical Judaism and one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit to the flock of God. Look at you will, you will never find "preaching" as a gift of the Holy Spirit. Once you are taught correctly then you, the congregation, becomes the "proclaimers" and the "preachers". Only in these last 100 years or so has clergy taken salaries to do the job of the congregation. In so doing "serious teaching of the Word of God", a gift from God, has almost vanished from our Churches. The fruit of such a tragic loss of the operation of the Holy Spirit among us speaks for itself.

It would have made much more sense to type Jesus after the Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) sacrifice, which actually was part of the atonement service for the sins of all the people. But there is a major theological problem connecting the Yom Kippur sacrifice with the death of Jesus as an atonement for sin. Before we "hit the nail on the head" understand that the study of Biblical Judaism is not only enlightening for the Christian but delivers one from incorrect damnable theology we inherited by Rome. You will never know Spiritual Truth and freedom from fear or ignorance until you begin to worship God in the highest way ever given mankind; that way is the study of His word. Only in so doing will you ever break free for erroneous Spiritual traditions like the one we approach next.

Answer for yourself: So, what is the problem connecting Jesus' death to the Yom Kippur atoning sacrificial lamb?

The problem here was that according to Leviticus 16:10, 21-22, the animal that atoned for the sins of the nation was NEVER killed but always sent out alive into the desert! (THINK)...it was not killed...it lived...; just as we saw earlier in the previous articles and even in the Isaiah 53 studies...."life" atones..not death!

Because as Christians, since we are reared on "preaching" and not "study" we are not thoroughly familiar with anything except what we have heard preached from pulpits that comes more from tradition than hard-nosed exegesis of Biblical texts. We as Christians are basically ignorant of Biblical Judaism, the corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures when traced through the later Greek, Latin, and English translations, the dynamics and true workings of the Sacrificial System, basically ignorant of Gnosticism, Comparative Religions, Astronomy, ancient Egyptian Religion, etc. This assures us that we are not equipped to tell "fiction" from "truth" when we hear it.

The Yom Kippur lamb that carried the "guilt" and "symbolic sin" of the nation into the wilderness was never killed. To equate this to the death of Jesus as some form of atoning "death" is completely nonsensical! But few know this since having never studied Judaism and the Biblical Feasts in the both the Hebrew Bible, which are given and commanded of both Jew and non-Jew. Not knowing this then we are content to follow the Constantinian Roman Calendar of the Church which completely replaced God's Holy Days. Few ever stop to look up word in the New Testament in their original Greek; had you done so you would have found like myself following Seminary that both Jews and non-Jews kept the Biblical Festivals in the New Testament. It is hidden in the Greek; totally absent in the English. You have found like me that the word "pascha", or "Passover", is used 29 times in the New Testament. In 28 of these times the word "pascha" is translated correctly, as "Passover". Funny, that when we come to the Books of Acts, 12:4, we find that this same word "pascha" which has been translated 27 times as "Passover" now becomes "Easter".

Answer for yourself: Is Easter the same as Passover? No way. Just ask a Jew or a Rabbi, or better yet see what God has to say about it in His Hebrew Scriptures. Understand Rome could not have the early Gentile church observing Passover; although they did for centuries until the Roman repression and persecutions finally stamped out the last of the Jewish Roots of the Gentile Church at the point of swords and shed blood. Here before us is but another "purposeful mistranslation" of the Hebrew words in our Bibles that turns the reader away from the Divine Truths of the Soul in the ancient Spiritual Wisdom and are blessed today to find these same Divine Truths of the Soul in Biblical Judaism which are completely lacking in Roman Christianity. We have to come to Rome in the 2nd through the 5th century to find this "radical reinterpretation" of almost all of the ancient Divine Wisdom of the Soul and the total mutation and alteration of the Divine Concept of "the Krst/Karest/Christ".

Not aware of the Spiritual dynamics of these Holy Days, sacred days that teach upon the progressive Spiritual evolution of all Souls, we as Christians grow up following Rome's incorrect "Jesus" interpretation of these days; never knowing how far we have fallen from Divine Truth. We live our whole lives accepting a false atonement for our Souls by accepting this "Jesus Story" that Rome crafted; never working out our Soul's salvation through a life devoted to repentance, confession of sin, prayer, righteous works and deeds like almsgiving instead of robbing God by giving our tithes to the Church who uses these funds anyway they please instead of the ONLY ways God commanded it be used in the Hebrew Scriptures.

Now the followers of Jesus had another problem. According to the prophecies of ancient Israel, the Messiah was not supposed to die before completing His mission. The followers of Jesus, who much later claimed through the oral tradition that he was Israel's Messiah, now had to deal with Jesus' embarrassing supposed death at the hands of the Romans. So they correlated him with the slain Passover sacrifice. This tap dance around the scriptures to try and legitimize Jesus as the Messiah cannot negate the clear lesson from Leviticus and the Day of Atonement that the shedding of blood is not a pre-requisite for atonement.

CAN YESHUA OR ANY OTHER PERSON ATONE FOR YOUR SINS?

Answer for yourself: Where did this idea originate that one man, or that anyone for that matter, could atone and pay for the sins of one or more people?

Maybe you don't know or have never read on this subject. Many don't and have not done adequate study to know the answer. Others have. It should be perfectly clear to you, if you have ever looked into the subject, that such notions stem from the Babylonian mystery religion of ancient Mesopotamia. The Greeks and Romans, as well as their ancestors, had multiple legends whereby heroes died for followers, cities, friends, for the law, for the truth, etc. But what many writers fail to tell you is that in all of these "myths" that such "dying and rising" gods and goddesses were NEVER LITERAL!

Answer for yourself: So what did these dying and rising gods and goddesses actually mean? This is pretty far advanced for this study but here goes. We find that these "dying", "rising" and "atoning gods and goddesses" were first of all always a Spiritual allegory, metaphor, cipher, or symbol. They were never to be understood as "literal" people. They were ALL symbols for the Descent of the Soul and the Krst, Karest/Christ into "material manifestation". In other words symbolic of the "incarnation into humanity". From beginning to end we find this Spiritual Concept unaltered from nation to nation; from ancient Egypt 10,000 years B.C.E. through the Greek philosophers like Plato, Proclus, Plotinus, Iamblicus, etc. This "death" suffered by these Divine Entities and "Living Energies" which fell into "matter" and "flesh" did to to experience "life" and "Spiritual evolution" necessary in their Heavenly development say the ancients. That is where we find incarnation of the Soul, a Metaphysical concept expressed by the ancients in symbols, pictures, myths, legend, etc. But more than that the Soul, fallen to its "death" and "grace" in Amenta, or "hell", this fleshly body, was doomed to remain "dead" to Spiritual reality due to the power of "matter" and "flesh". But if "awakened" from the "death of incarnational existence" then the Soul could work out its Earthly mission and salvation. But needing help he needed a "Bishop for his Soul" that God supplied in the "falling" and "dying Divine Mind" which comes to "seek and save the lost". Here we find the "incarnation of the Christ" which comes to live "within mankind" to elevate the Soul over the deadening animal nature. These "falls" into "material incarnation" was defined by some as "sin" but a more true understanding is "darkened matter" which was the grave for the Soul; a grave from which is must arise and "awaken from the dead" as the Gnostic Paul admonishes. So in all of this the "atonement" for the Soul comes through the sacrifice of the Krst/Karest/Christ "falling from Heaven" to seek and save the Soul through his "teaching and instruction" during the life of Soul which was "trapped in matter during its Earthly incarnation". Such a fall of the Divine Mind, or Christ to save the Soul, was called by the ancients, believe you me, the "crucifixion of the Krst/Karest/Christ" on the "cross of matter". This "death" of the Christ is incarnation as was the Soul. Thus we read that "we are crucified with Christ" in our texts, never realizing that none of this was ever "literal" or "confined to but one person" but applied to the whole of humanity. This fall of the Christ into "humanity" and "matter" was likened to "death" by the ancient Spiritual masters for thousands of years. This Christ, this Divine Mind, wilfully took upon himself the "death of matter" and in so doing provided Divine Truth for the Soul, deadened as well in "matter", whereby he could "awaken from the dead" and live a life in truth and knowledge whereby he could be the atonement for any wrong doing while in Earthly incarnation. All of this is Metaphysical allegory taught since the beginning of time; Rome will come and not only "literalize this same Divine Spiritual Wisdom" and horribly limit it to but one person, this "reinvention" and "mutation of the Christ". If you think I am not telling you the Divine Truth here then boy do I have some books for you to read whereby you can see this "mutation" and "radical reinterpretation" of God's Divine Spiritual Wisdom step by step at the hands of Rome. This is fact which can be demonstrable to anyone who inquires.

What is certain is that the idea that an innocent person can be killed instead of those who are guilty is not consistent with what the Hebrew Scriptures teach. After the sin of the Golden Calf, YHWH was so outraged that His intentions were to totally annihilate and destroy the Israelite people. Moses offers to die in their place as a "substitutionary sacrifice". Notice God's response to Moses suggestion:

"Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin...; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And [YHWH] said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book." (Exodus 32:32-33). As great a man as Moses and his life could not be accepted for the sins of the wicked. But yet we are told that the God who changes not decided to do just that! Something is wrong with our Christian theology, but never knowing Biblical Judaism and the dynamics of the Sacrificial System we are prey for the slaughter of our minds and Souls by pernicious and pestilent error masqueraded as Divine oracles Sunday after Sunday. And nobody knows any different in the pews.

Throughout the Hebrew Scriptures YHWH says that one person cannot die for the sins of another:

"Fathers shall not be put to death for their sons, nor shall sons be put to death for their fathers; everyone shall be put to death for his own sin"
(Deuteronomy 24:16)

"But everyone will die for his own sin; each man who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge" (Jeremiah 31:30)

"The person who sins will die. The son will not bear the punishment for the father's iniquity, nor will the father bear the punishment for the son's iniquity; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself" (Ezekiel 18:20)

"He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them are an abomination to the Lord" (Proverbs 17:15).

"No man [Jesus included] can by any means redeem his brother, or give to 'God' a ransom for him" (Psalms 49:7)

Answer for yourself: If no "jot" or "title" is to be changed in God's Holy Word, then how do we accept this New Testament which is full of contradictory theology concerning the death of Jesus as an atonement not only for the righteous but the wicked as well?

Unlike the Greek Testament in the Christian Bible, the Holy Scriptures of the One True Creator of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob clearly teach that we are responsible for our own actions and sins. We alone must give an account and pay the price. God does not change! No allegorical virgin born savior deity from Babylonian mythology, or any other for that matter, can later be "literalized" in order to contradict the clear instructions of the God of Israel.

Answer for yourself: Why are there two theologies concerning atonement in your Bible; one in the Old Testament by the God of Israel who says He changes not, and then the Romanized Pauline corpus of material in the New Testament that contradicts it by paralleling an incorrect understanding of the ancient Divine mystery religions? This two conflicting atonement messages is very evident when the Old Testament is compared with the New Testament, and if you say you never saw it dear one you never looked deep enough for it is there!

NOW FOR THE REALLY BIG QUESTION

Here is a question that Christian ministers have danced around for two thousand years, but have never truthfully answered. This question bothered me all the years I pastored.

Answer for yourself: If indeed Jesus came as the final sacrifice to atone for the sins of the world, why do The Holy Scriptures proclaim that the Third Temple will be built and sacrifices resumed during the Messianic era?

The vast majority of average Christians are completely ignorant of these prophecies, as they have been cleverly hidden by their ministers. Notice the clear teachings of The Holy Scriptures regarding this:

- "Even those I will bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on My altar; for My house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples." (Isaiah 56:7)
- "From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshipers, My dispersed ones will bring My offerings." (Zephaniah 3:10)
- "All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will minister to you; they will go up with acceptance on My altar, and I shall glorify My glorious house." (Isaiah 60:7)
- "And I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary in their midst forever." (Ezekiel 37:26)
- "And He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to [YHWH] offerings in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to [YHWH], as in the days of old and as in former years." (Malachi 3:3-4)
- (Ezekiel 45:17) "And it shall be the princes part to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the libations...to make the atonement for the house of Israel."

Answer for yourself: If Jesus' death is the final sin sacrifice and blood offering to be accepted by God did somebody fail to tell Him or His prophets?

LET THERE BE NO DOUBT

Apparently, dear reader, Jesus' sacrifice did not make any atonement for the sins of all the world. If the death of Jesus had atoned for all sins for all time, why will atonement be required during the messianic era?

Answer for yourself: Having seen all of this in these articles how do you answer the true words of Israel's God? Mr. Christian minister, how do you? These questions caused me to study like I never had in my life to find the answers to these troubling questions; questions that I had never thought to ask nor my Pastor. Only in my studies of Judaism, while looking for a Jewish Jesus, did I run across such information that has eluded me my whole life as a Christian. As you are becoming painfully aware the root of our whole theological dilemma and problem lies in the difference between the Hebrew Scriptures and their later "radical reinterpretation" of them by Rome. It appears to the student and "think-believer" that the Hebrew Scriptures contain the Divine authority; our altered Christian texts do not! As a Christian Pastor I came to realize after about 5 years of serious study following Seminary that the New Testament was little more than a propagandist Roman "replacement" document full of anti-Semitic ideas and teachings. Considering all the New Testament Greek manuscripts available today totaling a little less than 6000 pieces, there are over 300,000 contradictions among these 6000 or so texts and no two are "identical" or "read the same". Surely God, if behind this New Testament could do better. When you compare this with the exactness of the Hebrew copyist then the New Testament is a joke. As if that was not enough, my heart broke within me when I discovered beyond any doubt that my KJV Old Testament was a purposefully falsified and altered translation of the prior Jewish Masoretic text. My Old Testament came to be recognized through such serious study in Judaism that it had been "doctored" and "adulterated" in "key" theological positions in order to create and lay the foundation and authority for a "new religion"; a Replacement Religion. I felt no better at all when my New Testament was found to contain the same alteration and forgeries as did my KJV Old Testament. It took over five years of serious study to substantiate these Scriptural discrepancies beyond any doubt and were a major factor in my resignation from my Pastorate. I was an ordained Pastor of an apostate faith. Such shame no man can know. I had believed "the" lie and the "very elect" was deceived. I was a member in high standing of an apostate faith and a man of "unclean lips" as described by Isaiah. I, like most Christians, had accepted everything on "faith" never questioning anything. I was gullible for the LORD until YHWH put in my heart and head the desire to study out the conflicting errors of my Christian theology which surfaced during my 3 years in Seminary. I "awoke" in Seminary. The fruit of my studies I lay before you as a gift from God and as a love offering in hopes your hunger for truth is greater than your commitment to tradition.

YHWH AND MERCY

The Christian claim that only through bloodshed can atonement be made show that Christians are unfamiliar with the compassion and mercy of the Holy One of Israel. Sometimes, God forgives us simply because He is kind, loving, compassionate and merciful. Even when we don't seek our LORD appropriately, He has the ability to reach out to us with love and forgive us:

"Who is a [Elohiym] like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He retaineth not His anger for ever, because He delighteth in mercy." (Micah 7:18)

"Their heart was not steadfast toward Him, nor were they faithful in His covenant. But He, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity...remembering that they were but flesh." (Psalms 78:36-39)

"You have not brought Me the sheep of your burnt offerings...or the fat of your sacrifices, but you have burdened Me with your sins...Nevertheless, I will wipe out your transgressions for My own sake, and I will not remember your sins." (Isaiah 43:23-25)

Truly, truly the Holy one of Israel is a just and merciful Creator not desiring the death of the wicked; rather their repentance.

WHAT DO THE PROPHETS HAVE TO SAY?

Answer for yourself: If the Christian claim that one must be covered by the shed blood of the Messiah in order to make atonement for his sins is valid, why can this claim not be validated by the writings of the prophets?

Time and time again, the writings of the prophets emphasize prayer and repentance as the method to atone for sins. I challenge any Christian to produce a Scripture from Unaltered Holy Hebrew Scriptures (the Old Testament used by the Jewish people of Israel and Babylon) that teaches us that we must believe in the atoning blood of a Messiah in order to obtain salvation [amazingly, even the Christian Bible does not say it]. What the prophets teach us is that our own obedience to the laws of Israel's God combined with sincere repentance and prayer for forgiveness will atone for sin if done with the proper attitude of humility.

- "That every man will turn from his evil way, then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin." (Jeremiah 36:3)
- "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return to [YHWH], and He will have compassion on him; and to our [Elohiym]. for He will abundantly pardon." (Isaiah 55:7)
- "And if My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (II Chronicles 7:14).
- "But if the wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed and observes all My statutes and practices justice and righteousness, he shall surely live; he shall not die. All his transgressions which he has committed will not be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has practiced he shall live...When a wicked man turns away from his wickedness which he has committed and practices justice and righteousness, he will save his life...Repent and turn away from all your transgressions, so that iniquity may not become a stumbling block to you (Ezekiel 18:21- 22,27,30).

- "By loving kindness and truth iniquity is atoned for..." (Proverbs 16:6).
- "If you return to [Elohiym] you will be restored; if you remove unrighteousness far from your tent...then you will delight in [Elohiym]..." (Job 22:23-27).

Clearly, the central teaching of the Hebrew Holy Scriptures is that we must break away from our sinful past and sincerely repent. This is the only way to restore our relationship with the Holy One of Israel. If one strays from the path set forth by the Laws of our God, one must repent and return to the path. This is how forgiveness is obtained. Even when sacrifices were offered, they in and of themselves did not procure atonement; they were only symbolic of the Spiritual condition of the sacrificer's Soul "at-that-moment". You now have seen that in the first articles in this series. The sacrifice was part of the process but only a "picture" of the sacrificer after his repentance.

Answer for yourself: What is repentance? Returning to God by forsaking our evil ways and praying for forgiveness. The prophets were constantly correcting the Israelite people for relying on blood sacrifices as the essential element of atonement instead of or without repentance and obedience to God's ETERNAL's Laws:

- "What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me? says [YHWH]. I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed cattle. And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats...Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from My sight. Cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, reprove the ruthless, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Come let us reason together says [YHWH], 'Though your sins are as scarlet, they will be white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they will be like wool, if you consent and obey...' (Isaiah 1:11-18).
- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord." (Proverbs 15:8).
- "To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to [YHWH] than sacrifice." (Proverbs 21:3)
- "For I delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice, and in the knowledge of [Elohiym] rather than burnt offerings." (Hosea 6:6).
- "Has [YHWH] as great a delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken more than the fat of rams." (1 Samuel 15:22)
- "With what shall I come to [YHWH], and bow myself before the [Elohiym] on high? Shall I come to Him with burnt offerings, with yearling calves? Does [YHWH] take delight in thousands of rams, in ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I present my firstborn for my rebellious acts, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does [YHWH] require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Micah 6:6-8)

Answer for yourself: Do you now begin to see what the very wise king Solomon was trying to explain in 1 Kings 8, when he said that even though the Israelite people may not always have access to the sacrifices and the Priesthood, yet they would always have access to the Holy One of Israel and an atonement for their Soul?

Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived, understood that repentance and not blood is the Scriptural form of atonement.

Answer for yourself: Remember the story of Jonah?

He was sent to the evil city of Nineveh {non-Jews} to warn them of their impending destruction. Jonah does not come into the city and tell the people that unless they begin offering sacrifices they are doomed. He does not tell them that unless they accept on faith that the shed blood of Israel's Messiah will atone for their sins they are lost. No! He warns them to repent. Their response to his warnings is: they fast, pray, and turn from their evil.

Answer for yourself: What is YHWH's response to their repentance?

"When [Elohiym] saw their deeds that they turned from their wicked way, then [Elohiym] relented concerning the calamity which He had declared He would bring upon them, and He did not do it." (Jonah 3:10).

EVEN NEBUCHADNEZZAR IS TOLD HOW TO ATONE FOR HIS SINS....VERY INTERESTING....

"Therefore, O king, may my advice be pleasing to you: Redeem your sins by doing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor." (Daniel 4:27).

THE POWER OF PRAYER FOR ATONEMENT

After the ten northern tribes split away from Judah, a civil war prevented most of Israel from Temple worship. The prophet Hosea addressed this situation and instructed the people accordingly:

"Return, O Israel, to [YHWH] your God, For you have stumbled because of your iniquity. Take words with you and return to [YHWH]. Say to Him, 'Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously, for we will render as bullocks the offerings of our lips'." (Hosea 14:1-2)

We are able to approach our god directly with prayer, which is possible at all times and regardless of the size of our bank accounts; and He assures us that sincere prayer can achieve forgiveness for our sins:

- "Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O [YHWH], the [Elohiym] of my salvation. And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness. O [YHWH], open my lips, and my mouth shall show forth Your praise. For You do not delight in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of [Elohiym] are a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart. These, O [Elohiym], You will not despise." (Psalms 51:14-17)"*
- "I will praise the name of [Elohiym] with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. This shall please [YHWH] better than an ox or bullock that has horns and hoofs." (Psalm 69:30-31)*
- "For You, [YHWH], are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in loving kindness to all who call upon You. Give ear, O [YHWH] to my prayer, and give heed to the voice of my supplications." (Psalm 86:5-6)*
- "And listen to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear from heaven Your dwelling place, hear and forgive." (II Chronicles 6:21)*

The Holy Scriptures of Israel are very clear. Prayer, a humble attitude, and above all, sincere heartfelt repentance is what the Holy One of Israel requires of His people in order to atone for sins. No doubt He knew thousands of years in advance that there would come a time when some would wrongly rely on the blood of a deified human sacrifice to vicariously replace obedience to His laws. It is evident to anyone with eyes to see that a comparison between The Holy Scriptures of Israel and the Greek mistranslation of them as well as the later corrupted New Testament texts taken from them will reveal two entirely different religions. One is dedicated to the One True God of Israel; the other is dedicated to a "literalized" and falsely "historized" savior as taken from the allegorical Divine Spiritual Wisdom. Rome in "radically reinterpreting" this ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom along with its repetition in Biblical Judaism has caused us all to err who follow Christianity today.

The Jewish people believe that the time will come when Israel's true messiah will usher in an era of peace when all nations will believe in and seek to worship the one true Holy One of Israel of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. At that time, the proponents of Christianity will deeply repent of the day when they taught the beloved nation of Israel and the descendants of Abraham to break the first commandment and worship another besides the Holy One of Israel.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #8

"Bet Emet" stands for "truth" as the Hebrew name implies; "House of Truth". Bet Emet has meticulously dug out over these last twenty years this ancient Spiritual Truth from the "religious fiction" and man-made Roman anti-Semitic teachings held sacred today by millions of Christians for over the last 2 millennia. We have spent much time and research to discover the hidden truths concerning the Sacrificial System and its true relationship to the "Jesus Story" over these last twenty years. Having seen that Rome "radically reinterpreted" not only the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the ancients that existed basically unchanged for thousands and thousands of years, understand that Biblical Judaism was not immune from this same Roman alteration of truth. The Spiritual Truths found in Biblical Judaism has been terribly misrepresented to the world by this Roman mistranslation of the Hebrew Scriptures. We have seen this repeatedly since the first article regarding the misrepresentation of the workings of the Sacrificial System and its purposeful mischaracterization throughout the New Testament as Rome falsified the whole of the Sacrificial System and the obtainment through it of the atonement of one's sin. We have seen repeatedly in instance after instance in the previous article how Divine Truth as related to the Sacrificial System in Biblical Judaism and the obtainment of atonement for the sins of the Soul were transformed by the monks of Rome into a total farce and mockery of such Divine Spiritual Truth.

That being so then what I am going to do next in this article is somewhat dangerous but I want you warn you ahead of time. I am going to make an "assumption" that is totally false. I will make a "false assumption" regarding the death of Jesus, as depicted in the New Testament, for the purpose of teaching another "Divine Truth" truth which will shed even more light upon the truths of Biblical atonement and the workings of the Sacrificial System.

Let us assume that the traditional Christian teaching about Jesus' death being a sacrifice that procured the atonement of the sins of the world was true and correct (although it is not). So we approach what is said next with the erroneous assumption that Jesus' death was an atonement for our sin. Let us see what happens when we approach the Sacrificial System armed with this erroneous "assumption". Now let's proceed.

ATONEMENT FOR BOTH TABLETS OF THE LAW OR ONLY FOR THE FIRST TABLET? THIS WILL SURPRISE YOU!

Answer for yourself: As a Christian, being told your whole life that Jesus' death was an atonement for your sin, then is this "atonement", as seen in Jesus' sacrifice (supposedly a type and shadow of sin offerings), an atonement for all kinds of sin?

Honestly, the answer is "NO"; not all sin, because in the sacrifice of lambs, on Yom Kippur, for instance, the lambs would have only represented the Souls which had repented of sins committed concerning only the First Tablet

of the Law and NOT the Second Tablet of the Law.

Wow! I bet you never knew this! We read the New Testament concerning Jesus' death that it is an atonement for the "believer's sins" never knowing that even if it had been in some way that such an atonement would not have applied to all types of sin. The sins of the Second Tablet of the Law were NEVER atoned for through the Sacrificial System; blood sacrifices were NEVER brought for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law.

Answer for yourself: What are sins concerning the Second Tablet of the Law?

- Thou shalt not murder ("Thou shalt not premeditate murder" is a more accurate translation)
- Thou shalt not commit adultery
- Thou shalt not steal
- Thou shalt not bear false witness
- Thou shalt not covet thy fellow-man's wife, house, or anything that is his.

Now, I don't have the time or space to get into depth concerning these various Laws and Commandments but understand that what is usually understood as the Ten Commandments are not really "ten"; they are "ten categories" in which hundreds of Commandments are grouped under each heading. This becomes very plain to us when we study Judaism and see that under these "ten headings" there are in reality 613 Commandments; 248 positive Commandments and 365 negative Commandments. But for now understand that violations of the Laws and Commandments of God concerning these 5 areas above were NEVER atoned for through the Sacrificial System, intentional or unintentional, and blood sacrifices were never brought in their behalf of these sins. This fact, that is easily uncovered in any half-serious study of Judaism and the Sacrificial System is devastating to our "Jesus Theology" and belief in Jesus' death being an atonement for the sins of the world! Christians, not knowing this dynamic truth regarding how the Sacrificial System operated, then fall for the lies concerning Jesus and his death for their sin that are contained in our Roman New Testament. We have to look again to repentance, remorse for sin, prayer, restitution to our brothers and sisters for our sins against them, righteous works and almsgiving to find atonement regarding these above sins. But this Spiritual Dynamic of the Soul's atonement for its own sin is not new, it is involved in "ALL" types of atonement, both the First and Second Tablets of the Law as we will see later when looking more closely to the atonement connected to the Second Tablet of the Law. The only difference is that "blood sacrifices" are not brought as a part of one's atonement for atonement connected to the Second Tablet of the Law. The only "blood" that is brought in behalf of atonement concerning the Second Tablet of the Law is yours as Lev. 17:11 has already taught us; it is the "life" in our blood, the Soul in "your" blood that atones for these sins of the Second Tablet of the Law. As we have seen previously, it is the Divine Principle set in place by God that your "life in your blood", your "Soul in your blood" that, according to Leviticus 17:11, atones for sin. It is your "life", your "Soul in your blood", your very life and actions, your repentance, your prayer, your righteous conduct and righteous deeds, and your almsgiving toward the injured party and your fellowman following such sin that atones for your sin according to Biblical Judaism, the Torah and the Prophets, and the Sacrificial System.

This is very important to recognize especially when one makes parallels to Jesus as a "type and shadow" of Old Testament truths regarding atonement. And few Christians have ever studied enough to know this....but the Jews have always known this and this is but another reason why they won't convert and become Christians believing in the death of Jesus for their sins!

You can be a Christian your whole life and go to church your whole life and NEVER know that even when blood sacrifices were brought to the Temple that they only represented the Soul of the sacrificer who had previously repented for unintentional sins ONLY! But now we see that these blood sacrifices only represented the Soul of the sinner which had repented of sins committed against the First Tablet of the Law ONLY; never the Second Tablet of the Law.

Nowhere can we find where the sacrificial blood offerings were ever brought in connection for sins committed against the Second Tablet of the Law; sins committed between man and man.

Answer for yourself: Even if Jesus' death was an atonement for sin, and its not, then if being truthful to the rule of "types and shadows" how is it possible that his death and shed blood atoned as the "Lamb of God" for sins that never were atoned for by any animal sacrifice or blood offering? At best Jesus' death would have only atoned for sins of the First Tablet of the Law, between man and God, and that being so then the sinner stands yet guilty before God for the sins he committed against the Second Tablet of the Law, between man and man. Any such atonement provided by the death of Jesus is "incomplete". The Christian, believing in Jesus' death for his sin, according to Christian theology, is yet on his way to a burning Hell of torment and pain because the atoning death of Jesus did not cover all of his sins! Jesus did not complete the job, being a righteous Jew and would be Messiah I guess he forgot! We need to think people! Again, something is critically and desperately wrong with our "Jesus theology" when it fails to atone for all the sins of the world as it says and so doing misleads billions of people. But few again study enough to see these irregularities; irregularities encountered by me in my serious studies during and after Seminary which were done "outside the box" seeking knowledge about God and my responsibilities to Him as his son. Judaism was a wonderful place to start such a serious inquiry and it is for all our readers as well. Only when you compare the "religion of Jesus" with the "religion created around his supposed identity" created by Rome over the 2nd through the 5th century can you see these terrible untruths spread over the pages of our Christian Bible as given us by Rome.

We hear our whole lives that God had a wonderful plan to restore mankind unto Himself. We hear as Christians that His plan would take away the sins of the whole world. All one would have to do is accept God's free gift of salvation through the shed blood of Jesus. As Christians we hear that the Word "literally" came down to Earth in the form of one man and became flesh-- born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and gave up His own life on the old rugged cross to pay the price for the sins of the world. We hear that this Word is Jesus Christ who shed His own blood for our sins upon the cross. This sounds so great and reassuring, but there is one problem. This wonderful story of the death of the righteous for the wicked is simply not true, never has been, never will be. God does not justify the wicked; their repentance does.

God clearly states "I will not justify the wicked" (Exodus 23:7). That seems to imply that we need to obey the Commandments of God and repent when we break them in order to be justified. Divine justice demands that the righteous person should be justified whereas the wicked should be condemned. It is a miscarriage of justice when lawbreakers are set free and when innocent people are condemned. "He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD" (Proverbs 17:15). We can be sure that God will deal justly with us. Therefore He declares: "I will not justify the wicked" (Exodus 23:7). Since God is absolutely just, He cannot let the sinner go free.

Answer for yourself: How, then, can God do this very thing, justify the wicked when He has previously said that such a thing "is an abomination" to Him? How can the following passage in the New Testament be true?

"However, to the man who does not work, but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness." (Romans 4:5 NIV).

Answer for yourself: Don't you think that the "real Paul", being a "Jew of Jews", would have know this or at least the Holy Spirit who moved the "holy ones of old" to pen the Sacred Scriptures of the Jews? Then who is writing such contradictions of Divine Eternal Spiritual Principles?

THINK!

Looking at the Hebrew Scriptures which have "changed not" then we see that this "Romanized Pauline Theology" is a bunch of bunk! But without a through knowledge of the forgery of the Hebrew Scriptures, the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom, Gnosticism, and the ancient Egyptian Religion then the misstatements of Rome concerning the Soul are not easily detected let alone their complete butchery of the "the Christ" which we have inherited. But we as normative and typical Christians never know these things since we know almost nothing of Biblical Judaism, the teachings in the Hebrew Scriptures of the true Messiah, the workings of the Sacrificial System, the corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures that litter the pages of our Old Testament and New Testament, let alone the complete alteration of the "dogmas and identity of the Krst/Karest/Christ" which we received. We, as typical Christians, know little if anything concerning the truths behind the Sacrificial System and how one actually obtained salvation and atonement before God. As the great Egyptian Religion before them, Biblical Judaism is the vessel that the Divine Creator used to express His Divine Mind and Divine Spiritual Truths to the world. Egypt taught the whole of the known world as we see today. God, through the "Divine Mind" and through His "Christ within us all" expressed and yet today expresses Heavenly and Divine Spiritual Truths to the whole of the world and its Souls. No problem until Rome surfaces in the 2nd century with "Plan B".

Knowing this, that Jesus Christ, according to Christian theology is supposedly a solitary "literal" and "historical" type and shadow of "the Christ", instead of the symbolic personification and representation of the human Soul as he really is, then you can see how a false security in focusing on "blood" and not "repentance" could, and does lead, others to think lightly of sin and in so doing compromise with sin in their lives. Not knowing that such sins of the Second Tablet of the Law are not handled by any blood sacrifices for atonement, let alone any sacrifice that Jesus could have made through his death for others, then we should be alarmed as Christians to know that any such atonement procured by Jesus for us is "lacking" and "incomplete"!

Answer for yourself: What? Is this news to you? Did your pastor ever tell you this? Mine never did! Why not? Who will? When will we ever set under teachers who know the truth about Biblical Judaism and the truth hidden behind Christianity's "radical reinterpretation" of almost everything!

Answer for yourself: Then how are we to get atonement for such sins of the Second Tablet of the Law in our lives if Jesus' supposed sacrifice never covered them nor could ever atone for them? Well, again we must look to Biblical Judaism for the answer.

Rambam writes: "While one should scrutinize one's behavior and repent throughout the year, during the ten days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur it is especially important to introspect and repent, as the time is more propitious and our repentance is received immediately, as the prophet Isaiah (55:6) teaches: "Seek Hashem when He can be found; call upon Him when He is near" (Laws of Repentance 2:6).

Answer for yourself: Is there a time that God is "nearer" to man than others? Not knowing Judaism, then as a Christian you are not aware that there is such a time and it passes you by year after year. The Doors of Forgiveness are thrown open on one day of the year, a day not known by Christians. Rambam goes on to write: "On Yom Kippur Hashem is closest to man. Moreover, the Sefer HaChinuch (Mitzvah 185) teaches that the institution of Yom Kippur, the day designated for atonement of sins, is a reflection of Hashem's great love and kindness toward His beings; He does not allow man's sins to accumulate, lest they become so numerous that the natural world could not endure. Thus, in His infinite wisdom, to insure the continuity of this world He designated one day of the atonement and forgiveness of sins for those who repent". Teshuvah, repentance is integral to the essence of Yom Kippur. It is here in repentance, fasting, remorse, and brokenness for one's sin once a year God opens the doors of forgiveness for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law for all mankind!

Answer for yourself: How many times have you observed Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement in your life? Most Christians will tell you that these Biblical Festivals are for the Jews only. Really?

Leviticus 16:29. *And [this] shall be a statute for ever unto you: [that] in the seventh month, on the tenth [day] of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, [whether it be] one of your own country, or a stranger (THIS IS THE NON-JEW...THE FOREIGNER AMONG THE ISRAEL OF GOD) that sojourneth among you:

Here we see from the beginning that God intended all mankind, non-Jew and Jew, to observe the Day of Yom Kippur since both need "forgiveness of sins of both Tablets of the Law".

Answer for yourself: Did God give us, the Gentile, a "way" for atonement of his sins and we not know it as Christians? As Christians and followers of Jesus in Christianity have we failed to understand the Sacrificial System correctly and miss this important message concerning how we, as Souls, are to find atonement for our sins during our Earthly incarnation?

Such Spiritual Truth and knowledge comes only if you study Biblical Judaism, its unaltered Hebrew Scriptures, and the Sacrificial System in detail. If Christians trusting the blood of Jesus for "their sins" only knew the truth; namely, that the atonement provided through the teaching and examples of the Suffering Servant, the nation of Israel, atoned only for unintentional sins of the First Tablet of the Law and not any sins of the Second Tablet of the Law then they would most likely rethink the seriousness of their sin and the easy "believism" of Christianity would be replaced by their repentance as God intended.

It is a shock to learn as an adult Christian who has trusted the Roman Road of Salvation and Jesus' death for one's sins and their atonement his whole life to realize that such a teaching is totally false. Knowing that there is no atonement in Jesus' death many are fearful and many are often shaken to their very core. But understand what Hosea always knew, Temple or not, God never left the Jewish people nor mankind without an atonement. Knowing that one stands today without atonement before God because you have not been taught the truth of the Sacrificial System let alone the Soul's atonement through repentance by the Christian Church and not lived a life of repentance is a scary thought! Instead of being taught the Divine Truths of Biblical Judaism and the truth about atonement we attend Churches more concerned about teaching that God wants your rich! Thus, now, coming hopefully and finally to the understanding they no one is "under the blood of anyone" for anything, then repentance and the Commandments of God will have a new esteemed value in your life. Since intentional sins and sins of the Second Tablet of the Law never required blood sacrifices, then more important than ever is the fact that our moral responsibility, fear of God, and repentance is a requirement in being co-laborers with God in our own salvation. Now you should better understand the passage which says "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Php: 2:12). As Souls, this is "your" and "my" responsibility; not another's!

If we truly understand the Sacrificial system, and you should by now if you have been reading these articles, then you know that this "literalized" Jesus of Rome's invention, did not die for any atonement for anything let alone for "ALL SINS"! Without the truth and this knowledge of sins and their relationship to the Sacrificial System we as Christians rarely if ever come to the knowledge that blood sacrifices were only brought to the Temple in representation of the Souls who had previously repented and in so doing had already atoned for their unintentional Sins of the First Tablet of the Law (sins between man toward God) before any animal or offering was brought to the Priesthood. Lacking this knowledge that only our repentance provides atonement for the sins of the First Tablet of the Law and that only the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur offers atonement for our sins of the Second Tablet of the Law then we must "awake" as Paul said to this Divine Reality provided for us and do it now! Sadly continuing to accept, in light of all of this knowledge provided by Bet Emet, this false atonement created by Rome around this "Jesus" of their own creation, a Jesus who requires nothing but "faith" and "belief" in religious dogmas created by Rome to contradict the Hebrew Scriptures, one will never have a strong enough deterrent and fear of God to avoid sinning and breaking the Laws involving both "intentional sins" let alone the sins involved in the Second Tablet of the Law (sins between man and man). Most Christians feel that they have a "get out of Hell free card" through a simple belief in this Jesus' death for their sins; sorry it never worked that way and was never intended to work that way where repentance and progressive Spiritual maturity and evolvment of our Soul, ultimately culminating in the Soul obtaining the "stature and fullness of Christ", was to be subsequently thwarted by such an insidious belief as the death of another was the atonement of one's own sins. Thus, understanding the Sacrificial system and the dynamics involved, the more correct interpretation would be "Christ died because of sins." WAIT A MINUTE HERE; WHAT ARE YOU SAYING?

Answer for yourself: How is it that this "Christ died for our sins" when Craig, you have spent 7 articles teaching that no "historical" or "literal" Christ could have ever died for our sins? Now, get ready to meet the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom that Rome corrupted in remanufacturing the ancient Christ and how the ancients understood "atonement" before the Roman "radical reinterpretation" of this Divine Ancient Spiritual Wisdom.

Get ready for the "hidden keys" that begin to unlock our "Jesus Story". I will only present a short summary at this time but in our "Sacred Mysteries Website" we go into this in great and lengthy detail as we unfold the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom concerning "the Krst/Karest/Christ" and his "death on the cross" as taught by the ancients as far back as 10,000 years B.C.E. Please note the ancient Egyptians and later Greek philosophers like Plato, Plotinus, Proclus, etc., were not expressing Divine Concepts concerning some later to be born "Jewish Rabbi" who would be named Jesus; everything in this ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom was about the Soul and only about the Soul and its Krst/Karest/Christ; its descent into "matter", its death when incarnated into this "matter" and flesh (called Amenta, the pit, Sheol, Hades, Hell, purgatory, the Underworld, Netherworld, abyss, etc.), the Soul's struggles and battles with the "darkness of matter" in its attempt to "awaken from the slumber" imposed upon it by the flesh and its lusts and passions, its "resurrection from its grave and death within this body of death, its Spiritual evolution and eventual resurrection while in this body, its ultimate attainment of Spiritual maturity and mastery of this animal body in its Earthly incarnation, and eventual glorification and ascension at the death of this animal body which had served as the vehicle for the Soul's expression and life.

Answer for yourself: Guess what? You just read "the Jesus Story" told some 10,000 years B.C.E. through mystical symbolism, allegory, metaphor, typification, figuration, similitudes, similes, myths, legends, and analogies, and I could go on.

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (KJV)

Answer for yourself: But, what does this mean that "Christ died for our sin"? "Craig, are you yet correcting everything you have said so far"? No, not in the least. It is all about "interpretation".

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that we can find today, spread over basically 10,000 years, ancient Divine Spiritual Truths, truths about God and the Soul, from nation to nation, from Sacred Book to Sacred Book, that were expressed basically unchanged? Are you aware that such Spiritual Truths and teachings were preserved over this vast time basically unchanged? Are you aware that these ancient Spiritual Masters protected these Divine Truths by shrouding them in allegories, metaphors, symbols, ciphers, myths, legends, etc.? Are you aware that from ancient Egypt down the corridors of history until the rise of Biblical Judaism these Spiritual Truths kept their integrity and basically were unchanged; that different cultures had only changed symbols unique to their culture to express the exact same identical Spiritual Truths that had been taught in the beginning of time? Are you aware that around 180 A.D. a nation comes along, Rome, and takes all this ancient teachings of God, Krst, and Soul and their incarnation into material existence in the form of God's "internalized Divine Mind", called the "Krst/Karest/Christ", and completely destroys such original intended Spiritual meanings and in its place substitutes a radically different meaning and "literalized and historicized" understanding to the whole of this ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom? Well, it is time to wake up to this very provable reality.

Rome will burn all the libraries of the world to conceal and cover their your monestrous destruction of Divine Truth and their substitution of lies for Spiritual Truths. In a generation or two later few would know or remember the Spiritual Truths of earlier generations, let alone the original meanings to the dogmas which now carried by the hands of Rome new interpretations and meanings.

Without understanding the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom that existed thousands of years before the onslaught of Rome in the 2nd century against existing Divine Spiritual Truth concerning God, Krst and Soul, one cannot understand the New Testament correctly let alone read it through "Metaphysical spectacles" as it was intended and we sadly interpret all we read as if "literal" and "historical" when these ancient stories were written to always be understood Metaphysically, allegorically, and metaphorically concerning God, Christ, and Soul.

Phil 2:6-8 6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men (the incarnation of the Divine Mind, or "Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter" and "human flesh": 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death (this "death" was termed by the ancients as the "fall" and "descent" of the Soul and Krst/Karest/Christ (Divine Mind of God) into material manifestation and flesh), even the death of the cross (this "cross" was the interaction of cosmic Divine Intelligent Living Spirit and Energy when impregnated into "matter" and "material existences" (ie., flesh). (KJV)

Totally agreeing with Philippians 2:6-8, the ancients taught that the Divine Mind of God, in the form of "Krst/Karest/Christ", humbled Himself and "fell" from Heaven and was "crucified on the cross of matter" when incarnated into material manifestation (humanity) in an attempt to "seek and save the lost Souls" who had previously "died the same death" and was "incarnated within animal bodies as well". This is the very core of all cosmology; the study of the Universe in its totality, and by extension, humanity's place in it. This "fall" from Heaven and the Spiritual realm of both Soul and "Christ" into the flesh of humanity was likened as a "death" to both Soul and Christ. From this "descending death from Heaven" into "flesh" we obtain the various allegories throughout the nations expressing this Metaphysical Divine Concept of incarnation of God, the incarnation of Celestial Consciousness and Living Energy in "matter". The ancients called this incarnation of Spirit/Living Energy/Cosmic Consciousness the "death of the gods and goddesses" in the ancient religions. Truly, Paul would say "we (Souls) are crucified with Christ"; a total allegory concerning the crucifixion of Christ as well as the Soul as they both had descended from Heaven into incarnation into animal bodies led by animal instinct, animal natures, lust, and passions of "matter". The Soul and Christ, as Living Spiritual Entities, had come to reside in an animal body in Earthly incarnation; coming into "matter" was their Spiritual death. But statements like this found in the ancient Spiritual Wisdom were never meant to be understood as "physical" or "literal" events or actual "historical" or "literal" deaths. This "death" of the gods and goddesses were but allegorical pictures of the Divine evolving and emanating Himself into various levels of material existences to experience Himself and develop Consciousness of Himself though various material manifestations throughout the Universe. In reality this "fall into matter" or "humanity" by God is termed the "death of the Soul" along with the death of "the Christ" since both share the same descent into material existence. We read Philippians 2:6 above never grasping this understanding since being conditioned and indoctrinated to think that this verse refers to but one sole "literal person" who conveniently Rome has defined for us as a historical Jesus. The ancients saw incarnation as a Divine Cosmic Concept of how the God of the whole Universe came to tabernacle within "flesh"; mankind being the Temple of God's Holy Spirit/Energy. No wonder the true Gnostic Paul states that "Christ is in all of us" according to Col. 1:26-27. Nowhere in this verse is an idea of a lone historical person but a Christ shared by all of us. Along with this the ancients understood the Divine Mind, the Logos, the Christ accompanied the Souls in their descent into "matter" and this Divine Mind was termed by the ancients by the term "Krst/Karest" which today we recognize as "Christ" or "Messiah". Understand this "descent of Divine Mind" into the "limitations of material existence which is resistant to the advance of Divine Energy/Spirit" did so and suffered great loss in the process. This "fall" or "descent" of this Divine Mind was likened by the ancients as a "death" to this "Krst/Karest/Christ" as well as the Soul. This "descent" and "death of the Christ", this Divine Mind and Logos of God, incarnating into the darkness, lawlessness, passions, and lusts of "matter" and "flesh" was a "death" willingly accepted by this "Christ" who likewise suffered as did the Soul in its descent as well. The "Krst", in His mission to dwell with and teach the Soul the path for its Spiritual Maturity and freedom from the sin prevalent in Earthly incarnation, accomplished by being the teacher of the Soul its own atonement. The Christ, this still small voice within us, came to each each of us in order to convict our Soul "of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment" in order to deliver the Soul from the death of this material existence; thereby equipping it for its necessary return to the Father. Not only does the indwelling and internal Christ come to teach the Soul within this animal body to properly atone for his sins while on Earth but teaches the Soul as well as to how to progressively Spiritually mature itself which is its incarnation purpose. Had it not been for God sending Himself as "the Christ", His Divine Mind, Logos, into the likeness of human flesh, then the Soul would have no hope of mastering the animal nature, its passions, and lusts and lawlessness. That being so then the Soul would be resigned to never return to the Father as we see is possible in the Prodigal Son allegory. This "descent of the Krst/Karest/Christ" to seek and save the Soul is not possible unless the Christ comes to live "within each child of God"; never being "literalized" and "historicized" to but one period of human history and limited to but one person which Rome has done. Rome, by forging the Hebrew Scriptures radically reinterpreted the whole of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom concerning God, His Christ and the Soul. What was never "literal", what was never "historical", what was never "limited to but one person", becomes just the opposite at the hands of Rome!

The ancients called the incarnation of God within mankind the "death of God" or the "death of His Krst/Karest/Christ" on the "cross of matter" (the intersection of Divine Spiritual Living Intelligent Energy" with "mother matter" (Mary). What was a Divine Spiritual Allegory and Metaphor expressing the highest Divine science and Divine physics regarding the workings of the Creator in His cosmos was totally corrupted by Rome during the 2nd through the 5th century. The ancients had the most unbelievable knowledge of the workings of Spirit and "matter" known ever to mankind; only today are we with our high technology only reaffirming what the ancient Egyptians knew so long ago. This Divine working of God and cosmos was better known by the ancients who shrouded this ancient Spiritual Wisdom and mystery in allegory, myth, metaphor, cipher, legend, symbol, etc., than any today. All was well and the integrity of this Divine Spiritual Truth was kept intact and unchanged, from nation to nation, from Sacred Book to Sacred Book, for thousands of years until the rise of Rome which "radically reinterpreted the whole of this Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the Soul" and so crudely "literalized" it and "historicized it" and limited all these Divine Spiritual Concepts to but one person of their clever inventiveness, the historical Jesus of Rome's New Testament. The whole of Christian humanity since then never knows the truth, that they are "gods in animal bodies" as Plato said. Thus the necessity of repentance for our Souls that enable it to evolve into "the Christ". We never stop to realize the implications of what we read in our Bibles since being trained since children to read everything in this Bible as if "literal" when the truth of the matter is that the ancients were not "literalists" at all; in fact just the opposite. Most of the Bible, both Old and New Testaments is a Divine Spiritual allegory of the Soul, its descent, birth, life, maturation, failures, successes, and eventual Spiritual evolution into Spiritual maturity and ascension back to the Father at the biological death of the body. In fact the Old and New Testament is the Egyptian Religion and the Egyptian Book of the Dead retold! Boy, do we have a lot to "unlearn" and "learn" correctly.

So now you see that had it not been for the descent of "the Christ" and his "death" when "incarnated into fleshly matter", then the Soul would have remained lost in "trespasses and sins", without its savior, "the indwelling "Krst/Karest/Christ".

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (KJV)

This descent of the Christ was allegorically described by the ancient and His sufferings related to the limitations imposed upon Him where previously in Heaven He experienced previously lived an unlimited and unrestrained existence as God's "Divine Mind". Now, fallen to His death in humanity, He found Himself bound in the grave of "matter" and "flesh". This descent, fall, suffering, and limitation self-imposed by the Christ upon Himself, is the allegorical death of Christ on the cross of "matte" and "flesh" which Rome will later reinterpret as a "literal" and "historical death" of one man for the sins of the world; the efficacy of which can only to people through the doors of the Catholic Church per their creation! How convenient! Truthfully, however, there would have been no salvation for the Soul in its Earthly incarnation had not God not come to tabernacle within each of His children as "the Christ". So, in effect, "Christ had to incarnate", fall to His death, intersecting Heaven (Spirit) and Earth ("matter"), making this "crossing of between two different levels of existence, this "cross" in the Heavens (Heaven/Earth), in order to save the Soul from its sins while in Earthly incarnation and manifestation. Only in this way did "the Christ die on the cross"! Never was this intended by any ancients to be a "literal" event; let alone an event that provided a "substitutionary atonement"! The only atonement that ever ensured because of this "death of the Christ" within mankind is that of the Soul which "had ears to hear and eyes to see" the message of the Christ concerning the way of repentance of the Soul).

Answer for yourself: What is the first word uttered by "the Christ" in our New Testament?

Matt 4:17 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (KJV)

If you paid attention, this is the same message of the Sacrificial System intended for the Soul. This "death of the Soul and Christ" in incarnation was not only understood correctly by the ancients but we see this in our New Testament as well once we possess the "keys" necessary to recognize it. This is why not only Jesus, as the symbolic representation of "the Christ" within us all, was wrapped in burial and swaddling clothes when he was first born into the flesh. When the "Christ came to Earth" is was to die, his incarnation was "his death". In reality, it is not "the Christ" who died, it is our Souls' Spiritual Sensitivity to the indwelling Christ within us which is dead, needing a resurrection while we yet live, a "second birth" (being born again). This is the very same thing we see in the ancient Egyptian Religion just like other symbolic representations of Heavenly Living Energies like Osiris and Ptah who were likewise wrapped in "while mummy shrouds" when incarnated within mankind; this is the "Divine Pattern" reproduced over and over in the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom and which we find repeated in our "Jesus Story". Divine Life living within "matter" and material existences (flesh for example) limits the Divine Soul and its Spiritual sensitivity to the Divine Mind while living in material incarnation. All of this symbolism and "keys" to correctly interpreting this allegory in our "Jesus Story" and our New Testament comes in-depth later when we get to the study of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom, our last website at Bet Emet!

But one more thing needs to be said. The True Christ is only found within. His life, distorted as it is today on the pages of our New Testament, can yet serve as a great object lesson. His own life course revealed the path a Soul must pursue in order to attain full realization of the Christ Consciousness. First comes our resurrection from the deadness of our Soul as imposed upon it by the passions, lusts, and carnality of the animal body who lives by instinct and not Spiritual Laws. The Soul needs a "New Birth", where there is an awakening of the Soul to a higher consciousness; something so radically different from former experiences that we call it the awakening of the Christ Within, as though the Christ has been asleep. But the real fact of the matter is that it is we, as Souls, who have been asleep as to the Christ within.

Eph 5:14-15 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. 15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (KJV)

To our human consciousness, the Christ was asleep, and yet the Eternal Christ never sleeps. Mark 4:38 reads: "He was asleep in the hinder parts of the ship". This is a parallel case, given to show our own consciousness to the Christ within us all, who transforms our lives and consciousnesses when we awaken to the realization of the Christ presence within us, the Bishop of our Souls. As Souls, we have been asleep in the sense-consciousness, asleep as to our Real Being as Divine Entities and Souls fallen from Heaven! Thus the admonition of the Gnostic Paul to awaken to the Christ that only lives within, not without as Rome would have you believe.

Answer for yourself: And for what purpose are we to awake? Speaking to people who were already "alive" yet we find Paul considering them "dead men walking" as did the ancient Spiritual Wisdom that Rome tried to obliterate from the face of the Earth. And why do we need to awake? In order as Souls to "walk circumspectly" while in this Earthly incarnation and this only comes when we experience our personal resurrection from the death while we yet live, not after the death of the body as Rome will alter the concept. As progressing and evolving Souls, not attained to the stature and fullness of Christ, we at times mess up an sin. Given to us as our means of atonement is not the "blood of another" and some "easy believeism"; rather God gave us "repentance" and the Sacrificial System teaches this Divine Concept in detail; it is all about our Soul as our life, not red blood cells.

The Soul is the student of the Christ within and must be reinstructed, reinstructed by Spiritual Truth until he advances to the stature of Christ. It is through the wilderness of trial and proving, like in the "Jesus Story", that our Souls reach the consciousness that we are "a Son of God". This the the job of both indwelling Christ and Soul as "co-laborers" in the Soul's salvation and atonement while in this Earthly life.

Before we move on many will be amazed to know that in our Bibles is abundant references to this Divine Sacred Wisdom; only it goes unrecognized or falsely interpreted as if "literal" when these same stories were for thousands of years only interpreted allegorically or metaphorically by the ancient Spiritual Masters. Here again, in summary fashion, is what we have described above:

Phil 2:5-8 5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men (incarnation into humanity and not one person): 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross (this cross is the crucifixion in the Heavens, involving Spiritual Living Energy impregnating virginous void called "matter") (KJV)

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (incarnation into humanity and not one person) (KJV)

Had we been taught this Divine ancient Spiritual Wisdom and the twenty or so Divine Myths of the Descent of the Soul and "Krst/Karest/Christ" in the allegorical stories the "dying and rising" gods and goddesses of the ancient nations who descended into "deadened matter" and "humanity", only to later ascend as "Spiritual Mature Souls" to the Father, then we would have no problem reading the New Testament for the very first time and recognizing the Divine Truths of the Soul being told through the "Jesus Story". Knowing this ancient Spiritual Wisdom and its proper interpretation before hand we would have no problem recognizing the Divine Truths behind the Sacrificial System and spotting the Roman lie about the "blood of Christ/Jesus" and his supposed "death" as an atonment for our sins. Had we been taught this Divine ancient Spiritual Wisdom and the twenty or so Divine Myths of the Descent of the Soul and "Krst/Karest/Christ" in the allegorical stories the "dying and rising" gods and goddesses we would have had no problem seeing clearly that Rome reinterpreted the "incarnation of the Krst/Christ within each person" and transformed it into the "physical death of a literal historical person for the sins of the world whereby his blood supposedly atoned for the sins of the world". We see this clearly now having come to full understanding of how the Sacrificial System actually operated. Even though Rome altered the "Christ Story" and the implications of the "Christ's death", once one comes to know the symbology of the ancient Spiritual Wisdom concerning the "indwelling Christ" he can spot these Roman reinterpretations of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom easily in the New Testament texts. Possessing this knowledge concerning the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom of both Christ and Soul, knowledge that Rome tried to obliterate from the 2nd through the 5th centuries, we would have immediately recognized that the "Jesus Story" is the personification of the descent of the Soul and the indwelling Divine Mind as "the Christ" into the whole of humanity and recognized that this "Jesus Story" is in reality "your" story and "my" story.

Basically, the Old and New Testament are dual "tellings" of the story of the Soul and what it truly represented; "yours and my story", our Soul's story told through personification of the path of the Soul in its Earthly existence through the symbolism and personification of a person named "Jesus". This same story was first noticed by the ancients in the path of the Sun through the Zodiac, a most unbelievable study awaiting you in the ancient Spiritual Wisdom. The story of Jesus, found from Matthew chapter 1 through Matthew chapter 28, can be shown to parallel exactly the personification of the Divine Energy of the cosmos, God/Christ, symbolized by the Sun and its path through the Zodiac (birth, life, death, rebirth). We find the "Jesus Story" repeated verbatim from ancient Egypt down through history over and over again, from Sacred Book to Sacred Book, as symbolic for the incarnated Soul and the indwelling Krst/Karest/Christ within mankind; but unlike our "Jesus Story" inherited from Rome, these prior "Jesus Stories", told on different levels of understanding reflecting Metaphysical realities in the cosmos, were never meant to be taken "literally" unless a person recognized that it was "their own story". Never was this "Christ Story" or "Jesus Story" to be understood "literally" or some atonement attached to the supposed literal life of another. Now, understanding this "death of the Christ" as taken form the ancient Spiritual Wisdom which was later altered by Rome, you see that is is and always will be the responsibility of each Soul to work out his own atonement.

So we see in the literalization of the "Jesus Story" that this Jesus, had it been possible for him to be an actual atonement, would have failed to atone for intentional sins and any sins involved in the Second Tablet of the Law. Jesus' death, had it been an atonement, would have applied only to the First Tablet of the Law ONLY and not the Second Tablet of the Law. The Second Tablet of the Law is atoned for by your repentance, confession, prayer, restitution, alms, etc., as Isaiah and other Prophets teach in the Hebrew Scriptures which have been later altered by the Alexandrian Essenes and later Romans to exclude such concepts from the Hebrew Scriptures when translated into the Greek and Latin!

You should not be surprised that the Second Tablet of the Law is atoned for by the same Spiritual methods taught since the first article since "God changes not". Let us not forget that Israel is a Holy Nation and a Royal Priesthood. A Priest's function is to make intercession for another and aid in another's reconciliation. As you saw earlier that prayer was one of the several forms of atonement, then this should renew your appreciation for the Jewish people who, on Yom Kippur, stand in the gap for the Gentile world in their prayer services. They literally, as Priests to YHWH, pray for the world and their sins that God would be merciful and forgive their sin since 2.5 billion of them are Christians and are totally deceived when it comes to the "Jesus Story" and any supposed atonement connected to his death. This is such a Holy thing which is not understood by Christians let alone Christian missionaries who are fixated on converting every Jew to Christianity! Pray to God that this never happens for if it does the "Light unto the world" is then extinguished as was the great Egyptian Religion before them!

Answer for yourself: If such a demonic and diabolical plan was ever to succeed, God forbid, then who would stand in the gap for the world on Yom Kippur.....Baptists, Catholics, Charismatics? They don't even know when this Holy Day falls on God's calendar since fixated only on the Roman one. Christianity does not ever recognize or observe the commanded Holy Days in the Bible. This needs to stop now.

ARE YOU GUILTY OF BREAKING THE SECOND TABLET OF THE LAW.....AND NOT KNOWING IT?

So many might have read this article so far and say..."so what...I don't break the commands of the Second Tablet of the Law?"

Not so fast now.

Christians, because of their perverse theology, break them at will, and what is so devious, is that they do it without ever knowing. My purpose is not to offend anyone, but if I could be honest with you and God for a moment I want you to grasp this next sentence. When I graduated from Seminary I had learned a lot, but most was religious propaganda to support a particular denominational position. It was only after years of intense study following Seminary did I come to the knowledge of the truth that I had hoped to find there but didn't. And if I can say that then what is the the level of understanding of the typical pew setter in the Churches who never reads books or studies his own faith in-depth? I challenge every reader to read our "Law of Noah Website" and see for yourself the implications of these Laws of the Second Tablet of the Law for themselves and see how innocently we have trespassed them living the typical American Christian Life-style as well as accepting the typical Christian theology as espoused by today's brand of Christianity. Have your kleenex ready for at the end of such a study, and having trusted in a Lawless religion let alone a false atonement, your true standing before God becomes frightfully clear.

If you were aware of what is contained in the Second Tablet of the Law you would be overwhelmed and I would hope, once realizing the magnitude of such violations of God's will by the typical Christian following "Christian doctrine" then your tears would run like rivers and your conduct change. Repentance and remorse for our condition is a wonderful place to start as you are seeing.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

You have seen that it a life, your life, that makes atonement for sin. Such repentance, confession, prayer, and new obedient conduct is the only reassurance that at-that-moment you are right with God. Being so, and having done so, then you have the right to be on the altar of God and you are symbolically with God as "one" on the altar of your heart. You need not bring an animal sacrifice for your sins since your life and your actions are already one! The animal, if you remember, was only a physical demonstration and symbolism of the Spiritual condition of your Soul and atonement ha already been acquired by the sacrificier's repentance, contrition and confession, prayer, righteous deeds and almsgiving. Such is the mercy of God to reveal to us, His people, how we can cleans ourselves.

The Gentile Christian Anti-Semitic Early Church, over the centuries, has stolen such truths from you and corrupted the texts and the Divine Truth and recorded downright Spiritual Untruths in their anti-Semitic document...the New Testament

There is no atonement for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law unless you make atonement for yourself!

You now understand our lives, or our "Souls", can go to Church our whole lives but still be led into great error and further sin by being devoted to dogmas taught from the pulpits of our Churches which are Biblically and historically unsound! We can go to Church our whole lives and die without a proper atonement for our sins. But one must know the truth in order to repent or else he will never know he is wrong. That is why study is so important. This series of article is an attempt to address only one of many major problems involving Christian Religious Dogmas that contradict not only the ancient Spiritual Wisdom but the same religious dogmas in Biblical Judaism.

After years of dedicated intense study I found that worshipping according to Christian teachings often is sin as the vast majority of Christianity today has changed the Sabbath as well as made obsolete the Holy Days and Festivals of God and there are Commandments regarding Gentile believers keeping them forever.

Answer for yourself: Since hidden in the Hebrew and Greek behind our English translations are commandments and a "Divine Pattern" for non-Jews to observe these Holy Days with the Jewish Nation and as non-Christians we don't, then who atones for your violation of the Laws of the First Tablet of the Law. Do you observe these Biblical Festivals in the Christian Church, festivals which can be shown were observed by non-Jews with the Jews long after the death of Jesus in our New Testament? Have you asked your Pastor why he and your Church does not since "believers" did in the New Testament long after Jesus' death? Nothing changed, never will with God. God changes not. The "Divine Patter" never changes.

You might not be a murderer with a gun, but our word "kill" is equated by the Rabbis to mean gossip, slander, blasphemy, as well as the failure to take care of the poor, widows, and the orphans. The Rabbis group this with murder which again is sin of the Second Tablet of the Law. You will never know this attending a Christian Church; you will continue to give your money to the Church never realizing that no Christian Church I know of understands the Tithe correctly let alone obeys the Laws and Commandments regarding it. We tell Sunday after Sunday the people not to rob God, but that is exactly what our Christian Churches do when they collect the Tithe and spend the money any way they or their budget requires. Just for starters, 2 out of 6 years "all" of the Tithe is to be given to the poor, sick, lame, blind, crippled, mentally ill, widows, orphans, etc. I said "all", not some "love offering to the poor"; ALL. If you are looking for something to repent of I suggest you study the Tithe for yourself or request our articles on it so learn the truth.

Answer for yourself: Who atones for you for giving your money and Tithes to the Church which does not appropriate the funds as commanded in the Hebrew Scriptures? Were you aware that failing to observe the Tithe correctly is sin? Are you aware that Tithing incorrectly is a violation of the Second Tablet of the Law by which only Yom Kippur and your repentance can atone?

Answer four yourself: Can you see how involved this can get and how simple it is to violate these Commandments of God and its affects upon our Soul? Having read these articles don't you think we need to be instructed by the Jewish Nation and Israel instead of Rome? Is "salvation of the Jews" as the New Testament records?

"FAITH OF JESUS" OR "FAITH IN JESUS"

In discussion of these aspects of the Sacrificial system, we must never forget that we are called to accept the "faith of Jesus" and not just have "faith in Jesus." In these articles I have presented the "faith of Jesus" in light of the Jewish views on atonement. Jesus would have believed the Tanakh (Law, Prophets, Writings). If we are to approximate holiness by living Christ-like that means we have to have a new understanding of how we are to live and we must become familiar with the Laws of God which regulate man's conduct in life. Only then will our lives, lived in conformity to the Laws of God and repentant when we break them, result in atonement. But we have to know them first; I dare say as a Christian you cannot recite the 66 Laws of Noah which make up your Covenant with God. At your death you will appreciate the atonement your life procured through your obedience and repentance when shown b God how your life was lived in both obedience and error. Such Laws, statutes, and ordinances reveal to us, in 248 positive commandments, what God is and does, and in 365 negative commandments what God is not and what He does not do. Only in incorporating the Laws of the Torah which apply to the non-Jew into our lives can be assured that what we do and believe is correct. Only then, when living our lives obedient to the will and Commandments of God can our lives [Souls] be an atonement. Failure to measure our conduct as compared with these Commandments only assures we live by our own understanding, and not God's.

Now, having this knowledge, the rest is up to you.

Are we following "the faith of Jesus" or do we just have "faith in Jesus"?

WHAT YOU WERE NEVER TAUGHT IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH...THE TRUTH ABOUT ABOUT ISAIAH 53

Disclaimer: It is important for the reader to understand that in this website, in comparing first century Judaism and their Messiah with later Christianity and their presentation of the Jewish Messiah along with the unveiling of the historical truths concerning the non-Jewish "believer" in the first century, I will use a "literal-historical" approach to the "Jesus Story". If you have studied our other websites then you know that "the Christ" can be interpreted from 3 different perspectives down through recorded history: "mystical", "mythological", and "literal-historical". Only after one has spent a considerable time in dedicated and scholarly studies in such areas as Biblical Judaism, the Jewish Messiah and true Messianic prophecy as taken from the Hebrew Scriptures and not the later forged texts of Rome, manuscript evidences, the history and origin of the Roman New Testament, the Gnostic Paul vs the Roman Paul, the Essenes and their "literal godman", Gnosticism, Egyptian religion and the ancient "Jesus Story", Comparative religion, and Astrotheology can he understand and be certain which two of the above three methods of interpretation of "the Christ" are accurate and factual. Again for purposes of comparing Judaism vs Christianity and the implications that this holds for the non-Jew and "Godfearer" we adopt in this website and for all studies in this website a supposed "literal-historical" interpretation of "the Christ" as well as the Jesus of the New Testament. Only in so doing can we adequately contrast the truths of Judaism vs Christianity theology and by so doing follow the train of these Divine Truths back down the corridors of history to the earlier Divine revelations given to mankind by the Creator which were intended for both "Gentiles" and "Jews" as well. I will let you be the judge of the results of such studies and leave to the reader to draw the necessary conclusions as we attempt to compare Jewish and Christian theological perspectives all the while dealing with the New Testament Jesus in a "literal-historical" manner in order for such an accurate comparison to be done effectively.

Disclaimer: It is important for the reader to understand that in this website, in comparing first century Judaism and the "pattern of worship" given to the "non-Jew" by God as well as unveiling of the historical truths concerning the non-Jewish "believer" in the first century against the later alterations and changes made to this "pattern of worship" by the emerging Roman Gentile Church of Rome in the 3rd century I will use a "literal-historical" approach to the "Jesus Story". If you have studied and ran across some of our other websites then you know that "the Christ" can be interpreted from 3 different perspectives down through recorded history: "mystical", "mythological", and "literal-historical". Only after one has spent a considerable time in dedicated and scholarly studies in such areas as Biblical Judaism, the Jewish Messiah and true Messianic prophecy as taken from the Hebrew Scriptures and not the later forged texts of Rome, comparative manuscript evidences, the history and origin of the Roman New Testament, the true origin and creation of the New Testament, the Gnostic Paul vs the falsified Roman Paul, the Essenes and their "literal godman", Ancient Wisdom literature, Jewish and Gentile Gnosticism, Egyptian religion and the ancient "Jesus Story" that beings with Ancient Egypt, Comparative religions, Astronomy and Astrotheology can he understand and be certain which two of the above three methods of interpretation of "the Christ" are accurate and factual. Again for purposes of comparing Judaism's truths vs Christianity's alterations of it over the early centuries and the implications that this holds for the "non-Jew" and "Godfearer" today then we adopt in this website and for all studies in this website a supposed "literal-historical" interpretation of "the Christ" as well as the Jesus of the New Testament. Only in so doing can we adequately contrast the truths of Judaism vs Christian theology and by so doing follow the lineage of these "Divine Truths" back down the corridors of history to the earliest Divine revelations given to mankind by the Creator which were intended for both "Gentiles" and "Jews" as well. You will, in time, come to see that there is a "Pattern" to the worship of God given all mankind in the beginning of recorded history of the race and this "pattern" can be traced throughout recorded history and will culminate with Biblical Judaism and will subsequently be destroyed in the 3rd century by the emerging antisemitic Roman Church. I will let you be the judge of the results of such studies and leave to the reader to draw the necessary conclusions as we attempt to compare Jewish and Christian theological perspectives all the while dealing with the "New Testament Jesus" in a "literal-historical" manner in order for such an accurate comparison to be done effectively. ## EXAMPLES OF PAUL TEACHING THE GENTILES WHO ATTENDED THE SYNAGOGUES OF ASIA MINOR

Acts 13: 5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

- 14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.*
- 42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.*
- 43 And when the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.*
- 44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.*

Acts 14:1 1 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. (KJV)

Acts 17:1-2 1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, (KJV)

Acts 17:10 10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. (KJV)

Acts 17:17 17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the (KJV)

Acts 18:4 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. (KJV)

Acts 18:8 8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. (KJV)

Acts 18:19 19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. (KJV)

Acts 19:8 8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. (KJV)

Acts.22.19 And I said, `Lord, they themselves know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in thee.

Acts.24.12 and they did not find me disputing with any one or stirring up a crowd, either in the temple or in the synagogues, or in the city.

Acts.26.11 And I punished them often in all the synagogues and tried to make them blaspheme; and in raging fury against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Having read and understood the above passages let us focus on just one passage now and a little commentary.

Acts 15:19-23 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. 22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: 23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: (KJV)

Answer for yourself: What do you see? The "non-Jew" met on the Sabbath with the Jews and the first 5 books of the Torah were preached to them long after the time for the New Testament Jesus.

The law of Moses - the first five books of the Bible - was being taught in the synagogues EVERY SABBATH. The apostles were WRITING only these decrees, because "non-Jewish" converts as well as "Godfearers" who were "non-converts" were going to the assemblies, or synagogues (church) on the Sabbath day as commanded by the 4th Commandment of the Laws of Moses. They had heard God's Law read and expounded every Sabbath in the synagogues and did not need further instructions. They were not reading Paul. It shows that the GENTILE CONVERTS HAD STARTED KEEPING THE SABBATH DAY, AND WENT TO ASSEMBLIES ON THAT DAY! And the apostles' letter did not reprove them for this Sabbath-keeping.

To these Gentiles of Corinth, Paul commanded: "Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ" (I Corinthians 11:1). "Paul, as his custom was, went in to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures" (Acts 17:2). It was his customary practice to keep the Sabbath, as the Bible proves by its recording of eighty-four different Sabbaths Paul kept.

Answer for yourself: Did Paul imitate Jesus in Sabbath keeping and did he teach his Gentile followers to do the same? Indeed! Jesus, "as His custom was . . . went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day" (Luke 4:16). Keeping the Sabbath was Jesus' custom. Paul followed Him, and commanded Gentile converts to follow him, just as he followed Christ.

Answer for yourself: Should we not do the same?

NUMBERS 9:2-10

Num 9:2-10 2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.

Answer for yourself: Did you notice the word play when you read "appointed season" which refers to the day as one of God's "appointed times"?

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it. 4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover. 5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel. 6 And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day: 7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel? 8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you. 9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD. 11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. 12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. 13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. 14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. 11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. 12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood. 13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust. 14 For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off. 15 And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean. 16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity. ## LEVITICUS 16:1-34

Lev 16:1-34 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died; 2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. 3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. 4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on. 5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. 6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. 7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. 8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat. 9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering. 10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness. 11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself: 12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the vail: 13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not: 14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. 15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: 16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness. 17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. 18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. 19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel. 20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat: 21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness: 22 And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness. 23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there: 24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people. 25 And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar. 26 And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp. 27 And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. 28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp. 29 And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you: 30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. 31 It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever. 32 And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments: 33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation. 34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. # ISAIAH 56...GOING BEYOND THE LAWS OF NOAH CHOOSING THOSE THINGS THAT PLEASE GOD...BUT ARE WE?

Often I am asked why as a Christian I keep the Biblical Festivals and the weekly Sabbath. The reason is so simple once you read and correctly understand the whole Bible.

First as Christians we must become aware of the Laws of Noah and the Covenant of Noah as referred to in Acts 15.

This Covenant of Noah is referred to in Acts 15 by James as "necessary" for Gentiles who are becoming grafted into Israel/Church WITHOUT formal conversion to Judaism which had, up to that time, been required for ANY fellowship between Gentiles and Jews religiously, etc. Due to bigotry and hatred by Jews toward Gentiles in the first century, the Jews had enforced and put upon Gentiles what God never did.....the requirement to keep the laws of God which had never been given to them as a people....such as circumcision. Such approach to the non-Jews by bigoted Jewry of the first century was intended to keep the Gentiles separate from the Jews. Circumcision often, for an adult male, meant death due to infection and disease in the first century and this was an effective way to keep these “dogs” as arms length. It worked. God wanted to change this and did so through the effective ministry of the followers of Jesus as seen in the Acts 15 account and the epistle of Galatians. Sadly Christians today when reading Paul (Galatians for example) fail to understand when he says “you are not under the Law” he only is referring to the major issue of circumcision. Such is the ignorance that goes with the lack of sufficient study of the our faith as followers of Jesus.

THE GODFEARERS....NON-JEWISH BELIEVERS IN GOD

There is a term often overlooked in the New Testament which is of major importance for correct interpretation of the requirements of Gentile believers before God....namely the term "Godfearers." These were Gentiles without circumcision who according to Acts 10:35 are accepted with God...but unfortunately were not accepted among Jews. So you have the background for what comes next.

As James tells us in Acts 15 these 4 of the 7 listed Laws of Noah (containing 66 subsets) were necessary for Gentiles...to be part of Jesus' church (notice that he said this after the cross)!

Acts 15:28-29 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things [referring to the Covenant and Laws of Noah]; 29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Since Acts 15 followed the death of Jesus then I have to ask you: "What has changed since the cross" when James made his decision as being "necessary" and "which seemed good to the Holy Spirit?"

NOTHING!

Answer for yourself: If adherence to the Laws of Noah were necessary and seemed good to the Holy Spirit for Gentile believers coming to God through Christ and his ministry through his followers then.....what about now?

Let me remind you that nothing has changed since the crucifixion and this event in Acts occurred over 20 years after the death and resurrection of Yeshua. Then James says in this recorded event (remember over 20 years after the cross)... "as Moses is taught in the Synagogue every Sabbath" thus implying that Gentiles who are turning from idols to serve the living God begin their repentance since coming to God with adherence to the Laws of Noah as the "minimum required" and then were instructed in fulfilling Isaiah 56 where is it recorded for us that Gentiles are to learn to "choose those things that please God from His Torah which go beyond the minimum [as Moses is taught in the Synagogue every Sabbath]."

Understand that not all the Law (613 commandments) are applicable for Gentiles and they never were commanded by God to fulfill or obey all 613. Basically they were given 66 within the Covenant of Noah. The joy comes when you understand that you don't have to do [observe] more, but you get to. Such is the demonstration of your love for God who saves you].

ISA. 56..AND GOING BEYOND THE MINIMUM

Isa 56:1-6

- 1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.
- 2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree (understand here that we are NOT to be separated from the Israel of God as non-Jewish believers).
- 4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs [Eunuch are non-Jews] that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant (notice that non-Jews kept God's Sabbaths [plural...including festivals and weekly sabbaths and took hold of God covenant with Israel and acquired more mitzvoth and commandments):
- 5 Even unto them [speaking of the non-Jew] will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.
- 6 Also the sons of the stranger (again referring to non-Jews), that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

This passage is extremely important for the Christian today for although the Sabbath and Festival commandments were not required for Gentiles in the Laws of Noah (yet it can be shown for example that Abraham knew and observed the Passover for instance), it is implied in Isa 56 and Acts 15 that Gentiles would meet on the Sabbath for instruction in God's Commandments where they could learn and then apply other Sabbaths (festivals) and Commandments to their lives, thus pleasing God, for how can we say we love Yeshua or the Father unless we obey them?

If one undertakes a serious study of their faith (Christianity) it can be shown, that although not commanded of non-Jews, Abraham and others can be found keeping them. This love for God is demonstrated in their willingness to do what pleases God. It is our hope the same spirit be upon you. But if you are a typical denominational or non-denominational Christian today your experience is anything but the above. You have for your authority a book called the New Testament which in places calls such obedience to these Laws and Commandments a curse and if that was not enough your Church calendar is filled with pagan solar and astral days which have been made to look as if Jesus has something to do with such idolatry.

Hosea 4:6 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Is God serious in the above passage and could this ever happen to you once you die and then find out that your "experience" was wrong and that just a little study on your part would have shown the folly of many things in your "Christian experience"?

WHY HAS NOT YOUR PASTOR TAUGHT YOU THESE THINGS?

Lets look at just one example of "choosing those things that please God" which the New Testament can be shown to teach; but the key is recognizing them and this is almost impossible without a background in Judaism and Jewish Roots of Christianity.

Also in Acts 20:8 is recorded that "there were many lights in the upper chamber." Most of us have read this passage over and over our whole lives and just pass right over it moving on to the next passage. For your information this passage is recording for us the Havdalah worship service which is a religious service that ends the Sabbath on Saturday evenings at sunset; thereby separating the Sabbath Holy Day from secular days. The Fourth Commandment is:

Exod 20:8-11 8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. 9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: 10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: 11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. (KJV)

PLEASE PAY CLOSE ATTENTION

Notice that in Troas, a Greek city, the Apostle Paul is teaching Gentiles to observe Havdalah on the Sabbath evening. In other words followers of Jesus, in fulfillment of the Great Commission were observing the Sabbath on Friday evening to Saturday evening long after Jesus' death and resurrection. Gentile believers were keeping the Sabbath and not Sunday. Rome will change this with Constantine and since then followers of Jesus have disobeyed the Sabbath and kept days set aside for sun-worship instead. Neglect of the sabbath and sanctification of pagan holy days is considered Idolatry and this is where the vast majority of good Christian people find themselves today; most never find out until they die. Needless to say the experience of the non-Jewish believers in Troas is NOT the experience of most Christians. Why not?

Repeatedly in Paul's trips he entered the synagogue as was his custom, and it was in these Greek cities that Gentiles were attending "church" on the Sabbath. With just a little study you would find out that the early church knew what we do not: namely that Yeshua was crucified on Wednesday afternoon and raised at the end of Friday evening (at the beginning of the Sabbath which is a picture of the world to come where believers in God realize Eternal Life where there is not more death...figures does it not): So much for Catholic tradition and Good Friday when it was Good Wednesday (ha ha)!

It would be many years after Yeshua's death before Gentiles would later take control of Christianity and change the day of worship from the Sabbath to Sunday.

Let us look at another example.

In 1st Cor 11:2 Paul thanks the Gentiles in Corinth for “remembering him in all ways and KEEPING the ordinances.” The root word for “ordinances” when traced to the Greek and Hebrew will refer to "divine appointed times"...festivals and Sabbaths.

Answer for yourself: Have you forgotten that Isa. 56 spoke of this very thing regarding non-Jews who come to God were allowed to keep such Festivals and Sabbaths so that would not be separated from God people (the Jews)? I hope not because what follows next is another example of the New Testament rightly "divided" where we see such things again taught to non-Jews in the fulfillment of the Great Commission.

Again in Corinthians Paul admonishes Gentiles to "keep the feast" [Passover} because Yeshua was killed on that day.

It is not my intention at this point to embark on who and why the meaning of Jesus' death was changed later by some who deviated from normative Judaism but let me say that Jesus'/Yeshua's death was the catalyst that generated from a Gentile hating Judaism a movement into all the world whereby God's Covenant and Commandments were taken in the Great Commission in the form of the Laws of Noah whereby non-Jews would learn and turn from idolatry to the living God. Had Jesus not died then this momentous event mostly likely would never have happened and the world as we know it would have been vastly different and the Judeo-Christian ethic would be absent from this planet today. Contrary to what most Gentile Christian believers understand today regarding this "Passover" passage of Paul in contemporary Christianity, one should understand that it was through Jesus' death that the salvation of the non-Jew was accomplished because it would be from this ministry that would begin after his death that would come a movement which would go into all the world and take to the non-Jews the Covenants of God and the path for non-Jews to come to the saving knowledge of God. This is the historical understanding of the passages that relate to how the death of Jesus saved the non-Jew. His “blood” was simply a metaphor for his death and his death accomplished what Israel was failing to do at the time, namely, not being a priest to the nations and not bringing their non-Jewish brothers to God. Jesus’ death did this through the missionizing of the world by his followers. So, again, metaphorically, you can understand how non-Jews were saved by Jesus’ blood (or should I say death). Many will dispute this and claim literally that the “blood” saves but this only betrays they lack of adequate understanding on how the sacrificial system worked. If only one looks to Lev. 17 where it says:

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

Look at the subject of the sentence. I defy anyone to tell me that the subject accomplishing the action (atonement) is not the word "life" and not "blood." The word "blood" is the object of the preposition in the sentence. This realization many years ago awoke me to serious study into the dynamics of the sacrificial system where I surprisingly learned that I had been taught it 100% incorrectly by the Christian Church as well as my pseudo-professional teachers. It is time we learn the truth about Jewish things from Jews who KNOW and literally know Jesus better than Christians (such irony).

Returning to Paul:

1st Corinthians chapter 16:2 states:

1 Cor 16:2

2 (Speaking to non-Jews in Corinth...a Gentile city)...Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

One should note that "day" in most Bibles is in italics and this means it was "added" to the text by the Bible society which printed the Bible. In reality it is saying, by interpretation, "on the first of the week" or "as the week was dawning." This refers to the time period when the first of the week was beginning to dawn (in Hebrew time the day begins at evening and end in the morning the first day).

So again reference is again made to a Havdalah service on Saturday evening for non-Jewish believers in Corinth...thus concluding the Sabbath just before the beginning of our Sunday which, according to Jewish time, begins at 6:01 P.M. in the evening.

Also another example:

In I Corinthians 10:16 it is recorded: is this not the "cup of blessing" which refers to the ONLY cup of the Passover Seder...other than Elijah's cup at the end of the Seder, which again shows us a picture of Gentiles keeping Passover and the Sabbath.

I could go on and on but by now you get the point I hope...we don't have to keep Sabbath....but if it is recorded that Gentiles doing so pleases God in Isa 56..."who keep my Sabbaths...[referring to Feasts and Weekly Sabbaths"] ..then what kind of follower of Jesus are we when we choose not to do things knowingly when they please God?

To top this off understand that non-Jewish believers were taught these things by Israel until early in the 4th century when Constantine and Rome would create an official state religion which would destroy the existing "faith once given to the saints...both Jew and non-Jew; and out jumped the golden calf of Gentile Roman Christianity which would lead

the way to the official recognition and production of the New Testament some 70 plus years later."

We at Bet Emet Ministries are dedicated to instructing Gentile believers [Christians] in returning to the hidden truths of the Bible. Today in English we miss so much since few have the skills to rightly interpret this Bible correctly (historically, linguistically, culturally, politically, etc). By God's calling and grace we have been shown these truths which have caused us to repent from the errors in our religious belief system...such errors caused us to have a life-style that was less than pleasing to God in many areas...and this was do the fact that we lacked only knowledge (the Bible says 'my people perish because of a lack of knowledge).

Please understand that these few examples which I have shared is just the tip of the iceberg for Christians. Our texts are full of errors in key places where the crafters of our New Testament took great pains to make sure the Gentile readers would not see nor understand the Jewish Roots of their faith; such was Rome's ploy in creating this New Testament in the first place. I have only touched on just a few examples in this article but please understand that such errors of omission involve other important areas of our faith as well: atonement, Christology, Messianism, Covenants, etc. If you are a serious student or desire to be then our websites can be of great value to you in your desire to learn the truth and ultimately be able to discern the shaft from the wheat in Gentile Christianity.

I hope this has opened your heart and eyes...and given you a desire to learn how you can live a life more pleasing to God. If we can be of further assistance to you in sharing our many teachings and newsletters...please let me know and I will include you on our mailings. Watch for our Web Sites. May God bless you and may He cause you to walk in His statutes...shalom!

"TZEDAKAH"... HEBREW FOR BIBLICAL CHARITY

Charity is a fundamental part of both the Biblical and Jewish way of life. Traditional Jews give at least ten percent of their income to charity. Traditional Jewish homes commonly have a pushke, a box for collecting coins for the poor, and coins are routinely placed in the box. Jewish youths are continually going from door to door collecting for various worthy causes. In many ways, charitable donation has taken the place of animal sacrifice in Jewish life: giving to charity is an almost instinctive Jewish response to express thanks to G-d, to ask forgiveness from G-d, or to request a favor from G-d. According to Jewish tradition, the spiritual benefit of giving to the poor is so great that a beggar actually does the giver a favor by giving a person the opportunity to perform tzedakah.

THE MEANING OF TZEDAKAH

"Tzedakah" is the Hebrew word for the acts that we call "charity" in English: giving aid, assistance and money to the poor and needy or to other worthy causes. However, the nature of tzedakah is very different from the idea of charity. The word "charity" suggests benevolence and generosity, a magnanimous act by the wealthy and powerful for the benefit of the poor and needy. The word "tzedakah" is derived from the Hebrew root: Tzadeh-Dalet-Qof, meaning righteousness, justice or fairness. In Judaism, giving to the poor is not viewed as a generous, magnanimous act; it is simply an act of justice and righteousness, the performance of a duty, giving the poor their due.

OBLIGATION OF TZEDAKAH...THE DUTY OF EVERY CHRISTIAN

Giving to the poor is an obligation the believer has toward G-d and his fellow man, a duty that cannot be forsaken even by those who are themselves in need. Tzedakah is the highest of all commandments, equal to all of them combined. A person who does not perform tzedakah is considered equivalent to an idol worshipper. Tzedakah is one of the three acts that gain us forgiveness from our sins. The High Holiday liturgy states that G-d has inscribed a judgment against all who have sinned, but teshuvah (repentance), tefilah (prayer) and tzedakah can reverse the decree.

According to Biblical law, we are required to give one-tenth of our income to the poor. This is generally interpreted as one-tenth of our net income after payment of taxes. Those who are dependent on public assistance or living on the edge of subsistence may give less; no person should give so much that he would become a public burden.

The obligation to perform tzedakah can be fulfilled by giving money to the poor, to health care institutions or to educational institutions. It can also be fulfilled by supporting your children beyond the age when you are legally required to, or supporting your parents in their old age. The obligation includes giving to both Jews and gentiles; contrary to popular belief, Jews do not just "take care of our own."

Judaism acknowledges that many people who ask for charity have no genuine need. In fact, the Talmud suggests that this is a good thing: if all people who asked for charity were in genuine need, we would be subject to punishment (from G-d) for refusing anyone who asked. The existence of frauds diminishes our liability for failing to give to all who ask, because we have some legitimate basis for doubting the beggar's sincerity. It is permissible to investigate the legitimacy of a charity before donating to it.

We have an obligation to avoid becoming in need of tzedakah. A person should take any work that is available, even if he thinks it is beneath his dignity, to avoid becoming a public charge.

However, if a person is truly in need and has no way to obtain money on his own he should not feel embarrassed to accept tzedakah. No person should feel too proud to take money from others. In fact, it is considered a transgression to refuse tzedakah. To make yourself suffer by refusing to accept tzedakah is equivalent to shedding your own blood.

LEVELS OF TZEDAKAH...MAIMONIDES 9 LEVELS

Certain kinds of tzedakah are considered more meritorious than others.

The Talmud describes these different levels of tzedakah, and Maimonides organized them into a list. The levels of charity, from the least meritorious to the most meritorious, are:

1. Giving assistance to a someone who has fallen on hard times by presenting a gift or loan, or entering into a partnership with the person, or finding them work, thereby helping that person to become self supporting.
2. Giving assistance in such a way that the giver and recipient are unknown to each other.
3. Donations to the community charities, which should only be done if there is confidence that the charity is administered in an honest, prudent, and efficient fashion.
4. Donations when the donor is aware to whom the charity is being given, but the recipient is unaware of the source.
5. Donations when the recipient is aware of the donor's identity, but the donor still doesn't know the specific identity of the recipient.
6. Donations where each party knows the other, but the gift is given unasked.
7. Donations where each party knows the other, but the gift is given only after a specific request.
8. Donations where each party knows the other, but the gift is given only after a specific request, and the donor gives less than should be given (but does so willingly).
9. Donations given grudgingly. (Mat. Ani'im. chap. 10)

What one needs to understand is that in a descending order the level of Righteousness is seen and understood; therefore #1 for instance is a higher level of righteous giving than #5 for example. Now it is up to you to study these and act accordingly. Shalom.

EARLY GENTILE BELIEVERS OBSERVED THE FESTIVAL OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

In the Bible "leaven" represents sin. The very nature of leaven is said to be that which corrupts. In Ex. 23:14-15 the people are told to fast from anything which contains leaven, but not only to fast, but not to allow any leaven in their houses for seven days. This seven-day fast is called the "Feast of Unleavened Bread."

For seven days no chametz (leaven) is to be found in the house. Anyone who was found with leaven would be taken out, beaten with 39 stripes and cut off from the community. The commandment to abstain from leaven is found in The Book of Exodus 12:19, "...Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses;". Therefore, traditionally on the 13th day of Nisan the head of each household makes a search for chametz (leaven). It is customary to place a few pieces of bread in a strategic location, so that when the search is made, leaven is found. Afterwards the following blessing is recited: Blessed art Thou, Eternal our God, Ruler of the universe, any leaven that may still be in the house, which I have not seen or have not removed, shall be as if it does not exist, and as the dust of the earth. In Exodus 12:20, we read, "...Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread". The head of the household will take a piece of leaven that he has brushed with a feather into a wooden spoon which has been wrapped in a cloth. Then it is taken to a prescribed place and thrown into the fire which symbolically removes all leaven from that household.

Answer for yourself: Is the "Feast of Unleavened Bread" connected to the "Passover"? Yes it is.

Passover is a three in one Feast: or one feast containing three parts which equal one Feast—Passover.

- 1. Passover
- 2. Unleavened Bread
- 3. First Fruits

The Feast of Unleavened Bread runs consecutively with Passover. It was such an integral part of Pesach that the titles were interchangeable almost to the point of being synonymous and we find it mentioned this way in the New Testament. This feast runs from the 14th of Nissan to the 21st. The Jewish Encyclopedia states that the feast of Passover consists of two parts: The Passover ceremony and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Originally both parts existed separately; but at the beginning of the Exile they were combined.

Seven is a number significant of fullness and completion; also spiritual perfection. It is also the number associated with sanctification. On the 7th day God rested, wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it. Ex. 20:11.

Exod 20:11 11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. (KJV)

The Feast of Unleavened Bread is considered a Sabbath or a Holy Convocation and this also means that no work is to be done for it is a time of rest.

Answer for yourself: In light of what we have learned previously concerning the Sabbath and how the non-Jew was commanded to rest on this day in the Hebrew Scriptures, how the non-Jew was according to Isa. 56 told "to choose those things that please God and thereby choose to observe His 'Sabbaths', and that there are many references to the non-Jew observing Passover in the Hebrew Scriptures and did so for hundreds of years following the first century then does it not stand to reason that since the Feast of Unleavened Bread is part of Passover that this would mean to a "thinking believer" that the non-Jew was to 'choose' to observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread and learn the spiritual meanings connected with this holy 'appointed day' of the Creator? It sure would seem that to me.

FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD WAS KEPT BY NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH

More than 20 years after the crucifixion of Jesus Christ as described in the New Testament we find described in the texts of the New Testament that the church still kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Act 20:6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

Notice the time frame of the verse we just read. Conservative estimates by scholars is that the events described in Acts 20:6 occurred at least 20 years following the death of Jesus as described in the New Testament. Now 20 years is a very long time to be keeping a feast which had been allegedly "nailed to the cross"! The crystal clear truth is, Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles and his Gentile companions kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread while at Philippi some 20 or so years following the death of Jesus as detailed in the New Testament. It is beyond me how any critical thinker can read these texts possessing understanding of the Biblical Festivals and not see that the non-Jewish believers in the God of Israel observed and kept the Feasts of the Lord along with the Jews following the death of Jesus as recorded in the New Testament. These Feasts and Festivals of the Lord were were not abolished by Jesus or his death and any how say they were are terrible confused about what they are reading and teaching and literally teaching lies.

Answer for yourself: Would the Holy Spirit have impressed Luke to write and mention the Feast of Unleavened Bread if it was abolished?

Let's read of a historical reference to the New Testament church keeping of the annual Holy Days and Sabbaths....

"Nothing could show better than these scanty notes of time how deep-rooted the custom was, how the feast was observed as regularly as the year came round. Men spoke naturally of 'the days of unleavened bread' as a significant point in the calendar.... Ordinary dates dwindle into insignificance beside these fixed, outstanding seasons.... The question arises, as in the matter of keeping [the] Sabbath on the seventh day, whether the early Christians continued to observe these festivals.... In all probability they went on for years observing the festivals" (Hastings' Dictionary of the Apostolic Church, article "Passover", pages 132-133) It seems the New Testament church kept the feasts for quite some time!

Notice the Passover and Unleavened Bread reference made by Paul when writing to the Gentile Church at Corinth in the following verse.

1 Cor 5:6-8 6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? 7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Does it not seem somewhat unreasonable for Paul to mention "leaven" to this non-Jewish Church in Corinth if they were unfamiliar with the Festival of Unleavened Bread?

THE MESSAGE OF COLOSSIANS CHAPTER 2

Colossians 2 is used by most Christians to "prove" that the feasts has been abolished. Let's examine this chapter in detail to see if that is the truth.

Answer for yourself: Are these Colossians in Greece Jews or Gentiles? They were Gentiles.

Col 2:13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

But they were obedient Christians.

Col 2:5-7 5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: 7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. (KJV)

So we see the Colossians were Gentiles, meaning, before becoming Christians they had nothing to do with the feasts and Holy Days. Since they weren't Jews, they would not have been observing Jewish traditions or Festival days which leads us to a very important question.

Answer for yourself: So why did Paul bother writing to them about the Holy Days?

Answer for yourself: What was the only "Bible" these Colossian believers had access or knowledge of in their day? We know today that the ONLY Scriptures the New Testament Christians had were the Hebrew "Old" Testament (the Hebrew Scriptures). There were no New Testament available at that time. So those Gentile Colossians needed to rely on the Old Testament for their guidance.

So being obedient, they would have read the Old Testament and found they needed to keep the Sabbath and the Holy Days as I have shown you in the prior articles on this website. Since they were followers of "the Christ" and called Christians then they would have also been familiar with the words of "the Christ" as passed on through Paul and probably other Christians.

Answer for yourself: Would they have not heard the words of this "Christ" if he had said that Sabbaths and the Holy Days has been abolished? How could "the Christ" abolish however what God the Father wrote in passages in the Hebrew Scriptures as we have detailed previously in this website? Simply he could not have and did not.

Answer for yourself: Was Paul telling them that the Sabbaths and the Holy Days has been abolished?

Col 2:16 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: (KJV)

Answer for yourself: What was Paul saying here to these Gentile followers of "the Christ"?

Paul here was simply saying to not let their pagan relatives and neighbors judge them on keeping the Sabbaths and the Holy Days which the God of Israel and the Jews taught in the Jewish Holy Hebrew

Scriptures!

Obviously as I have proven on our various websites, they would have been keeping the Holy Days and be subjected to the kind of persecutions from their pagan neighbors as we are today from "Christians" who worship on a pagan day of the sun and keep the pagan festivals of Christmas and Easter and accuse those of us who observe God's Appointed Times of "Judaizing".

Paul was NOT telling them to NOT keep the Holy Days. He was just telling them to not let any man judge them on keeping the Holy Days of God ....the Jewish Feasts and Festivals and Sabbaths

The Christians at Colosse were criticized for not keeping the Greek customs such as the pagan holidays. The Christians were eating meats that were prohibited by the Greek religions, and drinking prohibited drinks. And they also kept the Sabbath and the Holy Days. The "new moons" refers to the observations made necessary by the Jews in order to discern the correct dates of the Holy Days - we no longer need to observe "new moons" since we already have the Sacred Calendar.

So we see Paul was NOT saying it was "ok" to keep the pagan festivals if we wanted to. He was saying to IGNORE the criticisms by their pagan relatives and to continue in their Christian way of life as taught by the Church and this consisted of keeping and observing the Jewish Holy Days of Leviticus 23 as well as the other "Sabbaths" of the Lord.

Now let's see WHO can judge us on the Holy Days.

Col 2:16-17 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: 17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body [is] of Christ. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: What is the importance of the underlined word "is" in the above quote?

The word "is" is in [] here and usually in italics in the Kings James Version because the word "is" simply is NOT in the original Greek, it has been added by the human translators. So the above phrase should really read "but the body of Christ".

The "body of Christ" is the Church. So looking at verse 16 and 17 together, we have Paul saying the pagan worldly people have no right to judge us on keeping the Sabbaths, Holy Days, kosher laws, etc, but the Christian Church DOES have the right to "judge" us on these things.

But there is a big, big problem. The Christian church has a responsibility to teach us from the Bible about the Sabbaths and other areas of God's laws. Of course when we have churches that keep the pagan festivals of Christmas and Easter, and tell us that the kosher laws has been abolished, and that the Gentile Church as replaced Israel and we can do whatever we want, such a church by definition is pagan and therefore that church has no right to judge us on keeping the Sabbaths, Holy Days, etc.

As thinking believers if you search the Bible for yourself you will find a completely different message from the ones being taught from the pulpits of our churches in America. You will find as I and millions of others have found and are finding that we DO need to keep the Sabbath, that God's laws has NOT been abolished, and that we do need to keep them.

So naturally we would want God to lead us to a true Christian church that also teaches such things. But sadly few if any Christian Churches have this understanding and if you find Messianic Christian Churches that do teach the Sabbaths and Festivals of God they are corrupted to the core by a idolatry by teaching that the Jesus of the New Testament is God and preach a Christology that comes right from the Sun Worship of Constantine in the 4th century when he made Jesus God and had 50 bibles written to include this hideous doctrine and the rest is history.

Answer for yourself: And when you as good Bereans check out the church's doctrines against the Scriptures and find it is not consistent with the Scriptures then what are you to do? Do you then we place yourselves under the authority of such a church? My advice is to remember that worship is of the Heart and Soul of man and you need not a building full of compromise to validate your proper worship of the Creator. It would be better for you to begin a home fellowship where you are free to study and learn the truths of God's word and model them freely to your family and like-minded friends.

Answer for yourself: So why should we keep the Sabbaths and Holy Days?

Col 2:17 17 Which are a shadow of things to come...(KJV)

Answer for yourself: What is to come? What does this mean? Well lets see shall we?

The first reason why we keep the Sabbaths and Holy Days is because God tells us to do so!! We do not need a reason why we obey the commandments of God, we just go ahead and obey them!! However, after we start to obey the commandments, God gives us an understanding of WHY!!

So looking at the above Scripture, we see that the Sabbaths and Holy Days are a "foreshadow" of things to come.

In studying the Feasts and Festivals and Sabbaths of God you learn that these Holy Days are a foreshadow of God's plan of Salvation for mankind. Once you learn the spiritual messages in these Holy Days of God then it dawns upon you that these truly are "rehearsals" of how our lives are to be lived and patterned whereby we consistently live a life of faith and repentance (Passover), thereby consistently removing the sin from our lives (Unleavened Bread) whereby we become a worthy vessel for the Word of God to live in and through our lives (Pentecost...the giving of the Word of God to mankind). Between the Early Rain Festivals (Spring) and the Latter Rain Festivals (Fall) we have a long dry season which is a perfect picture of our life with all of its hard ups and downs where we get to live out what we believe and have learned. This is where the rubber really meets the road so to speak. Then we all reach the end of our lives and the judgment. These Festivals, when properly understood, prepares us to not only learn how we are to live holy lives but also prepares us for the end of our life whereby we learned to observe in our own lives not only the Spring Festivals (Passover, Unleavened Bread, Pentecost) but in so doing this assures us that we will have a successful Rosh HaShannah (the resurrection), Yom Kippur (the final atonement) and thereby are certain that we will be prepared to live in the Presence of God for Eternity (Tabernacles). It is that simply but yet so hard for so many because they have lost their Jewish Roots to their faith.

The Christian Church having failed to maintain the connection with her Jewish Roots has completely lost this precious information and teach a substitute false gospel and message today and are simply not aware the forged texts in their Bibles has blinded them to their true origin and plan of God for her. There is no greater example that could be given than those above as you see the non-Jews being taught long after the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament of the facts that the non-Jews observed the Biblical Feasts and Festivals like Passover and Unleavened Bread.

So here we see that far from abolishing the festivals, Collosians 2 actually confirms that we MUST keep God's Holy Days and not the pagan festivals

WHAT YOU WERE NEVER TAUGHT IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH...THE TRUTH ABOUT ABOUT ISAIAH 53

Disclaimer: It is important for the reader to understand that in this website, in comparing first century Judaism and their Messiah with later Christianity and their presentation of the Jewish Messiah along with the unveiling of the historical truths concerning the non-Jewish "believer" in the first century, I will use a "literal-historical" approach to the "Jesus Story". If you have studied our other websites then you know that "the Christ" can be interpreted from 3 different perspectives down through recorded history: "mystical", "mythological", and "literal-historical". Only after one has spent a considerable time in dedicated and scholarly studies in such areas as Biblical Judaism, the Jewish Messiah and true Messianic prophecy as taken from the Hebrew Scriptures and not the later forged texts of Rome, manuscript evidences, the history and origin of the Roman New Testament, the Gnostic Paul vs the Roman Paul, the Essenes and their "literal godman", Gnosticism, Egyptian religion and the ancient "Jesus Story", Comparative religion, and Astrotheology can he understand and be certain which two of the above three methods of interpretation of "the Christ" are accurate and factual. Again for purposes of comparing Judaism vs Christianity and the implications that this holds for the non-Jew and "Godfearer" we adopt in this website and for all studies in this website a supposed "literal-historical" interpretation of "the Christ" as well as the Jesus of the New Testament. Only in so doing can we adequately contrast the truths of Judaism vs Christianity theology and by so doing follow the train of these Divine Truths back down the corridors of history to the earlier Divine revelations given to mankind by the Creator which were intended for both "Gentiles" and "Jews" as well. I will let you be the judge of the results of such studies and leave to the reader to draw the necessary conclusions as we attempt to compare Jewish and Christian theological perspectives all the while dealing with the New Testament Jesus in a "literal-historical" manner in order for such an accurate comparison to be done effectively.

"SO AS ABOVE...SO BELOW": THE SOUL'S SPIRITUAL EVOLUTION AS SEEN IN THE HEAVENS...ARE YOU AWARE?

Look first at the picture above. If you noticed you see that what the Ancients saw in the Sky and Heavens "above" the reconstructed "below" on Mother Earth. In other words they built upon Earth what they saw in the Heavens above. This is called the Uranograph which we will deal with momentarily.

First of all please look at what you recognize as "the Star of David" below and to the right.

Answer for yourself: Do you notice that the star is pointing both upwards and downwards? What could this mean? Is there hidden meaning here that we are missing? Well you have to study Egypt and Egyptian religion to understand the religious concepts hidden in the Star of David. Archeology today is teaching us just whom the identities of the Biblical Patriarch actually are and you be amazed to find out that these Patriarchs are Biblical Pharaohs. In Seminary I always wondered why Amenoteph III wrote many of the Proverbs. Today I know that he is the Biblical Solomon and his father, King David, is Tuthmose III. Well that is a teaching for another day but if one was to undertake such a rigorous study of Egyptian Monotheism then you will find that the center core of all that they believed is that "So above then so beneath". In other words the Divine Pattern is to be reproduced on earth as it is in heaven above and not only their architecture and pyramids reveal this but their very core religious theologies as well. But that study has to wait but understand this as we move on the children of the Egyptians who intermarried with Semites are the Jewish nation and no wonder that Biblical Judaism has almost the same religious tenants of their Egyptian fathers but even the Star of David points "as above so beneath" which reveals to us that Divine Axiom in disguise. Now let us continue since our focus is on the "Pattern of Worship" (above) that is to be reproduces on earth (below) according the Divine Pattern above.

Exod 25:8-9 8 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. 9 According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Is there a "Pattern" of Worship that we are to follow and if there is what is it? Do we follow it at our Christian churches? Well we need to look into this matter to be certain.

Let us look at the Hebrew word used for "pattern" above:

Strong's Concordance tell us that the word for "pattern" is Strong's number 8403: tabniyth (tab-neeth'); from 1129; structure; by implication, a model, resemblance: KJV-- figure, form, likeness, pattern, similitude.

The word clearly indicates that connected with the worship of God is the necessary construction of an earthly example of something that has a Spiritual/Heavenly existence (similar, like another). The idea carried with this word is one of "comparison" between two items. This "pattern", as a model, refers to a representation, generally in miniature, to show the construction or appearance of something that is a resemblance of "something else". It also carries the idea of a simplified representation of a system or phenomenon, as in this sense the representation of the worship due the Creator. Egypt understood this and coined the terms "So as above, so below" and their offspring the Jewish nation understood this religious concept and adapted it from them. Both Egypt and Israel had in common equinox Temples for example. We find that Egypt build the Giza Plateau as a representation and likeness of what they saw in the Heavens above them. It was a "mirror image" so to speak. We see the same example of this spiritual concept in the New Testament:

Matt 6:10 10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. (KJV)

Earth is to be a carbon copy or reflection of the Divine. We as mankind are to reflect the "real" and manifest as best we can the "image of God" both within us and without through our influence and our conduct. More on this in a second as we continue our thoughts.

Let us examine other passages referring to this "pattern".

Exod 25:40 40 And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount. (KJV)

Num 8:4 4 And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick. (KJV)

Josh 22:28-29 28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you. 29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Did you notice a strong admonition in the above verse?

Notice in this verse the strong admonition to NOT construct a "false" man-made substitute in worship for what God has commanded to be made and used in His worship which is not according to "the" pattern given by God Himself (selah)!!!

Of course this necessitates that one is aware of this "Pattern of Worship" in the first place. Sadly this "Pattern" of which I speak is hidden behind the Hebrew and Greek words of our Christian Bibles and the English does a poor job at revealing it; in fact it masks it from our view. More verses need to be examined so let us keep reading.

II Ki 16:10 10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. (KJV)

Now here is where it gets very interesting and it is here we find the hidden implications for non-Jews and their worship of God.

1 Chr 28:11-20 11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat, 12 And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things: 13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD. 14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service: 15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick. 16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver: 17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver: 18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. 19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern. 20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that this "Pattern" was given by the Spirit of God?

Answer for yourself: Did you notice the highlighted words "service"?

Strong's Concordance reveals the true meaning of the word "service" in these verses:

5656 `abodah (ab-o-daw'); or `abowdah (ab-o-daw'); from 5647; work of any kind: KJV-- act, bondage, + bondservant, effect, labour, ministering (-try), office, service (-ile, -itude), tillage, use, work, X wrought.

Answer for yourself: What can we learn from the root word from which "abodah" is taken?

The root word comes from 5647 `abad (aw-bad'); a primitive root; to work (in any sense); by implication, to serve, till, (causatively) enslave, etc.: KJV-- X be, keep in bondage, be bondmen, bond-service, compel, do, dress, ear, execute, + husbandman, keep, labour (-ing man, bring to pass, (cause to, make to) serve (-ingself,)), (be, become) servant (-s), do (use) service, till (-er), transgress [from margin], (set a) work, be wrought, ## worshipper.

Answer for yourself: So now what have we seen? Without a doubt God has commanded His worship according to a particular "Pattern" given to the Jewish people who are his Servants who are commissioned to communicate these truths about God to the whole world.

Isa 49:6 6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou (Israel) shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. (KJV)

Let us read a few more verses.

Ezek 43:10 10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. (KJV)

Heb 8:5 5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. (KJV)

Strong's Concordance and "pattern"

5179 tupos (too'-pos); from 5180; a die (as struck), i.e. (by implication) a stamp or scar; by analogy, a shape, i.e. a statue, (figuratively) style or resemblance; specifically, a sampler ("type"), i.e. a model (for imitation) or instance (for warning): KJV-- en- ex-) ample, fashion, figure, form, manner, pattern, print.

Thayer's Greek Lexicon and "pattern":

5179 tupos- 1) the mark of a stroke or blow, a print 2) a figure formed by a blow or impression a) used of a figure or image b) used of the image of the gods 3) form: the teaching which embodies the sum and substance of religion and represents it to the mind, the manner of writing, the contents and form of a letter 4) an example: a) in the technical sense, the pattern in conformity to which a thing must be made b) in an ethical sense, a dissuasive example, a pattern of warning; used of ruinous events which serve as admonitions or warnings to others c) an example to be imitated; used of people who are worthy of imitation d) in a doctrinal sense; used of a type, that is, a person or thing prefiguring a future (Messianic) person or a thing

CAN WE DRAW ANY CONCLUSIONS?

I surely think we can.

Plato believed there are two "realities" or "worlds." This is exactly what both Egypt and the Jews believe and expressed in their religious symbolism and religious doctrines and no greater example could be found than the Temple described here and the pattern for its construction which was given to King David by God. Plato, like Moses and King David and the Rabbis knew that there exists an Invisible World and a Visible World. The Visible World is the world we see with our eyes, the world of sights and sounds and it is not "the real" but only a reflection of the "real" which exists in the invisible world of the Spirit/Energy (God). The Invisible World is the world of ideas that exist in the Spiritual realm. It is this second world, the Invisible world, that is the true reality to Plato, Egypt, and the Jewish nation attest. The visible is but a reflection of the "real" and when we see that we are speaking of worship in the verses above this means that there exists in the "Invisible realm" of the Spirit/Heaven a "pattern for worship" of God that needs to be emulated and followed by all mankind in this visible world. The Jewish nation was entrusted with this "Pattern of Worship" for the whole of mankind.

If you understood the above then this becomes all the more important as our studies progress and we see for ourselves that both the Jewish nation and the non-Jewish peoples of the world kept the same "pattern of worship as seen for example in worship of the Creator involving the Biblical Seasons and Biblical Festivals and Sabbaths. This you need to understand can be shown to apply both before Moses and after Moses and the 613 Laws given to the Jews by Moses. This means that long before the Jewish nation non-Jews were keeping these "holy days" by Revelation and the Hebrew texts and Scriptures detail this for us. Often however these "truths" are hidden behind English words that cover up these facts. This is a startling revelation that awaits you as you see with your own eyes for example that Abraham kept the Passover even before it gained the historical significance it holds today. Even more important is the examples we will soon see which teach us that in the New Testament that non-Jews and Jews both kept the Sabbath day and the 7 Biblical Festivals after the time of Christ. We even see Paul teaching non-Jews to observe and keep Havdalah which observes and commemorates the Sabbath as it passes and the new week begins. Paul taught his Gentiles churches this "Pattern" and we in Christianity today are basically ignorant of it and have a substitute religious calendar given us by Antisemitic Rome. Even more startling is the revelation that there are certain passages in the Holy Tanakh that God commanded be read on certain days and that this "pattern" of reading of the Torah/Tanakh at certain times makes all the more sense when one come to understand that God has certain things to say and communicate to His people on special times and days of the year. Simply said you would not say to a person "happy anniversary" on his "birthday" and vice versa. Even more startling is the fact that the very basis for the outline of Mark's Gospel, chapters 1-16, can be shown to follow the Torah readings throughout the year in Palestine. Looking at the chronological sequence from Chapter 1 through chapter 16 we see that each thematic teaching overlaps with the required Torah reading throughout the year. This simply means that we have before us the midrash of the Synagogue readings as told through the life of "the Christ" throughout the calendar year as enumerated between chapters 1-16 in the Gospel of Mark. This "Pattern" of worship is everywhere but seen by few.

To recap even more startling is that it can be shown that even before Moses the Hebrew Scriptures teach us that non-Jews kept these same "appointed times" with God which sadly Gentile Christians are taught today belong and apply only to the Jews. We will see in our studies that in these "appointed times" with God that occur at the equinoxes and solstices is a hidden message of the "true salvation" of God as found in these Biblical Festivals. That should make you wonder if you have heard the right message of God in your Antisemitic Christian Churches. Kind of makes you want to study does it not? Well the opportunity awaits you on this and our other websites at Bet Emet Ministries as the long hidden truths kept from you are revealed.

THE NON-JEW AND HIS RETURN TO GOD'S SABBATHS WHICH CONSTANTINE OUTLAWED

Answer for yourself: Why don't we as Christians and followers of Jesus and "the Christ" keep and observe the Biblical Holy Days in the Christian Church today?

We can begin to look at Constantine to find the loss of the Biblical Holy Days and the Sabbath for the non-Jew.

Let us learn an important truth from 2 Thess. 2:3

"Let no man deceive you by any means, for that day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition who apposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped so that he sits as God in the temple of God."

Let us look no further than Constantine to be one of many who fulfills this passage. As far as the history of christianity is concerned, Constantine was one of the most influential men that ever lived. From the Writings of the Apostles (Gospel's), until Martin Luther nailed his theses to the church door in 1517, there was no single person that so changed the course of church history as Constantine did. Indeed, his influence was so vast that it continues to tower over Christendom in this, our own time. Both in church customs, doctrines and in church government, christianity owes sunday and a lot more to Constantine's intervention.

It may be news to you but Constantine began to change the Biblical Holy Days, forsaking the Shabbot and assigning Sunday as God's day. He outlawed the 7 Biblical Festivals and Feasts of God as well. He replaced them with pagan holidays derived from Sun Worship which find their origins with men. If we look at the Shabbot this should not be surprising to us for after all, the Gentiles (pagans) were already used to Sunday worship due to their background in "Sunday" - "Sun" worship. The logic of Constantine was very simple: "As more and more Gentiles came into the faith, why make them learn of God's Holy Sabbath and His Laws?" The root for all these changes comes from his intense antisemitism and hatred of the Jews as we find in his Easter Letter.

At the beginning of the 4th century, a monumental event occurred for the Church. In AD 306, Constantine became the first Christian Roman Emperor. At first, he had a rather pluralistic view and accorded Jews the same religious rights as Christians. However, in AD 321, he made Christianity the official religion of the Empire. This signaled the end of the persecution of Christians, but the beginning of discrimination and persecution of the Jewish people.

Already at a council in Elvira (Spain) in AD 305, declarations were made to keep Jews and Christians apart, including ordering Christians not to share meals with Jews, not to marry Jews, not to use Jews to bless their fields, and not to observe the Jewish Sabbath.

Imperial Rome, in AD 313, issued the Edict of Milan, which granted favor to Christianity, while outlawing synagogues.

Then, in AD 315, another edict allowed the burning of Jews if they were convicted of breaking the laws. As Christianity was becoming the religion of the state, further laws were passed against the Jews:

- The ancient privileges granted to the Jews were withdrawn.
- Rabbinical jurisdiction was abolished or severely curtailed.
- Proselytism was prohibited and made punishable by death.
- Jews were excluded from holding high office or a military career.

These and other restrictions were confirmed over and over again by various Church councils for the next 1,000 years.

In AD 321, Constantine decreed all business should cease on "the honored day of the sun." By substituting Sunday for Saturday as the day for Christian worship, he further advanced the split. This Jewish Shabbat / Christian Sunday controversy also came up at the first real ecumenical Council of Nicea (AD 325), which concluded Sunday to be the Christian day of rest, although it was debated for long after that.

Answer for yourself: What should this tell us? Simply that up until the early 4th century non-Jewish believers in God were taught to keep and observe the Sabbath along with the Jews!

Overnight, Christianity was given the power of the Imperial State, and the emperors began to translate the concepts and claims of the Christian theologians against the Jews and Judaism into practice. Instead of the Church taking this opportunity to spread its Gospel message in love, it truly became the Church Triumphant, ready to vanquish its foes (first it was the Jews and later it would be Gnosticism and any who would dare to disbelieve the imperial religious doctrine).

After 321, the writings of the Church fathers changed in character. No longer was it on the defensive and apologetic, but aggressive, directing its venom at everyone "outside of the flock," in particular the Jewish people who could be found in almost every community and nation.

1Thes 1:9 9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; (KJV)

The above passage refers to Non-Jews who turned from idols to serve the living God of the Jews. They had just come out of idolatry. And that was fine when gentiles first entered the faith. They didn't know the Law, that they had a Covenant with God or that God expected of them to observe and keep His "appointed times" and Holy Days" like the Sabbath. But they could learn. They attended the synagogues, on Shabbot and observed "ALL" of the Jewish Biblical Holy Days. But Constantine and others made sure they did not continue to learn the Ways of God. He made sure that everything Jewish was removed from the then "existing" church.

You might want to look up the word "gentile". It means pagan. It means anyone outside Judeo Christian faith. Webster's dictionary states: "Gentile....anyone belonging to a non Jewish nation; anyone who is not a JEW OR A CHRISTIAN." Yet Christians today claim the title of Gentile. This is part of the Lie that Constantine started and it obviously continues today. If you are a believer in the God of Israel through Yeshua then you are no longer a Gentile. You are grafted in to the Olive tree, which is Israel. And that being so then you should resemble Israel in your worship!

Rom 11:24 24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Have you ever noticed that any reference to Yeshua and the early church being a part of Judaism brings accusations of "Pharisee" "Legalist" and after that comes "one who would stone Christ" and finally "Christ Killers". This kind of talk brought us the Inquisition, the Crusades and the Holocaust.

CONSTANTINE'S COUNTERFEIT JESUS

A terrible deception has occurred and the vast majority of 2.5 billion Christians haven't a clue. Today in Gentile Christianity we have accepted a Constantine Jesus instead of the Jewish Messiah. Through Constantine's clever ruse of "replacement religion" we have centered in Christianity today not a Jewish Messiah but a Gentile Messiah. This person will look for all the world like the Messiah pictured in Christian paintings. He will look extremely "Gentile". This false messiah has and will continue to infiltrate the church. He will speak of Easter and Christmas and Sunday as if they were God's Holy Days. He will not allow Sabbath worship. He will declare Sunday as the Sabbath Day. As long as you worship the "Gentile Jesus" you won't have to worry about persecution. Nobody is going to bother you. You will be safe in your church and deceived the false comfort provided by errant theology. All this because you believed The Lie. The lie that you are separate from Israel. The lie that says the Olive tree is dead. The lie that says the Law is dead. The lie that says you are somehow better than Israel because you will be 'taken out' of the world in the day of Jacob's trouble. And the lie that says the Commandments of Almighty God are passed away. The lie says that you, as a Gentile Christian believer, have replaced Israel and that you are "the New Israel".

TIME TO STUDY FOR YOURSELF AND EXPOSE THIS LIE

Rom 11:17-18 17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree (Israel); 18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. (KJV)

We must begin at the beginning; namely with the Biblical Calendar. We can call this for all practical purposes the Jewish Calendar for I have found, as you will if you do the study, that "Jewish" is a synonym for "Biblical". I wish that could be said for the Christian Church but it simply is not so; in fact the opposite is more often the rule. The Lord's Calendar is a diary of His Appointments of His "appointed times" with mankind. These are specific times on which He wants to meet with us. The word 'set time' in Hebrew is "moed". It means an 'appointment' and a 'rehearsal'. These are appointments set in eternity as rehearsals for what is to come. We find time and time again when consulting the Hebrew words for the non-Jewish believer in God in the Hebrew Scriptures example after example of the non-Jew keeping and observing the Sabbath and the these Biblical "appointed times" and Biblical Festivals and Feasts with the Jew in the Hebrew Scriptures and the Old Testament. Many never see this for they know not where or how to look or study at this level. Words like "alien", "foreigner" and "stranger" go unnoticed in the Old Testament in contexts regarding these Holy Days of the Lord yet everyone of them is a beautiful picture of the overall "Pattern of Worship" given by God to all His children; to all mankind. Again and again God emphasizes to both the Jew as well as the non-Jew that we are to keep the Feasts at their appointed time as "rehearsals" for Eternity.

Numbers 9:2 says: "Make the Israelites celebrate the Passover at the appointed time."

In verse 14 we read, "A foreigner living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover must do so in accordance with its rules and regulations. You must have the same regulations for the foreigner and the native-born."

Isa 56:1-2 1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. 2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. (KJV)

But you read the above verse thinking this was a commandment for the Jew only most likely. But let us keep reading.

Isa 56:6-7 6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; 7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people (nations). (KJV)

Wow. Here we have the example of non-Jews keeping the Sabbath of God let alone participating in Temple worship and the Sacrificial System. It would appear to me and hopefully you that these non-Jews are definitely "grafted" into the Israel of God more so than Christians today regardless of what they want to believe about themselves.

Isa 56:8 8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him. (KJV)

Take a look at this chapter and you will see the church as it was/is supposed to be. We were supposed to learn about and keep the Lord's Sabbaths (the weekly sabbath as well as God's "High Sabbath" which are more commonly known as the Biblical Festivals and Feasts. We are plainly Commanded here to keep the Sabbaths of the Lord. We are now getting the chance to learn and do as many are returning to the Hebrew roots of the church. Let us do so in thanksgiving and delight.

THE PASSOVER AS OBSERVES IN BABYLON

The Jews, exiled to Babylon after destruction of the Temple in 586 B.C.E., celebrated the Egyptian redemption as a model for their own hoped-for deliverance. Although in the absence of the sanctuary they could not make the paschal (or any other) sacrifice, they developed new ritual in prayer service.

Those who remained in the Diaspora (Greek for "dispersion," indicating any place Jews live outside Israel and their situation away from the homeland) continued to observe the holiday long after others returned to the Land when the Temple was rebuilt (516 B.C.E.). Jewish life in the Holy Land was revived, largely through the efforts of the scribe and leader Ezra, and though there continued to be periods of neglect and ignorance, such as the one leading up to the Maccabean Revolt, second century B.C.E., Passover from then on continued to be widely celebrated.

While maintaining the Bible's framework for observance, the ritual was expanded and enriched. The penalty for purposely not participating in the Pesakh sacrifice was karet (being cut off from the community). So the Jews made tremendous effort to get to Jerusalem. Anyone within a thirty-day journey (about nine hundred miles in those days), including a woman, was obligated to make the pilgrimage. Gradually during the Second Temple period, Pesakh emerged as the greatest Jewish national holiday.

The residents of Jerusalem welcomed the population-doubling pilgrims into their homes, providing free accommodation (the city was considered the common property of all the people); the travelers customarily left the skins of the paschal lambs for their hosts in appreciation. Overflow crowds stayed in surrounding villages or camped in the fields. A carnival atmosphere pervaded, the days and nights filled with festive meals, music, Torah study, and Temple pageantry, which began on the morning of Erev Pesakh (Nissan 14).

Through a series of signals from the Temple, and the Mount of Olives opposite, the people were informed when to stop eating leavened foods and when to destroy any leavened food left in their possession. Starting at noon on Nissan 14, in three groups successively crowding the Temple courtyard, the Israelites brought their paschal offerings, and unlike other sacrifices, slaughtered the animals themselves with the assistance of the priests and to the accompaniment of the Levite orchestra.

As prescribed by Torah, each family unit roasted its own lamb on a portable clay stove set up in the home courtyards. Dressed in white, groups embracing different status and economic strata joined together. With biblical references, they told the story of the night of the Exodus, based on Torah's commandment to pass it on to one's children (Exodus 12:26-27, 13:8, 13:14; Deuteronomy 6:20).

WHAT YOU WERE NEVER TAUGHT BY YOUR CHRISTIAN CHURCH...THE TRUTH ABOUT ABOUT ISAIAH 53 #9

We continue our exposition of Isaiah 53 and its corruption in our Christian Bibles and the restoration of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom concerning God, His Christ, Soul, man, and atonement.

We have seen concessively in the previous articles that Roman Christianity manipulated mankind through textual forgery, fear and ignorance into submission to the Roman religion by altering the Hebrew Scriptural concept of a nation as God's "Suffering Servant" into a single man and Messiah who supposed dies for the sins of mankind and in so doing opened wide the only doors to Salvation of man's Soul; doors that lead to submission to Roman Christianity as the only road to such grace for one's sin and forgiveness in spite of what the Hebrew Scriptures maintain! Not knowing how to read the Hebrew Scriptures they fell victim to the already forged Greek Old Testament translations and will do the same later to its later English interpretations. Instead of the freedom offered man that comes in his awaking to the truth of his Divine Being and the indwelling god within him, a Krst/Karest/Christ desiring to lead his Soul into the fullness and stature of the Divine nature of the indwelling Christ, the true Bishop of his incarnated Soul, man was directed into Spiritual darkness and ignorance of his True Being as a "gestating and evolving Divine Being" incarnated into this animal body with is opposing animal nature. This Divine Truth of the ancients was tragically lost through Roman textual and Scriptural manipulation and out comes the Golden Calf of apostate theology which we inherit without question in the Western Hemisphere as Christians today.

Rome changes the "indwelling and emerging Krst/Karest/Christ" within to an external supposed Historical Christ "without" as I showed you in the manipulation of Isaiah alone but such forgery does not stop there; it litters almost every page in the New Testament. It is important to go beyond the idea of an historical Jesus so that we can get to the real meaning of Christianity, the Christ, and the ancient wisdom. As a summary of the problem understand that there is no hard proof of any works that were written when Jesus was supposed to be alive that attest to his actual historical existence. God was supposed to have appeared as a man 2,000 years ago, yet no one bothered to write a thing about it at the time! Paul (c.3-c.-64-68AD) makes no mention of an historical Jesus, and if anyone was to do so you expect it to be Paul. As Christianity was the religion emerging for mankind at the dawn of the Age of Pisces, it is not surprising that its origins are surrounded in mystery.

Rome gave a supposed historical saviour to the uninitiated masses, while the initiates know that the Christ is and always has dwelled and lived within each human being. Christianity sowed confusion, purposefully, by blurring and co-mingling the distinction between inner and outer teachings, the Lesser and the Greater Mysteries of which Paul speaks. There is no problem in proving the existence of various people from ancient times, such as Plato, Aristotle, Julius Caesar, and so on. But we sure have a problem trying to locate a supposed historical Jesus Christ in the time frame in which he lives. Problematic again is that the name "Jesus Christ" can be found in ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics some ten thousand years B.C.E. It appears right off that a Divine Mystical Spiritual Concept involved in the whole of humanity has been limited and confined to but one human being by the Roman Religion for motives discussed before.

Answer for yourself: Why should there be a problem in proving the existence of one greater than these?

Because there is so much controversy over an historical Jesus we are entitled to approach the question with a healthy skepticism. Kuhn makes the telling observation that the further away we get from the alleged Jesus, the greater is claimed to be the knowledge of him (Alvin Kuhn Who is This King of Glory, Academy Press, 1944 p. 240). I want you to know that this is entirely reverse of what we find in true cases of historical people. Real people are best known during their own lives, and as time passes memories fade and facts get distorted. At the beginning of the second century Jesus was an airy and ethereal figure, yet centuries later people could describe his appearance, moods and motives in meticulous detail! One should be motivated by such facts and knowledge once his crosses his path to probe the alleged historical reality of such a person; especially in light of the fact that the salvation of the Soul of mankind is tied to the fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures, like Isaiah 53 as it reads in the Christian Old Testament as well as the many Hebrew Scriptural quotes as supposed prophecy found in the Christian Bible (although forged in all places but you don't know this yet until you study and compare Hebrew Messianic Prophecy in the Hebrew Bible with the later Greek and English "mistranslations").

These are some of the biggest problems and questions that you will ever have to deal with and answer for yourself. If we are to believe, as we have been taught in the Christian Church, that Isaiah 53 was speaking of the Messiah who was to die for the sins of others, then Jesus' followers, knowing this passage and longing for its fulfillment one day, should not have been shocked at the idea of himself going to his death. But they were according to our New Testament!

Answer for yourself: Is it possible that James and the mother church did not believe what we are taught about Jesus and Isaiah 53 in our Christian Churches today?

The answer is simply James, Paul, and the Jerusalem Church did not believe the theology that we have been force-fed by Rome in our corrupted Bibles for the last 1,800 years and did not for 2 reasons:

- First...their Jewish Scriptures (in Isaiah 53 and elsewhere) did not read like our corrupted translations today in our Christian Old and New Testaments so they would not have believed such things about atonement about "anyone" let alone this Jesus.
- Second...their actions, based upon their beliefs, show they did not believe Isaiah 53 referred to Jesus as some form of final atonement.

Acts 21 reveals James, Paul and the Jerusalem Church they did not believe what we have been taught following the canonization of the New Testament by Rome which comes loaded with tons of purposefully misquoted, purposefully mistranslated, and purely invented Scriptural texts due to theological agendas. When you put Acts 21 with Numbers 6 where sin offerings and atonements are connected with the nazirite vow that Paul was commanded to observe by James we break wide open the deceptions that lie hidden in our "Jesus Story". The problem is not only Paul who performs a "righteous act" that disavows any theological significance to the death of Jesus as some form of atonement or fulfillment of Isaiah 53 but James, Jesus' hand-picked leader, commands it to be done. Evidently James did not believe like Christians today that Jesus' death is the final atonement for mankind's sin or that Isaiah 53 is messianic and that Jesus is the fulfillment of Isaiah 53. These divisive religious stances between Biblical Judaism and Christianity become rather simple when you see for yourself the corruptions of the Jewish Bible; many of which we have already exposed previously in these articles on Isaiah 53 along with what yet follows.

Answer for yourself: How do we reconcile the supposed Christian's expectation of the Messiah's death for sin against the shock of the followers of Jesus at the announcements of his soon coming death?

Answer for yourself: Would they have not been looking forward for such redemption if that was the promise of the Prophets?

Answer for yourself: Since when is "atonement" connected with a death at the time of the Passover and not with Yom Kippur? How does Jesus' supposed death as an atonement stack up when the scapegoat that carried the guilt of the sins of the people on Yom Kipper was never killed but turned loose "alive" and sent into the wilderness, thus symbolically separating the sins from the people of God? To say that Jesus is the "type and shadow" of the "scapegoat" on Yom Kippur is an absolute misrepresentation of the Sacrificial System, but we have seen that before in the articles restoring the truth about atonement and the Sacrificial System.

Answer for yourself: Can you find for yourself where atonement for sin is ever connected to a Passover Lamb" in the Jewish Scriptures? Its not! There is no atonement by the death of the Passover Lamb or this death of Jesus as the "type and shadow" of the Passover Lamb. Many animals were sacrificed as offerings at all times of the year as well as when different situations came up in one's life. But not all of the animals sacrificed carried the idea of "atonement." This may be a shock to you but "atonement" was never, I said never, connected with the death of the lamb at Passover. This should make you wonder about the "types and shadows" we have always connected to the life of Jesus; most of them are wrong! Christians write books and books about Jesus being the fulfillment of the Biblical Festivals, Feasts and Festivals by the way not observed in the Christian Church, and such an analogy to Jesus as the Christian "fulfillment" is totally and diametrically opposed to the true meanings of the Biblical Festivals as understood in the Hebrew Bible and Biblical Judaism. However, when Jesus is the "personification of the Infinite Divine Mind and Christ-Nature" indwelling the animal body as the home for the Soul, then these Biblical Festivals, when examined Spiritually and not "Jewishly" or "culturally", is the perfect "pattern" of the birth, life, death, and rebirth of the Soul of mankind; the salvation of which comes only by union with the Divine Logos within, the Christ within.

Answer for yourself: If Jesus is the Lamb of God, and understanding that the Passover lamb of Israel never atoned for the sins of the people, then how do we make the connection of atonement with the death of Jesus let alone that Jesus is the subject of Isaiah the Prophet in Isaiah 53? We can read all day passages like: "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29), understand that there is something here but not what you might think. Unless you become acquainted with the ancient Spiritual Wisdom then these passages can easily lead astray unless you obtain the "key" to its proper interpretation. In the above passage the reference to "the Lamb of God" refers the the Precession of the Equinoxes and the constellation Aries which preceded the constellation of Pisces, where the "evolving Christ in man" was "figured and typified in the the symbolisms of the Zodiac". Now you know, having obtained a "key" to understanding the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom why the Jewish nation and their Rabbis cannot accept a total travesty of Divine Truth in the Christian "Jesus Story" where the indwelling Christ-Divine Mind is turned into a supposed "historical-literal" godman to the exclusion of all humanity.

We cannot make such a connection between atonement for sin and the Passover regardless that the writers of the New Testament ascribe such a concept to Jesus' death as if Isaiah had taught the same thing. Forging Isaiah as we say you can make any Scripture say whatever you wish to those who don't know differently. We saw earlier that Isaiah never taught anything close to what the New Testament teaches! Equally disturbing for Christian theology is that in these last 8 articles on Isaiah 53 we have seen repeatedly and conclusively that Jesus is not the subject of Isaiah the prophet in Isaiah 53. All such "Isaiah 53 fulfillment in the life of Jesus" is totally false. Isaiah did intend for Jesus or anything other than the whole Jewish nation to be the subject of Isaiah 53. Now you are seeing that for yourself! If you have studied with us for a while you have seen for yourself that the original followers and apostles of this Jewish Christ or Messiah had little if anything to do with the writings of the later Gospels. Understand the the first quote from a Gospel can be found no earlier than 200 A.D.; rather troubling for writings held to be "early" by Church tradition. The names of supposed Jewish disciples of this Jesus had their names "officially" attached to the anonymous writings by the Church in the fourth century. Again note that 12 disciples are the same number of the houses of the Zodiac which we already showed you was connected to the New Testament Jesus in the Gospel of John above (Lamb of God=Aries). The first "quote" that names a Gospel by name is found not earlier than 200 A.D. Let me repeat again that the idea that the Gospels were written early and by some of the 12 of the Jewish followers of this Jesus cannot hold water when in fact scholarly study will prove otherwise and expose the oral tradition of Rome to be utterly unacceptable.

Answer for yourself: How can that I say such a thing? Again it is simple. Serious and dedicated study will show you that the names of supposed apostles were later attached to these documents, which themselves were redactions and interpolations of the earliest Gnostic Chrestians. These documents, later called Gospels, bear the titles of writers and disciples never connected with their origins. Listen to what the Catholic Encyclopedia has to say about the books in their own Bible:

These Four are themselves forgeries and apocryphal 'in. the sinister sense of bearing names to which they have no right,' as well as by their contents being false, with many forged 'interpolations' or spurious additions. Even if the Four Gospels were themselves genuine, as we shall see they are not, yet admittedly their present titles are not original and given to them by the writers. The present clerical position, seeking to save the works, is that, like the Acts of the Apostles, 'the name was subsequently attached to the book, just as the headings of the several Gospels were affixed to them.' (Catholic Encyclopedia. i, 117.) More particularly speaking of the Gospel titles, the same authority says: 'The first four historical books of the New Testament are supplied with titles (Gospel According to [Gr. kata] Matthew, According to Mark, etc.) which, however ancient, do not go back to the respective authors of those sacred writings. ... That, however, they do not go back to the first century of the Christian era, or at least that they are not original, is a position generally held at the present day. ... It thus appears that the titles of the Gospels are not traceable to the Evangelists themselves.' (The Catholic Encyclopedia; fifteen volumes and index, published under the Imprimatur of Archbishop Farley; New York, Robert Appleton Co., 1907-9, vi, 655, 656.)

These writing which we cherish today in our Christian Bibles, writings which we have been taught to revere as written by the followers of this supposed "historical Christ", is simply not true. When these writings, bearing false name, are studied and internal evidences examined, show to be under, the light of modern scholarship, other than what we have supposed. Not only the names and time period in which we are taught to believe that they were written is wrong, but they are full of purposeful misquotes and mistranslations crafted in order to present a "historical Suffering Servant" in disguise of this Jesus of Nazareth when in fact you have seen above that Isaiah intended no such thing; that the "Suffering Servant" of God was always the corporate Nation of Israel and its people. When studied critically these New Testament writings today can can easily be shown to have been written by non-Jewish writers unfamiliar with Judaism, the geography of Israel, as well as the Hebrew Scriptures since they are so terrible mistranslated and misquoted in the pages of the New Testament to say otherwise than what the original writer intended. Internal evidence in the Gospels themselves reveal that they are the work of non-Jews and not Jewish followers of a supposed later "supposed historical Christ" as the fulfillment of Isaiah 53. Joseph Wheless, in his Forgery In Christianity, states: "But the so-called "canonical" books of the New Testament, as of the Old, are a mess of contradictions and confusions of text, to the present estimate of 150,000 and more "variant readings," as is well known and admitted" (chapter 5). If you ever want to tackle the truth of the New Testament and be awakened to the corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures then this is a book for you along with Lillian Freudman and her Antisemitism in the New Testament.

Only if you already accept the New Testament teachings, and the corrupted Hebrew Scriptures in your Christian Old Testament as well as their reproduction in your Christian translations, and only if you have been brainwashed since childhood to believe such "things" about Jesus and the New Testament being "infallible" and "inerrant", can you accept the current theology created around the character of Jesus and his supposed connection to Isaiah 53. Any truthful analysis of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Jewish Bible will reveal that such beliefs about Jesus are misplaced at best. In order to believe that Jesus' death had a non-visible, Spiritual significance, you must use your Christian corrupted and adulterated translations and "read into the passage" what you have been conditioned to previously "believe" from erroneous preachings from corrupted texts unknown to you since you were a child. Only then can you approach your corrupted Christian Old and New Testaments and the corrupted book of Isaiah within it and say: "see - the Prophet predicted what I already believe." Isaiah 53, as it now stands translated in the Christian Bible then, is in reality no "proof" at all about anything regarding this Jesus, but rather a set-up for the uninformed "believer" which is so translated by men old in such a way as to deceive the reader to accept a certain theology accepted by the translator. This deceptions works marvelously because few Christians if any every approach Scriptures in their Christian Bibles thinking that possible intentional errors of translations or intended Scriptural deceptions could be within them.

But when equipped with the truth about the Hebrew Scriptures and their purposeful misquotation and misrepresentation as they exist in our current Christian Bibles your eyes will open to the truth of the reliability we truly have when reading our Christian Bibles which fell to unscrupulous hands of forgers over 1,500 years ago. I fell prey to such false religious beliefs myself until I began a serious study of the manuscript evidences that make up our Bibles. I found all of this hidden truth about my Bible and the forgery of the Hebrew Scriptures quite by accident while looking for the Jewish Christ through the eyes of Judaism. But God's leading is no accident. The real test comes in finding the courage necessary to teach the truth once you find it. Isaiah 53 in the Christian's Bible is little more (in selected places) than a contrived confirmation for someone who has already chosen the tenants of a "literalize-historical" Savior and God-man as taught in Christianity and with the Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, long before when the Hebrew Scriptures were first altered and corrupted in "key" theological places. We receive these alterations made in the Greek Old Testament and later alterations of the same as well as the Latin and English manuscripts and accept them and trust them since hearing them over and over again our whole lives; never stopping for a second to check the validity of the translation our for ourselves. to see if "these things really be so." I have and found to my dismay that what I have heard preached since childhood is the rehearsal of purposefully forged Hebrew Scriptures and their repetition in the New Testament. This being a fact then so much of the New Testament is deceptive theologically due to Rome's "radical reinterpretation" not only of Biblical Judaism but the ancient Spiritual Wisdom going back unchanged to ancient Egypt some 10,000 years B.C.E. There is "nothing new under the Sun" until the rise of Roman Orthodoxy between the 2nd through the 5th century when the ancient Spiritual Wisdom of the ancient nations is "radically reinterpreted" by Rome along with the whole Jewish faith and their Hebrew Scriptures by the hands of Rome. Isaiah is but one example of many; a book of over 6,000 alterations at the hands of Rome; Isaiah 53 being one of the most widely altered books in the whole of the Christian Bible.

WHY WAS THE MESSIAH'S DEATH - ATONEMENT OF SIN - & WAS SUCH A BELIEF NOT KNOWN BY THE JEWS?

Consistent with all Jewish teaching at the time, first century Jewish people and their Rabbis didn't view Isaiah 53 as a messianic prophecy. "Not so" you say. Well, it is quite understandable that the Jews of the first century were well versed with their own Hebrew Scriptures. Just a cursory study of the manners and customs of the Jewish people reveal that at 5 year old the Jewish child had his first book of the Bible memorized; that book being Leviticus. I said "memorized." To think that the Jewish people would not be conversant with their own Prophets is absolutely ludicrous. But that is what the New Testament writers would have us believe. What comes next might shock you so you may need to set down.

It can be shown that in the time of Jesus they Jewish people and the Rabbis NEVER associated the concept of the Messiah with a dying Messiah. Matthew 16:16-20 reveals to us that according to the New Testament, Peter correctly understood that Jesus was the Messiah, and he is told not to reveal it. But Matthew 16:21-22 which follows this Messianic recognition states: "From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter took him and began to REBUKE him saying, 'BE IT FAR FROM THEE, LORD: THIS SHALL NOT BE UNTO THEE!'" Here for us, after Peter identifies Jesus as the Messiah (Matt. 16:16), he is informed that Jesus will be killed (Matt. 16:21). His response is not "thank God...for we are dead in trespasses and sins and without your sacrifice for our sins we are lost." No not at all. He says rather remarkably: "God forbid it, lord! This shall never happen to you" (Matt. 16:22). This passage is very alarming and very telling in its scope. If it was true that the Jews knew that Isaiah 53 referred to the Messiah, as the Christian translation of the Hebrew Scriptures would have us believe, then Peter should have said "Yes Lord we understand, that is what it says in Isaiah 53, the Messiah has to suffer and die."

Answer for yourself: But what does Peter do? He "rebukes" Jesus sternly and tells him, are you crazy! The Messiah is not supposed to die. Peter never knew, and the Jews never knew of a dying Messiah in the first century because Isaiah 53 was never meant to be interpreted as the "Suffering Servant" of God. Only after the destruction of the Temple and the failure of the Jewish Messiah to appear and "save" Israel from the wrath of the Gentiles do we find the idea surfacing with a minority of the Rabbis than such an absence of the Messiah must be understood in this way: "he came, Israel was not worthy, and he must of died unseen among us" at the hands of Rome. Other Rabbis, again a minority, tried to connect such a death and destruction of Israel as some form of atonement but this again goes totally against the operations of their own Sacrificial System and was an idea not shared with the majority of the Rabbis of that day. In the time of Jesus nobody attached Isaiah 53 to the death or sacrifice of the Messiah. We will have to wait for Rome's reinterpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures to get this idea fixated in our heads that Isaiah supposedly was speaking of the death of the Messiah. There are many substantial and vital distinctions between Judaism and Christianity. Of course, there are many similarities as well, primarily because Christianity emerged from Judaism. However, the emergence was not a direct line. Christianity broke from Judaism, forming a new religion, with contradictory religious tenets so it is misleading, however comfortable the thought might be, to believe that the two religions are essentially the same, or to see Christianity as the natural continuation of Judaism.

Peter was exceedingly wrong in rebuking Jesus. Hear what Jesus answers him.

*Mark 8:33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

So now we find that when one thinks that the Messiah should not suffer, is here called and labeled with "Satan". The Roman New Testament classifies for all time those who follow the Hebrew Scriptures and their teachings, like Isaiah 53 not referring to the Jewish Messiah or Jesus, tantamount to being Satan. Thinking that the Messiah should not suffer, which is the teaching of the true Hebrew Scriptures, is now called by the supposed Jewish writers of the Gospels tantamount: to savor not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men. So the Jewish opinion that the Messiah should not suffer, is not of God but of men according to the wording of Rome's New Testament.

Answer for yourself: Why was this idea of a dying Messiah/Christ if taken "literally" of such news to Peter? Had not the Hebrew Scriptures taught this then? Should we not expect Peter to be familiar with the concept and not startled when hearing this idea let alone defying it? First of all the Messiah of the Jewish nation was never expected to die when he came. This idea would have been expressed not only by Peter but by other Jews. But in Mark we find the idea that Jesus desired to keep his Messiahship as being secret during his lifetime and being revealed only after his resurrection. As Christianity developed, the idea that Jesus was the Messiah developed along with it along with the idea that Jesus became the Messiah after his death. Key to this is the idea that the death of the Messiah was "a secret" unknown to the Hebrew Prophets like Isaiah. The Jewish nation and Rabbis believe this to be postposterous!

Answer for yourself: Had Peter forgotten the message of Isaiah 53 which every child knew? Had Peter not known that Jesus, the Christ, was the "Suffering Servant" and had come to die? Or was this idea and concept never intended from Isaiah 53? But now you know the truth of the matter and this knowledge of the truth of the Hebrew Scriptures and the purposeful misquotations and mistranslations of the Hebrew Scriptures as found in our New Testaments proves the writers of these documents to be forgers of the Hebrew Scriptures who have "added to" and "taken away" from the Word of God. The whole story of Peter not aware of the "hidden death" of the Messiah who never appeared is all made up by the forgers of the Hebrew Scriptures to sell and imaginary Messiah and Savior to the world; the access to whom came only through the single door of the Catholic Gentile Church!

The New Testament would have us believe that also in Jesus' time there was much lack of understanding of the true function of the Messiah. That was not the case as well but we are to assume that it was knowing no better. To bolster such an idea we have Jesus explaining this "misunderstood function of the Messiah" to his followers in order for them to begin to understand this supposed overlooked truth of the Hebrew Scriptures. So to create such a belief we have Luke 24:45,46 to teach us that the Jews were ignorant of their own Scriptures, which again is a huge lie. To create this idea Jesus is made speaking to the two going to Emmaus. They supposedly did not understand the Scriptures regarding Jesus' suffering, but Jesus "opened their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures. And He said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day".

Answer for yourself: What is the problem here? Hard as you look, there is no Hebrew Scriptures in existence which "ever" taught the Messiah is to be killed and rise the 3rd day from the dead as the New Testament passage attests over and over again!

Matt 20:19 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again. (KJV)

Matt 17:23 23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry. (KJV)

Matt 16:21 21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. (KJV)

Mark 10:34 34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. (KJV)

Mark 9:31 31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day. (KJV)

Luke 9:22 22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. (KJV)

Luke 18:33 33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. (KJV)

Luke 24:7 7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. (KJV)

Luke 24:46 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: (KJV)

1 Cor 15:4 4: "And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures" (KJV).

Answer for yourself: So where does this "death and resurrection on the 3rd day come from as applied to Jesus as the Jewish Messiah" and which is attested over and over again that such a teaching is a fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures? What Hebrew Book do we find it in? Can you tell me? Have you ever looked for one? Find it yet? This whole idea comes straight out of astronomy!

This idea attached to Jesus in the New Testament which is supposedly a fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures is no fulfillment of anything unless we look to the Laws of the cosmos. This idea attached to Jesus and which is mistakenly characterized as a fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures regarding the Jewish Messiah is nothing of the sort and can not be found in any of the Hebrew writings of the first century or earlier. Rather, it is the Divine Concept of cosmos regarding the rebirth of the Sun at the Winter Solstice as the Sun has laid motionless in its path through the Sky and Heavens for 3 days in its southward trek in the and horizon on its way to its allegorical death and immobilization at the Winter Solstice where darkness has increased over light bringing with it the dreaded cold weather and lack of food that threatened the very life and existence of ancient mankind. Due to the allegorical death of the Sun in the Heavens the ancients notices a recurring "pattern" of life in the cosmos: birth, life, death, rebirth; not only in the Heavens, but in Nature and in mankind as well. Remaining fixed at the same most southerly point in the sky for 3 days, December 22, 23, and 24th, the Sun miraculously rises from its death on December 25th as it begin a new northward rise in the Sky prophesying the salvation of man is coming once again in the Spring and Summer harvests owing to the renewal of food chain in nature and all of this was due to the "birth of the Sun from the dead" on December 25th, the date for all births of all the "allegorical Sungods" which is patterned at the same time by Rome into a "literalization of a historical person" named Jesus. Basically the ancient Divine Mystical allegories and myths depicting the "descent of the Soul" and "Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter", as symbolized by the visible Sun in the Heavens and Sky, was "literalized" and "historicized" in the literalization of "the Christ" as "Jesus Christ" in Rome's New Testament. Now you know why we cannot find any, not even one, Hebrew Scripture that indicates the death and resurrection of the Messiah in 3 days. This ancient Divine Concept was never about a Jewish Messiah or a human being, but about the Sun as a visible representation of the Invisible Living Energy and God of the Cosmos and His Laws of the universe that operate in the life of every living person; not just one. This "descent into death and resurrection" was all about the "descent of the Soul into this animal body of matter" and the equal descent to its allegorical death in "matter" of the Divine Mind which "died allegorical" in its crucifixion and impregnation into "matter" as Divine Mind. This Spiritual descent of "Living Energy", its descent, life, death, and rebirth, was understood by the ancients to be painted in the Sky by the path of the Sun (a visible representation of an invisible God) through the Heavens. Philippians 2:6-8 is the truth allegorical truth of the matter; not historical, but Metaphysically interpreted.

Phil 2:5-8 5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. (KJV)

This "resurrection of the Sun" after 3 days of allegorical death in the Sky and Heavens was "literalized" and applied to the Jewish Messiah by Rome as fulfilled Messianic Prophecy and characterized as such in the Roman New Testament and the purposeful forgery of the Hebrew Scriptures allowed Rome to pull this off to the non-Jewish world who knew not the Hebrew Scriptures. We find these Roman forgeries not only in Isaiah but in almost every book in the Old and New Testaments in our Christian Bibles. This not a pretty story; to learn as an adult the truth about the Jesus of the New Testament and the forgery of our Bibles. But let us never forget that Truth is the highest religion ever given man by God.

Answer for yourself: Do you find it rather hard to believe that in the first century, with Messianic fervor raging everywhere, that the followers of a presumed Messiah would not understand their own Scriptures, especially those referring to the Messiah who would be killed and resurrected after 3 days?

Answer for yourself: How could the followers of a presumed Messiah have overlooked something as important in their Scriptures as the death of the coming Messiah?

Mark 16:10-11 10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Do you find it rather hard to believe that in the first century, with Messianic fervor raging everywhere, that the followers of a presumed Messiah (remember they had already called him the "Christ") would have expressed non-belief at the report of Jesus' resurrection if they had believed such a thing was taught in the Hebrew Scriptures? How could they have missed that the Messiah was supposedly to die according to the Prophets and be resurrected after he died? Would they not have said "Amen" instead in the first place?

John 20:9 9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Do you find it rather hard to believe that in the first century, with Messianic fervor raging everywhere, that the followers of a presumed Messiah would not know their own scriptures? The reason they did not is again simple; such a Scripture in the Jewish Bible does not exist!

Answer for yourself: If it was common knowledge that Isaiah 53 had spoken of a Messiah who was to die for the sins of people as their atonement, then why was this news to Peter and why would he try and prevent such a wonderful thing?

Answer for yourself: Could it be that they did not hold the same beliefs about Isaiah 53 as we have attributed to them as Christians?

Even Jesus didn't see Isaiah 53 as crucial to his messianic claims.

Answer for yourself: Why did Jesus request that God "remove this cup from me" (Mk. 14:36) - didn't he know that a "removal of the cup" [escape a supposed atoning death long awaited for by Israel and the world] would violate the future Christian-Gentile understanding of Isaiah 53?

Answer for yourself: Even if we accept the gentile Christian interpretation of Isaiah 53, where is it indicated (either in Isaiah 53 or anywhere else in our Jewish Scriptures) that you must believe in this "Messiah" to be "saved" or be in right-standing with God His Father? It is nowhere to be found!,

JESUS IS THE ANOINTED ONE "CUT OFF" IN DANIEL 9? FULFILLED OR UNFULFILLED?

Needless to say if you have read articles from Bet Emet Ministries for any length of time you have found that the Christian Bibles when compared with the parent texts in the Hebrew Scriptures don't read the same. We have found over and over they reasons for these irregularities and contrived forgeries to be a "theological agenda;" first by the by the Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, which corrupted the Hebrew Scriptures when translated into Greek in order to write within them their concept of the "Angel-Messiah" and later by the early Gentile Church which would transform this solar Angel-Messiah even more in what later would be become recognized as the Christian Old and New Testaments.

The topic of this article deals with more alterations of the Hebrew texts; in particular dealing with the passage in Daniel chapter 9 concerning the 70 Weeks of Daniel and the possibility that it's fulfillment could be connected with Jesus. First we need to look at the text in the KJV Christian Bible.

Dan 9:24-27 24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. 25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. 26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. 27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. (KJV)

Now we need to look at the same passage as taken from the Hebrew Tanakh:

24 Seventy weeks are decreed upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sin, and to forgive iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal vision and prophet, and to anoint the most holy place. 25 Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the word to restore and to build Jerusalem unto one anointed, a prince, shall be seven weeks; and for threescore and two weeks, it shall be built again, with broad place and moat, but in troublous times. 26 And after the threescore and two weeks shall an anointed one be cut off, and be no more; and the people of a prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; but his end shall be with a flood; and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. 27 And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week; and for half of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and upon the wing of detestable things shall be that which causeth appalment; and that until the extermination wholly determined be poured out upon that which causeth appalment.'

On a superficial reading and comparison of the two different texts one might think that they are basically the same. But they are not. As one who has studied this passage in detail and compared the differences between not only the texts but the different theological interpretations between the Jewish people and their scholars and the Christians and their scholars it pains me to say that by using a few mistranslations and misplaced commas the Christian Bible ends up with an amazing, though very clever, misinterpretation of this passage as originally written in the Hebrew Bible.

THE CHRISTIAN INTERPRETATION

The Artaxerxes of Nehemiah 2:1 rose to power in 465 B.C., and so, according to Nehemiah 2:1, the commandment to restore Jerusalem began 20 years later, i.e., 445 B.C. Now, since Christian scholars claim that a Biblical year had 360 days, they multiply 360 by 483 (69 weeks equals 69 periods of seven years- $69 \times 7 = 483$  years). This equals 173,880 days. To change from Biblical years to our solar years, they divide 173,880 days by  $365\frac{1}{4}$ ; this equals 476 years. Now if you add 476 years to 445 B.C. and you will get 31 A.D. Actually, they add a few days, and it ends up around 32 A.D., which is just when they claim that Jesus was crucified. Thus, according to the Christian interpretation, Daniel 9:25, when discussing the Messiah, is referring to Jesus, saying that he will be "cut off" i.e., crucified.

Answer for yourself: Is Jesus the fulfillment of Daniel 9:24-27 as the Christians attest?

There are really many difficulties with this interpretation, which is why the Jews were never impressed with it.

The first problem is that the Christians mistranslated the main verse, verse 25. The way they read it is that after seven weeks and sixty two weeks, the Messiah will come; i.e., after 69 weeks, the Messiah will come.

Answer for yourself: The obvious question is put forth: "Why didn't Daniel simply write 69 weeks, instead of writing 7 plus 62?"

The answer is that they mistranslated the verse. If you translate it correctly, that question disappears. Here is the correct translation as taken from the Hebrew Tanakh:

Know and discern that from the going forth of the word to restore and build Jerusalem unto one anointed, a prince, shall be seven weeks; and for sixty two weeks shall it be built again with streets and moats, but in troublesome times.

Note the main difference...not that it will take 69 weeks before the "anointed one" will come, but rather a mere 7 weeks. If you study this in the original Hebrew, this should be quite clear. Thus, the translation by itself answers the above question of why not simply write 69, instead of 7 plus 62. According to the correct translation, the anointed one will come after 7 week (49 years from the decree to build and restore Jerusalem), the city will remain built for 62 weeks, and after the 62 weeks, (verse 26) it will be destroyed. The Christian translation cannot explain why Daniel had to mention the first seven weeks, and in fact it is a mistranslation. Thus, if a Christian goes to his Bible to refer to this passage as being fulfilled by Jesus then open the JPS Tanakh or the Stone Edition Tanakh (the Jews should know how to interpret their own Bibles) and compare both the Christian and the Hebrew versions he can see the difference in these time periods as determined by the differences in the punctuation between the Hebrew and the English Bibles. The difference is between a "comma" and a "semicolon." The "comma" in the Christian Bibles means that the time period runs consecutively while the Hebrew interpretation is that the time period is divided as indicated by a "semicolon." In the Hebrew texts we find that the prophecy refers to an "anointed one" appearing 49 after the decree to restore and build Jerusalem and then another "anointed one" appearing after 62 more consecutive weeks (434 years). The difference is easy to see if you stop and look closely. The original Hebrew refers to "an anointed" or a "messiah" first coming after 49 years following the decree and not some 483 years later as the Christian interpretation of these same Hebrew texts leads up to believe. The Hebrew texts also refer that 62 weeks or 434 years following this first "anointed one" a second "anointed" will be cut off.

Another major difficulty is that according to the simple, untwisted translation of verse 26, two events were to occur after the 62 weeks:

- another anointed one would be cut off,
- and the city and the sanctuary would be destroyed.

We must stop and notice that again the grammar is very important for Hebrew translation we find a "comma" used connecting two events in the same time period: the cutting off of an anointed at the same time the sanctuary is destroyed.

As you know, Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 A.D., which is 38 years after the death of Jesus which is more than five "weeks" off [over 38 years late]. The death of Jesus and the destruction of the Temple were not a the same time period and passage as you can see cannot refer to Jesus as the fulfillment. Besides that Jesus did not come 49 years following the decree to restore and build Jerusalem. So on both counts so far Jesus cannot be the fulfillment of the Hebrew Scriptures according to the Hebrew Scriptures.

There is no acceptable answer for these missing five weeks according to the Christian interpretation and this other event of an anointed being cut off as applying to Jesus cannot possibly be the fulfillment at it happened 38 years too early!

Another difficulty is that the Jewish year is not really 360 days long. While the months are based on the lunar patterns, the years must coincide with the solar system. You only need consult Maimonides, Laws of Kiddush HaChodesh 1:1, 2 to see this, or simply study the Jewish calendar. You will see that since the solar year exceeds the lunar year by around 11 days, there will be an extra month added around every three years. Thus 445 B.C. plus 483 years (69 X 7) ends up 38 A.D., and by then everyone admits that Jesus was already dead.

BUT WHAT ABOUT THAT LAST WEEK...THAT LAST 7 YEARS?

Another difficulty is that the Christians, for lack of a better answer, claim that the 70th week will take place when Jesus returns in his second coming as a king. The problem was caused because Daniel mentioned a total of 70 weeks, and then he specified 7 plus 62, leaving one remaining. The traditional Christian interpretation says that the first 69 weeks were consecutive, then there is at least a 1900 year gap, and sooner or later the 70th week will occur. This is obviously a very forced explanation, born of desperation. Again not only the grammar and punctuation of the Hebrew Scriptures reveal no break in the sequence of time here as it did before with the use of a "semicolon." The time runs consecutively according to Hebrew exegesis.

WHY WAS THE ORDER OF THE BOOKS OF THE HEBREW BIBLE

CHANGED IN THE CHRISTIAN BIBLE?

There is one other point that should be made and that is the historical context of these verses. On examining the other books of the Bible and their order in the Hebrew Bible it becomes quite apparent that Daniel is referring to Cyrus, of Persia, and not Jesus, whom is the "anointed" who is to appear after seven weeks following "the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem." In Jeremiah 25:1 1, 12, the word of G-d clearly states that the Babylonian exile will last for only 70 years. In Ezra 1:1, it says that "Now in the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom. . .saying Whosoever there is among you of all His people, let him go to Jerusalem, and build the house of the Lord. . ."

Answer for yourself: Do you remember Daniel referring to a "word" going forth to "build and restore Jerusalem."

Answer for yourself: Where do we find that actual "word" in the Hebrew Scriptures from which to start our count of the 70 weeks? We find that word in Jer. 20:10:

10 For thus saith the LORD: After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will remember you, and perform My good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

We find that 49 years following this decree or "word" to return Cyrus will be the conqueror of Babylon and will release the Jewish captives to return to their homeland and help them rebuild their Temple.

In Isaiah 45:1, it says, "Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus. . ." Thus, Isaiah, in the name of G-d, calls Cyrus an anointed one (Messiah), and Ezra discusses how Cyrus fulfilled the prophecy of Jeremiah. Since Daniel lived after Isaiah and Jeremiah but before the period of Ezra, it is most reasonable and probable to affirm that the anointed one that he referred to in Daniel 9:25 is Cyrus, and not Jesus.

The reason why a Christian would have difficulty understanding this is because the compiler of the King James Bible was a shrewd person. In the original Hebrew, both Daniel 9:25 and Isaiah 45:1 use the exact same word-... "moshiach." However, in the Christian version of the Old Testament, the word, "moshiach," is translated in Isaiah 45:1 as "anointed." whereas in Daniel 9:25, the same Hebrew word is translated not only as "the Messiah" but it is also CAPITALIZED on purpose to lead you to a "theological agenda!" Let not forget that "Messiah" is the Anglicized version of "Moshiach"; the pure translation of "Moshiach" is "an anointed one" and NOT CAPITALIZED MESSIAH WHICH CARRIES A CHRISTIAN CONNOTATION THAT THE MESSIAH IS G-D OR JESUS WHEN THE JEWISH MESSIAH WAS ALWAYS A MAN! This deceptive translating makes it virtually impossible for the innocent reader who does not know Hebrew to discern the truth.

In addition, the compiler of the Christian Bible did one other clever maneuver by altering the order of the books as found in the Hebrew Bible. The sequence of the various books of the Bible are arranged in the Christian Bible in a rather peculiar manner: the Pentateuch, Samuel, Chronicles, then Ezra, and then Esther, Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, and then Daniel. In the Jewish Bible, Ezra follows all of the above. The reason for placing Ezra in the Christian Bible before Isaiah, and before Psalms, Proverbs, etc., even though Ezra lived long after those books were written is presumably to fool the reader of the Christian Bible. Had the reader read Ezra immediately after Daniel [where it is found in the Hebrew Bible] which is the correct chronological location, the reader would immediately recognize that the "anointed one" mentioned in Daniel 9:25 is identified in the first verse of the next book as found in Ezra 1:1 as Cyrus. But Isaiah has already told us that in his book. So we sadly see that what we have been taught by our Gentile Christian church and the forging of Daniel in our Christian Bibles and it's creative punctuations is incorrect; Jesus is not the "anointed one" of Daniel 9 who was to come nor the one who was to be "cut off."

Answer for yourself: Who is this "anointed" who is to be "cut off" in 70 A.D.?

Answer for yourself: When the Temple was destroyed in 70 A.D. what else ceased?

Well it should not be that hard to figure out when you realize that only 3 things were anointed by the L-rd in the Old Testament times:

- Prophets
- Kings
- Priests

Answer for yourself: So since Israel did not any longer have a King and since according to the Rabbis the Spirit of Prophecy has ceased in Israel then what remains as the only possible thing that was "anointed"? The priesthood ceased at the same time as the destruction of the Temple. There you have the complete understanding of the "anointed" which was "cut off" in 70 A.D.

In closing let us look at the Hebrew word of "cut off":

If we look at the Strongs' Lexicon we find:

3772 karath (kaw-rath'); a primitive root; to cut (off, down or asunder); by implication, to destroy or consume; specifically, to covenant (i.e. make an alliance or bargain, originally by cutting flesh and passing between the pieces): KJV-- be chewed, be con- [feder-] ate, covenant, cut (down, off), destroy, fail, feller, be freed, hew (down), make a league ([covenant]), X lose, perish, X utterly, X want.

Answer for yourself: What do you see in this word study? You should see two basic ideas:

- destruction and utter consumption of something
- covenant

No where in this word is the idea of murder or killing of an individual that can be applied to a person but instead we find the idea of the destruction of a covenant.

Answer for yourself: Did the Priesthood have their own special covenant with G-d? They sure did and it goes all the way back to the Levites and their refusal to worship the golden calf and G-d separated them out for His very own ever since. And following 70 A.D. the Sadducees (the Priests) ceased to exist as did their function in Israel since the Temple was destroyed. Since Priests were anointed then we clearly see how these "anointed ones" were destroyed along with the Temple and both events happened at the same time as the Hebrew prophecies said they would. To make this refer to Jesus again makes such fulfillment occur some 35 years or so too late! The Priesthood vanished along with the Temple and the prophecy of Daniel 9 was fulfilled: first with Cyrus in 49 years and the Priesthood being destroyed much later.

Answer for yourself: But what of the last 7 years period?

Well this is where you need to know Biblical history in order to understand this part of the prophecy. Roman and Jewish history records for us that 7 years before the 2nd Temple was destroyed Rome, who was occupying Palestine, agreed to allow the Jewish people and priests to maintain the sacrificial system and services. Joseph records that Nero wanted to stop these sacrifices and the sages of Israel pleaded with Nero that they be allowed to continue the sacrifices. Nero relents and allows Israel and the priesthood to continue the sacrificial system. Then 3 1/2 years later, in the middle of the Hebrew week of years, Rome broke that covenant and agreement that they had made with Israel and the priesthood.

27 And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week; and for half of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and upon the wing of detestable things shall be that which causeth appalment; and that until the extermination wholly determined be poured out upon that which causeth appalment.

What we find here is that again this prophecy was fulfilled when Rome violated their agreement or covenant if you wish with the priests of Israel. "He" refers in this passage to the picture of Rome in the use of a singular pronoun which is not uncommon in Hebrew. It is recorded that the Jews often traded with the Romans for lambs so that they could continue the sacrifices but as the soon as the lambs ran out the only animal that they had was pigs and the sacrifices was stopped. This [only having pigs to offer as sacrifices] refers to the "detestable things shall be that causeth appalment" to the sad condition to which Israel and the Temple had fallen. But this was not the end. The "extermination wholly determined" upon Israel had yet to be played out and this further degradation of the Temple and Israel causes "appalment." Hadrian would erect upon the site where the Temple had stood and idol worship would not take place on the very spot where G-d's Shekinah had once resided.

Now you know the truth about Daniel 9. I plan on doing a comprehensive exposition of Daniel 9 where we deal with it in detail in the near future.

Please share this article as well as our other articles with your friends and Pastors as it is way past time to find out about the corruption of the Hebrew Bibles in it's translation and the forgeries and doctored versions we have today that force "fulfilled prophecies" and apply them to Jesus when they never referred to or were fulfilled by him in the first place. Let us both desire to want to know the truth about Jesus, the true Messianic prophecies, and why they were not fulfilled by Jesus or anyone else for that matter and what implications that holds for Jesus as the possible Messiah in waiting....waiting for us to merit the Kingdom of G-d and Israel's King.

THE CHRIST WILL BE RIDING AN ASS INTO JERUSALEM...BUT ONLY AFTER THE GOG MAGOG WAR? FULFILLED OR UNFULFILLED?

Matt 21:5-7 5

Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. 6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, 7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. (KJV)

If you did not know better then you would think that this is a "fulfillment" of Messianic prophecy because the writer of the Gospel of Matthew says it is. Well it is not as you are about to see. In a previous article I addressed the ludicrousness of Jesus supposedly riding as the writer of the Gospel of Matthew reports on two donkeys at one time as something taken out of a Wild Bill Hickcock traveling circus. This absurdity is a telling sign among many that the writer of the Gospel of Matthew was not Jewish because he not only misquotes the passage but takes it completely out of context. Surely this is not what a Jew familiar with the true Messianic prophecies would ever write let alone under the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

First we need to see the passage in the Hebrew Scriptures as taken from the Stone Edition Tankah...the Jewish Bible of choice over the years of my study:

Zech 9:9:

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout for joy, O daughter of Jerusalem! For behold your king will come to you, righteous and victorious is he, a humble man riding on a donkey, upon a foal, a calf of she-donkeys.

First of all notice that Zechariah the prophet records that the King Messiah of Israel will be riding only one donkey at a time and not two at a time as the writer of the Gospel of Matthew records.

Next while there is only a small change between translations of this passage when compared between the Christian Bible and the Jewish Bible, the major difference is that the Christian version infers someone who is simply mild tempered rather than someone who has just lead Jews into battle in the Gog and Magog war and who has returned alive and unscathed from such a victorious battle due to G-d's assistance (hence, the translation of "salvation" into "victory").

Let us look at this "context" in the very next verse from Zech. chapter 9 verse 10:

Zech 9:10

I will eliminate any [battle]-chariot from Ephraim and any [war] horse from Jerusalem, and the bow of warfare will be eliminated; and he (Messiah) will speak peace to the nations, His (G-d's) dominion will be from sea to sea and from the ends of the earth.

Answer for yourself: Does the writer of the Gospel of Matthew fail to include the context of the Gog Magog war in Zech 9:9-10 in his quotation of the passage of the Messiah riding into Jerusalem on an ass following such a battle which he applies to Jesus and passes off as "fulfilled Messianic prophecy? He sure does.

Answer for yourself: Did Jesus before his entry into Jerusalem come from a tremendous victory in the Gog and Magog war where he is G-d's instrument of Israel's victory over the worldwide Gentile persecution of Israel? Sure did not for if he did then no one knew about such a war in Israel as it never happened and the Jews were never victorious over the Gentiles; in fact their persecutions only increased because of Jesus.

What we have here is the blatant lifting of a Hebrew Scripture out of context to suit the religious agenda of the Gospel writer and such travesty and destruction of the Word of G-d in doing so is not a trait of any Jew or Jewish writer which revered the Hebrew Scriptures. Once you embark upon such study in manuscripts and alterations of religious texts and manuscripts then you see repeatedly how the Gentiles would misquote and mistranslate these Hebrew Scriptures to further their political-theological agendas.

Notice also the capitalization of the word "King" as found in the Christian Bible's representation of Zech 9:9 and the absence of such capitalization of the word in the Hebrew.

Zech 9:9 in the Tanakh:

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout for joy, O daughter of Jerusalem! For behold your king [small letters] will come to you, righteous and victorious is he, a humble man riding on a donkey, upon a foal, a calf of she-donkeys.

Zech 9:9 in the KJV:

Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King [capitalized] cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that the Hebrew Scriptures and manuscripts did not capitalize words so that such capitalization in translation is again done purposefully to promote to the reader the "theological persuasions" of those producing the Bible that you read?

Answer for yourself: Why does the Christian Bible capitalize the word "king" and the original Hebrew texts not do it?

Well we have to understand what Constantine and Gentile Christianity in the early 4th century did to Jesus. At the Council of Nicea under the heavy hand of Emperor Constantine Jesus by vote made "G-d." This occurred in 325 A.D. and it would again be only 55 years later in 380 A.D. that Rome would have the officially recognized New Testament and this was after Nicea and the making of Jesus by vote a "G-d." The texts were altered and deleted and added to in these years to "write" such concepts into the New Testament to reflect the beliefs of Nicea. Capitalization of such words as "king" in the above example were done in these religious texts to ensure that the reader again would read and accept such "religious beliefs" decided upon at Nicea regardless of what the Hebrew Scriptures said. Thus the capitalization of such words as "king" in order to add to the texts the concept of not only king but a "G-d-king." This is blatant falsification of translation of the Hebrew Scriptures. You might call this "theological creationism."

There is one more thing to consider. The Christian translation of the Hebrew verses from Zechariah starts with what sounds like an announcement to Zion who does not know that the person coming is the Moshiach. They are taken by surprise. The Jewish version shows that the Moshiach has been known to the Jewish people, he has led them to victory, and that he is returning. Unlike the New Testament quote they "know what is going on and the Messiah needs no introduction."

As stated before the Christian passage and mistranslation of Zech. 9 is taken completely out of context to make it look as if Jesus is the fulfillment when in reality he is not if you read and understand the Hebrew Scripture. The context of this verse in "Matthew" is that Jesus has been thwarted by the Pharisees and the Sanhedrin and the priesthood. He cannot be named a Rabbi, nor a Prophet, and certainly not Moshiach (Messiah). Therefore, using the prophecy stated by Zechariah, he decides to enter the city in a humble, but kingly fashion, with fresh mounts and new clothes. The people before him shout "Son of David!". There is bedlam. Jesus disrupts the Temple activities, and the Jewish authorities see that this man has manipulated the crowd so much, that people are reaching out, people are chanting, people are in a state of religious ecstasy: "Son of David! Son of David!". The Jewish authorities try to keep everything together.

Christian missionaries use this verse to "prove" that Jesus is the Moshiach. The problem is that this verse speaks of the Moshiach who comes back from the war between Gog and Magog. It is Moshiach who returns victorious, and riding a beast that does not represent war, a simple beast that the poorest of people can relate to. It is Moshiach who is arriving with the intent to destroy all items of war as we again see in Zech. 9:10, and to cause all of the Jewish people to be united as one. Notice that this elimination of the weapons of war is accomplished after he rides into Jerusalem on the ass.

Answer for yourself: Is there any account in the New Testament or secular history where such an event occurred among the Gentile nations? No; in fact the war of 70 A.D. was 40 years in the future and the Bar Cochba war another 105 years in the future. For the Jews no "fulfillment" of Zech 9 has ever occurred as of yet? We can say "this" or "that" is a fulfillment of Messianic prophecy and attribute it to Jesus but that does not make it so. This is one of the most serious problems concerning the New Testament...it's credibility in light of the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures which reveal it's deception and purposeful forgery of the Jewish Bible to the unsuspecting Gentiles....just like today as well!

Zech 9:10

I will eliminate any [battle]-chariot from Ephraim and any [war] horse from Jerusalem, and the bow of warfare will be eliminated; and he (Messiah) will speak peace to the nations, His (G-d's) dominion will be from sea to sea and from the ends of the earth.

Jesus did not fight for the Jews. Jesus did not end the friction between Gentiles and Jews. Jesus did not elevate the state of Israel to a status of a place where all Jews return and where all peoples worship the G-d of the Jews. And just because someone rides into Zion on an ass, it does not automatically label them as Moshiach. Let us not forget that at Passover according to Josephus the population of the city increased often to over 5-6 million and uncountable multitudes came riding on donkeys but this did not make them "Messiah." Ask the man who loaned Jesus his ass and colt, who rode those beasts all the time, but never claimed to be Moshiach!

The ridding into Jerusalem on an ass following the victory of Israel and her Messiah in the Gog Magog war is what make this a "fulfillment" and not just the ridding into Jerusalem upon an ass. It is time that Christians and followers of Jesus get serious about the Jewish Bible and study it to learn what Jesus believed and in this way only will we be able to come to the truth concerning the Jewish Messiah and Jesus. Shalom.

WHO ARE THE EBIONITES AND WHAT SHOULD THEY MEAN TO THE CHRISTIAN?

The doctrine of Trinity, which is one of the fundamental constituents of Christian dogma, was absent from Christianity during the lifetime of Jesus Christ. The maximum one can grant is that this doctrine started taking shape after the Crucifixion. It took many centuries for it to reach its final well-defined but inexplicable form. It went through a long process of extremely bitter and controversial debates between Christian theologians and philosophers representing different religious, cultural and traditional backgrounds.

It was greatly influenced by the myths and the traditions of various lands which hosted "Christianity" in its early period. The main stem of Christianity, however, which took care of and nurtured the development of "Christian beliefs" and philosophy in its early formative part was of Jewish stock. Jewish influence remained predominant throughout the early part of Christian history. The disciples of Jesus who learned and understood Christianity directly from Jesus and witnessed it in the form of his life, belonged to this stock. They were the primary custodians of Christianity with deeply embedded roots in the holy soil of Jesus' instructions and way of life. It was they who witnessed the Crucifixion and had seen Jesus after the crucifixion.

THE FIRST FOLLOWERS OF JESUS

Early Christians (Jew and Gentile) appear to have been fundamentally divided over both the nature of Jesus and whether to adhere to the Mosaic Law or not. In the second phase of Christian development (after 50 C.E.), St. Paul became the most pivotal character in giving Christianity a new philosophy and ideology. There were fundamental differences of opinion between Paul and James the Righteous. While James looked after the Jerusalem Church, Paul was preaching in the West, particularly to the Gentiles. The Western Church evolved along Pauline doctrinal lines, whereas the Church in Jerusalem developed along monotheistic teachings.

One offshoot of James' ministry were the Ebionites, a sect whose name derives from the Hebrew "ebionim" meaning 'the meek' or 'the poor'. They were the Jewish Christians, for whom Jesus took on the mantle of Messiah and not that of the 'Son of God'. They followed the Mosaic law with great zeal, and had their own "Gospel" known in various contexts as the 'Gospel of the Hebrews', 'Gospel of the Ebionites' or the 'Gospel of the Nazarenes'. Here is a description of the Ebionites drawn from various sources.

In his book The History of the Church written in the 4th century AD in Caesarea, Eusebius mentions the Ebionites in the book Vespasian to Trajan. Eusebius, the most renowned church historian, mocks the Ebionite views (remember he is a Gentile in the Western Church), saying that their name comes from their poor and mean opinion of Jesus. According to Eusebius, the Ebionites regarded Jesus as mortal (human and not divine) and esteemed him as righteous through the growth of his character. As Jews, the Ebionites observed the Sabbath; every detail of the Law, and did not accept the Pauline idea of salvation through faith alone. Eusebius also talks of another group of Ebionites who accepted the virgin birth and the Holy Spirit, but refused to accept Jesus' pre-existence as "God the Word and Wisdom". They followed a 'Gospel of the Hebrews' which could possibly have been St Matthew's Gospel (written in Hebrew but lost to us today). They observed the Sabbath and the Jewish system, but celebrated the resurrection.

In his book describing the background of the Ebionites, R Eisenman in The Dead Sea Scrolls Uncovered writes that James (the 'Zaddik' or 'Zadok', meaning Righteous) was the leader of the Jerusalem Church in the middle of the first century (40-60 AD approx.) The branch which was retrospectively called Jewish Christianity in Palestine. The Ebionites developed from this branch.

The Community who followed James were known as 'the Poor', (Galatians 2:10, James 2:3-5) a designation mentioned both in the Sermon on the Mount and in the Dead Sea Scrolls. In many ways, Eisenman feels that the Ebionites were similar to the authors of the Dead Sea Scrolls. They honored James the Righteous, and believed Jesus to be their mortal Messiah, while Paul had become an "Apostate from the Law". They observed the Law and the Sabbath with great zeal.

They held James in the highest regard, while Paul was considered 'The Enemy' as spoken and warned of by Yeshua (Matt 13:24-43):

Matt 13:24 (KJV) Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. 26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? 28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. 31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. 33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. {measures: the word in the Greek is a measure containing about a peck and a half, wanting a little more than a pint} 34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them: 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. 36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; 38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked [one]; 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. 41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; {things...: or, scandals} 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

This idea of Paul is definitely different from the light of the redactionist history we find in the New Testament but ample evidence exists which throws a completely different light upon Paul and history. If you would like to see this for yourself it is detailed at our website: <http://faithofyeshua.faithweb.com>. Thus according to the Jewish Christians, or Yeshua's church, Paul was one who deviated from the Mosaic Laws and Commandments and was as far as they were concerned the "adversary" (devil). This may be hard for Christians to understand, yet believe considering what you have heard taught from pulpits Sunday through Sunday your whole life, but what you have heard does not change the facts that have surfaced from both archeology and in-depth Bible study as well as a detailed examination of the extra-biblical documents that exist today for your inspection. Somewhere you have to come to terms with James and the early church's view of Paul as handed down to us for those who wish to inquire. One cannot discount their extra-Biblical writings that have come down to us that severely impugn the "Gospel" Paul preached to Gentiles, and this explains his resentment to the apostles in Jerusalem as recorded in the epistles (reputed pillars...note the sarcasm in his tone when addressing the leadership of Jesus' church).

According to Baigent, Leigh and Lincoln in The Messianic Legacy, the source of the original teachings of the Ebionites, Gnostics, Manicheans, Sabians, Mandeans, Nestorians and Elkasites has been described as the Nazarene philosophy. They refer to Nazarene thought as: 'An orientation towards Jesus and his teachings which derives ultimately from the original Nazarene position, as articulated by Jesus himself, then propagated by James, Jude or Judas Thomas and their immediate entourage.' Their beliefs were:

- strict adherence to the Mosaic Law
- recognition of Jesus as Messiah
- belief in the normal human birth of Jesus
- hostility towards Pauline views

There is a collection of Arabic manuscripts kept in a library in Istanbul which contains quotes from a 5th or 6th Century text ascribed to the 'al-nasara', written in Syriac and found in a monastery in Khuzistan in south-west Iran near the Iraq border. It reflects the views of the Nazarene hierarchy escaping from Jerusalem after the destruction in 66 AD. It refers to Jesus as a human being and stresses the Judaic Law (notice that this is the belief of the first century church and those closest to the historical Jesus).

The inescapable conclusion of the scrupulous student of history, language, and Scripture is that Paul's followers "abandoned the religion of Christ and turned towards the religious doctrines of the Romans."

Of all the various doctrines which evolved during the formative stages of Christianity, only those who believed in the Nazarene philosophy can justifiably be given preference. These early Christians were taught the meaning of Christianity by Jesus himself.

THE ROLE OF PAUL

From the time of St Paul onwards, as Christianity spread to alien lands and pagan faiths within the Roman Empire, it began to be powerfully influenced and bent by the cultures and mythologies prevalent in those lands and went further away from its nascent purity. St Paul did his bit in influencing the deterioration of the "original Christian thought" by introducing his own brand of mysticism. He was neither of Jewish stock nor did he have any direct contact with Jesus, except through his claimed vision. He was already, it seems, under the powerful influence of the alien cultures.

Apparently there were two options available to St Paul, either to fight the strenuous battles against a world of superstitions, myths and legends prevalent in the lands of the Roman Empire from times immemorial or to give in to them and let Christianity change to suit their requirements and ambitions. This gave the Gentiles the message that Christianity was not essentially different from their legends and myths. Paul only recast Judaism in terminology which was already familiar to the Gentile to whom he preached. Thus Paul found the adoption of the second option far more profitable and convenient and let Christianity change to suit the ambitions and philosophies popular in the gentile world.

This strategy worked well in as much as it gained a great number of converts to the new faith which otherwise would not have been easily available. But at what cost. Unfortunately, it ended up only in an unholy competition between noble Christian values and pagan myths. What St Paul changed was only the names of the pagan gods and replaced them with Jesus, God the Father and the Holy Ghost. It was not him in fact who invented the myth of Trinity and introduced it to the pagan world in the name of Christianity, on the contrary he borrowed the myth of the Trinity from pagan mythology and bonded it to Christianity. From then on it was the same old paganism but with new names and new faces.

Pauline Christianity, therefore, did not succeed in changing the doctrines, myths and superstitions of the pagan world but only ended in changing "original Christianity" (Messianic Judaism) in accordance with them. If the mountain did not respond to his call, he decided to go to the mountain.

THE REALITY OF A JEWISH JESUS

Of course it is anybody's prerogative to choose between Pauline Christianity and that of James the Righteous and other early leaders of Christianity who were the disciples of Jesus Christ himself. But here we want to establish the point that the main stock of Christianity continued to develop along Jewish lines and kept itself aloof from the later innovations which generated the rigmarole and complexities of Christian dogmas we see today for Gentile imaginations such as the godhead of Jesus as the Son, the Trinity, Inherited Sin, Redemption, the rejection and replacement of Israel by the church, etc. The views of the early leaders of the original Church, among whom James the Righteous is prominent, were simple and honest and had no internal contradictions or paradoxes hiding behind a smoke screen of mystery as we confront today in the Pauline churches of our land. A study of the history of Judaism in Christianity establishes beyond question the fact that the Unity of God, uncomplicated by the slogan of Trinity, remained the official doctrine of the true Church of Christ in its pristine purity. The faith of Yeshua was Jewish, is Jewish, and will always remain Jewish. It is us who need to reevaluate what we have been taught and believe in light of fact and reason.

Please remember that this short treatise is not an attempt to convert Christians to any faith other than that of the faith both held and practiced by Yeshua (Jesus). It is simply a genuine effort to invite the Christians back to the pure unadulterated faith and practice of Jesus himself. It is a sincere attempt to revert the fiction back to the facts of Christianity. Facts that are certainly as beautiful as they are realistic and satisfy both the head and the heart.

For almost two thousand years, it is not the legends woven around the reality of Jesus Christ that has kept Christianity together and has helped it to survive the challenges of reason and ever growing enlightenment borne out of scientific progress, nor is its survival due to the mystic belief of Trinity. What has held the truth and essence of Christianity together is the beauty of the person and the teachings of Jesus Christ. It is the divine conduct and not the divine person of Jesus that has been so beautiful to adhere to. It was the suffering, patience and perseverance for the sake of noble ideals and his bold upright rejection of all despotic attempts to make him change his principles that is the real backbone of Christianity. It is still as beautiful and as lovable today as it was ever before. It has influenced so powerfully the Christian minds and hearts that they remain bonded to Jesus.

His real greatness lies in the fact that he transcended and conquered the forces of darkness that had conspired to vanquish him despite being a frail human being and no more than a human being. That victory of Jesus is something to be shared with pride by the children of Adam. As we see it from the vantage point of in-depth scholarship, he is one of the most noble progeny of Adam who taught humanity by his example of perseverance in the face of extreme suffering and pain. Not to surrender but to remain steadfast in the teeth of extreme trial was the noblest achievement of Jesus. It was his life of suffering and pain that redeemed humanity and made him conquer death.

To share suffering in life is far better than to escape suffering through death. Hence the concept of the supreme sacrifice of Jesus is magnified not only by his death, but by his life lived in total obedience to his Father. Today, we Christians share in his grace.

The greatness of Jesus, we again insist, lay in his supreme sacrifice during his lifetime. All his life, he defied the temptations to compromise, give in and exchange a life of suffering with that of ease and comfort. The same cannot be said for Paul, when in-depth analysis of his teachings as paralleled with those of Jesus and Judaism often diverge. Day in, day out Yeshua confronted death but refused to give in and lived for the sake of the sinful to bring them to life. He conquered death not by surrendering himself to death, but by refusing to bow down to it. He defeated it roundly and emerged from its clutches where a lesser man would have perished. Thus he proved his truth and the truth of his word and message beyond a shadow of doubt. That is how we see Jesus and that is why we love him so. His voice was the voice of God and not the voice of his own ambitions. He said what he was commissioned to say, neither more nor less than what God had told him to say. He worshipped God throughout his life and worshipped Him alone and never did he require any mortal to worship or bow before

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #1

If you are a Christian this article contains the most important piece of information you will ever read. I behoove you to read the whole article if you want to understand the death of Jesus as God intended.

The facts presented speak for themselves. I pray you will quietly and prayerfully speak to the Father as you read this most enlightening articles. My prayers and blessings are with you.

For the purpose of coming to a correct understanding of Judaism and the "Sacrificial System" and the dynamics on how it operated the articles in this series will be approached from the viewpoint that the Jesus of the New Testament was a "historical person".

That might seem strange that I said that we have to assume that the Jesus of the New Testament is a historical person. Let me say for now that is our premise until proven otherwise but in this early study it is necessary to view the New Testament depiction of Jesus/Jesus as a historical person. As our studies advance we will examine this premise in detail but for now we approach all early studies with this as our premise.

As a Christian you have been told your whole life that two great objectives were accomplished by Jesus in his mission to this world.

- The removal of the curse under which mankind labored as a result of the disobedience and fall
- The restoration of men to the image and fellowship of God.

Both of these things accomplished by the historical Jesus we are taught are essential to mankind's salvation as taught by Gentile Christianity. Christianity teaches that the work of Jesus Christ in reconciling God and mankind is called "the" Atonement; and this doctrine lies at the very heart of the Christian system. Sadly few understand correctly this very important doctrine, the origin of Christianity's claims, nor can the Biblical teaching on Atonement be understood correctly without a proper understanding of the Hebraic roots from which it came. We are altogether dependent on Old Testament Scripture and Jewish writings for our knowledge concerning the doctrine of the Atonement and can know only what God has seen fit to reveal concerning it by examining thoroughly the Sacrificial System through the eyes of Biblical Judaism.

Now what I say next is very important to remember as our studies in Biblical Atonement begin because it is the very foundation of what lies behind the death of Jesus when depicted as a historical person; when "allegory" of the "descent, death, and resurrection of God", as taken from the ancient Mystery Religions, is altered at the hands of Rome to become a "literal-historical" event by later Roman redactors of the New Testament. What most don't know as our study of atonement begins is that when one encounters the teachings of Atonement in the New Testament, which were collected and altered repeatedly by the Gentile Church over the earliest centuries by the way, one is reading the "Gentile accounts of the "fallen gods/goddesses" and their "deaths" when this "Life/Spirit/Living Energy descended into matter" and the "Soul" as well as "the Christ or Divine

Mind" became internalized within humanity". We will come to see later in more advanced studies that the whole idea of the life of this Jesus as an atonement is the replay and repetition of the prior ancient Spiritual Wisdom taken since the foundation of the world which addresses the "descent of gods/goddesses and their allegorical and metaphorical death when Spirit "crossed" over and into "Matter". Notice I said "crossed" as in a "cross" or "intersection" of the Divine Living Energy of the cosmos with "matter". This is where we get the idea of a "cross" in the beginning of time. Behind this idea, replayed over and over since ancient Egypt and all later world nations and religions up and until the rise of Roman Christianity in the 2nd through the 5th century we find this "dying and rising god concept" in every world major religion. This idea of "Spirit" dying in its incarnation into fleshy "matter", needing a resurrection from the dead while humanity yet lives, is the core idea for all later "Atonements" as taken from mystery religions" and is not to be confused with "fulfillments" of Old Testament Scriptures! Now let us look at the New Testament Jesus and his death as an atonement for sin as taught in the Roman New Testament.

Our present purpose in this series of articles is to give a systematized account of what the Jewish Scriptures, the Bible Jews like this first century Jesus used. By "Jewish Bible" I refer to the Palestinian Masoretic Text, the Tanakh. It is here we must look for our original teachings concerning Atonement, and show how the dynamics of atonement interrelated with the Sacrificial System and in so doing apply what we learn to the death of Jesus. In so doing we can see, with this unaltered and first hand knowledge of the Sacrificial System and its dynamic workings, just what place and role, if any, that it has in relationship to the death of Jesus as depicted in our New Testaments.

A CHRISTIAN'S UNDERSTANDING OF THE NEW TESTAMENT IS IMPOSSIBLE WITHOUT A THOUGH UNDERSTANDING OF THE TRUE JEWISH SCRIPTURES

First of all you have to have the correct text. I used to think I had it as a Christian with my favorite KJV; that is until my studies in Judaism advanced and I began to compare the Hebrew Texts with the later translations of them in both the Greek and later English version. I was broken to my very core as my studies advanced and I say with my own eyes that my Christian Old Testament as well as my New Testament did not read anything like the ancient Hebrew Texts in "key" theological places that separates Christianity from Biblical Judaism. I would find, and we will look at a little later, many of these "purposefully altered, purposefully mistranslated, purposefully misinterpreted, and purposefully taken out of context texts along with pure inventions of Scriptures" that exist in our Christian Bibles; texts altered to further Rome's creative theology and "radical reinterpretation" of the ancient Divine Wisdom. This was necessary on their parts if they were to manufacture a new "Replacement Religion"; a religion which they controlled and to which only they held the "keys" to the salvation of the whole of humanity. It was during Seminary when reading "outside the box" concerning the "Jewish Jesus" that I ran into many books by Jewish authors that challenged me to my very core to investigate for myself these "altered texts" which they were sharing with me on the pages of these books. I could not believe that this could have happened to my Christian Bible in the beginning, so taking the challenge I invested almost a whole year in just comparing texts from the Hebrew Bible, the Greek Septuagint, the KJV Old and New Testaments and tracing the texts down through the centuries of Bible translations. There was not enough Kleenex for my tears streaming from my broken heart when I finally surrendered my apologetic defense of my Christian Faith. I had to face the facts of such eye-opening studies. God knew I had seen this for myself and denying it now would have made me a hypocrite, not a good character trait for a young Baptist boy wanting to be a Pastor. I had to bow my knees to the fact that my Christian's Old Testament and New Testament quotes of them is different and tragically dissimilar from the true Jewish Masoretic text in over thousands of places; many of which are located at "key" theological positions that were altered in order to deny and misrepresent Judaism and their original Hebrew Scriptures to the unsuspecting reader. This piece of knowledge should concern you immensely! "Key" earlier Hebrew texts were altered in my Bible dealing with such areas of "theology" like the nature of God, the nature of man, the salvation message from God, forgiveness of sin, atonement, the role of Satan, the frequency of assembly by believers, the role of the Law, the mission of believers to the world, the Biblical Holy days as well as the Sabbath, Messianic prophecies, etc. The list seemed endless. I realized that I did not have a "translation" but rather a "free creationism" of Scriptures at the hands of later Roman editors and redactors whose intent was to devise and sell to the world a "replacement religion" other than that taught through Israel, the "light unto the Gentiles". If you want the facts check out: <http://historyofformationofnewtestament.netfirms.com> and in your spare time examine these "key" texts for yourself. You as a child of God deserve and should demand an accurate translation of these ancient Hebrew Texts and not a falsified free creationism which was long ago adulterated, debased, and "doctored" by non-Jews, who over the centuries, transformed the Hebrew Scriptures and the Jewish faith to suit their plans for world domination through the agency of fear and ignorance. Enough of this preparation and introduction. If you have been reading our materials we have made this most plain over the years. Now to the purpose at hand.

In one of Paul's most condensed and fundamental statements of Christian teaching we read: "For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ (Messiah) died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures," I Cor. 15:3.

Answer for yourself: Even in the corrupt Old Testaments in the Christian Bibles, can you find where the Old Testament prophecies say that Jesus was to die for sin and that he was to be buried and raised on the 3rd day? Go ahead and find it, I will wait and wait and wait and wait for you to find it.

What? You cannot? No wonder; it is not there anywhere! And please don't read into Isa. 53 the concept of an "individual" when the author from chapter 40 on through chapter 66 deals with a "corporate, collective, and national" Suffering Servant, the nation of Israel, and never one individual.

We will save the Isaiah study for later. But know that if you try to read into the passages the idea of a single person, like Jesus, you must try to explain to yourself why the Isaiah writer uses interchangeably over and over again from chapter 40 through chapter 66 both "singular" and "plural" pronouns for his sole subject. Even in light of this literary style used for 26 chapters in a row in the Book of Isaiah, a style that consistently shows us upon close examination that the author is not referring to a single individual, then in light of this fact if you still try to make it refer to a single person then understand that you invalidate completely what Isaiah intended we learn from the passage. Doing such a thing as making both "singular" and "plural" pronouns refer to but one person, in this case Jesus, is called "eisegesis" and is reading into the text your pre-formed theology based upon prior conditioning. Let us not do that; the fruit of such is always error. We are supposed to believe what we can draw out of the unaltered Scriptural texts. The unaltered Scriptural texts must determine our religious beliefs; not our inherited traditions that oppose such unaltered Scriptural texts. Such is exegesis. I recommend exegesis as you can see and because of my Christian background I must fight daily to limit my eisegesis and preconditioning since childhood as much as possible because so much error is burned into my subconscious. We must struggle and fight for the truth. Such makes one Israel, a word that means "one who struggles with God".

IF WE HAD A GOOD KNOWLEDGE OF THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES THEN WE COULD NOT BE MISLED BY BY THE NEW TESTAMENT

First of all understand that the word "Christ" means Messiah in Hebrew. So according to Paul, in the New Testament passage in I Cor. 15:3 he states in his "gospel" is saying that the Messiah died for our sins. Now Paul either wrote or did not write this. We really don't know since so many of these New Testament texts have been edited for centuries. We do know, and will address it later in a complete website, that the authentic Paul is a Gnostic, not a pro-Roman believer. Paul, being a Gnostic, only believed like other Gnostic "believers" in the indwelling of the Spiritual Krst/Karest/Christ/Messiah. These Gnostic Chrestian believers never accepted during the following 5 centuries a "literal or historical" Christ who supposedly died on a cross for the sins of mankind. That was the unanimous belief of all Gnostics until their extinction by the hands of Rome in the 5th century. But, as stated before, for practical reasons and to contrast Judaism and their views of atonement with those of later Roman theology, we will assume that Paul is the writer of this above passage for now.

Answer for yourself: Does the unaltered Hebrew Scriptures teach Israel to prepare for and accept a Messiah who comes to die for their sins? No it does not in fact; it teaches just the opposite and this is where the problem lies. But we as Christians are not aware of this sad fact because our Old Testaments in our Christian Bibles read completely different in "key" doctrinal places from the earlier Hebrew Scriptures. Few Christians are ever enlightened to this fact and die never knowing that their Bibles are simply a fraud and unreliable for "faith or practice".

You might not be able to answer the above question by using only your Old Testament Scripture for now but you will be able soon enough if you continue to study our articles. The Gospel of John in the New Testament states that the "Word became flesh," meaning by most Christian interpretation that Jesus, the Messiah, came from Heaven in the form of flesh. Few ever stop to think that this "Word" that "became flesh" refers to the whole of humanity:

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (KJV)

Christianity answers the above dilemma two ways: one, there was a time the flesh was "not the Word" and a time when the "Word became flesh" in the Virgin Birth. Without going into detail, the idea which was understood and believed by the first Jewish followers concerning Jesus; that of him "becoming" Messiah at his immersion is just another proof that the Virgin Birth teaching is incorrect. If you would like to have the detailed teachings exposing the errors in the Virgin Birth teaching request them from Bet Emet Ministries and we will be glad to see you get them. So, important for your understanding now as we study atonement is that according to the texts this Jesus becomes "the" Messiah (Messiah means anointed and we have record of this anointing of Jesus "without measure" at his immersion when he was 30 years old at the Jordan). Thus this Jesus "becomes the Messiah" at 30 years of age. Incidentally, this is exactly what some of the later Jewish followers of "the Christ" both hoped and believed following the destruction of the Temple after 70 A.D.; namely they, accepting the oral tradition of a "crucified Savior" that failed to fulfill the true Messianic promises in his first coming since Israel did not merit her Messiah, would return and become the Messiah of Israel at his second coming. These were called the Ebionites. This branch of Judaism developed long after 70 A.D. and set their hopes upon a yet coming deliverer and many connected such hopes to a slain Messiah how had been among them but not recognized by Israel. Their writings are available today as well as the records of the early Church historians which reveal to us what the earliest beliefs were concerning Jesus before being changed by the Roman Church in the fourth century and following. They, for the most part, never saw this Messiah as a Divine person, only mortal like themselves. It is not my intention to explain in this article why the prophecies of the Jewish Scriptures were not fulfilled nor deal with the fictional creations of "false-fulfilled" passages in the New Testament in this article. We have that information available to those who would desire it at: <http://www.faithofyeshua.faithweb.com>.

NOW LETS THINK ...

Now let me ask you a question that goes to the very foundation of the core of our beliefs about salvation.

Answer for yourself: Accepting for now that the real Paul wrote I Cor. 15:3 and according to this passage that this Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, then should we not rather try to understand this passage to say that "Christ died because of our sins" instead of "for our sins?"

Critical for our understanding is if Christ's death:

- Was the result of our sins or if his death atoned for sins?
- If Christ's death atoned:
  - For ALL our sins or
  - If his death atoned only for PART of our sins (Yom Kippur/The Day of Atonement teaches us the truth in this regard), or
  - Did his death NOT atone for ANY of our sins?
- Should the emphasis be upon Christ's death or rather his life as an atonement for sin?

We need to look for a second at a very important Scripture, Leviticus 17:11:

Lev 17:11 11 For the life (Soul) of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood (that contains the Soul) that maketh an atonement for the soul. (KJV)

Notice if you will that the "life or Soul" is in the blood. The word "blood" in this text is the object of the preposition "in" and is not the subject of the clause nor the sentence. Every complete sentence contains two parts: a subject and a predicate. The subject is what (or whom) the sentence is about, while the predicate tells something about the subject. The subject of the sentence in Leviticus 17:11 is the word "life" which in Hebrew is "nephesh" or the "Soul". It is the Soul which is the active part of the clause and the subject; it just happens to reside in the blood. The clause specifically states that it is the Soul, not the blood, which atones for sin. Take a deep breath! Hebrew contains a lot of "parallelisms" and in these two clauses we find "synonymous parallelism" where the same thing is said twice. We see upon close scrutiny that God gave "it", a modifier of the previous subject "the Soul" as the active agent in atonement and forgiveness of sin, not the object of the preposition which is "blood". We should reflect right now what implication does this new knowledge have upon one new understanding of atonement.

Answer for yourself: Do you see that the "blood" is only passive in this sentence and that the Soul is the active agent that obtains atonement? What is the role of blood in this process and why was it thrown upon the altar? We will get to this soon but for right now understand that the Soul and its thoughts and actions is the ONLY atoning agent that Biblical Judaism ever taught; it is one's life and mind and actions which atones for his own sin; not the sin of another. Wow, what a shot heard round the world!

Before we get to the very heart of this issue we must come to a better understanding of the Sacrificial System in order to correctly consider if Jesus' death can be understood as a proper sacrifice within the Law and the dynamics within the Sacrificial System and if it truly affected the forgiveness of mankind's sin.

LAWS OF THE SACRIFICE

The terminology used with regard to the patriarchal age is that of the Torah as a whole; it is unlikely that the same words in Genesis mean something different in the other Books of Moses. Thus, Cain and Abel each brought a "gift" (minhah; Gen. 4:4f.), which was usually of a cereal nature as brought by Cain (Lev. 2). Notice this is not a sin offering! Noah offered up a burnt offering ("olah"; Gen. 8:20ff.) and the pleasing odor of the sacrifice is stressed. Job is also depicted as making burnt offerings periodically (Job 1:5) and for specific purposes (Job 42:7-9). The burnt offerings, signifying complete surrender to God, were by far the most frequent sacrifices at the Israelite sanctuary. Again these offerings by Noah and Job were not "sin" offerings and only showed the complete devotion and surrender of the "offerer's" heart to God as he demonstrated and testified to his relationship with God through such "gifts".

I need to repeat the last statement as it will have major significance as you continue to read.

These burnt offerings [olahs] as seen in Cain, Able, Noah, and Job only showed the complete devotion and surrender of the "offerer's" heart to God as he demonstrated and testified to his relationship with God through such "gifts".

The Patriarchs normally are said to have "called on the name of the Lord," e.g., Abraham (Gen. 12:8, 13–4; 21:33) and Isaac (Gen. 26:25). The association of this phrase with the building of an altar shows that it refers to the approach to God through sacrifice. With Jacob the naming of the specific altar is stressed (Gen. 33:20; 35:7). Once Abraham is said to have offered an "olah" (Gen. 22:13) but Jacob (Gen. 31:54; 46:1) offered "zevachim". Again these were NOT "sin" offerings NOR were they intended for Atonement.

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that we find no "sin offerings" up through Abraham and his sons? Why not? How did man approach God and obtain forgiveness for his sins if he did not bring "sin offerings"? Hold on, we will get there but let the fact stagger your mind that for thousands of years, even as far as 1,500 B.C.E. man NEVER brought "sin offerings" to God!

Now let us look at "offerings" and "sacrifices" from Moses to Samuel. The covenant sacrifice inaugurating the relationship between the Lord and His people (Ex. 24:3–8) is not paralleled by specific rituals in the Mosaic liturgy. Burnt and peace offerings were first offered and then the blood from them (not from a sin offering) was thrown half against the altar and half upon the people. These were not "sin offerings". In the land of Canaan the Israelites made sacrifices at various places, e.g., at Bochim (Judg. 2:1–5) and Ophrah (Judg. 6:24–26). The human sacrifice of Jephthah's daughter (Judg. 11:30–40) was hardly normative; instead it is pointed out as evidence of Israel's sad spiritual state at that time. The main center for sacrificial ritual was at Shiloh (I Sam 1:3ff.), where faithful Israelites came for an annual festive offering. That the ritual there was highly developed and detailed is proven by the explicit description of malpractice on the part of Eli's sons (I Sam 2:13–17) in taking their portion of the meat before the entrails were burned. However, Shiloh was not the only legitimate place of sacrifice; others included Beth-Shemesh (I Sam 6:14–15), Mizpah (I Sam 7:9), Ramah (I Sam. 7:17; 9:11–24), and Gilgal (I Sam. 10:8; 11:15; 13:9). Family and clan sacrifices were commonplace (I Sam. 16:2–5).

Answer for yourself: What should we learn from the above?

Common to all these instances was "sacrifices" for other reasons than "sin offerings"! This is so very important to grasp! What you need to know is that in the Old Testament the first mention of animal sacrifices for "sin offerings" was AFTER the Golden Calf and the sin of idolatry by a people already possessing relational knowledge of the True God

Answer for yourself: Then how did mankind obtain forgiveness of sin up until the Golden Calf and the idolatry associated with it? Can you fathom that mankind on this planet never brought "sin offering" to God up until the time of Moses and the 18th Dynasty of ancient Egypt which is dated to be around 1,350 B.C.E.? Surely mankind sinned from their beginning and must have been given a way of obtaining atonement prior to the Exodus. What was it? Is it still in affect today? Does Judaism teach this? Does Christianity teach this? Well stay tuned!

THE SACRIFICES OF THE OLD TESTAMENT AS UNDERSTOOD AND INTERPRETED BY THE JEWISH NATION

Throughout the last 1,800 years few if any attempts have been made by Christianity to interpret the dynamics and working of the Sacrificial System correctly. Christianity has seen fit to interpret the Sacrificial System completely different than how the Jewish people and their Rabbis understood it and with good reason. Had they done so and restored the true understanding to the Jewish Sacrificial System and the proper function of "blood" within it then doing so would have totally exposed the incorrect theology adopted by Rome as applied to the death of Jesus as depicted in the Roman New Testament. Without a correct and proper understanding of the Old Testament Sacrificial System the typical Christian will be continually misled in his understanding of Biblical Atonement and literally "thwarted in coming to the truth concerning Biblical atonement as taught by Moses and the prophets. The proposed explanations and interpretations of Sacrifice and of the Sacrificial System can be divided into three categories: symbolic, judicial, and rational.

SYMBOLIC MEANING OF SACRIFICES

Philo devoted a treatise to the subject of the symbolic interpretation of sacrifices (De Victimis; see Spec. 1:112–256). He pointed out that only domesticated animals and the most gentle birds were suitable for sacrifice and that they had to be free of blemish. But the bird was not the real subject that needed to be free of "blemishes"; it was the person who brother the bird who had to free of sin and blemish. Not the bird, but rather the person bringing the sacrifice must be wholesome in body and soul and this Spiritual condition was "represented" in the being of the bird. The bird without blemish represented the Soul of the person bringing the sacrifice of the bird. The bird contributed nothing to the sacrifice, it was the condition of the Soul that presented itself before God in the offering of the bird solely as the symbolic representation of the Soul. Interesting to note the Soul was always represented in the ancient Egyptian religion as a bird since like the bird the Soul was to "fly to Heaven". This meant for the Jewish people that they had to approach the altar with their soul purged of its passions and viciousness if the sacrifice was to be acceptable by God otherwise it was not acceptable. The condition of the person before he brought the sacrifice was determined by his contrition over his sin, this confession of sin, his repentance of sin, and his restitution to those he has wronged by his sin that determined the actual Spiritual condition of his Soul when he brought his offering; an offering that was but a reflection of his hidden Soul which only God could see (Spec. 1:166/167, 257).

Take notice of the spiritual condition necessary BEFORE the sacrifice was to be presented at the altar. A person's soul had to be purged of sin "IF" the sacrifice was to be acceptable to God.

The reader needs to understand NOW that there were prior Spiritual conditions that needed to be met by the Soul of those who brought sacrifices before the sacrifice was to be brought to the altar. Now lets pick up with Philo.

The wicked would be rejected, even if they offered hundreds of sacrifices (Spec. 1:271). The actual condition of their Soul in spite of the visible perfect and blemishes offering was the determining factor with God if the sacrifice would be accepted. Only God and the person brining the sacrifice knew the truth. The Rabbis stated that the sacrificial statutes indicated that God is with the persecuted. The ox is pursued by the lion, the goat by the leopard, and the lamb by the wolf. Therefore God commanded, "Do not offer those that persecute, but rather those that are persecuted" (Lev. R. 27:5). The requirement that fowl be offered with their feathers symbolized that a poor man was not to be despised. Therefore his offering was placed on the altar in its full adornment, despite the nauseating odor normally arising from the burning of feathers (Lev. R. 3:5). Salt, an indispensable ingredient of sacrifice, was symbolic of the moral effect of suffering, which purifies man and causes sins to be forgiven (Ber. 5a). Judah Halevi declared that the fire on the altar was kindled by the will of God as a sign that the people found favor in His sight and that He was accepting their hospitality and offerings (Kuzari 2:26). Samson Raphael Hirsch explained that the Pentateuch required the person to lay his hands upon the head of the sacrifice to indicate that the "hands" that have become morally weakened "support" themselves on the resolution of the future betterment that is expressed by the offering (his commentary to Lev. 1:4). David Hoffmann declared that sacrifices are symbols of man's gratitude to God and his dependence on Him, of the absolute devotion man owes to God, as well as of man's confidence in Him (Introd. to commentary on Lev. (Heb. ed.), 64–67).

JUDICIAL MEANING OF SACRIFICES

The juridical approach to understanding sacrifices is put forward by Ibn Ezra (commentary to Lev. 1:1) and to some extent by Nahmanides (commentary to Lev. 1:9). According to them, the sinner's life is forfeit to God, but by a gracious provision he is permitted to substitute a faultless victim. His guilt (not his sin) is transferred from himself to the offering by the symbolic act of placing his hands on the victim; this only transferred one's guilt and not his literal sin.

The reader should understand RIGHT NOW that this is something new he has never heard in his Christian Church. It was the guilt and not the sin that was transferred to the innocent animal. This means that no sacrifice ever would or could carry the sins of another.

But when we get to the New Testament we hear a completely different understanding of the Sacrificial System which the Jewish people and their Rabbis have refuted now for over almost 2,000 years. It is stated in 1 Peter 2:24, "and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross,...". This simply is a complete misunderstanding of the Jewish Sacrificial System and the role and function of the representative animal. Never did the animal become the carrier of the sin of the sacrificer because the person brining the sin offering was, according to the Torah, to have previously repented of his sin before ever bringing a sacrifice to the Temple. Has the person obeyed the Word of God he would have previously confessed his sin, been remorseful over his sin, turned and repented from his sin, and done acts of righteousness and charity before ever bringing his sacrifice to the Temple. In so doing he would have stood before God at the altar in the Temple and been in a condition of "sinlessness"; there would have been no sin present in that person's life that any animal sacrifice could have ever carried or bore. This shows us that such a statement in 1 Peter 2:24 is an utter falsehood and a complete purposeful misrepresentation of the Sacrificial System as well as how atonement was ever accomplished in the life of a person.

Answer for yourself: What does this say about Jesus being another's sin offering and sacrifice? What does this knowledge of Biblical Judaism and how the Sacrificial System actually operated as well as the role and function of the sacrifice say about Jesus carrying the sins of another as some type of representative sacrifice?

According to the Laws of the Sacrificial System we see clearly that Jesus, a type and shadow of the sacrificial offerings of the Sacrificial System, could not according to the Laws of the Sacrificial System ever carry the sins of another, let alone the world, as some type of atonement offering. Somebody has purposefully misstated the truth about the role of the sacrifice in the Sacrificial System and related it incorrectly to the death of Jesus. In so doing this errant writer, who surely is not the apostle Peter who, being Jewish, perfectly knew how the Sacrificial System operated, has purposefully clouded the issue of Biblical sacrifice in these New Testament texts. In so doing he has erroneously connected the death of Jesus as sort of an offering and sacrifice which is supposed to bear the sins of the world in his body but that again was never the role or intent of the sacrificial animal; the sacrificial animal was only a symbolic representative of the Soul of the sacrificer at the time he makes the sacrifice. Here we have uncovered outright purposeful deception on the pages of the New Testament in order to make Jesus' death appear to be an atonement for sin. Now back to Ibn Ezra.

Christian writers, when later considering the accounts of the Sacrificial System, observed and took note of the pouring out of the blood and the burning of the sacrifice. Failing to understand Lev. 17:11, where we previously saw according to Biblical Judaism and the teaching of the Rabbis that the "blood" was only a "symbol for the Soul", these Christian writers mistakenly believed that the "blood" was the active agent in the Sacrificial process and not the Soul of the sacrificer prior to brining the sacrificial animal. Lost completely to their awareness, either purposeful or unintentionally, is the symbolic representation of the sacrifice with the Soul of the person brining the sacrifice. Missing this most important dynamic of the Sacrificial System, we find many then erroneously interpreting the whole of the Sacrificial System and in so doing writing that "the person should acknowledge that were it not for divine grace he should be the victim, expiating his sin with his own blood and limbs". Many Christian exegetes adopted this explanations and on it built the whole theological foundation of their Church.

RATIONAL MEANING OF SACRIFICES

Quite different is the rational view of sacrifice advocated by Maimonides. Maimonides held that the sacrificial service was not really of Jewish origin. Maimonides maintained: "It was the universal custom among all peoples at the time of Moses to worship by means of sacrifices. Since the Israelites had been brought up in this atmosphere, God realized that they could not immediately completely abandon sacrifice. He therefore limited its application by confining it to one place in the world, with the ultimate intention of weaning them from the debased religious rituals of their idolatrous neighbors".

Answer for yourself: Dear one, did you hear that? God was in time to wean His people from the pagan idolatrous forms of worship; some of which that contained animal sacrifices. It is these pagan sacrifices that had incorrectly influenced the people of Israel and God was intending over time to wean Israel away from blood sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: What should this say to us?

This means that over time Israel will come to see that "atonement" was to be obtained ways other than with "blood". That is why we find in the Hebrew Scriptures many different ways other than "blood sacrifices" whereby man can make atonement for his sin.

Answer for yourself: Can you now, having seen the symbolic interpretation of the Sacrificial System and the role of "blood" and the role of the "sacrificial animal", the judicial view of the Sacrificial System, and the rational view of the Sacrificial System, see also clearly that "blood" was never necessary to accomplish true atonement? Can you now see that "blood" was never required as a "active agent" in obtaining atonement but rather atonement was obtained by a living Soul that repents of its sin, confesses its sin, turns and repents from its sin, and active practices acts of righteousness and charity because of its sin? Can you see that such a repentant Soul then has the right to stand at the altar with God and by proxy lay itself on the altar with God in the form of the "blood" of the sacrificial animal (the blood of the animal is its Soul and it is this animal's Soul (its blood) which represents the Soul of the sacrificer placed on the altar with God)?

We should see clearly now that there will come a time in the life of Israel where they will no longer need to bring blood sacrifices but depend on other ways given by God to obtain atonement for their sin. This has happened even before the destruction of the Temple and has occurred now for the Jewish people who no longer have their Temple for almost 2,000 years. Biblical Judaism has known for over 3,000 years that it is not necessary to perform "blood sacrifices" to obtain atonement for sin since they have as well understood correctly that the "blood" served only a symbolic purpose in representing the Soul of the sacrificer at the time that he brought his sacrifice to the altar. It is we Christians who don't know this because most of us know not the slightest things about Judaism. This needs to change if you ever hope of making sense out of the New Testament and discerning the "truth within it" from the "fiction and falsehoods within it" as well.

The new service of "confined sacrifice" in one place in the world stressed the existence and unity of God, "without deterring or confusing the minds of the people by the abolition of the service to which they were accustomed and which alone was familiar to them." Maimonides cited the experience of Israel, led not by the shorter way, but by the circuitous route through the land of the Philistines (Ex. 13:17). Likewise, through a circuitous road, Israel was to be led gradually and slowly to a deeper perception of religion and divine worship (Guide, 3:32). He gives the added remarkable parallel that it would be equally incomprehensible for anyone in his generation to suggest that prayer could be offered in thought alone, without the recitation of words.

Abrabanel strengthened the arguments for Maimonides' viewpoint. He explained that only within this framework can it be understood why the Torah limited the Sacrificial Service to one locality while prayers may be recited in all places (Introd. to his commentary on Lev., 2d). Abrabanel cites a Midrash which stated that the Hebrews had become accustomed to sacrifices while in Egypt. To wean them from these Egyptian sacrifices and practices, God commanded, while accepting the sacrifices that had been practiced by His people as influenced by the Egyptian, they were to be offered in one central sanctuary and not in many as were done in ancient Egypt.

The reader should understand that God was going to do a new thing. God was to allow the continuation of these "prior sacrifices" but He will instill a new meaning to them that was to be unique to this new people of God who was separating from the ancient Egyptian peoples. This will be seen in the development of a unique personal relationship between the sacrificer and God Himself through the Sacrificial System. You will see how this works when we look deeper into the concept in Leviticus that "the life is in the blood". God is not concerned about blood, but the life...the soul contained within the blood!

With the destruction of the Temple and the automatic cessation of the Sacrificial System, it was laid down that prayer took the place of the sacrifices because such ideas are also taught in the Old Testament. The Shaharit service was regarded as taking the place of the morning tamid and the Minhah service, the afternoon tamid. On all occasions when an additional offering was brought, the Musaf prayer was introduced (Ber. 4:1, 7; 26b). One of the rabbis later declared that prayer was even more efficacious than offerings (Ber. 32b). In the wake of the destruction of the Temple these added prayer services functioned as a form of atonement. The typical Christian response is that the Jewish people are without an atonement because they have lost their Temple and can no longer perform "blood sacrifices". Such statements are outright illiterate and betray the uneducated minds of those who speak such error. Such statement only betrays the lack of knowledge of the Hebrew Scriptures which teach several different ways commanded by God for mankind to obtain forgiveness of sin and personal atonement. Let us not forget what we saw earlier: namely, that God was progressively weaning the Jewish people from animal sacrifices (the physical) with the intent of Spiritual sacrifices such as prayer, repentance, almsgiving, charity, etc.. This is the message of the Prophets!

THE SPIRITUAL DYNAMICS OF SACRIFICE THAT WE JUST DISCUSSED ...SEEN IN DETAIL

When the glory of the Lord had entered the tabernacle in a cloud, God revealed Himself to Moses from this place where He would put His Name, according to His promise in Ex. 25:22, in order to make known His will through Moses to the people. The first of these revelations related to the sacrifices, in which the Israelites were to draw near (korban) to God, that they might become partakers of His grace.

The patriarchs, when sojourning in Canaan, had already worshipped the God who revealed Himself to them, with both burnt offerings and slain offerings (we saw this above in the form of "burnt offerings"). We already have seen that the Jewish people are told by their own Rabbis that they were allowed to continue the sacrifices of ancient Egypt do performed these sacrifices thousands of years before the Jewish people ever existed. Whether their descendants, the children of Israel, had offered sacrifices to the God of their Fathers during their stay in Egypt, we cannot tell as there is no Biblical allusion whatever to the subject in the short account of these 430 years. Yet we know from archeology that such was the case: Israel performed sacrifices along with the Egyptians during their stay in Egypt. What is certain is that they had not forgotten to regard the sacrifices as a leading part of the worship of God (since sacrifice when properly understood is all about the Soul), and were ready to follow Moses into the desert, to serve the God of their Fathers there by a solemn act of sacrificial worship (Ex. 5:1-3; 4:31; 8:4). Even after the Exodus from Egypt not only did Jethro offer burnt offerings and slain offerings to God in the camp of the Israelites, and prepare a sacrificial meal in which the elders of Israel took part along with Moses and Aaron (Ex. 18:12), but young men offered burnt offerings and slain offerings by the command of Moses at the conclusion of the covenant (Ex. 24:5). Consequently sacrificial laws of these chapters presuppose the presentation of burnt offerings, meat-offerings, and slain offerings as a custom well known to the people over a long period of time and a necessity demanded by their religious feelings. Understand that sacrifices were not introduced among the Israelites for the first time by Moses by what he learned at Sinai, because animal sacrifices date from the earliest period of mankind. The ancients understood that "life (Soul) was in the blood" and that sacrifice was all about the Soul and its Spiritual condition before God.

Answer for yourself: Are you curious why we have not found one "sin offering" yet and we are up to Moses in our time-line? Why not "sin offering" yet? Has man been out of relationship with God since he had no "sin offering"? No, we see repeatedly "burnt offerings", "peace offerings", and "thanksgiving offerings" being offered since the beginning of the Bible whereby man maintains his relationship with God. All of this mind you without a "blood sacrifice" or "sin offering". That should make you think and only reiterates what I have taught you here. We seen repeatedly that "blood" accomplishes nothing in the Sacrificial System; rather it is only symbolic of a person's Soul and its true relationship with God.

The subject of sacrificial laws in the book of Leviticus was not to enforce sacrificial worship upon the Israelites, nor to apply some sort of a theory concerning the Hebrew sacrifices, but simply to organize and expand the already existing sacrificial worship of the Israelites they learned in Egypt into an institution in harmony with the covenant between the Lord and His Hebrew people, and in so doing adapt and promote the end for which it was established...communion and fellowship with God. You need to fully understand what was just said. Read it again please.

But although sacrifice in general reaches up to the earliest times of man's history, and is met with in every nation, it was NOT enjoined upon the human race by any positive commandment of God, but sprang out of a religious necessity for fellowship with God. These sacrifices assumed very different forms in different tribes and nations, in consequence of their estrangement from God, and their growing loss of all true knowledge of Him. Their ideas of the Divine Being were regulated by the nature, object, and significance of the sacrifices they offered, and they were quite as subservient to the worship of idols as to that of the one true God.

Interesting by its absence is any mention of SIN OFFERINGS, PRIESTHOOD, EXPIATION or FORGIVENESS in the PRE-Mosaic sacrifices of the Old Testament....in other words we cannot and do NOT find any mention of "sin offerings" or "priesthood" or "forgiveness offerings" or "expiation offerings" before the Golden Calf incident....more on that soon.

This is very important and you need to let this fact sink deeply into your Christian theology!

Mankind knew what we as Christians don't today. God has always told man how he can become "acceptable to God" without blood sacrifices. Biblical Judaism has taught for more than 2,000 years that salvation or repentance from sin cannot be achieved through sacrifice on another's behalf because according to Deuteronomy 24:16: "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers; every man shall be put to death for his own sin."

Instead of substitutionary atonement as taught in Roman Christianity the Hebrew Scriptures and their Egyptian counterparts have taught for several thousands of years that mankind should be focused during his life upon the requirements of personal repentance. According to Ezekiel 33:11 we see:

Say unto them: As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Again, according to Ezekiel 33:19 we see:

And when the wicked turneth (repenteth) from his wickedness, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

We find the same testimony in the writings of the prophet Jeremiah in chapter 36:3:

It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return (repent) every man from his evil way, and I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

In addition, Judaism focuses on understanding how one may live a sacred life according to God's will in this world, rather than the hope of or methods for finding spiritual salvation in a future one. The Hebrew Scriptures teach that Israel, or the Jewish people, should view their divine obligation to be living as a "holy people" in full accordance with Divine will, as a "role model to the nations," and Judaism does not purport to offer the exclusive path to salvation or the "the one path to God." Accordingly, the implications of the Christian conception of Jesus and its imposed theological meaning to his death not only contradicts the very Hebrew texts themselves upon which Christianity is based but distorts terribly the dynamics of the Sacrificial System and its application to obtaining atonement of one's sin before God.

Man makes himself acceptable to God through faith, repentance, prayer, and acts of righteousness and charity. This being the truth of the whole of the Law, Prophets, and Writings of the Hebrew Scriptures, the same Scriptures that the Gospel of Matthew records that Jesus states that he came not to destroy, then we should begin to see why there are important reasons for the omission of "sin offerings" until 1,350 B.C.E. These "sin offerings" were not needed for "forgiveness of sin" nor for "atonement of one's sin" before God; their role according to Biblical Judaism, when correctly understood, were purely symbolic of the person's Soul and its right standing before God.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #3

We continue in this third article with our studies into Biblical atonement as well as any relationship it might have with the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament.

FORGIVENESS WAS NOT THE THEME OF SACRIFICES BEFORE MOSES AND THE GOLDEN CALF - RATHER SACRIFICES REPRESENTED THE SOUL'S FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD

According to the Genesis account, before the Biblically depicted "fall of man" we find that mankind lived in blessed unity with God. This unity was destroyed by sin, and the fellowship between God and man was disturbed, thought not entirely abolished. In the punishment which God inflicted upon the sinners, He did not withdraw His mercy from men; and before driving them out of paradise, He gave them clothes to cover the nakedness of their shame, by which they had first of all become conscious of their sin. Even after the expulsion He still manifested Himself to them, so that they were able once more to draw near to Him and enter into fellowship with Him. This fellowship (NOT forgiveness) they sought through the medium of sacrifices, in which they gave a visible expression not only to their gratitude towards God for His blessing and His grace, but also to their supplication for the further continuance of His divine favor. It was in this sense that both Cain and Abel offered sacrifices [these were burnt offerings and NOT sin offerings...remember?], thought each not with the same motives or in the same state of heart and Soul toward God. It is important to remember that in reality the offering that is brought to God is symbolic of the Soul so in reality it is the Soul that brings itself as "the sacrifice". In this sense of fellowship and not forgiveness Noah also offered sacrifices [burnt offerings and NOT sin offerings...remember?].

After Noah's deliverance from the flood; something changed in the offering of sacrifices. Whereas the sons of Adam offered their sacrifices to God from the fruit of their labor, in the tilling of the ground and the keeping of sheep, Noah presented his burnt offering from animals like the clean cattle and birds that had been shut up with him in the ark (those animals would from that time forward would also be assigned to man as food...Gen. 9:3). Noah was probably led to make this selection by the command of God to take with him into the ark not one or more pairs, but 7 of every kind of clean beasts. Noah may have discerned in this an indication of the divine will, that the 7th animal of every description of clean beast and bird should be offered in sacrifice to the Lord, for His gracious protection from destruction by the flood. Also notice the distinction of "clean and unclean" foods long before the Sinai experience. Moses, in Leviticus revelation, also received a still further intimation as to the meaning of the animal sacrifices. We see this in a prohibition which God appended to the permission to make use of animals as well as green herbs for food: "flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat" (Gen. 9:4-5). This prohibition to not eat blood is because the flesh still contained the blood as the animal's Soul (remember we saw that the Soul and the "Divine Life of the Soul" actually lives in the blood of the animal according to Leviticus 17:11?). In this there was already an intimation, that in the bleeding sacrifice the Soul/life of the animal was given up to God with its blood. Therefore, the animal's blood served as the vehicle of the Soul. Thus animal sacrifice and the offering of blood became the most fitting means of representing the surrender of the human Soul to God. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT TO GRASP! You will quickly come to see over and over again that although we see the word "blood" used over and over again through our Bibles in reality the "blood" was only symbolic of the Soul and the "blood" actually accomplished nothing; rather it was a picture or image of the Soul of the person who brought the animal sacrifice to offer to God.

THE SOUL OF THE ANIMAL AS FOUND IN IT'S BLOOD REPRESENTED, WHEN PRESENTED ON THE ALTAR, THE SURRENDER OF THE HUMAN SOUL TO GOD

It is not the "blood" on which we should focus but rather the "Soul" which is in the "blood". But when all we have ever heard our whole lives from the pulpits of our churches is about the "blood" or "blood of Jesus" we are ill equipped to understand that that this "blood" is but a symbol of the Soul and this "blood" is but the passive part of the Sacrificial System which only testified to the Soul's standing before God. The Sacrificial System was an outward expression of an "internal condition" of the Soul of the person bringing the sacrifice. The Sacrificial System only demonstrated the Soul's surrender to God. When the "blood" was placed upon the altar in reality it is the "life in the blood" which was placed on the altar. Thus, this "life" or this "Soul of the offerer of the sacrifice" was placed on the altar in lieu of the animal's Soul since he had laid hands upon the sacrificial animal and this sacrificial animal had become his proxy. The "blood" of the animal containing its sinless Soul was to be a perfect representation of the current condition of the Soul of the sacrificer since it was given that the sacrificer had previously obeyed the Torah by turning from his sin, confessed his sin, prayed to God about his sin, and repented of his sin and done charitable and righteous deeds before bringing his "sin offering" to the place of sacrifice. The sacrificer, having done these necessary Spiritual requirements commanded in the Torah, then the Soul of the animal was a perfect representation of the Soul of the person bringing his sacrifice to the altar. The animal was literally the extension of the person bringing the sacrifice. Often the sacrificial animal had been taken from the family's stock and the sacrificer had invested his very life and energy into this animal over its life. Thus, the animal had invested in its very being the very "life" and energy of the sacrificer. The bond between this animal and the sacrificer was there. So we see that when the blood of the animal was placed on the altar even more so it was if the very "life" and "Soul" of the sacrificer who had cared for, fed, and groomed this animal was placed on the altar instead.

God would not have a human being sacrifice his life and blood and place it upon the altar as a demonstration of "communion" and "fellowship" with God. Instead with Noah the animal became the symbol that God choose to express "fellowship" between God and mankind. Beginning with Noah, the animal, instead of the fruits of the ground, was to become the extension of a person's life and his Soul. The person bringing the animal had fed, groomed, and cared for the animal usually. It was part of his life and his life and his energy had been invested into the care of the animal. So when the "blood" of the animal was taken and offered upon the altar in reality it was the Soul of the animal that was offered, which again according to the Jewish understanding of the working of the Sacrificial System, "represented" the Soul of the person who had invested his life and energy upon the animal. Thus, we see ultimately it was the Soul of the person who brought the animal to the altar which was "symbolically" placed upon the altar in the blood of the animal. Understand the animal was innocent having never sinned. This "innocence" representative of the Soul of the animal was likewise to be pictured in the Spiritual condition of the Soul of the person bringing the sacrifice. The person bringing the sacrifice was ALREADY to have repented of his sin, confessed his sin, prayed to God about his sin, and made restitution to his fellowman in righteous and charitable deeds if needed BEFORE he ever brought the animal to the altar. Then when the would be sacrificer had done these Spiritual necessities PRIOR to bringing the animal to the altar, then the person's Soul was AT-THAT-

MOMENT (atonement) in right standing with God and he was accepted in renewed communion with God. He was "one" with God. He had obtained atonement right then, long before the animal was ever brought to the altar. He had obtained right standing with God and acceptance long before the animal was ever taken from the flock. He was forgiven of his sin right then and his repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution had accomplished for him atonement PRIOR to the animal and its Soul in its blood was to be offered as his "representative". "At that moment" his Soul was again in right standing and relationship with God. In order to make such a declaration of forgiveness and right standing once again with God to his fellowman and to all, as well to God, then he would have to take an animal and it would be slain and its blood placed on the altar. In so doing, the animal was in its death a CORRECT PICTURE of the previous sinner; now being "dead to sin" and alive unto God this "blood/Soul" of the animal was a perfect image at that moment of the Spiritual state of the person {if he had previously before bringing the animal repented, confessed, prayed, made restitution if possible, given alms, etc.}. The animal's Soul (in the animal's blood) was on the altar which was but a symbol and image of the Soul/blood of the sacrificer who, in doing so, was making a testimony of his communion with God.

Besides this, if anyone wanted to eat meat, the animal's Soul had to be given back to God before the flesh could be consumed. So you see in the Sacrificial system there were two dynamics at work: atonement and the conditions necessary to eat meat which also contained the Divine image which had to be given by to God.

Now you know how the Sacrificial System worked in relationship to forgiveness of sin and obtaining atonement.

Answer for yourself: How are we to relate this to Jesus' death? Is it even possible according to the theology in the New Testament once knowing now the facts and truth of the Sacrificial System?

HOW IS JESUS'S DEATH TO BE RELATED TO ALL THIS?

What I just described in the previous study of the Sacrificial System is an aspect of it that we must deal with in relationship with the New Testament theology and teaching concerning the death of Jesus. It appears that, according to the workings of the Sacrificial System, the whole idea of "substitutionary atonement", has hidden meanings and undertones, that impact severely any belief in the death of a substitutionary person for another. We must not get confused at what we learned so far in the above two articles; namely that the "scapegoat" carried only the "guilt" away from the sinner and not his "actual sins". Add to that the role of the "blood" being "passive" and it appears so far that any idea that another person paying the sin debt of another is totally foreign to the Biblical Sacrificial System. This means so far that there is no way the death of a person, let alone even the New Testament Jesus, has anything to do with one's personal sin and his need for personal atonement with God. Just the contrary is what we found, God holds each sinner personally responsible for his "own sin" and has instructed him not only in the Torah but through learned teachers and Prophets of His Word as to how he is to obtain his own personal atonement and acceptance with God. Added to that is the fact that there is no trace of a single "sin offering" throughout the whole of the Hebrew Scriptures until the incident of the Golden Calf which is only 1,350 years prior to the time of the New Testament age.

Up to now you never these few knew concerning the Sacrificial System in relationship to obtaining forgiveness and atonement. But our study is just beginning. There is much more to learn about the Sacrificial System and its possible application to the death of Jesus as we will see shortly. Once knowing these facts and Biblical Truth we will come to see over and over again that the meaning of Jesus' death as taught in the New Testament as being a final atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world seems very tenuous at best or outright incorrect.

Now our study continues. This symbolic representation of the Soul of the animal for the Soul of the sacrificer may possibly have been only dimly supposed by Noah and his sons; but it must have been clearly revealed to the patriarch Abraham when God demanded the sacrifice of his only son, with whom his whole heart was bound up. Notice in the Abraham account that as a proof of his obedience of faith, and after he had attested his faith in his readiness to offer this sacrifice, God supplied him with a ram to offer as a burnt-offering [burnt offerings and NOT sin offerings...remember?]. Again, we must not be confused here as many might become. The "blood" of the animal was in all respects "symbolic" of the "blood or Soul" of the sacrificer. This we know without any doubt. So with Abraham and Isaac we are concerned only with a "burnt offering". A burnt offering is one that is consumed by fire, and regarded as ascending to God while being consumed. Part of every offering was burnt in the sacred fire, but this was wholly burnt, a "whole burnt offering." The burnt offering was the most frequent form of sacrifice, and apparently the only one mentioned in the book of Genesis. Such were the sacrifices offered by Abel (Gen. 4:3, 4, here called minhah; i.e., "a gift"), Noah (Gen. 8:20), Abraham (Gen. 22:2, 7, 8, 13), and by the Hebrews in Egypt (Ex. 10:25).

Answer for yourself: What was the purpose or intention accomplished in a "burnt offering"? These offerings signified the complete dedication of the offerers unto God.

Now this is critical. We have seen that at times the Jewish people were deprived of their Temple and no sacrifices could be brought. But we also saw when looking at the dynamics of the Sacrificial System that all of these Sacrifices were "symbolic" of the condition of the Soul, they were but "physical representations" of "Spiritual realities and conditions within the heart and Soul" of the one bringing the sacrifice. So in the absence of the Temple when no burnt offering could be brought a person could let his life become a "burnt offering" before God. Paul states this principle for us in Rom. 12:1:

Rom 12:1-2 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye (you personally) present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. (KJV)

Here we see that the "transformation of your mind" accompanied by corresponding Spiritual actions and deeds in one's life commanded in the Torah can so transform a person that he and his life actually becomes a "living burnt offering" and a "living Sacrifice" before God. You may not know this but receiving these Spiritual Truths in these articles is a major step for you in this regard. When we are finished with this series in Biblical atonement you, the reader, will have seen for yourself that Rome so "radically reinterpreted" the Biblical Sacrificial System and applied such untruths to the death of Jesus that in spite of what they say in their "one book" there is no way that his death, or the death of any other, has any bearing whatsoever upon the your sins or the sins of other people. Biblical Judaism, to whom was given this Sacrificial System and not Rome, knows better than any how the Sacrificial System actually operated and has maintained there is no way the death of any, let alone Jesus, could atone for the sins of others. This truth has been maintained by Biblical Judaism now for over 2,000 years at the point of Roman swords and in droves they eagerly went to their deaths by the millions rather than accept such a lie about the Soul. This knowledge and Spiritual Truth will go along way in your life in helping you reevaluate the Divine Message of Biblical Judaism vs Roman theology and recovering the truth concerning the operation of the Sacrificial System will help restore to you the real way given by God for the path of the Soul in its efforts to obtain forgiveness and atonement for its sin through faith, repentance, prayer, charity and good deeds as the Torah has always maintained.

So we have so far learned that regardless of what we hear preached in our Church sermons relating the sacrifice of Isaac and how it foreshadowed the sacrifice of Jesus that in reality it was a "burnt offering" and not a "sin offering". Again, because of error instead of truth being taught from our pulpits I could no longer continue my Pastorate as my studies over the early years of my Pastorate began to open my eyes to the deception to which I had fallen since basically I only read for most of my life "one book", the Bible given me by Rome, a book that I was unqualified to interpret correctly since not being a Jew and not knowing the truth about Biblical Judaism. That will all change the first 5 years following Seminary. Using the skill I was given there I applied them daily to come to terms the many problems I saw concerning the "Jesus Story" while there.

Answer for yourself: So what does a "burnt offering" have in common with a "sin offering"? Other than they involved "fire" they are completely different and the Isaac story cannot truthfully be used to prefigure the death of Jesus. So now we move on.

We must not make the mistake of comparing apples with oranges here but we seem to always do it since we as

Christians are terrible uneducated about the Hebrew Scriptures and the Divine Truths within them. Had we been Old Testament Christians first before we became New Testament Christians then we would never make such tragic theological blunders that we do when reading the New Testament. But not having this Old Testament knowledge we err greatly never knowing we are so far from Divine Truths that God intended that we learn that He must be crying over us now.

We often hear that Jesus is a type and shadow of the of prior Sacrificial System; a system that was replaced by the death of Jesus according to Rome and the writer of the Book of Hebrews. We hear that the Old Testament sin offering and sacrifices point forward to and are a type of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ (Heb. 9:10). We hear that that the scapegoat and purification rites of the Day of Atonement signify Christ's salvation wrought by suffering and death (Heb. 9:7-14). But all of this is not true to a person possessing the truth and knowledge necessary to understand the intricate dynamics of the operation of the Sacrificial System. If one only hears without understanding "blood this" and "blood that" in relationship to the New Testament texts, like the one below, he can easily be misled to a completely different understanding of the role of "blood" as operational in the Sacrificial System. And even worse he can be led to live a life where repentance and remorse of his sin is not important since he receives a "get out of jail free pass" or a "get out of hell free pass" with Rome's new "radical reinterpretation" of the Jewish Sacrificial System as well as Rome's reinterpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures and their tragic misrepresentation in our New Testaments.

Heb 9:12 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. (KJV)

On the surface this sounds so wonderful; that is until you find out for yourself that blood sacrifices never operated in this fashion nor obtained redemption. It again, as we saw earlier, the Spiritual condition of the Soul long before the sacrifice that determined such redemption. This above statement and passage from Hebrews 9:12, made in a disputed book later incorporated into the New Testament 500 years after the time allotted for the death of Jesus, stands directly contradicted by the facts concerning how the Sacrificial System actually operated and functioned as we have been instructed above. This passage from Hebrews and many others like it in our official Roman "edited and altered collection of reinterpreted and invented Hebrew Scriptures" (like the one above) are absolutely worthless once the reader is equipped with the the truth and facts necessary to correctly understand the Hebrew Scriptures and the operation of the Sacrificial System. Being so equipped then he is in a position to read the New Testament intelligently and spot the "Roman fiction about the Jesus Story" from the "Divine truths that yet remain within it". Such a passage and many others like them that postulate forgiveness and atonement was attached to the death of Jesus as a historical sacrifice and sin offering is not possible in the Biblical Sacrificial System of Israel as well as never taught in the "unaltered" and "unforged" Hebrew Scriptures in the Jewish Tannah. We have to look at our corrupted Old Testament translation to find such "theology" cleverly woven among the Prophets. But all one has to do is buy two more "Bibles", a Hebrew/English one as well as a Greek/English one and compare "line upon line" and "precept upon precept" for himself by comparing the Scriptures in the Hebrew Bible with the corresponding ones in the later Greek translation and the even later English Old Testament translations found in our Roman Christian Bibles. If you do and use Bet Emet's articles as a "pathway" to Divine Truth then you will spot easily such glaring errors. That means dear one what we are reading in our current Christian Bibles, both Old Testament and New Testament is "often" simply not true when compare to the Jewish Bible, the Bible that Jesus would have used and recommended to all. The Hebrew Bible never says that the underpinnings of blood sacrifice, which happen to be remorse of one's sin, confession of one's sin, repentance from sin, prayers to God about one's sin, and one's subsequent acts of righteous deeds and acts of selfless charity and love toward others would ever be changed by the simple application of blood on the altar. Contained in the word "blood" which we read so often on the pages of our Bibles is our mistaken understanding about the Sacrificial System. To come to the truth needed about the Sacrificial System we have to understand even more about how it operated; this being necessary if we are to ever come to the truth about what lies behind the death of Jesus. Know this, that Rome spent 500 years eradicating this Jewish Biblical Truth and understanding of atonement from the minds of mankind and this void of truth concerning the dynamics of the Sacrificial System in Christianity continues today. We need to be "transformed by the renewing of our minds" from the erroneous Roman antisemitic theology of 1,800 years ago.

God revealed to Abraham with the proposed sacrifice of Isaac, his only son, that God did not require or accept human sacrifice from His worshipers, but rather the surrender of heart/Soul and the denial of the natural life, even though it should amount to a submission to death itself.

Answer for yourself: The Hebrew Bible condemns human sacrifice. Many passages in the Hebrew Bible state that human sacrifice was a great abomination; these practices were associated with the worship of foreign gods, and were forbidden. Have you ever wondered or thought about why God would not allow or accept human sacrifice in the form of Isaac but was so readily predisposed to sacrifice supposedly His only begotten Son in Jesus? How can God chastise so severely the many pagan nations that offered human sacrifices to false gods in the Hebrew Scriptures when yet He does not follow his own Words in this regard with Jesus? What does God not practice what He preaches? What happened to the God who changes not? Is this again fictional creation of Scripture at the hands of Roman theological creationists in order to create a Replacement Religion to supersede and replace Judaism as a world religion that had invaded even Caesar's household? Is God schizophrenic?

The truth of the matter is that God never asked for nor required nor accepted human sacrifice. Rather, the act of surrender of the sacrificer's Soul to God was the intent of the whole of the Sacrificial System and this surrender of one's Soul was to be perfectly imaged in the animal's sacrifice; and only when presented with the Spiritual motivations of contrition, remorse, repentance, prayer, and righteous conduct and charity would the Sacrifice be a true representation of the current condition of the Soul of the sacrificer. Without this contrition, remorse, repentance, prayer, and righteous conduct and charity that was to occur prior to the sacrifice could the killing of the animal and the presentation of its blood and Soul on the altar be acceptable to God as a true representation of the Soul of the sacrificer. Now you know why God is upset in Isaiah, chapter one over the Sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: Can you guess why? Many were only concerned with the externalities of the sacrifice and paid little or any attention to contrition, remorse, repentance, prayer, and righteous conduct and charity. Thus the killing of the animals was meaningless and a gross misrepresentation of the Spiritual condition of the Soul of the sacrificer. These deaths of these innocent animals was a tragic waste of life and God rebukes them for it; not the Sacrificial System per se but the one who misused it and lied to God and their fellowman about the condition of their Soul.

PURPOSE OF OFFERINGS

The word "korban" is commonly translated either "sacrifice" or "offering", but the truth is that the English language does not possess a word that accurately expresses the concept contained in the word. The word "sacrifice" implies that the person bringing it is required to deprive himself of something in order to satisfy someone else's need, but God finds no satisfaction in inflicting pain or deprivation upon His children. The word "offering" is closer to the mark but it too fails to convey the true meaning of a "korban". "Offering" implies that the Recipient of the gift must be appeased, that He requires a tribute that will somehow appease His wrath or make Him receptive to the entreaties of a supplicant, or that He has a need that can only be satisfied by someone other than Himself. As if God required our gifts! "If you have acted righteously, what will you have given Him! (Job 35:7); God does not become enriched by man's accomplishments.

The Hebrew word itself provides the answer. The root of the meaning is "to come near." Again the idea carries the concept of fellowship. The person bringing an offering does so in order to come closer to God, to elevate his level of Spirituality thereby approaching God in the Spirit.

Now remember the person brought the animal as a picture of himself in that through his repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution he was "coming near" to God and the sacrifice of the animal and the placing of the animal's Soul on the altar was a demonstration that he, the person bringing the sacrifice, had ALREADY "drawn near to God" and the Soul of the animals was a true picture of himself NOW since repenting previously before coming to the altar. The offering was a picture of that Spiritual fact and reality to all the world as well as for God to see Himself!

When Adam was deposited in the Garden of Eden, his first responsibility was to work it and guard it (Gen. 2:15). That means that Adam was commanded to plant, work, cultivate; everything that was necessary to keep the Garden as a Paradise. Before Adam's sin, man had no need to be a peasant; everything grew for him at God's command, with no need for him to exert himself in any way. It was only after his sin that he was expelled from Eden and required to earn his bread through the sweat of his brow.

Answer for yourself: How then was he to work and guard Eden?

The Rabbis teach us that Adam "worked" through the study of Torah and the performance of positive and negative commandments in the Word of God. His livelihood would come in return for his obedience to God's will. God will always respond to man's righteousness by blessing his material effort.

Adam's mission was to make himself an offering to God in his lifetime, by dedicating himself unreservedly to God. On God's Throne of Glory, there is an image of a man (Ez. 1:10). Every human being has his own image above, his ideal Spiritual self, which represents his goal and his potential. Man's Soul is placed in an earthly body so that he can surmount the challenges of material life and raise himself up to his personal, heavenly self; to unite his earthly self with his higher self. Just as everyone has a body and a Soul, and his mission is to triumph in the eternal struggle of body versus Soul, so, too, many must struggle to live up to the summons of his higher self.

Man is religious yet he sins and defies the Creator and His Word which he says he believe in. He is kind and generous, yet he is sometimes mean and stingy. He is moral, but has lapses in conduct. Whatever man is, he is often inconsistent, and if he is honest with himself, he knows that he is far from living up to his inner image. He wants his body to come closer to his Soul; on a yet higher level, he should also want his Soul to live up to its counterpart on high.

Similarly, there is a Temple in Heaven that corresponds to the Temple on earth. Egypt taught as the cornerstone of their faith and religion that "So Above, So Below". The masters of Kabbalah teach that the good deeds of the people of God accumulate to build a Spiritual replica of that heavenly Temple, and when there are enough such good deeds, the heavenly Temple will come down to the Temple Mount, signaling the end of the exile and the beginning of the perfect world foretold by the prophets. This is similar to the striving of the individual Soul. There is a higher ideal we must see to capture in our mundane lives. Possibly it is best expressed by the Psalmist: "the heavens are the Lord's, but the earth He has given to mankind" (Psm. 115:16). The Heavens are already Heavenly; God does not need man to improve upon them. But He has given us the Earth that we might make it Heavenly, as well. God gave mankind the Torah as instruction to bring Heaven to Earth through obedience of God's will as expressed in His living Word, the Torah. This is best expressed through acts of Loving Kindness (Gemilut Hasadim) and Repairing of the World (Tikkun Olam). Adam, himself, was the offering, and for him to devote anything less than his maximum to God would have been to steal his Divinely conferred potential and misappropriate it for himself. The sin of eating from the Tree of Knowledge was such a misappropriation because he would be flouting the will of God. The truest offering is when the owner brings "himself" to God, making himself and his desires subservient to the teachings and guidelines of the Torah. The symbolism of the offerings is based on this concept; the animal is only secondary.

REASONS FOR THE OFFERINGS

The function and purpose of the offerings are not concepts that man can grasp rationally. Especially in modern times when anything not measurable, observable, or replicable is questioned and denied, the idea of offerings is not an easy one to understand. It is necessary, therefore, to understand that offerings and sacrifices and their efficacy are manifestations of God's plan and wisdom. They are reality, even though we have never seen them and have no personal experience through which to know their potency.

We cannot understand why the slaughter of a sanctified animal, the placing of its blood and the burning of its flesh on the Altar; why these acts should bring God's Presence down to earth (accomplish fellowship). Had the Jewish people been asked about the possibility of this happening before they had seen it, perhaps even they would have been skeptical. But they saw it happen! They saw the cloud of God's glory descend upon the Tent of Meeting. They saw a heavenly fire descend to their Altar and remain there for hundreds of years. They saw a Divine glow on Moses' face. To them, these were demonstrable, visible, tangible facts.

This is incomprehensible to our rational, scientific minds. But so was the splitting of the atom to rational minds a hundred years ago.

Various reasons for the offerings are given by classic commentators. The reason for the offerings is so profound that it is beyond human comprehension and the best efforts of the greatest of Jewish thinkers can yield only a drop in the ocean of God's intent. We must listen to this great wisdom if we are to come to terms with the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament.

OFFERINGS AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR MAN...BUT WE ALREADY SAID THAT

The offerings were seen to elevate three parts of every human deed: thought, speech, and action. When a person sins and then brings an offering, all three of those elements are used to take the sinful use to which he had previously put them, and transform it into the instrument of doing God's will. The person bringing the offering performs the commandment of leaning, by placing his hands on its head and leaning on it, thereby dedicating his strength and activity to God. He purifies his thought and intentions, by confessing his sin, pronouncing the Spiritual goal that he hopes to attain, or uttering praises to God. As a further way of purging his sinful thoughts, the innards of the animal; representing the human organs that are the seat of desire and through, are burned on God's Altar. In the case of an elevation-offering, which is completely burned, the animal's feet symbolize the hands and feet with which man ran and acted to defy his Creator. The animal's blood (containing its Soul), representing man's Soul, was placed on the Altar (notice it is the Soul that is placed upon the Altar; just not the blood).

Let's look at Leviticus 17:11 in context in order to make sure we understand the "central" idea of the passage.

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life [this is the subject of the sentence] of the flesh is in the blood [this is the object of the preposition of the sentence], and I have given it [THE LIFE/SOUL] to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood [AGAIN THE "LIFE/SOUL" IS IN THE BLOOD REMEMBER?] that makes an atonement for the Soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'"

Answer for yourself: Did you know that "blood" was not the subject of the sentence? Did you notice what was? Did you understand before now that it was the "life" or "Soul" that was placed on the altar that accomplished atonement and not the blood?

In other words it is not the blood that atones, but the “Soul” [LIFE] that atones..a life that repents, is remorseful, prays, confesses sin, makes restitution, gives alms, etc....!!!

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that as a Christian your whole understanding of the Sacrificial System in the Bible is wrong because you have focused on “blood” for atonement instead of the “life” and the “Soul” in the blood which is the real atoning agent? Are you aware that as a Christian your whole understanding of the supposed atoning death of Jesus on the cross is incorrect and is contradicted by the whole of the Hebrew Scriptures, Biblical Judaism, the dynamic workings of the Sacrificial System, and the testimony of the Jewish people and their Rabbis over the last 2,000 years? But, who listens to them, right? We should! Only in restoring the Hebrew Roots of the early Christian Faith can we uncover and recognize the antisemitic lies of Rome in our Bibles today.

BUT WHAT ABOUT ISAIAH 53....ISN'T IT ABOUT JESUS BEING OUR SACRIFICE?

Well here I got news for you. Isaiah chapter 53 in the Hebrew Scriptures is not about Jesus. I know that is hard for you to listen to let alone swallow for now but we will examine this in detail later. For now know that Isaiah chapter 53 is not about what you think nor does it actually say what you think it does in the “unaltered Hebrew”. Again we can make any text say what we want if we want to change it and change it Rome did. The Hebrew Book of Isaiah, when compared with later Greek and English translations, is estimated to have at least 6,000 alterations. Again, what we are reading in our Christian Bibles is a very tragic purposeful mistranslation and misquotation and outright evil translation of the original Hebraic Book of Isaiah. The cover up by Rome is extensive and this was reiterated to me over and over again during the first 7 years after Seminary where I became a detective intent upon recovering the truth about my Christian Faith. This is why I spend so much time on the text. The Hebrew Bible of the first century which the Jewish people used and read did not read anything like our Christian Old Testament in hundreds of places. Isaiah is but one of many examples which have been later altered by Rome for “theological agendas”. Let me preface what comes next. The writer of Isaiah, chapters 40-66, uses both “singular” and “plural” pronouns interchangeably all the way through these 26 chapters in describing the corporate nation of Israel. Never does he refer to be a single person. Given this understanding now let us read what is below which is taken from the true Hebrew Massoretic text, called the Tanakh. Here is verse 10 of Isaiah 53:

Isa. 53:10 states “HaShem desired to oppress him and He afflicted him; if his Soul would acknowledge guilt...”

WOW!

That sure is different from what your Christian KJV Bible says:

Here is the KJV “translation” or should I say “free creationism” of Isaiah 53:10 as taken from the Jewish Bible and the Hebrew Scriptures:

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his Soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. (KJV)

Again, pronouns like "his" and "him" refer to the corporate nation of Israel. Understanding this then we see that it is the Souls of the people who become an "offering" for their own sin. We will see this in great detail when we get to Isaiah 53.

Simply said, this Christian translation has been "Jesusized" by having the word and concept of "guilt removed" from the verse, for in Christian "theology" Jesus can have no guilt if he is to be one's atonement and many try to make Jesus the subject of the passage and the singular pronoun used when the real uncorrupted Hebrew Scripture define the suffering servant as the corporate nation of Israel and not one individual

This is Earth-shattering to the very foundation of Christianity and its atonement dogmas. We have been fed a pack of lies by Rome over 1,800 years ago and few know it today because they never read or compare the Bible that Jesus would have used with the one they do! This has tragic implication not only for your Soul but the whole of the Christian Faith as it now stands; a Replacement Religion without a true Covenant before God. Back to the subject at hand.

In one of the greatest passages in the Bible, we are told by Isaiah the prophet that if the "Soul" of the "suffering servant" would acknowledge guilt...confess sin, pray, repent...

Answer for yourself: If the passage is about Jesus, our supposed sacrifice, what kind of guilt does he have? What is his sin? Who atones for him?

Answer for yourself: What do you do when you acknowledge guilt?

You confess your sin, you pray, you repent and then your life becomes a living Sacrifice of obedience to the Torah which teaches the Soul of man how to live a life of good deeds and perform acts of righteous charity. Such is love, such is God. This is the subject of the verse. You literally turn around your "life". Your life changes direction; your mind is transformed as is your life from sin to righteousness. You no longer continue your sinister ways. Now you can see how such a life, after repentance and confession of sin, was understood, even as the Christian Bibles say: "Soul/life an offering for sin"! One's life, when turned to God and away from sin, was the atonement that Leviticus 17 speaks about. Jesus has nothing to do with this now would he; he says he came NOT to do away with the Law and this refers to the Law of the Sacrifice which make up 2/3 of the whole of the Old Testament! Think!

Answer for yourself: Could we have missed this Divine Truth and understanding when looking at the death of Jesus being previously conditioned since childhood to think that "blood atones" when we now have learned that it actually does not and is only a "passive" agent in the Sacrificial System?

While this procedure (placing the animal's Soul on the alter in substitute for your Soul by placing the animal's blood on the altar instead of your blood) is being accomplished with one's offering, the sacrificer meditates upon his sin, for the offering service teaches him graphically that he has sinned against God with body and Soul. He contemplates that justice would have dictated that his human body would have been required by God to be burned on the altar as a penalty for his sin but instead God allowed the animal's body to suffice since the sacrificer was expected by God to have repented of his sin previously before bringing his animal to the altar. Instead, by proxy, and since the sacrificer had expressed remorse for his sin, repented, prayed and accomplished good deeds and acts of charity then his body was not required by God as a penalty for his sin. Now God desired his Soul and through the animals sacrifice then the animal's blood and his Soul could be placed on the altar in communion with God and in so doing represent to God the Soul of the person bringing his offering in repentance to God. Now the person's Soul (his life in his blood according to Lev. 17:11) would now be required and accepted by God through the symbolic representation of the animal's blood being placed upon the altar. It is only God's graciousness that permits the animal to become the substitute for the repentant sinner. But since having previously repented, previously confessed his sin, previously been broken over his sin, and previously having prayed and done acts of righteous deeds and loving kindness his death and the destruction of his body on the altar before God is no longer required; now his Soul is welcomed on the altar with God and is placed there in proxy through the "blood/Soul" of the animal. This is how the Sacrificial System worked; this is the knowledge that all Christians need to know in light of the later theology that developed around the death of Jesus as the atonement of the sins of the world. This knowledge and proper understanding of the Sacrificial System topples the Roman atonement dogma they created around Jesus.

Then, parts of the offering are given to the Kohanim (priests/teachers), so that those who dedicate their lives to study and teaching of the Torah are sustained through sacrifice and so that the people will pray for those who bring them the truths of God's Word. It is an act of supreme graciousness that God is prepared to accept an offering from us instead of punishing us directly for our misdeeds. This is why the offerings are described throughout Leviticus as a "satisfying aroma to God", because God is pleased when His children, His Souls, repent and seek to change their lives for the better and imitate God their Father! A son should be like his Father.

When one brings an offering with such noble thoughts he has truly made himself an offering and a "Living Sacrifice". But sin offerings do not have to be always bloody. The Sages of Israel have said of one who brings a humble "meal-offering", it is as if he had offered his own life upon the altar. This is the same thing that occurs with the blood sin offering. We will get to these deeper truths soon as our study advances. The person bringing his meal-offering likewise raised his mundane desires and makes his Soul likewise worthy of being placed on the heavenly altar.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #4

WHAT PICTURES CAN WE NOW SEE MORE CLEARLY AS CONTAINED IN THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM OF ISRAEL?

Let us not forget what we just have learned. It was the Soul of the animal as found in it's blood, which when presented and placed on the altar in the Sacrificial System as a sacrifice to God which was at the same time a true picture of the Spiritual condition of the sacrificier's Soul which had previously repented, shown remorse over his sin, confessed his sin, prayed to God about his sin, and performed deeds of almsgiving and other righteous deeds which was only then accepted by God as an atonement for sin according to the Hebrew Scriptures and as attested to over for over 3,000 years of Jewish history. Such a procedure of repentance, remorse over sin, prayer, and subsequent righteous deeds as commanded in the Torah was the only way for atonement for sin. Such actions by the sinner was understood by God as the surrender of that person's Soul toward Him. When accomplished by the sinner then his Soul was accepted by God as an atonement for his own sin and then and only then could he rightfully make a declaration through the Sacrificial System that his Soul was in "right standing" with God and this was done by bringing the "blood/Soul" of the animal and placing it upon the altar as a substitutionary representation of the condition of the Soul of the sinner having obeyed the conditions in the Torah concerning obtaining atonement for the sin of his Soul. This is key to the Sacrificial System and the role of "blood" within it which escapes a traditional Christian when reading the Bible. Seeing the numerous times that "blood" is mentioned in both the Old and New Testament often leads us astray from the true function and role of "blood" in the Sacrificial System without the above understanding. Coupled with this is the life-time of hearing sermons in our Churches which totally misrepresents the role of "blood" in the Jewish Sacrificial System and one can see for himself how we come away from such instruction with a completely erroneous understanding and interpretation of the role of "blood"; especially as it relates to the death of Jesus which we are consistently told is the "only" atonement for our sin and our faith and trust in his death is our only way to Heaven. Funny, that the Jewish people and the Rabbis, to whom this Sacrificial System was given in the first place and operated by them for thousands of years, refuse to accept and believe such a teaching about their own Sacrificial System. It should appear to you that if anyone is qualified to both understand and teach about the Sacrificial System correctly then it is the Jewish People and their Rabbis and scholars and not Roman Catholic Monks which created this "Jesus theology" in the first place.

As we have seen it is not the "blood" but the "Soul" in the blood which demonstrates its surrender to God. Later when the blood of the animal is placed on the altar following the hands of the sacrificer being laid upon the animal brought to be sacrificed that actually it is the "blood" or the "Soul of the offerer of sacrifice" which is representatively placed on the altar in lieu of the animal which served only as a substitute for the person who brought the animal to the altar. The animal was literally the extension of the person life who was bringing the sacrifice. God would not have a human sacrifice his life and blood and place it upon the altar as a demonstration of "communion" and "fellowship" with God; God does not desire the death of His children. Instead the animal was the extension of the person's life and in such a way the person's actual "life" and Soul was placed on the altar through the animal's blood. The person bringing the animal had fed, groomed, and cared for the animal usually most of the animal's life. Literally, the animal was part of his life and his life's energy had been invested into the care of the animal. So when the "Soul" of the animal was taken and offered upon the altar in the release and placing of the animal's blood on the altar, then the person by proxy was represented on the altar in communion with God, not the animal. Understand the animal was innocent having never sinned and it served as perfect picture of the present condition of the Soul of the sacrificer who had repented of his sin prior to coming to the Tabernacle or the Temple. This Sacrificial procedure was supposed to be a picture of the Spiritual position of the person bringing the sacrifice. The person bringing the sacrifice was ALREADY to have repented of his sin, confessed his sin, prayed, and made restitution to his fellowman if needed BEFORE he ever brought the animal to the altar. Then when he had done these spiritual necessities as commanded and taught in the Torah PRIOR to bringing the animal to the altar, then the person's Soul was AT-THAT-MOMENT (atonement) right with God. He stood before God, priesthood, and mankind forgiven and his prior repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution had accomplished for him atonement PRIOR to the animal being offered. "At that moment" his Soul was again in right standing and relationship with God and this mind you was long before he cut the animal from his flock and brought it to the altar for sacrifice. In order to make such a declaration to the the right standing and relationship of his life and Soul to the world and his fellowman, as well as to God, then he was required by the Law of Moses to take an animal and have it slain and its blood placed on the altar which as we have seen was to be true and honest expression of his Soul before God. In so doing, the animal blood and Soul was at that time an ACCURATE PICTURE of the Spiritual state of the person making the sacrifice. The animal's Soul (in his blood) was placed on the altar in communion with God and was AT-THAT-MOMENT a true picture of the sacrificer's Soul and its communion with God. Besides this, if anyone wanted to eat meat, the animal's Soul had to be given back to God before the flesh could be consumed. So you see in the Sacrificial system there were two dynamics at work: atonement and the conditions necessary to eat meat which also contained the Divine image which had to be given by to God.

When, when making sacrifice properly, the sacrificer knew that he had attained something special with God. Christian teaching today is completely devoid of this knowledge and I thank God over the years in my studies that He allowed me to find and recover this most needed part of instruction. This knowledge, when properly understood, will go a long way in helping the Christian separate error from truth as he hears taught in his churches.

UNION WITH GOD AND FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD WAS THE RESULT OF THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that whenever the Torah commands that offerings be brought that these commandments use only God's Four-letter Name (yod-hey-vah-hey); the "Tetragrammaton" (I AM)?

YHWH is the distinctive personal name of the God of Israel. Of all the names of God, the name of God, YHWH, is the one which occurs most frequently in the Hebrew Bible. This Tetragrammaton appears 6,823 times in the Hebrew Scriptures according to the Jewish Encyclopedia. If other names were used, some might err, thinking that there are many Gods or forces, one demanding this offering and another demanding some other offering. Such is not the case, only YHWH demanded sacrifices. Since the Name Elohim (the plural name for God meaning "gods") represents God as the One Who controls nature, that Name might be taken to imply that there is an angel or a power who has dominion over a particular land or aspect of existence, and that that power requires the offering. Such is not the case, the Godhead is not referred to as requiring these sacrifices but only YHWH. This is His Name as the God of Mercy. No one should think that God requires offerings to feed or appease Himself. The Eternal One has no needs that man can satisfy for everything is His and nothing is beyond His power!

Answer for yourself: What then is the purpose of the offerings?

There are in fact 5 different types of animal sacrifice that regularly took place in Israelite religion

- Olah (Burnt Offering) - General offering to entreat favor from Yahweh / cleansing.
- Minkhah (Grain Offering) - Sacrifice of thanksgiving. The "poor man's" sacrifice.
- Shelammim (Peace or Fellowship Offering) - Thanksgiving / to complete a vow.
- Khattat (Purification or Sin Offering)- Offered to Yahweh to cleanse the temple sanctuary of the people's accumulated sin.
- Asham (Reparation or Guilt Offering) - Restitution for stolen goods, restitution for tithes not paid.

Answer for yourself: What should this teach us?

Simply that it was not only animal sacrifice which was offered, but other crops and fowl were acceptable as sacrifices. Only needs to see Micah 6 for an example of how God does not glory in sacrifices but in the heart (Soul) of the believer. You should be seeing by now that these offerings provided man an opportunity to unite himself to God to whatever extent it is possible for mortal man to do so through repentance, confession, and restitution. This union with God was accomplished by these offerings which only pictured the condition of the Soul of the person bringing them. Only one of these "relationship" offerings was a sin offering. This should teach us that besides the sin offering that mankind was given other ways to approach and become acceptable to God.

Similarly, there is a humanly created fire below on the altar and there is the Heavenly fire from above, which God has placed upon Israel's altar. Both of these flames are fed by the offerings of the Jewish people, symbolizing the union of man's Spiritual aspirations with God's goals for him. Thus the offerings provide Israel a means for Spiritual elevation ["korban" or mankind drawing closer to God].

THE SACRIFICER HAD AN ACCURATE UNDERSTANDING OF HIMSELF BEFORE GOD....ACKNOWLEDGING "ONE'S OWN" NOTHINGNESS

All creatures emanate from God and have no independent existence on their own. Man has freedom of choice and his intellect puts great achievements within his reach, but all of this is possible only because God gives him the power to do so. Man could not function or even exist without God. The goal of creation is for man to acknowledge this basic fact; to recognize and proclaim that everything exists because of God and nothing can survive without Him. There are many ways for God's glory to be revealed and recognized. The highest recognition of all is for man to know The Oneness of God, meaning that there is nothing aside from Him. He achieves his ultimate greatness when he recognizes that "there is none beside Him" (Deut. 4:35). An offering is a demonstration of this concept. It says that its owner is surrendering his possessions to their Source (God). Theoretically, one might expect him to be ready to give even his very life in acknowledgment of God's sovereignty, but that is not God's will that man dies but that he lives. God wants man to live, to grow, to thrive, to serve; and God ordains the offerings as man's way to recognize His Oneness throughout man's life. Thus, by offering his possessions [as seen in the personal animal presented to God in sacrifice, which was usually owned by the person bringing the sacrifice], one symbolizes that he has no existence but for God's will.

UNITING BODY AND SOUL...BEING ONE WITH GOD

The efficacy of offerings in obtaining God's favor is comparable to the way food makes it possible for the Soul to maintain its attachment to the body. Material food cannot provide nourishment to the Soul, which is not a physical entity. It is physical nourishment of the body that enables the animal body to remain healthy enough to play host to the Soul. Likewise, the "food of the Altar's fire" somehow effects the process that enables the Shechinah to remain among the people of God and Israel in the Hebrew Scriptures which was a necessity for them being the "light unto the world".

The food of the Soul is not measured in calories, vitamins, and minerals. Only intellectual and Spiritual pursuits can nourish the Soul. Torah study, prayer, even meals in celebration of such events as Sabbath and the Biblical Feasts and Festivals all have a sacred content that is capable of nourishing the Soul. Only in this sense do the Sacrificial offerings constitute food for God. Man's dedication to God and His commandments provides the nourishment that enables the Shechinah to attach itself to human beings and their handiwork. We think of food in terms of nutritive value, but that is not what sustains life. Man does not live merely because of the bread (material component). He lives through the bread's Spiritual component; what emanates from the mouth of God. This is what holds together body and Soul and what holds together Godliness and Israel through the agency of the offerings, again but a picture of their Souls. This is why the animal had to be presented and offered to God in a Spiritual way when it was killed and not slaughtered behind a person's house. This is why the animal had to be presented first to God and later given to the Priesthood before the sacrificer could take parts of the meat home to his family. Something Spiritual occurred here which we lack understanding as Christians. This personation of the animal to God first before man could eat the meat was God's way of imparting Spiritual nutrition to our Souls; a process which we miss totally today when buying our meats at the deli or the supermarket as it exists today. We have lost a lot.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Having now come to the understanding that it was a life lived above sin that was so pleasing to God that He accepted such a life as an offering and atonement for one's sin, it should behoove you to begin to rethink what you believe about atonement as a Christian. If you were to do some comparative religious study you will see the preponderance of evidence of how foreign Roman concepts of salvation are woven into Pauline theology throughout your New Testament. Without the truth of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Sacrificial System and accompanying personal knowledge of the Hebrew Scriptures as compared to their later changes in the Greek and later English versions of your Bible you will never notice these by yourself. Serious study is required to open your Soul and Mind to these alterations of the Scriptures in our Bibles and their reflective altered religious dogmas. I have only now begun to show you the truth behind the Biblical teachings of atonement and have not mentioned once the Romanized Paul's theology which we often find in the New Testament. The reason I have not is that nowhere in the Jewish Masoretic Palestinian text are such Pauline concepts of atonement found. Only when you read the fraudulent and mistranslated Greek Scriptures, which the Rabbis did not translate beyond the first 5 books of the Old Testament, do you begin to find such falsified ideas of atonement surfacing in the text <http://historyofformationofnewtestament.netfirms.com>.

But hear now that such concepts concerning atonement as well as many other altered religious dogmas as they exist in our Christian Bibles today cannot be found anywhere in the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures before they were later "mistranslated on purpose" in the production of Greek, Latin, and later English translations. Somebody "fixed" the Greek translation to read differently and others after them did the same to the Latin and Greek versions. And sadly for you, these altered and paganized Greek, Latin, and English mistranslations became the foundation for your Christian Old Testament. To make matters worse, your New Testament quotes from the fraudulent Old Testament in hundreds of "key" theological places \(http://www.faithofyeshua.faithweb.com\). Unknowingly for you, over and over as you read your Christian Bible you only reinforce and rehearse error and Spiritual untruths! You need to know this in order to begin to verify what I say to yourself for only through your personal study will you see these things for yourself as I and so many others have.

Answer for yourself: What happened to the Divine Truths handed down since the beginning of time, as far back as ancient Egypt and which were later entrusted to the Israel and the Jewish people by Moses and others between the 2nd through the 5th century when they fell into the hands of Rome? What happened to these Sacred Scriptures and texts at the hands of Rome? Who changed these Eternal Divine Truths about the Soul and gave the world a replacement religion completely devoid of its Egyptian, Hebrew and Jewish roots? Who knows this history and sad tale? Who knows of this tragic purposeful misrepresentation of the Hebrew Faith and Scriptures as they now stand so badly corrupted in our Greek and English Bibles? Who is to blame and what can we do about it? Well, for starters we can learn the "truth" before it was changed by Rome. That is a great place to start and then it is simple from there to make your own "A" and "B" comparisons of what the Scriptures once said and how they were altered later by Rome. Then you can see this for yourself and how the dogmas that come from them were altered almost beyond recognition as we received them in our Bibles today.

The Jews have always known what I am sharing with you in this article; it is Rome who did want to receive a religion that focuses upon the Soul, military might and world domination was they plan. Through their invincible army, fear, and ignorance they accomplished their goal and left 18 million bodies in their wake. It is time someone told you the truth! The righteous Jews know of this alteration in Biblical atonement as it stands in the Greek and later Christian Bibles and have known this since 200 B.C. when the Greek translation was understood by them to be a tragic corruption of the Hebrew Scriptures and its message. History records 3 attempts of the Jews to correct such a forged Greek translation but sadly their efforts were not enough to overtake and thwart the popularity of the already translated LXX (Septuagint) as it had spread into the non-Jewish speaking world. It was all downhill from there.

Back to our point, regardless of what the later Greek and English mistranslations of them say as well as their tragic quotations in the New Testament as surrounding the death and supposed atonement of this Jesus, understand right now that as taught the animal's Soul represented the Soul of one making the sacrifice, and we, as non-Jews, today are beneficiaries of this Divine Truth only if we know of it. But in this lesson we must no longer overlook the importance of a life lived above sin which procures one's redemption and not the inert and passive blood of the animal or even the "passive" blood of a supposed Jesus who shed his blood. The "blood" in Sacrifices "never atoned" for anything! Lives lived honoring God through faith, repentance and obedience atoned for sin and always will. Your Covenant requires it! Such is the message of Bet Emet Ministries as we are called to live like Jesus, the example for all, and not just "believe in Jesus" or "believe the created theology around his person" which was later created by Rome. It has been my experience as a Pastor over the years to encounter multitudes of Christians who trust in Christ's blood instead of understanding the importance of the example of this life shared with us in the New Testament. In our "Jesus Story", we find the life of Jesus, a true symbol of the perfected Soul, exemplified for us as how our Soul is to live in obedience to God. Our "Jesus Story" is the "pattern" for all Souls. If we choose to be a "follower" of this "way" then we are told certainly by both the Hebrew Scriptures let alone the New Testament that all will be well with our Soul, that our Soul will be our atonement for any sin. Our Soul will be our OWN atonement. We must walk out our salvation with fear and trembling, but we are as well are co-laborers with God in our own salvation through faith, repentance, and obedience. Such a mistaken understanding of our redemption as depicted in the typical Roman "Jesus Story" has robbed us of the truth about true Biblical atonement. We fall into this deception since we were never taught the truth about the Sacrificial System and atonement from a Hebraic perspective. This has caused multitudes of Christians to focus upon the "blood of Jesus" as a way to escape the penalty of our sin instead of focusing of the miraculousness of a life lived above sin!

Answer for yourself: Which of the two above scenarios reflects your love for God, getting out of "hell" free or "living a life reflective of your true Being, a child of God that images his Father"? If God so loves us does it not stand to reason that he desires we love him in return and obey him or just "escape Him"?

Such a false sense of security in "blood" instead of "lives lived holy before God and mankind" unconsciously robs us of the Divine Truth of the Hebrew Scriptures and causes the believer to not regard sin with revulsion, loathing, and repulsion as he should. We tend to view sin as less harmful than it is, and compromise with sin lies at the door.

The bottom line for all Christians to understand is that we have heard way too much preached about Jesus and Roman "replacement theology" attached to this example and far too little time has been devoted to serious study from the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures which tell us exactly and accurately who "the Christ/Messiah" of Judaism really is and as well his true message and mission to the world. If we had studied the original sources available to us, we would not be so mixed up Roman theology in Christianity today which boasts over 2000 different denominations all maintaining they have the truth about Jesus while at the same time producing the fruth that has made America the most violent and crime ridden nation in the world.

SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH THE MESSAGE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH...LOOK AT THE FRUIT OF THIS MESSAGE IN OUR COUNTRY WITH A CHURCH ON EVERY CORNER AND TELEVISIONS FILLED WITH THE CHRISTIAN MESSAGE OF GRACE WITHOUT ACCOUNTABILITY FOR ONE'S OWN SIN! JUST LOOK OUT YOUR DOOR AND ASK IF THAT IS THE BEST THE HOLY SPIRIT CAN DO????????

I don't plan to get into why the Christian message at this time is wrong in so many areas but suffice to say that the Christian message is corrupted today to Rome's efforts to replace a Hebrew centric Faith with one of its own making. We see this repeatedly over and over again in comparison of the texts in "key" theological places in our Old and New Testaments. We will example these in detail when we get there in our studies so please be patient. There is only so much we can tackle competently at a time. Let it suffice to say as shown beyond question on many of our other sites that we are in this sad state today because instead of being a true follower of Jesus, his example and message that emanated from within the Jewish faith we are camped at the feet of pagan Rome and the Romanized Paul's antinomianism (anti-Law bias). May God forgive our laziness of letting others tell us what to believe instead of us studying to show ourselves approved unto God. I just showed you part of the problem and this is your beginning of deliverance from a Replacement Religion. Implicitly we are led to not revere the Laws and Commandments of God because of the solar teaching that "Jesus died for me" and my "get out of hell free card" saves me. This comes straight out of Rome's literalized Sun worship as you have seen on this site and others. As a Pastor for 8 years I saw such falsehoods and false securities because of "Jesus blood" lived out in the lives of the congregation year after year; the shocking details I cannot share. But when you teach such a pernicious dogma to 2.5 billion people, the there is no personal accountability for sin or that the incarnational purpose is not to evolve into the "fullness and stature of Christ" then mankind loses sight of his Spiritual purpose on this planet and his conduct deteriorates into all different types of debauchery, even in the church where there is no sin too shameful to be names among the parishoners.

When and where there is no Law, no Commandments, no requirements, no accountability, no personal responsibility for one's sin, and no repentance, and only a "false teaching on trusting the blood of Jesus", "blood" again which we have learned has nothing to do with atonement in the first place and was only served a "passive role" in the Sacrificial System, then there is no righteous fruit and we have our newspapers and televisions filled with horror story after horror story and criminal actions done by our predominantly Christian nation. In America, the crime clock continues to click: one murder every 22 minutes, one rape every 5 minutes, one robbery every 49 seconds, and one burglary every 10 seconds. And the cost of crime continues to mount: $78 billion for the criminal justice system, $64 billion for private protection, $202 billion in loss of life and work, $120 billion in crimes against business, $60 billion in stolen goods and fraud, $40 billion from drug abuse, and $110 billion from drunk driving. When you add up all the costs, crime costs Americans a stunning $675 billion each year. And sadly too few can count on their lives being a sufficient atonement for their sin because they have been taught a pagan "literalized and historized" Sun-godman story which Judaism and every nation that has graced this planet before denies, and in doing so we have laid for us the foundation for a religion that allows its followers to get away with anything. Emotionalism is a sorry substitute for Divine Truth and true knowledge.

Answer for yourself: For after all, if I am saved by the blood of Jesus, what need do I have to live like Jesus in the first place and obey the commandments of God? How much of this "get out of hell free" theology has caused us to not strive for our Soul's perfection?

Answer for yourself: If saved by the blood of another, what does a little sin mean...what can it hurt? How large should I draw the "gray area" of my life?

Answer for yourself: Are you beginning to see the effects from the tragic erroneous theology concerning atonement as taught by Christianity and related thinking involved in focusing upon the blood of Jesus instead of the life of Jesus lived above sin as my example? Now look out your window to the world and see what the fruit of 1700 years of erroneous teaching has grown! America has 12% of the world's population and over 25% of the world's incarcerated behind bars. Think on that as ask your Pastor is this "get out of hell free" theology and if he thinks it works. Ask him if this was God's best idea or maybe if the Jewish people were right all along. You can lay this blame on the mess we have in America and large part of the world at the feet of Christianity and their adulterated Bible in which Rome changed the salvation message of God for His Souls incarnated on Earth. We have much to yet learn so hang on.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #5

LOOKING AT PAUL'S THEOLOGY....WHAT IS TRUTH?

We must not forget what we just learned in prior articles concerning the Sacrificial System. As the reader and "truth-seeker" you must understand that what you learned in these earlier articles is the "theology of sacrifice" that accurately represents the dynamics of the Jewish Sacrificial System and any "sacrifice" must fit this mode of understanding, whether it be of an animal or a supposed sacrifice of the New Testament Jesus. This means when viewing the death of Jesus one must be equipped with this accurate understanding of how the Sacrificial System worked before trying to evaluate any meanings that might be attached to the death of Jesus. But this is often not enough information to make a difference in the religious belief system of a Christian owing to the fact of a life-long indoctrination that the New Testament Jesus is the only sacrifice for sin that God accepts and rejecting it means sure damnation according to the New Testament given us by Rome. Enlightening is the fact that this current New Testament which we have today is not truly the First New Testament, because history and facts reveal that Rome will take the First New Testament of Marcion in 150 A.D. and "edit, alter, and mutate" it almost beyond belief and come out with their "Second Edition" in 180 A.D. with Irenaeus.

Answer for yourself: Many changes were incorporated when this was done needless to say. Are you aware of one of the biggest changes that we find in this Roman Second Edition of the First Gnostic New Testament?

We now find in this Roman Second Edition of the prior Gnostic New Testament the "sacrificial death of a literal and historical Jesus" for the sins of the world when in fact it was TOTALLY absent from the First Gnostic New Testament which provided them the outlive for their creative and inventive theology. Even more alarming is the fact that the whole of the First Gnostic New Testament NEVER taught, as NEITHER did the ancients as far back as ancient Egypt, that the Krst/Karest/Christ was a "historical or literal" person. Inherent in all of these ancient Sacred Wisdoms of these aged nations prior to Rome in the 2nd century was the FACT that "the Krst/Karest/Christ" was always understood as a Divine Living Spirit-Entity which "fell along with the Soul" into material and animal existence. This "incarnation of the Krst/Karest/Christ" into mankind was likened to "death" by the ancient. In fact we have tons of examples where this "incarnation of Christ within humanity" is described as the "death of Krst/Karest/Christ" or as the "death of this Heavenly Divine Mind" which "fell" into material existence in order to "seek and save the Soul" which also "fell" into "matter" and "material existence". This Spiritual Concept of the "death of Krst" for thousands and thousands of years were NEVER never literal UNLESS it was understood to have happened to every human being ever born. This "death of Krst/Karest/Christ" was NEVER limited to but one but one person to the exclusion of others. This alteration by Rome of the Divine Sacred Wisdom is the most deceptive alteration of the Divine Truth imaginable to the minds of mankind. In so doing Rome "radically misrepresented" the Jewish Sacrificial System and applied such tragic alterations of Divine Truth to their invented literal "Jesus Story". I challenge any reader to do your own studies and verify what I have told you; if you take this challenge your pilgrimage and restoration of the the Divine Sacred Wisdom destroyed by Rome will begin and you can be recipient today of such Divine Truths that lay under the ashes of the ancient libraries which Rome burned to cover up their deception and subterfuge of humanity 1,800 years ago.

When one's study advances to the point of seeing personally for himself that the study of comparative religions reveals a host of identical "Jesus stories" from ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Assyria, Persia, China, India, South America, as well as many nations I did not mention. You will see most of these "ancient Jesus Stories" have their god and goddess experience identical deaths on "crosses" and likewise die for 3 days and then resurrect. Seeing this for yourself then one begins to seriously question the efficacy of Jesus' death as defined and interpreted for them in the Roman New Testament, especially in light of the fact that the only function of the indwelling Christ was to enlighten the Soul of mankind whereby his Soul would rise above the instincts of his host animal body and nature and in so doing live a life honoring God and thus becoming an atonement for his prior sins before he "awakened from the dead" or was "resurrected from the dead"; this "death" being the darkened Spiritual condition imposed upon the Soul since being engulfed by the animal body and nature in its incarnation.

Notice if you will Paul is speaking and writing to people who are currently alive. He, being a Gnostic, understood this Metaphysical Spiritual Concept that Rome will later change by moving the "resurrection from the dead" from an experience during one's life to after the biological death of the body. Originally it meant a Spiritual Awakening as to your true identity as a Soul as a Divine Entity yourself. That being the case Paul says:

Eph 5:14-15 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. 15 See then that ye walk (live your incarnational lives) circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (KJV)

As you can see the true Paul and not the one of Rome's creation believed that when born we were "born dead" to Spiritual realities needed a "second birth"; a birth that awakened us from the slumber imposed upon the Soul by the flesh. The incarnation of the Krst/Karest/Christ, who also "fell" into "matter", was also termed a "death" and the awakening of the Christ-Consciousness of the Soul was the true "resurrection from the dead"; a Divine Concept which can be traced unchanged from the foundation of history and will remain unchanged until the rise of Roman Orthodoxy during the 2nd through the 5th century. When one discovers books like Bible Myths And Their Parallels In Other Religions by T.W. Doane and The Christ Conspiracy: The Greatest Story Ever Sold by Acharya S, and many others, then he begins to see previously unknown facts of history, Gnosticism, comparative religions, archeology, and textual alterations that throw a whole new light upon the "Jesus Story" along with its Roman imposed interpretation which he has been taught his whole life. This knowledge concerning the term "dying and rising" gods that are the precursor of our later "Jesus Story" produces undeniable facts and evidence for the "thinking believer" whereby he can begin to see the death of Jesus as depicted in the New Testament as being not "new" at all but only a repetition of an ancient story told since the beginning of time. He sees that the "only difference" between his "Jesus Story" and the multiple stories of "dying and rising gods" is that unlike before since 10,000 years B.C.E. when all of these similar stories, from beginning end were only "allegorical and symbolic" of the death of the Soul and Divine Mind of God as they "fell" into incarnational existence the later Roman interpretation of the "death of the Krst", called by them the "death of Jesus", was made "historical and literal" by Rome and in so doing they altered the Divine Wisdom of the ancients and made Rome in the process the sole distribution center for mankind's salvation for the entire world. Any who did not accept and fully believe the Roman theology concerning the "Jesus Story" and accept his "atoning death on a wooden cross for their sins" was damned. Their further alteration of the ancient Sacred Scriptures of the Jewish people sealed their deception to all but those who have the most discerning eyes and prior knowledge of the accurate working of the Sacrificial System. This explains why of all nations in the world who came under Roman military domination that only the Jewish people and their Rabbis and scholars refused to accept the easy "believism" of the Roman Road of salvation and eagerly went to their deaths instead of believing lies about their Souls before a listening God.

If one comes to the knowledge of these events described above only then can he be guaranteed that he will be able to discern the true meaning of the depiction of the death of Jesus as described in the New Testament or at least see if concepts from the ancient "mystery religions" have been attached and radically reinterpreted as applied to the death of this Jesus. Now this is important to grasp. If the "Jesus Story" has been faithfully represented as had been all prior "Jesus Stories" down through recorded history then we would not have a problem with the New Testament; but it was not. Rome cleverly altered this ancient Divine Story of the "fall of the Soul and the Krst" in such a way as to destroy its true Metaphysical meaning and in its place gave the world a false "historical and literal" account of a supposed human sacrifice to which they attached the whole salvation of the world to their imposed inaccurate meaning of it. This is especially important when reading the Romanized Paul's writings which are mixed in with the true Gnostic Paul's writings in this same New Testament.

With what we have just learned as a background let us return to Paul's statement that "Christ died for our sins" which is the fundamental fact of the early Gentile Roman Christian message, the corner-stone of early Gentile Christianity (but not Jewish Christianity or Messianism). But as soon as this simple fact is stated, that "Christ died for our sins", a number of vital questions are bound to arise. In order that we may have an intelligent and correct understanding of this important doctrine and corner-stone of the Christian message it is necessary that we know precisely what occurred and did not occur when Jesus died on the cross. We cannot rest content with teaching that leaves the central doctrine of the Christian faith shrouded in mystery and uncertainty. This does not mean that all mystery can be removed. But the Scriptures do supply the interpretation of the death of Christ that the inquiring mind legitimately asks for, and the noticeable factors concerning it should be known by all Christian people. Believing that the Hebrew Scriptures (the true Palestinian Masoretic Text and not the corrupted LXX and Greek interpretation of them sadly from which all of our Christian Old Testaments originate) is God's word to man. This fact is stated undeniably by me and other, as well as the Jewish people because they know the hundred of purposeful mistranslations made to them in the Greek translation. The link below will educate the reader concerning these "key" theological changes. This is important for it is here we find the first traces of the Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt and their incorporation of their "godman", their "literalized Osiris theology", into the Greek translation of the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures. This lays the foundation for Rome to come later and build upon this Essene foundation and further desecrate the allegorical truth of the "Christ within" as taught by the ancient Divine Wisdom. This altered Greek translation, or should I say purposeful mistranslation, becomes the fertile ground for all later statements of the Roman New Testament Scriptures regarding the atoning death of Jesus (see these purposefully mistranslated texts at http://historyofformationofnewtestament.netfirms.com). Armed with this information about the deceptively mistranslated texts in the Greek and English Old Testaments which corrupted the Divine Truths in the Hebrew Scriptures, texts which were slanted to provide an atoning Messiah to the Essenes we see the origin of this idea blossom later with subsequent Roman theological invention in the New Testament. A great source of this information about the Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, incorporating a "literalized Osiris Theology" to the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures can be found in the great books of Martin Larson on the Essenes such as The Essene-Christian Faith, The Story of Christian Origins, The Religion of the Occident, The Essene Heritage, etc. It is within these book that I first uncovered the corruption of the Greek translation of the the Hebrew Scriptures other than the first 5 books of the Torah which were translated by personally by the Rabbis of Jerusalem when they traveled to Egypt. The rest of the Hebrew Scriptures fell into the hands of the Essenes of Egypt who tragically altered the Hebrew concept of the Messiah in the Prophets and Writings and created an "angel-Messiah" or "literal God-man" whom Rome later elaborated fully upon in their New Testament and "Jesus Theology". If you think I am not telling the truth of the matter I challenge you to obtain and read these books for yourself and begin a serious investigation of the alterations of the Hebrew Scriptures; compare them line upon line with the later Greek mistranslation and the later New Testament corruptions as well. You will come to see that there is false theology attached to this Jesus built around a utterly unbelievable misrepresentation of the Jewish Sacrificial System. In do so you will know for certain why the Jewish people and the Rabbis of Israel refused to accept or use the Septuagint and the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures let alone later the "Jesus Story" and his atonement for their sins; it would be the Jews outside of Israel who would fall prey like us to this adulterated Greek Old Testament just like we have which becomes in time the foundation for the later "literal-historical Jesus Story" of Rome's creation.

If we truly desire the truth concerning the death of Jesus, then we must deal with some rather difficult information at times. It is not my wish to destroy anyone's faith, only to expose the changes made to the Hebrew Scriptures and texts as well as the lies that have been passed down about the death of Jesus which the original followers of the "Jewish Christ/Messiah" never "believed". We hold it to be our task and privilege under the promised guidance of the Holy Spirit to "search the Scriptures", the Jewish Scriptures that the Jewish people accepted, until we reach that understanding which satisfies the mind and heart and conscience, and leads to certainty and finality of Divine Truth.

According to the New Testament, especially the writings of the Romanized Paul, we are told, for instance, in broad terms that we are members of a fallen race, that God has given His only-begotten Son for our atonement, and that salvation is through Him (Messiah) and not through any faith, repentance, obedience, and righteous deeds and works which we ourselves are able to accomplish as atonement for our Sins as the Jews have maintained now for 2,000 years.

Answer for yourself: How correct is this Pauline theology when compared with the teachings of the Hebrew Scriptures concerning atonement and forgiveness?

Let us not forget what we just learned in the prior articles.

Certainly anyone who accepts these facts of the Sacrificial System and acts upon them will be "saved" because the fruit of such a Divine Message leads to Godliness. Yet, accepting these facts and acting upon them would appear to represent only a minimum of faith, and God has made it possible for us greatly to enrich and expand our knowledge of the way of salvation if we will but give careful attention to His word. But the problem is great; you first have to know that these original Divine Truths have been altered and that your Old and New Testaments are corrupted in special "theological" places. For example, the Isaiah translations in the Old Testament of your Christian Bible read completely different in many "messianic" passages as opposed to the Hebrew and Jewish Tanakh. You should ask yourself "why" your Christian Old Testament reads so much different from the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures from which it was supposedly taken! You should demand an answer to this tragic loss of Divine Truth once you see it. Following a religious lie most of our lives surely does not set well with you or God. Most likely you never knew this. It is time to awaken to such sad facts as the Gnostic Paul declares, for it is these alterations of Divine Truth that we have been led to follow false beliefs concerning Jesus, his life, and the death of "the Krst/Karest/Christ".

ANOTHER LOOK AT LEVITICUS 17:11 ...POSSIBLY THE MOST IMPORTANT THING YOU CAN EVER LEARN

Christians generally insist that the absolute need for a vicarious blood sacrifice is rooted in the Torah (first five books of the Old Testament), and cite as proof Leviticus 17:11 "For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul." The sad fact of the matter is that most Christians and Pastors don't understand the verse at all. The Jewish people and their Rabbis teach us the truth of the matter from their own Scriptures and we never listen.

As a Christian, you have probably heard many sermons on the topic of atonement, and have undoubtedly read many studies which support the contention that there is "no atonement without blood." But the truth of the matter is that neither the Book of Hebrews [it says "almost all things"..not "all things"] or the Old Testament maintains that there is "no atonement without blood" as the Book of Hebrews maintains. It would help if we would read our texts correctly in the first place let alone teach from pulpits of our Churches fallacies. Note the verse carefully:

Heb 9:22 22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood (the blood again being a symbol for the repentant Soul); and without shedding of blood is no remission. (KJV)

In fact act the Hebrew Scriptures teach just the opposite! Notice the first clause of the passage in Hebrews chapter 9 is correct but the second clause is an outright untruth and misrepresentation of the Hebrew Scriptures as we shall see. In other words it is a lie according to the reading of the Hebrew Scriptures. Of course you are most likely aware that this teaching of Jesus' death as atonement for sin is not shared by traditional Jews and their Rabbis for the last 2,000 years. They have a great reason for not accepting such a teaching in the New Testament. The reason for the rejection of Jesus' atonement by the Jewish people and their Rabbis for 2,000 years is not because Irenaeus will write Romans chapter 11 and in so mischaracterized the Jewish nation as being "blinded" to Divine Truth. Here is what all of a sudden appears after 180 A.D. by the pens of Roman Orthodoxy:

Rom 11:7 7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded (KJV)

Rom 11:25 25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. (KJV)

Irenaeus gives the world the "Second New Testament" after 180 A.D. that is filled with "replacement theology" and which labels the Jews "blinded" to the reality of human sacrifice for their atonement in the death of this Jesus. This is absurd once you see how the New Testament was penned in pieces over hundreds and hundreds of years. To believe the Gnostic Paul was the writer of this verse which is not in the earliest Romans in New Testament of Marcion in 150 A.D., a strong advocate of Paul and who would have included everything that Paul had written, tells the true story of the matter. These "verses" did not exist and were never penned by the true Paul. The absence of these verses in the First New Testament, let alone the whole of Romans 9-11, is startling to our senses when it hits home. We are fed a lie. The absence of but these two verses speaks volume to our Soul and should "awaken" us to the reality to which we have fallen. But Irenaeus, by labeling the Jewish people and their esteemed Rabbis as "blinded" to Spiritual Truths has made people look to Rome instead of Jerusalem for their Divine Truths. Sad it is that Rome has few if any! It is the Jewish people and their Rabbis mind you that know intently what the Eternal Word of God and the Hebrew Scriptures teach. This fact has escaped the Gentile Christian church because of the many early mistranslations, alterations, and corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures. In their place we have a Roman creation of replacement theology full of religious dogmas that are contradicted not only by Biblical Judaism and the Hebrew Scriptures but by the existing Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the ancients which taught the same theological dogmas as Judaism and the Kabbalah. It is one thing to not have these texts in our Bibles any longer but there is no excuse for taking this above verses that says "almost all things" and teach it as saying "all things" from the pulpits of our Churches as it is so often done. Who notices?

Answer for yourself: Have you ever wondered how the Jewish people could reject what to you seems so clear to you and me? Why would anyone reject a "free" salvation?

It does not make sense to the rational mind but yet they do and have met their death at the point Roman Christian swords as well as being boarded up in their synagogues and burned to death by the millions during the Dark Ages; men, women and children alike for not accepting this "get out of hell free pass" in Jesus' name.

You might remember that in junior high school, we were often given an assignment to write the title for a story; this title usually reflected what is the central idea of a passage. Let us likewise look at Leviticus 17:11 in context in order to make sure we understand the "central" idea of the passage.

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'

What should immediately be apparent is that the topic of this passage is NOT how to secure atonement from sins, but the prohibition against consuming blood. Although atonement is not the central theme expressed in this particular verse it yet provides the necessary knowledge we need to understand how the Sacrificial System actually worked. We are told parenthetically that the reason for this prohibition is that the blood contains the vitality (Soul) of the animal (Genesis 9:4, Deuteronomy 12:23) and consequently, when we bring an animal sacrifice, its Soul (life) which is in its blood serves as the atoning agent, and not another part of its body [like the blood]. The writer of Leviticus informs us that it is the Soul, one's life, which is in the blood [blood is the object of the preposition "in"] which was offered to God daily and even in death which was pleasing to God and which God accepted as an "atonement" and as an "offering for one's sin". Notice that it is not the "blood" which was accepted for an offering for sin, but rather the "life/Soul" which was "in" the blood. "Blood" is not the subject of the sentence; the Soul is the subject. This might be a shock to you but "life" or the Hebrew word "nephesh" which is the "Soul" is the subject of the sentence. Or better said, it is the "Soul/life" which is the subject of the sentence. That means it is not the "death" or "the blood" which accomplished anything, but rather the life or Soul of the person which provided atonement. Such a life is one lived in repentance, confession, prayer, and restitution as shown earlier in these articles and as attested by the Hebrew Tanakh and Jewish Bible. Even your Christian Old Testament will teach you the same things if you read it closely. But few do and most sermons in our Churches today are always from New Testament texts and not the Hebrew Scriptures. It just so happens that the "life-Soul of the one bringing the sacrifice" is "pictured" and "symbolized" by the "life-Soul" of the animal as the animal's blood is placed on the altar. In reality you are placed on the altar with God where He promised to always meet mankind in Leviticus chapter 6.

Repentance in Judaism known as Teshuva (literally Returning). Repentance is the way of atoning for sin in Judaism and brings the Kingdom of Heaven near. According to Jewish law, if someone commits a sin, he can be forgiven for that sin if he performs Teshuva. This means that he ceases his forbidden actions, regrets what he has done, confesses before God, and firmly resolves never to repeat those actions. When the Temple in Jerusalem was active, a Jew was required to bring various sacrifices for certain types of sins. Unknown to most Christians is that not all sin offerings required blood but all did require the Soul's repentance. Although sacrifices were required, the most essential part of atonement was performing Teshuva or repentance. Presently, with the Temple destroyed, atonement may nevertheless be granted even for such sins if the Soul repents. This brings us to examination of Leviticus chapter 17.

The Hebrew word for "life" which is in the blood is the word for "Soul". Such a life, if it was to be accepted as an atonement, was one which was lived completely obediently to God's Commandments [which if obeyed perfectly led him throughout life never sinning]. But reality teaches that sin is part of life and is that sin is a "teaching tool" to teach us "life" from "death" as necessary to our Spiritual development as Souls. Such a life that turned and repented from sin was so pleasing to God that He accepted such a repentant life as an offering for one's own sin. Such a life was lived in a constant intent to live the commandments of God and when one fell short through sin one was preoccupied to repent and then recapture one's right standing with God. After repentance, "at that moment", one was restored into right standing and relationship with God and the placing of the blood of the animal was representative of the sacrificer's Soul before God since he had ALREADY repented. The animal was a picture of him at that time. The Soul of the animal was a picture of the sacrificer's Soul, but only if he had repented PRIOR to bringing the sacrifice. Now you can understand why God at times tells us that He is wearied by the sacrifices of the people.

They were just killing the animals and there was no repentance in their hearts!

Isa 1:10-17

- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.
- 11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats.
- 12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?
- 13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.
- 14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my Soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.
- 15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Notice that God is tired of ritual without repentance.

Notice what God says next and the remedy to this sad state of Spiritual affairs He finds in His people. Notice what God tells them what they must do!

- 16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;
- 17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

There you have it. Through repentance, confession, and a return to obedience of the Laws and Commandments of one's Covenant the people could again be received by God. Nowhere does it say in the Hebrew Scriptures that God did not want the people to continue to bring sacrifices that were symbolic of the Spiritual condition of their Souls. Only then, as you now have learned, was their Souls to be represented by the innocent animal's blood and Soul being placed on the altar. Anything sacrificed without repentance was a lie to God and was a waste of life; not only theirs but the animals' as well.

LET US LOOK A LITTLE MORE CLOSELY

The Hebrew word for "Soul" is as follows as seen in Strong's Concordance:

5315 nephesh (neh'-fesh);

from 5314; properly, a breathing creature, i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality; used very widely in a literal, accommodated or figurative sense (bodily or mental):

The Hebrew word for "Soul" is as follows as seen in Brown-Drivers-Briggs Hebrew Lexicon:

5315 nephesh-

- soul-self,, life, a creature, a person, an appetite, a mind, a living being, a desire, an emotion, a passion
- what breathes, the breathing substance or being, a Soul, the inner being of man
- a living being
- a living being (with life in the blood)

- the man himself, a-self, a person or an individual
- the seat of the appetites
- the seat of emotions and passions
- the activity of mind
- the activity of the will
- the activity of the character

My whole life I was told that I was “saved” by the blood of Jesus, yet Leviticus tells me that atonement which brings salvation is accomplished by my own life before God!

Looking at the definition above, one quickly sees that the activity of one’s will, mind, and character [one’s Soul] was said to be accepted in Leviticus 17 as an atonement for one’s sin [life and not blood remember?]. Mind you this is not the actions of another for me, but rather my own actions which brings my own atonement.

Jesus, like all Jewish people who came before him who were devoted to God and His Torah, as well as those who lived after him, comprise the “suffering servant Israel”. Let us remember that Isa. 53 speaks of the nation and corporate Israel as the Suffering Servant and not an individual even if singular pronouns are often used interchangeable plural pronouns. Both singular and plural pronouns from Isa. 40-66 refer to the corporate nation of Jewish Souls which affect their own atonement. It is this “Suffering Servant” who is “the” light for the non-Jewish nations and should today be this same Spiritual light for the Christian Church. With this perspective, we now can come to understand that the blood of Jesus, our example, carried the life force of Jesus (his Soul). Jesus was totally committed and surrendered to the will of God and His Torah as depicted in the New Testament, again our Spiritual example. That instead of Jesus’ death, in reality it was his life, a life lived pleasing to God as part of the Israel of God which represents to us the active Spiritual agent that God accepts as atonement for sin. In particular Israel is the priest for the Gentile world, and they bring sacrifices for the sins of the Gentile world at Yom Kippur. THINK! Israel’s “Soul”, not only Jesus’s, but all of righteous Israel, past and future, “atones” for sin. These righteous lives are accepted by Hashem on the altar, according to Leviticus 17, as atonement for sin. Such in reality “atones and saves”. When I as a non-Jew come to the knowledge of God and His commandments, and when my life models through my conduct these Laws lived before God I identify with Israel and join Israel in making atonement for the sins of my life.

Remembering what we have already learned; namely, that singular pronouns in the Servant Songs of Isaiah refer to the nation of Israel and not to only one person like Jesus, then we are equipped to look differently at Jesus and any implications for him being the subject of Isaiah 53. In so doing we can find the following verses even the more astonishing.

Isaiah 53:6

6 We (the Kings of the Gentile nations speaking here) all went astray like sheep, we have turned, each one on his own way, and the Lord accepted his ["his" referring to the corporate nation of Israel] prayers for the iniquity of all of us.

Now let us never again underestimate the importance of the prayer service in the Jewish synagogues on the Holy Days for the world for by it atonement comes to the Gentiles who are unaware of such Divine Truths.

Now it become a little more clear. When one looks at Jesus, or other righteous Jews as the Suffering Servant of the LORD, then we see their lives and understand them as “lights to the nations”. This is then easy to understand. Lives lived as examples which were in complete submission to the Commandments of God and as demonstrated by one’s complete submission of the mind, will, and emotions to God and His desires for his people bring atonement for one's past sins. Such examples as the perfect life of Jesus regarding the Laws of God, when followed by me, literally "saves"! Such lives atoned for not only their sins but for the sins of the Gentile world at Yom Kippur and serve as an example to me and you. This example, if followed, provides atonement for our sins. Literally the "corporate" example of Israel is to be individualized in each believer's life when one comes into personal relationship with God. This is explained when one reads Isaiah 53 from the Jewish Scriptures and not the corrupted Christian Old Testament which alters the Isaiah Hebrew texts.

One's God-honoring life (Soul) was later accepted as an offering for his sin in behalf because following repentance his Soul was purified and his life could then be accepted upon the altar of God in lieu of his actual life being demanded by the Law due to his sin. God accepted his prayers and repentance for his own iniquity.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do... (KJV)

So it was not Jesus' death so much as his God-honoring life-style which was lived in complete submission to the Father and His Commandments which not only brought Jesus to tabernacle within God "without measure", but shows us the way to both live and die in a way which honors both man and God and procures for us our own atonement when we live our lives by his example. The death of Jesus was not so much a sacrifice for us but an example for us.

BUT IN A WAY THE "BLOOD" OF JESUS DID SAVE US....IF WE CAN SEE THE TRUTH OF WHAT HE TAUGHT?

Had Jesus's death not circulated by oral tradition among the later Jewish nation as well as the Gentiles then there most likely would not have been a movement catalyzed from within a Messianic Essene Judaism which would reach out to the nations with the Torah and the Laws of Noah. The death, where the blood of Jesus was supposedly shed for sin, was the catalyst that caused a mission into all the world where the Covenant of Noah was extended to the Gentile World. We call this the Great Commission today. Now understand which is said next. For in the wake of the teaching of Jesus death, first at the hands of the Essenes and later with Rome, there would not likely have come a movement into all the world which aimed at taking the Torah and the Laws of God to the nations whereby non-Jews could learn how to live lives pleasing to God as had Israel through faith and acceptance of the commands of God respective of their Covenant. Messianic Israel took to the non-Jews and the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel God's Covenant made with the non-Jews since before Noah. Faith and obedience to the Covenant stipulations brought salvation to the non-Jewish world since within them are the Divine concepts of faith, repentance, prayer and restitution of one's sin. This understanding is what Isaiah understood about the sacrifice of the Suffering Servant, Jesus being but another example of the sacrifice of Israel by the hands of the Gentiles given in efforts to reach them with the truth about the God of the cosmos. Along with the teaching of the death of Jesus, as well as his resurrection, the teachings by which non-Jews could enter Covenant with God and live by the Commandments of God was to be taken into all the world. Better stated and I hope you understand this, the "descent and death of Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter" and material incarnation in humanity along with the resurrection of the "Soul from the dead while yet alive" as human beings was later altered to a "literalized story of a historical person as the Christ who died and was likewise resurrected". I don't intend to deal with this Ancient Spiritual Wisdom and the understanding of "the Christ", or as Judaism called it, the Messiah, at this time, but understand down through history the receiving of the Oral Traditions often lost their original meanings. This is the case here without a doubt. The later oral tradition of a Jewish Christ who was incarnated, lived, died, and was resurrected as a "literal person" was the later adaptation of the earlier Sacred Wisdom. Along with this was the attachment of an atonement for the whole of mankind through his death and resurrection; an atonement which we have now seen never occurred.

Although the "keys" to this Divine Spiritual Allegory was lost, along with these teachings would come the understanding that repentance from sin and a return to God which provides a life pleasing to God which He then accepts as atonement for sin. Many received this truth, many did not. Through the ages of the Christian Gentile Church and at the hands of Rome this teaching was modified and finally lost! Your example of being a Christian today which does not understand the Sacrificial System of the Bible is proof of what I say.

Now you are ready to read our articles on Isaiah to fully understand Isa. 53 correctly

The vast majority of Christians in the world today have not been told this and wander in fables because they lack the correct understanding which only can come from in-depth Bible study as well as associated studies in Gnosticism and comparative religions. And that goes without saying that you have to have the correct texts and unaltered Hebrew Scriptures before you start. Sadly Christians for the most part cannot find the truth because they are working from a corrupted text. They only reinforce error. Buy yourself a Stone Edition Tanakh. Then you will have the Bible a Jew like Jesus would have used and then armed with my websites mentioned above you can begin to do your comparison Scriptural comparisons and see these things for yourself.

So it was the Suffering Servant, Israel, composed of many Israelites, whose lived lives daily in complete repentance and obedience to the Laws of their God which was so pleasing to God that they could be accepted by God as an offering for their sin and not their red corpuscles (blood) which Christianity sadly mistakenly focuses.

*"And the Lord accepted his [the corporate nation of Israel] prayers for the iniquity of all of us" says the Kings of the nations who are speaking in Isaiah 53 according to Isaiah 52:15, 15 So shall he startle many nations, kings (Gentile kings of these nations) shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they perceive.

What makes this even more remarkable is that in this very passage from Isa. 53 it is the GENTILE KINGS OF THE WORLD SPEAKING & NOT THE JEWISH PEOPLE OR THE JEWISH PROPHETS! The Gentiles will one day understand the role played by the righteous Jewish people in expiation of their sin! This is prophetic but you can fulfill it today if you open your heart and head to the facts presented in this article.

Such is the teaching of Isaiah and Leviticus.

Because of the proliferation of bloody rites in Gentile paganism, the Gentile converts to Jewish Christianity would in the first centuries, inherently revert back to pagan backgrounds. Thus the emphasis today on blood instead of a God-honoring life as the offering for sin has been inherited by the Gentile Church. Such falsehoods as taught by the Romanized Paul was a "bridge" to the non-Jewish nations as Rome attempted to "be all things to all that he might win some". This Romanized Paul gave the non-Jew nothing more than what they already had; for in the pagan mystery religions, of which Troas was the capital of Mithraism, Paul's home town, the ancient allegorical Divine concepts of the Soul were modified and embodied in a "literal Christ Jesus" by this Romanized Paul for Gentile acceptance. They did not have to accept Judaism per se, he would simply remold Jesus into a neo-pagan to which they could relate. Basically the allegorical Spiritual concepts of the Soul and "the Krst/Karest/Christ" were both literalized and historicized by Rome and out comes this "golden calf".

Such is the reckless acts of Roman Christianity desperately trying to be received and accepted because of their "gospel" and its rejection by the Jerusalem Church. Rome tries to pass off this "replacement religion" as Pauline when in fact the true Paul was a Gnostic and never believed in a "literal" or "historical Jesus Christ". When Jerusalem would be notified of what Rome was teaching, they rejected it outright and continue to reject the Roman New Testament today. Jerusalem never accepted "Paul's" gospel, or should I say "Rome's Gospel". Neither should you! Rome's gospel could not "preach" in Israel, only 1500 miles away when few knew little of a Jewish historical Jesus or the Torah. Such a clever tactic by Rome only made Jesus the head of the non-Jewish pantheon which were already filled gods which gave their body and blood for their followers for salvation. But such teachings in the Divine Spiritual Wisdom were always allegorical for Divine Life; never literal "blood".

The Living Energy of God, poured out for mankind, was symbolized by the Sun's energy which appeared red at dawn and dusk. Many cultures believed the Sun consists of life-enhancing forces that promotes vitality in all living things. This life-enhancing force that appeared red to them was likened by them to be symbolic for the "blood" of God which was poured out for their lives. This life-enhancing and saving power of God was thus called the "blood of God" by the ancients but it was purely Metaphysical to its core; never understood to be literal. Thus again, we see what was symbolic and Metaphysical in meaning was later incorporated and interpreted as if "literal" by Rome and today the whole of Christianity is misled and deceived by Rome's reinterpretation of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom.

I just gave you the Biblical teaching on atonement.

Answer for yourself: Have you noticed we have not discussed "sin offerings" yet but have covered the gamut of atonement? Sin offerings only began after the terrible sin of idolatry and blasphemy of the Name of the LORD when Israel rejected YHWH at Sinai. Now God would add a new Law that had not existed prior to that time. This the "Law that was added". Request our article on "The Law That Was Added" to further your understanding in this area.

NOW...WHAT ABOUT SIN OFFERINGS?

Really I don't have much to say except they were instituted after the golden calf incident. Then a whole priesthood and tabernacle was required. But even looking at sin offerings, the same Spiritual dynamics applying to the Soul which we have seen before are again applied; namely, the Soul or life of the sacrificer is placed on the altar as a picture of his renewed relationship with God and the authenticity of such a demonstration was determined if he had repented, confessed, and made restitution PRIOR to bringing the sacrifice.

CONCLUSION

Having now come to the understanding that it was a life lived above sin that was so pleasing to God that God accepted such a life as an offering and atonement for one's sin, it should behoove you to rethink what you believe about atonement as a Christian as related to the death of Jesus. Surely you understand that if we was sinless as Christian theology maintains then there is no need for his shedding of blood since the "life in the blood" only atoned for the individual. If you were to do some comparative religious study you will see the preponderance of evidence of how ancient allegorical and metaphorical Spiritual concepts of salvation are woven into a "literalized" Pauline theology cleverly crafted by Rome. I have shown you the Biblical teachings of atonement and have not mentioned or advocated Paul's theology once; rather only shown you the unsoundness of it as revealed by a true understanding of the Hebrew Scriptures. The reason I have not is that nowhere in the Jewish Masoretic Palestinian text are such Pauline concepts of atonement found.

Only when you read the fraudulent and mistranslated Greek Scriptures, which the Rabbis did not translate, do you begin to find such ideas of a "literal atonement" surfacing in in germ form in the texts as the Essenes related them to their Teacher of Righteousness who was slain by Rome. This meaningless death of their Teacher was interpreted by them to be an atonement and this idea was worked into the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures when translated by them. But never fail to understand that such concepts cannot be found in the Hebrew and Jewish Scriptures from which the Greek translation emanated. Somebody, namely first the Essenes "fixed" the Greek translation to read differently and Rome followed in symphony with their deceptive Second New Testament. And sadly for you, these altered and paganized Greek mistranslation became the foundation for your Christian Old Testament. To make matters worse, your New Testament quotes from this fraudulent Old Testament and millions of Christians, unknowing of this event, read this later corrupted New Testament texts as Divine Truth. Over and over as you read your Christian Bible you only reinforce and rehearse error! You need to know that.

Answer for yourself: But that happened over 2000 years ago and who knows of this tragic departure from the ancient Divine Wisdom? Well I do, and others do who have studied enough to see it! The Jews have always known this and this is why they would not accept the LXX and the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures long ago and yet refuse to accept them repeated and enlarged upon in the New Testament today. It was the Jews of the Diaspora who had lost the ability to read Hebrew who were set up for this deception and they readily accepted the Greek translation as well as the secularized Jews of today who accept the New Testament Jesus; never knowing the truth of their Hebrew Scriptures. It is time someone told you! The righteous Jews know this and have known this since 200 BC when the Greek translation was understood by them to be a corruption of the Jewish Scriptures. History records 3 attempts of the Jews to correct such a forged Greek translation but sadly their efforts were enough to overtake the popularity of the already translated LXX (Septuagint).

Understand an animal's Soul represented the Soul of one making the sacrifice, and we, as non-Jews, today are beneficiaries of having the Jew's prayers given to God for our sin on Yom Kippur. Jesus is the archetype for all of Israel. But in this lesson we must no longer overlook the importance of a life lived above sin which procures one's redemption and not the inert blood of the animal or of Jesus's blood. Lives lived honoring God through faith and obedience atones. Your Covenant requires it! Such is the message of Bet Emet as we are called to live like Jesus and not just "believe in Jesus." It has been my experience as a Pastor over the years to encounter multitudes of Christians who trust in Christ's blood instead of understanding the importance of his life, symbolized by his Soul in his blood, as lived in obedience to God as a form of atonement and as a "Living Sacrifice". It is time to reconsider your own life lived in such a way lived pleasing to God as your own atonement. We must walk out our salvation with fear and trembling. We are co-laborers with God in our own salvation through faith and repentance. Such a mistaken understanding of our redemption as seen from this Romanized Paul, since not being taught the truth from a Hebraic perspective, has caused multitudes of Christians to trust in the acclaimed miraculous powers of the blood of Jesus instead of focusing of the miraculousness of a life lived above sin. Such a false sense of security in "blood" instead of "lives lived holy before God and man" unconsciously causes the believer to not regard sin with revulsion as he should. We tend to view sin as less harmful than it is, and compromise with sin which lies at the door.

The bottom line for all Christians to understand is that we have heard way too much preached about Jesus and far too little studied from the texts of the Hebrew and Jewish Bible and comparative religious studies along with the ancient Divine Wisdom which tell us exactly and accurately who this "Krst/Karest/Christ" is as well as his Heavenly and Earthly mission. If we had studied the original sources available to us, we would not be so mixed up theologically in a Christianity today which boasts over 2,000 different denominations all maintaining they have the truth about Jesus while at the same time being the most violent and crime ridden nation in the world.

SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH THE MESSAGE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH...LOOK AT THE FRUIT OF THIS MESSAGE IN OUR COUNTRY WITH A CHURCH ON EVERY CORNER AND TELEVISIONS FILLED WITH THE CHRISTIAN MESSAGE. JUST LOOK OUT YOUR DOOR AND ASK IF A COUNTRY WITH 12% OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION WITH 25% OF THE WORLD'S INCARCERATED PEOPLE IS THE BEST THE HOLY SPIRIT CAN DO????????

May God forgive our laziness to let others tell us what to believe instead of us studying to show ourselves approved unto God. I just showed you part of the problem. Implicitly we are led to not revere the Laws and Commandments of God because "Jesus died for me" and my "get out of hell free card", signed by Jesus, saves me. As a Pastor I saw such falsehoods lived out in the lives of the congregation year after year. When there is no Law, no Commandments, no requirements, no accountability, then there is no righteous fruit and we have our newspapers filled with horror story after horror story and many of these atrocities are being committed by clergy. Lost in all of this is one's personal accountability to God and the Spiritual progression of one's Soul into the "fullness and stature of Christ".

Answer for yourself: When was the last time you saw a Rabbi skip off with the funds of the synagogue or be caught with a prostitute in some motel or exposed on television on "20-20" as being a closet homosexual? When was the last time a Rabbi was found molesting a child? Are they any different than non-Jews; or is it because they have a fear of God that is lacking in the Christian Church because we have "implicitly" been sold a bill of goods that we are "already" forgiven and can get away with it because "Jesus paid it all?"

Sadly few can count on their lives being a sufficient atonement for their sin when your whole life in the Church has taught you to live without Law and the necessary obedience to the Laws and Commandments of God. This the legacy of the Romanized Paul and his "literalized" Christ superimposed upon a Rabbi names Jesus/Jesus is the cause of our Spiritual dilemna in America today. You were taught these "laws and commandments" were a curse when in fact they are the pathway to life everlasting.

Answer for yourself: For after all if saved by the blood of Jesus, what need do I have to live like Jesus and not disobey the commandments of God? Isn't Jesus my "grace card" that allows me to live anyway I want to and not fear the end-result of such non-accountable behavior?

Answer for yourself: If saved by the blood of another, what does a little sin mean, what can it hurt; for after all, did not Jesus die for me as the Roman document, the New Testament states? Well, as you can see now this is a great matter of debate once knowing the facts.

Answer for yourself: Can you begin to see the tragic thinking involved in focusing upon the blood of Jesus instead of the life of Jesus lived above sin and the horrible fruit it produces? This dogma absolute thwarts the incarnational purpose of our Soul.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #6

IS ONLY BLOOD REQUIRED TO ATONE FOR SIN?

"...without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness." (Hebrews 9:22)

Answer for yourself: Is this statement from the epistle to the Hebrews really true or is it a contradiction of the Eternal Word of God and the Hebrew Scriptures and the testimony of Biblical Judaism for the last 2,000 years?

The central theme of Christianity and the New Testament is centered of the belief that the sacrificial offering of the blood of Jesus Christ is the only atonement for the sins of the entire world. Christianity goes on to maintain that "the blood of Jesus was shed in our stead and is the only means of atonement for our sin." Moreover, evangelical Christians assert that for the past nineteen centuries since the destruction of the second temple in 70 C.E., Jews have lacked the essential and indispensable animal-sacrificial system for atonement. Consequently, they insist, God must have provided a blood atonement in place of the animal sacrifices of the past. This sacrifice, they maintain, is the death of Jesus on the cross.

To support this claim that atonement can only be achieved through the shedding of blood, Missionaries cite Leviticus 17:11 which reads:

"This is because the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul."

With this verse in hand, Christians conclude that only by being covered in the blood of the Cross can man have any hope of being forgiven by God for his sins.

Answer for yourself: Is this Christian claim concerning Jesus' sacrifice as the only atonement for mankind truly consistent with the Hebrew Scriptures and Biblical history? If this theological belief as held central by Christianity is true then how is it that in Acts 21, some 30 or so years following the death of Jesus and his supposedly atoning sacrifice, we find that James, the head of Jesus' church, commanding Paul with the sanction of the whole of the Jerusalem Church, to keep the Nazarite Vow; a vow that required that Paul bring both sin and blood atonements for his sin? Was James mistaken in commanding Paul to bring atonement sacrifices or had the Holy Spirit failed to reveal to these followers of Jesus what his death actually meant? What did James, Paul, and the whole of the Jerusalem church know that we don't today that had them continue to observe the Sacrificial System and continue to bring blood sacrifices long after the death of Jesus?

Answer for yourself: Before you try to come up with an answer to these difficult questions you need to be honest with yourself and answer to God the following question: "Just how well do I really know the Old Testament Scriptures and their Hebrew meanings since I am a New Testament Christian?"

Christians claim that the absolute need for blood is rooted in the Law of Moses (the Torah). Traditionally they will often cite the book of Leviticus as proof:

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the Soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'" (Leviticus 17:11)

What should immediately be apparent is that this passage is concerned first and foremost with the prohibition against consuming blood. The subject of atonement here is secondary. Contrary to the Christian claim that Leviticus 17:11 proves that man can only atone for his iniquity through the shedding of blood, this verse only explains the prohibition of eating blood. Christians have conveniently severed this verse from its original context, effectively concealing and distorting its message. In the immediate context of Leviticus 17:11 we find that the Torah is speaking of the prohibition of eating blood, not the subject of sin and atonement. The Torah discusses blood atonement in this verse only as a by-product of its central theme. This crucial message is lost when Christians quote Leviticus 17:11 alone, without the surrounding texts as its proper background. Leviticus 17:11 begins with the conjunctive Hebrew word "ki" (pronounced kee), meaning "This is because...." Whenever a verse begins with this word, it is explaining what has just been related in the previous verse. The previous verse, Leviticus 17:10, reads,

"And any man from the house of Israel, or from the aliens who sojourn among them, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people."

Leviticus 17:11 then continues this message and explains,

"This is because the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul."

Thus, Leviticus 17:11 explains Leviticus 17:10 by revealing that consuming blood is forbidden because it may only be used in the act of sprinkling of the animal's blood on the altar for an atonement. It is a grievous sin to use it for anything else. The Torah therefore commands us in Leviticus 17:13, only three verses later, that when slaughtering an animal, the blood must be poured on to the floor and covered with earth, rendering it useless.

Answer for yourself: Was this done with the death of Jesus as a supposed atonement? Deuteronomy 12:16 states: "Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water."

Leviticus 17:10-11 is therefore declaring two principles about blood:

- you may not eat it
- amongst all the various rituals associated with the sin sacrifice, such as the laying of the hands on the animal, slaughtering, collecting, carrying, sprinkling, placing of the animal on the altar, it is only the sprinkling of the Soul in the blood on the altar that completes the true atonement process and picture of the right standing of the sacrificier's Soul.

You therefore may not eat the blood. This verse does not state or imply that one cannot have atonement for sin without a blood sacrifice. Such a message would contradict all of the Jewish scriptures which clearly outline two other methods of atonement more pleasing to God than a sacrifice - heartfelt repentance and charity.

Although the statement "without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins" is found nowhere in the Hebrew and Jewish scriptures, it does appear in the Christian scriptures. In Hebrews 9:22 the author misquotes Leviticus 17:11 when he states "Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins."* Although this quote in Hebrews 9:22 is always cross referenced in a Christian study Bible to Leviticus 17:11, it is actually a stunning purposeful misquote of the original text.

Finally, if Christians want to use Leviticus 17:11 to bolster their position that blood sacrifices are indispensable for procuring an atonement, they must use all of the verse, not just a part of it. Leviticus 17:11 specifically says that the blood of the sacrifice must be placed "upon the altar to make atonement for your souls." That is to say, Leviticus 17:11 explicitly declares that the Soul in the blood can only effect atonement if it is placed on the altar. Jesus' blood, however, was never placed on the altar in the Temple. If the church is going to take the "blood" part of the verse "literally" as the subject and active agent that supposedly is the atoning agent, they must also take the "altar" part literally as well. Jesus' blood was never sprinkled on the altar, and therefore his death could not provide atonement for anyone. But of course we have already see this in many other examples where the Sacrificial System has been terribly distorted before the uneducated reader in hopes of selling him an easy "false atonement" which will bind him to the Catholic Church for life. We are told that the reason for this prohibition is that the blood contains the life, Soul, and very vitality of the animal. So as you most clearly see now another reason that drinking blood is prohibited is that consuming blood was a very important part of the idolatrous religious practices of the people and nations surrounding Israel (Gen. 9:4 and Deut. 12:23). The blood is sacred for it is the home for the Soul, the active atoning agent in the Sacrificial System.

Israel was clearly instructed by The Holy One of Israel through Moses not to imitate this abhorrent pagan practice in any manner (and this has serious implications for Christian communion, both Catholic and Protestant) which believe the wafer and wine are turned into the actual "literal blood and body of Jesus Christ". Although the actual blood was later to be substituted with wine in many of the sacred banquets of pagan religions, there is ample evidence to support the claim that literal blood was consumed as part of the ritual worship of pagan deities, and this was done as a form of atonement.

Please listen to this! Since this passage from Lev. 17 is predominately concerned with the prohibition against consuming blood, we must look elsewhere in the Bible for instructions concerning atonement for sins. This passage in Lev. 17 is very helpful, yes, in determining that it is the very Soul that is in the "blood" that accomplishes the atonement for sin but we must continue to expand our study to see more about how this Sacrificial System operated. This passage in Leviticus will become clearer later on only as we look at other Hebrew Scriptures. The passage does say that since blood symbolizes the life of the animal, it can be used as a means of atoning for our sins. This passage in Leviticus does not say, however, that blood is the only means of atoning for sins. Indeed, The Holy Hebrew Scriptures tell us of several other things that can be used instead of the blood of a sacrificial ram or bullock in obtaining atonement and forgiveness of sins.

OTHER MEANS OF ATONEMENT.....IS THIS NEWS TO YOU?

"And Moses said unto Aaron, 'Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from [YHWH]; the plague is begun.' And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people." (Numbers 16:46-47)

Answer for yourself: What is the atoning agent in this above Scriptures? It is incense.

Here, incense can be used to atone for sins in the same manner as the blood sacrifices of animals.

Notice what else could be used in place of blood:

"The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel (offering of money), when they give an offering unto [YHWH], to make an atonement for your souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before [YHWH], to make an atonement for your souls." (Exodus 30:15-16)

Answer for yourself: What is the atoning agent in this above Scriptures? Money as an offering to God is a form of atonement for one's sins.

Here, one's offering to the LORD can be used to atone for sins in the same manner as the blood sacrifices of animals.

The phrase "to make atonement for your souls" in these verses is the same expression as in Leviticus 17:11:

"We have therefore brought an oblation [again items of worth and money] (Deut. 12:23-25, 30) for [YHWH], what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before [YHWH]." Numbers 31:50)

Answer for yourself: What is the atoning agent in this above Scriptures? They brought their gold and jewelry as an atonement for this sin.

In these passages, money, gold, or jewelry could be used to make atonement for the children of Israel. The principle here is not that atonement can be bought (this was the practice of the great Catholic church whose priests routinely sold forgiveness in indulgences). Rather, this is about doing charitable things with money as a form of restitution, good deeds, and charity which are part of atonement process according to the Torah. In this case, the money was to be used for the physical maintenance of the temple building, at other times it was the care of the poor, the widow, the orphan, lame, blind, poor, crippled, etc.

DOES BLOOD COVER ALL SIN?

Now get ready for an eye-opening teaching that has drastic implication again for Jesus and his death being an atonement for all sin.

According to the Hebrew Scriptures, blood sacrifices held only limited atonement capabilities and did not apply to various types of sin. Let me explain this in detail so that there is no confusion. Foremost among the limitations of blood sacrifices is the fact that blood sacrifices were only brought for the sinner for his unintentional sins. If a person committed some sin out of ignorance, such as doing work on the Sabbath when perhaps they mistakenly thought it was Sunday, then atonement could be made and blood sacrifices could be brought to the temple as part of his sin offering. Again, let us not forget that his repentance, confession, prayer, and righteous deed did the actual atoning of his sin of ignorance and the blood sacrifice was later brought to declare before God and mankind that his Soul was in right standing with God. The blood that was placed on the altar was only a "picture" and "symbol" of the Soul of the sacrificer who had previously repented. The blood was the "passive agent" in the whole Sacrificial System process; it was his repentance, prayer, confession and subsequent righteous acts and charity that actually accomplishes his atonement and forgiveness long before he brought a blood sacrifice to the Temple for his sin of ignorance. This is the law of unintentional sin according to Biblical Judaism. Now we look at a whole other matter; the intentional sin.

First of all get prepared. Sacrifices never were brought to help atone for sins

that were done intentionally.

Answer for yourself: Does this mean that all of the sin offerings in the Bible we see brought were considered as unintentional sins? Yes. Were sacrifices ever brought for premeditated sins like adultery and theft? No.

Notice the instructions to the priests concerning this:

"And [YHWH] spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of [YHWH] concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto [YHWH] for a sin offering. And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before [YHWH]; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before [YHWH]. And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation: And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before [YHWH], before the veil of the sanctuary. And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before [YHWH], which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation" Leviticus 4:1-7)

The claim so often heard uttered from the lips of Christians; namely, "that only blood could atone for sins" raises many questions when one studies the Torah and the Sacrificial System thoroughly whereby he discovers that blood sacrifices could not and were never brought for intentional sins.

Answer for yourself: Right up front, what drastic implication does this have for Jesus' death being an atonement for mankind's sin? Well, for starters it appears that if Christian theology is correct, which it is not, then even if it were then the death of Jesus could only have atoned for mankind's unintentional sin since blood was never brought for intentional sins. This deserves a long consideration by every Christian; especially by those who have been taught that Jesus is the fulfillment of the Sacrificial System as well as those who have been taught that Jesus is the type and shadow of the sacrificial lamb of the Old Testament Yom Kippur sacrifice. It appears now that nothing could be further from the truth for any such death of Jesus which had any connection to atonement would have only applied to unintentional sins.

Answer for yourself: What happens if someone could not afford to purchase a ram or bullock for his unintentional sin offering? Is it possible that a loving CREATOR would institute a system of atonement that could only be used by the wealthy?

Contrary to the missionary claim that blood-sacrifice is the only method of atonement in the Bible, there are three methods of atonement clearly defined in the Jewish scriptures:

- The sin sacrifice for unintentional sin; implied here the reader must understand is the sinner's repentance, remorse, contrition, prayer, and almsgiving along with correct instruction that will lead the sinner to never repeat this same sin of ignorance again, if he does then it becomes a sin of intention where no blood sacrifice can be brought (Leviticus 4:1-35)
- repentance (Deuteronomy 4:26-31; I Kings 8:46-50; Isaiah 55:6-9; Jeremiah 7:3-23; Ezekiel 18:1-23; Hosea 6:6; 14:2-3; Micah 6:6; Psalm 40:7-9 (6-8); 51:16-19);
- charity (Proverbs 10:2; 11:4; 16:6; Daniel 4:24; II Chronicles 6:36-39)

Moreover, the sin sacrifice and man's repentance accompanied with a subsequent blood sacrifice, known in the Hebrew Scriptures as Korban Chatat, did not atone for all types of sin, but rather, only for man's most insignificant iniquity: unintentional sins. The sin sacrifice along with one's repentance was inadequate to atone for a transgression committed intentionally. This is something of the most serious nature which is only handled between man and God at the High Holy Days on Yom Kippur. The brazen sinner was barred from the Sanctuary, and had to bear his own iniquity because of his rebellious intent to sin against God.

"And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto [YHWH]; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering." Leviticus 5:7) Here, if a person could not afford the sacrificial ram or bullock for a sin offering, certain types of small birds could be used instead.

Answer for yourself: However, what if someone was so destitute, that he couldn't afford even these small birds?

"But if his means are insufficient for two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then for his offering for that which he has sinned, he shall bring the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it or place incense on it, for it is a sin offering." (Leviticus 5:11)

Answer for yourself: What does this teach us? Namely, that the Torah allowed for non-blood sacrifices to be given in place of blood sacrifices. Thus we learn that blood was not always required for atonement and surely was not the "only way to accomplish atonement" as the writer of the Book of Hebrews maintains.

This is very startling to note in lieu of the traditional Christian teaching that "...without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness." (Hebrews 9:22)

Answer for yourself: It certainly appears to me that the writer of the Book of Hebrews has no idea whatsoever how the Sacrificial System truly operated. Don't you find this situation rather strange for a Jew called by the Holy Spirit to convey Divine Truths yet he gets it completely backwards and wrong? Christianity's blood atonement teachings connected to the death and supposed sacrifice of Jesus and that only Jesus' blood could serve as mankind's atonement is completely destroyed by this contradictory fact taken from Leviticus 5:11.

If birds could not be afforded, some simple flour could be used instead and would be just as effective in the eyes of Israel's Creator. The Hebrew Scriptures are quite clear on this. Since flour could be used for a sin offering, it is evident that blood was not the sole means of atonement; never was and never will be! The Christian position that only the shed blood of Jesus could atone for sins is falling by the wayside in light of the serious study and examination of the Hebrew Scriptures. Actually, considering the beating and torture which Jesus is said to have suffered at the hands of the Romans, you have to wonder if atonement was the goal to be accomplished by his death then why God did not have Jesus request that a sack of flour be brought by the Romans and let them whip, beat, mock and crucify it instead of himself!!!

WHAT IF THERE WAS NO TEMPLE OR AARONIC PRIEST ...HOW WAS ATONEMENT ACHIEVED?

While the Temple stood, sacrifices without question served as part of the atonement process. If you read the first articles in this series then you understand the meaning of the presentation of the "blood" on the altar within the Temple.

Answer for yourself: What, though, was to be the fate of the people who did not have access to the Temple?

Answer for yourself: What were the Israelite people supposed to do after 586 B.C.E. when the first Temple was destroyed and they were exiled to Babylon? How were they to atone for sin without a Temple? If the blood was the "passive agent" in the Sacrificial System then was their repentance, confession, remorse, and acts of charity and righteous deed satisfactory to atone for their sin? Yes, it was and it always has been as we have seen previously.

Answer for yourself: What did the Jewish people do in the times of the Maccabees when the Syrian-Greeks were in control of the Temple and did not allow sacrifices?

After King Solomon completed the spectacular Temple building in Jerusalem, he dedicated it with a very moving speech. This lengthy and very beautiful speech can be read in the books of 1 Kings 8 and II Chronicles 6. Notice, however, that strangely King Solomon, in reality Amenhotep III, Pharaoh of the 18th Dynasty of Egypt, doesn't speak about sacrifices at all! If sacrifices were the focal point of the temple, this omission would be very curious. Rather, the focus of the Temple was shown to be the Ark, containing the Laws which our Creator wants us to live by. The Temple was first and foremost a symbol of the Shechinah, or presence of The Holy One of Israel.

"I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever. (I Kings 8:13)

"And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them" (Exodus 25:8).

Toward the end of the speech, Solomon addresses the subject of the Israelite people being denied access to the temple:

"If they return to You with all their heart and with all their Soul in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and pray to You toward their land which You have given to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name; then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You..." (I Kings 8:46-50)

Here we see that Solomon addresses that part of Israel who was yet and would be again captives in another nation in his dedication of the Temple. Here Solomon understand that although the Jewish people were without a Temple they were never without an atonement. This passage helps us understand Leviticus 17:11 properly. The Bible clearly teaches that blood sacrifices were not necessary in order to atone for sins; they were the final "picture representing the atoned Soul" and functioned as the "passive part" of the whole Sacrificial process. Prayer and repentance are shown to be the effective means of atonement. Certainly, when the Temple stood, and if one could afford an animal, a sacrifice was brought as part of the atonement process for unintentional sins. What Leviticus 17:11 teaches us is that when we bring such an animal as a sacrifice, we are not allowed to consume its blood, because as the life force and Soul, it is the vital part of the animal, mankind being a Soul in an animal body, that affects his atonement.

The prophets declared that repentance and charity are more favorable than a blood sacrifice. Throughout the Hebrew Scriptures, the prophets declared that repentance and charity are more pleasing to God for atonement than a blood sacrifice. They repeatedly forewarned the Jewish people from becoming obsessed with blood offerings. Other methods of atonement were more efficacious and would even replace animal sacrifices. For example, King David, in reality Tuthmose III, another Pharaoh of the 18th Dynasty of ancient Egypt, declares in Psalm 40:76 in the Hebrew Scriptures that:

"Sacrifice and meal offering You have not desired; but my ears You have opened (to hear and understand your Word); burnt offering and sin offering You have not required."

These words of the Hebrew Scriptures stand in sharp disagreement with the later Roman Christian doctrine that sin can "only" be expiated through the shedding of blood. Because the Psalmist's words were deeply offensive to the early church as found in the Hebrew Scriptures and has the potential to destroy their radical reinterpretation of the Jewish Sacrificial System which was being corrupted to provide a blanket-atonement for any believer in Rome's theology attached to the New Testament Jesus, the later pro-Roman writer of the Book of Hebrews 10:5-6 was forced to corrupt and tragically alter Psalm 40:7 as it read in the Hebrew. The altered text we find in our Christian Bible and in our Book of Hebrews is found as follows:

"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, But a body You have prepared for Me. In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You had no pleasure." Hebrews 10:5-6

Notice how King David's original words, "but my ears You have opened" (to the Torah) have disappeared entirely in the Hebrews quote when translated into the New Testament. Instead, this New Testament author replaced this expunged clause with the words "But a body you have prepared for Me." This is a startling alteration of the Jewish scriptures but also of the Divine Sacred Wisdom of the ancient which always taught obedience to the Laws and Order of God as seen in the Heavens "above" and in Nature "below". But besides that the ancient Divine Wisdom for over 10,000 years taught concurrently from nation to nation of the "fall of Soul as well as the Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter" and "material existence" in the form of humanity. What was allegory of the "fall" and "death of the Christ in His fall and incarnation into the whole of mankind" was "literalized" and tragically "limited to but one person in the form of the Roman Jesus" and in so doing they altered Psalm 40:7 to make it appear that a "literal incarnation" of Christ into the body of Jesus was a prophecy fulfilled. The "coming of the Christ" to mankind was never limited to but one person; it is the gift of God to all incarnated Souls.

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory (your glory and your atonement): (KJV)

Nothing could be further from the truth than this Roman theology as found in Hebrew 10:5-6 which we have inherited along with other purposeful deceptions of Messianic promises which applies to all but one of the Messianic Prophecies in the whole of the New Testament. Except for just one of them, the whole of the Messianic Prophecies in our New Testament are all forged, altered, corrupted, or invented out of thin air in one way or the other when compared with the Hebrew originals which they were supposed to faithfully represent to the New Testament reader. This never happened but you will never know until you compare them with both the Old Testament and New Testament forgeries "line upon line" and "precept upon precept" as the Prophet Isaiah instructs us! I have so I can say what I have; having done these studies my results proved to me that if you do the same studies as I have then you, like myself, cannot be proven wrong in this regard.

Hosea foretold that the Jewish people would be without a sacrificial system, and instructed us to replace animal offerings with prayer. In Hosea 3:4-5, the prophet foretold with Divine exactness that the Nation of Israel would not have a sacrificial system during the last segment of Jewish history until the messianic age. Hosea 3:4-5 reads,

"For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim. Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days."

In the words of the Bible, this period of time would last for many days. Yet, despite the repeated proclamations of the church that the crucifixion of Jesus serves as a sin sacrifice today, the words of Hosea were meticulously fulfilled.

Given the spiritual magnitude of this remarkable prophecy, Hosea was compelled to reveal how the ecclesiastical temple functions were to be replaced.

- Answer for yourself: In essence, if the prophet is testifying that the nation of Israel will indeed be without a Sacrificial System during their long exile until the messianic age, what are they to use instead?
- Answer for yourself: How are the Jewish people to worship without blood sacrifices during their bitter exile?
- Answer for yourself: What about all the animal sacrifices prescribed in the Book of Leviticus?

- Answer for yourself: Can the Jewish people get along without animal offerings?

By now the reader has the answer to these questions and there is no doubt in his mind to the role of "blood" and its function in the Sacrificial process. Christians, unknowing of how the Sacrificial System actually operated, claim the Jewish are without an atonement since they reject the atonement of Jesus in the New Testament. By now you are clearly seeing that such an atonement does not exist nor has it ever! The Hebrew Bible not only disagrees with this Christian theology but it contradicts it at every Roman turn; providing you know the Hebrew Scriptures from the later Greek, Latin, and English corruptions and their equally corrupt quotations in the New Testament. For this reason, the statement in Hosea 14:2-3 is crucial. In these two verses, Hosea reveals to his beloved nation how they are to replace the Sacrificial System during their protracted exile. The prophet declares that the Almighty wants us to "render for bulls the offering of our lips." Prayer is to replace the sacrificial system. "Take words with you, And return to the LORD. Say to Him, 'Take away all iniquity; receive us graciously, For we will render for bulls the offering of our lips.'" (Hosea 14:2-3)

The prophets never instruct the Jews to worship any crucified messiah or demigod (Exodus 20:2-3; Deuteronomy 4:35; 6:14; 32:39; Hosea 13:4). Nor does scripture ever tell us that an innocent man can die as an atonement for the sins of the wicked as seen in Ezekiel 18:1-23. Take time to read this long passage please. Such a message that Roman Christianity teaches about the death of Jesus as an atonement is utterly antithetical to the teachings of the Hebrew Scriptures. Rather, it is the lips of the sinner that is transformed into bulls of the sin offerings.

In the reference to Ezekiel 18: 1-23, we find that the Prophet Ezekiel condemns the doctrine of vicarious atonement which has become the backbone of Christian theology. Throughout the 18th chapter, Ezekiel warned his people that this erroneous teaching that a righteous man could die for another man's sins was contrary to the will of God. The way for the sinful man to come right by God is to turn away from his rebellious ways, repent, and thereby the penitent is assured complete forgiveness. Throughout Ezekiel's uplifting sermon on the forgiveness of sin, notice if you will that blood sacrifices are never mentioned. Ezekiel 18:1-4, 19-23 reads:

"The word of the Lord came to me, saying: 'What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel, saying: 'The fathers eat sour grapes, and the sons' teeth are set on edge?' As I live, declares the Sovereign Lord, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. For every living soul belongs to Me, the father as well as the son -- they are Mine. Which ever soul sins, it shall die.... Yet you ask: Why did the son not bear the sin of the father? But the son, justice and righteousness did he do, all My decrees did he safeguard and perform them. He shall surely live. The soul that sins, it shall die! The son shall not bear for the sin of the father, nor the father bear for the sin of the son. The righteousness of the righteous person shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked person shall be upon him. As for the wicked man, if he should turn away from all his sins which he did, and safeguard all My decrees, and do justice and righteousness; he shall surely live. He will not die. All his transgressions which he committed will not be remembered against him. For the righteousness which he did, he shall live. Do I desire at all the death of the wicked man -- the words of my Lord, God -- is it not rather his return from his ways, that he might live.'"

Here again we find the same message in the later Prophets that sin is atoned for by repentance, faith, obedience, and righteous actions as we have since the beginning of the Hebrew Scriptures, during which Israel lived in the land in possession of its Temple as well as when dispersed. The message of all the Prophets of God is the same, repentance saves from death and provides its own atonement for the sinner.

IN SPITE OF ALL THIS EVIDENCE TO THE CONTRARY, COULD JESUS BE AN ACCEPTABLE SACRIFICE?

Another focal point of the New Testament is the Christian claim that the crucifixion of Jesus served as the final atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world. However, if the sacrificial instructions set forth by the Law of Moses are examined closely, and you see the guidelines set forth for how sacrifices are to be brought, it will be clear that Jesus could never serve as an atoning sacrifice. Clearly, not just any blood shed in any manner would satisfy the Biblical requirements for atonement. Notice the instructions set forth in the Torah concerning sacrifices:

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls..." (Lev. 17:11)

Notice that the blood of the acceptable sacrifice was to be shed upon the holy altar of the temple, and not on the pagan phallic symbol of the cross. Besides Jesus died on a single stake without a crossbar as was customary of the Romans and their crucifixions. Clearly, not just any spilled blood is acceptable as a sacrifice. YHWH set forth very meticulous rules and laws governing acceptable sacrifices brought to Him. Jesus' crucifixion may qualify as an atonement according to the faith and incomplete knowledge of many but but since his blood was not offered on the altar, it is not in compliance with what the Holy Scriptures of Israel requires.

There are many other factors that would render the crucifixion of Jesus an unacceptable sacrifice according to Scriptural guidelines. According to the Biblical rules in Leviticus, all sacrifices had to be offered by a Levite Priest, a descendant of Aaron. According to the "gospel" accounts, Jesus was killed by pagan Gentile Roman soldiers.

Biblical law also prohibited any sacrifice that was blemished or maimed:

"Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats. But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto [YHWH] to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beefs or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen [cyst], or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto [YHWH], nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto [YHWH]. (Leviticus 22:19-21).

Now we have a problem. The "gospels" of the New Testament clearly teach that Jesus was beaten and whipped, which would have made him blemished and maimed and therefore an unfit sacrifice. Frequently, Christians react to this line of reasoning by protesting that it is improper to be so literal, and that Jesus' death was more of a symbolic or Spiritual sacrifice. This is rather strange when they damn others for not believing the "Jesus Story" as a literal-historical event. Christians will insist, indeed the New Testament itself makes the claim, that Jesus was literally our Passover sacrifice. Let us all remember in the book of John that the Roman soldiers pierced Jesus's side. In so doing he was a blemished sacrifice and disqualified as an acceptable sacrifice according to the Laws of sacrifice. Here we are told that they did not break his legs because this would violate the rules of the proper Passover sacrifice (Matthew 27:26, Mark 15:19, and John 19:3). The legs of the crucified were sometimes broken to hasten death. It was necessary that crucifixion victims must prop themselves up using their legs in order to facilitate breathing. This could prolong death for days at times. The legs were broken so that proper breathing could be prevented, and the lungs crushed the diaphragm and breathing was extremely difficult.

"But coming to Jesus' when they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs...in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled: Not a bone of him shall be broken." (John 19:33-36)

The gospel of John portrays Jesus as the Passover lamb which was not supposed to have any of its bones broken (cf. Exodus 12:46, Numbers 9:12). If Christians insist that Jesus was the literal Passover sacrifice, and his blood atoned for our sins, then Jesus, as that sacrifice, was subject to the literal guidelines set by the Law of Moses given by the God of Israel governing an acceptable sacrifice. Christians always seem to want to have it both ways. The New Testament itself proposes that Jesus was a literal acceptable sacrifice. When confronted with the clear Biblical instructions on how acceptable sacrifices were to be offered, however, they will complain that this is just legalistic nit picking.

Answer for yourself: If Jesus was the final sacrifice, why did the James, Paul, and the Jerusalem Church command that Paul undertake the Nazarite Vow that required sin and blood atonement offerings? Even more so why is the sacrificial system returning according to the Prophets in the Hebrew Scriptures?

The New Testament is clear that the animal sacrificial system never could atone for sin in any permanent way, and indeed the entire purpose of the animal sacrificial system was, in the language of the Book of Hebrews, foreshadowing Jesus' death on the cross. Hebrews 10:4 insists that the animal sacrificial system had no lasting value. "For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins."

Answer for yourself: Why was the above statement necessary for the writer of the Book of Hebrews?

Simply because if the animal sacrifices really worked, why was Jesus' death necessary? It should have been sufficient to keep bringing animal offerings. The New Testament therefore repeatedly declares that Jesus was the final sacrifice for all time (Romans 6:10; Hebrews 9:12; 10:10; 10:18), and there would no longer be any future need for the return of the animal sacrificial system. This doctrine, however, completely contradicts the words of the prophets who clearly foretold that the animal sacrificial system would return in the messianic age. Jeremiah 33:17-18; Zechariah 14:21; Ezekiel 43-44 all teach us that the Sacrifices will return to the rebuilt Temple in the Messianic age. Missionaries often try to explain this problem away by claiming that the reason animal sacrifices will return is to point back to Jesus. This response, however, is a rationalization that is not even used in the New Testament, and thoroughly contradicts the statements in Romans and Hebrews. that Jesus' sacrifice was the "final sacrifice" for sin. It does not appear to be that at all having seen these articles and the facts that they reveal to the reader.

You may wonder why I present this this type of material to you, our readers. Simply, because I discovered upon my personal study these serious Spiritual deceptions over the early years of my Pastorate. In looking for a "Jewish Jesus" I turned to Judaism for answers since not finding one in Christianity. There, when studying Judaism intently I discovered not only these textual forgeries in our Christian Bibles when compared to the older Hebrew Scriptures but the unbelievable reinterpretation of almost all Spiritual Doctrines that existed in Biblical Judaism. Later as my studies would advance after my resignation as a Pastor I would discover the venerable links between the Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the ancient religions with Biblical Judaism. These "unaltered Spiritual dogmas" concerning the Souls of mankind basically remained unchanged up until the rise of Roman Orthodoxy in the 2nd through the 5th century when allegorical Spiritual and Divine Truths that had remained unchanged for thousands of years were "literalized and historicize" and altered almost beyond belief and recognition. This is what we inherited from Rome as you are seeing in these articles. I was so moved by what I uncovered over those years that God led me to create Bet Emet in order to warn and share this knowledge with other brothers and sisters desiring the truth about our "Jesus Story". I do so in hopes that they might learn as well the truth behind the New Testament and repent thereby accepting the true "unity of the faith" given to all mankind which Rome so altered to be almost unrecognizable today without great effort exerted on your part to find such Divine Truths. Such Divine Truths when incorporated in our religious beliefs and lives honors God and guarantees our acceptance when we die. More to follow. Shalom.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #7

WHY WAS JESUS PATTERNED AFTER THE PASSOVER SACRIFICE...SHOULD IT NOT HAVE BEEN AFTER YOM KIPPUR?

It really does not make sense to type Jesus as the Passover sacrifice in the New Testament. Atonement was never connected with the Passover. Doing so shows that the writers of these texts knew little about Biblical Judaism let alone the Biblical Feasts or again how the Sacrificial System actually functioned.

We know from Exodus 12 that the Passover sacrifice did not serve as atonement for sins, it merely commemorates the exodus from Egypt. Even when the lamb was slaughtered in Egypt and its' blood smeared on the door-posts, the blood did not serve to atone for the sins of anyone. The blood smeared on the doorposts of their homes was but a symbol of their faith and was the sign for the angel of death to pass over Israelite homes during the death of the first born. The only people in danger were first-born males, not first born girls let alone older brothers in the same family. This blood, even it has been an atonement of some sorts did not apply for everyone. This blood wasn't a help to other people in the family, and didn't serve as an atonement for the first born or save the mothers or sisters of any family. To try to equate the death of Jesus and his death and sacrifice for the sins of the world evidently let a lot of people "unsaved" if we make Jesus be an accurate "type and shadow" as Christianity teaches. But few study this deep, they are emotionally swayed by pronouncements from the pulpit. It sounds so good and this false assurance that condones any behavior in the name of Jesus satisfies their fears of a lasting hell. Better for them if they had studied at home for truth is often elusive in the Christian Church today which follows "tradition" more than they study their own Scriptures let alone the Hebrew Scriptures. Preaching has always been a poor substitute for "study"; study being the highest form of worship in Biblical Judaism and one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit to the flock of God. Look at you will, you will never find "preaching" as a gift of the Holy Spirit. Once you are taught correctly then you, the congregation, becomes the "proclaimers" and the "preachers". Only in these last 100 years or so has clergy taken salaries to do the job of the congregation. In so doing "serious teaching of the Word of God", a gift from God, has almost vanished from our Churches. The fruit of such a tragic loss of the operation of the Holy Spirit among us speaks for itself.

It would have made much more sense to type Jesus after the Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) sacrifice, which actually was part of the atonement service for the sins of all the people. But there is a major theological problem connecting the Yom Kippur sacrifice with the death of Jesus as an atonement for sin. Before we "hit the nail on the head" understand that the study of Biblical Judaism is not only enlightening for the Christian but delivers one from incorrect damnable theology we inherited by Rome. You will never know Spiritual Truth and freedom from fear or ignorance until you begin to worship God in the highest way ever given mankind; that way is the study of His word. Only in so doing will you ever break free for erroneous Spiritual traditions like the one we approach next.

Answer for yourself: So, what is the problem connecting Jesus' death to the Yom Kippur atoning sacrificial lamb?

The problem here was that according to Leviticus 16:10, 21-22, the animal that atoned for the sins of the nation was NEVER killed but always sent out alive into the desert! (THINK)...it was not killed...it lived...; just as we saw earlier in the previous articles and even in the Isaiah 53 studies...."life" atones..not death!

Because as Christians, since we are reared on "preaching" and not "study" we are not thoroughly familiar with anything except what we have heard preached from pulpits that comes more from tradition than hard-nosed exegesis of Biblical texts. We as Christians are basically ignorant of Biblical Judaism, the corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures when traced through the later Greek, Latin, and English translations, the dynamics and true workings of the Sacrificial System, basically ignorant of Gnosticism, Comparative Religions, Astronomy, ancient Egyptian Religion, etc. This assures us that we are not equipped to tell "fiction" from "truth" when we hear it.

The Yom Kippur lamb that carried the "guilt" and "symbolic sin" of the nation into the wilderness was never killed. To equate this to the death of Jesus as some form of atoning "death" is completely nonsensical! But few know this since having never studied Judaism and the Biblical Feasts in the both the Hebrew Bible, which are given and commanded of both Jew and non-Jew. Not knowing this then we are content to follow the Constantinian Roman Calendar of the Church which completely replaced God's Holy Days. Few ever stop to look up word in the New Testament in their original Greek; had you done so you would have found like myself following Seminary that both Jews and non-Jews kept the Biblical Festivals in the New Testament. It is hidden in the Greek; totally absent in the English. You have found like me that the word "pascha", or "Passover", is used 29 times in the New Testament. In 28 of these times the word "pascha" is translated correctly, as "Passover". Funny, that when we come to the Books of Acts, 12:4, we find that this same word "pascha" which has been translated 27 times as "Passover" now becomes "Easter".

Answer for yourself: Is Easter the same as Passover? No way. Just ask a Jew or a Rabbi, or better yet see what God has to say about it in His Hebrew Scriptures. Understand Rome could not have the early Gentile church observing Passover; although they did for centuries until the Roman repression and persecutions finally stamped out the last of the Jewish Roots of the Gentile Church at the point of swords and shed blood. Here before us is but another "purposeful mistranslation" of the Hebrew words in our Bibles that turns the reader away from the Divine Truths of the Soul in the ancient Spiritual Wisdom and are blessed today to find these same Divine Truths of the Soul in Biblical Judaism which are completely lacking in Roman Christianity. We have to come to Rome in the 2nd through the 5th century to find this "radical reinterpretation" of almost all of the ancient Divine Wisdom of the Soul and the total mutation and alteration of the Divine Concept of "the Krst/Karest/Christ".

Not aware of the Spiritual dynamics of these Holy Days, sacred days that teach upon the progressive Spiritual evolution of all Souls, we as Christians grow up following Rome's incorrect "Jesus" interpretation of these days; never knowing how far we have fallen from Divine Truth. We live our whole lives accepting a false atonement for our Souls by accepting this "Jesus Story" that Rome crafted; never working out our Soul's salvation through a life devoted to repentance, confession of sin, prayer, righteous works and deeds like almsgiving instead of robbing God by giving our tithes to the Church who uses these funds anyway they please instead of the ONLY ways God commanded it be used in the Hebrew Scriptures.

Now the followers of Jesus had another problem. According to the prophecies of ancient Israel, the Messiah was not supposed to die before completing His mission. The followers of Jesus, who much later claimed through the oral tradition that he was Israel's Messiah, now had to deal with Jesus' embarrassing supposed death at the hands of the Romans. So they correlated him with the slain Passover sacrifice. This tap dance around the scriptures to try and legitimize Jesus as the Messiah cannot negate the clear lesson from Leviticus and the Day of Atonement that the shedding of blood is not a pre-requisite for atonement.

CAN YESHUA OR ANY OTHER PERSON ATONE FOR YOUR SINS?

Answer for yourself: Where did this idea originate that one man, or that anyone for that matter, could atone and pay for the sins of one or more people?

Maybe you don't know or have never read on this subject. Many don't and have not done adequate study to know the answer. Others have. It should be perfectly clear to you, if you have ever looked into the subject, that such notions stem from the Babylonian mystery religion of ancient Mesopotamia. The Greeks and Romans, as well as their ancestors, had multiple legends whereby heroes died for followers, cities, friends, for the law, for the truth, etc. But what many writers fail to tell you is that in all of these "myths" that such "dying and rising" gods and goddesses were NEVER LITERAL!

Answer for yourself: So what did these dying and rising gods and goddesses actually mean? This is pretty far advanced for this study but here goes. We find that these "dying", "rising" and "atoning gods and goddesses" were first of all always a Spiritual allegory, metaphor, cipher, or symbol. They were never to be understood as "literal" people. They were ALL symbols for the Descent of the Soul and the Krst, Karest/Christ into "material manifestation". In other words symbolic of the "incarnation into humanity". From beginning to end we find this Spiritual Concept unaltered from nation to nation; from ancient Egypt 10,000 years B.C.E. through the Greek philosophers like Plato, Proclus, Plotinus, Iamblicus, etc. This "death" suffered by these Divine Entities and "Living Energies" which fell into "matter" and "flesh" did to to experience "life" and "Spiritual evolution" necessary in their Heavenly development say the ancients. That is where we find incarnation of the Soul, a Metaphysical concept expressed by the ancients in symbols, pictures, myths, legend, etc. But more than that the Soul, fallen to its "death" and "grace" in Amenta, or "hell", this fleshly body, was doomed to remain "dead" to Spiritual reality due to the power of "matter" and "flesh". But if "awakened" from the "death of incarnational existence" then the Soul could work out its Earthly mission and salvation. But needing help he needed a "Bishop for his Soul" that God supplied in the "falling" and "dying Divine Mind" which comes to "seek and save the lost". Here we find the "incarnation of the Christ" which comes to live "within mankind" to elevate the Soul over the deadening animal nature. These "falls" into "material incarnation" was defined by some as "sin" but a more true understanding is "darkened matter" which was the grave for the Soul; a grave from which is must arise and "awaken from the dead" as the Gnostic Paul admonishes. So in all of this the "atonement" for the Soul comes through the sacrifice of the Krst/Karest/Christ "falling from Heaven" to seek and save the Soul through his "teaching and instruction" during the life of Soul which was "trapped in matter during its Earthly incarnation". Such a fall of the Divine Mind, or Christ to save the Soul, was called by the ancients, believe you me, the "crucifixion of the Krst/Karest/Christ" on the "cross of matter". This "death" of the Christ is incarnation as was the Soul. Thus we read that "we are crucified with Christ" in our texts, never realizing that none of this was ever "literal" or "confined to but one person" but applied to the whole of humanity. This fall of the Christ into "humanity" and "matter" was likened to "death" by the ancient Spiritual masters for thousands of years. This Christ, this Divine Mind, wilfully took upon himself the "death of matter" and in so doing provided Divine Truth for the Soul, deadened as well in "matter", whereby he could "awaken from the dead" and live a life in truth and knowledge whereby he could be the atonement for any wrong doing while in Earthly incarnation. All of this is Metaphysical allegory taught since the beginning of time; Rome will come and not only "literalize this same Divine Spiritual Wisdom" and horribly limit it to but one person, this "reinvention" and "mutation of the Christ". If you think I am not telling you the Divine Truth here then boy do I have some books for you to read whereby you can see this "mutation" and "radical reinterpretation" of God's Divine Spiritual Wisdom step by step at the hands of Rome. This is fact which can be demonstrable to anyone who inquires.

What is certain is that the idea that an innocent person can be killed instead of those who are guilty is not consistent with what the Hebrew Scriptures teach. After the sin of the Golden Calf, YHWH was so outraged that His intentions were to totally annihilate and destroy the Israelite people. Moses offers to die in their place as a "substitutionary sacrifice". Notice God's response to Moses suggestion:

"Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin...; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And [YHWH] said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book." (Exodus 32:32-33). As great a man as Moses and his life could not be accepted for the sins of the wicked. But yet we are told that the God who changes not decided to do just that! Something is wrong with our Christian theology, but never knowing Biblical Judaism and the dynamics of the Sacrificial System we are prey for the slaughter of our minds and Souls by pernicious and pestilent error masqueraded as Divine oracles Sunday after Sunday. And nobody knows any different in the pews.

Throughout the Hebrew Scriptures YHWH says that one person cannot die for the sins of another:

"Fathers shall not be put to death for their sons, nor shall sons be put to death for their fathers; everyone shall be put to death for his own sin"
(Deuteronomy 24:16)

"But everyone will die for his own sin; each man who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge" (Jeremiah 31:30)

"The person who sins will die. The son will not bear the punishment for the father's iniquity, nor will the father bear the punishment for the son's iniquity; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself" (Ezekiel 18:20)

"He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them are an abomination to the Lord" (Proverbs 17:15).

"No man [Jesus included] can by any means redeem his brother, or give to 'God' a ransom for him" (Psalms 49:7)

Answer for yourself: If no "jot" or "title" is to be changed in God's Holy Word, then how do we accept this New Testament which is full of contradictory theology concerning the death of Jesus as an atonement not only for the righteous but the wicked as well?

Unlike the Greek Testament in the Christian Bible, the Holy Scriptures of the One True Creator of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob clearly teach that we are responsible for our own actions and sins. We alone must give an account and pay the price. God does not change! No allegorical virgin born savior deity from Babylonian mythology, or any other for that matter, can later be "literalized" in order to contradict the clear instructions of the God of Israel.

Answer for yourself: Why are there two theologies concerning atonement in your Bible; one in the Old Testament by the God of Israel who says He changes not, and then the Romanized Pauline corpus of material in the New Testament that contradicts it by paralleling an incorrect understanding of the ancient Divine mystery religions? This two conflicting atonement messages is very evident when the Old Testament is compared with the New Testament, and if you say you never saw it dear one you never looked deep enough for it is there!

NOW FOR THE REALLY BIG QUESTION

Here is a question that Christian ministers have danced around for two thousand years, but have never truthfully answered. This question bothered me all the years I pastored.

Answer for yourself: If indeed Jesus came as the final sacrifice to atone for the sins of the world, why do The Holy Scriptures proclaim that the Third Temple will be built and sacrifices resumed during the Messianic era?

The vast majority of average Christians are completely ignorant of these prophecies, as they have been cleverly hidden by their ministers. Notice the clear teachings of The Holy Scriptures regarding this:

- "Even those I will bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on My altar; for My house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples." (Isaiah 56:7)
- "From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshipers, My dispersed ones will bring My offerings." (Zephaniah 3:10)
- "All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will minister to you; they will go up with acceptance on My altar, and I shall glorify My glorious house." (Isaiah 60:7)
- "And I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary in their midst forever." (Ezekiel 37:26)
- "And He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to [YHWH] offerings in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to [YHWH], as in the days of old and as in former years." (Malachi 3:3-4)
- (Ezekiel 45:17) "And it shall be the princes part to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the libations...to make the atonement for the house of Israel."

Answer for yourself: If Jesus' death is the final sin sacrifice and blood offering to be accepted by God did somebody fail to tell Him or His prophets?

LET THERE BE NO DOUBT

Apparently, dear reader, Jesus' sacrifice did not make any atonement for the sins of all the world. If the death of Jesus had atoned for all sins for all time, why will atonement be required during the messianic era?

Answer for yourself: Having seen all of this in these articles how do you answer the true words of Israel's God? Mr. Christian minister, how do you? These questions caused me to study like I never had in my life to find the answers to these troubling questions; questions that I had never thought to ask nor my Pastor. Only in my studies of Judaism, while looking for a Jewish Jesus, did I run across such information that has eluded me my whole life as a Christian. As you are becoming painfully aware the root of our whole theological dilemma and problem lies in the difference between the Hebrew Scriptures and their later "radical reinterpretation" of them by Rome. It appears to the student and "think-believer" that the Hebrew Scriptures contain the Divine authority; our altered Christian texts do not! As a Christian Pastor I came to realize after about 5 years of serious study following Seminary that the New Testament was little more than a propagandist Roman "replacement" document full of anti-Semitic ideas and teachings. Considering all the New Testament Greek manuscripts available today totaling a little less than 6000 pieces, there are over 300,000 contradictions among these 6000 or so texts and no two are "identical" or "read the same". Surely God, if behind this New Testament could do better. When you compare this with the exactness of the Hebrew copyist then the New Testament is a joke. As if that was not enough, my heart broke within me when I discovered beyond any doubt that my KJV Old Testament was a purposefully falsified and altered translation of the prior Jewish Masoretic text. My Old Testament came to be recognized through such serious study in Judaism that it had been "doctored" and "adulterated" in "key" theological positions in order to create and lay the foundation and authority for a "new religion"; a Replacement Religion. I felt no better at all when my New Testament was found to contain the same alteration and forgeries as did my KJV Old Testament. It took over five years of serious study to substantiate these Scriptural discrepancies beyond any doubt and were a major factor in my resignation from my Pastorate. I was an ordained Pastor of an apostate faith. Such shame no man can know. I had believed "the" lie and the "very elect" was deceived. I was a member in high standing of an apostate faith and a man of "unclean lips" as described by Isaiah. I, like most Christians, had accepted everything on "faith" never questioning anything. I was gullible for the LORD until YHWH put in my heart and head the desire to study out the conflicting errors of my Christian theology which surfaced during my 3 years in Seminary. I "awoke" in Seminary. The fruit of my studies I lay before you as a gift from God and as a love offering in hopes your hunger for truth is greater than your commitment to tradition.

YHWH AND MERCY

The Christian claim that only through bloodshed can atonement be made show that Christians are unfamiliar with the compassion and mercy of the Holy One of Israel. Sometimes, God forgives us simply because He is kind, loving, compassionate and merciful. Even when we don't seek our LORD appropriately, He has the ability to reach out to us with love and forgive us:

"Who is a [Elohiym] like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He retaineth not His anger for ever, because He delighteth in mercy." (Micah 7:18)

"Their heart was not steadfast toward Him, nor were they faithful in His covenant. But He, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity...remembering that they were but flesh." (Psalms 78:36-39)

"You have not brought Me the sheep of your burnt offerings...or the fat of your sacrifices, but you have burdened Me with your sins...Nevertheless, I will wipe out your transgressions for My own sake, and I will not remember your sins." (Isaiah 43:23-25)

Truly, truly the Holy one of Israel is a just and merciful Creator not desiring the death of the wicked; rather their repentance.

WHAT DO THE PROPHETS HAVE TO SAY?

Answer for yourself: If the Christian claim that one must be covered by the shed blood of the Messiah in order to make atonement for his sins is valid, why can this claim not be validated by the writings of the prophets?

Time and time again, the writings of the prophets emphasize prayer and repentance as the method to atone for sins. I challenge any Christian to produce a Scripture from Unaltered Holy Hebrew Scriptures (the Old Testament used by the Jewish people of Israel and Babylon) that teaches us that we must believe in the atoning blood of a Messiah in order to obtain salvation [amazingly, even the Christian Bible does not say it]. What the prophets teach us is that our own obedience to the laws of Israel's God combined with sincere repentance and prayer for forgiveness will atone for sin if done with the proper attitude of humility.

- "That every man will turn from his evil way, then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin." (Jeremiah 36:3)
- "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return to [YHWH], and He will have compassion on him; and to our [Elohiym]. for He will abundantly pardon." (Isaiah 55:7)
- "And if My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (II Chronicles 7:14).
- "But if the wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed and observes all My statutes and practices justice and righteousness, he shall surely live; he shall not die. All his transgressions which he has committed will not be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has practiced he shall live...When a wicked man turns away from his wickedness which he has committed and practices justice and righteousness, he will save his life...Repent and turn away from all your transgressions, so that iniquity may not become a stumbling block to you (Ezekiel 18:21- 22,27,30).

- "By loving kindness and truth iniquity is atoned for..." (Proverbs 16:6).
- "If you return to [Elohiym] you will be restored; if you remove unrighteousness far from your tent...then you will delight in [Elohiym]..." (Job 22:23-27).

Clearly, the central teaching of the Hebrew Holy Scriptures is that we must break away from our sinful past and sincerely repent. This is the only way to restore our relationship with the Holy One of Israel. If one strays from the path set forth by the Laws of our God, one must repent and return to the path. This is how forgiveness is obtained. Even when sacrifices were offered, they in and of themselves did not procure atonement; they were only symbolic of the Spiritual condition of the sacrificer's Soul "at-that-moment". You now have seen that in the first articles in this series. The sacrifice was part of the process but only a "picture" of the sacrificer after his repentance.

Answer for yourself: What is repentance? Returning to God by forsaking our evil ways and praying for forgiveness. The prophets were constantly correcting the Israelite people for relying on blood sacrifices as the essential element of atonement instead of or without repentance and obedience to God's ETERNAL's Laws:

- "What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me? says [YHWH]. I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed cattle. And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats...Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from My sight. Cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, reprove the ruthless, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Come let us reason together says [YHWH], 'Though your sins are as scarlet, they will be white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they will be like wool, if you consent and obey...' (Isaiah 1:11-18).
- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord." (Proverbs 15:8).
- "To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to [YHWH] than sacrifice." (Proverbs 21:3)
- "For I delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice, and in the knowledge of [Elohiym] rather than burnt offerings." (Hosea 6:6).
- "Has [YHWH] as great a delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken more than the fat of rams." (1 Samuel 15:22)
- "With what shall I come to [YHWH], and bow myself before the [Elohiym] on high? Shall I come to Him with burnt offerings, with yearling calves? Does [YHWH] take delight in thousands of rams, in ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I present my firstborn for my rebellious acts, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does [YHWH] require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Micah 6:6-8)

Answer for yourself: Do you now begin to see what the very wise king Solomon was trying to explain in 1 Kings 8, when he said that even though the Israelite people may not always have access to the sacrifices and the Priesthood, yet they would always have access to the Holy One of Israel and an atonement for their Soul?

Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived, understood that repentance and not blood is the Scriptural form of atonement.

Answer for yourself: Remember the story of Jonah?

He was sent to the evil city of Nineveh {non-Jews} to warn them of their impending destruction. Jonah does not come into the city and tell the people that unless they begin offering sacrifices they are doomed. He does not tell them that unless they accept on faith that the shed blood of Israel's Messiah will atone for their sins they are lost. No! He warns them to repent. Their response to his warnings is: they fast, pray, and turn from their evil.

Answer for yourself: What is YHWH's response to their repentance?

"When [Elohiym] saw their deeds that they turned from their wicked way, then [Elohiym] relented concerning the calamity which He had declared He would bring upon them, and He did not do it." (Jonah 3:10).

EVEN NEBUCHADNEZZAR IS TOLD HOW TO ATONE FOR HIS SINS....VERY INTERESTING....

"Therefore, O king, may my advice be pleasing to you: Redeem your sins by doing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor." (Daniel 4:27).

THE POWER OF PRAYER FOR ATONEMENT

After the ten northern tribes split away from Judah, a civil war prevented most of Israel from Temple worship. The prophet Hosea addressed this situation and instructed the people accordingly:

"Return, O Israel, to [YHWH] your God, For you have stumbled because of your iniquity. Take words with you and return to [YHWH]. Say to Him, 'Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously, for we will render as bullocks the offerings of our lips.'" (Hosea 14:1-2)

We are able to approach our god directly with prayer, which is possible at all times and regardless of the size of our bank accounts; and He assures us that sincere prayer can achieve forgiveness for our sins:

- "Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O [YHWH], the [Elohiym] of my salvation. And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness. O [YHWH], open my lips, and my mouth shall show forth Your praise. For You do not delight in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of [Elohiym] are a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart. These, O [Elohiym], You will not despise." (Psalms 51:14-17)"*
- "I will praise the name of [Elohiym] with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. This shall please [YHWH] better than an ox or bullock that has horns and hoofs." (Psalm 69:30-31)*
- "For You, [YHWH], are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in loving kindness to all who call upon You. Give ear, O [YHWH] to my prayer, and give heed to the voice of my supplications." (Psalm 86:5-6)*
- "And listen to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear from heaven Your dwelling place, hear and forgive." (II Chronicles 6:21)*

The Holy Scriptures of Israel are very clear. Prayer, a humble attitude, and above all, sincere heartfelt

repentance is what the Holy One of Israel requires of His people in order to atone for sins. No doubt He knew thousands of years in advance that there would come a time when some would wrongly rely on the blood of a deified human sacrifice to vicariously replace obedience to His laws. It is evident to anyone with eyes to see that a comparison between The Holy Scriptures of Israel and the Greek mistranslation of them as well as the later corrupted New Testament texts taken from them will reveal two entirely different religions. One is dedicated to the One True God of Israel; the other is dedicated to a "literalized" and falsely "historized" savior as taken from the allegorical Divine Spiritual Wisdom. Rome in "radically reinterpreting" this ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom along with its repetition in Biblical Judaism has caused us all to err who follow Christianity today.

The Jewish people believe that the time will come when Israel's true messiah will usher in an era of peace when all nations will believe in and seek to worship the one true Holy One of Israel of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. At that time, the proponents of Christianity will deeply repent of the day when they taught the beloved nation of Israel and the descendants of Abraham to break the first commandment and worship another besides the Holy One of Israel.

THOUGHTS ON THE DEATH OF JESUS AS RELATED TO THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM #8

"Bet Emet" stands for "truth" as the Hebrew name implies; "House of Truth". Bet Emet has meticulously dug out over these last twenty years this ancient Spiritual Truth from the "religious fiction" and man-made Roman anti-Semitic teachings held sacred today by millions of Christians for over the last 2 millennia. We have spent much time and research to discover the hidden truths concerning the Sacrificial System and its true relationship to the "Jesus Story" over these last twenty years. Having seen that Rome "radically reinterpreted" not only the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the ancients that existed basically unchanged for thousands and thousands of years, understand that Biblical Judaism was not immune from this same Roman alteration of truth. The Spiritual Truths found in Biblical Judaism has been terribly misrepresented to the world by this Roman mistranslation of the Hebrew Scriptures. We have seen this repeatedly since the first article regarding the misrepresentation of the workings of the Sacrificial System and its purposeful mischaracterization throughout the New Testament as Rome falsified the whole of the Sacrificial System and the obtainment through it of the atonement of one's sin. We have seen repeatedly in instance after instance in the previous article how Divine Truth as related to the Sacrificial System in Biblical Judaism and the obtainment of atonement for the sins of the Soul were transformed by the monks of Rome into a total farce and mockery of such Divine Spiritual Truth.

That being so then what I am going to do next in this article is somewhat dangerous but I want you warn you ahead of time. I am going to make an "assumption" that is totally false. I will make a "false assumption" regarding the death of Jesus, as depicted in the New Testament, for the purpose of teaching another "Divine Truth" truth which will shed even more light upon the truths of Biblical atonement and the workings of the Sacrificial System.

Let us assume that the traditional Christian teaching about Jesus' death being a sacrifice that procured the atonement of the sins of the world was true and correct (although it is not). So we approach what is said next with the erroneous assumption that Jesus' death was an atonement for our sin. Let us see what happens when we approach the Sacrificial System armed with this erroneous "assumption". Now let's proceed.

ATONEMENT FOR BOTH TABLETS OF THE LAW OR ONLY FOR THE FIRST TABLET? THIS WILL SURPRISE YOU!

Answer for yourself: As a Christian, being told your whole life that Jesus' death was an atonement for your sin, then is this "atonement", as seen in Jesus' sacrifice (supposedly a type and shadow of sin offerings), an atonement for all kinds of sin?

Honestly, the answer is "NO"; not all sin, because in the sacrifice of lambs, on Yom Kippur, for instance, the lambs would have only represented the Souls which had repented of sins committed concerning only the First Tablet

of the Law and NOT the Second Tablet of the Law.

Wow! I bet you never knew this! We read the New Testament concerning Jesus' death that it is an atonement for the "believer's sins" never knowing that even if it had been in some way that such an atonement would not have applied to all types of sin. The sins of the Second Tablet of the Law were NEVER atoned for through the Sacrificial System; blood sacrifices were NEVER brought for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law.

Answer for yourself: What are sins concerning the Second Tablet of the Law?

- Thou shalt not murder ("Thou shalt not premeditate murder" is a more accurate translation)
- Thou shalt not commit adultery
- Thou shalt not steal
- Thou shalt not bear false witness
- Thou shalt not covet thy fellow-man's wife, house, or anything that is his.

Now, I don't have the time or space to get into depth concerning these various Laws and Commandments but understand that what is usually understood as the Ten Commandments are not really "ten"; they are "ten categories" in which hundreds of Commandments are grouped under each heading. This becomes very plain to us when we study Judaism and see that under these "ten headings" there are in reality 613 Commandments; 248 positive Commandments and 365 negative Commandments. But for now understand that violations of the Laws and Commandments of God concerning these 5 areas above were NEVER atoned for through the Sacrificial System, intentional or unintentional, and blood sacrifices were never brought in their behalf of these sins. This fact, that is easily uncovered in any half-serious study of Judaism and the Sacrificial System is devastating to our "Jesus Theology" and belief in Jesus' death being an atonement for the sins of the world! Christians, not knowing this dynamic truth regarding how the Sacrificial System operated, then fall for the lies concerning Jesus and his death for their sin that are contained in our Roman New Testament. We have to look again to repentance, remorse for sin, prayer, restitution to our brothers and sisters for our sins against them, righteous works and almsgiving to find atonement regarding these above sins. But this Spiritual Dynamic of the Soul's atonement for its own sin is not new, it is involved in "ALL" types of atonement, both the First and Second Tablets of the Law as we will see later when looking more closely to the atonement connected to the Second Tablet of the Law. The only difference is that "blood sacrifices" are not brought as a part of one's atonement for atonement connected to the Second Tablet of the Law. The only "blood" that is brought in behalf of atonement concerning the Second Tablet of the Law is yours as Lev. 17:11 has already taught us; it is the "life" in our blood, the Soul in "your" blood that atones for these sins of the Second Tablet of the Law. As we have seen previously, it is the Divine Principle set in place by God that your "life in your blood", your "Soul in your blood" that, according to Leviticus 17:11, atones for sin. It is your "life", your "Soul in your blood", your very life and actions, your repentance, your prayer, your righteous conduct and righteous deeds, and your almsgiving toward the injured party and your fellowman following such sin that atones for your sin according to Biblical Judaism, the Torah and the Prophets, and the Sacrificial System.

This is very important to recognize especially when one makes parallels to Jesus as a "type and shadow" of Old Testament truths regarding atonement. And few Christians have ever studied enough to know this....but the Jews have always known this and this is but another reason why they won't convert and become Christians believing in the death of Jesus for their sins!

You can be a Christian your whole life and go to church your whole life and NEVER know that even when blood sacrifices were brought to the Temple that they only represented the Soul of the sacrificer who had previously repented for unintentional sins ONLY! But now we see that these blood sacrifices only represented the Soul of the sinner which had repented of sins committed against the First Tablet of the Law ONLY; never the Second Tablet of the Law.

Nowhere can we find where the sacrificial blood offerings were ever brought in connection for sins committed against the Second Tablet of the Law; sins committed between man and man.

Answer for yourself: Even if Jesus' death was an atonement for sin, and its not, then if being truthful to the rule of "types and shadows" how is it possible that his death and shed blood atoned as the "Lamb of God" for sins that never were atoned for by any animal sacrifice or blood offering? At best Jesus' death would have only atoned for sins of the First Tablet of the Law, between man and God, and that being so then the sinner stands yet guilty before God for the sins he committed against the Second Tablet of the Law, between man and man. Any such atonement provided by the death of Jesus is "incomplete". The Christian, believing in Jesus' death for his sin, according to Christian theology, is yet on his way to a burning Hell of torment and pain because the atoning death of Jesus did not cover all of his sins! Jesus did not complete the job, being a righteous Jew and would be Messiah I guess he forgot! We need to think people! Again, something is critically and desperately wrong with our "Jesus theology" when it fails to atone for all the sins of the world as it says and so doing misleads billions of people. But few again study enough to see these irregularities; irregularities encountered by me in my serious studies during and after Seminary which were done "outside the box" seeking knowledge about God and my responsibilities to Him as his son. Judaism was a wonderful place to start such a serious inquiry and it is for all our readers as well. Only when you compare the "religion of Jesus" with the "religion created around his supposed identity" created by Rome over the 2nd through the 5th century can you see these terrible untruths spread over the pages of our Christian Bible as given us by Rome.

We hear our whole lives that God had a wonderful plan to restore mankind unto Himself. We hear as Christians that His plan would take away the sins of the whole world. All one would have to do is accept God's free gift of salvation through the shed blood of Jesus. As Christians we hear that the Word "literally" came down to Earth in the form of one man and became flesh-- born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and gave up His own life on the old rugged cross to pay the price for the sins of the world. We hear that this Word is Jesus Christ who shed His own blood for our sins upon the cross. This sounds so great and reassuring, but there is one problem. This wonderful story of the death of the righteous for the wicked is simply not true, never has been, never will be. God does not justify the wicked; their repentance does.

God clearly states "I will not justify the wicked" (Exodus 23:7). That seems to imply that we need to obey the Commandments of God and repent when we break them in order to be justified. Divine justice demands that the righteous person should be justified whereas the wicked should be condemned. It is a miscarriage of justice when lawbreakers are set free and when innocent people are condemned. "He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD" (Proverbs 17:15). We can be sure that God will deal justly with us. Therefore He declares: "I will not justify the wicked" (Exodus 23:7). Since God is absolutely just, He cannot let the sinner go free.

Answer for yourself: How, then, can God do this very thing, justify the wicked when He has previously said that such a thing "is an abomination" to Him? How can the following passage in the New Testament be true?

"However, to the man who does not work, but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness." (Romans 4:5 NIV).

Answer for yourself: Don't you think that the "real Paul", being a "Jew of Jews", would have know this or at least the Holy Spirit who moved the "holy ones of old" to pen the Sacred Scriptures of the Jews? Then who is writing such contradictions of Divine Eternal Spiritual Principles?

THINK!

Looking at the Hebrew Scriptures which have "changed not" then we see that this "Romanized Pauline Theology" is a bunch of bunk! But without a through knowledge of the forgery of the Hebrew Scriptures, the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom, Gnosticism, and the ancient Egyptian Religion then the misstatements of Rome concerning the Soul are not easily detected let alone their complete butchery of the "the Christ" which we have inherited. But we as normative and typical Christians never know these things since we know almost nothing of Biblical Judaism, the teachings in the Hebrew Scriptures of the true Messiah, the workings of the Sacrificial System, the corruptions of the Hebrew Scriptures that litter the pages of our Old Testament and New Testament, let alone the complete alteration of the "dogmas and identity of the Krst/Karest/Christ" which we received. We, as typical Christians, know little if anything concerning the truths behind the Sacrificial System and how one actually obtained salvation and atonement before God. As the great Egyptian Religion before them, Biblical Judaism is the vessel that the Divine Creator used to express His Divine Mind and Divine Spiritual Truths to the world. Egypt taught the whole of the known world as we see today. God, through the "Divine Mind" and through His "Christ within us all" expressed and yet today expresses Heavenly and Divine Spiritual Truths to the whole of the world and its Souls. No problem until Rome surfaces in the 2nd century with "Plan B".

Knowing this, that Jesus Christ, according to Christian theology is supposedly a solitary "literal" and "historical" type and shadow of "the Christ", instead of the symbolic personification and representation of the human Soul as he really is, then you can see how a false security in focusing on "blood" and not "repentance" could, and does lead, others to think lightly of sin and in so doing compromise with sin in their lives. Not knowing that such sins of the Second Tablet of the Law are not handled by any blood sacrifices for atonement, let alone any sacrifice that Jesus could have made through his death for others, then we should be alarmed as Christians to know that any such atonement procured by Jesus for us is "lacking" and "incomplete"!

Answer for yourself: What? Is this news to you? Did your pastor ever tell you this? Mine never did! Why not? Who will? When will we ever set under teachers who know the truth about Biblical Judaism and the truth hidden behind Christianity's "radical reinterpretation" of almost everything!

Answer for yourself: Then how are we to get atonement for such sins of the Second Tablet of the Law in our lives if Jesus' supposed sacrifice never covered them nor could ever atone for them? Well, again we must look to Biblical Judaism for the answer.

Rambam writes: "While one should scrutinize one's behavior and repent throughout the year, during the ten days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur it is especially important to introspect and repent, as the time is more propitious and our repentance is received immediately, as the prophet Isaiah (55:6) teaches: "Seek Hashem when He can be found; call upon Him when He is near" (Laws of Repentance 2:6).

Answer for yourself: Is there a time that God is "nearer" to man than others? Not knowing Judaism, then as a Christian you are not aware that there is such a time and it passes you by year after year. The Doors of Forgiveness are thrown open on one day of the year, a day not known by Christians. Rambam goes on to write: "On Yom Kippur Hashem is closest to man. Moreover, the Sefer HaChinuch (Mitzvah 185) teaches that the institution of Yom Kippur, the day designated for atonement of sins, is a reflection of Hashem's great love and kindness toward His beings; He does not allow man's sins to accumulate, lest they become so numerous that the natural world could not endure. Thus, in His infinite wisdom, to insure the continuity of this world He designated one day of the atonement and forgiveness of sins for those who repent". Teshuvah, repentance is integral to the essence of Yom Kippur. It is here in repentance, fasting, remorse, and brokenness for one's sin once a year God opens the doors of forgiveness for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law for all mankind!

Answer for yourself: How many times have you observed Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement in your life? Most Christians will tell you that these Biblical Festivals are for the Jews only. Really?

Leviticus 16:29. *And [this] shall be a statute for ever unto you: [that] in the seventh month, on the tenth [day] of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, [whether it be] one of your own country, or a stranger (THIS IS THE NON-JEW...THE FOREIGNER AMONG THE ISRAEL OF GOD) that sojourneth among you:

Here we see from the beginning that God intended all mankind, non-Jew and Jew, to observe the Day of Yom Kippur since both need "forgiveness of sins of both Tablets of the Law".

Answer for yourself: Did God give us, the Gentile, a "way" for atonement of his sins and we not know it as Christians? As Christians and followers of Jesus in Christianity have we failed to understand the Sacrificial System correctly and miss this important message concerning how we, as Souls, are to find atonement for our sins during our Earthly incarnation?

Such Spiritual Truth and knowledge comes only if you study Biblical Judaism, its unaltered Hebrew Scriptures, and the Sacrificial System in detail. If Christians trusting the blood of Jesus for "their sins" only knew the truth; namely, that the atonement provided through the teaching and examples of the Suffering Servant, the nation of Israel, atoned only for unintentional sins of the First Tablet of the Law and not any sins of the Second Tablet of the Law then they would most likely rethink the seriousness of their sin and the easy "believism" of Christianity would be replaced by their repentance as God intended.

It is a shock to learn as an adult Christian who has trusted the Roman Road of Salvation and Jesus' death for one's sins and their atonement his whole life to realize that such a teaching is totally false. Knowing that there is no atonement in Jesus' death many are fearful and many are often shaken to their very core. But understand what Hosea always knew, Temple or not, God never left the Jewish people nor mankind without an atonement. Knowing that one stands today without atonement before God because you have not been taught the truth of the Sacrificial System let alone the Soul's atonement through repentance by the Christian Church and not lived a life of repentance is a scary thought! Instead of being taught the Divine Truths of Biblical Judaism and the truth about atonement we attend Churches more concerned about teaching that God wants your rich! Thus, now, coming hopefully and finally to the understanding they no one is "under the blood of anyone" for anything, then repentance and the Commandments of God will have a new esteemed value in your life. Since intentional sins and sins of the Second Tablet of the Law never required blood sacrifices, then more important than ever is the fact that our moral responsibility, fear of God, and repentance is a requirement in being co-laborers with God in our own salvation. Now you should better understand the passage which says "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Php: 2:12). As Souls, this is "your" and "my" responsibility; not another's!

If we truly understand the Sacrificial system, and you should by now if you have been reading these articles, then you know that this "literalized" Jesus of Rome's invention, did not die for any atonement for anything let alone for "ALL SINS"! Without the truth and this knowledge of sins and their relationship to the Sacrificial System we as Christians rarely if ever come to the knowledge that blood sacrifices were only brought to the Temple in representation of the Souls who had previously repented and in so doing had already atoned for their unintentional Sins of the First Tablet of the Law (sins between man toward God) before any animal or offering was brought to the Priesthood. Lacking this knowledge that only our repentance provides atonement for the sins of the First Tablet of the Law and that only the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur offers atonement for our sins of the Second Tablet of the Law then we must "awake" as Paul said to this Divine Reality provided for us and do it now! Sadly continuing to accept, in light of all of this knowledge provided by Bet Emet, this false atonement created by Rome around this "Jesus" of their own creation, a Jesus who requires nothing but "faith" and "belief" in religious dogmas created by Rome to contradict the Hebrew Scriptures, one will never have a strong enough deterrent and fear of God to avoid sinning and breaking the Laws involving both "intentional sins" let alone the sins involved in the Second Tablet of the Law (sins between man and man). Most Christians feel that they have a "get out of Hell free card" through a simple belief in this Jesus' death for their sins; sorry it never worked that way and was never intended to work that way where repentance and progressive Spiritual maturity and evolvement of our Soul, ultimately culminating in the Soul obtaining the "stature and fullness of Christ", was to be subsequently thwarted by such an insidious belief as the death of another was the atonement of one's own sins. Thus, understanding the Sacrificial system and the dynamics involved, the more correct interpretation would be "Christ died because of sins." WAIT A MINUTE HERE; WHAT ARE YOU SAYING?

Answer for yourself: How is it that this "Christ died for our sins" when Craig, you have spent 7 articles teaching that no "historical" or "literal" Christ could have ever died for our sins? Now, get ready to meet the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom that Rome corrupted in remanufacturing the ancient Christ and how the ancients understood "atonement" before the Roman "radical reinterpretation" of this Divine Ancient Spiritual Wisdom.

Get ready for the "hidden keys" that begin to unlock our "Jesus Story". I will only present a short summary at this time but in our "Sacred Mysteries Website" we go into this in great and lengthy detail as we unfold the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom concerning "the Krst/Karest/Christ" and his "death on the cross" as taught by the ancients as far back as 10,000 years B.C.E. Please note the ancient Egyptians and later Greek philosophers like Plato, Plotinus, Proclus, etc., were not expressing Divine Concepts concerning some later to be born "Jewish Rabbi" who would be named Jesus; everything in this ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom was about the Soul and only about the Soul and its Krst/Karest/Christ; its descent into "matter", its death when incarnated into this "matter" and flesh (called Amenta, the pit, Sheol, Hades, Hell, purgatory, the Underworld, Netherworld, abyss, etc.), the Soul's struggles and battles with the "darkness of matter" in its attempt to "awaken from the slumber" imposed upon it by the flesh and its lusts and passions, its "resurrection from its grave and death within this body of death, its Spiritual evolution and eventual resurrection while in this body, its ultimate attainment of Spiritual maturity and mastery of this animal body in its Earthly incarnation, and eventual glorification and ascension at the death of this animal body which had served as the vehicle for the Soul's expression and life.

Answer for yourself: Guess what? You just read "the Jesus Story" told some 10,000 years B.C.E. through mystical symbolism, allegory, metaphor, typification, figuration, similitudes, similes, myths, legends, and analogies, and I could go on.

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (KJV)

Answer for yourself: But, what does this mean that "Christ died for our sin"? "Craig, are you yet correcting everything you have said so far"? No, not in the least. It is all about "interpretation".

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that we can find today, spread over basically 10,000 years, ancient Divine Spiritual Truths, truths about God and the Soul, from nation to nation, from Sacred Book to Sacred Book, that were expressed basically unchanged? Are you aware that such Spiritual Truths and teachings were preserved over this vast time basically unchanged? Are you aware that these ancient Spiritual Masters protected these Divine Truths by shrouding them in allegories, metaphors, symbols, ciphers, myths, legends, etc.? Are you aware that from ancient Egypt down the corridors of history until the rise of Biblical Judaism these Spiritual Truths kept their integrity and basically were unchanged; that different cultures had only changed symbols unique to their culture to express the exact same identical Spiritual Truths that had been taught in the beginning of time? Are you aware that around 180 A.D. a nation comes along, Rome, and takes all this ancient teachings of God, Krst, and Soul and their incarnation into material existence in the form of God's "internalized Divine Mind", called the "Krst/Karest/Christ", and completely destroys such original intended Spiritual meanings and in its place substitutes a radically different meaning and "literalized and historicized" understanding to the whole of this ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom? Well, it is time to wake up to this very provable reality.

Rome will burn all the libraries of the world to conceal and cover their your monestrous destruction of Divine Truth and their substitution of lies for Spiritual Truths. In a generation or two later few would know or remember the Spiritual Truths of earlier generations, let alone the original meanings to the dogmas which now carried by the hands of Rome new interpretations and meanings.

Without understanding the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom that existed thousands of years before the onslaught of Rome in the 2nd century against existing Divine Spiritual Truth concerning God, Krst and Soul, one cannot understand the New Testament correctly let alone read it through "Metaphysical spectacles" as it was intended and we sadly interpret all we read as if "literal" and "historical" when these ancient stories were written to always be understood Metaphysically, allegorically, and metaphorically concerning God, Christ, and Soul.

Phil 2:6-8 6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men (the incarnation of the Divine Mind, or "Krst/Karest/Christ" into "matter" and "human flesh": 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death (this "death" was termed by the ancients as the "fall" and "descent" of the Soul and Krst/Karest/Christ (Divine Mind of God) into material manifestation and flesh", even the death of the cross (this "cross" was the interaction of cosmic Divine Intelligent Living Spirit and Energy when impregnated into "matter" and "material existences" (ie., flesh). (KJV)

Totally agreeing with Philippians 2:6-8, the ancients taught that the Divine Mind of God, in the form of "Krst/Karest/Christ", humbled Himself and "fell" from Heaven and was "crucified on the cross of matter" when incarnated into material manifestation (humanity) in an attempt to "seek and save the lost Souls" who had previously "died the same death" and was "incarnated within animal bodies as well". This is the very core of all cosmology; the study of the Universe in its totality, and by extension, humanity's place in it. This "fall" from Heaven and the Spiritual realm of both Soul and "Christ" into the flesh of humanity was likened as a "death" to both Soul and Christ. From this "descending death from Heaven" into "flesh" we obtain the various allegories throughout the nations expressing this Metaphysical Divine Concept of incarnation of God, the incarnation of Celestial Consciousness and Living Energy in "matter". The ancients called this incarnation of Spirit/Living Energy/Cosmic Consciousness the "death of the gods and goddesses" in the ancient religions. Truly, Paul would say "we (Souls) are crucified with Christ"; a total allegory concerning the crucifixion of Christ as well as the Soul as they both had descended from Heaven into incarnation into animal bodies led by animal instinct, animal natures, lust, and passions of "matter". The Soul and Christ, as Living Spiritual Entities, had come to reside in an animal body in Earthly incarnation; coming into "matter" was their Spiritual death. But statements like this found in the ancient Spiritual Wisdom were never meant to be understood as "physical" or "literal" events or actual "historical" or "literal" deaths. This "death" of the gods and goddesses were but allegorical pictures of the Divine evolving and emanating Himself into various levels of material existences to experience Himself and develop Consciousness of Himself though various material manifestations throughout the Universe. In reality this "fall into matter" or "humanity" by God is termed the "death of the Soul" along with the death of "the Christ" since both share the same descent into material existence. We read Philippians 2:6 above never grasping this understanding since being conditioned and indoctrinated to think that this verse refers to but one sole "literal person" who conveniently Rome has defined for us as a historical Jesus. The ancients saw incarnation as a Divine Cosmic Concept of how the God of the whole Universe came to tabernacle within "flesh"; mankind being the Temple of God's Holy Spirit/Energy. No wonder the true Gnostic Paul states that "Christ is in all of us" according to Col. 1:26-27. Nowhere in this verse is an idea of a lone historical person but a Christ shared by all of us. Along with this the ancients understood the Divine Mind, the Logos, the Christ accompanied the Souls in their descent into "matter" and this Divine Mind was termed by the ancients by the term "Krst/Karest" which today we recognize as "Christ" or "Messiah". Understand this "descent of Divine Mind" into the "limitations of material existence which is resistant to the advance of Divine Energy/Spirit" did so and suffered great loss in the process. This "fall" or "descent" of this Divine Mind was likened by the ancients as a "death" to this "Krst/Karest/Christ" as well as the Soul. This "descent" and "death of the Christ", this Divine Mind and Logos of God, incarnating into the darkness, lawlessness, passions, and lusts of "matter" and "flesh" was a "death" willingly accepted by this "Christ" who likewise suffered as did the Soul in its descent as well. The "Krst", in His mission to dwell with and teach the Soul the path for its Spiritual Maturity and freedom from the sin prevalent in Earthly incarnation, accomplished by being the teacher of the Soul its own atonement. The Christ, this still small voice within us, came to each each of us in order to convict our Soul "of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment" in order to deliver the Soul from the death of this material existence; thereby equipping it for its necessary return to the Father. Not only does the indwelling and internal Christ come to teach the Soul within this animal body to properly atone for his sins while on Earth but teaches the Soul as well as to how to progressively Spiritually mature itself which is its incarnation purpose. Had it not been for God sending Himself as "the Christ", His Divine Mind, Logos, into the likeness of human flesh, then the Soul would have no hope of mastering the animal nature, its passions, and lusts and lawlessness. That being so then the Soul would be resigned to never return to the Father as we see is possible in the Prodigal Son allegory. This "descent of the Krst/Karest/Christ" to seek and save the Soul is not possible unless the Christ comes to live "within each child of God"; never being "literalized" and "historicized" to but one period of human history and limited to but one person which Rome has done. Rome, by forging the Hebrew Scriptures radically reinterpreted the whole of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom concerning God, His Christ and the Soul. What was never "literal", what was never "historical", what was never "limited to but one person", becomes just the opposite at the hands of Rome!

The ancients called the incarnation of God within mankind the "death of God" or the "death of His Krst/Karest/Christ" on the "cross of matter" (the intersection of Divine Spiritual Living Intelligent Energy" with "mother matter" (Mary). What was a Divine Spiritual Allegory and Metaphor expressing the highest Divine science and Divine physics regarding the workings of the Creator in His cosmos was totally corrupted by Rome during the 2nd through the 5th century. The ancients had the most unbelievable knowledge of the workings of Spirit and "matter" known ever to mankind; only today are we with our high technology only reaffirming what the ancient Egyptians knew so long ago. This Divine working of God and cosmos was better known by the ancients who shrouded this ancient Spiritual Wisdom and mystery in allegory, myth, metaphor, cipher, legend, symbol, etc., than any today. All was well and the integrity of this Divine Spiritual Truth was kept intact and unchanged, from nation to nation, from Sacred Book to Sacred Book, for thousands of years until the rise of Rome which "radically reinterpreted the whole of this Divine Spiritual Wisdom of the Soul" and so crudely "literalized" it and "historicized it" and limited all these Divine Spiritual Concepts to but one person of their clever inventiveness, the historical Jesus of Rome's New Testament. The whole of Christian humanity since then never knows the truth, that they are "gods in animal bodies" as Plato said. Thus the necessity of repentance for our Souls that enable it to evolve into "the Christ". We never stop to realize the implications of what we read in our Bibles since being trained since children to read everything in this Bible as if "literal" when the truth of the matter is that the ancients were not "literalists" at all; in fact just the opposite. Most of the Bible, both Old and New Testaments is a Divine Spiritual allegory of the Soul, its descent, birth, life, maturation, failures, successes, and eventual Spiritual evolution into Spiritual maturity and ascension back to the Father at the biological death of the body. In fact the Old and New Testament is the Egyptian Religion and the Egyptian Book of the Dead retold! Boy, do we have a lot to "unlearn" and "learn" correctly.

So now you see that had it not been for the descent of "the Christ" and his "death" when "incarnated into fleshly matter", then the Soul would have remained lost in "trespasses and sins", without its savior, "the indwelling "Krst/Karest/Christ".

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (KJV)

This descent of the Christ was allegorically described by the ancient and His sufferings related to the limitations imposed upon Him where previously in Heaven He experienced previously lived an unlimited and unrestrained existence as God's "Divine Mind". Now, fallen to His death in humanity, He found Himself bound in the grave of "matter" and "flesh". This descent, fall, suffering, and limitation self-imposed by the Christ upon Himself, is the allegorical death of Christ on the cross of "matte" and "flesh" which Rome will later reinterpret as a "literal" and "historical death" of one man for the sins of the world; the efficacy of which can only to people through the doors of the Catholic Church per their creation! How convenient! Truthfully, however, there would have been no salvation for the Soul in its Earthly incarnation had not God not come to tabernacle within each of His children as "the Christ". So, in effect, "Christ had to incarnate", fall to His death, intersecting Heaven (Spirit) and Earth ("matter"), making this "crossing of between two different levels of existence, this "cross" in the Heavens (Heaven/Earth), in order to save the Soul from its sins while in Earthly incarnation and manifestation. Only in this way did "the Christ die on the cross"! Never was this intended by any ancients to be a "literal" event; let alone an event that provided a "substitutionary atonement"! The only atonement that ever ensured because of this "death of the Christ" within mankind is that of the Soul which "had ears to hear and eyes to see" the message of the Christ concerning the way of repentance of the Soul).

Answer for yourself: What is the first word uttered by "the Christ" in our New Testament?

Matt 4:17 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (KJV)

If you paid attention, this is the same message of the Sacrificial System intended for the Soul. This "death of the Soul and Christ" in incarnation was not only understood correctly by the ancients but we see this in our New Testament as well once we possess the "keys" necessary to recognize it. This is why not only Jesus, as the symbolic representation of "the Christ" within us all, was wrapped in burial and swaddling clothes when he was first born into the flesh. When the "Christ came to Earth" is was to die, his incarnation was "his death". In reality, it is not "the Christ" who died, it is our Souls' Spiritual Sensitivity to the indwelling Christ within us which is dead, needing a resurrection while we yet live, a "second birth" (being born again). This is the very same thing we see in the ancient Egyptian Religion just like other symbolic representations of Heavenly Living Energies like Osiris and Ptah who were likewise wrapped in "while mummy shrouds" when incarnated within mankind; this is the "Divine Pattern" reproduced over and over in the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom and which we find repeated in our "Jesus Story". Divine Life living within "matter" and material existences (flesh for example) limits the Divine Soul and its Spiritual sensitivity to the Divine Mind while living in material incarnation. All of this symbolism and "keys" to correctly interpreting this allegory in our "Jesus Story" and our New Testament comes in-depth later when we get to the study of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom, our last website at Bet Emet!

But one more thing needs to be said. The True Christ is only found within. His life, distorted as it is today on the pages of our New Testament, can yet serve as a great object lesson. His own life course revealed the path a Soul must pursue in order to attain full realization of the Christ Consciousness. First comes our resurrection from the deadness of our Soul as imposed upon it by the passions, lusts, and carnality of the animal body who lives by instinct and not Spiritual Laws. The Soul needs a "New Birth", where there is an awakening of the Soul to a higher consciousness; something so radically different from former experiences that we call it the awakening of the Christ Within, as though the Christ has been asleep. But the real fact of the matter is that it is we, as Souls, who have been asleep as to the Christ within.

Eph 5:14-15 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. 15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (KJV)

To our human consciousness, the Christ was asleep, and yet the Eternal Christ never sleeps. Mark 4:38 reads: "He was asleep in the hinder parts of the ship". This is a parallel case, given to show our own consciousness to the Christ within us all, who transforms our lives and consciousnesses when we awaken to the realization of the Christ presence within us, the Bishop of our Souls. As Souls, we have been asleep in the sense-consciousness, asleep as to our Real Being as Divine Entities and Souls fallen from Heaven! Thus the admonition of the Gnostic Paul to awaken to the Christ that only lives within, not without as Rome would have you believe.

Answer for yourself: And for what purpose are we to awake? Speaking to people who were already "alive" yet we find Paul considering them "dead men walking" as did the ancient Spiritual Wisdom that Rome tried to obliterate from the face of the Earth. And why do we need to awake? In order as Souls to "walk circumspectly" while in this Earthly incarnation and this only comes when we experience our personal resurrection from the death while we yet live, not after the death of the body as Rome will alter the concept. As progressing and evolving Souls, not attained to the stature and fullness of Christ, we at times mess up an sin. Given to us as our means of atonement is not the "blood of another" and some "easy believeism"; rather God gave us "repentance" and the Sacrificial System teaches this Divine Concept in detail; it is all about our Soul as our life, not red blood cells.

The Soul is the student of the Christ within and must be reinstructed, reinstructed by Spiritual Truth until he advances to the stature of Christ. It is through the wilderness of trial and proving, like in the "Jesus Story", that our Souls reach the consciousness that we are "a Son of God". This the the job of both indwelling Christ and Soul as "co-laborers" in the Soul's salvation and atonement while in this Earthly life.

Before we move on many will be amazed to know that in our Bibles is abundant references to this Divine Sacred Wisdom; only it goes unrecognized or falsely interpreted as if "literal" when these same stories were for thousands of years only interpreted allegorically or metaphorically by the ancient Spiritual Masters. Here again, in summary fashion, is what we have described above:

Phil 2:5-8 5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men (incarnation into humanity and not one person): 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross (this cross is the crucifixion in the Heavens, involving Spiritual Living Energy impregnating virginous void called "matter") (KJV)

Col 1:26-27 26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: 27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (incarnation into humanity and not one person) (KJV)

Had we been taught this Divine ancient Spiritual Wisdom and the twenty or so Divine Myths of the Descent of the Soul and "Krst/Karest/Christ" in the allegorical stories the "dying and rising" gods and goddesses of the ancient nations who descended into "deadened matter" and "humanity", only to later ascend as "Spiritual Mature Souls" to the Father, then we would have no problem reading the New Testament for the very first time and recognizing the Divine Truths of the Soul being told through the "Jesus Story". Knowing this ancient Spiritual Wisdom and its proper interpretation before hand we would have no problem recognizing the Divine Truths behind the Sacrificial System and spotting the Roman lie about the "blood of Christ/Jesus" and his supposed "death" as an atonment for our sins. Had we been taught this Divine ancient Spiritual Wisdom and the twenty or so Divine Myths of the Descent of the Soul and "Krst/Karest/Christ" in the allegorical stories the "dying and rising" gods and goddesses we would have had no problem seeing clearly that Rome reinterpreted the "incarnation of the Krst/Christ within each person" and transformed it into the "physical death of a literal historical person for the sins of the world whereby his blood supposedly atoned for the sins of the world". We see this clearly now having come to full understanding of how the Sacrificial System actually operated. Even though Rome altered the "Christ Story" and the implications of the "Christ's death", once one comes to know the symbology of the ancient Spiritual Wisdom concerning the "indwelling Christ" he can spot these Roman reinterpretations of the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom easily in the New Testament texts. Possessing this knowledge concerning the ancient Divine Spiritual Wisdom of both Christ and Soul, knowledge that Rome tried to obliterate from the 2nd through the 5th centuries, we would have immediately recognized that the "Jesus Story" is the personification of the descent of the Soul and the indwelling Divine Mind as "the Christ" into the whole of humanity and recognized that this "Jesus Story" is in reality "your" story and "my" story.

Basically, the Old and New Testament are dual "tellings" of the story of the Soul and what it truly represented; "yours and my story", our Soul's story told through personification of the path of the Soul in its Earthly existence through the symbolism and personification of a person named "Jesus". This same story was first noticed by the ancients in the path of the Sun through the Zodiac, a most unbelievable study awaiting you in the ancient Spiritual Wisdom. The story of Jesus, found from Matthew chapter 1 through Matthew chapter 28, can be shown to parallel exactly the personification of the Divine Energy of the cosmos, God/Christ, symbolized by the Sun and its path through the Zodiac (birth, life, death, rebirth). We find the "Jesus Story" repeated verbatim from ancient Egypt down through history over and over again, from Sacred Book to Sacred Book, as symbolic for the incarnated Soul and the indwelling Krst/Karest/Christ within mankind; but unlike our "Jesus Story" inherited from Rome, these prior "Jesus Stories", told on different levels of understanding reflecting Metaphysical realities in the cosmos, were never meant to be taken "literally" unless a person recognized that it was "their own story". Never was this "Christ Story" or "Jesus Story" to be understood "literally" or some atonement attached to the supposed literal life of another. Now, understanding this "death of the Christ" as taken form the ancient Spiritual Wisdom which was later altered by Rome, you see that is is and always will be the responsibility of each Soul to work out his own atonement.

So we see in the literalization of the "Jesus Story" that this Jesus, had it been possible for him to be an actual atonement, would have failed to atone for intentional sins and any sins involved in the Second Tablet of the Law. Jesus' death, had it been an atonement, would have applied only to the First Tablet of the Law ONLY and not the Second Tablet of the Law. The Second Tablet of the Law is atoned for by your repentance, confession, prayer, restitution, alms, etc., as Isaiah and other Prophets teach in the Hebrew Scriptures which have been later altered by the Alexandrian Essenes and later Romans to exclude such concepts from the Hebrew Scriptures when translated into the Greek and Latin!

You should not be surprised that the Second Tablet of the Law is atoned for by the same Spiritual methods taught since the first article since "God changes not". Let us not forget that Israel is a Holy Nation and a Royal Priesthood. A Priest's function is to make intercession for another and aid in another's reconciliation. As you saw earlier that prayer was one of the several forms of atonement, then this should renew your appreciation for the Jewish people who, on Yom Kippur, stand in the gap for the Gentile world in their prayer services. They literally, as Priests to YHWH, pray for the world and their sins that God would be merciful and forgive their sin since 2.5 billion of them are Christians and are totally deceived when it comes to the "Jesus Story" and any supposed atonement connected to his death. This is such a Holy thing which is not understood by Christians let alone Christian missionaries who are fixated on converting every Jew to Christianity! Pray to God that this never happens for if it does the "Light unto the world" is then extinguished as was the great Egyptian Religion before them!

Answer for yourself: If such a demonic and diabolical plan was ever to succeed, God forbid, then who would stand in the gap for the world on Yom Kippur.....Baptists, Catholics, Charismatics? They don't even know when this Holy Day falls on God's calendar since fixated only on the Roman one. Christianity does not ever recognize or observe the commanded Holy Days in the Bible. This needs to stop now.

ARE YOU GUILTY OF BREAKING THE SECOND TABLET OF THE LAW.....AND NOT KNOWING IT?

So many might have read this article so far and say..."so what...I don't break the commands of the Second Tablet of the Law?"

Not so fast now.

Christians, because of their perverse theology, break them at will, and what is so devious, is that they do it without ever knowing. My purpose is not to offend anyone, but if I could be honest with you and God for a moment I want you to grasp this next sentence. When I graduated from Seminary I had learned a lot, but most was religious propaganda to support a particular denominational position. It was only after years of intense study following Seminary did I come to the knowledge of the truth that I had hoped to find there but didn't. And if I can say that then what is the the level of understanding of the typical pew setter in the Churches who never reads books or studies his own faith in-depth? I challenge every reader to read our "Law of Noah Website" and see for yourself the implications of these Laws of the Second Tablet of the Law for themselves and see how innocently we have trespassed them living the typical American Christian Life-style as well as accepting the typical Christian theology as espoused by today's brand of Christianity. Have your kleenex ready for at the end of such a study, and having trusted in a Lawless religion let alone a false atonement, your true standing before God becomes frightfully clear.

If you were aware of what is contained in the Second Tablet of the Law you would be overwhelmed and I would hope, once realizing the magnitude of such violations of God's will by the typical Christian following "Christian doctrine" then your tears would run like rivers and your conduct change. Repentance and remorse for our condition is a wonderful place to start as you are seeing.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

You have seen that it a life, your life, that makes atonement for sin. Such repentance, confession, prayer, and new obedient conduct is the only reassurance that at-that-moment you are right with God. Being so, and having done so, then you have the right to be on the altar of God and you are symbolically with God as "one" on the altar of your heart. You need not bring an animal sacrifice for your sins since your life and your actions are already one! The animal, if you remember, was only a physical demonstration and symbolism of the Spiritual condition of your Soul and atonement ha already been acquired by the sacrificier's repentance, contrition and confession, prayer, righteous deeds and almsgiving. Such is the mercy of God to reveal to us, His people, how we can cleans ourselves.

The Gentile Christian Anti-Semitic Early Church, over the centuries, has stolen such truths from you and corrupted the texts and the Divine Truth and recorded downright Spiritual Untruths in their anti-Semitic document...the New Testament

There is no atonement for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law unless you make atonement for yourself!

You now understand our lives, or our "Souls", can go to Church our whole lives but still be led into great error and further sin by being devoted to dogmas taught from the pulpits of our Churches which are Biblically and historically unsound! We can go to Church our whole lives and die without a proper atonement for our sins. But one must know the truth in order to repent or else he will never know he is wrong. That is why study is so important. This series of article is an attempt to address only one of many major problems involving Christian Religious Dogmas that contradict not only the ancient Spiritual Wisdom but the same religious dogmas in Biblical Judaism.

After years of dedicated intense study I found that worshipping according to Christian teachings often is sin as the vast majority of Christianity today has changed the Sabbath as well as made obsolete the Holy Days and Festivals of God and there are Commandments regarding Gentile believers keeping them forever.

Answer for yourself: Since hidden in the Hebrew and Greek behind our English translations are commandments and a "Divine Pattern" for non-Jews to observe these Holy Days with the Jewish Nation and as non-Christians we don't, then who atones for your violation of the Laws of the First Tablet of the Law. Do you observe these Biblical Festivals in the Christian Church, festivals which can be shown were observed by non-Jews with the Jews long after the death of Jesus in our New Testament? Have you asked your Pastor why he and your Church does not since "believers" did in the New Testament long after Jesus' death? Nothing changed, never will with God. God changes not. The "Divine Patter" never changes.

You might not be a murderer with a gun, but our word "kill" is equated by the Rabbis to mean gossip, slander, blasphemy, as well as the failure to take care of the poor, widows, and the orphans. The Rabbis group this with murder which again is sin of the Second Tablet of the Law. You will never know this attending a Christian Church; you will continue to give your money to the Church never realizing that no Christian Church I know of understands the Tithe correctly let alone obeys the Laws and Commandments regarding it. We tell Sunday after Sunday the people not to rob God, but that is exactly what our Christian Churches do when they collect the Tithe and spend the money any way they or their budget requires. Just for starters, 2 out of 6 years "all" of the Tithe is to be given to the poor, sick, lame, blind, crippled, mentally ill, widows, orphans, etc. I said "all", not some "love offering to the poor"; ALL. If you are looking for something to repent of I suggest you study the Tithe for yourself or request our articles on it so learn the truth.

Answer for yourself: Who atones for you for giving your money and Tithes to the Church which does not appropriate the funds as commanded in the Hebrew Scriptures? Were you aware that failing to observe the Tithe correctly is sin? Are you aware that Tithing incorrectly is a violation of the Second Tablet of the Law by which only Yom Kippur and your repentance can atone?

Answer four yourself: Can you see how involved this can get and how simple it is to violate these Commandments of God and its affects upon our Soul? Having read these articles don't you think we need to be instructed by the Jewish Nation and Israel instead of Rome? Is "salvation of the Jews" as the New Testament records?

"FAITH OF JESUS" OR "FAITH IN JESUS"

In discussion of these aspects of the Sacrificial system, we must never forget that we are called to accept the "faith of Jesus" and not just have "faith in Jesus." In these articles I have presented the "faith of Jesus" in light of the Jewish views on atonement. Jesus would have believed the Tanakh (Law, Prophets, Writings). If we are to approximate holiness by living Christ-like that means we have to have a new understanding of how we are to live and we must become familiar with the Laws of God which regulate man's conduct in life. Only then will our lives, lived in conformity to the Laws of God and repentant when we break them, result in atonement. But we have to know them first; I dare say as a Christian you cannot recite the 66 Laws of Noah which make up your Covenant with God. At your death you will appreciate the atonement your life procured through your obedience and repentance when shown b God how your life was lived in both obedience and error. Such Laws, statutes, and ordinances reveal to us, in 248 positive commandments, what God is and does, and in 365 negative commandments what God is not and what He does not do. Only in incorporating the Laws of the Torah which apply to the non-Jew into our lives can be assured that what we do and believe is correct. Only then, when living our lives obedient to the will and Commandments of God can our lives [Souls] be an atonement. Failure to measure our conduct as compared with these Commandments only assures we live by our own understanding, and not God's.

Now, having this knowledge, the rest is up to you.

Are we following "the faith of Jesus" or do we just have "faith in Jesus"?

WHAT IS THE TRUTH ABOUT THE SCARLET RIBBON THAT FAILED TO TURN WHITE ON YOM KIPPUR FOR 40 FOLLOWING THE TIME OF JESUS' DEATH?

One of our readers sent me an article by two distinguished Christian writers entitled: "Search For The Messiah." The main point of the article concerned the failure on Yom Kippur of the scarlet ribbon to turn white the last forty years of the existence of the Temple. These Christian writers, as well as many others, read this in the Jewish Talmud and arrive at conclusions that are not warranted concerning the death of Jesus at this time and possible atonement through his death. I hope to show you the error of connecting the failure of the scarlet ribbon turning white and the death of Jesus in this article.

But first, the pertinent piece of the article:

"THE SEARCH FOR MESSIAH" BY MARK EASTMAN AND CHUCK SMITH; THE WORD FOR TODAY, JOY PUBLISHING 1996

The following is a synopsis of the article connecting Jesus' death and the failure of the scarlet ribbon to turn white on Yom Kippur as taken from Eastman's and Smith's article. In the days of the Second Temple there was a custom to fasten a red-colored strip of wool to the head of a goat which was to be sent away on the Day of Atonement. When this red ribbon became white, it was a sign that God had forgiven Israel's sins.

There is a statement in the Talmud that about "forty years before the Second Temple was destroyed...the red wool did not become white!" [Babylonian Talmud Yoma 39b] The same passage informs us that the gates of the Temple swung open on their own accord! The ancient Rabbis believed that these events were indicators that the sins of Israel were no longer being forgiven and the Temple would soon be destroyed!

- Answer for yourself: What was the reason for these strange events?
- Answer for yourself: Why was this sign that God gave to the Israelites removed?
- Answer for yourself: Was the Levitical system of atoning for sins through animal sacrifice no longer recognized by God?

You must make your choice. Either this man was and is the Son of God: or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool, you can spit at Him and kill Him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to. [C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity]

And it goes on.....

THE CHRISTIAN POSITION ON THIS TALMUDIC PASSAGE:

Simply said, and you read it for yourself, Christians read this or an article where other Christians have alluded to this passage in the Talmud and make two generalizations:

- The Levitical system of atoning for sins through animal sacrifice was no longer recognized by God?
- The death of Jesus, 40 years or so prior, was the reason why the scarlet ribbon no longer turned white, thus indicating his death was a replacement sacrifice for the Temple sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: Can we trust these conclusions as brought to us by the Christian community?

HAVE YOU EVER PERSONALLY READ THE TALMUD FOR YOURSELF?

I learned a long time ago in Seminary to believe nothing I was taught unless I could verify what was being said because, quite frankly, many who represent themselves as “religious authorities” would be better off selling shoes (no offense intended to shoe salesmen for we all need their services, but you get the point).

Answer for yourself: Do you happen to own or have access to the Tractate in the Talmud called Yoma 39 b?

Well you need to get it and read it for yourself. Because what these well intentioned Christians meant is unfortunately a total misrepresentation of the facts recorded by the Rabbis!

When we, as believers in Jesus and followers of Jesus, read such propaganda generated from the misrepresentation mill of Christian energy, unfortunately we have untruths only grounded deeper into our minds and our conclusions are in error and they only sadly reinforce already held beliefs which are in error in the first place.

Before one Pastor or Teacher who represents God to His people writes anything he should have his facts straight and be able to prove what he says. Otherwise such gifts from his pen is to his shame, both to himself and God as he literally misrepresents God to His people and “strikes the rock a second time.” Moses was severely chastised for such an action and I can only wonder the fruit of my similar transgressions years ago as a Christian Pastor more full of zeal than knowledge. I have begged God forgiveness for teaching lies and doctrines accepted by faith uncritically from those “I trusted not to lead me into error.” I was just like you!

Today, I believe I have more integrity than before and before I write anything I have the confidence that I can prove everything I write; or simply I don't write it. I guess that is what is so scary to most who read the truth after years of settling for less. Today understand my research has been impeccable...and that is why I do what I do....try to alert others to falsehoods in their faith and relationship with God....surely we should want our relationship with God built ONLY on truth. Our faith in God and our allegiance to Jesus is not benefited by a lie; in fact it is a detriment to Jesus to teach or preach untruths about him.

SO WHAT DOES TRACTATE YOMA 39b SAY?

As I said earlier you need to read this for yourself for I am about to correct the distinguished Christian writers of the above article who more than likely earned money by such an article of misrepresented facts.

First of all Jesus was born as determined by scholars at in the year 4 BC.....a year before Herod died....so Jesus was born 4 years before his birth according to Christianity.....get it...that is a joke? I hope you caught the word play of "BC."

Next.....the Talmud DOES NOT SAY....the scarlet ribbon quit turning white in and around the year 40 C.E. (A.D.). It does not make the connection of the failure of the scarlet ribbon to continue to turn white, indicating forgiveness of sins, at the time of Jesus' death.

Here is what Yoma 39 b does say...

"Our Rabbis taught: Throughout the forty years that Simeon the Righteous ministered, the lot [For the Lord] would always come up in the right hand: from that time on, it would come up now in the right hand, now in the left. And [during the same time] the crimson-colored strap would become white. From that time on IT WOULD AT TIMES become white, at others not. Also: Throughout those forty years the westernmost light was shining, from that time on, it was now shining, now failing; also the fire of the pile of wood kept burning strong, so that the priests did not have to bring to the pile any other wood besides the two logs, in order to fulfill the command about providing the wood unintermittently; from that time on, it would occasionally keep burning strong, at other times not, so that the priests could not do without brining throughout the day wood for the pile [on the altar]. "It was considered a happy omen when the lot came up in the right hand, and the temptation was as great as near to improve upon chance by dexterous manipulation. If the scarlet ribbon which was tied between the horns of the bullock became white, it signified the Holy One, blessed be He, had forgiven Israel's sin. The westernmost light on the candlestick in the Temple, into which as much oil was put as into others, when extinguished, burned on, in spite of the fact that it had been kindled first. This miracle was taken as a sign that the Shechinah rested over Israel" (Yoma 39b). The failure of these manifestations was at first INTERMITTENT and they were connected by the Rabbis to the cessation of the ministry of Simeon the Righteous!

"From that time on a curse was sent..." (Yoma 39b).

Answer for yourself: Did you see anything mentioned about the failure of the scarlet ribbon turning white, the failure of the westernmost light to shine, and the failure of the fire to keep lighted connected with Jesus or his death in any way?

YOMA 39B GOES ON TO SAY:

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that for many years the manifestations ceased on an intermittent basis and only the last 40 years did it become constant?

"During the last forty years before the destruction of the Temple the lot [For the Lord] did not come up in the right hand; not did the crimson-colored strap become white; not did the westernmost light shine; and the doors of the Hekal would open by themselves, until R. Johanan b. Zakkai rebuked them, saying: Hekal, Hekal, why wilt thou be the alarmer thyself?"

If one keeps reading we find that there is an allusion to the cessation of the miraculous in the Temple during the reign of Solomon when "idolators" entered the Temple.

Answer for yourself: Since the same passage refers to the cessation of the miraculous first intermittently, then constantly, and includes a reference to the same cessation of the miraculous due to the presence of "idolators" in the Temple, do you not think that the same message is being conveyed to Israel during these difficult day? Are you aware that pagan sacrifices were being brought to Caesar in the Temple at this time?

Answer for yourself: So what did we just read? There was no mention of Jesus death....and that the cessation of these miraculous signs were occurring long before the last 40 years.....during Jesus' infancy, his childhood, his ministry....while he was still alive.....not waiting till his death to manifest!

Answer for yourself: Are the conclusions from Christian commentators like Chuck Smith and Mark Eastman accurate?

Answer for yourself: So what have we learned? The cessation of these miraculous signs as God approval and forgiveness of Israel's sins began when Simeon the RIGHTEOUS' ministry ceased at his death. The righteous example to Israel had perished among them. Simeon's light illuminating the path of repentance from idolatry had been extinguished, and if you have studied the religious milieu of Second Temple Judaism in this time frame you then understand the message being conveyed by God to Israel because their hearts had not returned to the fathers (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, etc.).

John the Baptist, Jesus, and Peter began their ministry with one word: "repent and return to God and His commandments." Israel was given a generation to repent and merit its calling as a Holy Nation and Royal Priesthood to the nations. Instead she wanted to be like her Gentile neighbors. The generation was given 40 years to repent and she would not. Her Temple would be taken from her and the failure of the scarlet ribbon was a testimony from God that Israel's heart was not symbolized by the animals slain on the altar. Israel had continued to put the "blood/life/soul of the animal on the altar at Yom Kippur for the nation for atonement, but the nation had failed to repent of her idolatry before offering the Yom Kippur sacrifice, and the nations' soul/life was not accurately represented when the blood/life/soul of the animal, in proxy, was presented on the altar in lieu of Israel's soul. God, not seeing a repentant heart of His people before the offering of their sacrifices, meant the animal or blood accomplished nothing; for the animal and its blood/soul was but a picture of the actual state of those offering the sacrifice in the first place. God had no choice but to send the message: "your sins are not forgiven just because you slaughter animals and sprinkle their blood....it is your hearts that still harbor sin which is not yet forgiven." [see Isa.1] If you have never understood how the sacrificial system worked, ask and we will see you get this very important information as Christianity teaches it completely wrong!

If you have studied much you can see Israel needed desperately to repent.....modernism, liberalism, when in Rome do as the Romans stuff....and this was the message of the Prophets and Jesus and Simeon as well.

The lapsing of such miraculous events as the scarlet ribbon failing to turn white intermittently before the birth of Jesus demonstrates to us that God was telling them the same message that He will only reinforce more strongly later. It has nothing to do with the death of Jesus as it began long before his birth. This was a message from God to the people to repent...and return to Him...it began long before Jesus died....and accurately he dies in and around 36...that is 4 years before the events would lapse completely.

Answer for yourself: So let me ask you...you are reading materials by people who misrepresent the facts.....hopefully you will tired of that.....I did.....so I set out and dedicated myself to learn the truth for myself and teach it to others.

Answer for yourself: Now ....can we say that the cessation of these events signal that Jesus' death replaced the Sacrificial System and are connected to Jesus' death? Nooooooooooooo!

But it does not matter...we can still believe in him and look to him as a model of "Godliness" and the possible Messiah.....Christians do not need to embellish the truth to make Jesus greater than he already is...let us be satisfied with the truth. Shalom.

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH? ...STUDIES IN BIBLICAL ATONEMENT #1

It is assumed that before you read these articles that you have already read and are conversant with the prior articles on "Atonement and the Sacrificial System". If not then to properly understand what follows will not only be difficult but impossible for most.

Christians have been told their whole lives that two great objectives were accomplished by Yeshua's death as recorded in the New Testament. As I grew up in the Christian church I was told Sunday after Sunday that Yeshua's death and crucifixion was an act of atoning, or making up for human sin. Along the same vein such atonement was to be understood as my "salvation" as accepting such death for my sin allowed me to enter into right relationship with God through Yeshua's death. It was explained to me that salvation requires God's forgiveness and that this in turn required an adequate atonement to satisfy the divine righteousness and/or justice. It was further explained to me that Yeshua's crucifixion whereby he shed his blood was the atoning act that make payment to wipe out my debt due to my sin and subsequently canceled my impending judgment by God.

Answer for yourself: Assuming that your have read the prior articles on "Atonement and the Sacrificial System" as it is understood in Biblical Judaism then how this is possible as we saw that it is the "soul" that makes atonement and not actually "the blood" and that this was accomplished long before any animal was taken to the Temple through the spiritual actions of the "sinner" through repentance, confession, prayer, alms, etc.?

In the background there is the idea of the moral order of the universe which requires that sin, as a disruption of that order, be restored either by just punishment of the offender or a substitute, or by some adequate satisfaction in lieu of punishment. For those of you who have studied our Egypt Website then you understand this principle has been with mankind since the beginning (<http://www.egyptcx.netfirms.com>).

Besides the above, as a Christian I was taught that the shedding of Yeshua's blood was for the removal of the curse under which mankind labored as a result of the disobedience and fall. Along with these teachings I was assured that this restoration of men to the image and fellowship of God through the blood of Yeshua was essential to my salvation. All I needed to do was accept this teaching as true and I was "saved".

Reconciling God and men we call the Atonement; and this doctrine lies at the very heart of the Christian religious belief system. There is only one problem. Sadly few understand correctly this very important doctrine correctly since most Christians have been taught to accept the above accounts of Yeshua's death over what the Jewish Bible, Moses, and the Prophets teach. Again, even if one studies atonement as taught in the Hebrew Scriptures, it usually is misunderstood correctly without a proper understanding of the Hebraic roots from which it came.

It is hoped that this article will go along way to educate the believing Christian concerning the truth about the atonement. Let me caution you that since this material is highly controversial, read the whole series of articles and think for yourself. Try to give a fair hearing to what I will share with you and then make up your mind based upon the new information and materials I will present. Then and only then, after you have the facts, can you be expected to make an intelligent decision. If I as a Christian, and an ordained Pastor no less, had understood the "Sacrificial System of the Bible correctly" in the first place before ever reading the New Testament then I would have spotted right away the "false atonement" teaching in the New Testament and would not have wasted the first thirty years of my life as an idolator. I can never thank God enough that in my many years of intense study the day that I ran across two Christian Old Testament commentators that first opened my eyes to how the sacrificial system of the Old Testament really worked. These two Christian Commentators are C.F. Keil and F. Delitzsch and their important series of scholarly books entitled Commentary On The Old Testament (10 volume set). May God bless them for their honesty when I have found so many who are not and may our LORD bless your search for truth as He has mine. When encountering their explanation of the sacrificial system I was overwhelmed by what they taught and this began for me an intensive investigation into the nuts and bolts of how the sacrificial system operated from a Jewish perspective. It would not be long before I sought out Jewish Rabbis and found that what Keil and Delitzsch has said was true; the Jews and Rabbis had known this all along. I was amazed that I could have graduated Seminary no less and never heard the truth about the sacrificial system; such truth required a complete reevaluation of the New Testament and the meaning of Jesus' death. When you come to this knowledge for yourself then you must then inquire as to why such false teachings were written into the texts about Jesus and where the Gentile writers of the New Testament got such ideas. I did and the results of my research are found on our other websites. Such pagan ideas of atonement have existed I found since the beginning of time in the Gentiles' beliefs in crucified sun-g-dmen that find their origins in astral, cosmic, and solar religions that evolved basically from sun-worship: <http://paganizingfaithofyeshua.netfirms.com>. But that study is for another day and you need to completely comprehend the information in these articles first as they are the very basis of your true relationship with God as the sacrificial system was a picture only of what your true relationship with God really was and as you have seen this was determined by one's repentance, confession, prayer, alms, etc., or the lack of such spiritual disciplines. This information is my gift to you. May your relationship with God be strengthened like never before in what you learn in these next articles. Only after you finish these studies on atonement should you begin your study on sun-worship and learn how and why such ideas replaced the faith of Jesus (Biblical Judaism) by the Gentiles who hated Jews and wanted nothing to do with a Torah observant life.

WHO WAS GIVEN THE DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT FIRST ...THE JEWS OR THE GENTILES?

We are altogether dependent on Scripture and Jewish writings for our knowledge concerning the doctrine of the Atonement and can know only what God has seen fit to reveal concerning it as such truth if found in the Jewish Scriptures. Human philosophy and speculation can contribute practically nothing toward its solution, nor can "eisegesis" whereby Yeshua is read into every text of the Old Testament when it is plain he is not in such contexts. Our present purpose in this article is to give a systematized account of what the Jewish Scriptures teach concerning it, and to show that this fits in perfectly with the longings and aspirations of an enlightened spiritual nature. You will realize that the teachings of the Jewish Scriptures will be contradicted by some of the passages in the New Testament attributed to Paul and the writer of the Gospel of John (another Gentile writing under a Jewish name). This presents a major problem for the believing Christian if he is aware of what the Jewish Scriptures teach from Genesis to Malachi concerning atonement. But I have found over the many years of my Pastorate that Biblical ignorance of the Old Testament by Christians is a stumbling stone of immense proportions when it comes to discerning Biblical truth from Biblical lies written into the New Testament by anti-Semites centuries ago.

Answer for yourself: If the New Testament is wholly dependent upon the Old Testament for its credibility and foundation, then how can the New Testament teach doctrines contrary to what the Jewish Scriptures taught for 4000 years and be considered correct? Have you ever noticed such contradictions or have you passed them by due to insufficient study or shallow reading? It is time you see these things for yourself before you meet your Creator. It is my hope to awaken you to the truth of the faith once given to the saints before it is too late.

THINGS ARE BEGINNING TO GET MUDDLED WHEN YOU READ PAUL

In one of Paul's most condensed statements of Christian truth we read:

"For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ (Messiah) died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures," I Cor. 15:3.

First of all understand that the word "Christ" means "anoint" or "Messiah" in Hebrew. So Paul is saying that the Messiah died for our sins. For Paul that means Yeshua because Paul believed Yeshua was "the Messiah" who would return during his lifetime and fulfill the Torah and Prophets concerning what Israel was promised about the Messiah. Up to this time, and let there be no mistake about it, fulfillments of prophecies by Yeshua proving that he was "the" Messiah were unfulfilled. They remain unfulfilled today as well and the Jewish people who have a Old Testament which is not forged like our Christian one's know this for certain and look toward the coming of their Messiah yet today. If you take time to follow through and study the link to the website above you will see this tragedy for yourself as to how our Christian Old Testament and the quotes taken from it in our New Testament are a complete and abject forgery; in otherwords lies. So let us understand this statement by Paul is a statement of faith that Yeshua will be the Messiah. There is a big difference between faith and facts.

What must be understood as well is that this Corinthian letter is one of the earliest writings of Paul. Also we must take note of the fact that most of the New Testament and other Pauline writings were not written when Paul wrote this early epistle and that no gospels were written. Therefore we must conclude that "according to the Scripture" MUST refer to the existing Jewish Scriptures consisting of the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings. If you really know your Bibles then this is a major problem for the Christian religious belief system because NOWHERE ...NOWHERE in the Jewish Old Testament Scriptures can we find that the Jewish Messiah was to die and be resurrected a 3rd day as Paul attests. Paul's Gospel or his understanding concerning the Jewish Messiah is not the Jewish Messiah of the Hebrew Scriptures. You guessed it; we must look to Gentile sun-worship to find Paul's ideas concerning "his Gospel." Let us see this for ourself!

Answer for yourself: Have you ever seen for yourself any Old Testament passages which explicitly teach that the Messiah was to come and die by crucifixion? Before you say "yes" you need to read the next paragraph.

Well we have a problem right from the start because the Jewish Scriptures are not faithfully reproduced by the Greek translation and all subsequent Christian Old Testaments. Simply said they are "fixed" and sun-worship doctrines along with it's false atonement are intermingled on the pages of this Greek translation which served as the foundation for ALL later Christian Old Testaments. That means that ALL Christian Old Testaments contain passages that are 180 degrees opposed to what many of the Jewish texts originally said. Since ALL New Testament quotes come from these fraudulent Old Testament texts then by default we are led astray in the New Testament and never know it. Simply said what this means is that intermixed with Divine Revelation given to the Jews by YHVH we now find astral, solar, and sun-worship along with its false atonement mixed in with Divine Revelation (in both the Christian Old Testament and New Testament) and without prior knowledge of this on your part it is impossible to discern the truth from these false teachings. We end up as Christians reading both and mingling them together in our religious belief systems. The sad part is that we end up as idolators and die and meet God and find out that we were wrong and lived our lives in error and then it is too late for proper worship or repentance. The fate of such is not what I want for myself nor you.

Answer for yourself: Have you ever seen for yourself any Old Testament passages which explicitly teach that the Messiah was to come and die and that his death was to be an atonement for our sin?

Some will say "Isaiah 53" teaches such. Again I direct you to the above paragraph which states that many of the passages of the Christian's Old Testament are "doctored" and Isaiah unfortunately is the worst. The apostate Essenes of Alexandria, Egypt, make over 6000 changes to Isaiah alone. But again you must see this for yourself and I have provided such information for your study on this site in the series entitled "What You Were Never Taught In The Christian Church: The Truth About Isaiah 53." You need to read the series to see what I am saying; once you have the facts you cannot be proved wrong. You will see how the original Hebrew Isaiah was "forged" to replace true Jewish atonement as practiced in the sacrificial system with a Cosmic God-man atonement which we read in our Christian Bibles today. Some will deny, some will wish that they had never seen the truth; but you cannot change what has happened; only become aware of it and repent of a false religious belief system. Now let us continue.

If you are an expert on the true Old Testament and true Jewish Scriptures you will have to admit that there are NO. passages that teach that the messiah will die and resurrect in 3 days!!! The Jews who have such true Jewish Scriptures which are not altered have always known this...it is we Gentiles with our false documents who don't!!!

Answer for yourself: If you are well versed in the Old Testament and the true Masoretic text which have not been forged (Stone Edition Tanakh or JPS Tanakh), then you already know what I have said is true. I must ask you: if you know this then Paul's statement in 1st Corinthians 15:3 will be a major problem for you, for how could Paul be teaching and quoting about something so fundamental to his religious beliefs concerning salvation as a prior Jewish doctrine in the Jewish Scriptures, which yet upon examination of the existing Jewish texts of his day, have no available reference for his claims?

Answer for yourself: Is Paul grabbing things out of the air and telling the non-Jews of the world who knew no better that what he is teaching them comes from the Jewish Scriptures when in reality it does not? Have false teachings been added to Pauline literature and whole epistles forged in his name? How can a "Pharisee of the Pharisees" not teach correctly the Sacrificial System let alone Atonement? You will soon see the truth of this matter as we study the texts and see the changes for ourselves and see a "different gospel" has been mixed in with the truth and without serious study one hardly ever notices the difference.

Answer for yourself: Could you as a non-Jew be just like Paul's audience...unacquainted and unknowledgeable concerning the true Jewish texts and ripe for believing anything you hear or read which is presented to you as "Scripture?" I sure was and I had a Seminary degree and it would be two years after graduation before I learned about the textual corruptions within my Christian Bible and the many falsifications of the Jewish texts as well as many of the Jewish doctrines concerning such topics as atonement which was done centuries ago and that is what I am sharing with you in these series of articles.

I have an extensive site exposing such deceptions of Paul: <http://paulproblem.faithweb.com>; but again that is a study for you only after you have come to the truth about true Biblical atonement.

CRITICAL FOR OUR UNDERSTANDING IS WHAT IF ANYTHING DID YESHUA'S DEATH ACCOMPLISH

For those who have studied sufficiently the Gnostic Gospels and Gnostic Christianity then you will understand my next comment. For all others then let us continue under the assumption that Yeshua is a historical person. With such an assumption then let us consider the possibility of the following concerning the death of Yeshua and what if anything it accomplished:

- Was the death of Yeshua the result of our sins or did his death atone for sins?
- Did such a death atone for ALL our sins or did such a death atone only for PART of our sins (Yom Kippur/The Day of Atonement teaches us the truth in this regard)...or did his death atone for NONE of our sins?
- Is it death or rather life which actually atones for sin?

Before we ever hope to get to the very heart of the issue we must come to a better understanding of the sacrificial system in order to correctly consider if Yeshua's death can be understood as a proper sacrifice within the Law and the dynamics within it that affects the forgiveness of sin.

WHAT IS THE TRUTH ABOUT THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM IN WHICH BLOOD WAS SHED?

When the glory of the Lord had entered the tabernacle in a cloud, God revealed Himself to Moses from this place where He would put His Name, according to His promise in Ex. 25:22 to make known His will through him to the people. The first of these revelations related to the sacrifices, in which the Israelites were to draw near (korban) to God, that they might become partakers of His grace.

The patriarchs, when sojourning in Canaan, had already worshipped the God who revealed Himself to them, with both burnt offerings and slain offerings. Whether their descendants, the children of Israel, had offered sacrifices to the God of their Fathers during their stay in Egypt, we cannot tell as there is no allusion whatever to the subject in the short account of these 430 years. What is certain is that they had not forgotten to regard the sacrifices as a leading part of the worship of God, and were ready to follow Moses into the desert, to serve the God of their Fathers there by a solemn act of sacrificial worship (Ex. 5:1-3; 4:31; 8:4); and also, that after the exodus from Egypt, not only did Jethro offer burnt offerings and slain offerings to God in the camp of the Israelites, and prepare a sacrificial meal in which the elders of Israel took part along with Moses and Aaron (Ex. 18:12), but young men offered burnt offerings and slain offerings by the command of Moses at the conclusion of the covenant (Ex. 24:5). Consequently sacrificial laws of these chapters presuppose the presentation of burnt offerings, meat-offerings, and slain offerings as a custom well known to the people and a necessity demanded by their religious feelings. They were not introduced among the Israelites for the first time by Moses by what he learned at Sinai, because animal sacrifices date from the earliest period of mankind.

The subject of sacrificial laws in the book of Leviticus was not to enforce sacrificial worship upon the Israelites, nor to apply some sort of a theory concerning the Hebrew sacrifices, but simply to organize and expand the sacrificial worship of the Israelites into an institution in harmony with the covenant between the Lord and His people, and adapt and promote the end for which it was established.

But although sacrifice in general reaches up to the earliest times of man's history, and is met with in every nation, it was not enjoined upon the human race by any positive commandment of God, but sprang out of a religious necessity for fellowship with God. These sacrifices assumed very different forms in different tribes and nations, in consequence of their estrangement from God, and their growing loss of all true knowledge of Him. Their ideas of the Divine Being were regulated by the nature, object, and significance of the sacrifices they offered, and they were quite as subservient to the worship of idols as to that of the one true God. To discover the fundamental idea, which was common to all the sacrifices, we must remember, that the first sacrifices were presented after the fall. Also interesting by its absence is any mention of expiation or forgiveness in the pre-Mosaic sacrifices of the Old Testament. This is very important! THINK!

You will come to see that something happened in the time of Moses that will change some things regarding sacrifice, offerings, and relationship with God and we will get to that in a minute but don't forget this important thought.

Answer for yourself: Are you telling me that sacrifices before the Golden calf were never brought for forgiveness? Yes that is exactly what I am saying (THINK OF THIS FOR A SECOND)!

FORGIVENESS WAS NOT THE THEME OF SACRIFICES FROM ADAM TO MOSES...BUT REPRESENTING FELLOWSHIP OF ONE'S SOUL WITH GOD

Before the fall man lived in blessed unity with God. This unity was destroyed by sin, and the fellowship between God and man was disturbed, thought not entirely abolished. In the punishment which God inflicted upon the sinners, He did not withdraw His mercy from men; and before driving them out of paradise, He gave them clothes to cover the nakedness of their shame, by which they had first of all become conscious of their sin. Even after the expulsion He still manifest Himself to them, so that they were able once more to draw near to Him and enter into fellowship with Him. This fellowship (NOT forgiveness) they sought through the medium of sacrifices, in which they gave a visible expression not only to their gratitude towards God for His blessing and His grace, but also to their supplication for the further continuance of His divine favor. It was in this sense that both Cain and Abel offered sacrifices, thought not with the same motives or in the same state of heart toward God. In this sense of fellowship and not forgiveness Noah also offered sacrifice after his deliverance from the flood; the only apparent difference being this, that the sons of Adam offered their sacrifices to God from the fruit of their labor, in the tilling of the ground and the keeping of sheep, whereas Noah presented his burnt offering from the clean cattle and birds that had been shut up with him in the ark (those animals would from that time forward be assigned to man as food...Gen. 9:3). Noah was probably led to make this selection by the command of God to take with him into the ark not one or more pairs, but 7 of every kind of clean beasts, as he may have discerned in this an indication of the divine will, that the 7th animal of every description of clean beast and bird should be offered in sacrifice to the Lord, for His gracious protection from destruction by the flood. Also notice the distinction of "clean and unclean" foods long before the Sinai experience.

Answer for yourself: What does this have to say about a non-Jew and his diet before God? Remember this was a long time before Sinai and both God and Noah made distinction between clean and unclean food.

Moses also received a still further intimation as to the meaning of the animal sacrifices, in the prohibition which God appended to the permission to make use of animals as well as green herbs for food: "flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat " (Gen. 9:4-5). This prohibition is because the flesh still contained the blood as the animal's SOUL (the soul resides in the blood of the animal). In this there was already an intimation, that in the bleeding sacrifice the soul of the animal was given up to God with the blood; and therefore; that by virtue of its blood as the vehicle of the soul, animal sacrifice was the most fitting means of representing the surrender of the soul (ie. the human soul) to God. The blood was not important; it was the soul in the blood that was important and this is something that a New Testament believer must come to understand because it will have a dramatic effect when we get to the death of Jesus.

This is an aspect of the death of Yeshua that the church has not ever considered nor ever heard. This truth may possibly have been only dimly surmised by Noah and his sons; but it must have been clearly revealed to the patriarch Abraham, when God demanded the sacrifice of his only son, with whom his whole heart was bound up, as a proof of his obedience of faith, and after he had attested his faith in his readiness to offer this sacrifice, supplied him with a ram to offer as a burnt-offering instead of his own (Gen. 22). In this the truth was practically revealed to him, that the true God did not require human sacrifice from His worshipers, but the surrender of heart/soul and the denial of the natural life, even though it should amount to a submission to death itself, and also that this act of surrender was to be perfected in the animal sacrifice; and that is was only when presented with these motives that sacrifice could be will pleasing to God.

PURPOSE OF OFFERINGS?

The word "korban" is commonly translated either "sacrifice" or "offering", but the truth is that the English language does not possess a word that accurately expresses the concept contained in the word. The Hebrew word "korban" means to draw near as in drawing near to God. The word "sacrifice" implies that the person bringing it is required to deprive himself of something in order to satisfy someone else's need, but God finds no satisfaction in inflicting pain or deprivation upon His children. The word "offering" is closer to the mark but it too fails to convey the true meaning of a "korban". "Offering" implies that the Recipient of the gift must be appeased, that He requires a tribute that will somehow appease His wrath or make Him receptive to the entreaties of a suppliant, or that He has a need that can only be satisfied by someone other than Himself. As if God required our gifts!

"If you have acted righteously, what will you have given Him! (Job 35:7);

God does not become enriched by man's accomplishments.

Answer for yourself: Which concepts has Gentile Christianity drawn from in its understanding of "offerings": drawing near to God as the Jews did, or deprivation of self or appeasement of an angry God? That should not be hard to answer as deprivation and appeasement are major themes within Christianity. But such understanding misses the point entirely as you now have seen in the Hebrew definition of "Korban."

KORBAN..WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The Hebrew word "korban" itself provides the answer. The root of "korban" means "to come near." Again the idea carries the concept of fellowship as we have seen in the sacrifices between Adam to Moses. The person bringing an offering does so in order to come closer to God, to elevate his level of spirituality thereby approaching God in the Spirit.

When Adam was deposited in the Garden of Eden, his first responsibility was to work it and guard it (Gen. 2:15). That means that Adam was commanded to plant, work, cultivate; everything that was necessary to keep the Garden as a Paradise. Before Adam's sin, man had no need to be a peasant; everything grew for him at God's command, with no need for him to exert himself in any way. It was only after his sin that he was expelled from Eden and required to earn his bread through the sweat of his brow.

Answer for yourself: How then was he to work and guard Eden?

The answer is simple if you know a little about Judaism and the religion of Jesus; through the study of Torah and the performance of positive and negative commandments. His livelihood would come in return for his obedience to God's will. God will always respond to man's righteousness by blessing his material efforts.

Adam's mission was to make himself an offering in his lifetime, by dedicating himself unreservedly to God. Adam's life of obedience (soul/life in his blood) was to be his offering to God. Such a life lived in obedience to the commands of God would assuredly draw God's presence near to Adam as well as allow Adam close to God. On God's Throne of Glory, there is an image of a man (Ez. 1:10). Every human being has his own image above, his ideal spiritual self, which represents his goal and his potential. Man's soul is placed in an earthly body so that he can surmount the challenges of material life and raise himself up to his personal, heavenly self; to unite his earthly self with his higher self. Just as everyone has a body and a soul, and his mission is to triumph in the eternal struggle of body versus soul, so, too, many must struggle to live up to the summons of his higher self.

Man is religious yet he sins! How can he defy the Creator he believe in? He is kind and generous, yet he is sometimes mean and stingy. He is moral, but has lapses in conduct. Whatever man is, he is often inconsistent, and if he is honest with himself, he knows that he is far from living up to his inner image. He wants his body to come closer to his soul; on a yet higher level, he should also want his soul to live up to its counterpart on high.

Similarly, there is a Temple in heaven that corresponds to the Temple on earth. Egypt always taught "So as above so beneath". I love the study of Egypt and its religion for when you see past the erroneous teaching that Egyptian religion is polytheistic then you see the most fascinating understanding of God to date. They knew that we are but an image of the real in the Heaven above and that is why they built upon this earth mirror images of what exists above us in the Heavens. The masters of Kabbalah (the Jews being the offspring of the Semites and Egyptians) likewise teach that the good deeds of the people of God accumulate to build a spiritual replica of that heavenly Temple, and when there are enough such good deeds, the heavenly Temple will come down to the Temple Mount, signaling the end of the exile and the beginning of the perfect world foretold by the prophets. This is similar to the striving of the individual soul. There is a higher ideal we must see to capture in our mundane lives. Possibly it is best expressed by the Psalmist: "the heavens are the Lord's, but the earth He has given to mankind (Psm. 115:16). The heavens are already heavenly; God does not need man to improve upon them. But He has given us the earth that we might make it heavenly, as well. God gave mankind the Torah as instruction to bring heaven to earth through obedience of God's will as expressed in His living Word. This is best expressed through acts of Loving Kindness (Gemilut Hasadim) and Repairing of the World (Tikkun Olam). Adam was the offering, and for him to devote anything less than his maximum to God would have been to steal his Divinely conferred potential and misappropriate it for himself. The sin of eating from the Tree of Knowledge was such a misappropriation because he would be flouting the will of God. The truest offering is when the owner brings "himself" to God, making himself and his desires subservient to the teachings and guidelines of the Torah. The symbolism of the offerings is based on this concept; that the animal is secondary; that is but an indication of what its owner feels and toward what he strives.

REASONS FOR THE OFFERINGS

The function and purpose of the offerings are not concepts that man can grasp rationally. Especially in modern times when anything not measurable, observable, or repeatable is questioned and denied, the idea of offerings is not an easy one to understand. It is necessary, therefore, to understand that they and their efficacy are manifestations of God's plan and wisdom. They are reality, even though we have never seen them and have no personal experience through which to know their potency.

We cannot understand why the slaughter of a sanctified animal, the placing of its blood and the burning of its flesh on the Altar; why these acts should bring God's Presence down to earth (accomplishes fellowship). Had the Jewish people been asked about the possibility of this happening before they had seen it, perhaps even they would have been skeptical. But they saw it happen! They saw the cloud of God's glory descend upon the Tent of Meeting. They saw a heavenly fire descend to their Altar and remain there for hundreds of years. They saw a Divine glow on Moses' face. To them, these were demonstrable, visible, tangible facts.

Answer for yourself: Incomprehensible to our rational, scientific minds? Surely. But so was the splitting of the atom to rational minds a hundred years ago.

Various reasons for the offerings are given by classic commentators. The reason for the offerings is so profound that it is beyond human comprehension and the best efforts of the greatest of Jewish thinkers can yield only a drop in the ocean of God's intent. I want to share some of these with you as the purpose and reasons for offerings.

OFFERINGS AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR MAN

The offerings were seen to elevate three parts of every human deed: thought, speech, and action. When a person sins and then brings an offering, all three of those elements are used to take the sinful use to which he had previously put them, and transform it into the instrument of doing Gods' will. The person bringing the offering performs the commandment of leaning, by placing his hands on its head and leaning on it, thereby dedicating his strength and activity to God. He purifies his thought and intentions, by confessing his sin, pronouncing the spiritual goal that he hopes to attain, or uttering praises to God. As a further way of purging his sinful thoughts, the innards of the animal; representing the human organs that are the seat of desire and through, are burned on God's Altar. In the case of an elevation-offering, which is completely burned, the animal's feet symbolize the hands and feet with which man ran and acted to defy his Creator. The animal's blood (containing its soul), representing man's soul, is placed on the Altar (notice it is the soul that is the "key" that is placed upon the Altar and not just the blood...the blood is only the vessel or the vehicle for the soul). Let us not forget that the animal was purchased by man's finances which were a product of his energy and work; therefore the animal was representative of the man and his investment in the animal...in a way the animal was an extension and picture of the man who would later bring the animal as an offering. Time and effort had gone into the upkeep and maintenance of the animal prior to his sacrifice. In a large way a lot of the man was in the animal and the animal was literally an extension of his life. Such was a perfect substitute for man. A lot of a person's life, his soul, was invested in the animal. In a way soul of the animal was an extension of the offerer's soul, as seen in the animal, which was placed on the altar.

This is of major importance as we continue to see that the animal's soul, as contained in the blood, was put upon the altar in oneness/fellowship with the Spirit of God which was in reality a picture of the person bringing the offering which was, through the animal, placed by proxy also was upon the altar. In other words, the offerer's soul/life, as tied up in the animals' life, was in reality placed on the altar with God. Such was the manifestation of fellowship as stated previously and since God had already promised to meet man ON THE ALTAR then when such a man placed the animal's soul/blood on the altar he was in reality placing his soul on the altar where God resided. Thus man's soul was on the altar in complete communion and fellowship with YHVH through the sacrificial system. What is important for us as we shall soon see is the "condition of such a man's soul" both before and during the placing of the blood/soul of the animal (picture of him) on the altar.

ATONEMENT...IS IT ACCOMPLISHED THROUGH "THE BLOOD" OR "THE LIFE" WHICH JUST HAPPENED TO BE IN THE BLOOD?

Let us go deeper now. In other words it is not the blood that atones, but the “soul” that atones.

Isa. 53:10 states

“Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin...KJV”

In one of the greatest passages in the Bible, we are told by Isaiah the prophet that it is the “soul” and not the blood of the suffering servant that atones for sin and as Christians we are told that this verse is supposed to refer to Jesus; but hold on for a shock!

Amazingly but 2.5 billions Christians are not aware that there is a major problem with this verse as quoted from the KJV. It is a gross mistranslation of what the Hebrew really said. Here is but one example of the falsification of the Jewish Scriptures that I have been telling you about. Before we go on we must look at what the verse in the Hebrew Masoretic text really said.

Reading Isa. 53:10 form the Hebrew Scriptures and the Hebrew Bible we have:

- 10 And the Lord wished to crush him [corporate Israel...remember?] He made him ill; if his soul makes itself restitution, he shall see seed, he shall prolong his days, and God’s purposes shall prosper in his hand.

Answer for yourself: Did you notice a completely different rendering? Did you notice the conditional statement "if" which alludes to one's personal responsibility to make restitution for one's own sin?

Answer for yourself: Do you remember that previously I mentioned that it was only after one repented, confessed his sin, prayed, made atonement, etc., that he received atonement and this was done prior to any animal being selected or killed and the blood collected according to the Hebrew Scriptures? Now do you see the importance of the "if" word in the real Isaiah 53:10 which is not altered as we find in the Greek and English versions? Can you imagine this referring supposedly to a non-sinner like Jesus? Does the passage really refer to him or has it been altered to make it "Jesusized"?

It is not surprising, but such an idea is totally removed from the English Bibles who quote Isa. 53 incorrectly. The problem I assure you is not one of the Christian's inability to translate Hebrew, but one that goes much deeper.....a gross theological conflict which renders their whole religious beliefs of atonement inaccurate.

Answer for yourself: As asked earlier, where did Paul get such an idea that Yeshua’s death (or anyone's for that matter) was as atonement for sin "according to the Scriptures?" Such an idea as expressed by Paul has absolutely no basis once you have the true translation of Isa. 53:10. as well of the rest of the true Jewish Masoretic text which is not corrupted by the Greek translation which inserted such pagan Gentile sun-worshipping concepts.

Answer for yourself: What was Isaiah really saying here in the Hebrew Isaiah 53:10?

Contrary to Christianity today, Isaiah was teaching that when the Jews go into captivity as a punishment for their sin, that when in captivity, if they repent and turn from their sins, their lives following their repentance will atone for their prior sin. This is Biblical Judaism and what Yeshua really believed regardless of how Gentile Christianity wants to paint the picture. You have not been told the truth because you carry a corrupted Christian Bible which slanders the Old Testament text as well as created religious lies in the New Testament which you unwittingly believed. How could you do else? You were never shown the Hebrew for yourself which was mistranslated originally in 200 B.C.E. by hellenized Jews in Alexandria, Egypt, which had long departed from normative Judaism and continued to be mistranslated down through history and culminating in 1611 in the KJV.

Answer for yourself: The only thing you need to ask yourself is if such mistranslations were done on purpose to create a new religion that replaces the faith of Yeshua with one of another group's making (hellenized Jews and later Rome)? The answer is obvious to those who study in depth, and it is our hope to educate the Christian Church to the deceptions to which they have fallen prey to unknowingly.

I wish to also say that Isa. 53:10 is in full agreement with other passages from the Hebrew Scriptures. The message is simple. If the children of God, who will be in captivity, obey Him and His commandments, they will prosper both physically (offspring) and spiritually. In captivity "if his soul (life) makes restitution (repents)" then he shall prolong his days in the land and receive blessing. If not, then further exile. What we must never fail to remember is that God often used Gentile nations to chastise His people and bring them to repentance. Such is the message hidden within Isaiah 53. If you desire to know more about mistranslations in Isaiah read and study our series of articles concerning Isaiah elsewhere on this website; you will never be the same.

As stated earlier in looking at the mistranslation of Isa 53:10 from the KJV...."Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, " First of all this verse refers to the corporate nation of Israel who has suffered at the hands of the anti-Semitic nations. The reference from Isa 40 onwards is ALWAYS referring to the "corporate nation" and not an individual. Of course Yeshua is part of this nation, so it would not be in error to include him in our understanding of their verse. Without a doubt Yeshua suffered at the hands of the Romans. But to include Yeshua in this verse is a major problem for Christians according to the original Hebrew since it would infer Yeshua had to repent for at least one sin...and that alone destroys any idea of a perfect sacrifice.

Answer for yourself: If we remember the conditional phrase in Isa. 53:10 "if his soul makes restitution" and try to apply it to Yeshua we find that it destroys any and all concepts of his sinlessness as well as his death being an acceptable sacrifice for sin, because what is it that a sinless Yeshua needs to repent of?

You can quickly see how advantageous it is for Christianity to mistranslate Isa. 53:10 from the Hebrew as it was done originally and continued to be done so up to the 1611 KJV....and of course it remains corrupted today in our Christian Bibles. We simply don't have to deal with it because it was written out.

But what we must conclude from the original Hebrew of Isa. 53:10 is that atonement was for one's OWN personal sin and not the sins of others.

The mistranslation of Isa. 53:10 drops this idea and understanding totally. Again such is a deception that destroys the meaning intended by Isaiah the author as well as God who send the revelation to His prophet.

Also we must recognize the context is that there was a time frame at work. The people addressed by the original Isaiah 53:10 were in exile. Such does not apply today, but this I admit is a weak argument. Overall however, I believe we see a pattern of how God deals with man's sin. Within this pattern is the way in which man can deal with his own sin and make himself acceptable to God. The whole purpose again is to "draw near to God" and repentance is the manner in which God revealed such fellowship was to be maintained.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

We need a summary of the sacrificial system before moving on. While this procedure (placing the animal's soul (contained in its blood) on the altar in substitute for the offerer's soul) is being accomplished with one's offering, he meditates upon his sin, for the offering service teaches him graphically that he has sinned against God with body and soul. He contemplates that justice would have dictated that his human body be burned on the Altar as a penalty for sin and his soul required by God in lieu of the animal's blood be placed upon it. It is only God's graciousness that permits the animal to become his substitute (soul for soul as a representative example). Then, parts of the offering are given to the Kohanim (priests/teachers), so that those who dedicate their lives to study and teach the Torah are sustained through him and so that they will pray for him. It is an act of supreme graciousness that God is prepared to accept an offering from us instead of punishing us directly for our misdeeds. This is why the offerings are described throughout Leviticus as a satisfying aroma to God, because God is pleased when His children repent and seek to change their lives for the better. What is forgotten in all of this is that before an animal is ever brought and his blood sprinkled on the altar (representing the soul of the sacrificer), the offerer of the sacrifice MUST HAVE PREVIOUSLY prayed, and repented before God and made confession of his sin before any animal could be brought. Blood of the sacrifice, containing the soul, never brought fellowship with God without the prior repentance of the offerer. This repentance was both before God and his fellow man prior to bringing the animal. To do otherwise brings the rebuke of God in the Old Testament as seen in Isa. 1 where God is weary of the blood of bulls and goats without the contrite and brokenness of the hearts of those who bring such offerings. Contrary to what many Christians think, God is not in Isa. chapter 1 abolishing the sacrificial system in lieu of Yeshua's death, but calling people back to the basics...repentance and prayer and restitution when needed. Such has always been an effective atonement and remains so today.

When one brings an offering with such noble thoughts he has truly made himself an offering and has the right to be with God in oneness on the altar of communion and fellowship. The Sages have said of one who brings a humble meal-offering, it is as if he had offered his own life upon the Altar. He thereby raised his mundane desires and makes them worthy of being placed on the heavenly Altar.

Now, if we apply what we have just learned to the death of Yeshua's we find many problems accepting what we have been taught by both Paul and the Church. Nowhere is Paul's concept of Atonement written in the Old Testament, but as the New Testament was canonized in 380 C.E., along with the many admissions of the early church to the alteration of manuscripts, it is easy to see how the concept of atonement was changed to what we have today. The real problem is that God never changed it, Yeshua never believed what we do today, and when we die we will be sadly prepared for the judgment because most Christians have never heard such truths and mistakenly rely on Yeshua doing it all for them when they are ultimately responsible for repenting of violating the Laws of God in the Torah. Besides this we boast as Christians that we are not under this "Law" of God but under "Grace". Most Christians think according to this false teaching that they have a huge "gray area" where then can sin and don't need to worry for another as paid their penalty when such is not true!!! This is hard to deal with especially in light that we grew up in churches which continually taught that believers were no longer under the Law but under grace....all you need to do is accept that Yeshua died for you. Now you know better. The bottom line is that we have been deceived about the whole thing by men who preached corrupted prior Hebrew doctrines on purpose and provided corrupted documents which we have sadly inherited unknowingly today in our Christian Bibles. More to follow. Shalom.

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH #2?

LETS GET A CLEARER PICTURE OF DYNAMICS OF SACRIFICE

UNION WITH G-D-FELLOWSHIP

Whenever the Torah commands that offerings be brought, these commandments use only G-d's Four-letter Name (yod-hey-vah-hey); the "Tetragrammaton" (I AM). If other names were used, some might err, thinking that there are many g-ds or forces, one demanding this offering and another demanding some other offering. Since the Name Elokim represents G-d as the One Who controls nature, that Name might be taken to imply that there is an angel or a power who has dominion over a particular land or aspect of existence, and that that power requires the offering. The Four-Letter Name is formed of the letters that spell, was, is and will be, meaning that G-d is eternal. This is not G-d as He appears in a particular manifestation (Judge, Provider, Life-giver) but G-d as He is.

This is His Name as the G-d of Mercy. No one should think that G-d requires offerings to feed or appease Him. The Eternal One has no needs that man can satisfy for everything is His and nothing is beyond His power!

Answer for yourself: What then is the purpose of the offerings? We were introduced to that concept the in the prior article in this series. Now we shall go a little deeper. Offerings provide man an opportunity to unite himself to G-d to whatever extent it is possible for mortal man to do so. Let me further explain this concept.

Similarly, there is a humanly created fire below on the Altar and there is the Heavenly fire from above, which G-d has placed upon Israel's Altar. Both of these flames are fed by the offerings of the Jewish people, symbolizing the union of man's spiritual aspirations with G-d's goals for him. Thus the offerings provide Israel a means for spiritual elevation (and if you are united and grafted in with the Israel of G-d in a spiritual sense then this means you).

ACKNOWLEDGING NOTHINGNESS

All creatures emanate from G-d and have no independent existence on their own. Man has freedom of choice and his intellect puts great achievements within his reach, but all of this is possible only because G-d gives him the power to do so. Man could not function or even exist without G-d. The goal of creation is for man to acknowledge this basic fact; to recognize and proclaim that everything exists because of G-d and nothing can survive without Him. There are many ways for G-d's glory to be revealed and recognized. The highest recognition of all is for man to know The Oneness of G-d, meaning that there is nothing aside from Him. He achieves his ultimate greatness when he recognizes that there is none beside Him (Deut. 4:35). An offering is a demonstration of this concept. It says that its owner is surrendering himself and his possessions to their Source (G-d). Theoretically, one might expect him to be ready to give even his very life in acknowledgment of G-d's sovereignty, but that is not His will. G-d wants man to live, to grow, to thrive, to serve; and G-d ordains the offerings as man's way to recognize His Oneness. Thus, by offering himself and his possessions, one symbolizes that he has no existence but for G-d's will.

UNITING BODY AND SOUL

The efficacy of offerings in obtaining G-d's favor is comparable to the way food makes it possible for the soul to maintain its attachment to the body. Material food cannot provide nourishment to the soul, which is not a physical entity. It is this nourishment of the body that enables it to remain healthy enough to play host to the soul. Likewise, the "food of the Altar's fire" somehow effects the process that enables the Shechinah to remain among Israel.

The food of the soul is not measured in calories, vitamins, and minerals. Only intellectual and spiritual pursuits can nourish the soul. Torah study, prayer, even meals in celebration of such events as Sabbath and Festivals all have a sacred content that is capable of nourishing the soul. Only in this sense do the offerings constitute food for G-d. Man's dedication to G-d and His commandments provides the nourishment that enables the Shechinah to attach itself to human beings and their handiwork. We think of food in terms of nutritive value, but that is not what sustains life. Man does not live merely because of the bread (material component). He lives through the bread's spiritual component; what emanates from the mouth of G-d. This is what holds together body and soul and what holds together G-dliness and Israel through the agency of the offerings.

GETTING BACK TO PAUL

With this as a background let us return to Paul's statement that "Christ died for our sins" which was the fundamental belief of the early Gentile Christian message, the cornerstone of early Gentile Christianity (but not Jewish Christianity or Messianism as can be proved by Acts 21 where James commanded Paul, and he obliged, to bring sin offerings and atonement offerings over 30 years after Jesus death...evidently they did not hold to what you and I have been taught as Christians in the Gentile church). But as soon as this simple fact is stated a number of vital questions are bound to arise. In order that we may have an intelligent and correct understanding of this important doctrine it is necessary that we know precisely what occurred and did not occur when Yeshua died on the cross. We cannot rest content with teaching that leaves the central doctrine of the Christian faith shrouded in mystery and uncertainty. This does not mean that all mystery can be removed. But the Jewish Old Testament Scriptures do supply the interpretation of the death of Christ that the inquiring mind legitimately asks for, and the salient factors concerning it should be known by all Christian people. Believing that the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament) is G-d's word to man, and that the statements of Scripture regarding the death of Yeshua in the Greek New Testament are meant to be understood correctly by ordinary Christian men and women, we shall not be deterred from this study by those who deprecate any "theory of the atonement." Rather we hold it to be our task and privilege under the promised guidance of the Holy Spirit to "search the Scriptures" until we reach that understanding which satisfies the mind and heart and conscience, and leads to certainty and finality.

We cannot expect to give a full explanation of the Atonement any more than we can give a full explanation of the nature of electricity, or of the force of gravity, or of our own mental and physical processes. But the main outlines of the plan of salvation are clearly revealed in the Hebrew Scriptures, and it is both our privilege and our duty to acquaint ourselves with as much of that plan as G-d has seen fit to reveal.

According to the New Testament we are told, for instance, in broad terms that we are members of a fallen race, that G-d has given His only-begotten Son for our redemption, and that salvation is through Him (Messiah) and not through any works which we ourselves are able to do.

Answer for yourself: How correct is this statement when compared with the teachings of the Hebrew Scriptures concerning atonement and forgiveness?

Certainly anyone who accepts these facts and acts upon them will be “saved” because the fruit of the Christian message leads to godliness. Yet, accepting these facts and acting upon them would appear to represent only a minimum of faith, and G-d has made it possible for us greatly to enrich and expand our knowledge of the way of salvation if we will but give careful attention to His word.

SAVED BY THE BLOOD OF YESHUA (A PICTURE OF THE SUFFERING SERVANT...ISRAEL) OR THE LIFE OF YESHUA (A PICTURE OF THE SUFFERING SERVANT...ISRAEL)?

I presume you have read the first in this series of articles. In it I exposed the mistranslation of Isa. 53:10 in the KJV Bible. However, with understanding of the dynamics involved, it is possible to arrive at the truth even if we read this mistranslation. Let me show you.

I suppose one of the greatest revelations I have ever received through my study occurred when I came to the proper understanding of Isaiah 53:10 which DOES NOT SAY THE FOLLOWING:

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and (KJV)

Reading for the Hebrew Bible we have:

10 And the Lord wished to crush him [corporate Israel.....remember?] He made him ill; if his soul makes itself restitution, he shall see seed, he shall prolong his days, and G-d's purposes shall prosper in his hand.

The Hebrew word for “soul” is as follows as seen in Strong's Concordance:

5315 nephesh (neh'-fesh); from 5314; properly, a breathing creature, i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality; used very widely in a literal, accommodated or figurative sense (bodily or mental):

KJV-- any, appetite, beast, body, breath, creature, X dead (-ly), desire, X [dis-] contented, X fish, ghost, + greedy, he, heart (-y), (hath, X jeopardy of) life (X in jeopardy), lust, man, me, mind, mortally, one, own, person, pleasure, (her-, him-, my-, thyself-), them (your)- selves, + slay, soul, + tablet, they, thing, (X she) will, X would have it.

The Hebrew word for “soul” is as follows as seen in Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew Lexicon:

5315 nephesh- a soul-self,, life, a creature, a person, an appetite, a mind, a living being, a desire, an emotion, a passion

- what breathes, the breathing substance or being, a soul, the inner being of man
- a living being
- a living being (with life in the blood)
- the man himself, a-self, a person or an individual
- the seat of the appetites
- the seat of emotions and passions

- the activity of mind
- the activity of the will
- the activity of the character

SO WHAT ARE YOU SAYING CRAIG?

My whole life I was told that I was “saved” by the blood of Yeshua, yet Isaiah tells me that I was “saved” by the activity of will, mind, and character of Israel as G-d’s suffering servant (as an example for all to follow). Yeshua, like all Jewish people who came before him who were devoted to G-d and His Torah, as well as those who followed him, comprise the “suffering servant Israel” who is “the” light for the non-Jewish nations. The proper understanding of the "suffering servant" is a corporate people and not an individual as determined by the writer's consistent use of singular and plural pronouns from Isa. 40-66 where they both refer to the nation as used in the contexts of each of the passages! Knowing this we must be careful when we look at Yeshua as the transcendent Jew of all Jews Since Israel is the Suffering Servant of Isaiah, then it is not a problem to let Yeshua be the example of all Jews, past, present, and future. For me he is the perfect example. With this understanding, we now can come to an understand that the blood of Yeshua carried the life force of Yeshua (his soul), which was totally committed and surrendered to the will of G-d and His Torah. Remember this is but a picture of all Jews who love G-d and were Torah observant. That instead of Yeshua’s death, which was to “save me,” it was in reality the life lived pleasing to G-d as part of the Israel of G-d which G-d accepted as atonement for sin. Israel’s “soul” saves as understood as a life lived in complete submission to the Commandments of G-d as demonstrated by the complete submission of the mind, will, and emotions to G-d and His desires for his people. If I can learn from this example then if my life is lived in faith toward G-d and lived with diligent effort to live according to the laws of G-d with repentance a daily life-style when I sin, then I like Yeshua will find that G-d will accept my repentant life as an atonement for my sin.

I am fully aware that this goes against everything that is preached in Christianity today, but dearly beloved I have done more than preach my opinions to you, I have shown you the evidence from the Jewish Scriptures as well as the fraudulent attempts to change the truth in the Christian Bibles by falsifying the translation along with the making up of Gentile scriptures which contradict the real Word of G-d contained in the Old Testament Prophets.

Yeshua lived a G-d-honoring life to such a degree that G-d accepted his life, as he had all Jews devoted to Him, in which He could tabernacle in a way He never had before and the “Word/Messiah became flesh” [understood as G-d's anointing] at the immersion and anointing of Yeshua. Let us never forget that Israel has had many “anointed” messengers of G-d as was Yeshua. Then subsequently such a G-d-honoring life (soul) was to be later accepted as an offering for one's own sin in his own life at his death. Whether you apply this to Yeshua or not is dependent upon if you believe he lived with or without sin. But understand what I am saying. One's repentance was acceptable for one's own sin according to the real Jewish Scriptures. Such is altered in the KJV and the idea is lost completely.

Answer for yourself: Should not the English KJV accurately reflect what he Hebrew of Isaiah actually said? You bet.

So it was not Yeshua’s death so much as a G-d-honoring life-style lived by Yeshua in complete submission to the Father and His Commandments which not only brought G-d to tabernacle within Yeshua but provided a means of atonement for sin. This same picture can be applied to our lives as well. If we have faith in G-d and respond to such faith with a contrite heart ready to repent when the Holy Spirit convicts of sin, then our repentance is accepted as atonement for our sin. Such is the message of Isaiah before the early Gentile Christians deleted it from the Bibles we have today. This may no longer be the message of the Church, but it should be. But until the Christians learn that their documents are flawed, few will come to this revelation unless they study hard like many who have discovered this sham today.

IN SPITE OF ALL THIS...YET I BELIEVE I AM SAVED BY THE BLOOD OF YESHUA...LET ME EXPLAIN FURTHER (ALLEGORY)

Historically, in the wake of Yeshua's death would come a movement into all the world which aimed at taking the Torah to the nations whereby non-Jewish could learn how to live lives pleasing to G-d as had Israel. As stated before a life lived in faith to G-d with a contrite heart willing to repent and turn from sin is effective atonement according to the Jewish Bible and Isaiah the Prophet.

Answer for yourself: But what if I never knew it as a non-Jew living across the globe?

In others words Yeshua traded his life for ours as previous suffering servants of G-d had done in preserving the truths of G-d for all mankind, and G-d accepted the bargain. I believe that Yeshua's life lived in complete obedience to G-d mandated his resurrection and no longer was Yeshua just a competing voice but "the" voice of the resurrected Suffering Servant. And this glorified man commanded that the Laws go into all the world whereby non-Jews would be recipients of this revelation.

The vast majority of Christians in the world today have not been told this and wander in fables because they lack the correct understanding which only can come from in-depth Bible study. So it was the suffering servant, Israel, composed of many Israelites, whose life lived daily in complete obedience to their G-d which was so pleasing to G-d that it could be accepted by G-d as an offering for their sin and not the red corpuscles (blood) which Christianity sadly focuses that accomplished atonement. Yeshua gave his soul for souls, not blood for souls. Such is the teaching of Isaiah. Because of the proliferation of bloody rites in Gentile paganism, the Gentile converts to Jewish Christianity would in the first centuries, inherently revert back to pagan backgrounds. Thus the emphasis today on blood instead of a G-d-honoring life as the offering for sin has been inherited by the Gentile Church. This is a pagan concept totally foreign to what Isaiah and Yeshua really believed.

Having now come to the understanding that it was a life lived above sin that was so pleasing to G-d that He accepted such a life as an offering and atonement for sin, and understanding as an animal's soul represented the soul of one making the sacrifice, we today are beneficiaries of having the Jew's soul (Yeshua) given as an atonement. What we need to remember is that in first century Judaism there was little if any outreach to the non-Jew. Salvation of the non-Jew was not a priority. Millions of non-Jews were dying and entering perdition. But G-d go loved the world that He, G-d, gave his only son (Israel is My Son declared YHWH) Yeshua is the archetype for all of Israel. The resurrected Yeshua's message was to go to the non-Jew, and had it not been for his death, then indirectly there would not have been salvation or atonement for me, for I would be ignorant today of the Biblical way. The only Jew that came knocking on my door to bring me G-d, Torah, and Israel. So literally if it had not been for the death of Yeshua, had it not been for the resurrection of Yeshua, then there would have been no movement within a Gentile hating Judaism of the first century that repented of racial bigotry and began to take salvation to the non-Jewish world. In this way you can see as I do that indirectly we are "saved" by the death/blood of Yeshua because the revelation of G-d came to us because of him and his legacy. Christianity understand its differently. I have shown you that they are wrong. I present to you the real meaning as seen by yourself from the Jewish text which both corrects mainline Christianity and yet preserves the truth. Sadly Christians today know little if any of what I speak. I encourage you to buy your own Stone Edition Tanakh and compare the passages quoted from your Christian Bible with the passages originally written in the Hebrew. Then, and only then, will you see for yourself of what I speak.

In this lesson we must no longer overlook the importance of a life lived above sin which won our redemption which brought a resurrected message that culminated in the salvation of the Gentile world. To focus only on the death and blood of Yeshua/Israel and not the life lived pleasing before G-d as an atonement does great injustice to our Father in Heaven as well as Yeshua. The church has focused incorrectly for too long on the inert blood of the animal or of Yeshua. Such is the message of Bet Emet as we are called to live like Yeshua and not just "believe in Yeshua." It has been my experience as a Pastor over the years to encounter numerable

Christians who trust in Christ's blood instead of his life lived pleasing to G-d for atonement. They fail to make the connection for themselves. Thus the need for such intense Bible study. Such a mistaken understanding of our redemption since not being taught the truth from a Hebraic perspective has caused multitudes of Christians to trust in the acclaimed miraculous powers of the blood of Yeshua instead of focusing on the miraculousness of a life lived above sin. Such a false sense of security in "blood" instead of "lives lived holy before G-d and man" unconsciously causes the believer to not regard sin with revulsion as he should. We tend to view sin as less harmful than it is, and compromise with sin which lies at the door.

And one more thing needs to be said: G-d is a G-d of love and answers prayers of all His children regardless of what religion they are when they call out to him. G-d does not just answer prayers of Christians; this explains why when people pray in Jesus' name or another their prayers are directed to G-d and even if one pleads the "blood" as many do G-d sees their hearts and in His great compassion answers many of them. This does not mean that our "theology" is correct; only that G-d's love is bigger than our ignorance.

I wonder if we saw in such turning from sin that our very own atonement was involved would prompt us to reevaluate its importance.

Answer for yourself: For after all if saved by the blood of Yeshua, what need do I have to live like Yeshua and not disobey the commandments of G-d? For after all I am under grace and not law...right?

Answer for yourself: If saved by the blood, what does a little sin mean...what can it hurt?

Answer for yourself: See the tragic thinking involved in focusing upon the blood of Yeshua instead of the life of Yeshua lived above sin?

ATONEMENT FOR BOTH TABLETS OF THE LAW OR FOR ONE TABLET ONLY?

I have taken great pains to teach you the truth about Isa. 53:10 and atonement. But yet we are not finished.

Answer for yourself: Is this atonement of which I speak efficacious for both tablets of the Law or only one?

Answer for yourself: In other words, is our atonement which we accomplish ourselves good for the sins of the First Tablet of the Law (sins between G-d and man), for sins of the Second Tablet of the Law (sins between man and man), or for both?

Answer for yourself: Implicitly we settle for less than holiness and don't think twice when considering not to sin, for after all, are we not forgiven of all sin by the blood of Yeshua? If you have read this article up to now then you should be able to see beyond this now.

Honestly, the answer is "no" ...we cannot atone ourselves for all our sin, because in the sacrifice of lambs, for instance, such blood sacrifices atoned only for sins of the First Tablet of the Law and not the Second Tablet of the Law. That means that if you are looking to Jesus to be a type and shadow of the sacrificial system for you then his death would only have applied to the sins of the First Tablet of the Law and not the Second Tablet of the Law anyway.

Answer for yourself: What takes care of the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law that blood sacrifices never covered? Do you get the drift?

Knowing this, that Yeshua is type and shadow of the Suffering Servant of G-d, you can see how a false security in focusing on the Yeshua's blood instead of a life lived above sin pleasing to G-d could, and does lead, millions of others to think light of sin and compromise with sin much more than they should. Also thinking that all their sins are under the blood of Yeshua, which they are not, goes along way to trivializing sin. Again, not knowing that such sins of the Second Tablet of the Law are not handled by the sacrifices for atonement, cause others to fail to grasp the harsh reality of their sin and its consequences. Such knowledge comes only if you study the Sacrificial process in detail. If Christians trusting the blood for “everything” only knew that even the atonement provided atoned only for the First Tablet of the Law they would most likely think twice before sinning, thus understanding they are not “under the blood” for all things, that their moral responsibility and fear of G-d is a requirement in being co-laborers with G-d in their own salvation and atonement. Now you more correctly understand the passage which says “work out YOUR salvation with fear and trembling

Now you better understand and see through the deception of many passages of Paul in the New Testament as he taught doctrines to non-Jews who knew no better; remembering Paul’s passage of I Cor. 15:3: "For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures" ....we now know that such a statement is false.

If we truly understand the Sacrificial system, and you should now, then you know that Yeshua, and the Suffering Servant of G-d (Israel) did not die for atonement for ALL SINS as your church as taught you. Without this knowledge of sins atoned only for the First Tablet of the Law, we will not have a strong enough deterrent to avoid sinning sins involved in the Second Tablet of the Law...sins between man and man. Thus, by understanding the Sacrificial system and the dynamics involved, the more correct interpretation would be according to Paul that “Christ died because of sins.” And even in one’s death was efficacy for sins of the First Tablet of the Law and not the Second Tablet of the Law. Not surprising but one look to repentance for atonement of sins of the Second Tablet of the Law. The wages of sin is death, and our death is the final payment for our sin that is not covered by our repentance...and there are some...like idolatry and blaspheming the Name of YHVH which all Christians have done since being taught that Jesus is G-d and worshipping him like YHVH. We all carry that guilt until we die due to our ignorance of what the Bible Jesus’ used actually teaches.

SO WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO ME?

So many might have read this article so far and say...”so what...I don’t break the commands of the Second Tablet of the Law?” You might find this surprising but if you tithe according to the manner of most Christian Churches today you not only rob from G-d but from those created in His image as well. If you continue to give to churches which don’t obey the Laws concerning tithing you are a partaker of their sins and there is no atonement for that sin for you when you die if you don’t repent before your death! Repentance, new obedience, and confession of that sin is our only methods of atonement and if not done, will ensure we enter into the World to Come with sins in those areas where atonement has not been applied through our repentance. This is only one small example. Worshipping according to Christian teaching often is sin as the vast majority of Christianity today has changed the Sabbath as well as make obsolete the Holy Days and Festivals of G-d and there are commandments regarding Gentile believers keeping them. Failure by the non-Jew to heed these in his life is sin.

You might not be a murderer with a gun, but our word “kill” is equated by the Rabbis to mean gossip, slander and blasphemy and they group this with murder which again is sin of the Second Tablet of the Law. I could go on and on but you get the point. We must study to know our faith.

In closing, even if Yeshua’s death was an atonement, and I have painstakingly shown that it was not according to the Old Testament text according to Isaiah and other Prophets, then it would only have provided atonement for the First Tablet of the Law...and of course as you are coming to an accurate understanding of atonement you are realizing that this is not accurate.

Answer for yourself: Are you wondering what G-d provided for our atonement for our sins of the Second Tablet of the Law?

We must look to another article for this answer. See you in article #3. Shalom.

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH #3?

I understand that you have read the first two articles in the series "What Did Yeshua's Death Actually Accomplish". Following up on it in this article I will address again how a life lived in repentance from sin procures atonement and ultimately salvation. This is the real meaning in Yeshua's death as well as the Jewish Scriptures as taught by Isaiah for example. Many people mistakenly read Yeshua into Isaiah 53 not knowing that the author intends the Suffering Servant to be corporate Israel and not an individual, but if such a mistake is avoided then it is easier to come to the knowledge of the truth. I took great lengths to explain how the message of atonement has been misunderstood in Christian Circles in articles one and two of this series. I hope you checked me out on the information from a Jewish perspective as presented for it can stand the scrutiny of your evaluation. Truth is truth and we nothing to fear when we teach it and let it expose lies dressed at truth. In the same spirit of truthfulness I will continue in this article to present Yeshua's religious belief system which dovetails with Isaiah 53:10.....

Reading for the Hebrew Bible we have:

10 And the Lord wished to crush him [corporate Israel.....remember?] He made him ill; if his soul makes itself restitution (atonement), he shall see seed, he shall prolong his days, and G-d's purposes shall prosper in his hand.

Answer for yourself: Did Yeshua believe that men make atonement for their sin as Isaiah taught or did he expect to atone for all mankind with his death?

Answer for yourself: Do you realize the answer to the above question will determine if you continue as a New Testament Christian or respond in repentance to errors taught as truth to you in the Christian Church?

For many of our readers the information in this article will be startling. After reading this article you will see for yourself that if you follow contemporary Christianity and its teachings then you are following Paul and not Yeshua, because Yeshua's message of redemption as well as atonement is entirely opposite to what Paul teaches. I can hear many of you say...."that's not so" or "he is wrong." Let me sincerely tell you that in the beginning, even after my seminary training I did not see it as clearly as I do today. But I beg of you to read this article and THINK...THINK....of what I will show you. For in the end, you are directly responsible before G-d, and HaShem is sending you and many of His children today appeals to repent and return to the true faith once given to the saints. Time is of the essence, and it will be horrible to die and find out that you followed the wrong faith...a faith that does not save.

One last thing; you might wonder what the end-result should be of such a series of studies. It is our hope at Bet Emet ministries that when you complete these articles the reader will be able to understand that Christianity is best understood and practiced from a Jewish viewpoint which restores the Sabbaths and the Seven Biblical Festivals as well as the correct manner of atonement. Such emphasis is almost totally lacking in the Christian church today. Also, a renewed emphasis in proper tithing and righteous giving hopefully will replace the current perversion of giving as seen in most churches and on televisions today. What you will come to see is that all these above things, and more, embody the true salvation experience. Let us begin...shall we?

YESHUA WAS A JEW...AND TAUGHT BIBLICAL JUDAISM

I think few will take issue with my statement that in the New Testament Yeshua is pictured as a Jew who believed in Judaism and taught others to be faithful to his religion's precepts and laws forever!

In this article I will quote many verses from the New Testament, and it is important to understand from the outset that although much in the New Testament is unreliable, when we find places in it which agrees with Moses and the Prophets we have found a witness to the Word of G-d as recorded in the Tanakh (the Jewish Bible). Let us not stagger at the comment that "much in the New Testament is unreliable," because in this article I will show you that many of these New Testament verses oppose Moses and the Prophet, let alone Yeshua's teachings, and are irreconcilably contradictory to the Gospel Yeshua preached which can be found along side them in the New Testament. Both passages confirming that Yeshua believed and both taught Moses and the Prophets regarding salvation, as well as verses contradicting what Yeshua taught, have remained included in the New Testament through the ages. These verses remain for a purpose today. They remain to show the careful reader and student the truth amidst fiction as written in the New Testament.

Likewise, the purpose could well be to reassure Jews who are in doubt about their Judaism, and are thinking of leaving Judaism for Christianity, that Judaism and Torah has always been and will always be the road to G-d for the people of G-d; both Jew and Non-Jew. Those unsure Jews and deceived Christians perhaps can have their belief in G-d, Torah, and Israel (Judaism) kindled and can be kept on G-d's pathway by the very same Christian Book through which they have unknowingly deserted their true people and G-d! Indeed, Jews who already have left their faith as well as Christians who are returning to the Jewish faith once given the saints are daily having their eyes opened to the truths I will reveal in this article. Prayerfully, many will return as baal teshuvah and through repentance turn to the G-d of Israel, who surely is waiting with fatherly understanding and forgiveness. Believe Yeshua in this matter - Eternal life is obtained through Judaism. Paul teaches otherwise and contradicts Yeshua on this matter.

For devout Jews who were once Christians and Christians who have studied to see the errors of their prior faith and have returned to a more correct and Biblical Sinai faith, the revelations in this article will be very comfortable corroboration of their firm faith in the holiness of the religion of Yeshua; namely Biblical Judaism. Others who read these verses will bring to them their own heritage and will make of them what they will. In other words they will continue to selectively hear what they choose regardless of the facts presented here.

These pages of reverse proof-texts are intended to strengthen the course G-d set up for Jews as well as Non-Jews and to fortify their faith and devotion to His plan of salvation for all mankind. In effect, here you will discover confirmation of Biblical Judaism's everlasting truth and validity through the words of Yeshua and others in the New Testament. Often this confirmation will conflict with what Paul taught, but more on that later. Now, let's get into it.

WHO WILL YOU BELIEVE.....YESHUA OR PAUL? LISTEN . .....YESHUA SPEAKS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Matthew 5:17-19,

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one little shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven."

Try and read the above passage over three or four times. Get the intent of Yeshua into your mind and soul. You can read this over and over and never end your astonishment; especially in light of what you have heard preached in your churches. Remember, these are Yeshua's words saying he is here to follow the law of Moses, not end the law. Until the world ends, the law as written will be in effect. Jews and Non-Jews who obey the law and teach it are greatly loved by G-d, while those who transgress the law and teach its transgression are not. Notice that although the word "fulfill" could mean "to complete or end," in this case and context it clearly means "to obey and do." We know this because the following sentence continues the idea that the law will not change until the world ends, which still has not occurred two thousand years later. Just look outside your window.

Luke 16:16-17, "The law and the prophets were until John (the Baptist): since that time the kingdom of G-d is preached, and every man presseth into it. And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one little of the law to fail."

Preaching the kingdom (G-d's rule and reign over mankind through submission to the King's decrees....laws and commandments) is emphasized since John the Baptist, Yeshua said. But the laws of the Torah are still effective and good, to be fulfilled until the world ends. Notice for yourself that in no way does "until John" signify the end of the law, because the very next sentence substantiates the law's validity forever (easier for heaven and earth to pass....notice again that this has not occurred yet).

Luke 16:19-20,22-24,27-31, "There was a certain rich man, . . . And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, . . . the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, . . . And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, . . . I pray thee . . . send him (Lazarus) to my father's house: . . . that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent (Yeshua and not Paul). And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

Answer for yourself: Is this a New Testament teaching?

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that Yeshua in the New Testament is teaching that making it to Abraham's bosom (Heaven) was connected to listening to Moses and the Prophets?

Answer for yourself: What is this parable from Luke really teaching?

Notice first that it is Yeshua and not Paul who is doing the teaching in this story. Yeshua clearly relates in this story that the laws of Moses and the words of the prophets which teach repentance lead the faithful to Abraham's bosom, instead of hell. Moses and the prophets are the pathway to eternal life in heaven according to Yeshua. Yeshua taught this and not Paul. If you will be honest with yourself most of you are typical Christians who read our articles, and the vast majority have been told by their Pastors and Churches that they are not under the Law (Moses and the Prophets), but rather, they are under grace (Paul). They have been told that the Law (Moses and the Prophets) has passed away for Christians and they are no longer under the Law but under grace (Paul's gospel). In other words you have listened to Paul more than you have to Yeshua.

Answer for yourself: But how can the teaching of Paul in this regard be opposite to what Yeshua said, and since opposite, who are you to trust for your eternal life?

Matthew 19:16-19 (Mark 10:17,19) (Luke 18:18,20), "... Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him . . . if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments . . . Which? Yeshua said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honor thy father and thy mother: and, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself "

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that “having eternal life” is connected by Yeshua with “keeping the commandments” (all of these except one are categories of the law and commandments called The Ten Commandments and under each of these categories are grouped 613 other laws)?

Answer for yourself: Is Yeshua just referring to the Ten Commandments or is there something we as Non-Jews unacquainted with Yeshua’s religion are missing in this teaching?

It may amaze you but upon my study of Biblical Judaism I have discovered that each Tablet of the Law was separated by commandments between man and G-d and between man and man. In other words, the First Tablet of the Law is dealing with how man relates to G-d according to G-d’s commandments, and the Second Tablet of the Law is dealing with how man relates with mankind. But more than that, each of the Ten Commandments is best understood as categories consisting of many commandments within the 613 Commandments grouped under each of the ten headings. So in effect, when Yeshua tells this man “thou shalt not steal” he is telling the man to obey all the different facets of the broad commandment, because under such a heading the Bible enumerates the various ways such a commandments can be kept and broken.

Answer for yourself: Is Yeshua teaching that eternal life and salvation in Heaven is connected to keeping and observing the Laws of G-d? The answer to that question is yes.

There you have it. The way to eternal life for both the Jew and the Non-Jew and salvation in heaven, according to Yeshua, is living like a good Jew and submitting to the laws of the commandments of G-d. These detailed instructions by Yeshua are plainly presented.

Notice that in the following verses the man asks what more he needed do. And Yeshua replies, to be perfect he should sell everything he owns and give it to the poor and receive treasure in heaven: "and come and follow me." The man, on hearing this, leaves disturbed because he has great wealth and doesn't want to lose it. There is no indication that the "follow me" means anything else but to accompany Yeshua penniless. The message remains intact that observing Torah law gives eternal life. Perfection is another story.

Mark 12: 28-31 (Matthew 22:36-40), "... Which is the first (great commandment in the law) commandment of all? And Yeshua answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel: The Lord our G-d is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy G-d with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. (On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets)."

So, Yeshua selected Deuteronomy 6:4-5 and Leviticus 19:18 as the greatest two laws. This was very Jewish of him, as most rabbis would completely agree, especially Rabbi Hillel. He chose the Shema prayer, the Jew's affirmation of G-d's oneness and dedication to love of Him together with Judaism's great moral teaching of loving people with the love you have for yourself. What could be more indicative of the essence of Judaism?

Luke 10:25-28, "... *Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how redest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy G-d with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind: and thy neighbor as thyself. And he said unto him. Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live."

Answer for yourself: Did you make the connection between “inherit eternal life” and “thou shalt live” as also referring to eternal life? I hope you did because this is typical of Hebrew parallelism.

Answer for yourself: Have you noticed that in Luke 10:25-28, Matthew 19:16-19, Mark 10:17-19, and Luke 18:18-20 something very important is repeated?

Answer for yourself: What is it?

Namely, that possessing and inheriting eternal life is always connected with doing something.....not with believing something!

Answer for yourself: How does Luke 10:25-28 teach us more than we learn from Mark 12:28-31?

The writer of the Gospel of Luke goes one step further than the just given, Mark 12:28-31. Here we have the New Testament teaching us of the indisputable link between the “doing” of the commandments of G-d and eternal life, which is the reward for obeying them.

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that Yeshua is teaching in the New Testament that eternal life is to be taught from the Law.....the same Law that tells us “what to do” and what you most likely have been told has passed away or which you are no longer under?

It is evident that Yeshua said, in the New Testament no less, that the law of Moses, as epitomized in Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18, is the pathway to personal salvation and eternal life. Yes, Yeshua said this as found in the New Testament. Let us continue.

Mark 12:32-34, "And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one G-d; and there is none other but he: And to love him with all the heart (alone as the one G-d), and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices. ... Yeshua . . . said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of G-d . . ."

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that acknowledging the oneness of G-d, and not the Trinity or triuneness of G-d, is connected with the reward of G-d's kingdom and eternal life?

Answer for yourself: Did you likewise notice that loving G-d and one's neighbor who is created in the likeness of G-d is connected with inheriting G-d's eternal life?

I John 5:3, “For this is the love of [for] G-d, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous

Answer for yourself: Since we are told that loving G-d is connected to eternal life, did you notice the New Testament teaches “how” the love for G-d is to be manifested?

Answer for yourself: Does the New Testament teach us that loving G-d is manifested through the keeping of the 613 commandments? It sure does!

This is a straight follow-through of Mark 12:28-31, which connects the acknowledgment of the oneness of G-d, loving Him, and loving ones neighbor as written in the law, with the reward of G-d's kingdom. Burnt offerings and sacrifices are secondary to the commandments in Judaism and always have been. With no Temple, there is no doubt about this low degree of importance. This passage demonstrates Yeshua's Judaism through and through. Notice likewise that the term "Master" means good teacher, not anything more.

Matthew 7:12 (Luke 6:31), "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

If you thought that "do unto others" is not Judaic or that it is different from "love your neighbor as yourself" you see here that it is totally of Jewish origin. Yeshua declared that it is the law and the prophets. It is Judaic.

Luke 11:28, "... blessed are they that hear the word of G-d and keep it."

Notice also with me that when the writer of Luke penned this verse, that there was not a New Testament in existence and that the only possible identity we can give to "the word of G-d" is the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings....the Jewish Bible.

Matthew 7:21, "Not every one ... shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."

Again we find the expressed will of the Father in the Law, Prophets, and Writings...the Jewish Bible.

Matthew 3:15, "... it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness ..."

These powerful statements are tucked in between verses which emphasize other ideas. But they can stand alone. And, standing alone they are Judaism's own. Yeshua believed that the will of G-d is revealed in the word of G-d, the Hebrew Bible. In the Hebrew Scriptures we learn the law of Moses (Torah) and the Prophets. Thereby, we can perform righteousness as G-d desires by adhering to what they teach. This Yeshua believed.

Luke 19:8-9, "... half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Yeshua said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham."

What comes next is very important to keep your ears open. It appears that Yeshua believed that even a partial fulfillment of the commandments of the Torah is sufficient to be accepted by G-d. In the above verse it is recorded for us that Zaccheus repented by observing 2 commandments. In fact, as taught by Yeshua, even by rectifying transgression of the Torah's laws and doing good deeds a person is deserving of salvation. As Jews trust, it is the trying to please G-d, it is the effort, not the success in total compliance with G-d's ordinances which is required of us to be righteous and gains us salvation.

Answer for yourself: How confident should we feel about our salvation if we have followed teachings that state that obedience of the law or the striving to observe the laws and commandments of G-d don't matter any longer because we are saved by "grace" or that this same law that Yeshua connects with eternal life has been taught to us as if it has passed away and of little importance in our lives any longer?

Answer for yourself: Are we absolved by G-d to not try to choose those things to please Him by keeping His commandments? Is this conduct really connected to eternal life as Yeshua taught, or is he wrong and Paul right?

All the more reason to study to learn how to acquire mitzvot and commandments, thereby taking upon yourself the yoke of the Kingdom of G-d. Such obedience to commandments is both pleasing to G-d as well as our demonstration of our love for Him and our fellow man. To do otherwise is not to love G-d, but rather, show our ambivalence toward Him and our neighbor.

Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of G-d, and you yourselves thrust out."

Keep your ears open for this as well. Here Yeshua said that the fathers of Judaism and the goodly Hebrew prophets are all accepted into the kingdom of G-d. Evidently, good Jews need nothing more than the Hebrew religion for life eternal in Yeshua's own belief.

NOW FOR THE HARD PART

Notice that Yeshua also said that many of his followers (the “ye” in the above verse) will not get into G-d's kingdom and inherit eternal life and salvation because of their sinfulness.

Answer for yourself: Does this same New Testament teach that “transgression of the law is sin”? Yes.

Answer for yourself: Did you notice what is missing from the above words of Yeshua?

There is no Pauline religious belief system mentioned as a means of salvation for the followers of Yeshua!

There is no Christological "belief" presented here as an antidote for spiritual wickedness for mankind.

There is no “easy believeism” taught by Yeshua or his Apostles as a way to eternal life; on the contrary, every time he and the other Apostles emphasize the same thing; namely an earnest attempt to live by the commandments and laws of G-d for eternal life!

If you have paid attention so far in this article I have shown you repeatedly that Yeshua repeatedly connects eternal life with keeping and observing the Law and Commandments of G-d.

Nowhere does Yeshua teach that a belief “in him” brings for its adherents eternal life! In fact he teaches just the opposite!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

John 4:22, "(to Samaritan who is part non-Jew) Ye worship ye know not what: we (the Jewish people) know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews."

Yeshua "worships" what Jews worship, namely G-d.

Answer for yourself: Salvation is of whom...the Jews (Jewish theology) or the Christians (Christian theology)?

This passage from John 4:22 is even more startling when one realizes that the Samaritan woman who is part Non-Jew mixed with Jewish heritage and ancestry. In other words, she is a mixture; not only of blood line but religious teaching as well. She is a perfect example of the Christian today who follows Paul instead of Yeshua. He has part right and part wrong.

Lets look at Paul where he get some things correct.

I Corinthians 6:9-10, (Paul) "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of G-d? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of G-d."

Answer for yourself: In this passage are you aware that Paul is in full agreement with Yeshua and his teachings on eternal life?

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that there are commandments in the Torah forbidding each of the above conducts?

Although Paul adds some of his own ideas, the listing of "thou shalt nots" is derived from the commandments. He stresses what he considers unrighteousness and Paul says that transgression of the Law prevents people from earning reward of heaven. Paul, here, reveals his faith in the teachings of the Torah and its stance on eternal life. Paul is in agreement with Yeshua and the other Apostles and their teachings on inheriting eternal life. So far so good.

So there you have it....Yeshua understood what Isaiah was saying....

10 And the Lord wished to crush him [corporate Israel.....remember?] He made him ill; if his soul makes itself restitution (atonement), he shall see seed, he shall prolong his days, and G-d's purposes shall prosper in his hand.

As did the exiles in captivity that repented of idolatry and were forgiven, so we see the pattern for all mankind to make atonement through their own repentance. Filter what you learned in this article back through what you previously learned in the first two articles in this series. It should be getting very clear by now that the Christian Church teaches a false atonement and such leads to death and not life. A life lives in repentance whereby one turns from sin (the violation of G-d's Laws) and returns to obedience of the commandments atones for its own sin.

Notice again that Yeshua mentioned in Matt. 19 only the commandments of the Second Tablet of the Law when asked by the man "what must I do to inherit eternal life."

Answer for yourself: Why did Yeshua only mention the commandments of the Second Tablet of the Law and not the First Tablet of the Law when asked by the man about procuring Eternal Life in Matt. 19?

Simply because he knew and believed as his Bible taught, that Yom Kippur brings forgiveness of the First Tablet of the Law only, and only through men's obedience and repentance toward the laws between man and man, the Second Tablet of the Law, will men affect their own atonement. This is of major importance and cannot be stated enough.

But I wish I could end here but I cannot. In the next article we will look intently to where Paul deviates from and teaches against Yeshua's teachings concerning eternal life and atonement. In the previous article I have already shown you where Paul lies about atonement through the death of Yeshua as being previously written in the Jewish Scriptures. We searched for such a text and could find none. The only way it can be done was to read Yeshua into the text of Isaiah 53 when clearly the author intended corporate Israel as the subject and not an individual.

Further study by many in this area will be difficult, but as I have tried to show you, such an exercise to recover truth is very necessary because your eternal life is dependent upon whom you believe and follow....Yeshua or Paul. More to follow in article #4.

Shalom.

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH #4?

Paul shaped the Gentile Church after 70 C.E. in a manner which stripped away all links to Judaism and cursed it at the same time. The New Testament in places says Judaism is bad and abandoned by G-d, while Christianity is good and beloved. In other places the New Testament teaches just the opposite as you were shown in article one of this series. In places the New Testament says the law of Moses is not valid and the Covenant is dead for the Jews. Instead of Moses being taught to all mankind, Paul teaches that the Church's laws and the existing Covenant is dead for the Jews as well as Non-Jews. Instead, the Church's laws and the New Covenant take their place. While Paul advanced separation from Judaism, Yeshua announced Judaism's greatness. The same New Testament in which you just saw Yeshua promote Judaism, in other places debases Judaism through Paul. I just showed you that Yeshua was a practicing, believing Jew who taught faithfulness to his religion's Torah and the Jewish way of salvation. Yeshua affirmed Torah, Moses, and the Prophets as the way to G-d and eternal life. He and his family all observed the Jewish customs, holidays, and Saturday Sabbath in the synagogue. Yeshua said personal salvation is obtained through Judaism and not another way. In fact Yeshua would command that such teachings be taken into all the world whereby all Non-Jews be taught to "observe those things" Yeshua had commanded of his followers. Paul and his brand of Christianity, in contradiction to all that had been both believed and taught before by Moses, the Prophets, as well as Yeshua, has announced a new way to salvation, through belief in Yeshua's vicarious atonement for sins and resurrection, not through faith in G-d and obedience to Him through His commandments, but through belief in Yeshua's death for sins and resurrection from death.

Answer for yourself: Can you find just one time where Yeshua teaches the same salvation doctrine as espoused by Paul or where he taught vicarious atonement? The answer is no!

What I ask you to do is keep the teachings of Yeshua in focus as you read Paul. The New Testament, in places, contradicts itself and contains two completely different salvation messages...Jesus' and Paul's. That is a fact. You must be sharp enough to see it for yourself when you read. No matter what Paul says he cannot invalidate Yeshua's own words in the same book. It is a matter of who you will believe concerning Eternal Life....Jesus.....or....Paul. If you listen to Yeshua, as I have laid out for you, you see that he proclaimed continually Judaism's eternal truths. Paul will not. Now let us look at Paul.

PAUL CONTRADICTS HIMSELF....DID YOU EVER SEE IT BEFORE?

What is the most perplexing for me when studying Paul is that he is not consistent in what he says. Most of you have never probably seen this but I will in the remaining pages attempt to reveal to you the contradictions that come from the mouth and pen of Paul regarding salvation. When we look at Yeshua his message is consistent with what has always been taught by Moses and the Prophets. But with Paul we have another matter because he won't always agree with what he has said before. But if you are not sharp in your Bible study you can easily overlook such things. Let us begin our critical examination of the message of Paul on salvation.

Remembering what Yeshua just said about eternal life and observance of the commandments let us contrast Paul's view on the matter.

Answer for yourself: Does Paul in Romans 2:13 agree or disagree with what Yeshua has said about eternal life and the observance of the commandments of G-d? Well, let's read it and see.

Romans 2:13 For not the hearers of the law are just before G-d, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

So far so good. Paul in this verse agrees with the message of Yeshua regarding acceptance and eternal life with G-d..

But just wait.

Now on the back of the same page in my Bible where the above verse was quoted from Paul, we see Paul writes something totally different and contradictory to the teachings of Yeshua in Romans 3:28:

Romans 3:28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

Answer for yourself: Did you see that Paul just said the opposite of what he said earlier in Romans 2:13? In light of what I just showed you can you justify Paul's quick turn-around on this doctrinal stance so quickly, let alone a change in the same epistle?

Notice that within the space of 44 verses Paul reverses completely his stance on justification and righteousness through obedience to the law and commandments of G-d. Just 44 verses!

Answer for yourself: Did Paul teach "doing and obeying the Law" for justification AFTER THE CROSS in Romans 2:13? DEFINITELY YES!

Answer for yourself: Does Paul contradict himself in Romans 3:28? DEFINITELY YES!

Answer for yourself: So what are we to believe in the face of such contradictions of Paul when contrasted with the teachings of Yeshua and the other Apostles which teach otherwise than Paul? Are other of Paul's teachings to be viewed cautiously because they might be "wrong?"

Answer for yourself: Seeing this material for yourself, who are you going to believe for your salvation....Yeshua, Moses, and the Prophets and their message of salvation or Paul and his message which contradicts Moses, the Prophets, as well as Jesus?

1 Corinthians 6:11

And such were some of you (non-Jews): but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Yeshua, and by the Spirit of our G-d.

Please take note that the above verse says that those who "were" transgressors had been helped by the Christological message of Paul and belief in "his gospel" which taught justification of the unG-dly through belief in the death and resurrection of Yeshua for eternal life.

Answer for yourself: How did that happen?

CAN PAUL KEEP A STRAIGHT THOUGHT?

1 Cor 6:9-10 9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of G-d? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. (KJV)

If you did not catch it everyone of the above sins are dealt with in the Law of G-d and in the Covenant and Law of G-d for the non-Jew. Let us understand what is really being said by Paul in this verse. Let us remember that Paul has just previously taught in 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 that the heathen who are guilty of the transgression of the Laws of G-d is led to death and separation from G-d, let alone the loss of eternal life. But what few fail to see is that Paul will move away from such a stance at places in the New Testament and relax G-d's requirement for salvation to those he is wishing to "win" to his personal beliefs concerning Yeshua. Having understood this, then we can understand his message intended for Non-Jews whereby he uses "Yeshua" literally as bait to get the Non-Jew to believe in "Paul's Yeshua" as a way for their eternal life instead of the way G-d had spoken for all time as found in the writings of Moses, the Prophets, as well as taught by Jesus as shown when I contrasted the different salvation messages of Jesus and Paul. Let us understand that Paul used cunning (become all things to all men in order to win some) in not telling the heathen he has to accept the Torah right off the bat, but rather shrewdly uses this "Pauline Yeshua" and relaxation of the Torah in his effort to win converts from the heathen gradually. Ironically Paul's adherents among the Non-Jews, in patterning themselves after such a Jewish Rabbi and his ethical teachings, would gradually develop lives of ethical and moral conduct which would assure that they become more G-dly than before. Such is repentance which is the first step in coming to G-d. Of course, if you give up evil you are closer to G-d, Christianity's way, Judaism's way, or any other way.

But there is one important difference from those who Paul was attempting to teach and you...the reader of this article. You are not like the heathen, but rather, most likely have been raised in church most of your life.

Answer for yourself: With your religious background and your love for G-d most of your life what excuse do we have not to obey G-d fully and choose those things which please him which I have demonstrated is His Law?

Luke 1:46-47,50-55.

"And Mary said, My soul Both magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in G-d, my Savior. And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation. He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away. He hath helped his servant Israel in remembrance of his mercy; As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever."

Answer for yourself: Did Mary, Yeshua' mother, call the G-d of Judaism, the same G-d who gave her People the Torah for salvation her Savior or did she, based on her new revelation, call her son Yeshua the "new" Savior?

Mary knew what most Christians don't. That's because today's Christians have read and believe Paul more than the Synoptic Gospels which teach Jesus' salvation message. G-d alone is the Savior not Yeshua or His Messiah. Hence, Jews have salvation by G-d the Father and need no second or alternate source of salvation. The Jew's understanding of their Bible and their revelation is the "light" that lights the world and the hope of the Gentile world; it always has been and always will be! Above Mary spoke of G-d's greatness and His help of His servant, Israel. She spoke of G-d's message to Abraham's children, that the Covenant is eternal. This was the understanding of Mary after she was allegedly informed that she would have, according to the New Testament, a miraculous virgin birth and that the child would be the Messiah. As you surely can see, she spoke as a traditional, believing Jewish person, not the holy figure of Christianity.

Luke 1:6,

"And they (Zacharias and Elizabeth) were both righteous before G-d, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless."

Answer for yourself: According to the New Testament does “walking in the commandments and ordinances of the Lord” allow a person to be “blameless” before G-d? It sure does.

Jews as well as Non-Jews can be free of sin, blameless, following the law of Moses, as exemplified by these two people. Therefore, we know according to the New Testament witness that the law does give justification for eternal life.

Again let us see what Paul has to say on the matter.

Romans 4:3, (Paul)

"For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed G-d, and it was counted unto him for righteousness."

Answer for yourself: First of all most Christians have never understood this passage correctly. You most likely have heard this passage your whole life. But do you know what believing truly consists of as spoken of in this verse?

Believe without response, or as James said it, “faith without works is dead,” is the meaning of the passage. Abraham believed G-d according to the revelation of G-d and RESPONDED because of that belief. He took his son to Mount Moriah to be offered to G-d. Abraham had faith and he had a concrete response to that faith. Consequently, righteousness in G-d's eyes is believing G-d's instructions and doing as G-d commands. In Abraham's situation, it was offering his son Isaac as a sacrifice. In our situation, it is obeying and following G-d's commandments in His Torah and His laws, not just believing they exist.

Answer for yourself: Do you find that following G-d's commandments somewhat difficult or foolish to keep and observe since the vast majority of Christianity today teaches (because of Paul) that the Christian is no longer under the law but under a grace which allows him to break and not keep these laws at will or substitute those of his own making?

Lets see what Paul has to say about being righteous and walking in the commandments and ordinances of G-d.

Answer for yourself: Is this Paul's doctrine as well and does he agree with Yeshua and the Apostles on this major issue? No, again we see where Paul contradicted the teachings of Yeshua.

Rom 3:20-22

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. 21 But now the righteousness of G-d without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; 22 Even the righteousness of G-d which is by faith of Yeshua Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

Remembering what you previously read in the first article concerning the teachings of Yeshua, let us examine closely the above passage from Paul for contradictions to what both Yeshua, Moses, and the Prophets taught.

1. Moses (the Law) and Prophets NEVER taught that obedience of G-d's laws did not justify, in fact it was just the opposite they taught; namely, that obedience to the laws of G-d does justify.
2. Moses (the Law) and the Prophets NEVER taught that righteousness existed apart from obedience to the laws of G-d, in fact they taught just the opposite..they NEVER taught a "righteousness apart from the Law".
3. Paul discounts what Moses, the Prophets, and Yeshua all taught and held in common, and substitutes his own theology that replaces 4000 years of Biblical Truth with a "BUT NOW" theology of justification before G-d apart from the Law through belief in Paul's own understanding of Yeshua' death and resurrection.

Answer for yourself: Who are we to believe? What do the other Apostles who knew Jesus personally have to say? Do they agree with Paul or do they contradict Paul?

THE APOSTOLIC COMMUNITY DISAGREES WITH PAUL...ALL THE TIME

1 John 5:2-3,

". . . we love the children of G-d, when we love G-d, and keep his commandments. For this is the love of G-d, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous."

Earlier I stated that we love G-d by keeping his commandments. Now we see the second phase of the Greatest Commandment: loving His children and our neighbors (such actions are expressed in the Second Tablet of the Law...all of the commands are between man and man). Notice also that ironically only by loving our neighbor are we actually loving G-d! Such loving of G-d and our neighbor requires fidelity to His laws, which are not hard to bear or perform. So, we read here in the New Testament that the commandments of the Torah are to be kept and can be kept. These laws should be observed to demonstrate our love of G-d and our fellow man.

Answer for yourself: Can I obey literally all of G-d's laws? I may not but it is not because I can't. I sin and fail to observe them due to my choices.

It may be beyond human experience to perform all our duties to G-d, always and perfectly. But, G-d gave the commandments which are not hard to uphold, when you use all your good intentions with all your heart. G-d's laws require your effort, not perfection. Spiritual maturity is growing in the obedience to the Commands of G-d during one's life..such is love for G-d and reveals one's spiritual growth.

Again let us look at Paul.

Romans 3:24

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 Whom G-d hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of G-d; 26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus

Again you should notice Paul is teaching a completely different message from what Yeshua, Moses, Prophets, and the Apostles taught. Again Paul stands alone in his belief. No where is any of Paul's theology can we find references to what Yeshua, Moses, the Prophets or other Apostles taught. We must go to astral, solar, and cosmic sun-worship to find Paul's doctrines:
<http://paganizingfaithofyeshua.netfirms.com>

Rom 10:9-16

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that G-d hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

For those who don't know...the above passage held so dear by Christians was not in the first collection New Testament writings in 150 A.D. but "appears" in the collection of writings of Irenaeus in 180 A.D.; so no apostle wrote it...but rather Gentiles as they crafted their own theology which we have swallowed hook, line, and sinker.

Again we see that Paul has a different way of salvation from what was taught by Yeshua, Moses, the Prophets, and the Apostles as demonstrated in the first article in this series. Paul stresses "faith only" for righteousness and not what Yeshua, Moses, the Prophets, and the other Apostles taught; namely walking in the commandments of G-d for righteousness.

Answer for yourself: Who are you going to trust for correct teaching for eternal life...Paul or Yeshua, Moses, the Prophets, and the Apostles?

If you are honest with yourself up to now I have repeatedly shown you that Yeshua's message revolved around keeping the Commandments and ordinances of G-d. Yeshua both taught and knew for certain that love for G-d and those created in His image could only be accomplished by adhering to a standard of righteousness (G-d's laws) set by G-d and not by man. Thus the need and availability of G-d's laws and commandments, which when earnestly attempted to keep produces acceptance and salvation.

Remember G-d requires our effort and not our perfection.

Again look at Paul and his views on the law.

1 Timothy 1:8

1 Tim 1:8 8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; (KJV)

Romans 7:12,14,16,22,

"Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. For we know that the law is spiritual: . . . I consent unto the law that it is good. For I delight in the law of G-d after the inward man:"

Answer for yourself: Does it stand to reason that G-d would need to replace something that is holy, just, spiritual, and good?

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that Paul even said that he delights in the law of G-d after the inward spirit?

2 Timothy 3:16-17.

"All scripture is given by inspiration of G-d, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of G-d may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that when Paul wrote this in his letter to Timothy that there was only the Jewish Scriptures (Law, Prophets, Writings) in existence and that the New Testament would not be canonized till 397 A.D. (almost 300 years later)?

Answer for yourself: Are you also aware that Paul is saying that the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings are, at the time of writing of this epistle which is around 30 years after Yeshua's death, profitable for DOCTRINE, REPROOF, CORRECTION, AND INSTRUCTION?

Answer for yourself: Don't you find it rather strange that something that is profitable for doctrine, reproof, correction, and instruction for the first church is considered passed away by today's church?

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that Paul's writings and his theology were not, even by him, considered Scripture?

You should not find these facts surprising since the creation of a New Testament or the creation of an alternate view of salvation and how to attain it was the furthestmost thing from anyone's mind at this time....except Paul's.

1 Peter 1:25.

"But the word of the Lord (the Law, Prophets, and Writings) endureth for ever...."

Understanding when Peter wrote this Paul's teachings were very limited in scope and accepted by only a few. In fact scholars today teach us that in no time during Paul's life did he have over 50 adherents to his message. In fact Paul would later say "all in Asia have forsaken me." All in Asia? This again shows you his message had a very limited scope since men from James continually followed him around to "undo" his teachings. Thus you can better understand why Paul was required to appear before James twice in his life. Literally this was to answer charges as seen in Acts 21:21:

"And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs."

What I have demonstrated to you in this article is that Yeshua continually walked after the customs of Moses and the Prophets. Paul did not. Tragically we have grown up in Churches which did not follow Yeshua, the Prophets, or the customs as well. We grew up most likely in Churches that followed Paul and literally oppose the teachings of Yeshua, the Prophets, and the Apostles.

Answer for yourself: How are we to reconcile that the Law endures forever but your church teaches that Christ is the end of the Law and that the Law has ceased and that we are no longer under the Law but grace?

Amazingly, the verses presented above from the pen of the Apostle Paul and Peter affirm the validity of the laws and the commandments of the Torah. They are described as sacred and beneficial, effective and everlasting. So you must face the fact that after the cross Paul at one time believed the laws of G-d to be holy, just, spiritual and good. So did Peter for that matter.

Stop here and ask yourself this:

Answer for yourself: If the Torah is all these things of G-d, shouldn't the laws be performed and Biblical Judaism, which is the embodiment of such laws, be observed by all Jews and Non-Jews?

Romans 10:5,

"For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them."

Answer for yourself: Did you again notice that the Apostle Paul states in agreement with Moses that “righteousness is of the law” and “that those do those things in the law” shall “live” by them (eternal life)?

But again another conflict of Paul is seen below.

Romans 3: 21

But now the righteousness of G-d without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

Answer for yourself: Can you find me just one Jewish Scripture that shows that the Law and the Prophets taught a "righteousness without the Law?" No...because there is none....this is a blatant lie by Paul and if you don't know the Old Testament well then you will never know that Paul lies in this verse.

Answer for yourself: How are we to understand Paul's comments about a righteousness “without the law” in light of Yeshua's teachings that connect all righteousness with observance of the commandments?

Answer for yourself: How do you reconcile that Paul speaks of “righteousness without the law” in Romans 3:21 and “righteousness which is of the law” in Romans 10:5?

Answer for yourself: Are you willing to trust contradictions like this from Paul for your eternal life?

Answer for yourself: Although we are warned by Paul not to believe another “gospel,” is it not evident to you that in comparison to Yeshua and his message about eternal life that ironically it is Paul who teaches “another gospel”?

Answer for yourself: Which of the two teachings are we to trust for our eternal life as taught by Paul....”the man which doeth those things (law) shall live (eternal life) by them” [Romans 10:5] or [Rom 10:9] “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Yeshua, and shalt believe in thine heart that G-d hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved”?

The Hebrew Bible teaches that the Torah's laws lead to virtue, which is rewarded by everlasting life. Paul, in this passage from Romans 10:5 admits that this is the message of Moses in the Holy Scriptures, who communicated G-d's will to the Hebrew people. Then he contradicts again this only 4 verses later!

James 5:16,

". . . The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

1 John 3:22,

"And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight."

Answer for yourself: Could some of our prayers not being answered and our lack of receiving what we ask of G-d be because we believe we are under grace and not under the law and commandments of G-d and don't attempt to know let alone keep as many of them as possible?

These two verses, from two different Apostles, show that keeping commandments and being righteous are connected. Both lead to G-d's hearing us, being pleased, and helping us. The verse quoted is very Judaic in nature, and that's a fact.

James 2:8,

"If ye fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well:"

Answer for yourself: Is James telling us we "do well" if we fulfill and keep the law? Sure is.

A person is good if he obeys the golden rule as given in the law of Moses.

James 1:27, (James) "Pure religion and undefiled before G-d and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

Here is the golden rule made specific and said to be the basis of religious requirements. Also, to be pure from worldly evils in general makes for a religious person. These are Jewish ideas, totally.

Let us look again at Paul.

Galatians 3:21,

"Is the law then against the promise of G-d ? G-d forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law."

Here is where you have to read close as well as remember what you have already learned from reading Yeshua and the other Apostles regarding the law and its connection with eternal life. Strange as it may be to read, Paul is, in the first part of the verse anyway, seemingly lending support to the validity of the law of Moses. Now for a problem which most fail to grasp its significance. Paul is double-minded. Remember I told you that he contradicts not only himself but Yeshua and the other Apostles? Here again is another place where Paul deviates from the message of the other Apostles as well as the early church. For Paul says "if" the law could be effective Moses' law would suffice for salvation. Paul is in reality stating that it is his personal feeling that no such law exists which is connected to salvation. For Paul the condition "if such a law existed" indicates that such a law and condition does not exist...at least for Paul!

Answer for yourself: What? Is this a complete reversal by Paul of what he has said previously in some of his other epistles let alone a complete contradiction of the teaching of Yeshua and the other Apostles? It sure is.

Answer for yourself: Well, have you with your own eyes earlier in this article already seen that Yeshua said that keeping the commandments is the path to salvation and the law is effective to this end? If you read the article you have. This produces quite a dilemma for the Christian.

Answer for yourself: Does Paul agree or disagree with the teachings of Yeshua regarding salvation and eternal life? He does not!

Therefore, Paul, if he "believes" Yeshua, must conclude that righteousness is obtained by one's effort to follow and pattern one's life after the Scriptural laws. But this is not the message of Paul therefore we must question if Paul really "believed in Yeshua."

Notice that Paul actually contradicts Yeshua on this essential matter and, in effect, created Christianity's separation from its Hebraic roots in Judaism.

Paul claims that sin is not overcome, but is created, by the law. Ironically, it is Paul's teaching, not Yeshua's, which invalidated the law for the budding Church. Such destroys the teachings of Yeshua and the other Apostles!

WERE WE WARNED ABOUT PEOPLE LIKE PAUL BY YESHUA? HAVE WE HEEDED THE WARNING?

Let's read what Yeshua said about this kind of opposition. In Matthew 10:24 (Luke 6:40) (John 13:16) Yeshua said,

"The disciple (Paul) is not above his master (Yeshua), nor the servant (Paul) above his lord (Yeshua)."

Answer for yourself: So we ask, whose statements take precedence...Yeshua's or Paul's?

Answer for yourself: Who is to be believed...Yeshua or Paul?

You have to decide that for yourself. We only desire to lay the materials out for you in such a way that you can make an intelligent decision.

Answer for yourself: What will you trust for your salvation...the message of Yeshua or Paul?

Answer for yourself: Which is truly linked to eternal life and G-d's salvation.....Christologies (believing in Yeshua) and his identity which was decided for us by the Catholic Church) or Judaics (following the faith of Yeshua)?

Answer for yourself: What is the real message of salvation of G-d since the New Testament teaches two ways which are mutually exclusive of each other.....faith in Yeshua or adopting the faith of Yeshua?

Let me warn and encourage all of our readers that if you should "believe" on Yeshua to be saved, believe his teachings about the eternal and effective holy law of G-d revealed by Moses and begin to do them. Begin a life before G-d where you tell Him that His laws and commandments are important to you and that you choose to try to do them to the best of your ability because you know they please Him. Begin to live by as many as possible for in them you demonstrate your love of G-d and those created in His image. And you will be saved as a Jew or a Non-Jew.

Paul also writes as follows:

Romans 14:14,

"I know. . . that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean."

Certainly, this is true. Jews consider things unclean because G-d announced it in the Torah, not because they are unclean of themselves. The law of kashruth (kosher) is G-d's law, as detailed by those who seek Him. G-d's ordinances create uncleanness, not the thing itself. And Jews and Non-Jews who want to please G-d and get close to Him keep the kosher laws. This is what G-d desires of us.

Romans 3:1-2,

"What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of G-d."

Romans 9:4, Romans 10:2,

"Who are Israelites: to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of G-d, and the promises: For I bear them record that they have a zeal of G-d . . ."

Romans 11:29,

"For the gifts and calling of G-d are without repentance."

Acts 2:5

"And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men . . ."

Jews have a fervor for G-d and are devout, said Paul. In other words, Biblical Judaism promoted enthusiasm for G-d. Jews were given the Covenant, the law, the prophets, and the promises. Jews minister to G-d by being His Chosen People. There is benefit, much benefit, in being Jewish. Paul even bolsters the firm foundation of the Torah, G-d's gift, lasting for eternity, without G-d changing His mind, without repenting of His Torah. That is what Paul actually said.

Notice that Paul, however, in a complete reversal of what he said elsewhere, is recorded to having believed that all these positive features of being Jewish are canceled, and of no avail, due to the Jew's lack of belief in Yeshua the Christ. We will leave Paul's reasoning and reversal to others. Instead, we ask you to keep in mind his positive appreciation of Judaism. And also remember that Yeshua said, in effect, that Judaism is of G-d. Yeshua, himself, taught that "Jews for Judaism" is the way even for the Non-Jew. We have shown abundant evidence of this in our present article.

Answer for yourself: Who is the authority you choose, Yeshua or Paul?

Ephesians 6:2-3,

"Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth."

Matthew 15:4 (Mark 7:10),

"For G-d commanded (Moses said), saying, Honor thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death."

These verses are Paul's and Yeshua's utterances, condemning anyone who doesn't bestow honor upon his parents, as taken from the Ten Commandments. This means dutifully regarding them and respecting them, and implicitly honoring your heritage as well. This commandment is considered important enough to be put forward separately. Therefore, shaming your parents and their teaching by turning from them and the G-d of their heritage is prohibited and deserving of worldly death as well as loss of life in the hereafter. This is also what we read elsewhere in the New Testament.

Luke 5:37-39.

"And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish. But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved. No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better."

Yeshua's saying appears to fit Judaism and its offspring, Christianity. To carry this analogy through, the new wine, Christianity, should not be placed into the old, Judaism. This, of course, is just what happened. In order for it to be good, the new should be nurtured separately. Both are then properly maintained, the old as it should be and the new as it should be. This did not occur. Sadly, the new has caused great harm to the old by claiming to succeed it, while mixing with it. And the new, by so doing, has harmed itself. Isn't that the proper conclusion to be drawn? Taken one step further, Yeshua also said that those who know the old, Judaism, prefer it.

Answer for yourself: Shouldn't you, as a Non-Jew and most likely a follower of Yeshua, prefer it too?

Answer for yourself: Whose teachings will you trust to lead you to eternal life...Paul's [which are filled with contradictions of Yeshua, Moses, the Prophets, as well as the other followers and Apostles of Yeshua who knew him personally and walked with him 40 days after his resurrection], or Yeshua's [which agree totally with Moses and the Prophets and which contains not one contradiction among them]?

I would think having read this article it is rather obvious....Shalom.

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH #5

At the heart of Judaism and Christianity lies some notion of sacrifice. In both traditions sacrifice provides a symbol for connecting a person to G-d: it makes possible repentance and a restored relationship with G-d. Jewish and Christian notions of sacrifice and salvation were affected by the destruction of the Temple in 70 CE. This event provided a key shift in their understanding of atonement.

For Judaism, sacrifice was not necessarily to be viewed as an external religious ritual but a matter of the heart—in line with the biblical prophetic tradition. For Christianity, Yeshua became the sacrifice which replaced all Temple sacrifices. Christ's death became the sacrifice which replaced the need for personal repentance for atonement.

Answer for yourself: How correct is this Christian teaching?

The point of departure between the early Jewish Christians and Pharisaic Judaism was twofold. Firstly, the Christians made Yeshua's death the atoning sacrifice; and secondly, they made it universal in scope rather than particular:

The link between the Jewish and Christian views of atonement lies in the concept of sacrifice. The notion of sacrifice seems very distant from most modern Western people, but that may be because they do not understand its purpose. Many people seem to view cultic sacrifice as a practice of superstitious primitive peoples who think that their gifts can placate the divine wrath or make up for their sins. Viewed as such, sacrifice indicates an amoral understanding of G-d's justice and human guilt.

However, this interpretation misunderstands the nature and purpose of sacrifice. Primarily, it is neither propitiation of the gods' anger nor satisfaction for sin but sacrifice is a medium whereby the worshippers are related to the divine, a 'ferry-boat between heaven and earth'. This is true of all religions that have used sacrifice, including the religion of ancient Israel. They performed sacrifices as part of the process of atonement, but, contrary to what the Christian Church taught on the matter, the Jews did not believe that their sins were magically removed when an animal was slaughtered on the altar, as if something took place that made their own moral actions irrelevant. This understanding has escaped most Christians I know.

Answer for yourself: Dear Christian, if this was the belief of the first followers of Yeshua should it not also be our belief as well?

That means we need to focus on a renewed value for repentance in a believer's life in response to the Commandments of G-d. Sacrifice was understood as the ritual that symbolically connected the sacrificer to their G-d (the animal on the altar was symbolic of the sacrificer's soul on the altar, which could only be there because the sacrificer had previously repented and made himself right with G-d and his fellowman). Such was an external witness to all of the sacrificer's prior effective repentance and right standing before G-d. Sacrifice is not then to be viewed as an alternative to repentance but as that which makes sacrifice and right standing with G-d possible. Godfrey Ashby noted that...

'expiatory sacrifice should never be seen as a rival to other means of response, such as expressions of repentance, but as the provided vehicle for confession and reparation.'

Sacrificial acts show the penitence of the sinner and give concrete expression to his or her desire to repent (it is an external work that demonstrates an internal work). In this way, the sacrifice is part of the process whereby the sinner is reconciled to G-d.

THIS HAS NEVER CHANGED... REGARDLESS OF WHAT THE CHURCH SAYS

This understanding of the process of atonement did not change when the Second Temple was destroyed in 70 CE. The Jews soon realized that they would somehow have to preserve their religion without the temple sacrifices. The rabbis turned to the fact that sacrifice was never effective as an external rite in itself without repentance and that sacrifice was always the demonstration of the prior internal work within a man's heart by G-d.

Stop and read that last sentence again. Somehow this has been tragically overlooked and misrepresented by the Christian Church over the ages. This has to stop.

Sacrifice was never thought to automatically cleanse people apart from their own repentance. Atonement cannot be effective without the genuine expression of sorrow for sin and a sincere desire to reform. The rabbis, in absence of the Temple and the external demonstration of one's internal repentance as seen in sacrifice, therefore put forward and reemphasized the view that atonement is still possible through the individual confession of sins and repentance as it always had, apart from any cultic ritual or priestly sacrifice. Some changes were necessary, and Scriptural authority for such changes can be found in Deut. 17.

CHANGES??????

The high priest no longer confesses for the people on Yom Kippur; now it is the duty of all Jews to confess their own sins (same for Gentile believers). This confession is no longer externalized in ritual form with animal sacrifices but in deeds of lovingkindness done for one's neighbor. The way to this life of righteousness and love is to be found through following the Torah.

The rabbis supported this view by quoting the prophet's words that 'G-d desires mercy and not sacrifices'. However, this is not meant to imply a rejection of sacrifice as such as we as Christians have erroneously been taught. One should realize that, when the prophets said G-d took no delight in the offerings of Israel, this was only a rejection of sacrifice performed without the right intention and repentance prior to the killing of the animal. Ironically the call from the prophets is to perform sacrifice correctly, not to abolish it. It is sacrifice emptied of its content and detached from its context (contrite and broken heart over one's sin) that is denounced by prophets and psalmists. To have condemned all offering of sacrifice would have been, in effect, to have condemned all public worship.

Likewise, in quoting the prophets, the rabbis were not claiming that sacrifice was immoral or undesirable. They were simply trying to deal with a situation in which they could no longer offer sacrifices, which forced them to reconsider the deeper understandings of atonement. Therefore, they stressed the human intention to repent that underlay the sacrifice and that remains in effect even without the ability to sacrifice which was imposed upon them from without.

SACRIFICE WITHOUT A TEMPLE...YOU BET

This does not mean that the idea of sacrifice has completely disappeared from Judaism. The prayer service itself was constructed as a form of sacrifice so that, as the rabbis said (quoting Hos. 14:2),

'we will offer the fruit of our lips'.

Furthermore, traditional Judaism looks forward to a restoration of physical sacrifice in the new Jerusalem, demonstrating that the cult had a role that has remained unfulfilled since the destruction of the temple. There is a sense, then, in which Judaism has continued to be a religion of sacrifice, even though sacrifice is no longer offered physically. Repentance requires some form of 'sacrifice' as its external expression, just as sacrifice requires repentance as its internal basis. Neither can exist without the other.

Sacrifice is also essential to the Christian concept of atonement. The first Christians were Jews who were familiar with the temple cult in Jerusalem as the means of atonement. Therefore, it is not altogether strange that they applied the language of sacrifice to the death of Yeshua. They believed that Yeshua was like the high priest at the temple, interceding with G-d on their behalf, making a holy offering to overcome the gap that separated them from G-d. Like the high priest, Yeshua did not provide a substitution for their own moral efforts to atone for their sins (failure of the second Tablet of the Law). Like other Jews, the first Christians believed their own repentance was essential to appropriate the value of the sacrifice. This does not mean that they thought the purpose of Yeshua's sacrifice was merely to prompt them to repent; rather, they believed his sacrifice provided the external form (just as animal sacrifices had done previously) in which their desire to repent and be forgiven was expressed.

In the Christian view, Yeshua's sacrifice and human repentance are inseparable, so atonement occurs in one's own personal appropriation of Yeshua's work. The Christian identifies with Yeshua's work through faith in him; hence, one's own obedience to the commands of G-d and suffering is included in acceptance of his suffering on one's behalf. Yet in churches that teach the Law has passed away such is impossible!

Yeshua is in this sense not a substitute for us, who acts without our participation, but a representative of us who reconnects us to G-d (by his example...if we follow it). The first Christians believed sacrifice requires our response of repentance to be effective, just as repentance requires sacrifice. The two are concurrent in early Christian thought just as they are in Judaism, because the Christian view evolved out of the Jewish concept of sacrifice.

SO WHERE DID THE IDEA THAT YESHUA'S DEATH WAS A SACRIFICE AND ATONEMENT ORIGINATE?

Although the Christian view of atonement was rooted in Judaism, there were still major differences in the way the doctrine developed in the Jewish and Jewish/Christian/Essene traditions. One obvious difference between the death of Yeshua, understood as a sacrifice (death by martyrdom was considered by the Essenes as an atoning sacrifice) and that offered by the high priest of Judaism (Biblical Judaism) is that in the apocalyptic view held by the Dead Sea Scroll peoples (the Essenes) the martyr offered up his own life as the sacrifice for the community himself. This is a major difference. Biblical Judaism as well as the Torah taught, as I have shown you in the previous articles in this series, that man atones for his own sin through repentance and restitution. The Essenes, a fringe apocalyptic group in the first century B.C.E., held beliefs not always accepted by Yeshua. This is of major importance because Yeshua was a Pharisee in good standing in the House of Hillel. This was conservative Phariseism. Such a Pharisee group to which Yeshua belonged held traditional beliefs as taught in the previous articles. Over against that is the Essenes which taught otherwise where one could die for the sins of the community. In other words, the Essenes believed one could die and provide an atonement for many if he was a martyred tzeddek (righteous man).

Understanding that much of the Essenic beliefs were adopted by the apocalyptic first Christians, one might claim that this idea clearly separates the Christian view of atonement from the Jewish view, but this is not strictly true. The idea that one may suffer (suffer and not die) for the sins of another is found already in Isaiah 52-53, the "suffering servant" poem to which early Christians so often referred. Even before Yeshua's lifetime, other Jewish writings proposed the idea that the death of martyrs could atone for the sins of the community of Israel...but Israel only (notice atone for Israel and not Brazil or Spain).

The Apocalyptic Christians changed this idea to make it universal, that the death of the martyr atoned for all men worldwide. Such is a major deviation from the original intent.

The original concept of martyrdom as atonement for a community, Israel, stressed the importance that one must be a part of G-d's People...the Israel of G-d which is provided to Gentile believers by engrafting by faith and resultant obedience to the commands of G-d. The idea of martyrdom was developed more extensively during the period of persecution in the first and second centuries CE. This is understandable since the Maccabean war contained the slaughter and martyrdom of myriads of righteous Jews. One can find numerous references to it in the Jewish literature of the times. It was believed that the righteous ones who die for their faith not only cleanse themselves from sin but are also able to intercede with G-d on behalf of all Israel. In this sense, their lives are a sacrifice for the sins of others. Even though this idea was formulated most explicitly in texts written after Yeshua's lifetime, it did not appear then for the first time, so it is probable that the early Christians were familiar with it from the inter-testamental times. The belief in the atoning power of Yeshua's death, then, is not alien to Judaism, for it evolved out of a Jewish understanding of martyrdom as a form of representative atonement by the Essenic community. Today most Jews and Christians today are unaware of the roots of this form of atonement.

YET THERE ARE REAL DIFFERENCES

In spite of this similarity, however, there were two crucial differences that separated the early Christian conception of atonement from ideas of other Jews: it made the death of one individual the central act of atonement, and it made this atonement universal in scope.

First, by making the death of Yeshua central, Christians separated themselves from those Jews who either had no personal relationship to Yeshua or could not see why he had to be the central means of salvation from sin. Christian Jews as well as Gentile Christians claimed that Yeshua was central to salvation because he was the messiah, but this claim involved a view of the messiah that was very different from the typical Jewish view. In the view of the Prophets and most of the Jews, the messiah was to be the agent of G-d's rescue of Israel from suffering, not one who atoned for their sins. Nowhere in the Old Testament and Jewish Scriptures was it ever recorded that the Messiah was to die for sin!

You need to step back and read that sentence again.

Many of the early Christians, but not all of them however, viewed the mission of the messiah as sacrificial, first and foremost and overlooked the multitude of unfulfilled prophecies that discredit Yeshua as being the Messiah long awaited by Israel. As stated previously many some but not all Christians believed that through Yeshua's death and resurrection could he redeem Israel. This was made possible by the popularity of the Apocalyptic literature generated in response to the foreign threats to Israel by foreign nations prevalent at that time. Since so many Jews were dying at the hands of the unrighteous Gentiles the surviving Jews sought to give great significance to their deaths by attributing an atoning efficacy to it. But be not mistaken, this view was popular among the fringe movement of Judaism and by and large the traditional conservative branch of Biblical Judaism did not hold such beliefs. Conservative Biblical Judaism, of which Yeshua was a part, did not hold to such beliefs!

By interpreting the concept of the messiah and applying it to Yeshua in this way, the first Christians gave a significance to his death above all other atoning sacrifices. This was a mistake.

UNIVERSAL ATONEMENT OR COMMUNITY ATONEMENT?

Second, the messianic significance attributed to Yeshua's death led to the view that the atonement he brought is universal in scope. The first Christians expanded the message of salvation beyond the boundaries of Israel in that Yeshua was said to have died for the sins of everyone in the world. It was this idea that made the mission to the gentiles possible, and very soon the idea was being translated into terms that made sense to them. There were already many popular myths of gods who die and are reborn to bring new life to the world, and the gentiles may have understood Yeshua's death in such mythic terms. Understand that even though the Essenes and apocalyptic believers in Yeshua as Messiah attached to him their concept of atoning martyrs, they changed the scope from community atonement to universal atonement.

At the same time, we should realize that the sacrificial concept of Yeshua's death was not developed in response to gentiles ideas alone but, included the Jewish conception of the righteous one who reconciles us to G-d by his sacrifice of suffering and death. These ideas were borrowed from the motif of Israel who suffered as G-d's Suffering Servant at the hands of unrighteous Gentiles. All fell into place as Yeshua was crucified by the Romans. Everything fit the Isaiah motif of Israel who also suffered at the hands of the Gentiles as taught in Isaiah 52-53. Although the centrality and universality attributed to Yeshua's death distinguished Christian views from those of non-Christian Jews, these ideas did not negate the Jewish form and content of their understanding of his death.

The bottom line is that if we do not understand the Christian view of atonement as originally Jewish, we cannot today explain its development within the primarily Jewish community of the early Christians. Thus the meaning of his death as taught from the Christian perspective is highly suspect in light of the evidences I have provided over the last 5 articles. If you read and understood the materials presented, then you can see like I and many others who have seen for themselves, that ideas have been attached to the death of Yeshua which are totally foreign to the Jewish Bible and which ultimately lead one to believe one's standing before G-d is assured because of what happened to Yeshua when in reality one's standing before G-d has always been and will continue to be dependent upon one's repentance as Isaiah said in the first place. To read into Isaiah concepts you have heard preached about Yeshua which are totally false, although you don't know them to be, does irreparable damage to the truth of the Holy Scriptures.

To further your study now, I strongly suggest you request our series on Isaiah 53 whereby you can see for yourself that the concepts read into Isaiah by the Christian Church are totally false and without substance. Shalom.

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH #6

Comment: - According to the Bible atonement for sins can be accomplished by other ways than by blood sacrifice. This is an undeniable fact which discomforts most Christians. Let us examine the facts.

FLOUR CAN MAKE ATONEMENT FOR THE SOUL...BLOOD SACRIFICE IS NOT NECESSARY

Leviticus 5:10

10 And he shall offer the second [for] a burnt offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him. 11 But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put [any] frankincense thereon: for it [is] a sin offering. 12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, [even] a memorial thereof, and burn [it] on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it [is] a sin offering. 13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and [the remnant] shall be the priest's, as a meat offering.

MONEY CAN ATONE FOR THE SOUL...BLOOD SACRIFICE IS NOT NECESSARY

Exodus 30:15

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when [they] give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls. 16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

JEWELRY CAN ATONE FOR THE SOUL....BLOOD SACRIFICE IS NOT NECESSARY

Numbers 31:50

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD.

PRAYER CAN ATONE FOR THE SOUL...BLOOD SACRIFICE IS NOT NECESSARY

Hosea 14:2

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive [us] graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. 3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, [Ye are] our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

“ALMOST ALL THINGS”...HEBREWS DOES NOT SAY “ALL THINGS”

Hebrews 9:22

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

There is remission of sins by several means other than the shedding of blood, as the previous passages say, BUT this last verse contradicts this.

It has been said “Just as it is unreasonable and unjust for all of humanity to be punished for the deeds of one man {Adam}, it is equally unreasonable and unjust for one man to die on the cross for the misdeeds of all humanity.” Let us investigate that statement.

LOOKING AT YESHUA AS A SACRIFICE FOR SINS...CAN WE?

After investigating atonement in the Bible thoroughly, there are many problems concerning considering Yeshua as an acceptable sacrifice or the lamb of G-d. Let us investigate the matter in depth. Sacrifices and sin offerings for unintentional sins and guilt offerings were all slaughtered and burned on the alter and then all of it eaten by the priests. Yeshua's body was not burned nor was he killed on the Brazen Altar. Neither was his corpse eaten by the priests or his followers.

The offering had to be perfect and without blemish or spot. By the time Yeshua would have been ready for sacrifice he was blemished -- crown of thorns on his head, pierced side, and he was spat upon, therefore not perfect. Thus you can see that Yeshua did not fulfill all the requirements for the sin offering, instead he died on a cross and was buried in a tomb instead of dying on an alter and eaten.

It is honest questions like these that prompted me to study in detail doctrines taught by the Church which I had accepted most of my life unquestioningly. When I asked my spiritual authorities it never seemed to fail that they were, for the most part, unprepared to answer such difficult questions as I posed here.

Now understand it is not my wish to denigrate Yeshua or his ministry. I have the highest respect for him and what he, and his original followers accomplished. In fact, I have come to know G-d because of him. However, I desire truth in the inward parts, and if what is taught by the church which passes for orthodoxy cannot stand the test of questioning or critical inquiry, then should you or I accept it any longer?

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH # 7

One of the cornerstones of Christian theology is that the only way to achieve atonement for sins is through the offering of a sacrifice whose blood is shed in our place. The Greek Testament makes this very clear in Hebrews 9:22 "and almost all things are by the Law purged with blood: and without the shedding of blood is no remission."

Answer for yourself: It says "almost all things;" but are you aware that there is a big difference between "almost all things" and "all things?"

The inclusion of the word "almost" opens the door for the New Testament believer to investigate what OTHER THAN BLOOD brings remission of sins. Coupled with this is the understanding that the "lamb of G-d" who was sacrificed for sins on Yom Kippur ONLY atoned for the sins of the First Tablet Law and not for sins of the Second Tablet of the Law.

Answer for yourself: Understanding that Yeshua's offering of himself as the Lamb of G-d fulfilled both type and shadow the Lamb of G-d in Scripture through his death, then if his death only atoned for the sins of the First Tablet of the Law, then what atones for the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law?

Answer for yourself: Is this idea consistent with the teachings of the Tanakh (the Hebrew Bible), or do the Jewish and Christian bibles diverge on this issue?

Christians generally insist that the absolute need for a vicarious blood sacrifice is rooted in the Torah (first five books of the Old Testament), and cite as proof Leviticus 17:11

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul."

As a Christian, you have probably heard many sermons on the topic of atonement, and have undoubtedly read many studies which support the contention that there is "no atonement without blood." But the truth of the matter is that neither the Book of Hebrews or the Old Testament says that. Of course you are also aware that this is a teaching which is not shared by traditional Jews and for a very good reason which has escaped the Gentile Christian church because of their misinterpretation of the passages in their Bibles as well as because of superficial reading of the whole Bible.

Answer for yourself: Have you ever wondered how the Jewish people could reject what to you seems so clear?

This study has been prepared to give you the opportunity to consider a different perspective on the vital issue of atonement and thereby make adjustments to your religious belief system as well as to your conduct and behavior which is based upon it. The tragic state of affairs of the matter is that traditional Gentile Christianity as practiced today is guilty of the sins of the Second Tablet of the Law and not responding in appropriate manners of repentance to atone for it, for as I showed you, these sins are not dealt with through sacrifice and blood (Yeshua's death).

ANOTHER LOOK AT LEVITICUS 17:11-POSSIBLY THE MOST IMPORTANT THING YOU CAN EVER LEARN

You might remember that in junior high school, we were often given an assignment to write the title for a story; what is the central idea of a passage. Let's look at Leviticus 17:11 in context in order to make sure we understand the "central" idea of the passage.

"And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who consumes any blood, I will set My face against that person who consumes blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul. Therefore, I say to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall consume blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you consume blood.'"

What should immediately be apparent is that the topic of this passage is not how to secure atonement from sins, but the prohibition against consuming blood. We are told parenthetically that the reason for this prohibition is that the blood contains the vitality (soul) of the animal (Genesis 9:4, Deuteronomy 12:23) and consequently, when we bring an animal sacrifice, its soul (life) which is in its blood serves as the atoning agent (Isa. 53:10), and not another part of its body. The prophet Isaiah informs us that G-d's suffering servant soul, which was offered in his death, was pleasing to G-d and G-d accepted it as an "offering for sin." Notice that it is not the "blood" which was accepted for an offering for sin, but rather the "life/soul" of the Suffering Servant. That means it is not the "death" or "the blood" which accomplished anything, but rather Yeshua's G-d honoring life lived (in Hebrew the "life" which is in the blood is the word for "soul"), which was lived completely obediently to G-d's Commandments [by which he never sinned] which was so pleasing to G-d that He accepted his life as an offering for sin. So when you read in the New Testament or head "saved by the blood of Yeshua" understand we are "not under the blood or anything like that." This is a completely erroneous Gentile interpretation of the sacrificial system which it completely misunderstands. When saying "saved by the blood of Yeshua" we need to understand the concept Paul is relating which is we are "saved" by Yeshua giving his G-d obediently and honoring life to G-d or ours in his death where his blood was shed as the vehicle of his death which offered up his "soul as an offering for sin." Now, let us continue.

REPAIRING OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH G-D

Since Leviticus 17 doesn't come to teach us about the principles of atonement as we have erroneously been told, we will have to look elsewhere for the Bible's most important teaching on how to repair our relationships with G-d which continually is adversely affected by our sin.

Before proceeding, let's consider another point about what is, and what is not being said in Leviticus 17:11. The passage does say that since blood symbolizes the life/soul of the animal, G-d has given it to us as a means of atoning for our sins (it carries the animal's soul which is sinless).

Answer for yourself: But does the verse clearly teach that it is the only means G-d has provided to make atonement?

As with any other Biblical study, we will have to examine this question in light of the Bible as a whole. But for now, we should note that our verse merely says that blood can serve as an atonement. It is an effective means of atonement, but by no means the only form of atonement.

In the Torah, blood sacrifices were not the only path to atonement; there were other ways to achieve forgiveness.

NON-BLOOD ATONEMENTS THAT ARE IN BOTH THE OLD TESTAMENT AND THE NEW TESTAMENT

For example, incense served to atone for the people in Numbers 16:46-47, and giving charity is described in Exodus 30:15-16 and Numbers 31:50 as `making atonement for your souls (the same expression as in Leviticus 17:11). In reality, blood sacrifices were the least effective of all the means of atonement mentioned in the Bible. One important limitation to the effectiveness of sacrifices is that they were only brought for unintentional sins (ie. someone didn't know that kindling a fire was prohibited on the Sabbath, or they were aware of this, but thought it was Sunday when kindling the fire). Now for a real scary thought: Sacrifices did not help to atone for sins that were done intentionally (Leviticus 4, and Numbers 15:22-31).

Examining the Christian interpretation of Leviticus 17:11 generates some serious problems.

Answer for yourself: What happens if someone can't afford to purchase an animal for his sin offering?

Answer for yourself: Is it possible that G-d would institute a system of atonement that could only be used by the wealthy?

The Torah took this into account and allowed the poor person to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons if he couldn't afford a lamb (Leviticus 5:7).

Answer for yourself: However, what if someone was so destitute, that he couldn't afford even these small birds?

"But if his means are insufficient for two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then for his offering for that which he has sinned, he shall bring the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it or place incense on it, for it is a sin offering." (Leviticus 5:11)

Since flour could be used for a sin offering, it is clear that blood was not a prerequisite for atonement. Another example will drive home the point. The proposition that only blood sacrifices could secure atonement creates a dilemma.

Answer for yourself: Could it be that G-d would set up a system of atonement that wouldn't be available to all people at all times?

Answer for yourself: Does it stand to reason that G-d would devise an atonement system in which those who were deprived of necessary "religious theology" because they lived in another part of the world at the time and who never knew about salvation only through Yeshua and receiving him would be lost?

Answer for yourself: Are we better suited now to understand Peter's revelation at Cornelius' house where he remarks in Acts 10:35: now I know that "in every nation he that feareth him (G-d) and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him (G-d)?"

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that Peter makes this startling discovery and remark BEFORE he ever began preaching about Yeshua to Cornelius?

Answer for yourself: Would it surprise you to know that the New Testament even says in Acts 10:33 that Cornelius sent for Peter in order to "hear all things that are commanded of G-d" and did not sent for Peter to come and tell him the latest theological beliefs about Yeshua?

Answer for yourself: Can you now see for yourself and make the connection with the Commandments of the Second Tablet of the Law which the Lamb of G-d on Yom Kippur (Yeshua) did not provide atonement for, and the necessity for believers in G-d (Gentiles and Jews) to obey them correctly?

Answer for yourself: Since all Commandments of the Second Tablet of the Law concern actions taken between man and man, and not man and G-d, can you begin to see the importance of obeying G-d's will and Commandments correctly in your relationships with others; such as the commandments on giving your tithe correctly which is commanded to be handled in certain ways by you and the clergy according to the mandated pattern in Scripture?

Answer for yourself: Are you beginning to see that although you think you are obeying G-d, for example by giving your 10% tithe to your church each month, that if the tithe you give is not used and put in designated places according to G-d Law and Scripture by your church, then you have sinned along with them for violating the Law?

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that sin is breaking the Law (ie. Law of tithe for example) according to I John 3:4: Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law, and that these sins (Second Tablet of the Law...commandments affecting man blessing other men through giving alms for example) have no atonement provided by the blood of the lamb?

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that if you don't tithe correctly as commanded by the Bible by giving you 10% between 3 areas only (1/3 of 10% goes to poor, sick, lame, blind, deaf, etc.; 1/3 goes to yourself to assure you and your family celebrate the Sabbath and Biblical Festivals, and 1/3 goes to support the teacher, choir, and janitor.....) then you violate G-d's Commandments and have not atonement provided for such sins of omission because the Lamb of G-d only atoned for the sins of the First Tablet of the Law only?

While the Temple stood, sacrifices did serve as part of the atonement process.

Answer for yourself: But what is the fate of Jewish people who don't have access to the Temple?

Answer for yourself: What were the Jewish people supposed to do after 586 B.C.E. when the first Temple was destroyed and they were exiled to Babylon?

Answer for yourself: What did the Jewish people do in the times of the Maccabees when the Syrian-Greeks were in control of the Temple and didn't allow sacrifices?

THE TYPICAL CHRISTIAN NEEDS TO KNOW HIS FAITH BETTER

Many Christians erroneously claim that Rabbinic Judaism came up with novel, non-Biblical measures to deal with atonement after the destruction of the Temple by the Romans in 70 CE.

Answer for yourself: But is that the truth?

Actually, it wasn't Talmudic innovation at all, because G-d in the Bible you carry to church each Sunday anticipated the possibility of the cessation of sacrifices. When King Solomon finally laid the finishing touches on the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, he inaugurated it with a moving dedication speech (I Kings 8; II Chronicles 6). In this lengthy speech of almost 50 verses, you will notice that Solomon doesn't speak about sacrifices at all! This omission would be strange if the most crucial part of the Temple were the sacrifices. Actually, the central focus of the Temple was the Holy Ark (Exodus 25) containing the Torah. The Temple was first and foremost a symbol of G-d's presence and revelation to the Jewish people (I Kings 8:13, Exodus 25:8).

Towards the end of his speech, Solomon deals with the possibility of the Jewish people being denied access to the Temple in the eventuality that they are exiled from the land of Israel. "If they return (repent and obey) to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies (thus without a Temple it would be impossible to make blood sacrifices for atonement) who have taken them captive, and pray to You toward their land which You have given to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name; then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You..." (I Kings 8:46-50).

Answer for yourself: Do you see for yourself that in the absence of blood sacrifices G-d is expected to accept man's repentance and prayer for forgiveness of sins?

Answer for yourself: Did King Solomon understand and expect forgiveness of sin without blood sacrifice? He sure did.

This very important, but often overlooked passage (because most Christian Churches use only the New Testament basically) puts the spotlight on the Christian misunderstanding of Leviticus 17:11. The Bible is clearly teaching that sacrifices weren't necessary in order to atone for sins. Prayer and repentance are cited here as effective means for securing atonement. Certainly, when the Temple stood, and one could afford an animal, a sacrifice was brought as part of the atonement process for unintentional sins. Leviticus 17:11 teaches that when we bring such an animal as a sacrifice, we aren't allowed to consume its blood, because as the life force, it is the part of the animal that affects our atonement.

Christian dogma holds that the crucifixion of Yeshua at Calvary served as the final atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world. Christianity insists that this is not just a Pauline innovation, but reflects the requirements of the Jewish Bible, and tries to establish this by pointing to Leviticus 17:11 as the key to atonement in the Tanakh. However, if this passage is examined, as we will do later in this article, it will be clear that Yeshua could never serve as an atoning sacrifice because he gave his "blood". Obviously, the shedding of blood by pricking my finger or killing my cat won't fulfill the Biblical requirements for atonement because the "life" of the injured party was not given. The Torah delineates how sacrifices are to be brought, and understanding that, it's main reference is not the blood but the "soul" (life) that is in the blood. Yeshua gave his life (soul) as the offering for sin; it just so happens that his soul was in his blood. The blood is the vehicle for the soul. Yeshua's soul was given as "the" offering effecting atonement for sin and not his red blood cells.

"For the life (soul) of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it (soul) to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls..." (notice the blood had to be placed on the altar or should I say the soul had to be placed on the altar in order to substitute for another soul). Clearly, not any spilled blood is accepted by the Torah as a sacrifice. Yeshua's crucifixion may qualify as an atonement according to the Greek Testament, but since his blood was not offered on the altar, it is not in line with what the Torah mandates. Again you can see the importance of repentance, prayer, charity, etc., as effective methods in man's atonement, especially as you see the requirements for blood to serve as an atonement and how it would be difficult to accomplish in Yeshua's death.

Some will draw attention to several other factors which would render the crucifixion of Yeshua an unacceptable sacrifice. According to the Biblical rules in Leviticus, all sacrifices had to be offered by a Priest who descends from Aaron. This was not the case in the death of Yeshua, who was crucified by Roman soldiers. Additionally, Biblical law prohibited any sacrifice which was blemished or maimed (Leviticus 22:19-21). However, prior to his crucifixion, Yeshua was whipped and beaten (Matthew 27:26, Mark 15:19, John 19:3) which would render him unfit. Furthermore, Yeshua was circumcised in the flesh, which according to Philippians 3:2 and Galatians 5:12 is considered mutilation. We have no answers for some of the problems encountered in the offering of Yeshua, but one thing we can be sure of: G-d did delineate in His Word alternate ways of effecting remission of sin and atonement. It is our strong recommendation, especially in light of Yeshua's teaching in Matt. 19 where the man who asked "what must I DO to inherit eternal life" (notice the question was not what he was to believe) was told he "lacked one thing." As for us, and our hope for you, is that in the resurrection we are not told "we lack one thing for eternal life" since most of our lives we have been told otherwise...that we are saved by the blood of Yeshua. You should by now, in just reading these seven pages, be wondering strongly to yourselves what things you are lacking in doing which will be required in the resurrection which you have up to now falsely believed were taken care of by Yeshua's sacrifice. The bottom line, in a nutshell, is that the anti-Semitic and anti-Judaic brand of Christianity we have inherited today has moved us far from the truths of Yeshua and what is really involved in our salvation.

Frequently, Christians react to this line of reasoning by protesting that it is improper to be so literal, and that Yeshua's death was more of a symbolic or spiritual sacrifice. This would be fine if the Bible provided for such ethereal offerings, but such is not the case. The Greek Testament, however, does insist that Yeshua was a real sacrifice, literally fulfilling the Biblical requirements of such: "But coming to Yeshua, when they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs...in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled: `Not a bone of him shall be broken.'" (John 19:33-36)

The Gospel of John portrays Yeshua as the Paschal lamb which was not supposed to have any of its bones broken (Exodus 12:46, Numbers 9:12). Since the author of John insists that Yeshua was a real sacrifice to the extent that the Biblical rules of the Passover were fulfilled in him, we can't dismiss the problems concerning Yeshua's sacrifice cited above as legalistic nit-picking.

One wonders why the Greek Testament chose to type Yeshua as a Paschal lamb rather than the sacrifice for the Day of Atonement, because atonement is not associated with Passover in any way form or fashion. We know from Exodus 12 that the Passover sacrifice did not serve as an atonement for sins, rather it commemorates the exodus from Egypt. Even when the lamb was slaughtered in Egypt and its blood smeared on the doorposts, it did not serve to atone for the sins of anyone. It was a sign for the angel of death to pass over Jewish homes during the plague of the first born. The only people in danger were first born males, the blood wasn't a help to other people in the family, and didn't serve as an atonement for the first born. A more fitting prototype for Yeshua would have been the Yom Kippur sacrifice, which was an atonement for the sins of all the people. It is interesting that according to Leviticus 16:10,21-22, the animal which effectuated the atonement for the sins of the nation was not killed, but sent live out into the desert. Again, the shedding of blood is not for atonement.

However the Greek New Testament, literally re-written by the Gentile Catholic Church when taken from the Jewish oral traditions about Yeshua, went to some great lengths to demonstrate that the atoning death of Yeshua was predicated upon the Jewish Bible (which such is not the case). In the book of Hebrews, a verse from the book of Psalms is quoted as evidence that the sacrifice of Yeshua was part of G-d's original plan for the world.

"Sacrifice and offering You have not desired, but a body You have prepared for me" (Hebrews 10:5 referring to Psalms 40:6).

In verse 10 of our passage from Hebrews, we are told that the body spoken of refers to the body of Yeshua. However, the Greek Testament took some great liberties in quoting from the book of Psalms, which never mentions a body being prepared at all:

"Sacrifice and meal offering You have not desired; my ears You have opened; Burnt offerings and sin offerings You have not required" (Psalm 40:6).

The author of Romans asserts that the Jewish scriptures spoke about the Messiah coming in order to eradicate sin from Israel:

"And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written, `The deliverer will come from Zion and remove ungodliness from Jacob'" (Romans 11:26 citing Isaiah 59:20).

Answer for yourself: What is unique about this verse quoted by Paul in Romans 11:26?

Paul omits all references to repentance from Isaiah 59:20 in quoting the verse in misquoting it in Romans. What we need to understand is that Paul misquotes the verse, not just any verse, but a verse critically important in understanding what is required for our salvation!

However, if you take the time to check the original source in Isaiah you will see for yourself the flawed foundation of the claim made in the book of Romans.

"And a redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, says the Lord."

Answer for yourself: What are we to understand in the salvation process which Paul obscures and which the Christian Church has based itself faulty upon for centuries?

Isaiah didn't teach that the Messiah's purpose is to remove sin; rather, he will come to the Jewish people when they show themselves worthy by turning away from sin. In other words G-d's redeemer comes ONLY for those who are repenting and turning from their violations of the Commandments of G-d, and turning back to G-d in repentance and obedience to the Commandments of G-d. Yeshua did not come for everyone as you can see.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT VICARIOUS ATONEMENT?

One wonders why throughout the four Gospels, Yeshua never speaks about his death serving as a sacrifice to atone for the sins of the world.

Answer for yourself: Is the idea that an innocent person can be killed instead of those who are guilty consistent with what the Bible teaches?

- After the sin of the Golden Calf, G-d expressed His intention to destroy the Jewish people. Moses intercedes, and offers to die in their place. In response, G-d says "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book!" (Exodus 32:32-33). Throughout the Bible, G-d says that one person cannot die for the sins of another:
- "Fathers shall not be put to death for their sons, nor shall sons be put to death for their fathers; everyone shall be put to death for his own sin" (Deuteronomy 24:16, II Kings 14:6).
- "But everyone will die for his own sin; each man who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge" (Jeremiah 31:30).
- "The person who sins will die. The son will not bear the punishment for the father's iniquity, nor will the father bear the punishment for the son's iniquity; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself" (Ezekiel 18:20).
- "No man can by any means redeem his brother, or give to G-d a ransom for him" (Psalms 49:7).
- "So you shall not pollute the land in which you are; for blood pollutes the land and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who has shed it!" (Numbers 35:33).

Although Romans 4:5 says that Yeshua justifies the ungodly, the Tanakh teaches that

"He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them are an abomination to the Lord" (Proverbs 17:15).

Answer for yourself: Since G-d is the same yesterday, today, and forever and changes not, then how are we to expect or believe, in light of consideration of the whole Bible and understanding clearly the dynamics of the sacrificial system, that repentance and turning back to G-d in obedience to Commandments we previously have been breaking, is not of major importance in the salvation process?

We approach this troublesome question with assurance, that the sins of the First Tablet of the Law, sins between man and G-d are atoned for in the death of Yeshua as G-d's Suffering Messiah, however those of the Second Tablet of the Law remain without atonement, for G-d designed all through His Word that we should learn of concepts like prayer, repentance, obedience, restitution, giving of charity and alms through correct principles of tithing, etc., are acceptable to G-d for our atonement as co-laborers with G-d in our own salvation.

Let us not forget that we are to “work out our salvation with fear and trembling,” not believe only for our salvation.” Such is the Church’s greatest lie which has deceived millions.

Answer for yourself: If indeed, Yeshua came as the final sacrifice to atone for the sins of the world, why does the Tanakh predict that the Temple will be rebuilt and sacrifices resumed?

- "Even those I will bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on My altar; for My house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples." (Isaiah 56:7). If you know anything about the history of the Temple and Second Temple Judaism, that prophecy has not been accomplished yet, and as of yet Gentiles will come up to Zion to pray in G-d's House of Prayer which is yet to be rebuilt.
- "From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshipers, My dispersed ones will bring My offerings." (Zephaniah 3:10)
- "All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will minister to you; they will go up with acceptance on My altar, and I shall glorify My glorious house." (Isaiah 60:7)
- "And I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary in their midst forever." (Ezekiel 37:26)
- "And He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the Lord offerings in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the Lord, as in the days of old and as in former years" (Malachi 3:3-4).
- "And every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the Lord of hosts; and all who sacrifice will come and take of them and boil in them." (Zechariah 14:21) "And it shall be the princes part to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the libations...to make atonement for the house of Israel." (Ezekiel 45:17)

The Christian claim that our sins can only be forgiven if blood is shed on our behalf also seems to limit the power of G-d. It's ludicrous to say that G-d's ability to forgive us is dependent on anything. One of the most basic teachings in the Bible is that since G-d is merciful, He often forgives us simply because He is merciful.

"Who is a G-d like You, who pardons iniquity and passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in unchanging love" (Micah 7:18; Psalm 103:7-18).

Even when we don't seek G-d appropriately, He has the ability to reach out to us with love and forgive us:

"Their heart was not steadfast toward Him, nor were they faithful in His covenant. But He, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity...remembering that they were but flesh." (Psalms 78:36-39)

"You have not brought Me the sheep of your burnt offerings...or the fat of your sacrifices, but you have burdened Me with your sins...Nevertheless, I will wipe out your transgressions for My own sake, and I will not remember your sins." (Isaiah 43:23-25)

One of the clearest indications that Christianity is off base in its insistence on the centrality of blood sacrifices is that none of the prophets speaks about it. There isn't one instance in the prophetic books where the Jewish people are told that in order to get right with G-d they need to get covered by the blood, be under the blood, or plead the blood.

Answer for yourself: If that's the case, what is the fundamental teaching of the Tanakh on the issue of atonement?

Answer for yourself: What theme is reiterated time and again by the holy prophets in the Bible?

- "That every man will turn from his evil way, then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin." (Jeremiah 36:3). This says it in a nutshell.
- "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return to the Lord, and He will have compassion on him; and to our G-d, for He will abundantly pardon." (Isaiah 55:7).
- "I acknowledged my sin to You, and my iniquity I did not hide; I said, 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord', and You did forgive the guilt of my sin." (Psalm 32:5).
- "And if My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face (see Ezra for "seeking" is study) and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (II Chronicles 7:14). "But if the wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed and observes all My statutes and practices justice and righteousness, he shall surely live; he shall not die. All his transgressions which he has committed will not be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has practiced he shall live...When a wicked man turns away from his wickedness which he has committed and practices justice and righteousness, he will save his life...Repent and turn away from all your transgressions, so that iniquity may not become a stumbling block to you (Ezekiel 18:21-22,27,30).
- "By loving-kindness and truth iniquity is atoned for..." (Proverbs 16:6).
- "If you return to G-d you will be restored; if you remove unrighteousness far from your tent...then you will delight in G-d..." (Job 22:23-27).
- "Depart from evil, and do good, so you will abide forever." (Psalm 37:27, cf. Ezekiel 33, Zechariah 1:3, Jeremiah 26:13).

The central teaching of the Bible is that only a break with our past and a sincere turning in repentance can restore our relationships with G-d. If I go off the path, I have to put myself back on track, and G-d will forgive me. Even when sacrifices were offered, they in and of themselves didn't effect atonement. The sacrifice was part of the process, it helped bring us to the core of atonement which is achieved by TESHUVAH, returning to G-d by forsaking our evil ways and praying for forgiveness. One of the main teachings of the prophets was to chide Jewish people who thought that sacrifices were the essential element of atonement:

"What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me? says the Lord. I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed cattle. And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats...Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from My sight. Cease to do evil, Learn to do good; seek justice, reprove the ruthless, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Come let us reason together says the Lord, 'Though your sins are as scarlet, they will be white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they will be like wool, if you consent and obey...' (Isaiah 1:11-18).

As you see in the above passage G-d does not desire the senseless slaughter of animals which accomplish nothing if the person bringing the sacrifice has not already, prior to bringing his sacrifice, confessed his sin, been remorseful over his sin, repented of his sin, prayed, and made restitution where possible if his sin was between man to man. Just going through the "motions" never pleased G-d and most Christians read this passage failing to realize that G-d is not doing away with the sacrificial system; on the contrary, He is admonishing those who are failing to obey it properly!

SO HOW DOES THIS AFFECT ME AND WHAT SHOULD I DO?

"The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord." (Proverbs 15:8).

Answer for yourself: Do you realize that if what you do based on your religious belief system, which you think is right and obedient to G-d's Law, but is in the final analysis really disobedience, but you were not aware of it being disobedience because of improper instruction by religious authorities which had it wrong, then you are guilty of sin and the death of Yeshua (if you believe in this) would not cover such sins anyway since these sins are of the Second Tablet of the Law and were never covered by blood sacrifice anyway?

Answer for yourself: Are you aware that your tithe is derived from Commandments dealing with the Second Tablet of the Law and if you are not obeying it correctly then any false belief in any sacrifice of Yeshua will not cover such disobedience?

Answer for yourself: Can you now understand why Bet Emet and other such ministries endeavors to teach you the truth and separate it from religious fiction since it is appointed for all men to die and then the judgment?

- "To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice." (Proverbs 21:3).
- "For I delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice, and in the knowledge of G-d rather than burnt offerings." (Hosea 6:6).
- "Has the Lord as great a delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken more than the fat of rams" (I Samuel 15:22).
- "With what shall I come to the Lord, and bow myself before the G-d on high? Shall I come to Him with burnt offerings, with yearling calves? Does the Lord take delight in thousands of rams, in ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I present my firstborn for my rebellious acts, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your G-d." (Micah 6:6-8, cf. Amos 5:22-24, Jeremiah 7, Psalm 69:31-32).

Answer for yourself: Since repentance, and not blood is the Biblical form of atonement, can you now better understand how in I Kings 8, Solomon explained that even if the Jewish people don't have access to the Temple, they still have access to G-d?

This will illuminate a famous story found in the book of Jonah. G-d sends Jonah to the evil city of Nineveh (Gentiles) to warn them of their impending destruction. Jonah doesn't come into the city and tell the people that unless they begin offering sacrifices they are doomed. Their response to his warnings is to repent: they fast, pray, and turn from their evil.

Answer for yourself: What is G-d's response?

"When G-d saw their deeds that they turned from their wicked way, then G-d relented concerning the calamity which He had declared He would bring upon them, and He did not do it" (Jonah 3:10).

In similar fashion, Daniel advised king Nebuchadnezzar on how to atone for his transgressions:

Dan 4:27 27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity. (KJV)

This principle will also help explain a passage in the book of Hosea. Hosea was a prophet to the 10 northern tribes in the kingdom of Israel during a time when there was a civil war going on between them and the two tribes of the kingdom of Judah in the south. Because of the strife, the tribes up north couldn't get to the Temple in Jerusalem to offer sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: Since they were deprived of “blood” in the form of blood sacrifices, did this leave them with no way of atoning for their sins? The prophet advises:

"Return, O Israel, to the Lord your G-d, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity. Take words with you and return to the Lord. Say to Him, 'Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously, for we will render as bullocks the offerings of our lips'" (Hosea 14:1-2).

We are able to approach G-d directly with prayer, which is possible at all times; and G-d assures us that sincere prayer can achieve forgiveness for our sins:

- "Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O Lord, the G-d of my salvation. And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall show forth Your praise. For You do not delight in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of G-d are a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart. These, O G-d, You will not despise" (Psalms 51:14-17, II Samuel 12:13).
- "I will praise the name of G-d with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. This shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that has horns and hoofs" (Psalm 69:30-31).
- "For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in loving-kindness to all who call upon You. Give ear, O Lord to my prayer, and give heed to the voice of my supplications" (Psalm 86:5-6).
- "And listen to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear from heaven Your dwelling place, hear and forgive" (II Chronicles 6:21).

THE BIGGEST QUESTION YOU WILL EVER BE ASKED

Answer for yourself: Are Christians consistent with the Jewish Bible and the G-d who changes not when they claim that atonement is only possible with a blood sacrifice?

Answer for yourself: As so often said by Christian pastors today who are devoid of the facts and knowledge of the Bible, did the Rabbis just make up the idea that we can restore our relationship with G-d through prayer and repentance because they don't believe in the Yeshua portrayed to them by the Gentile Church and his proposed message of salvation ONLY thorough Yeshua? YOU DECIDE!

WHAT DID THE DEATH OF YESHUA ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISH # 8

THIS IS WHERE ALL THE MISUNDERSTANDING BEGINS

Context Of Leviticus 17:10-11

Lev 17:10-11

10 And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. 11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

The subject of this verse, as well as the context of the verses at hand, is not to describe and instruct about the efficacy of blood as an atonement, but rather to command G-d's people to recognize the sanctity of blood and not treat it as did the heathen who drank it in their pagan rituals. But yet we can learn a very important lesson "about atonement" from this verse if we will only stop and "think."

The admonition was to the Jew as well as the “non-Jew.”

1616 ger (gare); or (fully) geyr (gare); from 1481; properly, a guest; by implication, a foreigner: KJV-- alien, sojourner, stranger.

Answer for yourself: From verse 20, what is the relationship of the Gentile non-Jew to Israel? He is part of the Israel of G-d. This means what?

Answer for yourself: What actually is given upon the altar for our atonement...the “life”/“soul” of the animal or the “blood”?”

In the blood” is a modifier of the subject of the sentence. If you read the passage slowly and think you will see, as do all who study for themselves and not just listen to rhetoric, that it is the “life force” or the “life” which is placed upon the altar as an atonement for sins and not “the blood.”

Answer for yourself:: Having this understanding, what is the meaning of the word used for “life” in the Hebrew?

5315 nephesh- a soulself,, life, a creature, a person, an appetite, a mind, a living being, a desire, an emotion, a passion

- a) what breathes, the breathing substance or being, a soul, the inner being of man
- b) a living being
- c) a living being (with life in the blood)
- d) the man himself, self, a person or an individual
- e) the seat of the appetites
- f) the seat of emotions and passions
- g) the activity of mind
- h) the activity of the will
- i) the activity of the character

5315 nephesh (neh'-fesh); from 5314; properly, a breathing creature, i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality; used very widely in a literal, accommodated or figurative sense (bodily or mental):

KJV-- any, appetite, beast, body, breath, creature, X dead (-ly), desire, X [dis-] contented, X fish, ghost, + greedy, he, heart (-y), (hath, X jeopardy of) life (X in jeopardy), lust, man, me, mind, mortally, one, own, person, pleasure, (her-, him-, my-, thyself-), them (your)- selves, + slay, soul, + tablet, they, thing, (X she) will, X would have it.

Answer for yourself: What is the Hebraic meaning of the word “atonement”?

3722 kaphar- to cover, to purge, to make an atonement, to make reconciliation, to cover over with pitch

- a) (Qal) to coat (to cover) with pitch
- b) (Piel)
  - 1) to cover over, to pacify, to propitiate
  - 2) to cover over, to atone for sin, to make atonement for
  - 3) to cover over, to atone for sin and persons by legal rites
- c) (Pual)
  - 1) to be covered over
- d) to make atonement for
- e) (Hithpael) to be covered

Answer for yourself: Does the book of Hebrews teach us that “all” things are by the law purged with blood, and that without the shedding of blood there is no atonement?

Well, surprisingly it does not say that, and if you will read it for yourself in the KJV Bible you will see that for yourself.

Heb 9:22

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Are we to believe then that All Things were purged by “blood” (or the “soul” within the blood), or it is possible that atonement can come for things “other” than blood?

CHRISTIANITY’S INCONSISTENCIES ARE WITHOUT LIMITS

Most Christians I know will quote Hebrews 9:22 until the cows come home, but hardly any ever notice that the credibility of “blood” being used as an atonement finds its foundation in the Law. Even Hebrews 9:22 says “by the law” as it look for authority. Usually most Christians apply blood sacrifice and atonement to the life of Yeshua, and in doing so make a “blanket coverage” for the atonement of “all sins.” But we cannot do that. If we appeal to the Law for authority for blood atonement, then we must let this same Law be our authority in all matters relating to the same atonement.

What is staggering when your first become aware of it is the fact that blood atonement ONLY, and I stress ONLY, brought atonement for UNINTENTIONAL SINS and NOT INTENTIONAL SINS.

Lev 4:1-2

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Did you hear that?

Answer for yourself: How does this relate to the death of Yeshua?

Answer for yourself: If we apply this understanding of “life” instead of “blood” for atonement, then what does this do with the traditional Christian teaching that we are saved by the blood of Yeshua?

Answer for yourself: Was it Yeshua’s life and soul, or his red blood cells that would quality for atonement?

Answer for yourself: Do we need to look elsewhere than Yeshua for atonement for INTENTIONAL SINS since the blood of animals, and even Yeshua, could never atone for intentional sins?

Answer for yourself: According To David, the writer of the Psalms, is Blood/Sacrifice the only method for Atonement in the Bible? No. Read on.

Psalms 40:6

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened [to hear your Law and Commands...the Torah]: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

The Hebrew word for Sacrifice:

2077 zebach- sacrifice

- a) sacrifices of righteousness
- b) sacrifices of strife
- c) sacrifices to dead things
- d) the covenant sacrifice
- e) the Passover
- f) an annual sacrifice
- a) a thank-offering

The Hebrew Word For Offering:

4503 minchah (min-khaw'); from an unused root meaning to apportion, i.e. bestow; a donation; euphemistically, tribute; specifically a sacrificial offering (usually bloodless and voluntary):

4503 minchah- a gift, a tribute, an offering, a present, an oblation, a sacrifice, a meat-offering

- a) a gift, a present
- b) tribute
- c) an offering (to G-d)
- d) a grain-offering

KJV-- gift, oblation, (meat) offering, present, sacrifice.

The Hebrew word for desire:

2654 chaphets-

- 1) to delight in, to take pleasure in, to desire, to be pleased with (Qal)
  - a) used of men
- 2) to take pleasure in, to delight in
- 3) to delight, to desire, to be pleased to do
  - b) used of G-d
- 4) to delight in, to have pleasure in
- 5) to be pleased to do
- 6) to move, to bend down (Qal) to bend down

The Hebrew word for ears:

241 'ozen-

- 1) ear, as part of the body
- 2) ear, as an organ of hearing
- 3) (subjective) to uncover the ear to reveal; the receiver of divine revelation

The Hebrew word for sin offering:

2401 chata'ah- a sin, a sin-offering

- a) a sin
- b) a sin-offering

2401 chata'ah (khat-aw-aw'); feminine of 2399; an offense, or a sacrifice for it: KJV-- sin (offering).

SO WHAT HAVE WE SAID WITH THESE WORDS DEFINED IN THE HEBREW?

Answer for yourself: What is David really saying in this verse?

David is telling us that the killing and sacrificing of animals is not what G-d really wants of desires, for that is too easy and requires nothing from the sacrificer. Rather, he is telling us that G-d wants something more difficult from us, namely, for us to open our ears to hear His Word in order that we can live obediently to its precepts and commandments.

Answer for yourself: When did animals as sin offerings begin? After the golden calf. Think about that for a moment and wonder what and how man before the golden calf incident made himself right with G-d if there were no "sin offerings with animal sacrifice...yet. Sin offerings with animal sacrifice was a "punishment" upon Israel for "their" sin and literally pictures G-d stepping back from them because of such sin...from now on there was to be an "intermediary" called the Priesthood between Israel and G-d.

Answer for yourself: Are we to understand that sin offerings only began with the golden calf as this is the “Law” which was added to which Paul remarks? Yes

Gal 3:19

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions (golden calf),....

Answer for yourself: To which law does Paul refer...moral and ethical laws, or the laws of ceremonial sacrifice including the Aaronic Priesthood along with its Temple sacrifices? The Priesthood and the sacrifices accompanying it which was the result of the sin of the golden calf.

Answer for yourself: Does the writer of the book of Hebrews quote Psalm 40:6 in the New Testament?

Actually no, for he misquotes and changes the entire meaning intended by King David who originally wrote it. Where King David is calling men everywhere to open their ears and hear what G-d is telling them, the verse is changed completely by the writer of Hebrews in order to make it apply to Yeshua. Where as King David is telling us G-d does not want sacrifice but obedient lives in response to His Word as it is heard and lived out by mankind, the writer of Hebrews removes totally man's responsibility to listen and obey G-d's Word as G-d's ultimate desire in question and puts the whole of pleasing G-d upon the death of Yeshua without corresponding response of hearing and obedience by mankind. If you had not compared the verse yourself, you would have read the book of Hebrews thinking that David had said that, when in reality he never did.

Leviticus? No again. Where the “life” was pleasing to G-d and used for atonement in Leviticus, now the emphasis is upon “death” (crucified body...blood) in Hebrews as the pleasing instrument.

Answer for yourself: Where is the G-d that never changes and Who is the same yesterday, today, and forever in these quotes as taken from the New Testament?

Answer for yourself: Could it be that we have misunderstood atonement as Christians, and the Jewish people have been right all along?

REPENTANCE AS A FORM OF ATONEMENT

We all remember King David and his indiscretion with Bathsheba (2 Sam. 11:2-27). David received atonement not through animal sacrifice, but through a brief confessional prayer as seen in 2 Sam. 11:12:13:

2 Sam 12:13

13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

Notice that David only responded with six words: “I have sinned against the LORD.” Nathan was quick to point out that G-d heard his prayer of confession and had already forgiven him. This event in David's life would affect him the rest of his life and have a major impact upon the rest of his writings. Through this profound experience with Nathan, David came to understand that blood sacrifice is not an ideal atonement for sin. In psalm 51 King David beautifully describes how sincere repentance is what G-d always desired over animal sacrifice.

Ps 51:16-19

- 16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.
- 17 The sacrifices of G-d are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O G-d, thou wilt not despise.
- 18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

Something was to be required before animal sacrifices, in fact, it paved the way for them and make them acceptable. Such were the broken spirit and contrite heart of the repentant.

The Hebrew word for "broken"

7665 shabar- to break, to break in pieces

- a) (Qal) to despise, to regard with contempt
- b) (Niphal)
  - 1) to be despised
  - 2) to be despicable
  - 3) to be vile, to be worthless
- c) (Hiphil) to cause to despise

OBEDIENCE IS ALWAYS BETTER THAN A BLOOD SACRIFICE

We know that G-d cannot lie, nor the prophets or David, the writer of Psalms. We accept these as the foundations of your faith. Yet we have an irreconcilable problem when what is written in the Old Testament is compared with what is written in the New Testament. For example as shown before, Hebrews 9:22 leads us to believe that blood is the ONLY method for atonement, but in actuality it says “almost all things,” thus indicating that other ways are available for atonement. We are led to assume that animal sacrifices were the antitype of the crucifixion. Yet Samuel and Micah inform us that obedience is far superior to a blood sacrifice.

1 Sam 15:22

22 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? [NO]...Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. (KJV)

The above is a rhetorical question and the answer is obvious.

8085 shama` - as a verb:

- 1) to hear, to listen to, to obey
  - a) (Qal)
  - 1) to hear (perceive by ear)
  - 2) to hear of or concerning
  - 3) to hear (have power to hear)
  - 4) to hear with attention or interest, to listen to
  - 5) to understand (language)
  - 6) to hear (used of judicial cases)
  - 7) to listen, to give heed
  - a) to consent, to agree
  - b) to grant request
- 2) to listen to, to yield to
- 3) to obey, to be obedient

Answer for yourself: Is G-d teaching us that it is better to listen to Him, to hear His Word by our ears, to listen with interest, to understand, agree with what we have heard and thus obey than the sacrificial system? Yes.

7181 qashab- to hear, to be attentive, to heed, to incline (used of ears), to attend (used of ears), to hearken, to pay attention, to listen

- a) (Qal) incline, to attend (used of ears), to hearken, to pay attention, to listen
- b) (Hiphil) to pay attention, to give attention

7181 qashab (kaw-shab'); a primitive root; to prick up the ears, i.e. hearken: KJV-- attend, (cause to) hear (-ken), give heed, incline, mark (well), regard.

- a) (Niphal)
  - 1) to be heard (used of voice or sound)
  - 2) to be heard of
- b) to be regarded, to be obeyed
- c) (Piel) to cause to hear, to call to hear, to summon
- d) (Hiphil)
  - 1) to cause to hear, to tell, to proclaim, to utter a sound
  - 2) to sound aloud (a musical term)
  - 3) to make proclamation, to summon
  - 4) to cause to be heard as a masculine noun:
  - 5) sound

Answer for yourself: Does “to hearken” carry basically the same meaning as “to obey”? Yes.

Micah 6:6-8

- 6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high G-d? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?
- 7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
- 8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy G-d? (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Did you notice that in the presence of sacrifices, that G-d desires more that His subjects “do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly”?

First of all we notice that G-d “requires” something of us:

1875 darash- to resort to, seek, seek with care, enquire, require

- a) Qal
  - 1) to resort to, to frequent (a place), (to tread a place)
  - a) to consult, to enquire of, to seek
  - b) used of G-d
  - c) used of heathen gods, necromancers
- 2) to seek deity in prayer and worship
  - a) G-d
  - b) heathen deities
- 3) to seek (with a demand), to demand, to require
- 4) to investigate, to enquire
- 5) to ask for, to require, to demand
- 6) to practice, to study, to follow, to seek with application
- 7) to seek with care, to care for
  - b) (Niphal)
  - 1) to allow oneself to be inquired of, to be consulted (used only of G-d)
  - 2) to be sought, to be sought out

PRAYER REPLACES THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM...BECAUSE IT HAD ALWAYS EXISTED BEFORE SACRIFICES

Hosea 14:2-3

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. 3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: How has the writer of the book of Hebrews again changed the quote from the Hebrew Scriptures, and were you aware before now?

Heb. 13:15

- 15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to G-d continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. (KJV)

Answer for yourself: Can you see how problematic it was for the writer of Hebrews to quote Hosea 14:2-3 correctly?

To do so meant that the writer of Hebrews and his premise of “only blood” could not hold water, for after all Hosea had told his readers that they only need take “words” with them in their return to the LORD as they substitute for the bulls and blood of sacrifices praise and prayer unto G-d.

Answer for yourself: What is omitted entirely by the writer of Hebrews in alluding to the verse in Hosea? Any mention of the substitute of bulls as a form of atonement for prayers and praise as a form of atonement.

DID G-D EVER FOREWARN THE JEWISH PEOPLE AND PREPARE THEM FOR A TIME WHEN THEY WOULD NOT HAVE A TEMPLE AND BLOOD SACRIFICES FOR ATONEMENT? HOW COME CHRISTIANITY NEVER POINTED THIS OUT TO ME?

Of course G-d did. King Solomon prophetically looks into the future and relates the condition of the Jewish people in their future exile as he inaugurates the newly completed first temple. King Solomon prophetically anticipates the claims of Christendom, and assures them of the future generations of the Jewish diaspora that when the temple and Jerusalem are no longer here, confessional prayer will bring about a complete atonement for all transgressors. Throughout his whole prophetic declaration, King Solomon never says that the future Jewish exiles must believe in a crucified redeemer for an atonement. Let us examine what he actually said.

1 Kings 8:46-50

- 46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;
- 47 Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;
- 48 And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:
- 49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause,
- 50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them: (KJV)

2 Chr 6:36-39

- 36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;
- 37 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;
- 38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:

- 39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee. (KJV)

EZEKIEL ON ATONEMENT

Throughout this chapter, Ezekiel warns Israel that the doctrine of vicarious atonement is antithetical to the will of G-d. In addition, the prophet assures the Jewish people that it is the act of repentance alone that atones for sin.

Answer for yourself: In the following verses, does Ezekiel mention anything about blood or a crucified Messiah throughout this crucial chapter which has as its theme the doctrine of sin and atonement?

Ezek 18:1-4

- 1 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,
- 2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?
- 3 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.
- 4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. (KJV)

Ezek 18:19-23

- 19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.
- 20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.
- 21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.
- 22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.
- 23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? (KJV)

Ezek 33:10-11

1. 10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?
2. 11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? (KJV)

DOES THE BIBLE GIVE US AN EXAMPLE OF NON-JEWS REPENTING AND THUS HAVING THEIR SINS FORGIVEN WITHOUT BLOOD SACRIFICES?

Yes. The people of Ninevah.

Jonah 3:5-10

- 5 So the people of Nineveh believed G-d, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.
- 6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
- 7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:
- 8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto G-d: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.
- 9 Who can tell if G-d will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

SO WHY ALL THIS FUSS OVER YESHUA AS THE PASSOVER LAMB WHEN THE FESTIVAL OF PASSOVER HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH ATONEMENT ANYWAY.....SHOULD NOT YESHUA HAVE DIED ON YOM KIPPUR TO BE AN ATONEMENT?

In light of everything said so far, please understand that we are not trying to destroy anyone's faith in G-d or in Yeshua as the "non-Jews" example of G-dliness manifested through the flesh. Yet, we must be truthful to the Hebrew Text as well as the corruption, alterations, additions, and deletions in the Greek text once we come to understand them. Our faith must rest in truth, and not in desire to want to believe what we were told when we were little. G-d is seeking them to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth, and such a quest means we must be ruthless in our pursuit of truth. Having said that, understand our religious belief system must be based upon truth and not fantasy or anti-Semitic lies. Thus we at Bet Emet deal with issues most are afraid to address or even mention. Too often thoughts of doubt remain unspoken, when if exposed to the light of linguistic analysis, cultural and contextual analysis, have understandings that reveal G-d's wisdom and awesome plan of redemption.

Before, during, and after the destruction of Solomon and Herod's Temples there were blood sacrifices made by Jewish people. This continued for both the Jewish people, as well as those who were believers in Yeshua up and until 70 C.E (both Jew and Gentile). Bringing of blood sacrifices after the crucifixion of Yeshua by believers "in Yeshua" pose a difficult problem for the traditional Christian who has been taught his whole life that Yeshua did away with the sacrificial system. The evidence for believers in Jesus continually bringing blood offerings and sin offerings following his death proves to us, as found in Acts 21 for example, that the early church held different ideas about atonement than what we as Christians and followers of Jesus today have inherited from the Gentile Church following the destruction of the Temple and the scattering of the Jewish Church.

Answer for yourself: Just how did the Jews get forgiveness and justification from sin if they do not believe in Yeshua as their Messiah or that his sacrifice atoned for all their sins?

Answer for yourself: Does the Bible teach that forgiveness of sin is impossible outside a belief in Yeshua? No and we will see that clearly in a moment.

Answer for yourself: Does your church teach that forgiveness of sin is impossible outside a belief in Yeshua? Most likely.

Answer for yourself: Is it possible for the Jewish people to be justified before G-d yet be blinded to the identity of Yeshua? As foreign the idea is to the typical Christian, I believe that after you have examined the evidence presented you may have to say "Yes;" especially in light of the fact that the part in Romans 11 that says the Jews were "blinded" was written after 180 A.D. and only then included among the Pauline literature!

The traditional Christian's response to the above question is usually "No way." In this article I will challenge you with the Bible and the teaching of the Bible on the issue. What you will see in this article will challenge traditional Christian teaching on "salvation" as you have heard and know it.

Answer for yourself: Is the Bible to be our authority for our belief and practice, or our denominational doctrines which, as you know, vary immensely among the 22000 or more denominations that exist today? You have to answer that for yourself.

BELIEF- FAITH-ACTION:

The Bible states emphatically that no one was or is justified / forgiven by any way other than faith. Following are several quotes from the Encyclopedia Judaica (vol. 3, pp. 654-656):

"In Judaism the need for a profession of belief did not arise and rabbinic synods saw no necessity for a drawing up of concise formulas expressing Jewish beliefs. Theologically speaking, every Jew is born into G-d's covenant with the people of Israel, and membership in the community does not depend on credal affirmations of a formal character. Jewish beliefs are voiced in the form of prayer and in the twice-daily recital of the Shema...Deut. 6:4 'Listen (Heb. Shema) Israel, G-d is our Lord, G-d is One,' (The Living Torah)].

The formulation of articles of Jewish faith is largely a medieval development, even though Philo (first century C.E.) had spoken of eight essential principles of scriptural religion: (1) existence of G-d; (2) His Unity; (3) divine providence; (4) creation of the world; (5) unity of the world; (6) the existence of incorporeal ideas; (7) the revelation of the Law (Torah; oral and written); and (8) its eternity . . .

The fundamentals by Maimonides [1135-1204] are: (1) The existence of G-d which is perfect and sufficient unto itself and which is the cause of the existence of all other beings. (2) G-d's unity which is unlike all others of unity. (3) G-d must not be conceived in bodily terms, and the anthropomorphic expressions applied to G-d in Scripture have to be understood in a metaphorical sense. (4) G-d is eternal. (5) G-d alone is to be worshipped and obeyed. There are no mediating powers able freely to grant man's petitions, and intermediaries must not be invoked. (6) Prophecy. (7) Moses is unsurpassed by any other prophet. (8) The entire Torah was given to Moses. (9) Moses' Torah will not be abrogated or superseded by another divine law nor will anything be added to, or taken away from it. (10) G-d knows the actions of men. (11) G-d rewards those who fulfill the commandments of the Torah, and punishes those who transgress them. (12) The coming of the Messiah. (13) The resurrection of the dead."

The Hebrew word Emunah has a two-fold connotation - theological and human. It signifies a like faith and trust in G-d, and faithfulness, honesty, and integrity in human relations. These two concepts of Emunah do not conflict with each other. In Judaism, unlike other religions (and we must never forget that Yeshua is Jewish and always adhered to Judaism and not Christianity), faith is not some mystical quality charged with supernatural powers capable of winning divine favor and grace. Faith is a dynamic, a motive of faithfulness, and faith is of value only in so far as it is productive of faithful action; nor is there any faithful action that is not rooted in faith in G-d. The man of faithfulness is an Ish Emunah (man of faith), and the man of faith is a Ba'al Emunah (possessor of faith). For it is the man of the highest faith in G-d who is the man of the greatest faithfulness in dealing with his fellow man; and it is only the man of faithfulness who can truly be considered a man of faith.

From the above information we can see that it is belief in G-d and not sacrifices that produce the beginning of a relationship with G-d. Abraham, a ben Noah, is the archtype of all people of faith.

"And he (Abraham) believed in the LORD (YHVH); and he (YHVH) counted it to him (Abraham) for righteousness" (Gen. 15:6).

It was his belief in YHVH that caused Abraham to move from the land of his father and make his home in a strange land. But Abraham's belief (faith), to be acceptable by G-d, had to produce actions based upon such faith! IT MUST BE NOTED THAT ACTIONS DID NOT PRODUCE THE FAITH! One must have faith first! This is the formula that is shown throughout Tanakh. The members of the Nazarene Sect possessed this same belief.

"For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath something of which to glory, but not before G-d. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed G-d, and it was counted unto him for righteousness (literally Justification, Strong's # 1343).

Lexicon Greek 1343

- 1a) the doctrine concerning the way in which man may attain a state approved of G-d!!!!!!!!!!!!
- 1b) integrity, virtue, purity of life, rightness, correctness of thinking feeling, and acting!!!!!!!!!!!!
- 2) in a narrower sense, justice or the virtue which gives each his due

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him (YHVH) that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness (literally justification). [Strong's # 1343]. (Rom. 4:2-5).

"Even as Abraham believed G-d, and it was accounted to him for righteousness (Justification, Strong's 1343). Know ye, therefore that they who are of faith, the same are the sons of Abraham " (Gal. 3: 6- 7).

Answer for yourself: Whom did Abraham believe that brought him righteousness? G-d (YHVH)..

"For without faith it is impossible to please him (YHVH); for he that cometh to G-d must believe that he (YHVH) is, and that he (YHVH) is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him (YHVH) " (Heb. 11: 6).

Answer for yourself: Who are we to come to..Yeshua or YHVH? YHVH

Answer for yourself: Who made it possible for Gentile to know YHVH and understand those things necessary whereby we could come to YHVH? Yeshua

"Thou believes" that there is one G-d; thou doest well. The demons also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead. Was not Abraham, our father, justified by works (not faith alone), when he had offered Isaac, his son, upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works and by works was faith made perfect (complete)? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed G-d, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness (literally justification); and he was called a friend of G-d: (Jas. 2:19-23).

Answer for yourself: Will faith in Yeshua without proper works result in "complete faith?" No.

Answer for yourself: Should our faith in Yeshua not be so much in his identity but his message which commanded actions that pleased his Father? Yes.

LOOKING AT OUR EXAMPLES

The Nazarene Sect went one step further than what is mentioned in the Hebrew Scriptures. The Nazarenes equated faith in G-d with faith in His messiah (HIS MESSAGE). To the early Jerusalem Church if one believed in G-d this would result in believing that Yeshua (Yeshua) was G-d's Messiah who came with an authoritative message and warning.

"And this is life eternal, that they might KNOW thee, THE ONLY TRUE G-D, and Yeshua Christ (Messiah) whom THOU (G-d) hast sent (Jn. 17. 3).

3 And <1161> this <3778> is <2076> (5748) life <2222> eternal <166>, that <2443> they might know <1097> (5725) thee <4571> the only <3441> true <228> G-d <2316>, and <2532> Yeshua <2424> Christ <5547>, whom <3739> thou hast sent <649> (5656).

Answer for yourself: Is there a connection between eternal life and acquiring know-ledge of G-d? Yes.

Let us examine the Greek word used in "they might know:"

Lexicon Greek 1097

1097 ginosko {ghin-oc'e'-ko} a prolonged form of a primary verb; TDNT - 1:689,119; v AV - know 196, perceive 9, understand 8, misc 10; 223

- 1) to learn to know, come to know, get a knowledge of perceive, feel
- 1a) to become known
- 2) to know, understand, perceive, have knowledge of
- 2a) to understand
- 2b) to know
- 3) Jewish idiom for sexual intercourse between a man and a woman
- 4) to become acquainted with, to know

We are to "know G-d." "Knowing" is in the present tense and active voice. That means each one is himself responsible to acquire knowledge of G-d and His ways through study of His holy Word. Failure to study G-d's Torah has deceived millions into believing they are right with and in proper relationship with G-d because they belong to a church or hear 30 minutes of preaching a week. They are deceived and are in error.

Answer for yourself: Does the Bible teach us that we can know for sure that we "know G-d?" Yes.

1 John 2:3 And <2532> hereby <1722> <5129> we do know <1097> (5719) that <3754> we know <1097> (5758) him <846>, if <1437> we keep <5083> (5725) his <846> commandments <1785>.

Answer for yourself: Is the word "know" as in "know him" the same word used in John 17:3..."here is life eternal...that we know G-d?" Yes.

Answer for yourself: Does knowing the commandments and keeping them assure us of eternal life? Yes.

"But these are WRITTEN, that ye might BELIEVE that Yeshua is THE CHRIST" (Messiah), 'THE SON OF G-D) (not G-d the son); and that believing, ye might have life through his (G-d, remember Abraham believed G-d) name" [G-d's Name] (Jn. 20:31).

Thus life (eternal life) comes through believing through the same name that Abraham believed in...namely; Yahweh and not Yeshua. Have faith in G-d!

Abraham believed "G-d" (he believed what G-d had said) and then it was accounted unto him as righteousness.

Answer for yourself: Why am I making a difference between believing G-d vs believing in Jesus? Simply because the Gentile writers and redactors of the New Testament have put into the mouth of Jesus as well as others who write of him many doctrines that the historical Jesus, let alone the Messiah, could never have believed and which are totally foreign to the faith of the Jews. Literally paganism has been put into the mouth of Jesus and others in the New Testament in many, but not all places. The hard thing for the average believer to do is to discern the meat from the bone and this can be done only after years of study.

Answer for yourself: Would you believe the Bible more than what you often hear preached when shown that what you heard preached is in error when compared to the Bible? Don't be so quick to answer for many I know who say "yes" end up not repenting when shown error; they would rather continue following the errors and traditions of men for that is all they have ever known. To walk in a new direction when shown your errors is possibly one of the greatest manifestations of faith that man can exhibit before G-d.

John states the purpose of his writing:

- 1. ". . . that they mighty KNOW Thee (G-d...not your church or denominational doctrines), THE ONLY TRUE G-D (YHVH), and Yeshua Christ (Messiah) WHOM THOU HAST SENT"
- 2. ". . . these are written, that ye might BELIEVE THAT JESUS IS THE CHRIST (Messiah), THE SON OF G-D."

In view of the above statements made by the writer let us read John 3:16 in the following light. Get ready for the shock of your life!

"For G-d so loved the world that He (G-d) gave His (G-d) only begotten Son (Yeshua the Messiah) that whosoever believeth in Him (G-d) should not perish but have everlasting life."

Answer for yourself: Did you notice a monumental difference in the correct wording above over what you have accepted previously?

Answer for yourself: Have we mistakenly misunderstood to whom our faith as Christians is to be directed toward? We sure have.

Answer for yourself: Are we to direct our faith to another or G-d alone as did Abraham? G-d alone as did Abraham.

FAITH IN THE G-D (YHVH) OF YESHUA JUSTIFIES...NOT FAITH "IN YESHUA"

Let us examine three references that show clearly that it is faith in the G-d of Yeshua, not faith in Yeshua which results in justification.

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Yeshua, and shalt BELIEVE IN THINE HEART (MIND) THAT G-D RAISED HIM (Yeshua) from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Rom.

10:9).

Answer for yourself: In this passage who is the active participant...Yeshua or G-d? G-d.

Answer for yourself: Does the above passage say we are to have faith in the acts of G-d; one of which is the resurrection of Yeshua? Yes.

Answer for yourself: Does the passage say that we are to confess that Yeshua is Lord (the Gentile's example and whose authority we follow) as well as relegating our faith to the G-d of Yeshua and not Yeshua? Yes.

Answer for yourself: Would it bother you to know that the above passage, Rom. 10:9-10, was not in the writings collected in 150 A.D. when the first New Testament was organized but only after 180 A.D. would such passages show up in the Second collection of writings we call the New Testament? What is also very troubling is that the collector of the First New Testament in 150 A.D. (Marcion) was staunchly pro-Pauline and there is no reason why such an anti-Jewish passage would not have been collected and used by Marcion in his tirade against the Jews.

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord (YHVH .. Joel 2:23) shall be saved " (Rom. 10:13).

Answer for yourself: Is Rom. 10:13 a quote from the Hebrew Scriptures and the book of Joel 2:32? Yes.

Answer for yourself: Are we to call upon YHVH or Yeshua?

Answer for yourself: Does the "Lord" in this verse (Rom. 10:13) as quoted from Joel refers to YHVH or Yeshua? Let us examine Joel 2:32 to determine correctly.

Answer for yourself: Would it bother you to know that the above passage, let alone the whole of Romans chapters 9-11, were not in the New Testament until after 180 A.D.? As stated earlier such passages were not available for men like Marcion and others to use since they did not exist until after 180 A.D. when Irenaeus presents us with his response to Marcion; it is called the official New Testament (the second one).

Let us examine the passage from Joel 2:32 from which the Gentile writers of the New Testament derived their theology

Joel 2:32 And it shall come to pass, [that] whosoever shall call <7121> (8799) on the name <8034> of the LORD <3068> shall be delivered <4422> (8735): for in mount <2022> Zion <6726> and in Jerusalem <3389> shall be deliverance <6413>, as the LORD <3068> hath said <559> (8804), and in the remnant <8300> whom the LORD <3068> shall call <7121> (8802).

The Hebrew word for "LORD" is as follows:

BDB/Thayers # 3068

03068 Yehovah {yeh-ho-vaw'} from 01961; TWOT - 484a; n pr dei AV - LORD 6510, G-D 4, JEHOVAH 4, variant 1; 6519 Jehovah = "the existing One"

1) the proper name of the one true G-d...YHVH/Jehovah

Answer for yourself: Is Paul quoting a Scripture to tell us to call upon YHVH or Yeshua? You can clearly see now that we are to call upon Yahweh but if you are honest you find this passage always taught as if one is to believe on "Jesus."

Answer for yourself: Have we been taught to trust Yeshua or Yahweh for your salvation and to call out to Yeshua or Yahweh for salvation? Yeshua on both counts, yet the original Scriptures teach otherwise. Get ready for another shock to your system.

"Who by him (Yeshua) do (we Gentiles) BELIEVE IN G-D, WHO RAISED HIM (Yeshua) FROM THE DEAD and gave him (Yeshua) glory, that YOUR FAITH AND HOPE MIGHT BE IN G-D" (and not Yeshua) (1 Pet. 1. 21).

Answer for yourself: Was the purpose of Yeshua to get us to have faith in him or in his Father YHVH? YHVH.

Answer for yourself: As Gentiles, who were strangers from the covenant promises, aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, without hope and without G-d in the world, are we to understand that the purpose of Yeshua and his ministry was to get us to G-d and not get us to himself (Yeshua)? Yes, he came to get us to G-d.

Answer for yourself: Can you as a Christian say and understand that we Gentiles came to believe in G-d (YHVH) because of His Messiah who gave his life that the message of the commandments might be taken to the world in the Great Commission (teach them to observe those things I commanded you)? Yes.

In the verses cited, it is faith in the G-d who raised Yeshua, not faith in Yeshua that brings justification. This is literally an atomic bomb to the Christian church which focuses on Yeshua to the exclusion of YHVH, faith in Yeshua to the exclusion of faith in YHVH, and on the New Testament writings to the exclusion of the Hebrew Bible. The Nazarenes view of the first century (Yeshua's church) was that faith in G-d would result in believing that Yeshua was the Messiah of YHVH. This is not the same as faith in "the blood" of Yeshua, but in the Father of Yeshua.

Clearly the Nazarene Sect viewed justification as coming from faith in G-d, not from blood sacrifices (whether animal or human as taught about Yeshua). Justification means to declare just. The belief (faith) in G-d resulted in them being declared just as they obeyed the commandments of YHVH. James, the brother of Yeshua, declared that justification will result in works (action). The context of the passage would reflect the specific action taken.

Isaiah was a favorite source for the Nazarenes. Let us examine Isaiah's view of ransom / justification / redemption.

"Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together. Who hath declared this from ancient time? Who hath told it from that time? Have not I, the Lord (YHVH)? And THERE IS NO G-D ELSE BESIDES ME, A JUST G-D AND SAVIOR; THERE IS NONE BESIDES ME. Look unto ME (YHVH) AND BE SAVED, ALL THE ENDS OF THE EARTH (Heb. Adam i.e., all mankind-Gentiles); For I am G-d, and there is none else. (Isa. 45. 21-22).

Answer for yourself: Does Isaiah tell the Gentile world to look to Yeshua to be saved or to YHVH to be saved? Look unto YHVH.

The death of Jesus served as a catalyst that brought repentance to the Jewish religious establishment in the first century C.E. by the taking the Laws of Noah to the world for manifestations of obedience of their new faith in the ONE true G-d...YHVH. The Nazarene community knew quite well that Gentile faith without works was a dead faith; thus the teaching directed toward them "to observe those things Yeshua had commanded...for the words he spoke were not his, but his Father's in heaven.

Remember the former things of old; for I am G-d, and THERE IS NONE ELSE; I am G-d, and there is none like me, Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure (Isa. 46:9-10).

Thus saith the Lord (YHVH), THY REDEEMER, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord (YHVH) thy G-d, who teacheth thee to profit, who LEADETH THEE BY THE WAY THAT THOU SHOULDEST GO" (Isa. 48:17).

The Hebrew writings as well as the writings of the Nazarenes agree. It is faith in G-d (YHVH) which makes one just in the sight of YHVH. It is this faith that responds in obedience to YHVH's mitzvot (commandments).

I have quoted the Jewish (Judaism's) concept of faith and works in the above section. We have seen the Nazarene (Messianic) Sects' concept of faith, both are in agreement, FAITH COMES BECAUSE OF BELIEF IN G-D (YHVH).

JUSTIFICATION: FAITH OR BLOOD? BLOOD - FACTS:

Answer for yourself: What do we do with all those passages dealing with the idea of blood and blood sacrifices since what we supposed was "faith in Yeshua" in reality is "faith in G-d" instead? This will be the subject of our next section.

Answer for yourself: Was a blood sacrifice required each time a Jew sinned? No!

Answer for yourself: Was a blood sacrifice the only way to obtain atonement (a covering for sin): No!

The person making the sacrifice brought the sacrifice to the Temple ONLY after he had acknowledged his transgression and previously confessed. Let us look at passages in Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers for the requirements of a sacrifice. Your further study is recommended in the Encyclopedia Judaica vol. 1, index p. 730 regarding various aspects of sacrifices.

Answer for yourself: What about those Jews who lived in Asia Minor and other parts of the world who did not have access to the Temple for animal sacrifices? How did they obtain forgiveness?

They could not run down to Jerusalem each time they needed to make a sacrifice.

The key verse for those (unenlightened and knowledgeable Christians) who would try to make blood sacrifices the only means of atonement is Leviticus 17. 11.

"For the life of the flesh is the blood; and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul."

Rashi makes the following observation. Because life is dependent upon the blood, G-d designed blood as the medium that goes upon the Altar for atonement, as if to say, 'Let one life be offered to atone for another.' So it is not appropriate for it to be eaten. Notice two things:

1. The shedding of blood brings atonement.
2. Blood is not to be eaten by any man.

Answer for yourself: What does this verse not say?

It does not say that a blood sacrifice is the only means of gaining atonement!

Answer for yourself: Should the New Testament writings contradict the Hebrew Old Testament Scriptures? No. Does it? Yes. Where? Many places...for example...

Hebrews 9:22 And <2532> almost <4975> all things <3956> are <2511> <0> by <2596> the law <3551> purged <2511> (5743) with <1722> blood <129>; and <2532> without <5565> shedding of blood <130> is <1096> (5736) no <3756> remission <859>.

The Greek Word For "Purged"

Lexicon Greek 2511 katharizo {kath-ar-id'-zo} from 2513; TDNT - 3:413,381; v AV - cleanse 16, make clean 5, be clean 3, purge 3, purify 3; 30

- 1) to make clean, cleanse
  - 1a) from physical stains and dirt
  - 1a1) utensils, food
  - 1a2) a leper, to cleanse by curing
  - 1a3) to remove by cleansing
  - 1b) in a moral sense
  - 1b1) to free from defilement of sin and from faults
  - 1b2) to purify from wickedness
  - 1b3) to free from guilt of sin, to purify
  - 1b4) to consecrate by cleansing or purifying
  - 1b5) to consecrate, dedicate
- 2) to pronounce clean in a levitical sense

Answer for yourself: Does Heb. 9:22 say "all things" are purged by blood or "almost all?" Almost all.

Answer for yourself: Does the Bible teach that without the shedding of blood that there is no forgiveness of sins or does Heb. 9:22 teach that only? No the Bible does not, but Heb. 9:22 is bogus. Heb. 9:22 teaches that in error, for having previously proven repeatedly that there is not a "New Covenant" existing yet, but only a renewed Old Covenant, there is absolutely no warrant for changing the Words of G-d in the Hebrew Scriptures as has been done by those wishing to create a new religion about Yeshua instead of following the religion of Yeshua.

NON-BLOOD ATONEMENT AS TAUGHT BY THE BIBLE

Answer for yourself: Will you let the Bible dictate what you are to believe and not Catholic theology which has been written into the New Testament manuscripts in places which contradict Moses and the Bible Yeshua used, as well as where Biblical and Jewish doctrines were, in Gentile estimation, to be changed? I hope so.

Leviticus 5:11-13 'But IF HE BE NOT ABLE (if he is too poor) to bring two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, then he that SINNED shall BRING his offering THE TENTH PART OF AN EPHAH OF FINE FLOUR FOR A SIN OFFERING; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon; FOR IT IS A SIN OFFERING...And the priest shall MAKE AN ATONEMENT FOR HIM AS TOUGHING HIS SIN that he hath sinned in one of these, and IT SHALL BE FORGIVEN HIM; and the remnant shall be the priest's as a meal offering.'

This passage reveals that A PERSON can bring his own atonement offering and that flour can be offered for sin when one cannot afford turtledoves (blood).

Exodus 30.16 "And thou shalt TAKE THE ATONEMENT MONEY OF THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL...to make AN ATONEMENT FOR YOUR SOULS." Money was given as a ransom / atonement for the people when they were numbered.

This emphasizes the concept of giving that is connected to the tithe (Matt. 19 and Matt. 25 giving to the poor is connected to eternal life).

Isaiah 6:4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. {door: Heb. thresholds} 5 Then said I, Woe [is] me! for I am undone; because I [am] a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. {undone: Heb. cut off} 6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, [which] he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: {having...: Heb. and in his hand a live coal} 7 And he laid [it] upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

This passage emphasizes confession of sin for atonement.

Answer for yourself: What is the main action that purges sin in Isa. 6:4-7? The merciful sovereignty of G-d mixed with our awareness of our sin as revealed by His Torah and our great need of G-d's grace.

Isaiah 27:8-11 In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. {it shooteth...: or, thou sendest it forth} {he...: or, when he removeth it with} 9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this [is] all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. {images: or, sun images} 10 Yet the defenced city [shall be] desolate, [and] the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof. 11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, [and] set them on fire: for it [is] a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour.

Answer for yourself: What is the main action that purges sin in the Isa. 27:8-11 text? The destruction of idolatry by zealous believers in YHVH.

Isaiah 55:7 Let the wicked <7563> forsake <5800> (8799) his way <1870>, and the unrighteous <205> man <376> his thoughts <4284>: and let him return <7725> (8799) unto the LORD <3068>, and he will have mercy <7355> (8762) upon him; and to our G-d <430>, for he will abundantly <7235> (8686) pardon <5545> (8800). {the unrighteous...: Heb. the man of iniquity} {abundantly...: Heb. multiply to pardon}

Jeremiah 50:20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and [there shall be] none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

"I will pardon" is in the imperfect tense:

Lexicon Hebrew 8811 08811 Imperfect

- The imperfect expresses an action, process or condition which is incomplete, and it has a wide range of meaning:
- It is used to describe a single (as opposed to a repeated) action in the past; the imperfect adds color and movement by suggesting the "process" preliminary to its completion.
- The imperfect is used to express the "future", referring not only to an action which is about to be accomplished but one which has not yet begun:

- 1b3) to be required (of blood)

Answer for yourself: What are the dynamics that affected forgiveness? Praise, prayer, and study.

Psalms 78:37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant. 38 But he, [being] full of compassion, forgave [their] iniquity, and destroyed [them] not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. 39 For he remembered that they [were but] flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

Answer for yourself: What are the dynamics involved in this forgiveness? The mercy of G-d alone.

The above passages show that the individual Jew could obtain forgiveness in various ways: repentance, prayer, study, meal and flour offerings, money, jewelry, or simply out of the pure mercy of G-d. A blood sacrifice was not the only means of atonement.

Hosea, the prophet, states: "For I desire MERCY, and NOT SACRIFICE, and THE KNOWLEDGE OF G-D MORE THAN BURNT OFFERINGS" [which were blood sacrifices] (Hosea 6:6).

Answer for yourself: Is the knowledge of G-d from His Word and Torah greater than any blood sacrifice? Yes.

Answer for yourself: How can we obtain the knowledge of G-d? Study.

Answer for yourself: How could Abraham believe G-d without a knowledge of Him? The answer is he could not!

Answer for yourself: How did the great men of the Hebrew Bible obtain justification / atonement / ransom when they lived outside the land of Israel (remember there was no way for him to continuously bring blood offerings on a routine basis throughout the year for atonement and forgiveness)? G-d provided other ways just as effective as blood and burnt offerings (other ways than blood).

Answer for yourself: What about all those who lived for G-d after the destruction of Solomon's Temple (422 B.C.E.)? There were always other ways than blood and these "non-blood" atonements were not created "after the fact" so to speak.

Answer for yourself: What did the people do to be rightly related to G-d from the destruction of the First Temple until Ezra and Nehemiah returned and began the rebuilding of the Temple?

These people without Temple, priesthood, or offering, by faith in G-d maintained a relationship with Him. They believed G-d as did their father Abraham, and it was accounted to them for justification. Their belief was exhibited in G-dly actions prescribed by His Torah and not "good works" alone, for every good work is not a godly work. Many good works are motivated by the unconscious self, and since the heart is desperately wicked and we cannot know it, the only sure way to be sure that we "know HIM" is for us to keep His COMMANDMENTS and not our best intentions.

Ezekiel 11:16 "Thus saith the Lord G-d: Although I have cast them far off among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the countries, YET WILL I BE TO THEM A LITTLE SANCTUARY (Hebrew Temple) in the counties where they shall come."

Numbers 15:38-39 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a cord of blue; And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own hearts and your own eyes, after which ye used to play the harlot."

There were certain laws which only could be observed in the land. There were others that could be only observed when the Temple stood. While out of the land and without the benefits of the Temple, the individual Jew could look at the fringes on his garment and be reminded of the commandments of G-d. He would also be reminded that G-d would be to him a little Temple in the land of his so-journey. When the individual Jew acknowledged the commandments he would identify himself with G-d who dwelled in the Temple.

Each time the ancient Hebrew looked upon his "garment," the knots and "color" of blue reminded him of all the laws, ordinances, and commandments.

In keeping with our discussion of faith, the individual Jew did not need a set of dogma. He had a relationship with G-d based on belief in G-d not blood from animals. No Orthodox Jew I have ever spoken with indicated that a Jew was justified / atoned / redeemed by blood. It was a belief in G-d that produced G-dly actions that maintained his fellowship and relationship with YHVH.

Jonah, a Jewish prophet, who goes to a city of bnai Noah, Nineveh, proclaimed the judgment of G-d, "... yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown" (Jonah 3:4). The result of this message is spelled out in the text of the third chapter.

"So the people of Nineveh BELIEVED G-D, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them . . . the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, let neither man nor beast, nor herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water. . CRY MIGHTILY unto G-d; yea, let them TURN (lit. repent) everyone FROM HIS EVIL WAY (from sins in general), AND FROM THE VIOLENCE (Hebrew-robbery," which is one of the seven laws of Noah) THAT IS IN THEIR HANDS...AND G-D SAW THEIR WORKS, that they turned from their evil ways (sins in general and specifically).

When the people repented of their sins G-d did not overthrow the kingdom. The text does not say that the people did not have faith in G-d before the coming of Jonah. What the text does say is the people of Nineveh were guilty of theft. When this is called to their attention "the people of Nineveh believed G-d," (they believed that He would overthrow them). This shows they possessed a knowledge of G-d before Jonah came to them. They did not offer a blood sacrifice. They "cried mightily unto G-d . . . and G-d saw their works (G-dly actions in response to their repentance), that they turned from their evil ways." Like Abraham, and all men of faith, their belief in G-d resulted in G-dly actions.

I am aware of passages in the New Testament writings that would suggest a justification / atonement / redemption based on blood sacrifices. There are verses that show a human sacrifice, which is specifically prohibited in the Hebrew writings. Following is a partial list of passages: Luke 22:20; I Corinthians 11:25-27; Ephesians 1:7; 2:13; Colossians 1:14,20; Hebrews 9:12,18,20,22; 10:19,29; 13:12,20; 1 Peter 1:2,19; I John 1:9; Revelation 1:5; 5:9; 12:11.

Answer for yourself: Having seen what is presented in this article, is it possible we have not fully and correctly interpreted the death of Yeshua, for after all, he did not die on the altar in the Temple? This bears more study.

Following is a partial list of passages from the Hebrew Scriptures which show that G-d specifically prohibited human sacrifice. Some would say that Yeshua was different. He was god-man. Regardless who they say he is or was does not abrogate the clear teaching of the Hebrew Scriptures. All the teaching of Yeshua and his followers had as their basics the Hebrew Scriptures.

'Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy G-d; for every abomination of the Lord, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods. For even their sons and daughters they have burned in the fire to their gods. Whatsoever thing I command you, observe to do it; thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it' (Deut. 12:31-32).

'And they served their idols, which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto demons ' (Psa. 106:36-37)

And they have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the Son of Hinnon, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart' (Jer. 7:31).

Answer for yourself: What can we deduct from the above references?

G-d views human sacrifice as an abomination. He hates it and issued a specific prohibition regarding such sacrifices. There were to be no additions or deletions from the prohibition.

Answer for yourself: Could the Gentile Christian church, in retrospect, possibly interpreted the death of Yeshua in ways which were unacceptable to the faith of Yeshua, and could possibly the Jew be right today in many areas where Gentile Christianity has erred in their interpretation? This again bears your personal study.

Human sacrifice was viewed as an offering to demons.

Jeremiah reaffirms the commandment from Deuteronomy. Human sacrifice did not come as a command from G-d, "neither came it into my (YHVH'S) heart (mind or thoughts)."

Answer for yourself: How does this stack up with "Messiah being crucified before the foundation of the world" (a totally solar belief by sun-worshippers-intersection of the celestial and the elliptical orbits of sun and earth making a "cross" where they intersect...the sun/son on the cross)? Have we been taught wrong by the Gentiles for two thousand years and accepted the wrong meaning given to the death of Jesus due to the rejection of Jewish beliefs by the Gentiles some 2 thousand years ago?

The sum of the matter is that no person has ever been justified by blood from humans.

True Saving Faith always results in G-dly actions which are responses to G-d's Word, Law, and Commandments; which in reality is the fruit of our saving faith.
